The reports of the year are encouraging. We're working with the boys and girls—the future of the church of tomorrow rests with them," commented Dr. Smith.

Rotarians Are Told about Youth Hostels in Detroit Area

Youth Hostels and their contribution to American youth, the aim of the movement and its aspirations in southeastern Michigan, was the subject presented in word and picture before the Northville Rotary club Tuesday noon.

Roy Robinson, principal of Liberty high school, Highland Park, and Miss Miriam Hall, who was formerly on the staff of the American Youth Hostel, and now following the work as a hobby, brought the message of the hour.

Mr. Robinson spoke before the Mother's club here about two months ago. The speakers were introduced by Supt. R. H. Armerman. Mr. Robinson stated that only one-fifth of the youth of this nation between 16 and 25 years have ever had a job. The youth of today were the group who weathered the trials of the 30-40 period with its repercussions. And a generation who always had jobs finds it hard to understand the youth of today. At times we treat them as babies, but should the nation go to war, this group would be the backbone of the nation.

Men Hired To Push Machine in Pit; Wants Insurance; Held by Police

From a watery grave in the Northville gravel pit, Northville and State police pulled out a car Monday evening by Detroit. Korman Bouche of 3010 South Clarendon avenue.

Mr. Bouche admitted, was sent to his watery resting place by Douglas Frew, age 18, of 4233 Seabolt avenue, Detroit, and Thomas Sanderson, age 21, of 9932 Yosemite avenue, Detroit, whom Bouche had hired.

It all came about because Bouche wanted to trade his car (1940 model) in on a different make, but the allowance offered was less than the insurance on his own car.

After the debunking in the gravel pit, Bouche reported to Detroit police that his car had been stolen. The charged lodged against him was that of making a false theft report—a misdemeanor which carries a possible 90-day jail sentence.

New Sket Field Soon To Open

Arrangements have been made to lay board walks to the different stations, and the regular shoots should be under way in at least another week.

Golf Club Gets Ready for Season

Shave, Cox, Rutenbar and Mrs. Roof Take Up Posts at Meadowbrook

Can at the Meadowbrook Country club everything be in readiness for the new season? Ernie Shaw, golf pro has returned from a winter in Florida. Bert Cox, manager, has been on duty—except for a short trip South for several weeks, and Bert Rutenbar, greenskeeper, has just had himself elected a director of the Michigan and Border Cities Course Superintendent's Association.

Too, Mrs. Emory Roof, who has charge of the office, is back at her desk, after a winter in the downtown office in Detroit.

In addition to redecorating the grill rooms of the club, an improvement program for the greens, begun some seasons ago, has taken a step forward. It's the policy out Meadowbrook way to plant trees for a dual purpose—that of beautifying the course and creating a natural hazard that is considered as effective as a string of trips.

Meadowbrook has enlarged its trees, too, to add variety. Every once in a while, the markers are moved so that the player faces different problems with his drives.

Carter Discusses Reading Problems

Prin. Paul D. Carter of the Northville grade school was the guest speaker Monday evening when members of the Mothers' club met at the home of Mrs. Eural Clark, where Mrs. Harry C. Duerson was assistant hostess.

At this time a gift collection of exceptionally well illustrated children's books was exhibited. The purchase of the books was made possible by the club's donation of $150 to the grade school for the purpose of addition to the library and buying manual training equipment.

"This Matter of Reading" was Mr. Carter's topic. The development of philosophies and techniques of teaching beginning-reading was the basis for discussion. According to the speaker, the implications of the non-oral method of teaching reading are significant and may profoundly affect prevailing practices in the public school.

"The printed word is primarily an eye language not a lip and ear means of communication," Mr. Carter stated. "Emphasis upon oral reading in the primary grades tends to produce slow, halting, word readers, rather than rapidly-moving, thoughtful readers he stressed."

Exchangites Hold 17th Birthday Party, Apr. 24

Harold Harter of National Office, Sees Charter Members Get Pins

Celebrating its seventeenth birthday the Northville Exchange club listened to an inspiring talk by Harold Harter, executive secretary of the national organization, passed the birthday cake, rememmed, and honored C. A. Ely, E. L. Smith and L. C. Stewart, charter members, by presenting them with service pins.

A huge two-story pyramid birthday cake with 17 candles graced the speaker's table, a gift of Mrs. Elliott of Trenton, former member of the club. The cake when dexterously cut by Messrs. Church and Clark was indeed the piece de resistance of an excellent meal served by the women of the Methodist church.

Pres. Harold Church called upon Secretary C. A. Ely to preside as lists of members—former and present, of the past presidents and deceased members were read. A short history of the club was given by Mr. Dolph.

Mr. Harter, commented the club and its personnel on its work, and its influence for good in the community. He paid honor to those of the membership who had stood by through the years to make the club what it is today. From his founding, Exchange has stressed American Citizenship and has made itself by choice a distinctly American organization. Through the years, the club has stressed aviation as the first line of national defense, and continuously a potent factor in emphasizing preparedness. He called by Exchangites to stand for adequate defense, and to speak softly but help their nation carry a big stick in international affairs; to keep out of the European mess—stating that nothing there was worth an American dollar or an American life. He directed attention to the last war, and suggested that American diplomats might serve their country best by talking less.

A large number of visitors of the club were present for the occasion. Among the guests, besides the national secretary, were: Orlow G. Owen, Wm. Elliott of Trenton, Robert Yerkes of Ann Arbor, Sennell Ambler, Dr. Wm. Richards, and several others.

Will Use Viaduct for Village Dump; Close Linden Site

Garbage Is Not To Be Left in New Dump, Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery Warns

To Pick up Rubbish

The announcement of the change of location of the village dump from Linden street to the Pere Marquette viaduct and the weekly pickup schedule of rubbish in Northville came this week from Street Commissioner Earl Montgomery.

To replace the dump on Linden street, which has been filled to capacity, the Pere Marquette railway officials have granted the village authority to dump rubbish under the viaduct, to the right off the Northville road.

"It's to be understood by all persons who use this dump that garbage is not to be left there," asserted Mr. Montgomery.

Because the village truck will be sent through the residential district every Saturday to pick up rubbish, no particular week will be set aside this year for a village-wide cleanup campaign.

Persons who want the village to haul away rubbish, are asked to put their rubbish cans but no ashes or garbage in containers at the curb. This service will start Saturday, Apr. 27.

Final Dates Are Set for AAA Farm Plans for 1940

Wayne county farmers have until May 1 to sign their 1940 AAA farm plans, Maurice C. Bird, chairman of the Wayne County Triple A committee, announced today.

"The farm plan shows the soil-depleting acreage allotments, the soil building plan, and the maximum payment which can be earned by each farm through cooperation with the Agricultural Conservation Program," Mr. Bird said.

According to Mr. Bird, this basic information is worked out in the county AAA office, but the details of how the plan applies to the individual farm are worked out by the farmer and a community committee.

Farmers who intend to cooperate with farm program sign their farm plans, indicating that they want their farms inspected this summer to determine performance.

Mr. Bird urges all farmers who plan to participate in the 1940 AAA program but have not as yet signed their farm plans, to see their local Triple A committee as soon as possible.

● Paint Up!—Fix Up!—Clean Up!...

Spring is here even though the weather may not be so warm and mild as you would like to have it. Nevertheless, it's time to do many things that have been waiting to be done for weeks. There are old leaves that need raking. There are some bare spots on the lawn that need seeding. Farmers are beginning to think of sowing oats and are in a hurry to get the fields plowed.

It will be just a matter of days now before the trees and bushes will begin to bud and the first sign of a leaf will appear. In the next two months will come one of the finest seasons of the year when all outdoors will take on a delicate green color. Tulips and crocuses have sprung up through the ground now and will soon be blooming.

The time has arrived to turn your thoughts to paint up, fix up and clean up. Houses need painting. House cleaning will soon be in full swing. Let's all strive to have a prettier, cleaner and finer Northville this year by improving our property this spring.

Less than twenty-four hours after The Record suggested the beautification of the brick ruins across from the spring—we held $5.00 in cash and the offer of the services of a man and truck for a day. And before you read this there may be more response. These resources will be turned over to the civic minded organization that accepts the challenge of doing the job.

We are told that President Roosevelt like Nero, fiddled while the other candidates burn.

Outrages upon the Scandinavians has a tendency to again raise the war fever. Let's recall that America accomplished little in the last war, except disrupt our own domestic affairs. This is not our war, but it is our neutrality and our country so let's keep our powder dry.

● Live All Your Life...

Walter Russell Bowie tells of a letter he received from a small boy who was just learning to write. The letter concluded with these words: "I send you my love. I hope you live all your life!"

That sentence impressed Doctor Bowie so much that he wrote a book with this thought as its central theme. He entitled the book: "On Being Alive."

Most of us are not living our lives. We are not getting out of life all that we should. We go about oblivious to the beauties of nature, having eyes but not seeing. We meet people and fail to discover the treasures buried in their lives. We live on our little corner of the world and never experience the thrill of adventuring into strange places. We listen to music without really hearing it. Often we are less than half awake to what life has to offer.

We should heed the small boy's advice and wake up and live all our lives—Silver Lining

Capital will always be needed in some form or other. Therefore he who cries, "Down with capital!" is really demanding the end of civilized life as we know it. For what are those who, instead of dumping capital, center their efforts on more and better ways to make use of it—Grit

While two Eaton county residents are vying for the oldest skate-owning championship, Elie Tibbets sets them all back on their haunches with his 73-year-old pair on exhibit in The Record window. One Eaton county man owned skates 54 years old; another man countered with a 60 and a 70-year-old pair, but the pair bought by Mr. Tibbets' father at the Walled Lake Hardware Store for $125 still hold the age championship.

● New Complexion Noted on Liquor Board

Michigan's new member on the liquor control commission, Alva M. Cummins, a good lawyer, said this week that an old Michigan law requires proprietors of drinking places to refuse minors "under 17 years of age, attending school, permission to remain in a place where alcoholic beverages are sold." An assistant attorney general says that the law is still on the books and was not superceded by the Act of 1933. Neither believes however that the law applies to so-called "package" stores which sell for consumption off the premises.

Commissioner Earl H. DeFoe believes that "strict enforcement of this old act would change the character of these Saturday night crowds considerably. If youngsters were forbidden even to enter drinking places, the problem of liquor sales to minors would be much easier to solve."

Unless proprietors of many beer taverns particularly those outside of municipal jurisdiction, take it upon themselves to correct many of the abuses and evils of the present law, it will not be long before public opinion will demand a radical change in our present set-up.

In the meantime Michigan is fortunate to have in Messrs. DeFoe and Cummins, a majority of the liquor board, which is personally dry—men of high moral calibre who are anxious to clean up conditions in the state so far as the law permits.

In the few weeks since Mr. Cummins' appointment created a dry majority on the board a different attitude is noticeable.

—Gratiot County Herald.

Sometimes a left-handed compliment comes to our home town unwittingly. Recently the people of practically every town in the state have been admonished to sweeten up by an advertising campaign urging Michiganders to use Michigan Made Beet Sugar. But not here in Northville. By inference at least even these sugar manufacturers concede that "we folks" are sweet enough.

Commenting upon the President's fly going on the air to sell soap, W. H. Berkeley of the Cassopolis Vigilant says "personally we can't see what difference it makes whether we tune in on the White House for the soft soap we've been getting the past few years or tune in on some other advertised brand."

News from Walled Lake

By C. E. RUTTON

Walled Lake Thespians will again display their histrionic talents Friday and Saturday evenings this week, when the cast of what is purported to be a highly amusing three act comedy called "Faith, Hope and Flapty" is presented to the public by the Civic Welfare Club. Long hours of rehearsal for the two day run have been in effect for about four weeks, and with the increased interest taken by people of the community, the players' efforts should be rewarded by large attendance both nights.

Mrs. Rex Tuttle is again directing the performances, and included in the cast are Mrs. Kent, Tufford, Miss Evelyn Gray, Don Post, James Farley, Della Linehan, Warren White, Gerald Hazen, Ray Boyles, Robert Miles, Edward Buffmeyer, Leona Reimer, Ruth Weber and Mrs. William Mercer.

An epidemic of measles is prevalent in Walled Lake and vicinity, according to Dr. O. R. MacKinsie, Commercial township health officer. Over 30 cases have been reported to him, while still others have as yet been unreported. Most of the cases have been found in children of second and third grade age.

New motion picture equipment, including a public address system and projector have been installed at the Walled Lake school. The system is portable and can be used either in the auditorium or class rooms for visual education. The school plans to run a series of currently popular movies each Monday evening.

The Parent Teachers association will sponsor the annual mother and daughter banquet at the school, May 2. Principal speaker will be Mrs. Max Williams, fourth vice-president of the Michigan P. T. A. association. Program chairman will be Mrs. Earl Skarratt, Mrs. Glenn Moss will preside. The toast to the daughters will be given by Mrs. Russell Cutler and Melvina Eberle will offer the toast to the mothers.

A women's quartet and the all-girl school band will provide the music.

We thought our mothers and our friends would be interested in seeing some of the work which we had done this year so we decided to have an exhibit Friday afternoon, Apr. 19. We printed the invitations for our exhibit in our art class.

Our blackboards, walls and tables were filled with papers and projects. Each child stood near a project and told the visitors about it. — Mary Jane Burgess.

I told about the fairs and the stories that the first and second grades had written about. We had many books, papers, and pictures in our exhibit. — Joe Vismyak.

We made the "Wishing Well" in our sand table. We drew pictures of the two maidens, the trees, the bird and the elves. We made the well with blocks. I read some riddle cards and made pictures of them. — Eugene Polenski.

I told about our seat-work cards. They are fun to make. We are not told what they are going to be. We make rattleholders, tables, chairs.

balls, hats, and many other interesting things. — Martin Kolydke.

You'll be No. 1 in the Hit Parade!

Look at Buick First... you can afford it and you can't know what your 1940 money ought to buy until you've seen this really modern automobile.

YES sir, something pretty special happens when you turn the ignition switch, and drive away for the first time in your very own 1940 Buick.

In that little act, you get a years-long jump on the other fellow. You step out in a car that is not only 1940's biggest news but the pattern for many a season to come.

Style? Just look the others over and see how they mirror the trend Buick began a good twelve months ago!

Prices begin at $895 *delivered at Flint, Mich. Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT BUICK WILL BUILD THEM

Size? Just try to find a car as long as Buick, bumper to bumper, for the same money—or one with a frame as husky and rigid.

Comfort? Performance? Appointments?

No one else on the highway has soft, gentle coil springs all around that never need lubrication, with the steady rolling firmness of torque-tube drive.

No one else gives you a gas-thrifty Dynaflex valve-in-head straight-eight engine, much less a power plant electro-balanced after assembly.

No one else has a Two-Way Direction Signal with automatic cut-off—or standard equipment so complete that even a lock for the gas tank is included in the price.

The Buick SPECIAL 4-door touring sedan $996*

And with the whole range of Buick's six dozen 1940 features you'll be No. 1 in the automotive hit parade, leading the way in a car that will still be full of big news many a season hence.

You'll be driving a Buick, staunch and solid in its tested metal, fashioned with Buick craftsmen's skill, a car you can count on to keep its value, lose mighty little through either use or depreciation.

And the price? Unbelievable as it sounds, the Buick SPECIAL carries a price lower than some sixes—which spells "buy" in any man's language. Why not learn more from the nearest Buick dealer?

ANNUAL REPORT OF THE VILLAGE OF NORTHVILLE

From March 1, 1939-Feb. 29, 1940

The Honorable Commission of the Village of Northville,
Northville, Michigan

We have examined the balance sheet of the Village of Northville as of February 29, 1940 and the statements of receipts and disbursements and income for the fiscal year then ended, have reviewed the system of internal control and the accounting procedures of the Village and, without making a detailed audit of the transactions have examined or tested accounting records of the Village and other supporting evidence, by methods and to the extent we deemed appropriate.

The accounts for all funds except the Water Department Fund have been kept on a modified cash receipts and disbursements basis; all assets and liabilities are reflected in the accounts, but revenues are recognized only when cash is received.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statements of receipts and disbursements and income present fairly the position of the Village of Northville at February 29, 1940 and the results of its operations for the fiscal year, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

Very truly yours,
BRIGGS & ICEMAN

A telephone call to a distant friend . . . made just for old times' sake . . . is one of those thoughtful acts which keep friendship alive. It is like a handclasp reaching out across the miles. And it gives the person at the other end of the wire the pleasure of knowing that, although far away, he still lives in the heart and thoughts of an old friend.

 LANSING—The state official was gloomy.
 "How can you expect the average citizen of Michigan to become concerned over political parties and bosses when he lacks sufficient income to maintain a decent standard of living?" he asked.
 Here was a challenging statement. Although the official had been a lifetime Republican the remark smacked familiarly of the New Deal—the "all fed, all clothed and all housed" one third of our total population.
 We expressed healthy skepticism. "What do you consider a decent standard of living?" he replied.
 The official explained, "I have it on the authority of an endowed foundation that a small per cent of residents in the average Michigan county can afford medical or dental treatment. The depression has reduced standards of living. The average family must deprive itself of proper medical and dental care simply for the reason that its income is too small to afford professional services. And as for hospital service the same family is wholly incapable of meeting emergency bills. Such being the case, and I am convinced that it is how can you expect Michigan citizens to become excited over who runs our government. A handful of astute political leaders can organize an entire county and do as they please. The voter is indifferent, and the reason is found in economics rather than politics."

America In Nutshell
 We called the state official's attention to the new medical and hospital service now being offered to Michigan citizens of moderate incomes on an easy-pay insurance plan.
 Low cost medical and hospital care is now available to Michigan people who otherwise might not be able to afford a doctor or a hospital. We pointed out it was a scorching solution to a general condition which President Roosevelt had dramatized in farcical chats and messages to Congress.
 "All right," he left out the doctors and hospital bills the official continued.
 Consider then these facts, on income during 1935-36 brought out by some experts, at Washington—the median of 1935-36 income was $1,312.44. The annual average for all families was only $826, or $69 a month. Further, figures showed that 1 per cent of all American families had an average income of only $312 a year and were spending only $1 per week per person for food.

What's the answer to all this?
 he said with finality.
 How Michigan Ranks
 When you want the answer to an unusual problem you summon an expert, someone who is a specialist in his field.
 So we turned to Dr. H. S. Pastop, head of the economics department Michigan State College at East Lansing. Here was an unprejudiced person who could shed light on Michigan's place in the national income picture.
 "Who said that Michigan was hard up?" he snapped.
 "Michigan ranks eighth of all states in point of per capita income. It leads all states in the Middle West, according to 1935 income tax reports compiled by the national income section of the bureau of domestic commerce at Washington, D. C. The Michigan average was $675 for that year, 92 per cent of the income level for 1929. When you realize that the price index has declined close to 18 per cent during this period, the result is that Michigan citizens had a greater purchasing power in 1937 than in 1929."
 And 1937 was the year of the famous sit-down strike at Flint and elsewhere. Surely, compared with 1939, times were not so good then as they are today!

First In-U-S-A
 On March 22, the Associated Press reported that income tax collections for the first 3 days of March showed an astonishing increase of 81 per cent in Michigan.
 In fact, the lake state leads the entire country.
 Illinois, for example, showed a gain of only 29 per cent.
 Factory payrolls at Detroit and environs in Wayne county lead all other counties in the United States. Despite the removal of 35 factories from Detroit in 1939, new industrial plants and expansions have exceeded this loss by a tremendous margin. The total of new or enlarged industries was 226. Automobile production is at a near-record peak; employment is within nine-tenths of the 1937 high index of 112.3.
 Part of this Wayne county prosperity is traced to United States and European Allied army orders.

 DU PONT Lime Sulfur Solution plus NuREXFORM Lead Arsenate should be used for the control of Apple Scab, Curculio, and other chewing insects. In the petal fall application most growers prefer to use a milder fungicide for Scab control. Floation Sulfur Paste or SULFORON can be substituted for Liquid Lime Sulfur, as both of these finely divided products have given excellent Scab control under severe conditions in the past.

Seniors Leave for Washington

38 Out of 58 in Class Will Leave Monday for Annual Trip

Of the 58 June graduates, 38 will be taking the annual trip to Washington. Of these 38, three have earned their entire fare of 178 hours at 21 cents an hour. These three are Natalie Whipple, Bob Orr, and Kendall Willis. The approximate amount for the smallest class in quite a few years.

The class will leave at 3-18 p. m. Monday, Apr. 2, and come back at 9 a. m. Friday, May 3. The class wishes to thank everyone who helped in any way to make it possible for the trip, either by coming to plays and dances or other projects which all helped a great deal.

Around the School

There is no one in school this year who can make the excuse of having no money to go to the baseball games. Why? Because the student council has decided to make no charge for attendance at the games. This does not mean that the games will not be interesting. Please come and support your team.

The announcement has been made that the class rings for the present sophomores are to be ordered this week. A premium is to be given away with each ring ordered now. They will get the rings in September. The committee that picked out the rings were: Maxine Coe, Leora Strong, Donald Kreeger, Mary Hollis, Bruce Arnold, James LaRue, Bob Hunter, Leo Hollis, Marie Lemon and Louie Babat.

EDITORIAL NOTES

This year's senior class has, since the beginning of its high school career, succeeded in every activity or project it has undertaken. It has had throughout the past four years, the sound and cooperative spirit of the 58 members who are proud to call themselves "Seniors of the N. H. S." For being a class of such a small enrollment it has done exceedingly well and now boasts of having over $1000 in its treasury. Of course, that won't be there long for they leave for Washington next Monday and along with them goes the $1000.

By the looks of the juniors, it seems that they are following right in the footsteps of the class of '40. The play they presented, "The Play," was very well done and they are working and planning awfully hard for their first big dance, the J-Hop. Good luck to you, juniors.

As for the sophomores and freshmen, may you have a grand high school career and when you get to be juniors and seniors we know that you will work hard so you will have lots of fun on your Washington trip and enjoy the satisfaction of accomplishment.

Both sides wrote and presented a play on the last day of the week. Nearly everyone in the room seemed to think "The Good Old Days" side was the more exciting and interesting.

Our room has been studying masterpieces of art all week, then we visited the art exhibit upstairs. Forest Sanson brought a begonia for the room.

An attractive edition to the lower hall of the grade building is a six foot rubber tree donated by the Local Ford Sales. The children have showed considerable interest in the tree especially the smaller folks who were quite excited about it.

Mrs. O. F. Reig's second grade children have been studying about milk and its products—butter and cheese. Besides reading many stories about cows and dairy farms, they have drawn pictures of milk-wagons, barns and cattle.

Tuesday the group visited the Red Rose Creamery and found out just what happens to the milk before it is sold to the public.

Moderns which will be read by every member of the club.

Groups of students from several of the high school English classes enjoyed visiting the art and science exhibits in the grade building last Friday.

Our touring reporter contacted E. C. Ellison of the apprentice course, and found out that Harold Fritz who used to work at the Electric station on North Center street has changed employers and now is working for R. C. Bailey of the Standard Station on East Main street.

The journalism class took a trip to Greenfield Village yesterday. There were 17 that went including Mrs. Marshall Herick, their advisor.

Harry Sedon of Shrader's Furniture store gave a demonstration on rugs to the Home Economics II class. He showed them samples of good and poor quality of rugs and linoleum. He showed them also how to buy so that they could get value for their money.

One of the future nurses of the present senior class is Nina Rose Wenker, who was born on a farm in Williamsfield, O., July 12, 1922. She lived there for only a year and a half however when she moved to Brighton where she lived until the first grade. Now she is her place residence then and she stayed and went to school there through the eighth grade. Next her family moved to Northville and she has lived and gone to school here ever since. After graduation this June Nina is planning on attending the German Lutheran hospital in Port Wayne, Ind., to study nursing. Her main ambition in life is to become a very good nurse.

During her school life in Northville, Nina has been quite busy with extra-curricular activities. Even in Nov. she was secretary of her class, last year she was chairman of the refreshment committee for the J-Hop and for the Prom last fall, she was also chairman of the refreshment committee. The senior card parties this season were also under the very able direction of Nina. Her hobbies include driving a car, sewing and reading. Her pastimes are movies, and attending Walther league. Favorite colors are red and blue, and her favorite food is practically everything. Her pet peeve is being tickled, and now her occupation is aroused on the very near trip to Washington.

The girl who shared the lead in the senior play is the neopole for a Senior Sketch. Her way down south in Sheffield, a Sept. 30, 1923, is Eugenea Stanford. She only lived there for six weeks or ever when she moved to Hazel Park. She stayed there a little longer because at the age three we find her moving to Hazel Park. It was there that she started school, but only for a half year, because she moved to Northville and as lived and gone to school here since.

After graduation she will probably go to work, but she will like to attend college. Her pet peeve originated way back in the school—people who shoot at schools.

Now, perhaps, we should give some of Eugenea's characteristics. Her hobby is cooking and baking. Her pastimes are numerous. Her favorite food is oranges, her favorite color is blue, she's 5 feet 4 inches tall, very crazy about dogs, especially Scottie and Cocker Spaniels, and not least, she's a pure Indian, a trait of which she is justly proud.

During the last two years French club has kept "Genie" somewhat busy. Last year she was secretary of the club and this year she is president. Her main ambition is to be a journalist or else own a private kindergarten.
