Holiday Safety Is Police Plea

An appeal for cooperation in reduction of accidents during the Fourth of July holiday period and throughout the vacation season was addressed to Michigan citizens this week by the Michigan State Safety committee and a plea for cooperation in the Northville area came from Chief of Police Richard Loomis.

In asking that Northville motorists take every precaution during the holiday week end, Mr. Loomis stated that the State law prohibiting the sale of fireworks would be enforced here.

Michigan's toll of accidental deaths for the month of July last year was 423. Automobile accidents accounted for 163 of these fatalities, 90 persons lost their lives in falls, 79 in drownings, 18 by heat prostration, and seven as a result of burns.

Two Villagers Hurt in Auto Accident

The wedding anniversary celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Price of Lansing, which was to have taken place at a dance Saturday evening in Detroit, took place, instead, at the Redford branch of the Receiving hospital, after the car in which they were riding with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schultz, crashed into a safety zone on Grand River at Warwick avenue late at night. All four were injured.

Mr. Schultz of 321 Randolph street, was driving the car. He sustained concussion of the brain, bruises and laceration about the head. The extent of his injuries has not been determined.

Most seriously injured in the accident was Mrs. Price, sister-in-law of Mr. Schultz, who has a fractured skull and jaw. Her condition is considered critical. Mrs. Schultz, who received minor head injuries, was released from the hospital Wednesday. Mr. Price was given first aid Saturday night and released immediately.

Mr. Schultz of the Northville police department, has not been able to make a statement concerning the accident. According to Chief of Police Richard Loomis, of Northville, one witness to the accident said that Schultz swerved into the safety zone to avoid hitting another car which forced him over, continuing after the accident occurred.

Eaton Is Seeking U. S. Senatorship

Former Editor of The Record Gives Campaign Platform in Initial Statement

Eaton R. Eaton, former president of the Michigan Press association, a member of the state legislature, editor of The Plymouth Mail, and former editor of The Northville Record, this week announced that he will become a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator.

The Plymouth editor, who is 58 years old, has long been interested in public affairs. He has been a strong opponent of "boss" politics, an advocate of proper aid for elderly, dependent people and economy in governmental expenditures. He is regarded as one of the hardest working members who ever served in the legislature. His preliminary statement pertaining to his candidacy follows:

Convinced that there are large numbers of Republicans and independent voters in Michigan who will welcome my entrance into the Senate, I have decided to enter that contest.

This decision has been reached after a most careful canvass of the political situation in Michigan and consultation with numerous citizens.

Outstanding as one of the most vital problems facing the people is the absolute necessity of immediately driving from national stage and local governmental units every form of graft and corruption. The greatest burden our taxpayers are carrying today is the excess penalty laid upon them by the political plunderers who operate in defiance of all public interest.

Greedy corruption and dishonesty in governmental administration go hand in hand with machine politics and rule by political bosses.

The very minute any political party or any political candidate accepts the support of, or compromises with these elements, he becomes a servant to these political masters.

No political machine ever functioning for the purpose of improving governmental administration or reducing the costs to the taxpayers of conducting public business.

Project Director Announces Plans of Play Program

First Session Will Be Held at 2 p. m. Monday in Penniman, Allen Theatre; Children and Parents to See Free Show

Need Contributions

Northville's summer playground project will get under way at 2 p. m. Monday, July 1, in the Penniman-Allyn theatre, where a free movie will be shown to children of school age and their parents.

The program for the summer weeks will be outlined at this time by the full time supervisor, Roy Meier of Wayne, who is coach and physical education director of the Wayne school system.

Mr. Meier is to have the assistance from volunteer village help, including Miss Ruth Rounsaville, Mrs. William Chizmar and Chief of Police Richard Loomis.

The play program proper will begin at 12:30 p. m. Tuesday, at the Ford field and at the grade school playground. Boys and girls under 12 years of age, and all girls of junior and senior high school age are to meet at the school playground. The Ford field is to be used by boys over 12 years of age.

A varied schedule of games has been planned by Mr. Meier in accordance with suggestions made by the Citizens' committee. Sessions each day will begin at 12:30 p. m. and continue until dark, Mondays through Fridays until Aug. 16.

Among the games, which have been placed on the tentative play schedule are: Volley ball, horse shoes, ball and ball, paddle tennis, ping-pong, golf, upper, tether ball, story telling, Chinese checkers, pickup sticks, card games, shuffle board and group games.

Sweet showers and swimming for older boys and girls will be sponsored if arrangements can be made.

As a climax to the summer project Mr. Meier plans a soap box derby and a doll and pet parade.

Handicraft projects will be taught and persons who have materials to donate for these classes are encouraged to do so. Leather and macramé have been mentioned specifically by Mr. Meier.

As the entire project is a community affair, the enterprise will have to be supported by contributions. All contributions from organizations or individuals can be made to Mrs. Willard Ely, a member of the adult committee.

Speaks for Agriculture...

In commenting on the elaborate program followed during Dairy Month, Agricultural Commissioner Elmer A. Beamer stated that it would be wise for other branches of agriculture to realize the advantages of genuine cooperation such as has been shown by Michigan's huge dairy industry during their annual campaign.

"The greatest draw-back to agriculture in the past," Beamer said, "has been lack of cooperation. The program for this year's dairy month was an elaborate event, every detail carefully worked out and synchronized perfectly by those in charge. Producers, processors and dealers of fluid milk joined hands with the ice cream, butter and cheese manufacturers; then, to make the picture complete, both the independent and chain store people came in."

"In all my experience in the agricultural field," he continued, "I have striven to bring about better cooperation between the various branches of each part of the industry and between the commodity groups themselves. I think the Dairy Month program one of the finest pieces of group cooperation I have seen my experience to witness. I am glad to have been a member of the state committee, and wish to commend other members, especially Clarence L. Bolander of Lapeer, chairman; Harry K. Armstrong, representing the chain stores; and Willis R. Keasey, who acted for the independent stores. Many thanks should go to Michigan State College for their contribution of our Dairy Queen, Miss Jeanne Bradley. And finally, to Miss Linda Ware, juvenile movie and radio star, who added much to the success of the program, should go the heartfelt thanks of all Michigan."

It's A Good Tip

(From the Michigan Taxpayer)

The Michigan Taxpayer is glad to join with the State Bar of Michigan and the Michigan Press Association in recommending to the heads of taxpayers' associations that they arm themselves with copies of the official proceedings of all governmental units in their communities when attending meetings of boards, commissions, councils, etc. Inquiries and complaints must be based on the record.

Many a taxpayer would be wiser, and less sad, if he had sought the information that is contained in legal advertising publications or other papers officially designated for the publication of such material. That the extent to which present statutes require publications of such proceedings might well be broadened is also the contention of the State Bar secretary and this point should be explored thoroughly.

That there can be the aspects of a "racket" connected with contracts for publication of legal notices and other advertising required by statute, is of course true, but vigilance will wipe this out and the greatest good to the whole public will be done if publication of official proceedings is carefully and regularly scrutinized.

Novi township has sent in $30.00 for the Red Cross so far this year.

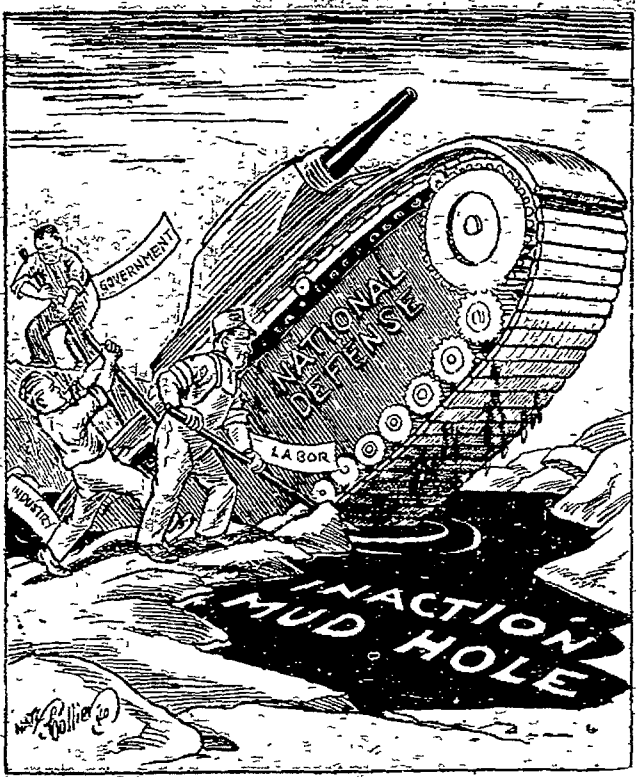

Over in a nearby town a young lad lies in a plaster cast. Two legs broken, pelvic broken and internal injuries. If he is able to attend school this fall it will be a miracle. We had planned on him mowing a lawn for us but alas a young sprout with a few shots of liquor under his belt crashed into Lloyd as he came from the swimming hole. The parents of Lloyd are hardly able to shoulder the costs. The motorist was to blame, the boy was alright, but what difference did it make? The young snort that did the damage came from a relief family, and the justice sent him up for 60 days. The person to blame gets 60 days in the county jail; the community has been supporting the large family of which the youth is a member for several years, and will continue to do so. The lad who wanted to work, who was just riding his bicycle gets 90 days in the hospital, pain, grief and perhaps permanent injury. Dad and Mother will labor several years to absorb hospital costs above the ordinary necessities incident to raising a family of several children. But what can be done about it? As far as the law—we'll that is disgusting from any angle but the textbook. The economics of the case is pitiful. The justice of the case is—well there is no justice at all. But there it is... we have to take it.

But we don't take it without a warning to our fine boys and girls of Northville: not without a plea for a check on speeding on certain of our village streets; not without a word for care on the part of motorist where children are about, and not without a feeling that we would rather risk sidewalk riding than street riding on most of our streets. What is your reaction?

Some of these questions have been suggested by Clare E. Hoffman of Allegan. Here are some others he has asked: Knowing that war is sweeping Europe and that it may come to us, is it not just good, hard common sense to quit our wasteful spending? Our foolish, impractical experiments? Conserve all our resources? Quit fighting business? Get rid of, by voting them out of office, those in the administration who, by their actions, during the major portion of the past seven years, have shown themselves (and our present state of unpreparedness proves it) to be wholly unable to solve our problems and who have been playing with Communist groups?

People in this district should write their views to Rep. Dondoro, Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg and Senator Francis M. Brown at Washington.

Have a Good Time This 4th of July, But, Take It Easy!

Every July 4th all America turns out for one big day of fun. This celebration is, of course, "fitting and proper," but always present is the specter of accident and tragedy. Here are some of the main reasons accidents occur in such large numbers and a hint or two on how to avoid them:

According to the National Safety Council, accidents of all types claimed 8,890 lives last July. Traffic accidents accounted for 2,850 of these. July's accident losses are 22 per cent higher than that of the average month. Be smart and drive carefully. Don't be a road hog or a show-off.

Public accidents, other than motor vehicles, reach their year's peak in July. This classification includes drownings and one-fifth of all drownings occur in this month. Most of these happen at beaches where there is no supervision.

Fireworks add greatly to July's high accident rate. Despite widespread legislation against this common cause of blindness and infection many small children continue to hold private fireworks displays, with disastrous results.

Careless campers like the one above, just ready to toss a lighted cigarette to the winds, are responsible for many costly fires on the nation's big holiday. Be careful and thoughtful this Fourth.

Louis Eaton is vacationing in Miami, Fla. He is visiting his uncle, Ralph Comlossy, and his grandmother, Mrs. Louis Comlossy.

The Farmers' Corner

By E. I. BESEMER, County Agent

If you have had fowl pox in your own flock or in your vicinity the preceding year you should immunize your birds this year. Now is the time when the weather is warm and the birds are at an early age. Young pullets given the virus which is the disease in mild form, suffer very little, are sick only a few days and develop permanent immunity. There is nothing difficult about using the vaccine and no serious effect upon the pullet unless the pullets are weakened by parasites or coccidiosis. Vaccinating should be done on healthy stock only. Birds may be vaccinated either on the leg or wing by either the swab or stab method. Prepared vaccines are on the market with full instructions for their use. Birds that are vaccinated should not be sold for food for at least one month. Immunized cockerels are always a hazard to unvaccinated pullets. Vaccine is a live virus, of the disease, so care should be given in its use to prevent spilling it on the ground, carrying it on your clothes or otherwise aid its spread. Michigan State College recommends the following points:

1. Vaccinate wherever chicken pox has occurred.
2. Continue to vaccinate all new birds each year.
3. Vaccinate pullets from 2 to 4 months old.
4. Check for "takes" 7 days following vaccination.
5. Allow 30 days on range before vaccination.
6. Allow 30 days on range after vaccination before housing pullets for the winter.
7. Vaccinate pullets recently moved or subjected to radical changes.
8. Do not vaccinate pullets recently moved or subjected to radical changes.
9. Do not vaccinate pullets that are sick or out of condition.
10. Do not vaccinate pullets or hens in production except as emergency control and then only with pigeon pox vaccine.

For complete information on fowl pox write for the mimeographed sheet on "Fowl Pox."

Fruits

It is too late to use arsenicals on raspberries so if the green worms are eating the foliage use non-poisonous treatments.

1 lb. cube or drier with 3 lbs. flour or talc or commercial dusts with 50 per cent or 75 per cent Rotoneon will give good control.

The June 1 fruit prospects are above average but apples and peaches will be less volume than last year according to the Michigan Cooperative Crop Reporting Service.

The Michigan peach crop on the basis of June 1 estimates, was placed at 1,564,000 bushels compared with 2,760,000 bushels in 1939, and a 10 year average of 1,568,000 bushels. The considerable reduction in volume from last year can be attributed mainly to winter freeze damage, which was particularly heavy in some southern areas away from the immediate influence of Lake Michigan.

WE'RE not telling you this 1940 Buick is the best we've ever built—you're telling us!

Never in our history have we built so many cars as we have this model year—not even in the flush days of the twenties.

Now why is that? Because of the big Dynaflex engine that's the only power plant balanced after assembly? Because of the soft-and-easy BuicOil Springing ride?

Because of size? Because of style?

Because of features—appointments—ruggedness—value?

We'll let you decide. But there's food for thought in prices* that begin as $895 low as for the business coupe, delivered at Flint, Mich. Transportation, based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories are extra—but that still adds up to delivered prices that are mighty low for the best Buick we ever built.

GOVERNMENT REPORTS A BUMPER YIELD

Lower crop acreages and higher yields are the startling achievements of farmers revealed in the 1939 Government Crop Report. From the fewest number of acres harvested under normal weather

A step toward bigger yields. Conditions since the World War, farmers reaped yields that were only 1% under the record year of 1935, when more acres were harvested.

Many major factors behind this accomplishment are revealed in personal interviews with 32,000 farmers in 35 States. Better all around farming practices stand out. Every farmer interviewed in The National Fertilizer Association survey made an estimate based on yields obtained with and without fertilizer. Michigan farmers stated they got an increase of 65 per cent on wheat; 29 per cent on corn; 45 per cent on potatoes; and 65 per cent on tomatoes.

FERTILIZER SUPPLIES ASSURED DESPITE WAR

In contrast to the acute shortage of fertilizer materials suffered at the beginning of the last European war, the present purchasing season for fertilizer finds the country prepared with adequate supplies for this year's crops.

"At the beginning of the last World War an immediate deficiency of nitrogen carriers occurred," said Charles J. Brand, Executive Secretary and Treasurer of The National Fertilizer Association. "There was an almost total absence of potash. Although there was plenty of phosphate rock, there was a shortage of sulphuric acid needed to make superphosphate."

"When war disrupted shipping from 1914 to 1918, nitrogen materials for fertilizer became scarce, as we were once bound to Chile for nitrates," said Mr. Brand. "Today, we not only have adequate shipping service from Chile, but our country is the third largest producer of synthetic nitrogen in the world, and the largest producer of ammonium sulphate. The shortage of sulphuric acid during the last war was due to the heavy requirements of munition manufacturers for processing their goods. Improved methods of munition makers no longer require sulphuric acid. This leaves an adequate supply for use in making superphosphate."

"In 1914 we were entirely dependent upon Germany for potash. Today, we produce at home over 60 per cent of the potash we use and have sufficient reserves to care for our entire needs. In addition to this, French, German, Palestinian, and Spanish potash are available."

Prices farmers pay for fertilizer are now lower than before the World War; prices they pay for all commodities average 22% higher.

Tea at Happy Acres
Reveals Engagement of Miss Peg Walker

A tea party, Tuesday afternoon at Happy Acres, was the occasion of announcing the engagement of Miss Peggy Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Walker, Jr., and Paul Beard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund S. Beard.

Tiny white lady wedding rings concealed the betrothed couple. Miss Gwendolyn Locke of Oriskany, Pa., presided at the tea table.

Present at the affair were: Mrs. Dayton Deal and the Misses Virginia Campbell of Coraopolis, Pa.; Betty Jean Schrader, Lois Chapman, Louise Alexander and Ida Marie Walker, all of Northville; Nancy and Patsy McLoughlin, Shirley Bariz and Nancy Ostergren, all of Detroit; and Clara Rader of Plymouth. Garden Forms Setting for Nuptial Rites Uniting Barbara Phillips and W. B. Petz

A pageant in white characterized the garden wedding at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 22, which united in marriage, Miss Barbara Ellen Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Glenn Phillips of Northville, and William Bertram Petz, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bernard Petz of Plymouth.

The pledging of nuptial vows was made at Hillare, the country home of the bride's parents, where the Rev. Edgar H. Hoenecke, pastor of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church of Plymouth, officiated at the marriage rites.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white hand-run Alencon lace and double cable net. The lace fashioned the basque waist, fitted tightly below the natural waistline and the net formed a voluminous skirt falling into a long train. Her hip-length veil was held in place by a shallow Juliet cap of tulle banded with a twisted garnet of the illusion. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and gardenias.

The maid of honor, Miss Betty Jean Schrader, and the bridesmaids all wore white organdy frocks with matching white lace tied with streamers of blue ribbon that extended the length of their gowns. Their blue streamers and their blue bouquets of larkspur and daisies formed the only color in the wedding. The bridesmaids were Jacquelyn Jayne Schoof of Plymouth, Nancy McLoughlin and Patricia Roberts of Detroit, Ida Altman of Northville, Jean Cams of Cambridge, O., and Mrs. Andrew J. Galsterer of Frankfort, sister of the bridegroom.

Replicas of the bridesmaids' dresses, were worn by the flower girls, Mary Agnes and Katherine Ann Merrick, cousins of the bride, and Ann Galsterer, a niece of the bridegroom.

Wilbert J. Petz of Northville, was his brother's best man. Ushers were John Sells of Plymouth, Scott Cole and Blake Northrop of Northville, Robert Tausel and John H. Kinsey of Grand Rapids, and Karl Erke of Warren.

The wedding music was played by Ralph Calder of Detroit, pianist; and Alexander Shuster of East Lansing, cellist.

A gown of blue embroidered net and chiffon and a small matching hat was the costume selected by Mrs. Phillips for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Petz was gowned in rose print chiffon. With this she wore a leghorn hat. Both wore orchid corsages.

Following the ceremony, a reception for the 200 guests who witnessed the exchange of vows, was held in the garden.

Mr. and Mrs. Petz left Saturday evening for a motor trip into northern Michigan. The bride's traveling ensemble was of navy blue sheer tulle accessories were white.

Upon their return in July, Mr.

and Mrs. Petz will make their home in Northville.

Mrs. Joseph Denton, Mrs. Roy Matheson, Mrs. Joseph W. Hoehl, Mrs. T. B. Carrington and Mrs. R. E. Atchison were luncheon guests Monday at Orchard Lake. Before returning to Northville, they visited and Helen Hendryx of Detroit, Miss King's Daughters, home in Detroit.

Rochester Clarion
Has Forty-Second Anniversary, June 21

Forty-two years ago, June 21, the first edition of the Rochester Clarion rolled off the press. It was printed by the editor in the Horn building which is now occupied by the Emory Miller barber shop in Rochester. The issue was printed on a hand-fed, hand-turned flat bed Protry press. All copy for that edition was set by hand. There was no typewriter, no linotype or telephone in the Clarion office in those days.

The paper was in that location only about four months when it was moved to the present site.

Through the years, the Clarion has grown from a six-column paper to a 16-column paper. It has had inside sheets, installing at various intervals a Potter Jr. printing two pages at a time, a Potter, Jr. printing four pages a time, and only last January a new Goss Cox-type press, to an 8, 10, 12 or 14 page paper as advertising warrants, all home print.

By the gain of one day each year over a period of 10 1/2 leap years, the forty-second anniversary date has advanced from the original date of Aug. 19 to June 21.

Baptists Approve Improvement Plan

At a meeting held last week of the members and congregation of the First Baptist church, called by the trustees, steps were taken for an extensive program this summer.

C. C. Griner, chairman of the trustees, reviewed for the members the work that has been done on the church during the past three years, including the excavating under the church to provide space for the primary department of the Sunday School and the building of a new church kitchen. Folding chairs, hymn books were purchased. A new furnace was installed. In addition, the parsonage was redecorated.

These improvements cost the church some $2,000, all of which have been paid for.

On the basis of this showing, Mr. Winter and the trustees recommended that the church proceed immediately to paint the outside of the church and parsonage and redecorate the church sanctuary.

This recommendation received the approval of the congregation. A check of $200 has been pledged. The work will start within a few days, the Rev. Dr. Howard R. Chapman has announced.

Combating Fifth Column On the Fourth

July 4, 1939 Prohibited!

Reading Times

Issue With Poland Not to Be Forced, Nazi Officials Say

One year ago, on July 4, 1939, the Reading (Pa.) Times came out with an edition that was "censored" as it would be if published under a totalitarian government. The above is a reproduction of the front page. Nearly everything on the page had to be "crossed" out. The edition showed graphically what would be prohibited on the Fourth of July in any newspaper published under Communism, Fascism, or Nazism. In the language of today, the Fourth of July edition was aimed at Fifth Column activities.

Books for Seventh Graders Are Listed

Exploring with Andrews by Roy Chapman Andrews—Exploring in Tibet and Borneo, while hunting adventures, exploring in Korea.

The Story of a Bad Boy by Al-drich—Snowball battles, theatricals in Bailey's barn, secret orders and midnight bombardments are a few of Tom's escapades.

Talking Drums by Williamson—Which doctors, sleeping sickness and tabus almost stopped railroad building on the African Gold Coast.

Jim Ship by Pease—Tod Moran finds out what a jim ship is on his way to the South Seas. There are other good stories about him.

Gay-Neck by Mukerji—During the war, the beautiful carrier pigeon flew over enemy lines with dispatches to help his country India.

The University of Michigan has just received 115 Japanese cherry trees, the gift of Japanese alumni of the institution. The trees including ten different species, have been temporarily planted in the nursery of the Nichols Arboretum near the University campus and all are in a thriving condition. It is planned eventually to plant them by themselves as a Japanese cherry tree garden, but the site for the garden has not yet been determined.

LANSDOWN—The shadow of labor discord has appeared again in Michigan.

Coming at a crucial time when the United States government is leaning heavily upon our industrial plants for armament, a threat of production output could easily become a national affair.

The situation is something like this: The C. I. O. is fearful that industrialists may seize upon the preparedness issue as a pretext to deny them the "right" of higher wage—and the "right" to strike for them.

Industrialists recall the activity of communists in the 1937 sit-down strike, and they insist that unions shall give a five-day notice of strike only as a last resort, after negotiating grievances. They want authority also to dismiss employees alien or otherwise whom they believe to be involved in sabotage.

Commissioner Oscar G. Olan, chief of the state police says 100 additional men are needed to investigate "hundreds of reports of subversive activities" in this state. While Olan did not divulge where the additional men would be detailed, it is understood that officials are apprehensive that sabotage may hinder production of important war orders.

And, this being a democracy, don't forget this one: National and state elections are due to be held next November. That means votes and lots of them.

Dictatorship
With the European war possibly coming to our shores (this is believed inevitable should England move its capital to Canada), Michigan's automobile plants occupy key positions in the national defense of the United States.

Our involvement in the war would probably evoke a wartime dictatorship. Rights of management and labor could be limited drastically by federal decree, all in the interest of national security. Hence the peace-time actions of industrial labor leaders and workers in the rank and file may prevent or invite stern war-time regulation. The alternative would be to risk the price paid by France when production of necessary war supplies even to meet urgent needs of national defense. In a remarkable report to the president of the French Republic on Nov. 12, 1938, M. Deladier and Reynaud declared: "The gravest failure, from which the others follow, has been the persistently low level of production. If production is insufficient it is primarily because its possibilities of development have been paralyzed by the restriction in the length of the working day had been entertained on the assumption that, as a result of increased efficiency of labor and more intensive use of machinery, the same output could be obtained with fewer hours of work."

"But the efficiency of labor has not increased and the hopes founded on technical improvement have not been realized. How could it have been otherwise, when the majority of factories and shops were closed two days out of seven?"

Ford, Peace Apostle
Henry Ford, America's outstanding genius of mass production, financed a "peace ship" to Europe in 1916.

When this nation entered the conflict, Ford swung his huge plants into the manufacture of tanks, submarine chasers and ambulances.

Still an apostle of peace, the Dearborn manufacturer a few weeks ago received world-wide attention when he declared in an interview that the Ford organization could produce 1,000 airplanes a day through mass production methods "if" he were guaranteed of no governmental "meddling"—presumably by the National Labor Relations board.

The army department rushed one of its latest models to Dearborn for Ford engineers to examine. Because Ford's management policies have always been liberal to labor, the C. I. O. has been unsuccessful to date in efforts to unionize Michigan plants. How popular the automobile maker is with labor was revealed recently by a Gallup public opinion survey which placed him high up on the list—along with John L. Lewis!

CCC Youths
Non-combatant military training in the CCC camps in Michigan appeared to be a probability as Congress rushes plans to integrate federal relief and national defense.

The youths would not be trained with guns for military combat, but they would be given instruction in bridge and road construction, cooking, first aid, radio, photography, and mechanical work. The camps may help to train young men for industrial employment in an effort to break the present bottleneck due to lack of machines and skilled machinists.

The NYA camp at Cassidy Lake (between Ann Arbor and Jackson) is already training young men in vocational fields such as aviation and automobile engineering. Michigan national guardsmen will train this summer at Sparta, Wisconsin, and at Grayling. The CCC camps would "prove valuable assets in case of mobilization," it was stated at Washington by Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff.

G-Men in Michigan
Federal investigators of the department of justice have developed leads in Michigan "as challenging as those we received in Louisiana," so admitted O. John Rogge, assistant United States attorney general, in Detroit.

The Louisiana inquiry consumed eleven months before the lid blew off. The Associated Press intimated that the federal grand jury was looking into charges of graft in connection with liquor dealings.

After Wayne county's mess involving the sheriff, prosecuting attorney, and a couple score of policemen, the prospect of a Louisiana-style scandal being uncovered in Michigan fairly takes your breath.

The Washington probe may end in indictments of a startling nature.

A Long Range Prediction

By JOHN ADAMS

On July 2, 1776, the delegates from the 13 colonies, meeting in Philadelphia, voted to separate from Britain. On that day, two days before the Declaration of Independence was signed, John Adams, later to become second President of the United States, wrote to his wife, Abigail:

"I am apt to believe that it (the day) will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great anniversary festival. It ought to be commemorated as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp and parade, with shows, games, sports, guns, bells, bonfires, and illuminations from one end of this continent to the other, from this time forward forevermore."

"You will thank me transported with enthusiasm but I am not. I am well aware of the oil and oiled treasure that it will cost to defend these States. Yet through all the gloom I can see the rays of ravishing light and glory. I can see that the end is more than worth all the means; and that posterity will triumph in that day's transaction, even though we should rue it, which I trust in God we shall not."

Adams predicted pretty well the nature of the celebration, although Abigail Adams, who had the unique distinction of being the wife of one President and the mother of another. John Adams, second President, was her husband. John Quincy Adams, sixth President, was her son.

he did think we would be celebrating the second of July instead of the Fourth.

Begin Construction of New Chelsea Springs Building

O. W. Burke, general contractor of Detroit, has been awarded the contract for construction of three new buildings for the Chelsea Springs company which will add approximately 20,000 square feet of floor space to the plant.

Excavations for footings for the heat-treat building to be erected to the north and west of the "L" shaped building were started last week, as was the excavating for the tunnel which will connect the basement of the present plant with the new manufacturing building to be built north of the entire plant, on the north side of the railroad siding.

The heat-treat building will be 50x9x15 feet, the north side of this unit curving with the railroad siding, and the unit north of the siding will be 40x15x10 feet, the south side of the building curving with the tracks.

A shipping room, 35x80 feet, will be constructed at the south side of the present plant, equipped with loading docks for trucks. All the new buildings will be one-story, of structural steel construction. About 15 men are now employed on the construction work, and the contract calls for completion by Aug. 1.

Immediate enlistment of an additional 3,600 men from Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin in the Regular Army was authorized by the War Department today. It was disclosed by Lt. Gen. Stanley H. Ford, Commander of the Sixth Corps Area and the Second Army. Announcement of the campaign, to be completed August 31st, closely followed a June recruiting drive in which the Sixth Corps Area attained its quota of 1,500 ten-days in advance of the campaign's closing date.
