1940 Fair Exhibits Likely To Surpass Former Displays

All Departments Will Be Filled; Secretary Lyke Has Received Early Replies from Exhibitors; Sheep Pens Are New

Book Stage Revue

With the twenty-fourth annual Northville Wayne County Fair gates scheduled to open Wednesday, Aug. 21, for a four-day exhibition that gives every promise of bringing quality livestock, grain, fruit, vegetable and domestic exhibits to the exhibit departments, the Northville exposition, has surrounding counties looking to it for educational and entertainment attractions.

Offering for the second consecutive year, a running race program for the track fans, this feature alone will surpass the gate interest which was established here last August. The races this year, will be a continuation of the racing meet which is to get under way, Aug. 10. Already the barns are filled with horses from outstanding stables in the Middle West.

The races and the horse show will vie with the exhibits and the midway for attention from the fairgoers in the day time. But with nightfall, the grandstand stage show will be the attraction. Going back to the revue type of entertainment which has pleased Northville fairgoers in previous years, some 40 or 50 persons will make up the cast each evening will see one big act, with five supplementary acts from the stage. There will be two complete changes in the program. A dancing chorus, orchestra, singers and acrobats (featuring the Jackson trio) will be included in the cast. Fireworks will climax each evening's performance.

Already having received replies from the hundreds of entry blanks issued a few days ago, Fred Lyke, secretary, says that the poultry, cattle, sheep and swine exhibits are going to be filled to capacity. "We have 91 pens for the sheep and swine last year there wasn't room for all the entries, but we think this year we will have more than that. Right now it looks as if everything would be full," he affirmed.

"21-ers" Make Plans with Civic Council for Fall Primary

Acting for the Coordinating Council of Northville civic and social groups, a special committee met at the home of Mrs. L. M. Eaton, Wednesday evening, July 31, to plan for the organization of a series of forums for new voters to precede and follow the primary election, Sept. 17.

The members of the special committee are: Mrs. Eaton, chairman, Mrs. Eber Ward Lester, Russell H. Amerman, Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston and the Rev. Dr. Howard R. Chapman. Besides the committee there were present on invitation James Harper, Scott Cole and Robert Angove.

The plan for citizenship recognition of young men and women who have attained majority was inaugurated in Manitowish, Wis., in 1939, and the idea has grown rapidly in other states. The purpose is to help new voters to understand the process and the responsibilities of exercising their franchise in the body politic. The plan usually takes the form of a forum, generally under skilled leadership, and a final occasion when the new voters are welcomed in some formal way.

At the Wednesday evening meeting it was decided in general that three forum meetings of new voters would be planned. Six new voters of Northville, including, in addition to Mr. Harper, Mr. Cole and Mr. Angove, Miss Thyrza Lester, Miss Ida Altman and Miss Rosa Heasley, to serve in conference with Mrs. Eaton and work out details to be presented for approval by the Coordinating Council next Tuesday evening.

This group, which met at Mrs. Eaton's again on Thursday evening, plans to make contacts with all new voters in the village and township, and enlist their active cooperation in making the forums of real value. They will see to it that detailed instructions for registration and voting are given prior to the September primary. It is probable that the general committee will arrange for a special banquet for the new voters a few days before the primary. The movement is wholly non-partisan.

J. W. Clapp Recalls West Nov's Early Debating Events

Back in 1898, Club Was Formed for Debates and Essays

Way back in September, 1898, at the annual school meeting, one A. N. Kimmis talked his neighbors into organizing a West Nov Debating Club.

The club was so favorably received in the West Nov community that it found itself going into a second year with the following officers: President, Thomas E. Johns; vice-president, Lucius Skinner; secretary, Lewis Wilkinson; treasurer, C. L. McKenny, janitor, Oscar Hawkins and the subject for debate that second winter was, "Resolved, That Endless Punishment is Opposed to the Doctrine Taught by Christ."

Among the names entered in the records in the early days of the club were: Mr. Kimmis, J. E. Johns, David Gage, Mr. Kenney, E. G. Power, William Simmons, Mr. Wilkinson, Daniel Barrett, Thomas E. Bogart, J. B. Leavenworth, John Ling, Cass Woodman, Eugene Johns, A. Clapp, Daniel C. Durham, W. S. Richardson, J. Hamilton, Woodman, Eliza S. Woodman, H. A. Johns and Daniel Johnson.

A year or two later, A. N. Kimmis, Jr., was elected president. Byron B. Power was secretary. It is through James W. Clapp that the early story of the club is made known. He received notes from Mr. Kimmis, Jr.

Kimmis writes "The club did not function for some years, but as to why and dates, I cannot say. I was away at school at this time. After my school days, I returned to the farm in 1895, and went about the neighborhood, seeking a revival of the club."

With the club's revival, more names were placed on the records, including: Marvin Clark, D. Whipple, J. Porter, Belle Kimmis, Foss Wheeler, Jud Richardson, Silas Clark, Jay Hazen, Willis Gurr, Adie Parks, Mrs. T. E. Bogart, Peter Parks, James Ellis, R. Chapman, Marvin Bogart, Rollin Morse, John Cronkite, Tom Ellis, John Ether, Tra Power, Clayton Gage, Will Richardson, Zadah Putnam and Labbie Clark.

"The main male debaters when I came on the scene were J. E. Leavenworth, David Gage, A. N. Kimmis, Jr., T. E. Johns, David Johnson, Daniel Dunham, N. A. Clapp, and others whose names I do not recall. David Gage and William Wilson of South Lyon, B. T. Nicholson of Milford, and Rufus Courter of Novi, were some of the late comers," writes Mr. Clapp, who is now living.

The voters of Salem's Union School district met together Wednesday evening in a special meeting to authorize the board of education to take the steps necessary to meet the school building requirements which were set forth by the State Fire Marshal in Lansing, at the time of the district's annual school meeting earlier this month.

To eliminate what might be a fire hazard, a hot water heating plant is to be built adjacent to the school building. In addition, the building itself is to be lined with celotex. A fire escape is to be constructed and new doors are to be put on the building.

In all, the project is expected to cost the district $2,000. Some 40 members of the district were on hand Wednesday evening to make these plans.

The Plymouth-Northville Young Republican club began its summer session Thursday, Aug. 1 with a meeting at Scott Cole's home on Orchard Drive. This first gathering of the club, representative of the 17th Congressional District, brought members from four neighboring towns.

The young Republicans present discussed plans for widening the organization's scope, not only in membership, but in effective political work.

Covering a district extending from the Washington County line to Bedford township, the club has planned an extensive line of work. The main district has been divided into five smaller districts, each headed by a chairman. These five divisions in turn have been split into three even smaller sections with each under a sub-chairman. The club intends to promote the Republican platform, without backing any specific candidates.

Any young person interested in this work may join, by contacting either Scott Cole or Betty Carlson, the secretary.

Income tax payers will bear the blunt of the cost of the new four billion and a half dollar defense bill recently signed by President Roosevelt.

Part of the income tax changes are permanent. Such changes include a reduction from $2,500 to $2,000 in the exemption for heads of families.

On top of all other income taxes was added for five years a "super tax" of 10 per cent. Under this tax a taxpayer will figure out what he owes the government.

Because millionaires are subject to surtaxes up to 75 per cent plus normal income taxes of four per cent, Congress wrote in an escape clause for them saying that the "super-tax" must not amount to more than 10 per cent of the income left after paying the regular taxes.

The tax boosts were effective July 1 on all commodities, such as liquor and cigarettes, and will last for five years. The income tax changes are retroactive to 1940 income, and will be payable March 15, 1941.

A few years ago we heard Charles Bennett of Plymouth, recite "Darius Green and His Flying Machine" by John Townsend Trowbridge.

"Hear how Darius reasoned, about it, 'The Bird can fly, and why can't I? Must we give up, says he with a grin, That the blunder of an' phoebe Are smarter 'n we be?'"

We were recently told of an interview between Harry Robinson of Plymouth, and his old friend the Sage of Dearborn, Henry Ford.

At a conference of citizens, representatives of community organizations, and educators held in Lansing on July 11, it was determined that there is an urgent need for creating a strong program of citizenship education in every community in the state.

In line with this growing sentiment and activity the Northville Coordinating Council, representing all organizations in the village is now beginning the second stage of the preparatory work of a citizenship recognition day here.

When you are driving and become tired with the sameness of the scenery along the highway, turn off at the next crossroad. The change of pace, from the congested, high speed highway to the quiet, rolling, winding sideroad, will be an inspiring adventure.

asure at nightfall: This spray may be followed by two or more similar cover sprays.

In case the owner intends to wash with chemicals, use Summer oil emulsion, 3 quarts plus three-fourths pint of 40 per cent nicotine sulphate in 100 gallons of water.

Be careful to spray well for the second generation. After word is passed that the date is set, then the spray should be applied within four or five days after the temperature reaches 62 degrees, or above at nightfall.

It is understood, of course, that the influence of Lake Michigan is a retarding one. On the immediate Lake shore the date will be delayed one week or ten days later than at a point ten or fifteen miles inland.

The Poorest Place to Tell a Lie! It has been said by some of our radical reformers that advertising misleads the public. Such accusations fall under their own weight. The poorest place in the world to attempt a lie is in the advertising columns of American newspapers and magazines, and in American radio programs. In the first place, our publishers and broadcasting companies wouldn't carry dishonest advertising. They outlawed it long ago. In the second place, such efforts to mislead would be conducted in full view of the public and of the officials empowered to apply fraud laws. In the third place, dishonest advertising is as inefficient as dirty football. It does not pay. Informed people have lost interest in the advertising-baiting books and speeches of the radical self-appointed reformers since one after another of them has figured prominently before the House Special Committee on un-American Activities.

Knapp-Miskerik Nuptial Vows Pledged Saturday Afternoon in Plymouth Church

Miss Marie Martha Miskerik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miskerik of Lilley road, Plymouth, became the bride of Harold James Knapp, son of Aldebert Knapp of Detroit, in a ceremony performed at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, July 27 in the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, with the Rev. Walter Nichol officiating. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white, satin gown made with a sweetheart neckline, leg of mutton sleeves which formed points over the hands. Triangular lace inserts trimmed the full skirt and the short train. Her fingertip veil was attached to a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried an all white arm bouquet of lilies, roses and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Catherine, was maid of honor. Her frock was of pink silk, fashioned on the same lines as the bride's. She was accompanied by a tara of blue roses. Her flowers were of yellow roses and blue larkspur.

Miss Betty Duda of Detroit, was bridesmaid. Her dress was blue net. With this, she wore a tara of pink roses. Her arm bouquet was of pink roses and pink larkspur.

Edward Havlock of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, was best man. The ushers were: Edward Svoboda of Carleton, Arthur Vrobel and Rick Rehder, both of Detroit. The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding, a floral print dress. Her accessories were white. She wore a corsage of pink roses, yellow chrysanthemums and stephanotis.

After the wedding a reception for 100 guests was held at the American Legion hall on Newburg road. Guests were present from Plymouth, Detroit, Ferndale, Milford, Wayne, Carleton, New Lothrop, Flint and Flat Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Knapp are making their home at 504 Plymouth avenue in Northville.

Plays To See or Read Listed for Stage Fans

If it is too hot to visit the summer theaters near Detroit, it will be fun to read some of the dramas instead. They may be borrowed from the Northville Branch of the Wayne County Library.

Starting Aug. 1, the Will-O-Way Playhouse is giving "No Time For Comedy" in which Katherine Cornell appeared last winter in Detroit. This playhouse is in an air-conditioned apple packing house in Birmingham on West Long Lake Road. The Ann Arbor Summer players are producing "Patience" in August, one of the funniest of the Gilbert and Sullivan operas.

Here are a few suggestions: No Time For Comedy by Behrman—A witty dialogue, play with polished and witty dialogue.

Boom Service by John Murray—One of those knockabout farces indigenous to America, and which Americans act, write and direct so well.

Books and lyrics of the best known Gilbert and Sullivan operas complete plays of Gilbert and Sullivan.

Pygmalion by George Bernard Shaw—As amusing to read as to see on the stage.

Last rites were held at 10:30 a. m. Wednesday, July 31, for Katherine Brooks, who died July 29. The service was held from the chapel of the William R. Hamilton company, Cass avenue at Alexandrine, Detroit.

The Watermans held their family reunion Sunday, July 28, at Riverside Park. Persons were present from Jackson, Plymouth, Farmington, Waterford and Northville. The afternoon was spent playing games.

The Royal Neighbors will hold a picnic Wednesday, Aug. 7, at the willows in Cass Benton Park. Each member is to bring a passing dish, own table service, sandwiches and a small gift. Games will be played in the afternoon. Supper will be served at 5:30 p. m.

The William Hensch family returned Tuesday evening from a 10,000 mile motor trip which took them through 30 states mostly in the West. They were in Mexico, too. Mr. and Mrs. Hensch plan to spend most of the remainder of the summer in Northville with the exception of brief visits in Richmond.

Word was received here Friday of the death of John E. Starkweather, 29, nephew of E. M. Starkweather of this place. John was killed in an auto accident in Glacier National Park, where he had spent his summers for several years. His home was in San Mateo, Calif., and he was granted his Master's degree in June from Stanford University. His mother, Mrs. Royal Starkweather, visited in Northville in June.

Acrobats To Preform at Edgewater

Something entirely new in the way of free attraction will open for a week's engagement Monday, Aug. 5, at Edgewater Amusement Park, West Seven Mile road, near Grand River and Telegraph road. The act is known as "The Sensational Atence," and consists of two skilled acrobats, working on revolving hoops at the top of a 100-foot tower.

Subversive Activities in This Country

Last fall, in a period of 35 days, I spoke on 29 different occasions in various parts of the 17th Michigan district regarding subversive activities in the United States. Just recently I appeared in the House Judiciary Committee in support of a resolution introduced by Rep. Malloch for the purpose of removing the Communist Party from the American ballot and thereby curbing Communist political activity in this country. I have done this because our system of government is being seriously challenged by subversive groups operating under various names.

"Trojan horse" minorities within Austria, Czechoslovakia, Poland, Finland, and Holland made it impossible for these countries to offer any serious resistance to foreign invasion in Czechoslovakia there was a Nazi organization having a membership of 1,500,000. Subversive activities in Poland enabled the German government to obtain complete information as to that nation's military plans fully six weeks before the order to invade Poland was given by Hitler.

In Finland the situation was such that subversive groups promptly formed a plan of government in opposition to the duly constituted government of Finland. The activities of "fifth columnists" in Norway have been given widespread publicity and we all know the result. According to Earl Browder, the Communist Party has 5,600 branches in the United States and in the period 1935 to 1949 its membership increased from 25,000 to 100,000. Write this number does not seem impressive in a nation of more than 130,000,000 people, it should be remembered that in the spring of the revolution in Russia the Communist Party had a claimed membership of 60,000, yet the Communists were able to overthrow the government of that country.

In China the Communist Party claims to have 416,000 members and that group now controls one-fifth of China. In Germany the Communist Party claimed a membership of 226,000 members in the fall before the Hitler election. Recent statistics revealed a total of 6,000,000 votes for Communist Party candidates. I cite these figures to emphasize the fact that although the claimed membership of the Communist Party is usually small, the subversive activities have usually resulted in surprisingly destructive ends. Communism knows no boundaries. In the published works of Lenin, Marx, and others prominent in the movement it is stressed repeatedly not to be confined to any one country. In furtherance of this objective that communism is a world theory, communists have established organizations throughout the world and in many instances have masked their activities by the use of fine-sounding names not likely to arouse suspicion.

The testimony before the Dies Committee clearly indicates that communists in the United States have played an important role in the spread of a communistic doctrine, the stimulation of discontent, and in furtherance of their ultimate objective—the overthrow of the government of the United States. Let us not be deceived or lulled into a false feeling of security. If 60,000 communists in Russia could bring about the destruction of the Russian government, what can 100,000 communists conceivably accomplish in the United States? If 416,000 communists can exercise control over one-fifth of China, ought not we immediately arouse ourselves to the imminent danger which may result from indifference. The accepted technique of the communists is "boring from within." They secure membership in all manner of organizations and proceed to gather force sufficient for control. Oftentimes loyal American citizens unwittingly give aid to the enemy by participating in some "well-named" movements ostensibly engaged in effecting some reform. Americans will serve their country well by refraining from participating in "popular front" organizations.

FIRES ARE CONTINUOUS
GRAND LEDGE (MPA) — Local firemen are now taking blazes as part of the daily routine. Fifteen fires in 15 days is the record made by the local department, recently by the fourteenth fire, a car with the upholstery ablaze, was brought to the fire department.

WOMEN ACCEPT OFFER
BAD AXE (MPA)—Off and on during the year, women have taken advantage of a special leap year offer made by the county clerk of free marriage licenses to all women who apply in person, but recently three young ladies applied in one day, raising the clerk's $3 from his own pocket. A unit of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps has been established at the University of Michigan in cooperation with the United States Navy Department. It is expected that 75 freshmen will be enrolled annually 50 of which will be graduated at the end of the four year.

Miss Kathryn Giltner of Ann Arbor, a member of the Northville high school faculty, visited Monday in the village. She and her mother have recently returned from a week trip through the East.

The Record's Farm Scrap Book

FOR 4-H CLUB BOYS AND THEIR DADS

By Willard Boite of Stonycreekmouth Farm

They Roost on the Floor

Ralph Lawrence of Gilbert, Iowa, keeps 700 Leghorn hens without a single place to roost in the hen house. The floor is of wire mesh on 2x4 foundation—and his hens roost on the floor. The floor frames are hinged for cleaning out—but he only cleans once each year. And he uses wire mesh—without nesting material—for the bottom of his nests.

Dump Body for Farm Truck

The specially-built dump body for a farm truck—shown above—saves much time and labor in both loading and unloading. When used for transporting farm machinery the machine is loaded by means of a hand-operated winch and wire cable.

Nebraska Builds a "Dobe" Hen House

Every visitor to the arid regions of this country is familiar with mud or adobe buildings—many of which have stood for more than a century. Because of their thick walls and great insulating power, adobe buildings are superior for protecting the interior against extremes of both heat and cold. The sketch above shows a new poultry house that was built out of rammed earth at the Nebraska Experiment Station, to test the durability of this type of construction. The material was a mixture of 60% granulated clay, 35% sand, and 5% cement—molded and tamped in wooden forms. The walls are a foot thick and were waterproofed with "resen" waterproofing. Tests indicate that this building is 8 degrees cooler in summer, and 3 degrees warmer in winter, than ordinary frame construction. It's much cheaper, top.

OLD HOUSE IS WIRED

ROME (MPA)—A 93-year-old home here was recently wired for electricity for the first time. Labor for the house was cut from nearby trees, and Indians watched building operations. Lighted first with candles, about 25 years later three oil lamps were purchased from a salesman named John D. Rockefeller. One of these lamps, that served for 58 years, is now wired for electricity and graces a 99-year-old table.

Jack Kahrl, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kahrl, is at Camp Bricket for two weeks.

SURVIVES DEATH BLOW

MT. PLEASANT (MPA)—Henry Jennings, Lincoln township farmer, decided he would have to put a deformed calf born on his farm out of its misery. A blow on the animal's head from a three-pound hammer was thought to have done the deed. Later, children returning from school found the calf in good health, with the deformity apparently remedied.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Thompson and family have returned to their home in Cleveland, O., after visiting with Mrs. Orlan, Mrs. Ella Thompson and families.

News from Walled Lake

By C. E. Hutton.
The Oakland County chapter of the American Red Cross is conducting weekly classes in swimming and life-saving at 10 a. m. each Wednesday at East Shore Beach, East Lake Drive at Fourteen Mile road. The classes are open to the public. Instructors are Miss Dorothea Lawrence, director of water safety; Miss Mary Richardson, W.P.A. water safety instructor; and Miss Marian Chase, instructor in swimming and life saving.

Mrs. Glenn Buffmeyer, for many years prominent in women's club and association activities in Oakland County, has been appointed to the National Republican Finance committee by Mrs. Alfred C. Wilson, state chairman, Rochester.

Mrs. Buffmeyer continues as a member of the non-partisan Citizen's League of Oakland county, in which she holds a membership in the committee on Candidates and Issues.

Six hundred and sixty-eight dinners were served at the annual picnic of St. Williams Church Sunday. The affair was highly successful according to committee members, with most of the large attendance remaining to participate in the many other entertainment features throughout the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carnes, who recently returned from a week's stay in Traverse City, are spending several days at Hi-Lo club, near Lewiston.

Jerome Yeffaw, 21 of 9210 Petosky, Detroit, pleaded guilty Monday before Justice Arthur R. Green to driving while intoxicated at Walled Lake Saturday night. He was sentenced to 60 days in jail when he was unable to pay a fine of $50 and $5 costs. He was arrested by Deputy E. L. McQueen.

Funeral service was held Tuesday for Miss Anna Kyle, 74 years old, who died at her home on Friday. Miss Kyle was an Oakland county pioneer, having lived her entire life on the Kyle farm, three miles east of Walled Lake on West Maple road. She was a member of the Walled Lake Baptist Church and the Walled Lake chapter of the W.C.T.U. She leaves a sister, Elizabeth and two brothers, William and James. Burial was in North Farmington cemetery.

Walled Lake gentry (Community Luncheon Club) were to take over Briggs Stadium Wednesday afternoon and extend a varied assortment of cheers to the boys of the home team as they—the home team—took the field against "them New Yorks." The local lads were to take over to the extent of about 70 seats, anyway. (There are some rabid fans in these here parts. With the crack of the first bat in the spring opener to the last man out in the fall, baseball, as effects the "Detroiters" is one of the more important topics of conversation among the etherites. (The ether being the principal point of contact, most of the time for most of the rabids.) One can easily find out the cause of a Tiger loss, whenever that happens, by listening in on any one of a number of the post-mortems that are inevitably held after each game, at any of the several soft drink spots in the village.

NEIGHBORS HELP OUT
ZEELAND (MPA) — Returning from the hospital after an operation, John Geerts was pleasantly surprised when a crew of neighbors came to help do his spring farm work. Ten men worked all day plowing and harrowing his crop land.

ANOTHER EGG RECORD
NORTH BRANCH (MPA)—An egg record to end all egg records has been reported here by Mrs. John Turner. One of the hens in her flock of white socks laid an egg 10 inches around the long way, and eight inches around the center. It was perfectly formed, and inside was a normal egg.

Campaign Strategy Up To Vandenberg

(By Michigan Mirror)

LANSING—The 1940 campaign strategy of the Republican state central committee has centered to a major degree on Arthur H. Vandenberg.

First committee leaders hoped the national ticket would be headed by the United States senator from Michigan. In this objective the committee had sympathetic support from Vandenberg himself. The senator declined to campaign actively for the nomination and said that while he was available for duty he was not an open candidate for the office.

A national ticket headed by Vandenberg would put Michigan safely into the Republican column next November, so the thesis went. Michigan could be depended upon, they argued, to support a native son for the White House.

Second, the committee counted on Vandenberg if the national convention did not nominate him for the presidency, to head the Michigan ticket for reelection. Indirectly it was an indication by state party chiefs that one of their sources of popular strength in November would be Vandenberg.

In either reckoning—national or state ticket—Vandenberg was to set the pace.

Vandenberg, Career

It was twelve years ago that Woodbridge N. Ferris, a former Democratic governor and member of the United States senate, died suddenly.

As editor of the Grand Rapids Herald, Vandenberg had been one of the first to declare for Fred Green as Republican candidate for governor against Groesbeck. Although there was some talk about giving a temporary appointment to Joseph Fordney of Saginaw, who for many years was chairman of the ways-and-means committee of the House, Governor Green gave the appointment to Vandenberg.

Vandenberg thus in the year 1928 came to Washington straight over the heads of county and state officials. While Vandenberg had traveled, had spoke and had written for the Republican state committee, he had never enthused over the state legislature or had mixed much with the county chairmen and with the boys who control the votes in the wards. A gifted man, he was not a state politician.

Vandenberg was born 56 years ago in Grand Rapids of Dutch and English blood. His father was a harness maker in Grand Rapids, and the family was poor. When the youth went to the University of Michigan to study in the law class of 1904, he worked his own way but for reasons of health had to retire at the end of his first year.

He is fond of saying frankly that the best thing the college gave him was a wife.

NOVI DEBATE

In numbers at least, possibly in other ways, the club ladies led the men. Mrs. Andrew Harmon, secretary for years, later assistant editor of the Northville Record, Mrs. A. N. Kimmis, Jr., Mrs. Jay Hazen, Mrs. Judd Richardson, Mrs. B. B. Power, Mrs. T. E. Johns, Mrs. J. Dunham were in the group. These were our standby essayists," he affirms.

In telling of his own participation in the club events, Mr. Kimmis pens, "I was about 17 when I mustered sufficient courage to begin taking part in debates and I was the only kid on the job. When I first started it broke my heart if the old debaters picked up anything I had said, but soon it was 'busted' if they did not go after me, because I felt I had said nothing worth consideration."

"Of some of the debaters, he writes: 'J. B. Leavenworth, old in body but a mind as sharp as a razor, full of facts, backed by a fine library. Kimmis, Jr., not an orator, no wasted words. A stickler for facts, combined with a sarcastic tongue, was T. E. Johns. Our grammarian and orator was David Gage, with lively native Irish wit. N. A. Clapp was not an opponent to be taken lightly, either."

"Others assisting in the general programs were Kate Dunham, Mrs. Marvin Bogart and daughters, Alta and Lulu, LaRue Bogart, Agnes Gage, Nina Richardson, Blanche Dunham, Irma and Merry West.

Also Coughdon, Sisle and Blanche Bennett, Gertrude and Gertha Haggert, Gertrude Sibley, Seymour Brown, John Power, S. C. Gage, and others whose names slide me at the moment," continues Mr. Clapp. Visitors came from Northville, South Lyon, Novi, Wilton, Walled Lake, Milford, New Hudson and from "in-between" territory.

"Arthur Rogers, Harry Bogart, Jimmie became the West Novi Debating Club Juniors. At this time, Northville high school had one of the best debating teams in its history and issued a challenge to the juniors for a debate. Our older members were not quite sure as to just how good their juniors might do on foreign ground, so the secretary had placed a statement in The Northville Record. 'We want it distinctly understood that it is the Junior W. N. D. C. which is debating Northville, and not the regular W. N. D. C.'"

"Three judges decided the debate and our older members need not have worried as we won the decision unanimously.

"About this time, W. N. D. C. was staging a number of joint debates with Novi, where a debating club had been organized with Attorneys George Yerkes and A. Newton Wix on as leaders. Others were R. F. Courter, J. B. Austin, James McVicar, Harvey Ingersoll and Ernest Blanchard," he said.

As the years went by, the debates were given up, but once each year the members would meet for a reunion. This, too, has had to be given up, with death claiming so many and distances keeping other members apart.
