Our America is worth defending . . . living for . . . and if necessary dying for.

Why We Have Conscription

"Germany has neither the wish nor the intention to mix in internal Austrian affairs or to annex or unite with Austria."—Hitler to the Reichstag, May 21, 1935.

March 11, 1938, Hitler took possession of Austria. This (the Sudetenland) is the last territorial demand I have to make in Europe . . . I further assured him (Chamberlain) and I repeat here that if this problem is solved there will be no further territorial problems in Europe for Germany . . . I give him the guarantee: We do not want any Czechs."—Hitler to the world in the Berlin Sportpalast, September 26, 1938.

March 15, 1939, Hitler entered Prague, signaling the end of Czechoslovakia.

We (Germany and Poland) succeeded in arriving at an agreement which for the duration of 10 years basically removes the danger of any clash . . . We are two peoples. They shall live. One cannot annihilate the other."—Hitler to the world in the Berlin Sportpalast, September 26, 1938.

September 1, 1939, Poland was invaded. Warsaw was blasted from the face of the earth, and the country was wiped off the map.

"The German Reich and the kingdom of Denmark will under no circumstances resort to war or any other form of violence against each other."—Article 1 of peace pact signed in Berlin, May 31, 1939.

April 9, 1940, Hitler's Nazis entered Denmark and began looting the country of supplies.

"In the spirit long existing of good German-Norwegian relations the Reich government notifies the Norwegian government that she has no intention through her measures, now or in the future, of infringing upon the territorial integrity or the political independence of the kingdom of Norway."—From Berlin, April 9, 1940.

April 9, 1940, at 3 a. m. Hitler's troops invaded Norway.

"We are ready to acknowledge and guarantee these states (Belgium, Holland, Luxembourg) at all times as inviolable, neutral territory."—Hitler in the Reichstag, January 29, 1937.

May 10, 1940, Hitler invaded Luxembourg, Belgium and Holland, leaving Rotterdam.

"Germany has no territorial possessions in the American continent and has given no occasion whatever for the assumption that she intends to acquire such possessions."—Hitler, July 5, 1940.

And that's why this country has conscription—to make sure that Herr Hitler continues to have no intention of acquiring possessions on the American continent. Milwaukee Journal

All of our problems could be settled easily, if we were only willing to think.

We get a real laugh out of the movement started by the inmates of the Jackson State Prison to remove the habitual criminal statute from the law books of Michigan. The inmates are financing a war chest, and hiring attorneys to carry their cause to the people.

Mr. Speaker, why have farm prices remained far below parity or cost of production for the 7 years of the New Deal? Here are some of the answers:

In 1932, as a candidate for President, Franklin D. Roosevelt solemnly promised American farmers that he would protect their home market from the disastrous effects of cheap foreign competition. He emphatically pledged that he would not reduce tariff duties or cheaply produced agricultural imports sought to be sold in this country by saying:

"I know of no effective excessively high tariff duties on farm products. I do not intend that such duties shall be lowered. To do so would be inconsistent with my entire farm program, and every farmer knows it and will not be deceived."

Did President Roosevelt keep this promise to American farmers? Let the record speak for itself.

As a part of his good-neighbor policy to foreign farmers, the President negotiated 22 trade agreements with foreign nations and drastically reduced tariff duties on 163 competitive farm products, which made it easier and cheaper for foreign producers to flood our markets with products cheaply raised on foreign soil.

Partial list of foreign farm imports upon which duties were cut 25 to 50 percent: Cattle, hogs, pork, bacon, milk, cream, cheese, chickens, ducks, turkeys, eggs, honey, barley, corn, oats, rye, apples, berries, clover, alfalfa, cabbage, potatoes, and other vegetables, and so forth. All of these products are produced in surplus quantities in the United States. While the Government is spending millions of dollars to remove these domestic surpluses, it permits the importation of hundreds of millions of dollars worth of the same products to glut the market and further depress domestic prices.

August H. Andresen, M. C. Minnesota.

And when I see our young folks these fine evenings and long into the night, I just want to remind them that love and devotion are both true, full time jobs. Either one of these jobs is truly worthwhile, but don't try to do both.

Forty per cent of all Michigan liquor outlets are in Wayne county. An additional 10 per cent are in counties touching on Wayne, Oakland, Washtenaw, Monroe and Macomb.

PROPOSALS

 case of a man who buys a house on a long term plan because he would be unable to own one any other way.

Proposition No. 2 This is another proposed amendment to the constitution, placed on the ballot through petitions sponsored by the Michigan Men's System Association.

Its passage would write civil service into the basic law of the state, strip the legislature of virtually all its traditional powers over state employment, and place this authority in the hands of a four-member non-partisan commission, functioning directly under the constitution.

Proposition No. 3 This is an act of the 1939 legislature now being brought before the electorate for a referendum vote.

It would remove the right of municipalities to operate buses beyond their own limits without being subject to state regulation.

Probably this measure is known as the D. S. R. (Detroit Street Railways) act because it represents a fight between the city's lines and private bus interests over the metropolitan Detroit area.

The D. S. R. is waging a vigorous campaign to defeat the measure. Bus tops and first class D. S. R. cars are painted conspicuously with "Vote No on Proposition No. 3" signs. The opposition meanwhile, is plastering the area with "Vote Yes" placards.

Back of the controversy is the interesting story of a legalistic oversight which occurred during the 1939 session of the legislature.

By way of background it should be mentioned that for years the D. S. R. has had the benefit of certain privileges granted in the city charter. One of these permitted it to operate without state control in and for 10 miles outside of Detroit.

However, if and when its buses should venture beyond that radius they would come under the jurisdiction of the public service (or utilities) commission.

This was the situation up to 1939, when the newly elected Republican legislature followed the dictates of the late Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald and abolished the public utilities commission in order to remove some recalcitrant Democrats from office.

The act which accomplished this purpose set up a brand new public service commission that was supposed to inherit all the important privileges and authority of the D. S. R. There was one stip in the procedure, however. The legislature neglected to give the new commission the right to regulate municipal buses outside of city areas.

After the law took effect the host went up from private bus lines who visualized the D. S. R. as being now in a position to spread out over all of eastern Michigan. And so the legislature passed an amendment to correct the situation.

It is this measure that appears on the referendum ballot.

Briefly, it amends the State motor carrier act which was originally designed to regulate privately owned lines, so as to include municipal buses. This would prevent the D. S. R. from operating more than two miles beyond the city limits of Detroit without a permit from the public service commission.

In other words, the D. S. R. would be obliged to haul in some of its suburban lines or submit to state regulation.

According to the private bus firms the act would equalize competition by causing the D. S. R. and any other city lines operating outside their boundaries to pay equal taxes and meet comparable safety requirements. From the Detroit city viewpoint, however, the act is an attack upon home rule and an attempt to penalize suburbanites who now share in lower fares the D. S. R. has made possible.

Proposition No. 4 This is also an act of the 1939 legislature put on the ballot by petitions calling for a referendum.

It would prohibit the practice of dentistry in Michigan. The act was sponsored by the Michigan State Dental Society and is similar to laws in effect in some other states.

The aim of the measure is to raise the standards of dental practice, but some of its provisions, particularly those which deal with the right of a dentist to advertise as he pleases, have met opposition from newspapers and advertising dentists on the ground that the law would abridge individual rights.

The society claims it has found upon investigation that so-called "bargain" prices offered by some dentists have the sole purpose of luring patrons to "cut-rate" offices where they are then victimized into paying more than the prices of ordinary practitioners.

The society contends the act is necessary to correct such abuses.

It would prohibit dentists from advertising by means of large display signs and would outlaw, in newspaper advertising and on professional cards, all matter except name, degree, address, and office hours.

"White Magic" for Business:

HOW TO MAKE DOLLARS WITH LIGHT!

IN YOUR STORE: Selling merchandise with LIGHT is like pulling dollars out of a hat... it doesn't seem possible. But many alert, progressive business men are using this powerful selling tool every day to ring up extra cash sales and boost profits. These two facts have been definitely proved: (1) Good lighting in show windows will often DOUBLE their stopping power and attract more customers. (2) Clever "spot lighting" and featured displays inside the store will frequently TRIPLE sales on specific items.

IN YOUR FACTORY: Increases in production of 10% to 35% have been achieved through improved lighting in industrial plants. Good lighting cuts down spoilage, makes accurate inspection possible, and is an important factor in promoting safety. Figure its cost—approximately three-tenths of one per cent of production cost—against a possible 10% or more INCREASE in production, plus 5% or more savings from fewer accidents and fewer errors and rejects... and there is only one conclusion: Good lighting pays dividends.

We will be glad to send one of our Lighting Staff to study your lighting problems and offer recommendations without charge. Phone your Detroit Edison office. The Detroit Edison Company.

Close to 450 men were estimated to be eligible for draft registration in Commerce township on the eve of registration day, Wednesday. Probably half that number were not yet born at the time of the World War draft. The other half at that time ranged from swaddling clothes age to lads in the college shooting era, while we were engaged in making the world safe for democracy... and for these 450.

Michigan State college home extension course work resumed Tuesday morning at the home of Mrs. Henry Moss. This has been one of the more important women's activities here for several years, comprising lessons on many phases of home making. Tuesday's subject was "Vegetables." Fresh Canned or Frozen? (No knowing the nature of the discussion, we'd still venture to champion the "fresh" variety, generally speaking, from a purely physiological standpoint—on the basis of maximum vitamin content.) The family just completed a 7-day vitamin spree on vegetable exclusively. Yea should try a raw carrot, sometime, or a delectable hunk of cabbage in the raw, or slightly steamed.)

Mrs. Harry Avery and Mrs. Waldo Proctor are again the class leaders. Mrs. Harry Decker is secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Henry Moss is meeting chairman and Mrs. H. G. Roach is in charge of recreation.

When the model is subjected to loads which represent the conditions of actual use, bright bands of color appear like miniature rainbows, indicating the sections of greatest strain.

MECHANIZED PREPAREDNESS

Mechanized and motorized forces are essential to telephone preparedness. In Michigan there are 1,275 telephone trucks and cars—most of them equipped with tools, power units and material. Their day-by-day work may not seem dramatic. But in time of emergency... flood, tornado, alert storm... these mechanized forces can be mobilized like an army. For instance, following the 1938 hurricane in New England, Michigan's trucks and trained crews worked side by side in the storm area with others from as far west as Nebraska. Mechanized preparedness is but one of many reasons why this Company is ready to do its part in the program of national defense.

Mrs. McCarthy Gives Book Review at Woman's Club

Reviewing Richard Jewell's currently popular book "How Green Was My Valley," Mrs. Willis E. McCarthy gave a book review to the regular sessions of the Northville Woman's Club in the library reading room. Her review gave evidence of a genuine liking for the book, revealing critical study of the author's treatment of his subject matter. Mrs. M. J. Lapham was program chairman of the day.

A report was given before the club by Mrs. L. M. Eaton, who told of the plans of the Coordinating Council for a citizenship banquet, Oct. 29. Mrs. Bruno Freydl presented a resolution for the late M. S. Cass (Sophia) Benton.

Plans for the luncheon to be held Friday, Oct. 25, at Waldenwoods were presented by Mrs. Thad J. Knapp, who said that transportation reservations were to be made to the committee. Club members will spend the afternoon going through the wearing and afterthoughts at Hartland.

The new members—Mrs. Roy W. Covel, Mrs. F. R. Reng and Mrs. E. R. Wadsworth—were welcomed by the president Mrs. Harry F. Wagenschurz.

A tea this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ernest H. Wood will honor these new members.

Attending the couple were the bride's sister, Miss Helen Shoemaker, and the bride's mother, Mrs. Clara Smith.

The bride wore a traveling gown of blue crepe and a corsage of orchids. Miss Shoemaker was dressed in blue silk and wore a corsage of sea roses.

After the ceremony, a dinner was served to the bridal party and a number of friends at the Brayman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith left early in the afternoon for the northern part of the state for a wedding trip. They will return next week to make their home at 2346 N. Main road.

Mr. Smith is employed by the Novi Equipment company, and has lived in Novi all his life. Both are popular members of the young set there.

Nuptial Mass Is Held Saturday Morning for Miss Frances Cuba and Anton Fons

A nuptial mass was sung at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, Oct. 12, in Our Lady of Victory church by the Rev. Fr. Joseph Schramm for Miss Frances Cuba of Northville, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cuba of Silver Creek, Neb., and Anton Fons of Detroit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fons of Edgar, Wis.

The church and altar were made attractive by the treatment of basic arrangements of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. Paul Lovewell, wore a gown styled in fitted lines of ivory slipper satin, a train falling from unpressed box pleats. This was accented by a fingertip veil held in place with gardenias. Her only adornment was a gold locket which her mother wore on her wedding day. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums tied with a satin bow of white.

Her attendant was her aunt, Dr. Victoria Lovewell, who wore a yellow chiton style fashioned in a short waist and with rhinestone buttons. Her lead dress was held in place with carnations. She carried an arm bouquet of orange chrysanthemums, tied with yellow mulline.

Mike Slock of Detroit, a cousin of the bride, was Mr. Fons' best man.

Following the ceremony, a breakfast for 12 guests was held at Hillside Inn, Plymouth. A reception for close friends and immediate members of the families was held later at the home of Dr. Lovewell in Northville.

A dinner is being planned for Monday, Oct. 28, in the home of Mrs. Henry A. Grumshaw. Sharing hostess duties with her will be Mrs. Myron C. Gurnell, Mrs. F. B. Catell, J. and Mrs. Bayard K. Keith. The affair will be a costume party for the four new members—Mrs. Russell M. Atchison, Mrs. Donald Ward, Mrs. Helen Bervy and Mrs. Aubrey Galt.

Past Matrons' Club Names New Officers

When members of the Past Matrons' club had a dinner party Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Leo Lawrence, they elected Mrs. Homer A. Boylan president for the year and Mrs. Ward Maters, secretary-treasurer.

Make Plans for Navy Day, Oct. 24

Left: D. Dwight Douglas, General State Chairman for Navy Day; Right: Capt. R. Thornton Broadhead, high ranking officer of the Michigan Naval Reserve.

Governor Luren D. Dickinson has issued a proclamation urging the observance of Navy Day throughout Michigan, Thursday, Oct. 24.

Normally Navy Day occurs on the anniversary of the birthday of Theodore Roosevelt, known as the father of the modern American Navy. That date this year falls on a Sunday, however, and the change was made accordingly.

D. Dwight Douglas, general chairman for the Michigan observance, and Capt. R. Thornton Broadhead, head of the Michigan Naval Reserve, together with the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion, are working on the plans with a large general committee.

Local chairman will be named throughout the state and will announce their committees and plans shortly.

Mrs. Mary Ann Graham has returned from a day of several weeks at her relatives in Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mockridge of Royal Oak, spent Sunday in Novi.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Battelle of Detroit, are visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Battelle.

Mr. Oscar Graham and child, who have been sick with colds, are now well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walters, once June Latta, have moved into their new home near Lake Orion.

Mrs. J. A. Munro, who is still in University Hospital, Ann Arbor, is improving daily.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wellwood, Detroit, were callers Sunday at the home of Mrs. B. G. Peltier.

Miss Annemarie (Betty) and Miss 330 earned money under motor vehicles in number ranges from several units to whole fleets. The first big event to be completely motorized about a decade ago, estimated that for each month it was on the road it saved $20.00 in operating expenses by using motor trucks.

With rapid improvements in cars in recent years, the automobile industry has become the nation's No. 1 customer for steel, malleable iron, nickel, lead, mohair and other commodities. The motor plans spend about $1,000,000 an hour for raw materials and fabricated parts when production is good.

APPROVE INSTALLMENT PLANS FOR FINANCING RURAL TELEPHONE

The Public Service Commission this week extended the installment payment plan to the financing of rural telephone construction in the territory of the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

That was accomplished through the issuance of an order approving a new rural telephone construction plan recommended by farm leaders and described by the Michigan Bell company as the most liberal in the history of communications in this state.

The plan will permit applicants for rural service to pay for line extensions, beyond an initial non-chargable allowance, in monthly installments over a five-year period. Always in the past, these charges had to be paid in a lump sum in advance of construction.

Friends of the plan cited other advantages. For one thing, the maximum construction charge, based on the initial allowance, is scaled down from $500 to $270 a mile under the new plan. No charge will be made for wire connecting the main line to the house up to 500 feet from the highway with a charge of five cents a foot beyond that distance. New construction will be located on private right-of-way supplied by the applicants, a provision which will tend to eliminate the hazard of fire interference that is sometimes met along lines that follow the highway.

Under the plan, no construction charge will be made if the number of applicants averages one per 3 1/2 mile of rural line extension. If the number does not reach that average, the cost will be met by a charge of 42 cents a month per 1 1/2 mile in excess of this rural allowance, and will be greater if more applicants served by the extension.

Payments will extend over a five-year period. The plan also provides that the monthly installments will be reduced as additional applicants are served along a particular line extension.

Inhabitants of farms and communities of less than a thousand population travel 64 business miles as compared to 26 for recreational and social purposes. Residents of urban communities travel 51 business miles to 49 recreational and social. The combined comparison of automobile use totals 55 per cent for business purposes and 45 per cent for recreational and social purposes, according to the Public Roads Administration.

OLD BILL says
"Here's what I think—"

"If I were a business man, I'd certainly remember the staggering debt of 60 billions spent in the past seven and a half years, the mounting burden of taxes, and the un-American inciting of class against class. Let's give business a chance!"

"If I were a farmer, I'd think twice about today's low farm prices, our threatening national bankruptcy, and I'd support this next-door Hoosier just because it makes good horse sense. Here's a man who owns his own farms. You can't go wrong with Willie."

"If I were a mother, I'd surely want to know how far the Brain Trust has involved us down a costly and bloody road to war. Who and where are those 2,600,000 American boys going to fight, anyway—in France again, or Japan?"

"If I were a laboring man, I'd want a steady job with good pay and reasonable hours. I can trust a man like Willie, who rose humbly as a worker himself to responsibility as an employer of thousands of folks. He served even as legal counsel for labor unions, wants to preserve and extend our social security laws, and otherwise give the worker a real deal. I'd believe in a man who proved during the depression that it could be done—lowering consumer costs and putting more men to work, both at the same time! After all, you've got to have a job first before you can bargain with anyone."

"Well, if I were a veteran, I'd remember that Willie volunteered within 24 hours after we got into the last war. He won his captaincy by overseas service on the front line, not by White House pull. He didn't warm a soldier's seat at Washington, either."

"I see by the papers that the Gallup poll shows one out of every three persons hasn't made up his mind whether to vote four years for Willie or nine, ten, eleven and twelve years for Roosevelt."

"If I were a laborer, I'd want a steady job with good pay and reasonable hours. I can trust a man like Willie, who rose humbly as a worker himself to responsibility as an employer of thousands of folks. He served even as legal counsel for labor unions, wants to preserve and extend our social security laws, and otherwise give the worker a real deal. Game Notice

Today, Friday, at 9:30 p.m. the Northville Mustangs will clash with Melvindale in Cass Benton Park. This game will be second league one played so far this season.

Miss Frances Alexander, who teaches in Lapeer, spent the week end in the village with her mother, Mrs. P. R. Alexander.

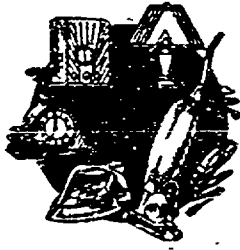

Junior High Notes

Last Thursday and Friday Mrs. Bakerstrom taught the junior high, as Mrs. Ida B. Cooke was in Grand Rapids.

The new junior high cheerleader is Isabel Beall. They have been practicing yells, so if you've heard queer noises this week, you know what it is for.

Mrs. William Rawls Brown is making plans to spend the winter in her home at Daytona Beach, Fla. She'll leave about the twenty-seventh of the month.

N. H. S. To Have Vocational Aid

Science Research Association Will Give Guidance to Local Students

Arrangements have been made with the Science Research Association for the use of their Occupational Information System to furnish vocational guidance in Northville high school.

Sept. R. H. Amerman says that through cooperation with this organization we will be able to provide answers for practically all job questions which students raise, and it will be another step forward in the school's attempt to help young people choose and prepare for their life work.

Special attention has been called to the following magazines and monographs: Vocational trends, military occupations, vocational guide, reprints and abstracts, basic occupational plans, and research service. Any student requesting any further information can write to the Science Research Association by contacting the coordinator of the high school and they will receive a personal reply.

Senior Sketch

Betty Jean Yerkes has lived in Northville all her life, but she did choose a different location for her place of birth which was Pontiac, June 16, 1923. Betty has a variety of favorite subjects which include choir, bookkeeping, home making and typing. Last summer she traveled throughout Northern Michigan, but this did not satisfy her and she has a desire to visit warmer places—California and Florida. Turkey and oysters are high on the list of her favorite food, and egg plant and oysters top the list of the food she dislikes. She says her pet peeve is when Dave neglects to shave. Betty's pets are cats and dogs. Her hobby, nursing, is closely connected with her ambition to become a doctor, but she expects to start housekeeping as soon as she graduates. Her address is 3060 Nine Mile road.

April Fool, yes, April Fool, for the lad I am going to enlighten you about was born on this eventful day, in 1923. A son of Northville, brethren he has a flair for music. Anything you can't hear him swing out on his clarinet or exercise his vocal cords with melodic melody. Although he can give out with music, his foremost ambition is to be a flyer. Still you might see the headlines in the years to come like this: "Famous Band Leader Flies to Mars"—who knows?

One favorite hideout which he attends with his favorite gal, is Tony's where you hear the trill of many voices and the harmony of the nickelodeon. Is this an embarrassing moment you don't like, Percy? Other dislikes are arguments (watch that, Valora), losing ping pong games, and school. A highlight in his career was the first time the Blue Baron made a public appearance. So I'm introducing to you Bob Doyden.

Stuart Whitfield, acting chairman of the Oakland County ChapStern American Red Cross, announces that Byron Webb has been appointed County Roll Call chairman for the twenty-fourth Roll Call of the American Red Cross. Mr. Webb will appoint this week the members of the committee which will assist him during the membership campaign which will begin Nov. 11. This year's goal is 17,000 members, an increase of 3788 over the present membership of 13,212. County board members in each township will conduct their own Roll Call at dates suitable to each community.

"Maybe"

Well, my friends, here's your philosopher back again. As I was saying last week, I was cut short by the lack of space—if the boys keep up their good work they'll bring a great deal of respect and honor to dear old N. H. S.—and there's no "maybe" about that. Well, the boys brought "honor" and respect" to N. H. S. by galloping for a 25-14 victory over Brighton last week, but they didn't "keep up their good work." No street even the boys did run, they looked like they were carrying a heavy load. "Crunching" in fact, my little friend, the groundhog, told me he overheard Coach Smith remark to the boys between halves: "You men in the backfield look like you're crawling up to the line on your hands and knees—that's all the faster you're going." I felt sorry for those poor line men last week. You know, rouse guys in the backfield the line can't hold forever.

Now, my friends, I've seen my duty and I'm off. I'd better get back to my friend, the groundhog, and stay until time for today's game.

Miss Ruth Pierce Is New Grade Teacher

Miss Ruth Pierce, the new third grade teacher, was born in Highland Park and attended three grade schools. She was graduated from Northwestern in Detroit and from Wayne University.

When asked her favorite pastime she informed us that it was sewing, and that she makes most of her own clothes. She also enjoys all kinds of sports. Miss Pierce likes Northville very much, and enjoys teaching here much more than in Detroit.

Her new residence is 113 West Street.

Around the School

The first hour Related Art Class is discussing doing some rug weaving and some raffia work.

Have you seen that relieved look on the faces of so many seniors this week? The reason, Mr. Neville Walker gave them a test last Friday and they found out that the test wasn't so hard after all. But that doesn't mean we like 'em, Mr. Walker!

Accompanying the looks of relief there were also utterable beaming expressions on the faces of the following students: Barbara Curtis, Frank Eaton, Edward Erwin, Engla Peterson, Ida Marie Walker, Joan Hilt, Mary Ann Murray and Lucy Ritchie. And why couldn't they have bright faces? Each one received an A on the Government test.

The Harvest Dance will be given by the Junior class, Nov. 1. The students on the orchestra committee are: Robert Stremlich, Shirley Musolf and Mary Holis. Decorations will be planned by Blanche Miller, Harold Schoutz, Don Barnard and Cristobel Stoianoff.

The first and second year French classes have subscribed to the Le Petit Journal at the price of 22 cents per semester. Some bright individual copies others dubbed up subscriptions. The contents are: crossword puzzle, word, colliers of the committee which will assist him during the membership campaign which will begin Nov. 11. This year's goal is 17,000 members, an increase of 3788 over the present membership of 13,212. County board members in each township will conduct their own Roll Call at dates suitable to each community.

Harry Porter, a 1940 graduate, now attending Ferris Institute in Big Rapids, has been elected treasurer of the freshman class.

The mechanical drawing class had a test Friday, Oct. 11. The test was diagraming a table on paper and giving it the proper dimensions. Merle Wheeler gave the class till Monday night to have it finished or get a failing mark.

Some of the girls of Home-making II class are finishing the cutting out of their dresses. Others have started basting. The girls are looking very anxious towards having their dresses finished by the end of the month.

After the Mustangs defeat the Big Melvindale squad today, the Student Council will throw a two-bit dance, which will cost all you

Travelogue

Miss Jane Palmer's vacation trip took her to the East this year again as in previous years. She also saw the New York World's Fair for the second time. Last year she traveled by airplane, so this year for contrast she boarded a train and headed for Bridgeport, Conn., where her sister lives.

When she made a tour of the fair, she was interested to learn that the site was a former dump in likeness to mountains of ashes. She was also attracted by the world's largest locomotive.

She was especially interested in the eighteen art galleries containing representatives of masterpieces from all over the world from the sixteenth to the nineteenth century. Being a French teacher, she was particularly impressed by the six galleries of French schools. Her favorite painting was Renoir's "La Petite Margot, Berard."

Miss Palmer also spent some time in New Haven at Yale University. In driving along the coast she was surprised to note the scenery changes at the result of the disastrous windstorm which they had.

The beach saw Miss Palmer almost daily. She also took in the Statue of Liberty and the Riverside Drive to Grant's tomb.

Stoianoff Hurt in Practice Game

In the practice scrimmage Thursday, Northville's reserve team lost a very good player in Robert Stoianoff. He's not very big nor does he weigh very much, but he is a football player anyway. The players carried him to the spe, lines, and he was rushed to a doctor's office. Both bones of the leg were fractured between the knee and ankle.

It is expected that his athletic insurance will cover all expenses.

The pledge of all Latin club members is to become a member of the Aquila Romana. I shall try to do satisfactory school work.

The Latin club voted to have a Latin lesson in the development of the nation, the judge of the imagination, I believe in Latin because it familiarizes one with the nation, and thought of the greatest nation in antiquity, the nation that furnished us with the basis of our own laws and government, language and literature. All of the first year Latin members who were initiated last week bowed very deeply to the teachers on Oct. 11 and said "Salve, Magister" or "Salve, Maestra."

Mr. Voter- WHAT? ABOUT THE THIRD TERM

Two Terms has been the Unwritten Law of Our Republic

Washington, Jefferson and almost every statesman warned again and again about the third term. Always they gave two reasons... To curb the personally "ambitious" and the danger of office holding machines.

The candidate who wishes to junk this tradition, is backed in his ambition by the largest national machine and the most corrupt city machines that has ever disgraced our country.

AMBITIOUS OFFICE HOLDERS WILL ALWAYS FIND JUSTIFICATION FOR ANOTHER TERM
