

Novi High School and Grade Notse

The primary room has been studying about Indians in connection with Thanksgiving. Many children have been absent this week because of illness.

The fifth grade made Thanksgiving booklets in English class.

The sixth grade has a new citizenship code. It has nine airplanes. The class is trying to keep the airplanes high to denote a good behavior record.

For silent reading they have made Thanksgiving posters by following written instructions.

Dorothy Hunt and Betty Monger are a committee planning a short Thanksgiving program in connection with the Citizenship club meeting Nov. 20.

The seventh grade arithmetic class is studying decimals. They wrote friendly letters and addressed envelopes in English, also they wrote to Miss Rendel, Friday.

Audrey Graham, president of the eighth grade, participated in the Armistice program given Monday noon.

Wednesday they elected a new vice-president, as Alvin Killeen, the previous vice-president, has moved from this district. The person elected to hold this office was Jean MacDermid. The class also decided to have a candy sale, Wednesday, Nov. 20.

The ninth graders have elected a new vice-president, as the former president quit school and the vice-president was made president. Orville Wendland is the new vice-president.

We have been quite busy lately with our school work. In English we have been busy writing letters. In history we are studying about the Federal Age. In science we are working in our work books and in commercial arithmetic drawing to scale the school grounds and the school.

The junior high school celebrated Armistice Day, Nov. 11, by first gathering in the auditorium for the 11 o'clock memorial service on the radio. Then we had a short program of our own which consisted of poems, stories, and articles read from papers. The program began with a story by Audrey Graham, and continued with Betty Brooks, Betty Clark, Harold Drouillard, Rex LaPlante and Marcelle Bays.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Walter Leonard

The life chapter ended Friday, Nov. 15, for a Northville pioneer, when death claimed Mrs. Walter (Ella M.) Leonard at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Helen Schneible. She was 83 years of age.

Her husband preceded her in death some 10 years ago. She spent her entire life in Northville and Detroit, being devoted to her home.

Surviving her are a daughter, Mrs. Joseph H. Herron of Berkley, and a sister, Mrs. J. P. Fitzgerald of Detroit. She was the grandmother of Helen Schneible, Joseph L. Herron, Marion Irish, Doris Walter and Shirley Herron of Berkley.

Last rites were held at 2 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 17, from the Schrader chapel, with Ross B. Northrop in charge. Burial was in Rural Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Charles H. Ely

Mrs. Charles H. (Addie Hatton) Ely died Thursday, Nov. 14, at Farmington, a victim of pneumonia. Born the daughter of Richard and Mary Hatton, Feb. 10, 1856, at Franklin, she moved to Farmington in 1883, settling with her parents on the farm well known as the Hatton farm, but now owned by Mr. Sorenson of the Ford Motor company.

She lived practically her entire life near the Farmington community, attending Miss Wheeler's private school before a high school was established. She was a member of the Methodist church.

In December, 1879, she was united in marriage to Charles H. Ely, who preceded her in death in September, 1931. A son, William, also preceded her in death.

Five children survive. They are: Carl of Northville, Mary Johnson, Eugene Bixling, Jenni Meele and Eugene, all of Farmington.

Dennis Ryan

Funeral rites will be held Friday, Nov. 22, for Dennis Ryan of Ayrton, Ont., Can., father of Mrs. Frank Jentgen of this place.

Mr. Ryan died Tuesday, Nov. 19, at the Jentgen home. He was 77 years of age.

Surviving him are his wife, Mary Ann Ryan; two daughters, Mrs. Jentgen and Mrs. A. McCauley of Detroit; and a son, E. T. Ryan of Ayrton.

Funeral services will be held at Ayrton, his birthplace.

Franklin F. Bradley

Franklin F. Bradley, 62 years old, father of Mrs. Neal O. Staebler of Ann Arbor and state representative of the Otis Hearing Aid Co. with offices in Ann Arbor and six other Michigan cities, was killed in a truck-automobile collision about 3 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 14, on M-60 between Three Oaks and New Buffalo.

The accident occurred as Mr. Bradley was motoring alone to Champaign, Ill., to visit another daughter, Constance, a University of Illinois student, over father's day on the Illinois campus. Mr. Bradley, whose home was in Chicago, also is survived by his wife and a son, Bernard, an architect.

A native of Northville and son of a Methodist minister, Mr. Bradley was a graduate of Olivet college. Before joining the Chicago hearing device company four years ago, he was in the paint manufacturing business in Chicago. He operated an office in the Wolverine building in Ann Arbor last May.

The body was to be taken to Chicago for funeral services and burial. Private services were held here Sunday.

Mormon Books May Be Loaned from Library

The film, "Bragam Young" has created an interest in Mormons and the history of Utah. Following are the names of such books which may be interloaned through the Northville-Library:

One Who was Valiant by Clarissa Spencer. This is a biographical study written by his fifty-first son.

Children of God by Vardis Fisher. A study and understanding have been made of the lives of the Mormon people. The result is good historical fiction.

The Proselyte by Susan Erz. This is a sympathetic portrait of a young Englishwoman who marries a Mormon missionary and journeys to Utah in the '50s.

This is the Place by Marguerite Cameron. The work is a concise and very interesting history of Utah from its beginning to the present.

Brigham Young by M. R. Werner. In this book, a remarkable phase of the great American epic and the biography of a vital figure are presented.

Plymouth Defeats Northville Team

Take Traditional Battle from Mustangs by 21-6 Score

With freezing temperature and icy winds prevailing, Northville lost to their traditional rivals, Plymouth, last Friday with a score of 21-6. Fumbles, costing Northville dearly in the first half. Plymouth got off to a good start, good for them—by scoring early in the first quarter in a play around left end. They passed for the extra point, making the score 7-0. Plymouth scored again early in the second quarter. The conversion was good, raising the score to 14-0. Several plays later, Funke intercepted a short pass over center and picking up LaRue to run interference for him, ran 55 yards for Northville's only touchdown of the day. No scoring was done in the third quarter by either team. Two penalties on Plymouth failed to get Northville close enough to their goal to score. In the last minutes of the fourth quarter, Plymouth scored once more on a drive through center. The kick was good, ending the game in Plymouth's favor, 21-6. The starting line-ups were as follows:

Plymouth—	LT	LaRue
Scout	LG	Davis
Bridge	RG	Bongorran
Dunham (c)	RT	Wiemler
Eliot	RE	Voglin
Edely	RB	B. Widmaier
Daniel	QB	Baton
Norman	QB	Funke
Hoffman	LB	Junod (c)
Gettison	RH	Holcomb
Baker	FB	McArthur

Subs for Plymouth: Segum, Gettison, Petrozinski.
Subs for Northville: Essler, Fritz, Ross, Hunter, Erke, Odger, Head Lineupman, Hanson, Referee, Kazubsky, Umpire, Brennan.

EDITORIALS

Tomorrow is Thanksgiving Day and to many it will mean turkey dinners, Christmas parades and a day's vacation, but to many others it will mean the exact thing they have wanted so long for—the Rose Bowl game.

Girl's Basketball Has Good Start

The following girls are reporting for basketball practice regularly every afternoon at 3:30. The first eight mentioned played on the first team last year: Carrie Carlson, Marilyn Cavell, Maxine Cook, Jane Ely, Phyllis Jones, Ruth Parmenter, Yvonne Taylor, Ida Marie Walker, Jane Behen, Mary Ellen Burgess, Florence Gotro, Marcelle Funke, Gladys Clark, Thelma Grever, Marilyn Gussell, Mirna Hubbard, Jean McColough, Joan McColough, Shirley Musoff, Dorothy Orr, Elaine Sommers and Lois Lloyd.

Grade Notes

In Mrs. William Chuzman's kindergarten Carol Ann Sparring had a birthday Nov. 15. A new tester-type was loaned to them by the first grade, also Elaine Vogelin has given them a bicycle. Marlene Weiss and Bruce Wegensclutz mothers have visited them and sat in their new rocking chair.

The first hour art class is trying to stall up a bit of leather work, the first articles being small change purses, with tooled designs on them. They are now making larger items that can be given as Christmas gifts.

We hope students at the bookstore did not forget the fact that the freshmen collected the wood for it. Certainly they should be congratulated for the grand job they did.

Don't be surprised if Mrs. Marshall Herick can give the life history of all the juniors, because they are writing autobiographies. Chapter 2 was handed in Friday.

The journalism students are rather pleased with the result of their first business enterprise. They made $38.93 gross profits on their football programs. They were sold for the cent each. More such ventures are on the schedule for the year.

PLYMOUTH U.S. BAND
Plymouth's band made a very good showing at the football game Friday at Cranbrook Park. The band was directed by a visiting band leader and was playing a very high level of music. They were the play of the kind of work that a school band should put at all times.

They made an "H" for Northville for Plymouth and an "A" for Cranbrook. Many townspeople came to see the band perform.

Basketball Season Opens for Boys

First Home Game To Be Played Dec. 13 against Melvindale

With the opening of the basketball season basketball will take its place. This year, Northville again will have a good team. Last year the team finished in third place in the League standings. There were a number of good players that were graduated from the team last year, but this year there ought to be a lot of old members and new ones to fill their places.

Something new in selecting a captain for the football team has been used at the Northville School this year. They always have selected one person for captain of the team. But when the football players were called to Neville Walker's room Thursday, Nov. 14, and were told that they were to select a captain, everyone voted for Sidney Junod and Bill Widmaier. It was then decided to have co-captains. Junod and Widmaier flipped a coin to see who was going to captain the Plymouth game, and Junod won the toss. The boys are boys' seniors.

PREPARED... They Beat the Gale's Destruction.

The value of this company's preparedness to protect your telephone service in emergencies was proven once more last week while storm-broken trees and branches smashed great gaps through Michigan's long distance telephone lines. Riding a 50-mile gale from the western plains, the shrieking blasts caused wide-spread destruction throughout Michigan. But a well-built, well-protected plant minimized damage to telephone service. And experienced telephone men, 1500 of them, ready when needed and where... patrolled the lines, repaired the breaks, even as the storm raged.

Only because of their experience, and long, careful training in standardized methods and with standardized tools and equipment, were these motorized and mechanized forces enabled to beat the storm's damage and restore service rapidly.

This company's preparedness is an asset to Michigan's telephone service.

Of course you can afford ELECTRIC COOKING! Look at my bill—

($1.55 a month—average— for a family of 3 persons)

"It costs me less than 40c a week to cook on my electric range. Before I got my range, my cooking bill used to run a little lower."

"But for a matter of a few cents a week, an electric range is worth every bit of the difference! Just think: I enjoy electric cooking for less than the price of a loaf of bread or a quart of milk."

"We have a small family—there are three of us—but my neighbor next door cooks for five persons, and HER bill for electric cooking runs about 45c a week. So you see, an electric range costs less than you think. I wish I'd known that long ago. I'd have bought my electric range much sooner."

Another electric secret worth "discovering" is the automatic electric water heater. It provides hot water at all hours—and it is so fully automatic you simply install it and forget it. Electric water heating costs less than 10c a day (for an average family of three). . . . The Detroit Edison Company.

LANSING - The Michigan voter is getting quite a reputation for political independent thinking. A skeptic might call it "vacillation." We think otherwise. There are enough voters on the "fence," so to speak, to turn the tide one way or another. These persons constitute a system of checks and balance that must be reckoned with on election day.

BI-Partisan Control
Results of the Nov. 5 vote indicate that while the governor and lieutenant governor will be democratic, the remainder of the state administration with the sole exception of state treasurer will continue under Republican control.

Willkie Victory
The Gallup poll through the Institute of Public Opinion had forecast a 51-49 victory in Michigan for Wendell L. Willkie. And the final returns vindicated the prediction to a fraction of 1 percent.

A Possible Clue
Now that the fighting is over, amateurs and professionals alike are chipping in their "30 cents' worth" of analysis as to why the voters did as they did.

Plausible, at least, is the following theory which seems to fit logically the situation at hand: The Michigan outcome, like the national outcome, is a result indirectly of the record-smashing history-making activity of one man - Herr Hitler! Last spring the domestic failures of the Roosevelt administration - deficits, unemployment, labor dissatisfaction - pointed to a popular reaction in November. Even immediately after the June convention the Gallup polls showed Willkie leading by a majority of electoral votes over Roosevelt.

Overwhelming
The unexpected fall of Holland, Belgium and France to the Nazi military juggernaut shocked American opinion out of its isolationist complacency. Threatened with a possible loss of the British fleet, our only safeguard in the Atlantic ocean, Congress appropriated billions in a frantic rush to rearm and adopted military conscription to provide man-power for the arms.

The Republican convention turned from Tom Dewey to Wendell Willkie under the belief that the needs were paramount for a "strong man." Democrats renominated President Roosevelt who immediately emphasize the foreign situation and our need for national defense, and thereupon declined to leave the capital for more than 12 hours' traveling distance. Craphearnly, the fall of France, an event over which we had little control, if any, changed the destiny of the United States.

On Sept. 1, the Institute of Propaganda Analysis, discussing America's attitude on the war, observed: "The discussion of propaganda the fact is frequently overlooked that events shape public opinion no less than words. Not only do the events serve to dramatize what the propagandist is saying, even more important 'they impart upon our ideals, our prejudices, our fears and our desires is sometimes overwhelming."

Strong Men
Faced with a pending crisis in the trial of Mr. Hitler, the voters turned to President Roosevelt because he was strong, in years of experience in handling national affairs. Michigan's part in national defense is perhaps greater than any other state other than New York. Defense contracts have exceeded the half-billion mark and are still mounting.

The same trend favored Van Wagoner, a man in his early forties, against Governor Dickinson, 83 years old. It was the vigorous Churchill as against the elder Chamberlain despite the latter's experience.

If this diagnosis is true - and we offer it humbly with no insistence that it actually is - then one man, 4,000 miles away months ago, set into motion events which resulted finally in our choice of President Roosevelt for a third term and Murray D. Van Wagoner for governor of Michigan.

Rev. F. Rossow of the Lutheran church spoke before the Northville Exchange Club on Thanksgiving. Mr. Rossow classified the many blessings we were thankful for under four groups, blessings of home, church, school and state. The talk was very much to the point and appropriate in its timeliness said subject, all of which made the talk very much appreciated by those present.

Clubwoman: Wagewoman: Homewoman -
SHE'S THE SAME PERSON, when she goes to a store. At her club meeting, it's kind of fun to hear some radical lecturer "prove" that most manufacturers are slickers, most store cheese is chalk, and most advertising is ballyhoo.

But watch the clubwoman when she starts buying. She wants her money's worth and she gets it. How? By first consulting the advertisements. Then by choosing the products she knows - the trade-marked, nationally advertised products that have been on the market for years.

IN CONGRESS, JULY 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for one people to dissolve the political bonds which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth, the separate and equal station to which the laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a solemn and respectful regard to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes which impel them to the separation. We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed. That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such Principles, and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, dictating that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes, and accordingly all reformers have had recourse to a patient but firm adherence to the principles of our forefathers, and the necessity which constrains them to alter their former Governments is a history of repeated injuries and usurpations, all having in direct or indirect purpose the establishment of an absolute Tyranny over these States. He has refused his assent to laws, the most wholesome and necessary for the public good. He has called together legislative Bodies in the most distant and distant parts of these Colonies, and has refused to assent to their Acts of best advantage. He has refused to assent to Acts of best advantage. He has refused to assent to Acts of best advantage.
