Boys Have Non-League Game Tuesday with Farmington; Girls Play Berkley on Home Court Thursday Afternoon; Boys' Quintet To Play Melvindale Here Friday Night in League Encounter

Name Players on First-Second Teams

Northville's basketball season for both the girls' and boys' teams begins next week with a non-league and a league game scheduled for the boys, and a league encounter scheduled for the girls.

Tuesday will be the play opener for the boys' team, when a game will be called at 7:30 p.m. on the Farmington court for the reserves. The varsity game will follow the second team game immediately.

Coach Tex Walker has released:

To Accept Flag

the following probable lineup for the first team: Louis Eaton and Jack Holcomb, forwards; Bill Wilder, center; Jim Funk and Lawrence McArthur, guards. Other likely to see action are Bob Hodgesen, Tom Widmayer, Jim La Rue, Harold Schoultz and Jim McClellan. Because of an injury sustained in the football season, it will be another week or so before Ray Hartner will see action in a game. Eugene Cole will be out for a time because of an ankle injury too.

The first home game for the boys will be held Friday, Dec. 12, when the team meets the quintet from Melvindale.

Thursday will be the first league game for the girls, when Berkley will play in the school gym at 4 p.m.

Coach Gladys Ludwig has not selected her starting lineup for the game. She has named her first team members, including Marilyn Cawell, Maxine Coe, Ida Walker, Yvonne Taylor and Jane Lehman, guards; Ruth Parmenter, Garel Carlson, Phil Jones, Jane Ely, Muriel Hubbard and Helen Dixon, forwards.

Placing every bit as much stress on training and practice for the second team material, as is given the first team, Coach Ludwig gives the names of these players: Dorothy Orr, Elaine Sommers, Florence (Continued on back page)

Run Record Broken Thursday on Club's Snow-Covered Track

The snow and ice-covered track on the Meadowbrook Country club's fairway, Thursday, Nov. 28, did not keep Don Lash, the State policeman of Indiana, from breaking a record (30 minutes 25.8 seconds) and winning the National Senior A. A. U. title for the seventh consecutive year, competing in the National Cross-Country Championship.

Trailing Lash was Greg Rice, formerly of Notre Dame, who also came in second behind Lash last year. Following Lash and Rice were the following in order: Luigi Beccali, of the New York A. C.; Tom Quinn of Michigan Normal; Duane Zemper, elected Thursday as captain of the 1941 Michigan Normal team; James Rafferty, Elmira Pentic, Gene Venzke and George De George of the New York Athletic Club; and Fred Wilf of Indiana, to complete the honor list of the first 10.

Scholarship Honor Awarded Miss Lord

Laura Marie Lord, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Harry J. Lord, received recognition for high scholarship at Albion college this week by being placed on the Dean's list, a newly instituted custom at Albion. Miss Lord is a sophomore student in the college, and a music major.

The introduction of such an honor roll at Albion, according to Dean Emil Leffler, is to pay honor to students attaining high grade in their courses and to recognize formally the recent acquisition of a Phi Beta Kappa chapter on the campus.

Telephone Directory Has 945 Listings

The Northville-Plymouth-South Lyon telephone directories were distributed over the week end by the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Northville boasts 945 listings this year, with Bert Adams being the first private telephone subscriber to be listed. A commercial list is first, the AAA tell. The last name to be listed for Northville is Walter E. Zells. The Zells have to share Z listing this year with another Zite, the William Zayti family. This is the first time in several years that Zells has not been the lone name under Z.

The S section has the largest number of listings, 118 in all, beginning with Owen Sackett and ending with Genetics Syrapak.

In addition to the Z-twosome, the book has another duo in the I division, shared by the Independent Furnace and Foundry company and John M. Irvin.

There are 3 listings which start with Northville as part of the name, all being grandchildren of the village.

New A&P Market Will Open Next Thursday, Dec. 12

Self-Serve Grocery Store Is Housed in S. L. Brader's New Building

Next Thursday morning, another forward step is taken by the business section of Northville. A&P opens their new modern self-service market—the identical type that has met with such unprecedented success in Detroit and other large cities.

S. L. Brader has put up the building which has about 4,500 square feet of floor space and 2,000 in every detail. This market will open with six large departments: meat, bakery, groceries, fresh fruits and vegetables. The self-service system makes for more roomable floor space on the outside.

With adult help is Harold Parmenter and Richard Lyons. The troop will take Saturday in the Wayne County Training school competition.

The A&P states that the new market will concentrate the selling of "specials" but will work on their policy of every 10¢ to 15¢ less. Be sure and watch for their large ad which will appear in the Record next week.

School Will Offer Adult Education Classes at Night

Because requests have been received in the office of Supt. F. H. American for adult education courses to be offered in the evening, an announcement was made today that courses will be offered:

Persons have already designated a desire for work in shop math, blue-print reading, mechanical drawing and business English.

There may be persons who want other courses. These can be arranged if enrollment warrants it," said E. V. Ellison, who will accept registrations along with Mr. American.

Aliens Are Urged To Register Now

With the Dec. 26 deadline for the alien card and fingerprinting of all aliens' drawing near, Postmaster Fred E. Van Atta today issued a plea for persons to take care of this matter before the post office gets swamped with the Christmas rush.

Following a delightful dinner served by the women of the Presbyterian church and sung led by Leslie G. Lee, President Russell is Steininger introduced Mr. and Mrs. Line, a native of Korea, and graduate of the U. of M. spoke most interestingly and witty.

The case is filled with a brand new assortment of Sheaffer's pens, pencils, combinations and desk sets purchased for the Christmas trade.

LITERARY IS CLOSED

Because of repairs and a redecorating project, the Northville Branch of the Wayne County Library will be closed Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday. Books may be returned on these days, but no books will be given out until the library officially opens again Wednesday, Dec. 11.

More Lights Added for Decorations

With the Christmas street lights, wrapped in evergreen, hung across the streets in the business district, heralding the holiday buying season in Northville, the village council stepped forward Monday evening to give assurance that the annual Christmas tree and party for the children would occur this year.

A committee representing the merchants of the community raised enough funds this year to pay for the Christmas party and to cover part of the expense of lighting the business district with carbons of colored lights. The council voted $100 to try enough to make it possible to buy enough strings to cover the amount needed for the 100 lights required by the city. The lights cost $1.75 each. Councilman Orlin G. Brown has been named to follow through with the merchant committee in securing the funds.

A Message for You . . .

A pamphlet prepared by A. Blake Gillies, Supt. of the Detroit House of Correction, offers the following:
"I have three lovely children — one boy, and two girls. When I lay them with me in the car I would drive with the utmost caution, but when I was alone, I would invariably speed, though I never had any reason for doing so."

One evening, while driving home, and speeding as I always did when alone, a policeman stopped me and gave me a ticket, much to my disgust, or so I thought. So the next day, instead of going to the Police Court, I went to the clerk to pay my fine; and on the wall I noticed a poem tacked there for all to read:

You think I'm a hard-boiled cop
Writing tickets at forty-three;
Well, perhaps I'm thinking of Jackie,
And all that the lad meant to me.
How's that? Tell you about it?
Well stranger the boy was my son.
God, what I'd give to hear "Daddy"
Once more when the day's work is done.
The driver was just in a hurry.
He didn't intend any harm.
But the sun and stars quit shining
When I picked up my boy's lifeless form.
Well, mister, I'll not give you a ticket,
I don't want to pinch anyone.
But I'd ride this motorcycle through hell
To protect another man's son.
So, next time you feel like speeding.
Or passing a boulevard stop,
Just pause and remember my Jackie,
The son of a hard-boiled cop.

I thank God every day that I saw that poem and read it, for it may have been my son. I never forget how I felt that day.

• Christmas Club Savings . . .

The increase in the Christmas Savings Clubs sponsored by the Depositor State Bank in Northville speaks of progress and moral improvement. This year the $9,288.00 distribution scheduled for last year represents a 59 per cent increase over the amount easily distributed last year when the amount was $5,861.00. And now our local bank is asking us that we join the 1946 clubs. And thusly do our good friends of the Northville Depositor Bank bring an appreciated service to the people of the community. How this money will be divided in purchases and the amounts saved throughout the nation through these Christmas clubs is interesting speculation.

Three hundred and sixty-five million dollars will be distributed to more than seven and one half million Christmas Club members by approximately forty-eight hundred banking and savings institutions and other organizations during National Prosperity Week starting Monday, Dec. 2, according to an estimate given out yesterday by Herbert F. Rawill, founder and president of Christmas Club, a Corporation, sponsors of National Prosperity Week. The total distribution for 1946 is about 24.2 per cent increase of 1939. The average distribution per member amounts to $48.50 as against $48.84 for 1939. The estimates are based on a substantial number of reports received from institutions operating the Christmas Club plan in different sections of the country.

Based upon recent reports from individual Christmas Club members and applying these reports to the entire distribution for 1946, the estimated fund of $365,000,000 will be used by recipients approximately as follows:

Christmas Purchases	32.4%	$18,250,000
Permanent Savings	26.7%	$5,655,000
Year End Gifts	14.0%	51,000,000
Taxes	9.7%	$6,400,000
Insurance Premiums	9.3%	34,000,000
Education, Travel and Charity	1.2%	15,330,000
Mortgage Interest	2.3%	8,490,000
Unclassified	1.4%	5,955,000
	100.0%	365,000,000

The Other Point of View—"Not to Doubtful Disputations"—Read Romans 14:1-7. It is always a sign of real greatness when we can make allowance for those who differ from us. That is, make allowance without patronizing or contemp. To be able to listen to some one who has not enough enlightenment to see the correct view things—meaning our own—and yet to keep ourselves in hand beokens the soul which has learned a little of the Master's spirit. These are the days when great issues are involved. Happy are we if we can speak with restraint and see the other point of view—Dr. W. G. Ward in the Christian Herald for August.

News from Walled Lake

By C. E. HUTTON

Activities in and about the Walled Lake post-office lately indicate the busiest season in village history is upon us. Postal business diring the holiday period is usually a fair barometer of the times in these parts, at least.

Records show that money order business alone, during November was $4,000 higher than for the same month a year ago. A marked increase in the volume of mail in all classes is already noted. The work of the regular office staff is demanding many extra hours, and more help will soon be needed.

Carrriers are working at night to keep abreast of incoming mails, and much added time has been required lately, on the routes, to complete deliveries due to heavy loads and poor road conditions.

Early mailing of packages and greeting cards is an oft-repeated warning, but not an idle one, if normal delivery is expected. Last minute rush mailing invariably causes delays. Patrons of rural routes who fail to pre-stamp their outgoing mail, but assume that their mail carriers will pick up unstamped letters and cards with money equivalents are advised not to depend upon these accommodations this year. Such mail will be given less consideration and may be delayed at the local office a day or more. Keeping mail box approaches free from snow and ice at all times is also a requirement this year. Carriers are not required to service boxes which cannot be approached without dismounting.

The first in a series of winter concerts will be presented by the high school band Dec. 12, in the interests of additional equipment.

Assisting at the opening concert will be the high school glee club and several instrumental soloists, including Mary Culbertson, Mary Jane DeGroote and Betty Thayer. There will be dancing after the program, with music provided by a school dance band conducted by Calvin Breakey.

Mrs. A. Z. Church of Pontiac, and former resident of Walled Lake, was to speak at a luncheon meeting of the Civic Welfare Club Wednesday. Music was to be contributed by Mrs. Clarence Johnson, vocalist, and Sally Reimer, in specialty numbers.

The high school basketball season opened here Tuesday night, with the varsity meeting Berkley, followed Friday night with the first league game here, against Clarkston. The local team will play at Keego Harbor Dec. 13 and at Milford Dec. 19.

Friar night of this week will be featured by a bazaar and penny supper at the Methodist church, as sponsored by the Challengers' class.

Mrs. Donald Watkins is in charge of the bazaar. Mrs. Claude Lawrence, Mrs. George Carpenter and Mrs. Andrew Niemann will act on the supper committee. Mrs. Floyd Cheesen and Mrs. F. Olmsted are on the dining room committee.

News in and about Salem

By MRS. C. O. HAMMOND

Fifteen members attended the Salem Economics club at the home of Mrs. Myron Atchison last Wednesday. A cooperative dinner was served. During the business meeting plans were made for the Christmas meeting. Each member is to bring a gift for exchange and an article to make up a basket for some needy family. The leader presented the lesson on "Bed-spreads." Mrs. Wm. Merritt will be hostess for the December meeting.

The 4-H Food Preparation club will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wm. Benjamin. The lesson will be on "Fruits for Breakfast."

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stainbro and Lewis Haat have returned from the northern peninsula with deer Mrs. Julia Foreman returned Sunday evening from a two-week trip to Houston, Tex., where she visited her son, Harold Foreman and family.

The Willing Workers class of the Federated church will have a Christmas party at 8 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Bennett. Husband of the members are also invited and each person is to bring a ten-cent gift for exchange. A cooperative luncheon will be served.

Mr. and Mrs. Myrlan Lyke and son, Murray, and niece, Beverly Lyke, visited Mrs. Opal Lyke at Plymouth, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whittaker and Leslie Curtis and four children were dinner guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Curtis in Ann Arbor.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our loving Husband and Father, Ronald Beasley, who passed away one year ago, December 1, 1939.
The dear man can never die. To us but the mortal body that lies within the grave.
And though you have passed beyond our sight, To greater joy and brighter light.
God's other room is not far away. The door is left ajar.
And some day we shall pass within. And be there where you are.
Sadly missed by his Wife and Daughter.

Michigan Gets Stake in War Trade*OUR DEMOCRACY by MatCITY AND FARM

LANSING — Britain backs Michigan plan. Such was the cryptic headline over a single paragraph news item in a recent issue of the New York Times. The dispatch by the Associated Press follows:

"DETROIT — Officials of the Kelsey Hayes Wheel Company disclosed today that British funds would pay for its new plant for the manufacture of Colt-Browning machine guns, near Plymouth, Mich. The company announced construction would begin at once under a contract to supply machine guns to Britain. Employment will be provided for 2,000 men, company officials said."

Forty-eight hours later, a United Press dispatch to Detroit:

"WASHINGTON — Great Britain hopes to obtain financial aid from the United States next year as well as ships, planes and munitions. British Ambassador Lord Lothian said today after an eighty-minute conference with President Roosevelt."

"Clear Mandate" Arthur Koock, Washington correspondent of the New York Times, observes:

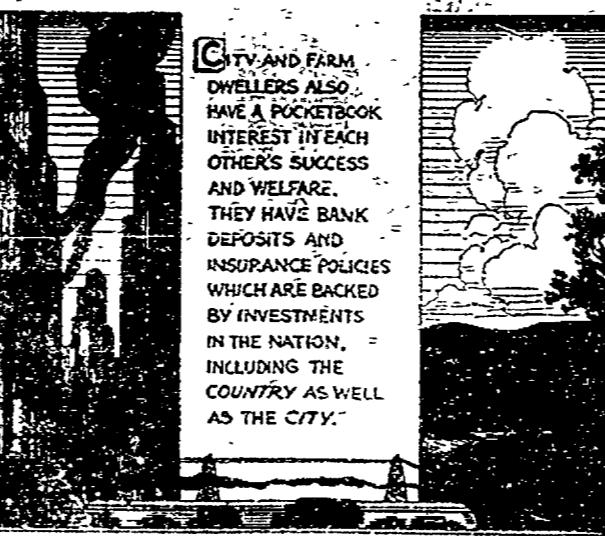

"The impression which seems to prevail among Britons here (Washington) is that the election gave Mr. Roosevelt a clear mandate to render the fullest sort of such aid to the Empire and that Lord Lothian can properly proceed on this interpretation."

While the Marquess of Lothian, his Britannic Majesty's present ambassador to Washington, says frankly that Britain is reaching the end of her credits in the United States, here is what Sir Seely Spragg-Rice wrote to Secretary Lansing on July 1, 1917, in the similar capacity of British ambassador to Washington:

He declared that the financial position of Great Britain was "of urgent and critical character."

There is danger that the ability of His Majesty's government to effect payments in America from today onward will be in jeopardy. A collapse of the exchange will be no less disastrous than a great military reversal."

It was our own ambassador to London, Walter Hines Page, who wrote one month before we entered the war in 1917: "Perhaps our going to war is the only way in which our present prominent trade post-tion can be maintained and a panic averted . . . All the money would be kept in our own country, trade would be continued and enlarged until the war ends, and after the war Europe would continue to buy food and would buy from us also an enormous supply of things to re-equip her peace industries."

Reaction to Propaganda

Sir George Ropner in his book "Propaganda and the Next War" published in 1938, pointed out:

"In the next war, as in the last, the result will probably depend upon the way in which the United States acts, and her attitude will reflect the reaction of her public to propaganda properly applied."

The following statement is attributed to the late Lord Northcliffe:

"England spent $150,000,000 for propaganda purposes in the United States during the war, and I consider that money spent to greater advantage than any equal amount during the entire conflict." It was admitted in the House of Commons that Northcliffe's paid publicity agents in the United States numbered some 4,500.

Because he frankly opposes the United States entering the war Ambassador Joseph Kennedy, Ameriteam envy at London, has been accused of being a "deceitful propagandist." Kennedy made this statement one year ago — Dec. 12, 1939 — in the Church of the Assumption in Boston, Mass.

"There is no place in this fight for us. It's going to be bad enough as it is. As you love America, don't let anything that comes out of any country in the world make you believe you can make a situation out while better by getting into the war . . . There is no reason — economic, financial or social — to justify the United States entering the war."

Our Economic Stake

John D. Buggs, secretary of the national defense commission, recently said that our own government's arms contracts, totaling $12,000,000, include a third of a billion dollars in contracts to Michigan industrial plants. British arms awards, such as the machine gun plant near Plymouth, will swell this total.

Economic maps and charts for the nation, such as the Business Week feature, invariably show Michigan to be a "bright" spot.

The state is enjoying an unusual prosperity.

Christmas retail sales are climbing upward.

Alfred Sloan, General Motors magnate, terms the boom "synthetic."

We present the above interpretative picture at the risk of being subjected to "name-calling" — fifth columnist, defeatist propagandist, and so on. And so pardon a personal note. It was in 1753 that our family forefathers, two brothers, fled from Germany to America to escape German oppression. They fought as Americans in the Revolutionary War. In 1817 we enlisted on our 18th birthday, served overseas in England and France, and returned home after 19 months of military service.

We desire to repeat an earlier observation: Michigan is getting more than the average state, an economic stake in war trade. Let us think calmly of the possible consequences while there is still time to do so.

Michigan Farmer

The 1939 income of the Michigan farmer was 92 per cent of the 1929 income.

Our state ranked 12th in point of percentages of the 48 states.

And this in spite of the fact that agricultural commodities in general dropped 63 per cent in prices from 1929 to 1933 while production declined only 6 per cent. Michigan's agricultural diversity — fruit, vegetable, grain and livestock — and its climatic benefits of scarcity from drought all have made the Michigan farmer better off than the average American farmer believe it or not.

Michigan-grown onions, for example, are prized highly in eastern markets. This year's crop was of bumper proportions. A surplus has employment relief. Despite mounting arms contracts and a reported tendency to decline, the problem rolls have not shown a marked shortage of skilled workers, relief is still here.

Hence the success of the federal food stamp program and the proposed extension to serve 5,000,000 consumers is of potential importance to Michigan producers of food. The Michigan Food Council, comprising producers, retailers and distributors, is supporting this stamp plan actively.

Briefly it is this: The government gives to relief clients 50 cents worth of blue stamps, good in any co-operative grocery, drug and hardware officially designated as surplus, for which the client buys from his retailer the client buys from his retailer funds. The limit is $1 a person per week.

It is a federal subsidy to stimulate consumption of surplus commodities among the so-called "ill-fed" third of our population.

Extension of the foodstamp plan in 1941 would provide new markets for more than $10,000,000 worth of surplus farm crops each month. The Michigan farmer, well off as he is on a comparative basis, has an interest in this new form of unemployment relief. Despite mounting arms contracts and a reported tendency to decline, the problem rolls have not shown a marked shortage of skilled workers, relief is still here.

Letter Perfect

Very quietly the Christmas spirit has stolen into our midst and once again the age old puzzle of what would be suitable for the girl friend arises. Maybe Darwin didn't locate the missing link, but there are many numbers of gifts to choose from this season.

This information I'm about to disclose is a keynote for you fellows. Instead of the omnipresent compact picked out in "Monkee" style, monkey do fashion, you want her to feel as though you pondered over her gift and picked it out especially for her — or don't you?

Why not consider a tricky lapel gadget? They come in the forms of miniature animals or if she's a vegetarian, fruits and dehuscent fruits nuts to you?

She'd probably rather pick out her own cosmetics, but a new perfume is something we all are willing to try. We have noticed in the store, petite ornate perfume bottles that will hold a dram of her favorite scent. It would do justice to any young miss' boutonniere.

With these beautiful thoughts we leave you while visions of peace tags dance through your heads.

"I want a gift that will
KEEP ON GIVING—

"I believe in giving my wife something sensible for Christmas. She's a practical person . . . says she wants something that she'll use every day, 'not won't be forgotten after the holidays.'

"Well, she won't forget THIS gift. An electric range is a gift that lasts. She's always wanted one—and it tops the list for usefulness. Do I sound selfish? You're wrong. There's sentiment wrapped up in my choice. Anything that lightens her job of cooking meals shows thoughtfulness and consideration. I know—I've tried getting meals myself."

The man's right. When you bring the magic of electricity into your home, you open up a whole new world. Tireless, quiet, inexpensive servants take over your household drudgery. Electric cooking and electric water heating lift two major burdens from your wife's shoulders. ## Funke is High

Scorer of Year

Coach Smith's Last Season
 Here Proves To Be Best
 One for Football

Along with the end of football season comes the checking up of the Mustang scorers. Looking back on the records, we find that Quarterback Jim Funke is high scorer of the herd, with 49 points credited to his name. Jim is one of the only two boys who have been on the squad four years, so he well deserves this honor. Jim LaRue, a real blocker in his own right, follows at a distance with 24 points and Ray Hartner, who was out half the season with a leg injury, is close to Jim with 19 points. Halfback Jack Holcomb made 12 points for the team this season, and twice each week the entire group plays together. These meetings are held each Monday and Wednesday from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. At first the sounds coming from Room 4 sounded pretty terrible, but each week they became less irritating as the various members continue to improve their skill.

Although the five boys mentioned worked hard for their well-deserved honor, there are other team members not to be slighted. Punk McArthur was the most dependable and cooperative man on the team. He was always on hand to do whatever task was asked of him. Punk had to know the signals of the four backfield men because he was shifted around from time to time and played all four positions. He got pushed around a plenty because of his size, but what Punk didn't have in body, he made up for in spirit. Louie Eaton, in the line, looked mighty good on the field—even though this was his first year in football. Stan Davis, was not the fastest man in the line, but he was, by all means, the heaviest. Stan tips the scales at an even 210! Vogtlin and Bonioranni, right and left guards respectively, were responsible for a good many tackles this season. They will be two of the main stays in holding up next year's line. Buck Fritz reluctantly gives up his fullback position to "Curly" Odgers to hold down next year. Hope "Curly" does as well. Orville Lyke was a sub, but he played good football when he was in there. Great things were expected of Don Kimmel this year, but fate was against him. In the first game of the season, Don broke his collar bone. No sooner was it healed than he cracked it in practice. It's really a shame that Don is a senior. Sid Judd and Bill Wilmot were chosen by their team mates as captains. This is Sid's fourth year on the team, which illustrates the constant interest in the game. Bill has given nine years to football, but he has been one of the outstanding backs.

With a total of 102 points for nine games, the Mustangs now had the best record in Northville football for their eighth year in the league.

There will be a new Girl Scout troop in Northville, thanks to Mrs. Ida E. Cooke, who will be Scout Counsellor.

Mary Eun Boblett returned to school this week, after being absent because a needle broke off in her foot.

The junior high is going to have a Christmas party. Names will be drawn for presents and there will be a program.

Miss Hattie Marie Moore's literature class had a test to cover this marking period. Jane Ann Lenning received the highest mark.

The junior high is going to Detroit to visit radio station WJR soon. All cars that can possibly go will be needed.

To be reminded of the privileges that we have in this free country of America, every morning the junior high assembly gives the Pledge of Allegiance.

hearts, and power is the ambition of their leaders.

School Organizes
Junior Band

Thirty pupils, mostly seventh and eighth graders, are hard at work these days learning to play band instruments. Each pupil gets an individual or group lesson once each week and twice each week the entire group plays together. These meetings are held each Monday and Wednesday from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

At first the sounds coming from Room 4 sounded pretty terrible, but each week they became less irritating as the various members continue to improve their skill.

The following are the members of the Junior Band: Cornets: Dorothy Leavenworth, Dick Green, "Jack" Talmadge, David Willis, Linwood Show, Lewis Diem, Arthur Gatts and Stanley Smith; clarinets: Hazel Covell, Marilyn Goza, Irene Tome, Ann Davis, Peggy Behen and Joyce Martino; oboe: Pauline Rogers; flute: Frances Wooster; piccolo: Mary Wooster; soprano saxophone: Arlene Tousignant; trombones: Shirley Ely and David Bell; French horns: Norma Hagnett and Lillian Gerardini; bass horns: Bill Lanning and Teddy Baldwin; baritone: Fred Wick and Russell Merle; drums: Jean Cooley and Helen Toma.

The Student Council held a meeting Tuesday morning, Dec. 3. They talked about the season tickets for basketball which will be sold at a dollar for adults and sixty cents for students. There will be an assembly program, Dec. 11. The Student Council has ordered boys' basketball warm up jackets. Dances will follow basketball games that occur on Friday.

The school board has loaned the Student Council $200 to help take care of a few bills. The first home game will be held Dec. 13, with Melvindale.

There were 14 members present. Plans were talked over for a snow party after the first good snow. There was a very good discussion on personality.

The shop classes are proud to say that the school board has purchased a jigsaw and also a metal lathe which will come in handy in both wood and metal work.

Today is the day we have been looking forward to — we received our report cards. Some students have worked hard for them A's and B's, so they might get what they have their hearts set on for Christmas. Others will be mighty surprised.

The final announcement of the amount of profit on the Senior Prom was made Monday. The total net profit was $1287.25.
