Award Citizenship Certificates at 21ers' Banquet

22 Persons Receive Certificates; 13 Are Given Out at Banquet Attended by 175 Persons; 9 Are Sent Through the Mail

Richards Is Speaker

Nearly 200 Northville people gathered at the Methodist church home Wednesday, Nov. 6, to honor the Northville community class 21ers, those who have this year become citizens and registered citizens in the community.

Following a splendid meal served by the women of the church, Supr. R. H. American of the Northville public schools, acting as chairman, announced the 21ers' Banquet.

Dr. Wilbur H. Johnston, president of the Coordinating Council, explained some of its functions in the community, among them being the second annual 21ers' banquet.

Glen Richards, consultant engineer, Civilian Defense presented a graphic narrative of his experiences in traveling to London in a bomber plane and his personal contacts with the English people under the stress of the blitz.

Mr. E. C. Modena of the high school faculty, with appropriate words, presented the certificates of recognition to the 21ers present.

Mr. Modena has been in charge of the citizenship classes in citizenship conducted in conjunction with the citizenship program.

Those receiving certificates at the banquet were: Allan E. Goulet, Fred Smith, Edna M. Johnson, Lela Smith, Edna M. Johnson, Lela Smith, Edna M. Johnson, Lela Smith.

Certificates were also sent to college students and young men in the armed forces of the country, all of which were contacted and asked to express their wishes in the matter.

These having certificates sent to them are: Alice Eaton, Marvin Scholitz, Maurice C. Scholitz, Margorie L. Chase, John A. Lutscher, Doris Tewsbury, Edna Ward Lester, Jr., Virginia Ruth Lester and James Hochkins.

Among those from out of town introduced during the evening were: Patricia H. D'Brien, judge of probate; Robert M. Johnson, Detroit district commander of the American Legion and John Sunday of the same city; Prof. W. F. Sokol of the adult education department of the University of Michigan; and Robert McGregor of Ann Arbor.

Walled Lake Gets $46,000 Grant for School Expansion

By Charles E. Hutton
Approval of an application made by the Walled Lake Consolidated Schools to the federal works agency of the PWA for a school facilities grant of $46,000, was received Wednesday. It was announced by C. A. Hoffman, superintendent of the Walled Lake Schools.

Word of the approval reached Hoffman in a letter from Rep. George A. Dordick, announcing the President's signature to the Walled Lake application.

The Walled Lake grant is one of 15 defense public works projects approved by President Roosevelt and is to be used in the school expansion program of the district.

It will provide six greatly needed classrooms for the Walled Lake building, in addition to the four now under construction.

The defense grant comes as the result of extensive effort on the part of Mr. Hoffman and the board of education to obtain federal help.

When a survey of the district, taken last July disclosed a rapid influx of defense workers in the Walled Lake area, the survey showed that more than 400 children in families were being in the district. Since that time the number has increased to 600, or twice as many as were in the district a year ago.

With school facilities already overcrowded, it was foreseen that they would be inadequate to cope with the rapid growth of the school area.

Legion Supports National Defense Week in Village

Northville Joins in National Wide Program; Each Day Has Significance

Northville is joining other communities throughout the nation in observing National Defense Week, which begins Nov. 11 and continues through Nov. 16.

Backed by the Lloyd H. Green Post of the American Legion, there is to be placed on the National Defense program, fitting in with the three-fold purpose of the spirit.

Franklin D. Roosevelt. It is the purpose of the week to "inspire the people to a sense of the need for Civilian Defense and the many special ways in which people can contribute to the national defense."

Mr. Green said the week is a time to remind the people of the need for Civilian Defense and the many special ways in which people can contribute to the national defense.

The program for the week will include: Nov. 11, National Defense Day; Nov. 12, National Defense Day; Nov. 13, National Defense Day; Nov. 14, National Defense Day; Nov. 15, National Defense Day; Nov. 16, National Defense Day.

Those receiving certificates at the banquet were: Allan E. Goulet, Fred Smith, Edna M. Johnson, Lela Smith, Edna M. Johnson, Lela Smith, Edna M. Johnson, Lela Smith.

Washington is being urged to speed the letting of arms contracts in advance of the 1942 unemployment slump. The lag in blueprints and tooling is always greater than the worker believes it should be.

Even if the war must continue until 1943 and possibly 1944, as Washington is now assuming, industrial hard-time when the war is ended, prosperity in many communities of Michigan unless a re-charge is slashed, action is ordered.

Such is the governor's belief and signs are bearing out his predictions.

Wayne county it is estimated that shutting down automobile plants will remove millions of dollars annually from personal property assessments. If defense equipment is tax exempt, what is going to happen? Figure it out for yourself.

Louis St. Louis, director of the state tax board, foresees an immediate decline in revenue if the federal government's policy prevails to waive all taxes on defense operations. Estimates of potential losses run from $5,000,000 to $15,000,000 although it is felt that eventually when the readjustment to defense production has been made the return of the temporary loss of revenue.

Farm Prosperity
At the Sault Ste Marie state convention of the Michigan Grange, Dean E. L. Anthony of Michigan State College school of agriculture counseled farmers not to buy large farms and more equipment than they can handle.

High School Football Squad Defeats Berkley To Win 6th Game of Year

Courtesy Orange and Black
The N. H. S. undefeated Mustangs ran their victory string to six straight victories last Friday Oct. 21 defeating a powerful team from Berkley, 5-0, on a rain-slickened field at Cass Benton Park.

There was no scoring at the half, the team putting up a fine defensive battle. Hartner and Ogers swept around left and right ends to kick in Berkley's defense, allowing Berkley to get behind Berkley's secondary defense where Hartner connected for a 35-yard touchdown run into the waiting arms.

Two More Games
The Mustangs have only two more games this season and both of them are to be played away from home. Friday, Nov. 11, the team will play at Berkley. The day before Thanksgiving recess, the squad meets the Plymouth high school.

AVIATION METALSMITHS get the finest training in the world in the Navy

Employers the country over are eager to employ Navy-trained men.

Good fun, good food, good friends

The Navy is noted for its popular sports program. Every kind of sport from baseball to boxing and swimming is offered the man who enlists. On board ship, the latest moving pictures are shown free. Organized recreation, such as dramatics, singing and musical entertainment, goes to make the life of a Navy man the best fun in the world.

The food served in the Navy would do justice to your own mother's cooking. It's well prepared—and there's plenty of it.

Any man who wears the trim uniform of Uncle Sam's Navy is bound to be looked up to—for you've got to be good to get in the Navy!

Our Record Friends

... from the Swarthouts ... on South American Tour

We have driven down to Florida through the extravagant beauty of an American autumn. We are like a gust of appreciative wind whipping the leaves to a crimson excitement along the roads of Ohio, West Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia. When we reach Jacksonville, the ocean—the Atlantic Ocean—which we have never seen before—

And I reflect once again as we drive over a thousand miles of the brown and richness of our mighty America: why must Americans be so forgetful of their own good fortune that few of them can understand the fervent longing of other peoples for a comparable share of the world's wealth?

On the way down Katy and I were suddenly overcome by a tremendous sense of responsibility. It seemed as though we were being asked to represent not only ourselves but thousands of people we have never known intimately and yet so much in form than in interest that we must answer their questions

We have contracted for a year of our lives. And, believe me, nothing young people ever entered into a contract with more seriousness of intent, more definition of purpose.

Speaking of a year, I wish you could have seen Katy's face when I informed her that she would be allowed to carry one suitcase. It was frightful. After a period of discussion and debate, guided, of course, by strict parliamentary procedure, she capitulated.

She is taking an evening gown, two play suits with sport shoes to match, a seasickness remedy, a sort-and-sewer outfit, and several afternoon dresses, plus all the paraphernalia necessary or unnecessary to a certain appearance. "What?" I asked her, "no sarong?" The evening's silence meant that I could go to South America or even to the moon.

Into my gladstone I have compressed a light and a dark flannel suit, two black suits, a stock of playing cream, and an exquisite beach combing ensemble.

We expect to arrive in Rio, do Janeiro, the capital of Brazil, the forepart of December. And in Brazil our laboratory method of investigation will receive its first test. Immediately after leaving ship we shall practice by rail to a small town some 50 or 100 miles in the interior. There we shall establish a residence making ourselves an integral part of that community for a period of at least one month. We shall come to know, as many people—business men, farmers, professional men, teachers, housewives—as intimately as possible.

This small town will be our Brazilian laboratory. It will furnish the background for our answers to the question: "How do most Brazilians

PAUSE! THINK!

Armistice Day!

November 11, 1941

think, feel and live in comparison with most of us?"

I can think of no better place to study the people of any country than a small town. For there is to be found the backbone of a nation's population.

Naturally, a majority of the questions asked me in Northville before we left will apply particularly to the major republics of South and Central America. For instance, take Dr. H. S. Willis' question: "How far have the so-called fifth columns penetrated in South America?"

This is an excellent query, but I shall not have access to the material necessary for the most detailed reply until we have settled in our Brazilian "laboratory."

In the meantime, the next two months will be fully occupied following the trade winds through the Caribbean. We will touch at Havana, Haiti, Puerto Rico, Antigua, Dominica, and Barbados, and will undoubtedly spend some time on Martinique and Trinidad.

Miami does not interest us to any great extent. It is like a great bovine, buzzily preparing itself for the swarms which will infest it during the winter. We are drawn inexorably and at once to the beach. We strain our eyes toward the horizon, trying to look past the point where the blue Atlantic ends, where the purple Caribbean begins.

Do you know that out there, just a few hundred miles out there, lie green islands with pink cities and white sands? That stars hang very low for the picking, that small trading schooners plot their irresponsible courses through the night by the Southern Cross friendly in the skies? What peace and forget-

ZINC for Defense—Another Telephone Saving

Zinc has become a defense metal of first importance, needed in the manufacture of vast quantities of military and naval equipment.

Until this year, most of the hardware used on telephone pole lines and in other exposed places was galvanized with zinc to protect it from corrosion. Now Bell Telephone Laboratories, Inc., has found methods of replacing this zinc by the use of paint or a coating of lead.

At the present rate, the total amount of zinc saved in this and other ways by Western Electric, the Bell System's manufacturing division, will be more than 4,400,000 pounds annually—enough to supply all the zinc needed for use in nearly six million 3-inch anti-aircraft gun shells!

This is one of the ways in which your Telephone Company conserves defense materials.

Faculty Members Will Be Guests Tonight at Woman's Club Meeting in Library

Members of the Northville teaching personnel will be guests at 8 o'clock tonight in the library where the Woman's club members will entertain for them.

Mrs. Virginia Chase, Perkins will be the guest speaker and she will draw on her knowledge of New England for her talk. A sister of the writer, Mary Ellen Chase, Mrs. Perkins is herself an author, having written English textbooks, stories and articles. She has been fiction critic for the Commonweal and the Boston Transcript. In 1940 she was awarded an Avery Hoppkins prize for fiction.

She attended Mt. Holyoke college and the University of Minnesota. She has her masters from Wayne University and has done graduate work at the University of Michigan. She has taught at Wayne and Cooley high schools.

A social hour will follow Mrs. Perkins' talk with tea being served in the Kette Harmon room of the library.

Mrs. Sterling Eaton of Plymouth, formerly of Northville, will be the vocal soloist Friday evening.

Mrs. Ford Entenaris at Halloween Party

Mrs. Amelia Ford, hostess of Friday night at a Halloween party in her home, was the guest of the evening.

The guest list included Mrs. Edward E. Balke, Mrs. W. A. Lebeck, Mrs. Bailey Scholz, Mrs. M. E. Metcalf, Mrs. C. C. Calais, Mrs. W. F. Cow, Mrs. Robert M. Proch, Mrs. Anna W. Cow, Mrs. G. Maurice Holm, Mrs. Claude E. Riley, Mrs. Herbert Martin, Mrs. Lill Crows, Mrs. George W. Martz and Mrs. Carl R. Elv.

150 Children Attend Second Annual Village Halloween Party

Despite rainy weather Friday night, some 150 children attended the village children's Halloween party that started off with a parade from Wing and Main streets through the business district to Hutton street and back to the village park.

In the park prizes were awarded to the children wearing special costumes. Patricia Johnston and Norman Wilson got prizes for being the best dressed; the funniest costume awards went to Gary Holman and Lorraine Funky. They were dressed as Mae West. Other costume prizes went to Lily Humphries, Lester Lyster, Jack Whitworth, Fred Wick, Francis Smith and Jack Mays.

The party, the second annual community Halloween party, was sponsored by the Exchange and Rotary clubs, the Lloyd H. Green Post of the American Legion and the Recreation department. Apples were donated by the Henry Hill, George Simmons, Alexander and Cleaver, James The Sallie Bell Bakery gave doughnuts. Mrs. Margaret Costello of the Recreation department, Mrs. Paul D. Carter of the grade school and Al Zimmer Village Hall caretaker, helped with the program.

George Risher of the Northville police department, was in charge of arrangements. The party did a great deal to keep pranksters from damaging property that night. The cooperation of the children was such that no damage was done.

It was already in the making for a bigger party next year.

PRODUCT OF PERFECTION STOVE COMPANY

PROPERLY DIRECTED HEAT is an exclusive patented feature of the Superflex Heat-Director. Most heaters give either radiating heat or circulating heat. Superflex gives BOTH, plus "directed heat"—controlled by adjustable shutters on sides and front. Heat can be deflected down to warm the floor.

Removable reservoirs for outside filling, or connections for outdoor fuel tank. Can be made completely automatic with thermostatic temperature control. Heaters have flue connection and automatic draft regulator—no odor.

For unusually difficult heating jobs, a 3-speed electric blower may be had for attachment either before or after heater is installed.

Commercial Club Organized Here by Typists

Second-Year Students Are Members; Officers Are Elected

The second-year typing class held a meeting Friday, Oct. 31, to organize a Commercial club. The officers elected were: Maxine Coe, president; Christabel Skelton, vice-president; and Jo Anne Vroman, secretary and treasurer. Other members include Florence Rentschler, Dorothy Van Valkenburg, Ruth Gagnon, Julia Politz, Jean Hugg, and Edna Westphal. All members of the second year typing class are eligible for membership. The membership will be open to all juniors taking a commercial course with at least a B average in their commercial subjects.

Meetings will be to raise standards in commercial work, create more interest, and to create more cooperation among the commercial students. The officers must be seniors.

Teacher Sketch

Jackson is important to Northville school this year because it brings Miss Mary Jane Smith, one of the new teachers in the grade building. Born, reared and educated through high school in Jackson, Miss Smith went to Ypsilanti State Teachers college and also to Jackson Girls school. Social science was her major field. Miss Smith had the interesting experience of working all summer, in the office of the Pan American Airlines in New York City. In her first year of teaching, Miss Smith has a fourth, fifth and sixth grades. Her hobbies include dancing and home brewing. At the present her address is 24 South Wm. Street.

Miss Margaret Carpenter, made a lunch about Southville. The lunch was served in the school cafeteria. The lunch was a success and the students enjoyed it very much.

Mothers and Daughters Bowl Together, Here

Yes, this exciting, healthful and exhilarating recreation has caught the fancy of the women folk—from the teen ages on through the sixties. It is one of the few existing popular means for mothers and daughters to enjoy together a period of wholesome, inspiring companionship. If you are missing out on this pay as you visit—today. Just come in and watch—there's no cost or obligation and we'll gladly answer your questions.

Hi-Y Club Meets at Rodgers Home

At the Hi-Y party at Howard Rodgers home last week, 18 members and the two sponsors, Prin. G. V. Harrison and Richard I. Somers, were present. Checkers, cards and monopoly games were enjoyed by all. A punch board was passed around and each member had to do an assigned stunt. Some had to sing; some had to dance. Later the boys had refreshments.

Around the School

Nov. 3 ended the sale of magazines by the juniors. The two homecoming, raised by the sponsors, E. C. McKenna and Richard I. Somers, were present. The group was most successful in raising a party in the homecoming.

A new final unit, Mr. McKeen's homeroom was the winner of $125 to $125. Mr. Somers' homeroom was the runner-up with $119 worth. Altogether $1,000 worth of magazines were sold in a 500 part made.

Final Pre-Prom Jit To Be Held Tonight

Tonight a dance will be sponsored by the Student Council. It will be the last Friday night "jit" before the Senior Prom.

The music will be swung out by Mike Klein's orchestra. The price will be the usual 28 cents. Dancing will be from 8:30 until 11:30.

Miss Frances Robinson's undergarment has a new wrinkle and some Little Black-Sambo records. Miss Robinson made some Black-Sambo kids that were shown at the Halloween party.

The morning children invited Miss Jeanne Harroun's and Miss Selma Jarvis' children, also Prin. Paul D. Carter, Supr. R. H. American and Prin. G. V. Harrison to the school with them.

The afternoon children invited Miss Alice Scott's and Miss Ruth Young's sons, and Miss Paul's son to the school with them.

Girls' Basketball Practice Season Started Monday

Schedule Is Announced for League; First Game with Flat Rock

The girls' basketball coaches of Redford, Flat Rock, Melvindale and Northville met last week, to plan the following basketball schedule for the year:

Dec. 9 — Flat Rock at Northville
Dec. 18 — Redford at Northville
Jan. 15 — Melvindale at Northville
Jan. 22 — Northville at Berkley
Jan. 29 — Northville at Flat Rock
Feb. 5 — Northville at Redford
Feb. 19 — Northville at Melvindale
Feb. 26 — Berkley at Northville

Monday started the girls' basketball practice for the year. Twenty-three new girls of the sophomore and junior class were present. Senior girls are not eligible to begin for a single year of basketball. Thursday opened the practice for the girls of last year's squad. They are: Coe, Lloyd, Gussell, Taylor, and Goto, guards; Clark, Hubbard, Russell, McCollough, Jones, Jones, Carlson and Funks, forwards. The girls tied championship with Flat Rock last year. This year through the help of "Coach" Gladys Ludwig the girls hope to be "Champs," and with a generous number of experienced players, their promise an exciting season of games.

school years in the Wash. Oak country school on Currie road. Jeanette likes army uniforms but particularly dislikes Canada and concerted boys.

Her spare time is taken up by writing letters, hiking and hunting. Saturday nights she can usually be found at the Bar. She hopes to someday take a ride in an airplane.

Jeanette has traveled through Northern Michigan and Canada. Like quite a few of our seniors, Jeanette wants to travel to become a nurse after graduation. She also hopes to become a housewife.

Jeanette recalls with most emphasis the New Years Eve of '39, and the morning of '40.

During her senior year she worked in the fair booth. She also joined the Home Economics club and was elected secretary.

Jeanette lives at 620 West Eight Mile road, Northville.

• GREATEST OF Ease

protect your eyes with better light

Settle back in your easy chair and enjoy reading your evening paper. Put one of the new LES floor or table lamps at your elbow, with a 150-watt bulb for easy, comfortable seeing. You'll be surprised at the difference it makes! (We do not sell these lamps. See them at your dealer's today.) The Detroit Edison Company.
