Lansing.—Petitions to initiate an anti-branch banking law are being circulated this week throughout Michigan.

It portends a renewal of the legislative battle climaxed in 1941 when Governor Van Wagoner vetoed the branch bank bill and legislators retaliated with a 90-day recess.

According to the state law on initiatory legislation, the voters themselves will have an opportunity to enact the bill if the legislators fail to act. The referendum is automatically invoked by negative action of the legislature, and thus the people themselves would have the last word in this controversy.

In this tug-of-war the battle lines are between urban and rural banks. Earl W. Delano, of Allegan, president of the Michigan Bankers' Association, explains that the proposed law would prohibit branch banks outside the county in which the parent bank is located. This provision would prevent extension branch banking, such as through the Michigan National Bank with branches in large cities such as Lansing and Battle Creek.

Reapportionment.—Another issue between upstate and metropolitan interests appears to be headed for a showdown in the 1943 legislature in the revised demand for reapportionment.

Here is a case where the state constitution stipulating how many legislators shall serve each area according to its population, is being conveniently ignored "due to real fears of urban domination."

George E. Averill, Birmingham newspaper editor, points out that 27 per cent of Michigan's population actually elect a majority of the 100 state representatives and 32 state senators. Averill heads a steering committee to seek constitutional enforcement.

Ben Probe of Detroit, representing the Michigan Council of the CIO said farmers had no reason to be apprehensive over organized labor. He said that labor has learned its lesson from the Lansing Labor holiday, sit-down strikes and other events, and that "the farmer need not fear labor."

From Patrick McNamara, representing the Detroit and Wayne county AF of L, came a flat assertion that labor would get tough if necessary. "If it requires mob scenes to get reapportionment, let's give them mob scenes," he is quoted by the Associated Press.

From present signs, the reapportionment issue is already involved in labor vs. farm prejudices, overshadowing the basic issue of constitutional representation.

Special Session?

As financial worries begin to multiply at Lansing, suggestions are being made again that the state legislature be summoned to meet in special session early in 1942.

Three state agencies are overrunning their budgets:

1. Labor mediation board upon which is being placed the burden of peaceful settlement of numerous disagreements between labor and management. When the load is light the mediation board easily lives within its budgeted appropriation. However, Michigan's labor troubles continue to be numerous, and the board is due to incur a deficit according to word from Leo J. Nowicki, state budget director.

2. State council of defense, Michigan's own clearing house for all national defense activities. The council was running well within its budget until the primary bottleneck developed and immediate relief became imperative from Washington in the form of national defense contracts. This resulted in the council's employment of Vernon Steinbaugh as its Washington liaison man at an estimated cost, salary and expenses, of around $15,000 a year, or one-third of the council's entire budget for a year.

Here again, according to the governor's office, is a case of an unforeseen emergency that demanded immediate action in the interest of the entire state. But it created a financial deficit on paper.

3. Michigan military establishments including the newly formed home guard. Obviously this is another case of a defense need.

Little Assistance.—The state administrative board, however, was given an annual appropriation of $500,000 for emergency needs.

Budget Director Nowicki is confident that the above agencies can be financed adequately from this contingency fund.

The annoying problem is how to finance increased salaries which the state civil service commission have ordered after the legislature fixed appropriations on the basis of lower pay scale.

The question is to hold until January when the state officials and legislative leaders will meet to review the situation and map out plans for meeting 1942 needs.

Payroll Taxes

Of main concern to both management and labor are the new tax proposals of Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau. Besides stepping up income taxes to yield 15 per cent on taxable income, the program would double the present old age annuity payroll tax on both employers and employees and impose a 1 per cent payroll tax on employees for unemployment compensation (continued on back page).

Board Refuses "Indefinite" Delay of NLRB Elections

30-Day Postponement Is Granted; 14 Ford Plants, Including Northville Valve Plant, Will Vote Later

Date Is Not Named

A request by the American Federation of Labor for an "indefinite" postponement of NLRB elections in 14 Michigan Ford plants, including Northville, was denied by the labor board, although a 30-day postponement was granted.

Richard T. Leonard, director of the Ford Division, United Automobile Workers CIO, which organization is one of the parties to the labor board, protested the delay and charged that the AFL is trying to stifle or stall the election because it knows it is lost.

In asking for an indefinite postponement, the AFL charged the Ford Motor company with unfair labor practices.

"There is no question of unfair labor practices," Leonard said. "The AFL just got cold feet."

"We didn't ask for the election," he added. "The AFL did—as a publicity stunt prior to the NLRB elections last May 28 in the Ford Rouge and Lincoln Plants. But we are ready to have them. We want the world to know that the Ford workers in these plants want to bargain through their own union—the UAW-CIO. They will say so in an election by as great a majority as the Rouge and Lincoln workers did in their elections."

Subsequent to the AFL's request for a postponement, the National Labor Relations Board has informed the UAW-CIO that no further elections in other Ford plants will be granted to the AFL by the board during the life of the UAW-CIO's contract with the company.

The only reason the elections were ordered in the 14 Michigan plants, the board said, was that the AFL petition was filed before the contract was signed.

From present signs, the reapportionment issue is already involved in labor vs. farm prejudices, overshadowing the basic issue of constitutional representation.

• Thanksgiving Proclamation

"Whereas it is the duty of all nations to acknowledge the providence of Almighty God... I do recommend and assign Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of November next, to be devoted by the people of these States, to the service of that great and glorious Being, who is the Beneficent Author of all the good that was, that is, or that will be; that we may then all unite in rendering unto him our sincere and humble thanks... for the great degree of tranquility, union, and plenty which we have enjoyed; for the peaceable and rational manner in which we have been enabled to establish constitutions of Government for our safety and happiness;... for the civil and religious liberty with which we are blessed, and the means we have of acquiring and diffusing useful knowledge; and, in general, for all the great and various favors which he has been pleased to confer upon us."

GEORGE WASHINGTON

The most traitor member of American society today is the honest, well-meaning union member trying to run his own union democratically and well, who has been forced out of control, sometimes by brutal gangster methods. His dues and assessments, almost always upward of 5 per cent of his wage, may be used to pay for the strong-arm army which keeps from power the sober and more respectable elements of union membership.

Three hundred million dollars a year, is the amount of money, collected from American labor union members, which will be retained this year by unions, many of whose officers and business agents will never make any report of any kind to those who have contributed the money, or to anybody else.

The figures were calculated by Robert S. Binkerd, and published in the November issue of the Atlantic Monthly, and that is something to think about.

• Public Health Enemy No. 1

It's a strange thing that doctors can perform operations which are miracles of skill and knowledge, but seem unable to find the remedy for a common, ordinary cold.

Probably more money is expended each year on research to find the cause and cure for colds than on any other medical study. And probably more money is spent by the public on medicines to relieve colds than on any other type of medicine. But the cold still remains a mystery and its prevention or cure still remains unsolved.

On this very day, if the law of averages is holding out as it usually does, 10 per cent of the people in this town are suffering from this common malady which health authorities consider Public Health Enemy No. 1.

There are of course many medicines offered for the relief of colds, and there is no doubt that some of them do make breathing easier and living more pleasant while a cold is wending its way through the human system. There are also drug products which retard coughing and temporarily get rid of a tickle in the human throat.

But that's about as far as remedies go and that's why the Federal Trade Commission frowns upon any advertiser who claims to be able to stop a cold or cure a cold. With 1941 equipment, that just can't be done.

One of the leading companies selling a product for the relief of colds made an extensive analysis not so long ago of thousands of people who used their particular product for a cold as compared with thousands of others who did not use it. It was found that those who used the product suffered a little less from colds than those who did not—but there was little evidence produced that the product hastened recovery from colds.

Some day this cold mystery will be solved. Meanwhile, we all might as well use our favorite remedies and hope that we have the one which makes having a cold least unpleasant.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

• One Year Ago

Former Governor Wilbur M. Cook, D., of the Antislavery Day speaker at the high school Northville.

More than 300 persons were on hand Friday evening in the Union school to witness the presentation of a plaque to Charles L. Gebringer given at the Plymouth first Boy Scout Court of Honor in which three of Northville's troops participated.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell M. Arneson and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Cook, who during the year were leaders of the Northville Public Schools. The plaque was presented to the chairman of the operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Johnson, Superintendent of the Wayne County Training School, was one of the speakers Tuesday at the Governor's Conference on Child Health and Protection at Lawrence University.

A sum of approximately $4,000 was raised by the students of the Northville High School for the year 1940-41.

Northville High School's 20th anniversary was held Saturday night at the Hotel Elkhorn, Utica, Mich.

News from Walled Lake

By CHARLES E. HUTTON

The success of a recent P. T. A. fun night program was so pronounced that a repetition of the event will take place Thursday night of this week. Sparking the evening's gaiety was to be Howard Irish, recreational leader of Detroit. According to all reports, there is never a dull moment in an Irish supervised affair. Refreshments were to be supervised by the fifth and sixth grade mothers.

Dec. 6 has been set for the P. T. A. sponsored card party and Shadown social as a benefit for the annual community Christmas party. A program is being planned by a committee which includes Mrs. Fred Schwartz, Mrs. Earl Vance, Mrs. C. B. Lawrence, Mrs. Whitney Smith and Mrs. Lloyd Coe.

Mrs. Minnie Hutton suffered painful cuts of the face and severe bruises Wednesday night when she fell from the porch of her home. She accidentally tripped on a loose board, and was thrown to the ground. She fell face downward on the gravel drive, breaking her glasses, which in turn caused a deep cut under the right eye, and other lacerations. While still confined to her bed she is making a satisfactory recovery.

Traveling by plane, Arthur E. Elven left Sunday for Sacramento, because of the death of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Casterline and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Deal spent the week end in Muskegon, where they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Gillespie.

BIG BOMBERS

To build the huge Consolidated B-24, so greatly needed for America's defense, the Ford Willow Run Bomber Plant is being constructed in remarkably fast time. Including an airport, this giant plant will cover 975 acres, with a floor area of 3,700,000 square feet. From it will come completed bombers and sub-assemblies in unprecedented numbers!

BIG TANKS

Latest challenge to Ford mass production methods is America's urgent need for monster 30 and 60-ton tanks. Recent announcement that Ford is to handle the nation's biggest order for these giant tanks is evidence of faith in the ability of the Ford Motor Company to do the job both fast and well.

BIG ENGINES

Big and mighty are the 2000 horse-power Pratt and Whitney engines rolling off the assembly line at the new Ford Airplane Engine Plant at Dearborn, Michigan. The Ford Motor Company smashed all modern records in rushing its huge airplane engine plant to completion and into full production. Its production now will play a most important part in America's defense efforts.

DUNCAN MOORE SPECIAL

Here is an answer to the demand for more food for defense. The same weight that is the standard for size one weighs 1½ pounds. The larger weight is the standard for size two. Both are made of the finest quality bacon by Duncan Moore, PWA veteran who conducts the Duncan's Farm Fresh Bacon on a farm just out of Detroit and likes to try for the unusual. He says no preservatives were used but rather a preference makes him come to the market. Oh, Yes! Don't look now, but the bacon is bacon baked and bacon bacon.

No harsh chemicals are used in the Freydl plant. Your fragile chiffon negligee is just as safe with us as the living room drapes. ## FAITH in the Future!

ALTHOUGH we live in a streamlined age devoid of the simpleness of Puritan life, we still possess much the same fear and faith in the future as the Puritan had. While the Puritan overcame his fear by trusting to God and his flintlock, people today need not depend on powder and shot. Instead, they look to their bank to insure them safety, and to guarantee their future security.

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PERINSON
& ROGER ALEXEN

Washington, D. C.
NAZI SABOTAGE

The man to watch is a swarthy and charming diplomat in Turkey named Franz von Papen. It is always a significant omen when Hitler sends Von Papen to a country. It means he has dire and poignant intentions regarding that area.

It was Von Papen who went to Austria as ambassador to soften it in preparation for the Nazi occupation. It was Von Papen who 26 years ago tried to do the same thing here. And now, with weather getting cold in Russia and Hitler running lower and lower on oil, a Nazi squeeze on Turkey becomes almost inevitable. To prepare for it Ambassador Von Papen has been working overtime in Turkey.

Almost forgotten is Von Papen's attempt to soften and sabotage the United States during the last war. But his operations here indicate the lengths to which he may go in Turkey to bring that country into the Hitler camp.

In 1915, Von Papen, was German military attaché in Washington when Count Julian von Bernstorff returned from England with a satchel containing $150,000,000 in German treasury notes.

Von Papen, then a Mexico City, turned north and immediately began to form a secret of spies.

Invaded via Canada.

After selecting six agents carefully, Von Papen laid the following plans:

No. 1. To invade Canada through British Columbia with the aid of German warships in the Pacific and German resources in the United States. This plan was vetoed by Von Bernstorff.

No. 2. To clear up the Willard canal. This scheme likewise was abandoned, because the canal was too well guarded.

No. 3. To buy Canadian railroad to effort to prevent transportation of Japanese troops through Canada. (The Japanese are fighting with the Allies.)

No. 4. To buy up the International Bridge at Victoria, Wash. This was accomplished through an agent named Weller, H. H.

Von Papen was so successful and unscrupulous that he overreached himself. His plan was foiled when he met Bernstorff, who awarded him his raters, and both proceeded to Germany. Von Papen became Chancellor of Germany and he took part in the coup d'etat which brought Hitler into power.

RUSSIAN REQUEST—A DRIBLET

Averell Harriman's confidential report on Russian requests for aid was vastly different from British requests after Dunkirk. In comparison with the British the Russian orders seem a mere dribble.

After the Lowland debacle, the British had to start from scratch, having lost practically all their armored equipment and most of their field artillery. The Russians have lost tremendous quantities of material, but judging from their relatively modest requests, they still must have a lot left.

One of the chief things they asked for was 75 and 105 mm guns which luck would supply. Production figures are a military secret, but these canons are now rolling off assembly lines in quantity. The Russians also asked for machine guns which we can furnish also in large numbers, since machine gun production is at a high level.

One of the biggest and pleasantest surprises to Harriman was that the Russians do not need machine tools, at least for the present. This took a big load off his mind, as both the U. S. and Britain have had to spare right now.

Note: U. S. military experts consider lack of co-operation between the three Russian armies to be one of the principal reasons for the break through in the center against Moscow. Although there has been a shift of Russian generals, doubt still exists about the co-operation of the three armies under a central command.

INFLATION CURE

Here is the inside lowdown on Price Administrator Leo Henderson's own private preventive against inflation.

He disclosed it to a group of Charlestown, W. Va., business men during a speech on the dangers of runaway prices. One of the audience asked Henderson how a business man could best protect himself against inflation.

"Work like hell," was the prompt reply, "and go to church regularly."

MERRY-GO-ROUND

Introduced to a British production expert, who had just completed a survey of U. S. defense plants, OPA boss William Knudsen took him off his feet by inquiring "What impressed you least?"

A sports commentator, sponsored by a shaving cream, called the duke of Windsor in Baltimore, inviting him to appear as guest star on the radio program, the money to be paid to British charity. The duke declined—even before he was told the offer was only $100.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Flaherty and Mr. and Mrs. Neil D. Hammarlund spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Lester of West Seneca.

Tired Businessmen Bowl for "Pep"

There's something about the game that makes the average chair warming business man come in fagged and leave with a youthful spring in his step. We've watched thousands of folks start in bowling on a sporting dare and wind up as enthusiastic regulars. We know too, from their conversations and appearances before and after bowling, that they have mentally and physically benefited in ways that no doctor in the world could help with medicine.

P. G. LURAIN Says:

"Marvelous smoking enjoyment and Marvels Cigarettes are synonymous, because Marvels Cigarettes are mild and smooth and have that satisfying goodness that can only come from good tobacco. And your budget will enjoy them, too, for Marvels cost less."

P. G. LURAIN, Salesman, Northville, Mich.

TRY Marvels. Ask yourself if you ever smoked a better cigarette at any price. Marvels are mild, really mild. Marvels are smooth. But with all their mildness and smoothness, they have a rich, round, satisfying taste that reaches deep down to let you know you're smoking . . . and make you glad you are!

EDITORIAL

The winning slogan for America in Michigan was "In freedom there is courage; in production there is strength," the winner being Rodney Earhart from Holland. This slogan can apply to schools as well as to the nation.

Freedom and individualism in school makes for originality in work. Students are able to gain confidence in themselves and therefore be more competent. They have a government of their own in the form of the Student Council and many take an active part in it.

Counselors opportunities present slogan for America as it applies to us in self-expression which is so necessary in assembling present nation.

The work books have come for the American Government class for the eleventh grade. F. C. Mallin in their class has just one game so far this year.

On Oct. 1 Ruth Frank is the new post-graduate trainee. She is now working in the board of education office in the grade school. She starts working there around Oct. 1 and is also under the supervision of Dorothy Congdon, Dorothy Van Valkenburg, Chris Stoenoff, John Politz, and Jeannette Clark.

The topic now being discussed by most girls is the Senior Prom, one trying to find out what the other is planning and who her escort will be for the occasion.

Care of the team is now being emphasized by Miss Ruth Krapp, the school nurse. Pictures and articles are on the bulletin board down stairs.

Another group wished to attend the Thursday evening performance, but as the tickets were all sold out, only those who had tickets mailed to them were able to go. The operetta was greatly enjoyed by all and the choir students received much inspiration that will help them with their operetta which comes annually during the second semester.

for which management is already paying 3 per cent.

Michigan's state compensation law would create individual reserve accounts effective Jan. 1, 1942, based on employment experience of the past three years.

Employers whose employment conditions are stable would save upward of $25,000,000 a year under the Michigan law. A legislative commission is now studying possible changes which could be made a subject of legislation at a special session of lawmakers. Labor desires more compensation, more weeks; employers desire relief from burdensome taxes when unemployment load is light.

Because of pressure for action on branch banking, reapportionment, finances and unemployment compensation, the special session persists. Yet it is predicted that the governor will seek to avoid involvement in a 1942 legislative battle if he possibly can. After all, he will be the Democratic nominee for re-election.
