Christmas Club Members Receive $13,000 This Year

1941 Savings Surpass Last Year's Total by $3,000;
Plan Has Been Used Here
4 Years

Membership Open

A total of $13,000 went into circulation here this week as a result of the Christmas Savings club deposits during 1941 at the Depositors State Bank.

The savings represent some 400 club members who have budgeted throughout the year in order to have a "paid" Christmas. This year's savings surpass that of last year by $3,000.

Deposits made in denominations as low as 10 cents a week start the club. There are club payments for persons who want to save 25 or 50 cents a week, as well as those who can afford the one, two, three or five-dollar brackets. Payments are made weekly in most cases, although some club members like to pay several weeks in advance.

The new year for the club started Dec. 1, but looking ahead to Christmas, 1,642 persons may still join the club. Members have the privilege of joining at their convenience.

This is the fourth year the Christmas Club savings plan has been in operation in Northville. Each year a marked increase has been noted over the previous year.

7 Minor Automobile Accidents Occur Here in November

The police department's report for the month of November gives Monday evening at a regular meeting of the Village Council, stated that there had been only seven minor motor vehicle accidents during the month, damaging property to the extent of $185.50.

The department, too, says that five places of business were found open by the nightwatchman. No breaking and entering cases were reported.

There were five juvenile cases this month. One was held for store larceny; one for stealing a car; and three were investigated in connection with stripping cars.

The police force cleared a larceny case through an arrest and property taken was recovered.

Six arrests were made here in November for disorderly conduct traffic violations. 158 in number, were noted with summons being given to 30 drivers. The licenses of two drunk drivers were revoked and one was sentenced to serve 16 days in the House of Correction. Six reckless drivers were taken into court. Fines for the month total $36.

Members of the police force answered 126 calls in November.

Hundreds Attend Formal Opening of Penn Theatre

Owner Harry Lush Assures Cinema Patrons the Best in Equipment and Comfort

The formal opening of the Penn Theatre, Plymouth, Thursday, Dec. 4, brought communion from the hundreds of cinema fans, many of them villagers, who are on hand for the theatre's first offering, "Week End in Havana," a technical color film.

Harry E. Lush, the theatre's owner, has obtained for the theatre-going public which he knows so well, the best in sound equipment.

The max., the ceiling composition, makes it possible to have the best, too, in acoustics.

But the best in technical equipment wasn't enough for Mr. Lush.

He's made it a place of comfort and beauty as well. Leaving 33 inches for each row of seats, each seat is upholstered in mulberry leather 20 inches wide, assuring comfort to the 700 persons who can be accommodated in the theatre.

Modern, too, is the stenciled motif on the pink walls of the theatre and its foyer. Colors of blue, red and gold are used in the design which is heightened by reflections from the fluorescent light tubes which line the walls. Harmonizing with the pink of the walls, maroon velvet drapes are used on the stage. Carpeting of the same color is repeated on the aisles in the auditorium. The flooring in the foyer is a terrazzo composition. The walls of the front lobby are decorated in colors of red and silver.

Walled Lake Fire Department Starts Campaign for Funds

By Charles E. Hutton

A campaign was launched Tuesday at a meeting of the Walled

Lake Community Luncheon Club for urgently needed funds for the maintenance of the Commerce

Township fire department.

In a report on equipment and financial conditions of the department, Chief Harvey Segnit stated that surplus funds in the department treasury had been used up to date, leaving $1,000.

Chief Harvey Segnit reported that about $400 in back salaries, covering a period of seven months, is due the firemen of the department. Segnit stated he had received no salary in that length of time, but had distributed the small amount of money available among those members who needed it most.

The financial condition of the department is serious, and will continue to be for at least another year, unless funds are provided by voluntary subscription." Segnit said.

"Because of our new truck and the greatly increased protection it provides the district fire department, insurance rates have been materially reduced. We feel it is reasonable to ask for needed funds for the coming year's maintenance, in the light of extensive service rendered to property owners, and the unselfish devotion to duty provided by the men of the department. Most volunteer fire departments of the state are largely maintained by contributions of the people of their communities."

Members of the department will canvass the district, which includes the entire township, for individual contributors during December.

Several benefit parties will be staged to raise funds. The Walled Lake Goodfellows will sponsor such an event in the near future, and the annual firemen's ball will take place in January.

• Christmas Decoration Early

The same old question arises and we'd like to see it answered by everyone. Will Northville's Main-street display the Yuletide spirit with appropriate decorations again this year?

The year 1941 is swinging into a Christmas season with an unusual depth of meaning. America's Christmas this year will answer the call to colors. It's to be a Christmas full of thought for the army boys and a Christmas to send messages of cheer and courage to far corners of the earth.

Now is the time to round up all plans and to make lists of folks to be remembered. Northville merchants scan the Christmas horizon with high hopes for a successful Christmas shopping season. Their forethought should result in grand displays. Let's really show that the Christmas spirit in Northville is above average.

If folks were to be questioned about the value of decorating the streets and stores for Christmas, it is our belief you'd find very few would say it wasn't worth the time and expense to do it. Remember last year when the Main street and stores were gaily bedecked with Christmas lights and trimmings, we can truthfully say the spirit of the Yuletide prevailed more strongly than ever that year.

Cooperation and the willingness to start this Christmas decorating program are needed to get things done.

Let us remember that the price of victory is cheaper paid in toil and sweat than in blood and tears.

* * * * *

The Department of Commerce reports that the private and public debt in the United States totaled $167,300,000,000 as of December 1940, or a per capita debt of $3,263.00. It would thus take practically the entire national income of two years at the present rate of 92 billions to pay off these debts. What it will be at the end of 1941 is anyone's guess.

Net indebtedness per capita amounted to $1,263 for the year, compared with a record high of $1,406 in 1936 and $1,154 for the 1929-40 period.

There was a larger increase in private debt last year than in public debt, the report stated both in dollar amount and percentage. All the major types of private debts with the exception of farm mortgages showed gains, with the most striking increase found in outstanding consumer credit, which advanced 12.8 per cent to $9,100,000,000. About half of the increase represented heavier automobile financing.

The report showed an increase of $1,360,000,000 in corporate short-term debt in 1940 was concentrated among industrial companies and represented chiefly the need of business for additional working capital, due chiefly, the department said, to the rearmament program and of the preparation for further business expansion during 1941.

• Four Ceilings

It would be a strange sort of house that had a low ceiling in one room, a high ceiling in the next, a mere avering over another room, and nothing at all over a fourth.

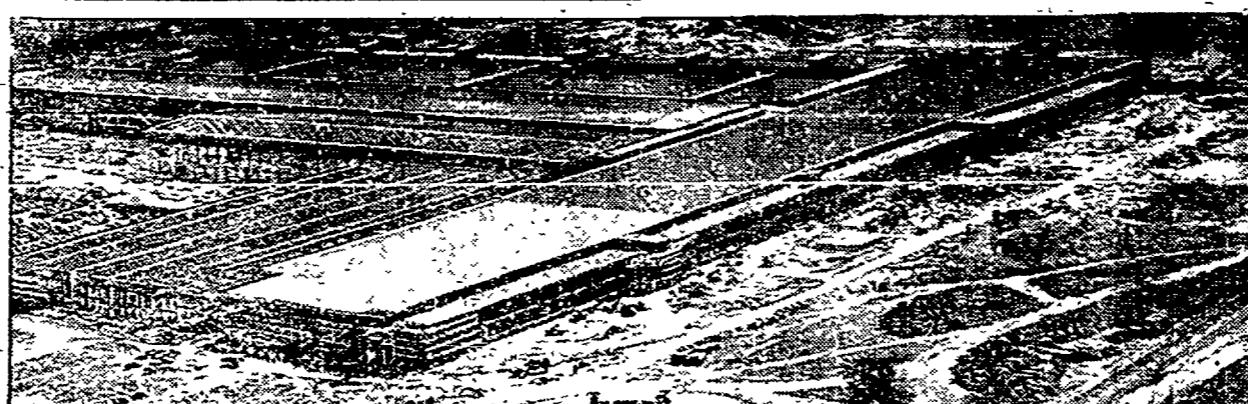

That is an approximate description of the price control legislation pending before the United States House of Representatives in the report from its Committee on Banking and Currency.

The grotesqueness of such an uncorrelated effort to prevent inflation in the far-time economy is indicated by strikes in which labor, one of the uncontrolled elements, asks higher wages because of increases in food prices which grow out of another uncontrolled element, farm prices. This tends to squeeze profits against the one ceiling which is seriously proposed—namely, on industrial prices—and to force the Government, which means everybody, to pay more for defense production.

Ever since President Roosevelt raised his standard of defense of the "four freedoms"—freedom of speech, freedom of worship, freedom from want, freedom from fear of attack—it has been well understood that these are inseparably linked one to another. The spiral of price pressures and wage demands points to a necessity for four ceilings to complement and sustain the four freedoms in this time of needed national unity; ceiling on profits, food costs, rentals, and wages. One such ceiling can hardly stand without the others.

Huge Ford Bomber Plant in Michigan Takes Form

half of the actual length of the assembly building is shown in the photo. Ford will produce giant four-engine Consolidated B-24 bombers in the Willow Run plant. Construction work has advanced so rapidly a fool room already is in production in the new structure.

Safety Assured for Tiny Tourists

Tiny tourists sometimes grow restless on long motor trips and their limited energy and curiosity require double checking to insure that every safety precaution is being taken by their parents. With the entire rear compartment of the family Chevrolet as his personal playground, this youngster assumes a favorite perch that ordinarily would be dangerous. However, a simple adjustment made by Chevrolet mechanics, converted the rear door handle to a safety-action handle, which "freezes" the door handle to its safety position, as indicated in the inset, the lock button is depressed and the inside handle then will not open the door, rendering it "child proof." Release of the lock button enables the driver to open the door as usual.

For months the Nazis have been bringing small boats down to the Aegean via the Balkan railroads and the Danube, and are reported almost ready for landing party attacks on coastal points in the Middle East.

In fact, the more the Nazi drive in Russia bogs down with weather, the more likely is Hitler to take the easier, warmer, short cut through Turkey to vital oil fields of the Caucasus—and also toward the British oil fields in Mosul and the Euphrates valley.

Preparing to meet this General Wavell has been sending a constant stream of reinforcements from India, most of them to Iran, Iraq and Palestine. The British say they are in fairly good shape—though still weakly, weak in tanks.

Faced with this crisis, the Turks, as usual, continue to be the enigma of Europe. Diplomatic betting is they will bow to Hitler.

LITTLE BUSINESS

The President has on his desk a White House secretaries following a careful survey in 35 states, the memorandum by inference severely criticizes OPM and war department handling of defense contracts.

Mellett found that little business whole defense administration, is convinced that it is being run by

Senior Sketch

If you are looking for a certain senior named Whitley, you are certain to find him in the Gunnell Drug store for he is a clerk of long standing in that place of business. He was born in South Bend, Ind., but came to Northville in plenty of time to start school here. He lives at 226 South Center street. His likes consist of sleeping late, food, Donald Duck, hunting, guns and his car. This happy go lucky senior does not care for stuck up people. In school he has taken active one of the whiz whirling seniors.

Red Cross Helps Solve Problems Of Our Recruits

Through Its Directors in Camps Red Cross Links Men With Home

Washington, D. C.—On the home and military fronts the American Red Cross is turning its focus on the man in uniform. In his behalf, more than 10,000 nurses are being recruited. Volunteers are donating their blood for a huge plasma bank. Red Cross women in chapters throughout the country are making 40,000,000 surgical dressings, and knitting sweaters for men in training posts and sailors on patrol.

But these are just fragments of the story. In military and naval stations, the Red Cross is concerned itself with the personal problems of the service man, helping him adjust himself to military life. For the disabled, the Red Cross is on the job in service hospitals, helping to speed recovery of the sick through a morale-building program.

In mobilizing a 2,000,000-man fighting force, the personal problems of the able-bodied man in uniform have in turn become problems of the morale division's Red Cross field directors, stationed in all camps and reservations have been entrusted with the task of helping to solve these problems.

Speaking in a nation-wide broadcast recently, Chief of Staff Marshall of the Army, addressed the following words to Red Cross field directors:

"When you help straighten out any of the great varieties of tangles that human affairs seem unable to untangle, you are helping to maintain morale on the home front and on the military front you are helping to bring us victory for defense."

The Red Cross men in a service vessel in Mexico City in the Red Cross for help in securing recovering medical-aid workers, trained for their specialized assignment, are to stay at Army general and Navy hospitals to aid service physicians to act as a medium of communication.

The Masonic orders will hold their annual elections here Monday and Wednesday of next week.

Washington MERRY-GO-ROUND

DREW PEARSON & ROBERT ALLEN

Washington, D. C.

Nazi INTRUDER

There is a German smuggler operating in the Caribbean, off the coast of Mexico.

This was the inside reason for the President's sudden transfer of the entire coast guard to the navy—the coast guard's ships and planes are needed to track down the Nazi intruder.

"Sensational feature" about the smuggler is that she is a former U. S. vessel—the 800-ton Diesel-engined yacht that once belonged to A. Atwater Kent, Philadelphia radio magnate.

The one-time pleasure ship now is being operated under the Panamanian flag out of Vera Cruz, Mexico. By now, 2,000 in that city, and is being used to transport high-test gasoline and mercury to small Caribbean islands where Japanese ships collect the smuggled strategic supplies.

The yacht recently unloaded 1,000 sacks of mercury at an island which for military reasons must be nameless.

The former luxury craft came into possession of the Nazis by a cautious foote which intelligence experts uncovered only a few weeks ago. The purchase was made by a shipping company whose main office is in Vera Cruz and has a branch office in New Orleans, where transfer of title took place. The price was $13,000.

Fortunately for intelligence, the payment was made in U. S. bills of $1,000 denominations. From the start, all numbers on the bills were traced back to a Vera Cruz bank. There it was learned the money had been withdrawn from the account of the leading Nazi business house in Mexico and turned over to the shipping company that bought the yacht.

Subsequent investigation revealed that all the stockholders of the company were Germans, also that the two top officers were Spaniards, one a naturalized Mexican and the other a naturalized American citizen.

Now, every movement of the yacht is watched, but there is nothing the United States can do about the ship unless she enters American waters. So far the vessel has been very careful to stay within Mexican territorial waters.

LEND-LEASE MILK EXPERT

The most novel type of lend-lease operation thus far was the lending of a calf named Adolf. Adolf Eichhorn went over to help the British against Adolf Hitler.

The British are suffering from insufficient production of milk, because of diseased cattle, and Eichhorn is the man who knows all the answers. He is director of the animal disease station under the department of agriculture.

Three principal diseases affect British cattle—tuberculosis, which makes the cattle lean; Bang's disease, which results in the loss of the calf, and mastitis.

Eichhorn was obliged to tell the British that tuberculosis, which afflicts 35 per cent of British cattle cannot be cured during the course of the war, unless the war lasts for another generation. It took the United States 22 years to get the disease under control.

Bang's disease is more readily transmitted. By vaccination, a calf can be immunized so that its adult life will not be afflicted with the disease.

Meantime, the British are importing great quantities of dry and powdered milk from the United States. Fresh milk is worth a king's ransom.

RETURNED FAVOR

When Rep. John McCormack of Massachusetts was elected Democratic floor leader of the house, one of his strongest and most unexpected supporters was Georgia's fiery New Dealership George Cox. Though the two men were poles apart on economic views, Cox nevertheless backed McCormack and did yeoman work for him.

Recently McCormack returned the favor. Before leaving on a trip to Massachusetts, McCormack named Cox floor leader during his absence. "There's one condition, however, Gene," he grinned. "You'll have to refrain from those hot one-minute speeches on the floor. I don't want my stand-in taking swings at the administration. It would look bad."

McCormack wished the Georgia back and left the chamber. Hardly had he departed when Cox jumped up and asked permission to address the house for one minute. New Dealers held their breath, expecting him to uncork one of his searching blasts.

But they relaxed with a sigh of relief when Cox launched into a terrific tirade against John L. Lewis.
