Plan Red Cross War Relief Fund Campaign Here

Local Unit Sets Date for Drive for Week Following Christmas; Every One Asked To Help

Quota Is $1500

Northville Village and Township is making plans for a township-wide response and every home canvas in supporting the $50,000,000 War Fund Campaign launched by the American Red Cross with the outbreak of hostilities.

Committee at Work

Tuesday evening 50 representatives of Northville organizations met at the library at the call of Mrs. Elmer Ward Lester, local chairman, and set up a tentative plan for the local campaign. Officers were named, committees set up, the time designated, quota accepted, and the village and township divided into regions for the collection.

A local committee consisting of Mrs. Lester, chairman, Mrs. L. M. Eaton, secretary; Harold Bloom, treasurer; and the Rev. Fr. Joseph Schramm, the Rev. E. E. Rosser, Mrs. G. T. Tait and W. E. Canfield were named to perfect the plan outlined.

Form 9 Districts

The quota was set at $1500.00. The time for the canvass was the week between Christmas and New Year's. Nine districts in the village were set up and some four or five in the township designed and tentative captains and lieutenants named who are being contacted for the assignment. Each captain and lieutenant in each district will call upon several people in that immediate section to assist in the solicitation.

The two luncheon clubs were asked to canvas the business district, and each club has been asked to name three men to comprise a solicitation committee to cover the section of Main street from High to and including Park avenue, and Center street from Cedar to Rayson. The Exchange club named Harold Church, A. Russell Clarke and E. V. Ellison to work with a

Defense Bond Sale Gets Under Way Saturday, Dec. 20

Stamps and Bonds Will Be Sold by Volunteers Assigned to Shifts in Four Stores in Business District

To List Buyers

With a corps of workers representing organizations and churches throughout the village, the one-day Defense Stamp and Bond campaign, with Mrs. James Green, chairman, and Mayor Carl H. Stigman, honorary chairman, will be under way at 10 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 20, in four vintage places in the business district.

A running start of advance orders amounting to over $4,000 has been made by the committee of volunteer buyers.

To Sell at Night
To accommodate evening shoppers, stamps and bonds will be on sale until 9 p.m. Saturday, at the Allam and Lockheed sales, where a games party will also be held.

men confidence that the village at large will respond generously to the sale.

It's to be a stamp and bonding Christmas this year for the committee has used the slogan "Give a stamp or a bond for Christmas." Employers have swum in with the idea, many of them buying for their employees.

A complete list of names of all buyers, regardless of whether it's a 10-cent stamp sale or a $1000 transaction will be kept.

Purchases are made in the four stores designated below.

Stamps may be purchased for as little as a dime, quarter, half-dollar, dollar and five dollars. Bonds may be bought for $18.75, $57.50, $75

Christmas Party Will Be Dec. 24

700 Children Expected To Be Guests of Business and Professional Men

The annual Children's Christmas party will be held at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 24, at the Village Hall where Santa Claus will make an appearance at the invitation of the business and professional men of the village.

Some 700 children will be on hand to get a treat from Santa. Santa himself sent a wire this week to D. Harper Crittenden telling him the time of his arrival in Northville. Pre-visit arrangements are to be made Monday evening by Santa's committee which includes: C. Harold Bloom, Tunis P. Biddle, Frank Kremser, Al Zimmerman, Harry F. Wagner, Schmitz, Carl Ely, George Locke and Mr. Britton.

The business and professional men have donated generously this year, seeing to it that $143.50 would be available to fill the stockings for the children. A substantial balance, after the stockings have been filled, will be turned over to the village to share in the cost of the street lights.

George Ruskin and Santa will be one and the same at the Christmas party.

Remember a Soldier Boy This Christmas

• That Soldier Boy . . .

Your Boy . . . Your Neighbor's Boy . . . Away at camp . . . the one that had figured on a furlough for Christmas dinner with his folks.

Then came the attack on Pearl Harbor and the cancellation of all leaves.

Don't you think he would get a big kick out of hearing from you? Maybe just a card . . . or a suitable gift . . . a letter.

His folks will be glad to give you his address. They will appreciate your interest. It will help them to know that their son is being remembered on Christmas day.

What do you say? Let's do it now before we forget it . . . or it is too late.

Four Detroiters in Solo Roles in "Messiah"

Chorus of 60 Village Voices Will Sing Sunday Evening in Presbyterian Church

Four Detroit soloists will join a chorus of some 60 village voices in Recens Handel's "Messiah" at 7:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 21, in the Presbyterian church.

The soloists are Betty Smallwood soprano, Verle Loebner contralto, Kenneth Weisbach bass, and James Richards Tenor.

Mr. Richards has been heard in Northville before, being a member of the Welsh quartet which has entertained at Rotary. The other three soloists are students at Wayne University and were contacted by Margaret Barthel. The soloist com-

Kelye and Mrs. Victor L. Lumley. Carl H. Bryan is chairman of the stage committee.

The final rehearsal will be held at 3:30 p.m. Sunday. Leslie G. Leach, director, asks all who plan to sing in the chorus to be present at that time. He also asks all college students who have sung the "Messiah" in previous years to join the chorus again this year.

Mrs. G. V. Harrison will preside at the organ; Miss Lucile Lapham a student at Albion college who plays the piano. During intermission the Rev. Harold P. Fredell will tell something of the first presentation of the "Messiah" as well as something of Handel himself.

The village total to date is $312.50 broken down in the following way: Eastman, $10; Rotary, $5; Northville grade school, $70.53; rural school, $71.40; Marbury, $25; Wayne County Training school, $10; junior and senior highs, $30.57.

Money representing the sale of hundreds of Tuberculosis Christmas seals by school children in the village was tabulated this week by the chairman of the drive, Mrs. G. V. Harrison.

The chairman points out that the sale is slightly below that of last year when the $250 mark was reached.

So that Christmas shoppers can use the columns of The Record as a guide for their buying next week, the paper will go to press Tuesday to be delivered Wednesday morning.

This means that all copy will need to be in The Record office Monday, Dec. 22, to assure publication. Any copy that can be turned in Friday or Saturday of this week will lessen the amount of last minute rush on the machines.

Village Decorates for Two Annual Yuletide Contests

Homes and Stores To Be Judged Monday, Dec. 22; Two Challenge Trophies Go to First Place Winners

Stores Are Busy

With the business district becoming more of a headquarters for Santa with each day, Yuletide is in evidence here as shoppers hurry from one shop to the other. Crowded stores and long lines have made some of the shops a little late in getting their windows decorated for the contest judging, but most of them are now ready for the inspector to visit come Monday Dec. 22.

Homes Become Festive

Activities for the Red Cross and registration for civilian defense have made homemakers a little slow in getting their residences decked out with Christmas greens but this phase, too, of an American Christmas is getting underway now that

The Arthur Hicks of Nov. 11 received word Thursday, Dec. 11 that their nephew Louis Gammie, stationed at Pearl Harbor, had been wounded in the bombing, Sunday, Dec. 7. He had been assigned to the USS Nevada. The extent of Louis' injuries are not known. He is a nephew, too, of Mrs. Ward Schutte of Northville.

No word has been received from Roy Holmes, assigned to the USS Arizona which was one of the six vessels lost in the Pearl Harbor episode. Roy is the son of Will L. Holmes of Herman Kitter Hospital, and is a brother to Earl C. Holmes of the Navy. Roy's wife, Dorothy Thompson, also has been stationed at Oahu.

Someplace at sea is Ed Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Reid of 410 Fairbank road. Ed is a quartermaster 3rd class, in the USS Quincy. He enlisted in Oct. 23.

At 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. Who Can Register

Standards may be relaxed and the only qualification for registration is a willingness to work. Persons are called at a man's place. There are no citizenship requirements for registration. There are no age limits. All that is asked is that the registrant be willing to pledge allegiance to the United States of America and voluntarily offer his service to be used as the need arises.

It was at first understood here that proof of citizenship had to be submitted at the time of registration. This is not the case. For that reason the registration Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week totaled only 87.

Clerks Give Service

Our Bill of Rights

Most of us were so busy, so keyed up, and otherwise occupied that December 15th came and has gone with little significance to most of us. But last Monday really was the 150th birthday of our type of freedom—the anniversary of the day that our Bill of Rights became part of the Constitution of the United States.

During these days when all freedom is threatened, it is particularly fitting that the citizens of our country have this opportunity to commemorate an important birthday of liberty—to reflect on the history of what generations before us have done to keep freedom alive in this nation.

The day of December 15 signals the ratification of the Bill of Rights by the state of Virginia. This state, present in 1791, meant that three-fourths of the states had ratified the Bill and it thus legally was added to the Constitution.

This part of the constitution includes our guarantee of freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of the press, protection of individual's property, trial by jury—the things which all loyal Americans have since then defended at all cost.

With 150 years behind it, the Bill of Rights to most of us is no longer just a law—it is ingrained in our philosophy and expressed in all our actions. We take it for granted because we always have had freedom, but we don't have any illusions about what our lives would be like if these freedoms suddenly were snatched away. We've watched freedom die in Poland, in France, in Russia and in Germany—and we will never permit any foreign nation, or any group in our country, to harm this sacred provision of our constitution upon which our way of life is founded.

A Good Fellow

Are you a GOOD FELLOW? Well this is the issue of the Record that we dedicate to charity and its good work in Northville and beyond. We furnish the papers, our good friends of Northville sell them, and more good sportsmen and good neighbors buy them, all in the spirit of Goodfellowship. And why, down do it? Why do you do it? Why do we all yield to the promptings of the occasion, and the sale goes over big? Well it is us... just something this is just us... and all of us... Northville folks taking care of their own, and we all like to help one another.

This year at the suggestion of the Goodfellow Club at the Maybury Sanatorium, a more lenient distribution of the funds to aid work in Northville was accepted. This year 30 per cent of the funds will be given to the King's Daughters for their charity work in the village, and the remainder divided pro-rata according to the number of patients in the two local sanatoriums.

So be a Good Fellow yourself... and buy a paper—an extra one this week.

It's Christmas...

Despite the war, Northville will have a bountiful and colorful Christmas. Our Main street is in festive attire, and many residents are decorating their home portals and yards. Businessmen have been "kicking in" every day for some local or outside activity. That scents of Christmas Plans and finances point to the big annual Christmas party for the children. Our city fathers have set the pace, and the street garlands and lights touched off the Christmas atmosphere and thickening of the community.

In our school, Christmas is the thing—just gaze at the display on the windows of the grade school, but that is only a small portion of the real Christmas atmosphere that fills that great building—six hundred kiddies are so trimful of Santa Claus and Christmas that they spill it all over the halls, and out on the sidewalk in front. If you really want to absorb the real and basic enthusiasm for Christmas just stick your nose inside the door of the school and follow it right down the hall, and you'll be converted. Oh, the Christmas idea is great, when it really gets you—and you know a little child shall lead them—and "them" is us—you and I... and we like it.

"ROBBERS OF THE RANGE"

LANSING—Remember Pearl Harbor!

This cry is echoed throughout Michigan today. Vanished are the debates about isolationism and interventionism. Gone are partisan activities, for immediate gains at the expense of the administration. Forgotten for the moment are the bickerings of labor leaders for jurisdictional control and closed shop benefits.

Something has happened in Michigan. It represents one of the most complete overnight changes in citizen attitudes which this state has experienced in half a century.

The suddenness of the treacherous Japanese attack on American territory, while Japanese envoys were receiving our hospitality in presumed efforts to preserve the peace, came as a great shock to Michigan citizens. These who had scoffed at the prospect of invasion —who had derided civilian defense activities as "yarn-mongering"—were among the first to raise their voices in demands for greater action or in criticism of apparent unpreparedness and laxity.

First Aid

Aside from the possible damage to defense industries through fire, a peril which is admittedly great, defense authorities do not foresee any immediate need for safeguards against air incendiary raids.

Yet, as a matter of precaution, a step which Pacific coast states are taking—bedding schools for volunteer forces are to be established at once. Attention will be given to the acknowledged peril of industrial incendiary attacks—isolated fires or a chain of isolated fires which could become a disastrous conflagration under favorable circumstances.

Responsibility for educating these schools in each community rests on local officials again a hoxic obligation.

Special Session

Because of mounting needs for money, observers here are forecasting that the governor will call a special session of the state legislature early in 1942.

At the first war-time session of the state administrative board, of the state administrative board, national defense needs in Michigan were discussed. State troops organized to replace national guard units, number 3,200 men. These will probably be increased at once to 4,169 and later on to 7,500, the full strength point for the guard units, will replace

State prison industries have been assigned the job of turning out needed military clothing. It was disclosed that Michigan could not even assign 1,600 men to winter patrols only because in their own civilian interests to keep them near the daily manpower cost of the troops will be $1,750 a day. Funds of the commanding general of the state National Guard will be drawn from the state treasury.

Sacrifices

Since the home front requires 16 to 17 trained nurses for every man at the military front, Michigan has a definite responsibility and obligation.

Instead, momentary flag-waving deference forces communities have to continuous sacrifice. A long hard war is in prospect.

It can happen here is the slogan. And if it does happen here, we must be prepared for any contingencies.

Police Arms

Michigan defense needs are now estimated at 16,000 rifles to prepare for preliminary organization and training by the state and county councils of defense in cooperation with the federal government.

Because the two major units are the experienced technicians of the Michigan State Police, county sheriffs and police and city police departments are to recruit a total of 1,600 men. The objective is to recruit 1,600 men to recruit 1,600 volunteers at once. It is expected that the continued

Junior High Notes

Miss Edna Moore's seventh grade English class is having a contest with subjects and verbs. Joan Tuck is captain of the Victorians and Bob Masters is captain of the Victorious Defenders. The winning team is to be treated by the losing team.

The grade B class of the eighth grade had a recent math contest. The losing side gave a party Tuesday for the winning contestants.

The Junior High Student Council sponsored a mope Dec. 15 in the Junior Assembly. The two features were "Mickey McGuire" and Toots and Casper in "Smile, Buttercup, Smile." Students with tickets were excited at that time.

The second grade class in Miss Alice Scott's room received a letter from Nancy Brad of Flint Lynn Olsen plans to move to Plymouth.

Monday, the fourth grade class is having a play written by Tulane German. The class is studying "Life of Exodus," and is making Christmas wreaths.

Miss Indeman, a third grade teacher in the Bad Axe School visited Miss Pearl Hensel's room last Friday. The class has made a village scene of snow covered houses which has been placed on top of the lockers, facing the playground.

The grade school children have invested $85 in Defense stamps and have sold $70.75 worth of Christmas seals.

All the grade school children have started their Christmas decorations. They will hold their Christmas parties on Friday, Monday or Tuesday of next week, at which time children will exchange gifts. The parents will receive presents made by children at school.

One of Blanche's pet peers is a deaf person. Her favorite pastimes are dancing and drawing, and we might say she shows real talent in the drawing field.

Bonnie, as she is sometimes called, has traveled to Indiana and Kentucky. She can usually be found at either her home or Marjorie Rounseville.

Graduating from high school and starting her first job are what she considers the most important coming events and her ambition is to be successful.

During her junior year she helped with the 5-Hour while in her senior year she worked at the fair booth and was also chairman of the decorating committee for the Senior Prom.

She has two pets both dogs named Mike and Skip. Her favorite sports are ice skating and swimming. We might also mention that a certain mattoff of the senior class received quite a bit of Blanche's attention.

She is a member of the Glee club and has been in the choir for four years of high school.

She lives on route 2, Northville.

A meeting was held by the Cincinnati Club, Monday to discuss plans for the party to be held from 7:30 to 9 p.m., Dec. 28, in the school.

Invitations were sent to all Juniors and Seniors, having two years of commercial studies to participate in the party and also to John Miller, Mrs. Kathryn Gilchrist, counselor and all members sincerely hope all eligible Juniors and Seniors who attend the party dancing will be enjoyed before the refreshments are served. The refreshment committee is made up of Ettie Buttemore, Jo Anne Vrooman, Dorothy Van Valkenburgh and Maxine Coe. The entertainment committee is made up of Maxine Coe, Ettie Buttemore and Jo Anne Vrooman.

THE ORANGE AND BLACK*Hartner Makes All-State Team

Detroit News Man Picks Northville Football Player for Honor

Ray Hartner was given honorary mention in the all-state team and attended a banquet Saturday, Dec. 13, at Lansing where the Michigan all-state players were given letters. Richard Remington of the Detroit News selected Ray.

He was recognized by the referees at the Farmington and Belleville games. At Farmington, Ray made a spectacular run to keep the Northville team in the lead. Ray is a senior, having gone out for football all four years of high school. He is now participating in the winter sport of basketball and in the spring will be pitching for N. H. S. baseball squad.

On Feb. 13, 1923, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Miller, of Detroit, a blessed event occurred in the form of Blanche Miller.

Blanche began her education at Pierson school in West Point Park but moved to Waterford to attend through the eighth grade. She then transferred to Northville to resume her education.

One of Blanche's pet peers is a deaf person. Her favorite pastimes are dancing and drawing, and we might say she shows real talent in the drawing field.

EDITORIAL

Amid the gay colored lights and the evergreen decorations in town people are busy hurrying and scurrying into the different stores to complete their Christmas shopping. The snow has arrived just in time to afford a traditional white Christmas. Although the world is undergoing war and hardships the festive spirit survives and everyone is looking forward to a gay vacation and holiday with plenty to eat and pleasant surprise packages from their loved ones.

In war time or in peace time, everyone rejoices in the birth of the Christ Child with a glad feeling in their heart, worshipping Him and trusting Him to straighten out their many difficulties.

Next Christmas we are looking forward to and hoping for peace on earth, good will toward men.

Merry Christmas to all!

Juniors Make Hit with Class Play

Two Casts Give Commandable Performances; Over $100 Profit

The junior class rejoices over the accomplishment of its first dramatic undertaking on the stage of N. H. S. Tuesday and Friday evenings, Dec. 16 and 17.

The play, "Spring Fever," gave splendid opportunity for juniors to present a comedy of the trials and tribulations of teen-age enthusiasm for fame, riches and security. The invention of an electric tooth brush was the basis of the build-up on the part of Jack who was financially aided by Peggy through her manufacture and sale of hair tonic.

The Friday night audience was an especially large one. Proceeds from tickets to the two performances amounted to approximately $150 with well over $100 profit to the class of '43.

In appearance over the three days done by E. C. Mollema, the simple division of pyrotechnics by Mr. Rich and I. Somers and the costumes and make-up work done by Miss Grace Lowe, the class presented each with an appropriate gift at the Friday night performance.

Miss Ruth Youman's second class class has been saving Christmas money for the purchase of toys for poor children. Their Christmas party will be held today.

Showering snow, using your eye under poor light: BOTH burn up energy. But poor light wastes energy, causing eyestrain and nervous tension and fatigue. For reading, you should have a good lamp with a 150-watt bulb, preferably an IES Better Sight lamp. How are the lamps in YOUR living room? The Detroit Edison Company.

The shops are small, and therefore lighted, and stock American goods principally. Prices are comparable with those in the States, except that the best French perfume cost for adult one-half the American figure. Kate and I debate continually the wisdom of her buying a galoch of so. I presume she will not rest until she has put every back on its feet.

In lieu of fruit stands, small sailing vessels line the waterfront, great stalks of bananas hanging from the rigging, and a customer merely steps on board to buy.

Dutch money is in standard usage, guilders and all. Just regular American coins will buy one hundred eighty-eight Dutch cents; or one hundred eighty-eight cents is equivalent to one guilder, or something.

Another week of this, and we shall elough to have round less than an hour, barren, practically treeless, it is probably the most interesting place we have visited.

Curacao is a Dutch possession, lying some 100 miles off the Venezuelan coast. It is swept perpetually by a 25 mile an hour breeze, yet out of the breeze the temperature must average ninety degrees. In the wind one is not bothered by mosquitoes or flies; but more around the corner and the insect life begins discussing which part of you to carry off first.

All the whites, Dutch and Spaniards, speak three languages fluently: English, Spanish and Dutch. The Negroes, just to be different, speak a patois which combines all three. It is called "papiamento".

The island is so fascinating that it definitely rates two columns this week. I want to set the stage-set it accurately, descriptively, so that you get an adequate picture and next week I shall raise the curtain on the stark drama that is Curacao.

We followed our custom upon arriving, asking the American Consul to recommend a private home where I should have sufficient quiet to work, and where we might hope to know the people.

As a result we have two rooms in a lemon-colored house at Scherloeweg 9. They are very comfortable and the people are very kind. Spain is obviously a wonderful thing.

We are enjoying the Dutch food, Arthurian ham, Swift cheese, Herdez soups and the delicious mangos. This is Curacao—an arcadia.

Culturally speaking, it is a paradise as eight hundred and fifty words in the streets and officials all have Dutch names yet the architecture is Spanish and the great majority of the population is Negro. The houses are all one and two-story, built of cement and plaster with bare wooden floors and the roofs and, taken together, look like a modern artist's nightmare. For their colors range from lemon-yellow to brilliant red with gray trimmings.

But one could know in a moment that Willemstad is Dutch, since there are immediate. It is even cleaner than San Juan, just that "American" territory!

However, the condition of the harbor is surprising. The entire surface of the water is covered by a thick scum of oil. An enterprising American could wash his car in that water and have a change of oil when he was finished.

The city is divided into two parts, each of which looks down on the other by the harbor entrance, which is spanned by a long swinging penton bridge. When the bridge is open, the citizen clambers into a small municipal launch, the Haverdienst, and is ferried across.

As usual, the streets are narrow in Willemstad, and crossing them is a peril and a problem. We were rather amazed at the number of horseless automobiles, especially new 1942 models, and it required some days for us to discover that the city does have a bus system, for ordinary station wagons serve as buses.

Miss Christensen Becomes Mr. Shipley's Bride in Home Candlelight Ceremony

In a home ceremony witnessed by only members of the two families, Helen Hubbard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Waldemar Christensen, became the bride of Richard T. Shipley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Shipley, at 7 o'clock Friday evening, Oct. 12.

The couple exchanged their vows before the Christensen fireplace with the Rev. Harold P. Preissel of the Presbyterian church performing the simple rites ceremony. Mrs. Arthur Miller sang "Love You Truly."

The fireplace was flanked with palms and candleabra holding blue candles. The candleabra treatment was used throughout the room as were arrangements of blue sheet wool accented with blue bows.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a blue street length cotton velvet frock for her wedding dress. She wore bouquet accented with this, carrying, too, a bouquet of violets of the valley and forget-me-nots.

By Mrs. Merrill Sweet, R. V. Elson and Mrs. Charles W. Kinney on Tuesday; Mrs. O. F. Pink, Harry D. Miller, Mrs. C. Winter, and Mrs. A. M. Eaton on Wednesday. More volunteer clerks are needed by Mrs. Green for her week's registration.

First to answer the call for volunteer registration in Northville was Elliot Larson. He registered Monday morning. Persons are asked to allow about 20 minutes for the local Civilian Defense Council.

Do You Want Training? It is understood that if enough time is available, a large number of persons will be interested in attending training in specific fields.

Because his work takes him out of town a great deal, Merrill Sweet asked to be released from his Scout Leader Boy Scout, Girl Scout, Cub Scout, and Leader Cub Scout Club leadership.

WRONG SIZE

It's a fact. Only 1 out of 5 lamp bulbs found in most American homes today is the correct size for easy, comfortable seeing. Are YOUR bulbs right? Check your lamps, and fixtures and make sure you have the right bulb in the right socket. Ask at any Detroit Edison office. The Detroit Edison Company.

Hartner, and then Hunter again. No score was made by Walled Lake in the first quarter.

In the second quarter the starting line-up was changed a bit with the substitutions of Houghton for Scheutz, and Widmer, who sank a foul shot at once; Dr. Hunter, who had just scored two baskets; Walled Lake scored two baskets and two foul shots. But Hartner and McClellan came out with one basket each making the score 14-6 at the half.

In the third quarter Babot replaced Polino. Hartner made a foul shot, and Widmer followed with a basket. Substitution took place with Hunter replacing Widmer, and Houghton replacing Hartner.

Walled Lake soon scored with four foul shots and two baskets. The last quarter came up with Hartner making a double foul shot. Hunter and McClellan each made another basket, and Scruton made a foul shot just before Houghton replaced him.

Walled Lake made two baskets and a foul shot making the final score 26-19. Hartner and Hunter finished with 9 points each.

All the boys passed exceptionally well and made excellent shots on a strange floor. Frank Bourgouin, who has had to have been on the line-up was unable to play due to an injury from the office. This was to have been Bourgouin's last game.

The starting line-up was as follows: Hartner (Captain), Hunter, Polino, McClellan, and Scheutz. The second team lost their game with Walled Lake 31 to 21. The scoring was divided quite evenly among the Mustangs. Scotty Sasser was captain. The starting line-up was: Slesser, Aly, Price, Asher, Arerman. Substitutions were Green and Funke.

Fair Officers

Elson, Charles Schouten, M. P. Seeger, Dr. Lincoln W. Snow, Dr. J. Stark, E. M. Starkweather and L. C. Stewart.

A meeting to set the date of the 1942 Fair and to make plans for this exposition will be held shortly after the first of the year.

A Personal Message For Women Only

OPEN BOWLING EVERY EVENING

Are the calories piling up on you in added weight? Does your husband complain about your lack of pep? Do you feel sluggish and disinterested in life in general at times? Here is a note that thousands of women have discovered and benefited by. Not only that, they are thoroughly enjoying the tonic—it's bowling. The game that was side street category into the officially approved class by its forced up out of the back room, merit and pleasure.
