Michigan industrial workers are thankful or should be.

That the state unemployment law is the most liberal in the country, following changes made by the state legislature. (Source: Social Security Board, Washington, D.C.) That benefit checks are for sums larger than payments in either New York or California.

That conversion of automobile plants to war use is proceeding at a faster rate than predicted.

That the average weekly wage $44.52 in January, compared with California's $40.37 and New York's $35.75.

And yet labor unrest continues. Why?

The C.I.O. demands an extra dollar daily from General Motors Corp., alleging huge profits from war contracts.

The corporation proposes that contract negotiations be opened to the public through newspapers, inasmuch as public money is involved.

How labor unrest is being fanned may be illustrated by the following:

Revelation of war profiteering by certain manufacturers. Case: Jack & Haunt, Inc., Cleveland airplane parts company, gave out $500,000 in bonuses in 1941. The boss "earned" $145,845; his secretary received $39,356.

World War I produced many millionaires. Workers remember this. So do farmers.

The Nye congressional committee (1934) reported that "the record of the present shipbuilding companies during the world war wherever examined was close to being disgraceful." Huge bonuses were paid to officers. Profits were concealed at rentals. The American Legion also made a clamor about taking profits out of war.

While the Cleveland case of 1941 is an exception rather than the rule, it provides labor organizers with much needed ammunition for wage negotiations. Farmers see justification in higher prices for farm commodities. The cycle of effects is long.

Michigan workers may be better off than those elsewhere, as the cold statistics prove, yet political capital is required to go made that labor is not getting its just due.

Governor VanVagoner spoke at a labor conference arranged by the state department of labor and industry. Trying to be so enthusiastic of Michigan labor laws.

Michigan ranks 20th among all states in liberality of workmen's compensation payments. For an industrial state, this is a disgrace.

We have a $30.00 limit on medical costs for workmen's compensation. That is extremely unjust.

"Indefensible discrimination" is seen by the governor in the state's occupational disease law which limits the amount of compensation for certain types of occupational disease.

Legislative changes are needed, Van Vagoner said.

Michigan is one of the few states in which, according to a recent opinion of our state attorney general, women can legally be worked 16 hours a day. We are the only industrial state in which women can be worked 54 hours a week. We failed in the last legislative session to get a wage-hour law for the state, so the women of Michigan still lack the protection that most other states give women.

Child labor ("exploitation of minors") received this charge from the governor: "Our child-labor law is 33 years old. It is almost impossible to enforce today."

By coincidence, the governor's address was given on the identical day Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general, delivered at Washington his amazing indictment of unions.

Never had a New Deal official of high rank accused organized labor of being a "communist."

Exploitation of farmers, undemocratic procedure to control union elections, impeding transportation, makes it "impossible" to get mass production of housing, forcing business to employ useless labor, restricting efficient use of men and machine.

The Jackson Citizen-Patriot observes editorially:

"The charges which Taunman Arnold makes against organized labor are basically true as every union man knows. They do not by any means apply to all units of all union men, but the 'abusus' which his names are not uncommon."

While Congress can require corporations to reimburse the government any excess profits paid to them, Congress cannot reclaim lost hours of war material-airplanes, tanks, etc.—that were never made.

If labor limits production of war material, General MacArthur and thousands of Michigan soldiers and sailors will have less fighting arm with which to protect their own lives.

Because a majority of Michigan workers (in industries and farms) are not members of unions, Arnold's

Name Personnel for Medical Emergency Corps

Four Village Ambulances To Carry Physicians and Nurses

The assignments for the medical emergency corps were released this week with the understanding that shifts are subject to change in the cases of nurses and midwives added particularly where married women may be listed.

Second-year members having experience in an exhibit were Richard Birmingham, Donald Birmingham, a second-year 4-H member at Novi, and Arthur Lyons.

The local club leader for the first-year group was Arthur Lyons.

The annual township meeting of Novi, was the second of the second-year group.

The Achievement Day for the girls' 4-H clubs of the southern

Oakland county area was held Friday evening when four of the girls from Novi attended the exhibit.

Arlene Wendland and Betty Moninger represented the second-year cooking group; Pauline Olrich, modeling her apron, represented the well-dressed girl in cotton; Mrs. Alma Klaesener, one of the 4-H cooking instructors from Novi, accompanied the girls.

More than 100 girls modeled the aprons, dresses and suits they had made. There were talks by the different 4-H leaders and prizes and certificates were awarded at the close of the exhibit.

The Home Front in Michigan

"We're all in this war together . . . If any of us lose our freedom, all of us lose it."

These words of WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson were spoken to CIO representatives in Washington. They might be directed equally as well to the farmers of Michigan, or to the doctors, bankers, lawyers or storekeepers or housewives.

Men working together will win this war.

—United We Stand—

Another bit of sound philosophy was given last week by Walter Reuther, UAW-CIO leader, when he told Michigan labor representatives, "Victory lies ahead, not behind us."

Quarrels and grievances of labor and management in the past must be forgotten as they put their shoulders together in the drive for increased production.

Joint labor-management committees to boost production have been set up in many of Michigan's war plants since the regional conference last week in Detroit.

There's a Job to be Done

One of the WPB representatives from Washington fittingly described the Production Drive as a two-man crosscut saw, with labor on one end and management on the other. They have to pull together to get any sawing done.

It's Up to You and Me

Behind the recent OPA's order, which fixed maximum retail prices for seven household appliances lies a determination that "the public shall not be compelled to submit to unreasonably inflated prices simply because supplies are short."

Previously, although OPA had placed price ceilings over many products at the manufacturer's or wholesaler's level, regulation of retail prices had been restricted to autos, tires and, in 19 states, gasoline. The recent order fixed maximum retail prices for new mechanical refrigerators, vacuum cleaners and attachments, heating and cooking stoves and ranges, typewriters, radio sets and phonographs. As a result, price control for the first time becomes of direct and personal interest to millions of us.

As a result of the war, already we must work differently and play differently, do business differently and live differently.

Work and Sacrifice

Hungry steel in the off and crying for scrap metal. It is estimated that there is an acreage of a quarter of ten of scrap on each acre, in the S. This means that living around on Michigan farms are 16,897 tons. Third, of the bullets and tank gear we've got.

The WPA is going to help the WPB Bureau of Industrial Conservation get this scrap from the farms. All you have to do is gather it together in a pile and a WPB truck will come and get it.

Scrap Hitler

Business men and industrialists throughout Michigan will receive help with their problems without the necessity of going to Detroit under a new field service established by the WPB's Michigan Industries Division. Two consulting analysts from the Detroit office have been assigned to visit cities of the state on regular schedule, beginning March 30.

What We Can Do With "Juke Box" Metals

Shut-down on manufacture of juke boxes (automatic phonographs) makes these figures interesting:

A single one of the larger juke boxes contains enough brass to make Northville's oldest and best known

ARTICLE CASES.

The aluminum in 12 of the bigger juke boxes would make one

FIGHTER PLANE.

The steel in one large juke box totals 135 pounds, which would make one

LIGHT JUKE BOXES.

Inte such a juke box go 42 pounds of plastic which might better be

12 pounds of insulation pieces—control panels and so forth—on Army or Navy planes.

NORTHVILLE'S YESTERDAYS

One Year Ago

Mr. Harry W. Canfield was elected president of the Northville and Depositors State Savings Bank. Hundreds of dollars worth of Williams club funds, a portion of the building fund, which closed the year before, was given to the club to help it out.

Mr. George E. Harrel, the town supervisor, was elected township clerk.

Novi School

By the Pupils

Friday, Mar. 27, the Novi Boy Scouts and their parents attended the annual Scout Get-together held at the Farmington High School gym. Also attending this annual event were Cub Scouts, Savers and Sea Scouts from Walnut Lake, Bond school and Farmington.

The program began with a potluck dinner during which the Farmington High School band entertained. The remainder of the evening's program included a flag raising ceremony, march of the Tuna Scout Movers and community singing.

Friday, Mar. 27, 12 of the Novi Camp Fire Girls attended the Pontiac Grand Council Fire in honor of the Camp Fire Girls thirtieth birthday, which was held in the Pontiac Senior High School.

After several songs, five large red candles which represented the Light of Work, Health, love, the special birthday candle and the Victory candle, were lighted by Camp Fire Girls from the schools around Pontiac. One of the Novi girls, Frieda Bikwell, lighted one of the seven candles which stand for the Camp Fire Laws.

Edna Putnam, Lois Mitchell and Frieda Bikwell received "Service for Victory" badges. These were earned by giving 10 hours of service to the Red Cross, Civilian Defense and the gathering of waste materials.

Several members from the beginners and first grade soon are confirmed. All their friends will be present. The beginners have begun their first communion.

Robert Rock entered the second grade Monday, Mar. 30. He attended the West Novi School before coming to Novi. Joan Gow and Gladys Neely are absent from the measles. Friday Mrs. K. H. Babcock's room sponsored a popcorn sale on which they raised a profit of 95 cents.

The fourth grade had a spelling Wednesday. Karen Larson was the winner.

The winners of the fourth and fifth grade bird house contest were Tommy Mooney, who received the first prize and Donald Smith who received the second prize.

The fifth graders have completed their health book. Evelyn Runkle entered in the sixth grade.

On Tuesday, Mar. 27, the Novi Club held its annual meeting. Jim French, Auctioneer

DETROIT EDISON OFFICE

WHILE you are out shopping or visiting or on the way to an afternoon movie, use the most convenient Edison office to transact any Detroit Edison business you may have. It is designed to serve your needs quickly and comfortably—for bill inquiries, appliance purchases, service inquiries, bill payments, turn-on and turn-off orders, lamp renewals, etc.

There's more to it than just convenience. Using your Detroit Edison office when you are in the vicinity is a patriotic help. With tires, cars, etc. being rationed, The Detroit Edison Company is adjusting its work to meet wartime conditions. There will be no hindering of our emergency service; it will be as prompt as ever. Under the tire rationing provision, we will still be able to get tires for our heavy trucks and in emergencies—stamps, wires down, etc.—line trucks will be on the job as always. But the present tire rationing order will not allow us to purchase tires for delivery trucks or the ordinary light cars with which we do most of our business. You can help us by carrying lamp bulbs, small appliances and packages to and from the Detroit Edison office. The Detroit Edison Company.

Start Cancer Campaign

As part of the cancer prevention campaign which takes place in April, Dr. Frank H. Rector, cancer consultant of the State Department of Health gave a talk.

Early cancer can be cured," said Dr. Rector, explaining that cancer was caused by abnormal growths of body cells due to friction or irritation. He urged that persons having symptoms of suspicious character, consult a physician at once for examination. "If cancer is given early, the 6,000 deaths annually caused by cancer in Michigan could be reduced to 1,000."

The present urge every effort to end the war.

Death in the United States is caused by cancer," he informed, naming three ways of curing the disease:

surgery, x-ray and radiation.

Dr. Rector spoke in behalf of the Women's Division of the American Society for the Control of Cancer.

The object of the Women's Field Service is to educate and disseminate knowledge about the cause and cure

Ypsilanti was the city where John Geraghty was born. The happy event took place on Apr. 19, 1923. After growing a bit, he went to school in Salem, but later on he moved to Northville and his active life now centers around the "High Street" Food Market, home which is 122 North Wing street.

John's likes and dislikes are all mainly food. His likes are all sweets including ice cream and cakes and he dislikes spinach and sweet potatoes. Reading and stamp collecting share equal attention as John's hobbies.

His travels have taken him way down south and way up north. The highlight of his life happened when he was stopped by a police man down south.

John's ambition is to get a job after he gets out of high school. His lone and only pet is a dog. His senior activities include working at the senior booth at the fair. John has been a member of the Boy Scouts.

Seventh and eighth grade English classes taught by Miss Hattie Marie Moore continue with even greater enthusiasm than ever to buy Je-fens stamps.

EDITORIAL

For the past few weeks the Palladium staff has been working on the 1942 edition of the school annual. Tuesday class and club pictures were taken.

The pictures for the year book include all the grades from 7 to 12. The price of the Palladium this year has been arranged a little differently from previous years. For those students who make a down payment for the Palladium before May 1, the total cost will be 50 cents

Grade Notes

The kindergarten had an Easter party Thursday morning and afternoon. For the event they made rabbit ears and rabbits.

Miss Selma Jarvis' class made designs out of finger painting. They also made a flower background for their health play. They are now starting their book. Evelyn Boyer will presently move to Wayne.

Miss Ruth Youman's class made a duck out of paper, and a care for Easter eggs which they will dye. Many are absent because of mumps.

Miss Alfrie Scott's class are making a defense box with a big V pinwheel. They are planning to construct a cart. They are starting in new books and each pupil will make a project and illustrations from a story in his new book.

Miss Pauline Carpenter's class is making a little book for favorite girl member packed a new fire for whom she made a black or orange basket lining tasks to do for each day of the week. All requirements had to be fulfilled before the new girls could enter the N-club organization.

The Junior High Student Council dance proved to be very successful. Many junior high students attended along with the senior high and Plymouth students. The music was played by Mike Ketcham's orchestra. The Junior Singers are to sing at the Senior Prom.

News in and about Salem

By Mrs. C. O. Hammarud
The local fire department was called out Friday afternoon to extinguish the flames of the Salem Firehouse. The firemen, led by Mr. Ed. Cooke, Mr. Ed. Mr. J. G. Lee, selected. The Junior Singers are to sing at the Senior Prom.

The fire was kept under control and was soon put out. When the firemen left the house looked very attractive. The firemen and the public and the fire truck were called from nearby fire trucks were called from the House of Correction, Northville, and South Lyon but upon their arrival the fire had been extinguished.

Rev. Storch was not at home, having been in Ohio visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Baars entertained 12 guests last Saturday evening at a 50 cent party. Proceeds go to the local P. T. A.

Fred Sieleberg of Lansing returned to his home one day last week after being very ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Marie Groth.

The Salem Farmers Club was entertained Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. Grant Currie.

The Willing Worker class of the Federated church will have a meeting and social party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Whipple next Tuesday at 8 p.m. Apr. 7. The men's class will also attend.

Mrs. Julia Foreman spent several days at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Clark.

Mrs. Charles Stacy and daughter, Mrs. Leo Heintz, were dinner guests the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

When Jesus Christ began his ministry, he started in his own country and went into a synagogue in the city where he had been brought up, but because of his God-given testimony the church members rose up and thrust him out of their city.

Some time later, after traveling in neighboring towns and cities he came again to his own country to minister unto those with whom he had been brought up, but they would not respond to his teachings and rejected his invitation to partake of the grace of God that they might attend the marriage supper of his Son. This is the marriage for a congenial and probable future, and he was rebuked at their unbelief.

Then he said unto those who professed but believed not, "The kingdom of God shall be taken from you and given to others." Those who know Jesus' near for photography is her pet hobby. Ice skating and roller skating are her favorite sports.

Her greatest ambition is to be a graduate nurse in Detroit where she is planning to attend nursing school after graduation. She is a reporter on the Orange and Black staff and a member of the Community club.

During her junior year, she took part in the junior play in her senior year she showed outstanding success in selling Christmas cards. She also worked on the Senior book.

She has traveled to Ohio and is anxious to go forward to her trip to Washington.

Miss Jeanne Harmon's class has a boy and a girl for Easter. Bruce Brav, Alice Nutter and Barbara Karr are there because of illness.

Miss Margaret Carpenter's class is making a little book for favorite girl member packed a new fire for whom she made a black or orange basket lining tasks to do for each day of the week. All requirements had to be fulfilled before the new girls could enter the N-club organization.

Miss Jeanne Harmon's class will go to Ellen Stark's home to see her flowers that are coming up.

They were there serving cookies. They have finished their Easter bunny, and have dried roses for their car which will be displayed in the display case.

Furthermore, 1942 is a campaign in length: Flora Avenue, 0.336 miles, and that means inevitable bid miles in length: Carol Drive, 0.146 miles in length, as dedicated to the use of the public in the Township of Livonia.

It was moved by Commissioner O'Connor's Parkview Acres, a subdivision of the west 1/2 of the southeast 1/4 of Section 12, Town 2 South, Wayne County, Michigan, and recorded in Liber 69 of Plats page 24.

The motion was supported by Commissioners O'Brien and Breining.

Sir, you are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did at a meeting of said Board held Tuesday, March 24, 1942, and determine that the certain sections of roads described in the minutes of said Board should be heavier.

County roads under the jurisdiction of the Board of County Road Commissioners. The minutes of said Board meeting fully describing said sections of roads are hereby made a part of this notice and are as follows:

Affidavits added only more fuel to an already hotly burning fire.

The government's charges did not lessen labor's unrest.

Nor did the revelation of war prof-

fits make the Michigan worker

blessed with higher wages and other benefits payments than any other workers in these U. S. A. in

INDICATIONS—added only more fuel to an already hotly burning fire.

The government's charges did not lessen labor's unrest.

Nor did the revelation of war profits make the Michigan worker

blessed with higher wages and other benefits payments than any other workers in these U. S. A. in Livonia.
