Northville Cooperates 100 Per Cent in Test Blackout

"Minute Men" Needed Here

Every Villager To Be Given Opportunity To Sign Bond and Stamp Pledge Card

Approximately 3,000,000 persons in "Minute Men" are wanted to help with the National saving bond and stamp canvass which will be conducted locally May 25 and 26, under the direction of the Northville Women's club, and the Defense Savings committee.

Every person signing a pledge card during the campaign, which is nation wide, will be given a "Minute Man" sticker to be displayed in the window of his home in Northville or analyzed several times.

A list of captains and volunteers hundred reports of blackout ordnance violations turned in by the air raid warden who were on duty during the first blackout. Persons

Air Raid School Gets Under Way

72 Wardens Enroll for Course Being Given in Northville

Seventy-two local men and women attended and circled in the first air raid warden school that opened in Northville, Tuesday evening. The school is being conducted by John G. Maier of Detroit, who has been certified by the OCD for this work in our county.

You will recognize the persons authority to ask for your pledge by a Minute Man button he or she will be wearing. Any information you give this person will be kept confidential. As government representatives, the canvassers will guard this information," the affirms.

Remember in signing these pledges, that even a small amount loaned regularly, represents to the government full participation for a person who cannot afford to save more. We do not give our money when we buy a bond, we lend it at a rate of interest that will amply repay us in the future for our contributions of today," Mrs. Bloom exclaims.

The class convenes at 7:30 pm

Tuesday and Thursday at the high school, and the course lasts three weeks, and is followed by a first aid class. Following the completion of the courses as outlined, the men and women will be duly certified as air raid wardens and charged only by buying bonds and stamps, of the area to which they are assigned.

This will help the government to raise money for the war effort.

Individuals will be asked to wear a poppy on that day in honor of the men who have given their lives for America. The poppies will be distributed by volunteer workers from the Auxiliary and the coins contributed for them will be used in Legion and Auxiliary work for the war disabled, their families and the families of the dead.

Registration was to continue through Thursday evening, May 7.

It was expected that between 900 and 1000 persons would register on the final day.

Consumers have been most cooperative with the teachers in answering the questions on the forms.

As a whole, too, the alphabetical order for registrants has been followed thus eliminating any long lines of waiting," commented Prin. G. V. Harrison, Thursday morning.

Commendation for the organization of the registering of both the commercial distributions and the consumers came Thursday from Supt. Russell H. Amerman who said that the detail work had been made by Mr. Harrison and Prin. Paul D. Carter. "They did a splendid job and the teachers were particularly cooperative," he affirmed.

ELECTRICITY AT 120,000 VOLTS

in a nitrogen

speeds underground for seven miles

Sending electricity at 120,000 volts through copper conductors in a gas-filled pipe sounds fantastic—but it is true. On December 31st of last year, The Detroit Edison Company placed in service the first high-voltage underground cable in the United States to use gas as "cushion."

You can distribute electricity cheaper at high voltage than at low voltage. But in underground cable of this kind, provision must be made for heat expansion. A temperature rise in the copper conductor heats the insulation around the conductor and causes the whole cable to expand. Later, when the cable cools, "pockets" may form in the insulation and a corona or electrical discharge may occur in the pockets, causing trouble. (Trouble at 120,000 volts can be trouble indeed! This is a thousand times the voltage of the electricity you use in your household.)

So the cable—consisting of three copper wire ropes, about an inch in diameter, with half-an-inch of insulation—is enclosed in a gas-tight chamber, seven miles long. This long steel pipe is filled with an inert gas—nitrogen—under pressure, which retards the expansion of the cable. Manholes to provide access to the line are built every quarter-mile. At six points in the line, "stop-joints" or mechanical barriers prevent the escape of all the nitrogen in the 7-mile pipe, in case of a bad leak.

Improvements and developments such as these—many of them pioneered by our engineering staff—help to bring you better electric service at lower cost. In the last twenty years, the average price per kilowatt-hour paid by our residential customers for electricity has dropped 45 per cent. The Detroit Edison Company.

IMPORTING COTTON?

For years the United States has had a huge surplus of cotton. The sea of importing cotton seemed fantastic. Yet that is exactly what is about to be done, as the latest development in the Good Neighbor Policy.

Oscar Johnson, leading Mississippi cotton planter and former official of the AAA, will go to South America to cov surplus cotton from Peru and Brazil. He carries a checkbook of the Commodity Credit corporation whose funds for domestic and foreign crop purchases amount to $1,000,000.

Both Peru and Brazil are suffering severely from loss of foreign markets. Brazil's cotton was sold in Europe, Peru to Japan. Both Latin American countries, which largely backed the United States at the Rio conference and now Uncle Sam is returning the favor.

For some time, department of agriculture officials, fearing a cut-off from the cotton belt, were timid about buying foreign cotton. They thought they might get away with purchases for storage in South America—but not for imports into the U. S.

But two agriculture officials—John S. Hudson, president of Commodity Credit, and Sam Eads, aide to Secretary Claude Wickard—convinced the importers of getting the cotton squared up to southern concession, with Oscar Johnson as the choice for buyer.

This yielded fine a charm. Cotton companies have full confidence in Johnson and they even approved importing some cotton, especially the long staple variety from Peru, which can't compete in the U. S. market.

Other plans are being made to increase other Latin American cotton supplies, including beef and wool from the Andes, Argentina.

President Roosevelt has dedicated to Democratic chief the unrec-him to tour the country, that he may take a transcontinental trip this summer if the war permits. Democratic candidates facing tough election battles are eager to have him visit their states. Also the President has wanted to inspect several army camps and war production centers.

HOPKINS LOOKS AT WAR

Following his trip to England, Harry Hopkins is giving close friends a very optimistic picture about the war situation.

He is convinced that Hitler is really alarmed at the tough resistance of the Russians, the growing war strength of the United States, and the fear of an invasion of the European continent.

One of Hitler's greatest weaknesses, Hopkins believes, is manpower. German industry has done a great job otherwise. But now with an increasing drain on both industry and the German army, the tremendous losses at the Russian front are having a definite effect.

To his close friends, Harry Hopkins is known as one of the most optimistic men in the administration. But even discounting this natural optimism, other war chiefs in position to know seem to have a fairly bright look in their eyes recently.

It will be a long time before we can begin to do any real scouring for the stricken in the Near East. It is almost as sour as the very, very sour situation in India. It does look, however, as if the spring had definitely brightened the war picture.

MISSOLINI'S DOGHOUSE

This week brought back from Italy by wire to New York gives a desolate picture of Benito Mussolini. He has been pretty well isolated from the real command and from direct contact with his government, both of which are selected directly or indirectly by him.

Mussolini has been for ten years a sort of a strongman, part of the Italian political system, part of the Italian political system.

He has been gone for his old eight years, fighting some previous enemies. And now he is alone, a good old man, but the world seems to have turned against him.

Italy is in a sorry state. Many of its people are becoming disenchanted. Inflation is still high. The economy is still in a bad condition.

India is still the greatest threat to Mussolini's rule.

POBIE PROBE

A probe into the water system of the W. C. T. U. building in Northville, out of the capital city, shows that the water is not being metered.

He has been gone for his old eight years, fighting some previous enemies. And now he is alone, a good old man, but the world seems to have turned against him.

Italy is in a sorry state. Many of its people are becoming disenchanted. Inflation is still high. The economy is still in a bad condition.

Club to Celebrate Sixth Birthday

The Northville Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association's sixth birthday anniversary will be celebrated at 2 p.m. Monday, May 11, when Mrs. Joseph Heehl, 581 Randolph street, opens her home and garden to the group. Mrs. Carl H. Bryan, librarian, will be the speaker of the day, telling the club members about garden books. Mrs. Frank Bead and Mrs. Fred Hoffman will be the assistant hostesses.

FIRE HAZARDS are doubly dangerous in wartime. Due to wartime restrictions on critical materials, some losses by fire will be irreparable now.

Wise homeowners will immediately present structures with non-military fireproof materials. New roofs, sidewalls, insulation, plasterboards — all fireproof — will reduce fire hazards in your home.

Such materials are plentiful for the time being. Keep the home fires burning, but don't burn down the house.

Blackout.

olation of the blackout rule was the failure of motorists to observe the no double parking regulation in downtown Detroit. In some cases autos blocked Woodward Avenue so only one lane was available to emergency motorized equipment.

Corps Postpones Run
Because enough identification cards were not available for the cars used by the Medical Emergency Corps, the practice run scheduled during the test blackout Sunday night was postponed. By the time the next test is held, cars which will take the corps members to headquarters will be properly marked.

Coordinator Richards also said that 20 sirens, being manufactured especially for those Detroit areas distant from factories and other sitions, will be delivered in six to eight weeks.
