The Northville Record

Volume 72, Number 5

Northville, Michigan, Friday July 17, 1942

$1.50 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE

Home rule for Wayne County (Detroit) and a state constitutional convention are two propositions which will appear on the November ballots.

The proposed reapportionment referendum failed to obtain sufficient petition signatures.

Home rule for Michigan's most populous county and a state constitutional convention are two separate, distinct issues. Yet they will be inevitably linked together in the public mind because each seeks to accomplish the same thing: Reform of local government.

You can't talk about reform in government without stirring up the old, old urban vs. rural controversy. And there are signs at hand that rural interests, as represented by the farmers and small town residents, are downright suspicious about any announced plans to restructure their own home-rule.

List Committees for USO Drive in Township

Northville Boys Tell of USO Duties

With Howard McKean taking over the responsibility of contacting the business men of the community, and Mrs. Herbert Berendt organizing a corps of women for the house-to-house canvass, the USO drive is ready for its starting date, July 23, scheduled to continue through July 31.

The canvass has as its goal $1500 for the townships of Northville, Plymouth and Livonia which are all organized under a central committee. Fifty per cent of the money raised, will be sent to the National corps; 20 per cent will be kept in the three townships for the USO program in this immediate vicinity.

Canvassing in the residential district will be: Mrs. Elden Ritty, Mrs. George Weiss, Mrs. Lawrence Peck, Mrs. Lawrence Paumenier, Mrs. Wayne Thompson, Mrs. Dale Wagner, Mrs. Joseph Brodie, Mrs. Jack Junod, Mrs. A. H. Vogtlin, Mrs. S. K. Stephens and Mrs. Jean Girard.

Northville boys, stationed in camps throughout the country, have found their off-duty hours pleasant ones through entertainments supplied by the USO. The organization makes theatre tickets available to the boys, all they have to pay is the tax, Carl Stephens, stationed last winter at Newark, N. J., made use of this recreation medicine in New York when he was there for week ends. He thinks it's a mighty fine thing to do for the boys in uniform.

Then, down in Camp Grant, Ill. word comes from Raymond Westphal, who says that the USO

League Continues Inter-School Games This Year

Football and Basketball Schedules Depend Upon Transportation

By Charles L. Hutton Representatives of the nine schools Northville, included, affiliated with the Southwestern Oakland County League met recently at Walled Lake to discuss plans for a continuance of the inter-school athletic program for the coming year.

Although continuance of the program is desired for football and basketball, will depend primarily upon transportation, it was decided to plan for the regular season in all major competitive sports. It was agreed that the importance of a physical training program is recognized by the schools in special appreciation of national emergency. Maintenance of regular activities was approved as a direct contribution to the war effort.

In commenting upon the decision, C. E. Dunkel, president of the league, stated that it is believed necessary to modify the program because of the national emergency, the schools will gladly cooperate.

Schools included in the league other than Northville and Walled Lake, are, Clarkston, Brighton, Milford, Holly, Keego Harbor, Redford Union and Farmington.

Word has been received here that 2nd Lt. Robert Gray of the United States Army Air Corps is stationed in China.

A cablegram received here Saturday gave confirmation to Lt. Gray's arrival in India after the voyage. He is in the war corps.

Elimination of the uniformity clause, which has often stood in the way of attempts to modernize our Michigan tax system, was favored unanimously. The commission favored retention of the 15 mill limitation with amendments to facilitate long-term financing of permanent improvements. It recommended that the time limit in the proviso be increased from five to twenty years, and that the two-thirds majority in the proviso be reduced to a bare majority of those voting. These changes might be rather drastic and dangerous when viewed with the other recommendations which propose elimination of the property owning qualifications for voting on school bond issues.

The commission also recommended, so the Farm Bureau spokesman explains, "a complete shakeup of the Michigan election system." "Spring elections would be abolished entirely and with schools elections would be forced on to the November ballot. Rural spokesmen attempted to explain that this plan does not seem workable in the farming areas. There are several school districts in most rural townships and the situation is further complicated by fractional school districts.

The annual school meeting seems the ideal time and place for the election of local school officers. Even if these officers were elected in November, there are other items of business which would properly be transacted at a school meeting.

Terms of most effective state and local officers would be doubled. The governor, lieutenant governor, (Continued on page 3)

The roses are fading, but not the memory. We have personally enjoyed the roses on the front steps of Dr. Snow's office. Each morning coming to work and several times during the day for the last two weeks these beautiful roses have been a feast unto our eyes.

Future Rainy Day

A government can't spend its way to prosperity. It can't continue indefinitely to put out public funds in the hope of licking a depression.

That's one of the facts that we Americans learned during the depression of the '30s. It's one of the facts that we'll have to remember when this war is over.

When war orders stop war payrolls will stop, too. Men and women who now work on munitions jobs will have to find employment making peacetime goods.

All this is in the future, it's true. Our main job now is to win the war, and anything that detracts from winning the war must be put aside for the duration.

Among the points recommended by the N.A.M. are a reduction of taxes after the war, the elimination of all emergency wartime regulations and controls at that time, the curtailment of expenditures by private individuals during the period of emergency, the discontinuance of all needless government spending, the development of new products and the provision of dismissal wages for industrial employees.

The C.C.C. appropriation of $16,000,000 that passed the Senate on a tie vote with the Vice President casting the final vote, looks of color, felt as usual for the duration. The C. C. C. looks like more benefit to politics than to the country—but then we only see the bills.

Good Luck, Bill

Northville township is proud of the record of its supervisor. In offering his resignation after over fourteen years of service to his county and township, Mr. E. naturally regrets the necessity of making the step, but good and efficient reports are unanswerable and all appreciate the situation.

The Irons Front in Michigan

In order that we may preserve liberty, all of us are sacrificing a measure of freedom—temporarily. This is only a surface paradox, of course, because the sacrifice of freedom is free and voluntary.

Today, we are hedged about increasingly by all manner of restrictions.

Towns, villages, cities, counties and states also have been called upon to make sacrifices, to give up construction and projects which normally might be carried out in the course of progress.

A Bureau of Governmental Requirements, within the War Production Board, must pass upon the needs of some 150,000 governmental units. These needs vary from a few dollars' worth of paper clips to a $300,000,000 aqueduct for the U.S.A.'s greatest city.

These restrictions mean a saving of thousands of tons of steel, copper, rubber, aluminum, concrete and other materials for the war effort. They mean greater sacrifices for the people whom these improvements would benefit—you and me.

Ships and planes and tanks and guns and shells will win the war. None could be made without steel. Steel rolled into saunch plates and riveted into hulls of warships and cargo vessels, is the answer to the axis submarines.

America's steel industry is doing a job. Last month, the steel industry shipped 1,650,962 net tons of plate, an all-time record and the second successive month in which plate production topped a million tons.

Relief of the rising curve of plate production lies a triumph of American ingenuity. Conversion of the automotive industry to war work left many steel mills without a job. These mills had been in the business of rolling thin steel sheets used in motor car production.

An automobile nation-wide salvage program now is under way. The war production program faces a crisis unless we find a daily salvage at least six million tons of scrap iron and steel.

All non-ferrous metals, fat and greases, rags, mangle rollers and borax bases are also needed.

That extra two-pound ration of sugar you'll get (or already have bought) with Ration Stamp No. 7 is a bonus for you by American shipping which braved axis mines and subs to bring it in.

We are still persistent in our contention that the ordinary man run individual throughout the country especially hereabout, is more war conscious, more yielding, more sacrificing, and truly willing to endure for the duration than New Deal officials of the administration are.

Can Without Sugar? Grandmother Did It

As just an illustration of the families of the war and of Northville, Mich. and around the territory, we have a number of two-order war bonds like the above to be given to those who would like to...

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Al Chaslen spent a month in Ann Arbor.

Grandmother canned her fruit without sugar. So can we, Miss Ruth Griswold, home economy professor at Michigan state college, assures.

After all, says Miss Griswold, it is not the sugar that preserves the fruit, it is sterilization that makes it keep for winter use. Although the present outlook for an ample supply of sugar is brighter than it was a few weeks ago, Miss Griswold advises housewives if they wish to be on the safe side, they may can their fruit sugarless.

Crushed or sliced fruit can be heated in a double boiler to draw out the juice, then packed in jars and processed as usual. July fruits, such as berries and cherries may be canned in their own juice. The juice is prepared by crushing, heating and straining the ripe fruit.

When canning fruits that are not juicy, such as peaches, pears and apples, just enough water should be used to cover the fruit.

Where sugar is available in only small amounts, a light syrup may be made, to use instead of the water. In any case, says Miss Griswold, the process is the same.

Washington, D. C. BEHIND RAF RAIDS. Few people outside the inner circle know it, but the recent bombing raids on Bremen, Cologne, Essen, have been accomplished in part through the foresightfulness of Ed Stettinius Jr., who long ago saw the importance of high octane gas and demanded that the administration start large scale production. Stettinius has taken it on the chin regarding the slowness of aluminum production and has admitted he was wrong. (Real reason for the tragic error was his reliance on Aluminem Corporation of America figures). But on the other vital commodities he was way out in front. One of these was rubber. Stettinius was the first to see the need of building synthetic rubber factories and being in time for the fall of Singapore and being in time on Jesse James for nearly a year before he could get Jesse to move. The other commodity was high octane gasoline, without which the current bombing raids could not take place. One bomber takes about 1,000 gallons of gasoline to fly from England to Germany and back, so with 1,000 bombers staging a raid, 1,000,000 gallons of fuel is used up in one night. U. S. PRISONERS IN BATAAN. Ex-Undersecretary of the Interior Jack Dempster has taken up with the American Red Cross the problem of getting a Red Cross representative in Manila to look out for U. S. prisoners from Bataan and Corregidor. So far, the Japs have not permitted a Swiss Red Cross representative in Manila, though they have admitted Swiss representatives to Tokyo, Shanghai and Hong Kong. No exchange has been given by the Japs for the U. S. prisoners in Manila, but U. S. officials believe it is because they don't want a man from the outside world to see the situation in Bataan. There is a rumor, however, the treatment of U. S. prisoners in Bataan and Corregidor is to be good. The Swiss representative, who arrived in Manila last week, has been asked to look out for the U. S. prisoners in Manila. The Japs have agreed to let the Swiss representative see the prisoners in Manila, but they will not let the Swiss representative see the prisoners in Bataan and Corregidor. ROYAL PRINCE CONFERENCE. At King Peter's conference, which was held in London on July 15th, the Japs were given a good talking to. The conference was held in the presence of the British, American, and French representatives. The Japs were told that they must stop their attacks on the Philippines and Malaya, or they will face a coalition of the British, American, and French forces. The Japs refused to do so, and the conference ended in a deadlock. The British, American, and French forces are now preparing for a joint attack on the Philippines and Malaya. The Japs are expected to be defeated in the near future.

One that stands out is your friendliness," he answered promptly. "Everywhere I have gone I have noticed that." "Does that include photographs?" "Well, they are persistent, aren't they? I wouldn't mind if they didn't keep shooting off things in my face."

TANKER-SAVING PIPELINE. American automobile owners don't know it, but indirectly they had the brush to thank for the final decision to build a new pipeline from the South to the Middle West. Secretary Leary had been urging construction of this pipeline for more than a year—always being rebuffed by the War Production Board. Part of Leary's argument was that it was foolish to waste American tankers by having them carry oil all the way to England from the Gulf of Mexico. If, on the other hand, tankers could load oil and pipeline it to a Middle Atlantic port, they could save 1,000 miles of travel and reduce the exposure to submarine attack. Tankers are getting scarce these days, and the greater the distance they have to steam, the more trips they can make. It is for this argument, especially of the last hearing before the War Production Board, but was rebuffed by Lieut. Gen. Brehon Somerville, head of the army's service supplies. Somerville took exception to the fact that England was hard up for oil or gasoline and he had just returned from there and that the pipeline was pure poppycock. Leary made no immediate reply. He asked the British government. "But," were boiling lead, and Leary he received climbed the floor. The War Production Board James S. Stewart didn't know much about British oil supplies. The pipeline was ordered built.

MERRY-GO-ROUND. Capitol insiders are betting that before the tax bill finally emerges from congress it will contain some kind of provision for compulsory war savings as an anti-inflation measure. Secretary Morgenthau has been opposed to this, but recently seems willing to shift his view. C. Forster OPM boss William Knudsen, in his peacetime role as a Lieutenant-general in the army, has inspected 23 war plants and in many of them he has recommended changes which have increased production.

Like the cloud with the silver lining - every dark lamp shade needs a WHITE LINING! Like a thirsty sponge soaking up water, a dark lamp shade absorbs light. The light from the bulb is "hidden under a bushel" instead of being thrown into the room where it can do some good. One way to correct this fault—and still make use of the offending shade—is to fit the shade with a white lining. This reflects more light into the room and may increase the efficiency of your lamp as much as 50 per cent. Another way to get all the light you pay for is to clean your bulbs and shades and fixtures frequently. Dust is insidious: it collects under shades, on reflector bowls, even inside enclosed glass fixtures, and cuts down the amount of light 10, 20, 30 per cent or more. Wipe off lamp bulbs, reflectors, etc., with a damp cloth, and dust your lamp shades inside and out. Use the right size bulbs in your lamps and fixtures. Don't expect a small bulb to do a good lighting job when a larger bulb is needed. The light will be inadequate. Don't squeeze too big a bulb into a small lamp, either . . . the glaring light and harsh shadows are equally harmful. Try moving your lamps closer to the point of use, so that they shed their light more directly on your work. White linings for shades are only one type of "light adapter" equipment that makes it possible to modernize your lamps and fixtures easily and at low cost. There are many others in a variety of styles, all moderately priced . . . available at department stores, lighting fixture stores, and electrical dealers. (We do not sell this equipment.) What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Navy Cruisers are built in two classes, light and heavy, the latter displacing about 10,000 tons. Our navy has about an equal number of light and heavy Cruisers, the 10,000 ton Cruiser costing approximately $30,000,000. Many Cruisers are under construction and many more are needed.

To pay for these speedy and powerful ships with their heavy guns and armament we must buy War Bonds. Citizens of a large town or a given community, working in unity, could buy one of these ships for the Navy if they put at least ten percent of their income in War Bonds every pay day.
