Study days ago's high-ranking army official in Detroit said "off the record" that two out of every five Michigan civilians recently interviewed thought the war would be over in 1942.

A few days ago the Office of War Information at Washington issued a frank statement warning the people that they are wasting the war and that industrial production was insufficient to meet present needs.

It has been the endeavor of American newspapers to deal with the war realistically, shunning Pollyanna optimism that would deceive the public and would weaken the home front. It is a tradition in the present tense, we offer the following items all taken from this column since Jan. 1, 1942.

"We May Be Too Late" Jan. 7—Despite the encouraging news that the Allies have defeated the Axis, the fact remains that the war is not over. It is a tradition in the present tense, we offer the following items all taken from this column since Jan. 1, 1942.

Public Demands War Efficiency Feb. 20—The American people are demanding a more efficient war effort. It is a tradition in the present tense, we offer the following items all taken from this column since Jan. 1, 1942.

Ten Million Men By 1944? May 12—In 55 days we learn that the American people are demanding a more efficient war effort. It is a tradition in the present tense, we offer the following items all taken from this column since Jan. 1, 1942.

Our Amazing Illusions March 1—The American people are demanding a more efficient war effort. It is a tradition in the present tense, we offer the following items all taken from this column since Jan. 1, 1942.

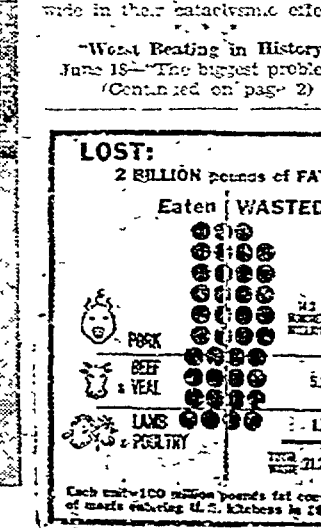

We're Losing a War? March 1—The American people are demanding a more efficient war effort. It is a tradition in the present tense, we offer the following items all taken from this column since Jan. 1, 1942.

Greater Danger in Sabotage? April 3—While enemy bombing raids by airplanes are expected to be made against Michigan military centers, such as the St. Mary's river locks at Sault Ste. Marie, the Willy Run bomber plant near Ypsilanti, and the Chrysler tank plant in Macomb county, a greater danger lurks in the possibility of disastrous sabotage being committed by a handful of enemy agents.

German Triumphs in Russia May 29—If the Germans triumph in Russia, seize the Suez or take over the French fleet, the Michigan transportation problem would be very significant, wouldn't it? And so would everything else, for the matter. Never in history has the fate of free people hinged on the outcome of events so world-wide in their catastrophic effect.

The Atlantic Charter

A year ago, August 14, 1941, President Roosevelt and British Prime Minister Churchill met aboard a battleship somewhere in the Atlantic and agreed to the charter, which since has become the battle creed of the United Nations.

FIRST, They renounce all territorial aggrandizement, territorial or other.

SECOND, They desire to see no territorial changes that do not accord with the freely expressed wishes of the peoples concerned.

THIRD, They respect the right of all peoples to choose the form of government under which they will live, and they wish to see sovereign rights and self government restored to those who have been forcibly deprived of them.

FOURTH, They will endeavor, with due respect for their existing obligations, to further the enjoyment by all States, great or small, of equal rights and access to equal terms to the trade and to the raw materials of the world which are needed for their economic security.

FIFTH, They desire to bring about the fullest collaboration between all nations in the economic field with the object of securing for all improved labor standards, economic adjustment and social security.

SIXTH, After the final destruction of the Nazi tyranny, they hope to see a stable and lasting peace which will afford to all nations the peace of mind and safety within their own boundaries and which will insure that all the men in all lands may live in freedom from fear and want.

SEVENTH, They desire to establish a world in which the peace of mind and safety of all nations may be secured without hindrance.

EIGHTH, They believe that all the nations of the world, for realistic as well as spiritual reasons, must come to the abolition of the use of force. Since no future peace can be maintained if land, sea, or air armaments continue to be employed by nations which threaten, or may threaten, aggression out of proportion to their resources, they believe that the establishment of a world and permanent peace is essential to the well-being and security of all nations. They believe that the disarmament of such nations is essential to the well-being and security of all nations. They believe that the disarmament of such nations is essential to the well-being and security of all nations.

Henry M. Jackson, Jr., secretary of the National Automobile Dealers Association, has announced the August used car quotas for the year 1942. In his report, he has given the following figures: The quotas for the month of August are: Chevrolet, 11,000; Ford, 10,000; General Motors, 10,000; Lincoln, 10,000; Packard, 10,000; Studebaker, 10,000; Buick, 10,000; Oldsmobile, 10,000; Cadillac, 10,000; Chrysler, 10,000; and others.

Who Will Blush This Time?

"I am sure our American readers," says the New York Post, "will be in a position to answer the question. The smoke may be but the battle is being fought in Congress. Under the American people are expected to pay two or three years of peace time interest on a debt of $100,000,000,000. We have heard much in the past about those juicy munitions contracts and those shells which were never delivered. The question now is: will do the blushing this time?"

"To plain truth," the Post editor continues, "the first price to be controlled in this war is the price of the products of the American people. Metal prices were curbed before Pearl Harbor. Steel was rigidly controlled. The Aluminum Co. watched a big competitor set up, with government help. The auto industry was converted 100 percent to war."

"Nor are the big industries crying in public. They probably would have preferred to stay in private business. But U. S. Steel and Aluminum Co., and General Motors are taking ads in newspapers and magazines to tell the story of the war effort, the story of the blast furnace or a new airplane engine."

"There hasn't been any labor repression to speak of either. Wage rises have come quickly. Average wages are the highest in our history. Farmers will draw down about 15 billions this year for their products, almost three times as much as during the depression. The big drive to upset this temporary stability comes from the farm bloc which is yipping for fantastic food prices and from labor which is demanding higher basic wages."

"If you were to try to decide who really runs this country politically, by studying our price legislation, you would be forced to conclude that farm labor run it; the only two groups exempt from most price curbs. You don't win such concessions without having real power," the New York Post claims.

Walled Lake Brevities

BULLETIN

By Charles E. Hutton

The guy whose name is signed to this column went into a tailspin late Friday night, apparently speaking and after contorting himself variously after the manner of a pretzel, was turned out of the house on a stretcher, rammed into an ambulance and given a new kind of jolt over to St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Pontiac, where he spent something like two days and nights trying to figure out what it was all about. It was decided that he had played hooky to one of them, there being some who hear about this. The main reason for this week's 'Brevities' being singular.

The American Eagle HAS GONE TO WAR

We Americans have made up our minds to produce such a overwhelming number of ships, planes, and tanks that no barbaric enemy can ever again threaten our Freedom and the Flag we live under.

With complete faith in the American way of life . . . in the American people . . . and in American industrial might, we pledge the total resources of this bank to help American industry change from peacetime production to war production . . . the greatest the world has ever seen and against which no enemy can hope to prevail.

Postmaster, San Francisco, Cal.

Dear Editor:

I have been receiving The Record for seven months, and because it always seems to cheer me up, also giving me the latest news about things around home, I think I owe you at least a letter of thanks for sending it to me.

I am now on an island below the equator, and that is all the censor will allow me to say for now in this case.

The people here are very nice to us and we are gradually getting things in order and establishing our defenses.

The weather is only a 2° change in seasons, but the rainfall is about three to four times as much as it is around home.

We had a nice crossing, also plenty of fun and games when we were on the ship, and members of the Kibitz Reunion.

I seem strange hearing about the efforts of the people back home, but I may do that in a while.

I am in the same boat of such good work as what you are doing, it makes the cause seem more important.

Once again, thank you for sending me the paper.

Yours truly,
James M. Dixon

The Varhol family of Shadyside avenue returned home Saturday evening after a two-week vacation spent in Chicago and Minneapolis.

Roger Graham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Graham, stayed overnight at the corner of Mayfield and Norfolk. The cottage is soon to be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Foster of Royal Oak.

The Oland family which has been occupying what is known as the Oland property on Norfolk, is preparing to move home near Grand River and Middlefield for early occupancy. Miss Ada Lee Oland, owner of the present home, expects to move soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Taffman and Florence are doing this for some of the time and are across for the future.

The Flower Of Liberty
By
Oliver Wendell Holmes

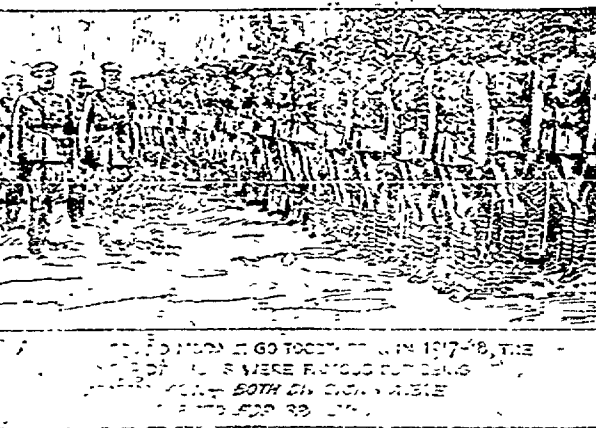

When those floating flames
glowed
Were displayed across the sky
In remembrance of the stories
Of brave men in days gone by,
Then we thought of deeds of daring
And of our end and steadfast minds
That had set the country free
Safe through the tempestuous winds
Then we pondered on the toiling
And the riches of the night
Of the suffering and despoiling
Braved in remembrance of the right
That we may as clearly
And with a clear and bright mind to perish
in the sky.

OUR DEMOCRACY

A LAND OF BRAVE MEN
AND BEAUTIFUL WOMEN

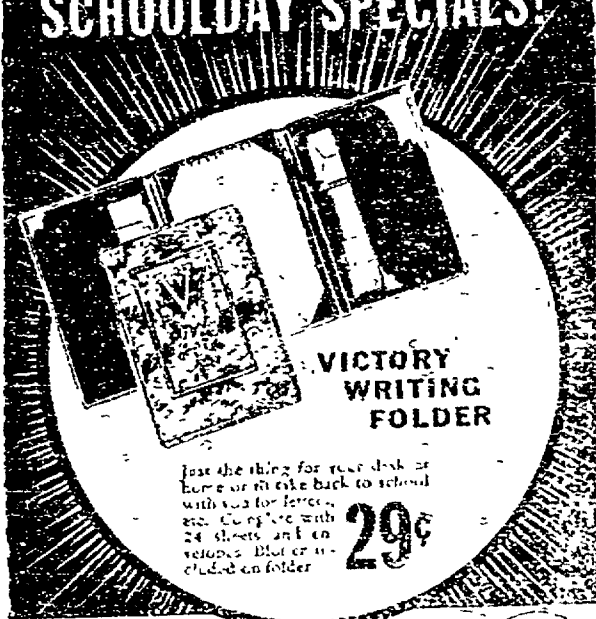

JUST AS REGULATIONS REQUIRE SOLDIERS, SAILORS AND MARINES
TO BE WELL-GROOMED, SO WOMEN AND GIRLS ARE NOW PARTICULARLY PROUD OF THEIR LOOKS.
