Gordon Stewart is now at Camp Crowder, Mo.

Just a few lines to let you know I am receiving the Record very promptly and enjoy it very much. Also would like to tell you I like the Navy and think it is a fine branch of the service.

Thanking you very much for the Record. Sincerely, Harry B. Clark.

Set Don Heisterman will complete a five week training course this week at Miami Beach, Fla. and will be assigned to some other post for further training as an aviation cadet.

Lynn La. Sol has received his honorable discharge from the Army because of eye trouble. He was at Camp Upton, Tex.

Pvt. Jones, Fred was home last week on furlough from Camp Upton, Minn.

Russell Penberthy, who has been stationed at Glenview, Ill., was home on leave last week.

Norman Niles, still stationed in the Albatross, is now Sgt. Niles.

Frank Dunham has been transferred from Sheppard Field, Tex. to Oklahoma City, where he is receiving special training at the University of Oklahoma.

He then was appointed an aviation cadet and transferred to Chicago, Ill., to attend the Meteorological Cadet course at the University of Chicago. Graduating Sept. 6, 1943, he was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Corps.

An Olive Grove in Sicily Here I am again after about six months of silence. My regiment is camped here in an olive grove, taking a rest (and to speak) after a series of pretty tough fighting. I was in the first wave of troops to make the invasion July 10. Although the landing was pretty tough, the worst fighting came when we got inland; the process of capturing an island that has been fortified for the last five or ten years just isn't all play, but the worst is still to come in Europe. I mean final victory may be a ways off yet, but I'm sure not too far.

The Germans are afraid of the number of Americans. As soon as the Yanks come over one hill the Jerries took German soldiers over the next. Also some German soldiers remarked that the Yanks were crazy and not afraid of anything. The civilians here are really swell to us. The first town or two we passed through was pretty quiet but after they found out the Yanks weren't going to harm them, they turned out by the thousands and gave us cold water, bread, wine and eggs; and they really like our cigarettes.

It's quite a pretty country, not unlike California. I'd say "hello" to Cecil and Roy and all the rest in the service. Best of luck. Keith Avey.

A/C Kenneth Martens has been transferred from Maxwell Field to Helena, Ark.

Camp Pendleton Oceanside, Calif. The outfit I'm in now is a nasty rugged lot. We hike all over the mountains that are located here. It's not so bad tho.

I saw Bill Sutton at Camp Elliott the other day. I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw him. The only thing that was wrong was that I was transferred the next day. Well, I must go now. Thanks for sending me the Record and I'm looking forward to getting it again. Sincerely, Pvt. Charles (Chuck) Manahan.

Al Boelens who is at Alma College over the summer V-12 plan for training Navy personnel spent the week end here with his family.

Bl. Alec Milne was home last week end on a few days leave. He is at present stationed at Cantara, N. Y.

New York. I wish to thank you for sending me the Record while I was in the States. It certainly has been a lot of comfort to me. I enjoy knowing what the people at home are doing and also where the different boys are stationed.

I would like to have been able to get home before leaving the States, but the sooner we get home the better this battle is for us. We will all be home soon.

In closing, let me thank you again for your kindness and say Hello to all the folks for me. Sincerely yours, Sgt. Carl H. Schulz.

Edgar Proff has been home on leave from Marianna, Fla.

Word has been received that Arthur Lowry, who is in the Army, is in England.

Sgt. Lewis Barmen will leave today to return to his base in California, after spending his leave here.

William Hanson, Air Corps, is at Camp Altus in Oklahoma.

Charles Trickey, Jr., has returned to his Marine Air Corps station in California after spending his leave with his family in Novi.

Daniel McDermid, who is with the Merchant Marines, returned to Great Lakes after being home on leave for a few days.

Sgt. Ray F. Parmenter arrived in town Sunday on leave from March Field, Calif. Mrs. Parmenter came with him and will remain here for a visit with his family, when he returns to his post the last of the week.

Alfonzo Sessions has recently had word of the safe arrival of his grandson, Harvey, in Hawaii. Pvt. Harvey Sessions reports all well and inclosed a few pictures to prove the fact to his grandfather.

But now the Essentialist chairman was talking strongly out of school. Wrote Fred Alden Shaw, founder and headmaster of the flourishing Detroit Country Day School in School & Society: "These are bydays for the Essentialists; for hardly a week passes without a dart being cast of Progressive doctrines. Now it is Edgar Hoover commenting on child delinquency; now it is an admiral complaining about inadequate preparation in mathematics. The public is now Essentialist-minded. His attitude has been largely formulated in the fiery furnace of war. Now there is the danger that the public will swing too far. Progressive education proclaimed that traditional education had become a ritual; the mold into which the enthusiasm and idealism of youth were poured with unfortunate results. Now we are all for discipline. Subject matter is imposed. In the Army if you haven't what it takes, you wash out. The Essentialists now have hests of allies, but therein lies the danger. The progressive point of view deserves recognition. After the war... Progressives should have an important part. Essentialists may feel justified (but) should avoid throwing out the baby with the bath. Probably Mr. Shaw is the first man from Northville to break into the columns of Time in many years.

OBITUARY

JAMES BLACK
James Alexander Black, 22 years old last May, was born May 1, 1881, at Irvington-on-the-Hudson, Westchester County, N. Y. in sight of the home of Washington Irving.
At the close of the Civil War, his parents moved to Lansing, Michigan and he resided there until 1915, when he moved to Northville, where he has since made his home.
Mr. Black was a landscape gardener and assisted his father in laying out the grounds of the state capitol and several of the parks in Lansing.
He was captain of the Lansing police force twelve years, and resigned to take up contract work, the work he followed after coming to Northville.
He was married in 1894 to Cora Welcher. There were five children, three of whom survive him: Mrs. Mollie Lawrence, Mrs. Gladys Bush and Jas. L. The Happy Man AND The Unhappy

"Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners; nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water. The ungodly are not so but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away. The Lord knoweth the way of the righteous, but the way of the ungodly shall perish." A portion of the First Psalm.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS
Powder Monkey
On board ship and in the artillery their buddies call them "powder monkeys." Not disrespectful, just a personal, intimate term between friends. Civilians call them gas crews. During a battle the crews of "powder monkeys" must work like trojans bringing the ammunition to the guns.
The gun may fire an anti aircraft 50 calibre shell or a broadside from the 16 inch guns of a great battleship, but in either event the "powder monkey" must pass millions of dollars worth of ammunition to make it get off the gun, and your savings in War Bonds are necessary to supply the unusual ammunition that provides the shells.

THE LEAST WE CAN DO FOR HIM - IS TO DO MORE IN SEPTEMBER!

Here's what YOU must do to Back the Attack

Now, as America goes all out for the INVASION—your dollars must join the fight, too! For the very least you can do for your country—and for your loved ones doing the fighting—is to invest in MORE War Bonds in September.
Think of Jim fighting with Eisenhower, or Bill with MacArthur in the Solomons . . . or Bob up in Kiska. They've given their pledge to fight—and die if need be—for their country. They're ready to go all the way.
And we at home must see them through all the way, too! That means every individual in the country who earns a wage or draws an income or has accumulated funds must invest in at least one EXTRA $100 War Bond if he can possibly do so. Those who can, must invest more. This in addition to your regular War Bond subscription.
Yes, the least you can do for your men in service is to do MORE in September. MORE in the safest securities in the world—U. S. Government War Bonds. But do it now—it's for the INVASION!

Asks Respect for Library Property

Miss Hempstead, of the Wayne County Library made the following statement about the damage to the flag pole at the Library here.

The Wayne County Library is replacing the rope on the Library flag pole at a cost of $22.50. This expenditure of money, of time and transportation is made necessary because some weeks ago vandals cut the flag rope.

"Doubtless the deed was done as a joke. It was done by someone young, physically or mentally, for a grown person is able to distinguish between what is amusing and what is not."

"It will be remembered that the Township purchased the best flag and pole available, believing that nothing was too good for 'Old Glory'."

"There was a ceremony when the flag was raised. Men lifted their hats. Veterans stood at attention. The band played. Responsible citizens will regret that this vandalism occurred."

"Conscientious parents will warn their children against such actions. It has been suggested that the Library no longer use its flag because of the necessary expenditure of work hours, of gasoline and of money. However the Wayne County Library will bear the physical damage and believe that such an incident will not happen again in Northville."

AN OPEN NOTE TO HOUSEWIVES EVERYWHERE

Dear Madam

Perhaps you remember the flat iron that Grandmother used. She heated it on the kitchen stove and proceeded to do up a really big ironing. She used a little more time and muscle than the later day electric iron called for, but she got results.

Today, you can no longer purchase the electric iron. And a lot of you have wished that the good old iron of Grandmother's day was still about the house.

Well, here it is, just 300 of them, so it's a matter of first come, first served. We cannot take phone orders or hold any irons. Better get here early.

Back the attack... BUY WAR BONDS!

INVASION! This is it! Mighty America is poised! Will you be able to say: 'I personally put my full strength into the knock-out'?

To carry the war home to our enemies, and killing fury, calls for an added 15 billion dollars, quickly.

Your government rarely asks you to lend your money. With every dollar of wealth in this richest of all nations is security!

Mother, father, you can't love! But your boy or your daughter's has - and your country's too! Unless you put every ounce of your inspired strength into this battle-pace!

Your boy, or your neighbor's boy, knows what the fruits of this devastating Allied invasion will be - the months, the dollars, the American lives it will save. And across the miles, he is pleading, 'Buy more and sell more War Bonds - today!'

"Next time - he'll count a hundred!"

"He called me in at 10:30 this morning. 'Call the Philadelphia office!' he barked. 'Ask 'em where those contracts are. They were supposed to mail 'em last night.' 'I hurried. But just as I was going to place the call I remembered about so many long distance lines being jammed with war calls. So I ran down to the mail desk and hunted - there were the contracts, tucked away in the wrong pile. 'I explained why I hadn't made the call and the Boss told me I was absolutely right. 'Next time, Miss Brown,' he said, 'make me count a hundred before I use long distance!'"

Long distance lines to war-busy centers are particularly congested. Only you can decide whether your call is so important that it should be placed on those overburdened circuits. Therefore, please... 1. Make only the most necessary calls to war-activity areas. 2. If the operator asks you to limit your call to 5 minutes, please co-operate... her request means others are waiting.

Memorial Hall

The greatest danger to the success of the campaign will be the failure of the people to realize that this campaign will take the place of several others which would be necessary soon if this one wasn't successful, and that the money all goes into a community investment, usable for all years to come, and a memorial which couldn't be replaced.

passed to the service men and women who do not return.

Founder's Club Membership

Just now everyone is urged to send in their contribution so as to receive a Veteran's Memorial Hall Founder's Club Membership. This beautiful pocket card will long be cherished by the individual subscribing to the fund on or before Sept. 23. The same only in certificate form, suitable for framing, will be presented to organizations meeting the time date in subscribing to the fund. So it will be the advantage of everyone to contribute.

er the Founder's Club membership and quality at once.

The Veteran's Memorial Hall Fund is on and ends Sept. 23. The amount required, $20,000.00, represents the cost of a permanent building addition to the community which will be used by everyone and especially by the returning soldiers who have made the continuation of the community as an American one possible. It will be a creditable monument to those who fall to return and an everlasting source of pride and pleasure to those who do not.

Bond Drive

Parade

At 6:30 the high school band, civic and patriotic organizations are asked to assemble at the Village Hall, and lead by the band parade through the Business section, drumming up bond sales, and finally ending up at the theatre.

Committees

The various committees named by Mrs. Averill Green, chairman, are: Mrs. E. E. Ferrin, Alton Peters, Forrest Doren, decorations and business place solicitation; S. L. Brader and S. Streimick, at school every room will sell bonds with tickets given for every bond bought. With leadership of Mr. Amerman, Carl Ely and Jack Blackburn it is hoped to enlist a lot of enthusiasm at the school for both the bond sales, the parade and the show.

Library Adds New Books

Recent books added to the library here are:

Letter From New Guinea, by Vern Haughland. The author, an Associated Press correspondent, was a passenger on the army bomber when the plane met with an accident over the jungles of New Guinea. This book contains his story, based on a brief diary, of the seven weeks he wandered through the forests and over the mountains until he finally reached a native village.

Tokyo Record by O. D. Tolichus. Day-by-day developments in Japanese foreign and internal politics and economics. The book is lightened up by descriptions of Japanese daily life, recreations and entertainments and has a good share of amusing anecdotes.

Young Lady Randolph by Rena Kraus. The life and times of Jennie Jerome, American mother of Winston Churchill.

It is a brilliant portrait of an era and of one lovely and energetic American woman's part in it. Mr. Kraus has been eminently successful in portraying Lady Randolph as she threaded her way through the meshes of British politics, politely plotting and pulling wires.

Citizen Tom Paine, by H. H. East. The virtues of this fictional life story are its timeliness, its inspirational force, its sincerity and its very great dignity.

Dream Department, by S. J. Perelman. Twenty-five humorous articles, many of them reprinted from the New Yorker.

Chicken Every Sunday by Rosemary Taylor. A deft, amusing, heart-warming chronicle of the days when lonesome people found in a friendly boarding house comfort, entertainment and, more often than not, romance. The decorations by Donald McKay are amusing.

Spanish at Sight, by Stillman.

Telephone

if one less call a day were made at each telephone in Northville, the result would be 1,550 fewer calls daily and about 565,000 fewer a year.

Because the capacity of the local central office has been reached, the company also announced that no additional installations of service can be made unless absolutely essential to the prosecution of the war or to the public health, welfare or safety. The company has been installing telephones here, where possible, under an agreement that permitted withdrawal of the service if the particular facilities should be needed for any of those essential purposes.

MacLachlan emphasized that there are nearly 240 more telephones in service here than at the time of Pearl Harbor and that the daily volume of calls has gone up nearly 4,400 since that time.

"War conditions have brought about a serious overload of Northville's telephone service," MacLachlan said. "We are asking people here to reduce their use of the service because the expansion of telephone facilities to take care of the unprecedented demand has been frozen by the shortage of the materials which are more badly needed now for weapons of war."

Everyone we believe can appreciate the important role of the telephone in the war job. Nothing must interfere with the prompt handling of calls relating to that job. Emergency civilian calls also must go through promptly. That makes it necessary that lines and equipment be kept available at all times for the essential calls.

Northville people have cooperated with the company in previous war time appeals for restraint in telephone usage. We believe that, understanding the facts in regard to this new emergency, they will want to do no less.

Therefore this is not just another campaign. It is three or four campaigns in one and not only requires the support of everyone of the five or six hundred homes in the area, but requires that the average family subscription be over thirty-five dollars.

There will be some who cannot subscribe at all and some whose contributions will necessarily be below that amount and these will be doubly welcome for the spirit and perhaps the sacrifice they represent, but many more will have to be considerably above the average if the amount required to make the investment is raised. Should the community fall at this time, series of campaigns will have to be started to provide the same facilities for various groups that this one proposes to do now, and have completed before the war ends.

The demands of war and business make personal solicitation impossible at this time, so if you haven't already done so, please mail in your family subscription today. If the amount you subscribe is more than the cash you wish to put out now, make it payable over a period that you can meet but send it in and make it represent your share of the ownership in this community necessity which cannot be provided in any other way or at any other time.

Today nearly one half of the 3rd War Loan quota has been sold here, the amount being slightly over $82,250.00, by the time you read this paper, the 50% will have been met. We are sure the E-Bond fathers are doing a great and grand job and more fathers have joined the ranks of the workers, including:

William T. Gregory, 418 W. Durbin, Phone 235, 1 son Tom E. Gregory.

Joe Holman, Six Mile and Bock road, 2 sons, Clarence, prisoner in Germany; Robert, Texas.

100 POUNDS OF COAL

you didn't know you used last month!

Thousands of tons of coal are burned in our large steam generating plants every day. Here nearly all the electricity for this area is produced.

And when you turn on an electric switch in your home, you are actually burning coal... coal that has been transported by boat and by rail, coal that represents vital production and manpower. Coal and transportation are war materials. Electricity, too, is a war material. It should not be wasted.

There is no shortage of generating machinery in this area. Detroit Edison power plants have ample reserve generating capacity for the peak requirements of all war industry using our service. Insofar as one can be sure of anything in time of war, it will not be necessary to curtail our residential, commercial and industrial customers.

But careful reasonable use of electricity is patriotic—an important contribution to the war effort. The Detroit Edison Company.
