With Our Men in the Service

NOTE—This column is dedicated to news of men and women from Novi and Northville communities who are in the service.

Being first place as the best rifle shot in a division of 15,000 men at Camp White, Oklahoma, is the enviable record of E. K. Starkweather, formerly of Seven Mile road west.

Bluejacket Frederick Lawrence, formerly of 518 Base Line road, won recognition as a "qualified striker" for the rate of Electrician's Mate, third class in recent graduation exercises held for the Service School at the U. S. Naval Training Station at Great Lakes.

Mrs. Horace Nelson of Plymouth, formerly of Northville, sends the Record the following story concerning her son, Jerry, now in training at Great Lakes Naval Training Station. "Down at Great Lakes a big bond rally was held in memory of Dec. 7. The boys were told that the company buying the most bonds would be given an extra three furlough days. How did they do? Well, they effected the boys Jerry Nelson of Co. 1638 put in a hurried long-distance call to his home in Plymouth, explained in a few hurried sentences and finished with Mom and me $806.25 quick and maybe I'll be able to be home for Christmas. So the money winged its way to Great Lakes and the latest word from Jerry is that he has purchased bonds for the largest amount by any boy and he became the hero of his company because he won for them all the extra three day leave and now all the boys of Co. 1638 will be home for Christmas."

Lawrence Bogart, S. F. 3C, remembered the editor with a Christmas card, signing his old nickname, "Bogey."

Pvt. Joseph S. Fiore left Sunday for Camp Barkley, Texas, after a ten day furlough spent in Northville.

Home for a five day leave before taking a little trip. So will you please hold everything until you hear from me. I'm fine as ever. Good luck. Joe Biller.

Veterans Administration Hospital. Write for the home care paper. I enjoy getting it very much.

Lieut. Alfred Parmenter and Mr. Parmenter (Pvt. Will) are visiting relatives and friends in town. Lieut. Parmenter is on leave from Dayton, Ohio, and will report to APO (G) at the expiration of his furlough.

Bill Sutton, private first class, is serving with the Marine corps in San Diego.

Dick Loomis, former Chief of Police here, is now Major Loomis serving in the air corps.

Foreign Service. I have a little time out to thank you for the Record. It sure is nice to read about the boys in different parts of the world. As you know, I am in "Persia." We call the place here "Derry." We call the place here "Persia." We call the place here "Derry." We call the place here "Persia."

Well, I left for overseas duty almost a year ago, so I am pretty much acquainted with everything. There is not much to explain. My line of work because I take it you know what we all in this Command are doing. So therefore I am taking this time to greet you and wish you all a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. Hope that this will end soon. I will then compare my trip around the world with you. I sure have been in a good many countries as you know. I have been in seven different countries all ready and I have seen a good part of the world. I guess I have completed my letter, thanking you for the Record. Hope that all the boys in the service enjoy it as much as I do. Thanks again.

Sincerely, Corp. Joe Spagnuolo

Waste Fat Now Sold to Markets Eligible for Two Brown Points Per Pound

In order to spur the kitchen to get company, the CPA has announced that it will authorize local meat dealers and other fat salvagers to give two brown points a pound for fats gathered in households and others.

The new plan will be put into effect on Dec. 13 and should encourage Northville households to save those valuable kitchen fats from now on.

The brown stamps which the ranchers collect from waste fat are used in making point charges under rationing. They will be used instead of paper stamps. The ration tokens will be evaluated at one point each.

It is hoped that here in Northville to at least double the fats collection figure. In the past, the fats salvage has been small.

Northville high school boys and girls may drop in at the Scout Building, corner Dunlap and Horton, any time after eight o'clock tomorrow, Saturday evening, for a bit of recreation and refreshment. Another "open house" night has been planned for these teen-age folks who want something to do on Saturday night. A juke box will furnish music for dancing and there are ping pong tables available, as well as other games. The sponsors are anxious to secure a pool table, so if there are any such around town, idle, the same might be used to good advantage at this new recreation center.

This youth activity is offered by the village in answer to a survey made at the High School as to the wishes of the younger set for Saturday night fun. Several of the adult recreational committee will be on hand to act as chaperones, including Mr. and Mrs. Del Hahn.

Stabbing Reported Thursday Night

Morton Graham of Plymouth in Serious Condition Following Attack. Police Seek Assailant.

Upon answering a call to the Northville Hotel last Thursday night about 9:50 p.m., Northville police found a man in a serious condition from stab wounds. The man, Morton Graham of Plymouth, had staggered into the hotel a few minutes previous to the police call and had asked to have a doctor summoned. The clerk in charge at the hotel called the Northville police who had the victim removed to Sessions Hospital immediately.

Graham was later removed to Redford, receiving Hospital where at last reports his condition was still grave. The Northville police and the State Police are working on the case but have been handicapped by Graham's condition which precludes much questioning. They are however, working on several definite clues pointing to the identity of Graham's assailant.

Need Correct Addresses for Local Servicemen

This week end will see the Northville Record Servicemen Special edition bound overseas via air mail. Next week will see the edition mailed first class to men in this country. Just now you may assure receipt of this edition by your son, father or friend serviceman by bringing in the most recent address you have either to Arthur Schutte at the post office, T. R. Carrington or the Record Office. These men are changing stations so rapidly that unless recent changes are reported by YOU or SOMEONE equally interested the edition may fail to reach that loved one on time. To be of most value, we must have these changed addresses by Friday night, Dec. 10 for overseas and Dec. 15 for in the U.S.A. Thank you.

the Racine farm next spring. This property is the last of a sixty acre plot that was at one time known as the Sadler farm, the house having been erected by him about twenty-five years ago. Before that the place was known as the Clark Condensery property. At the time the stone house was built no other one marked that section and it was the intention of Mr. Sadler to develop it into a fruit farm, so a large number of fruit trees were set out. Two years later the Racine came here from Connecticut, purchasing the property. Later in 1913, 57 acres were sold to a syndicate of Northville men, including M. N. Johnson, C. C. Yerkes, L. A. Babler and the Lowell Farm Co. for the purpose of making it into a subdivision. However the Eastons reserved that section on which stood the stone house. According to the papers set out at the time of the opening of the subdivision, General Heights is soon to be an exclusive residence section of Northville and Wayne counties. It is to be a city with a water, gas and sewer system and has a lot of acreage of from one to two acres. There are 210 homes planned for the subdivision.

EVERY Wednesday in The News

Summer Welles, recently Under Secretary of State, writes a weekly article on international affairs on which he is perhaps better informed than any other American of his time.

Entering the diplomatic field shortly after he was out of Harvard, Mr. Welles was secretary of the Tokyo embassy. Thence he laid the foundations of the Good Neighbor policy at Buenos Aires. He served both Republican and Democratic administrations . . . helped stabilize Cuban affairs . . . traveled extensively in Europe . . . later was chosen to gather information in Europe's troubled capitals in 1940.

A precise man with an amazing grasp of detail, he has been characterized by Joseph E. Davies as having a "mind like a Swiss watch."

Legislature. Reversing the usual procedure, Governor Kelly has formulated the following policy for the 1944 special session of the legislature.

The date of the session will be set AFTER legislative committees complete a tentative outline of the most urgent post-war needs and the state's critical needs for the coming fiscal year, and AFTER members of the House, Ways and Means committee and the Senate Finance committee have agreed upon a budget to fit these needs.

The 1944 session, because of the war emergency, should be streamlined in order to speed up handling of bills and permit an early return of legislators to their homes.

Long Range. Post-war needs of the State of Michigan, such as state hospitals, state training schools and state educational institutions, and office buildings in Detroit and Lansing, should be budgeted according to a long-range program. Needs should be given priority according to their urgency, and thus the most critical of state-building fire hazards might be placed first on the list and given right-of-way for 1944-45.

No. Michigan, however, the state's post-war reserve, which Auditor General Vernon W. Egan estimates will be $33,000,000 by next July 1, should not become a "money" to be sliced up during the 1944 legislative session. A substantial amount should be retained to meet unforeseen contingencies if they arise in the post-war period.

Health. Health needs of the Detroit metropolitan area, the scene of a race riot last June, should receive a priority in the legislature's call. Those health needs, which include a new Negroes hospital on Pelee Island on one hot Sunday, should be met by an appropriation to acquire works and buildings in the Southeastern states of Michigan. Emphasis, however, should be on a long-range program.

Planning. A local light in the center of a program is the Michigan Planning Commission, which is the state's "brain of directors" for post-war needs. The first meeting of the state of Michigan government's planning committee, which will be held in Lansing, should be held in Lansing, Michigan, and should be held in Lansing, Michigan, and should be held in Lansing, Michigan.

homes. Many legislators are working long hours and lack help to handle their business affairs during a prolonged session at Lansing.

Bills. The governor's office, aided by legislative leaders and key committees, should prepare tentative drafts of bills. Legislators should have these bills awaiting them upon their arrival in Lansing. Any changes in the bills can be made in the committees, and acted upon by the house and the senate. Thus, considerable time should be saved for everyone. In fact, a printed outline of pending legislation should be mailed to every legislator well in advance of the first legislative session. Such legislation should be put in "Kelly bills" but should reflect the judgment of legislative leaders summoned into deliberations well before the governor issues the call.

Food. A subcommittee of the Michigan food marketing council is working on plans for a statewide advertising program to encourage greater use in Michigan of Michigan food products. Benefits: Relief to war-time transportation through short hauls from farm to Michigan markets; education on quality of Michigan products; better consumer appreciation of Michigan products; a 10 per cent increase in food law violations as reported. Offenders' blame shortage of help.

Delinquency. Parents who are indirectly responsible for repeated acts of juvenile delinquency would be liable to citation for contempt of court under a plan proposed by the Michigan juvenile court study commission at Lansing. The commission also is drafting proposals requiring parents to pay at least half of the cost of institutionalizing or caring for offspring they have neglected.

Accidents. Just as the 1943 rise of flying accidents has been attributed to war-time nerves, so the increase in automobile accidents after the war. The danger as emotional let down, announces Maxwell Helsey, executive director of the State safety commission. Helsey said the present 45-mile limit "could probably be raised gradually, first to 50."

Helicopters. Inspired by the rapid use of helicopters in World War II, experts now are on a drive for Michigan to have the air center of the world. The state of Michigan would have access to a fleet of 250 helicopters and 100 transport planes served by a fleet of 250 pilots outside the state. The Michigan Board of Helicopters, organized in the above manner, would coordinate the big flying from city to city and from city to city.

Education. Return of more than 1,000 soldiers and sailors to Michigan will give 100,000 points of leverage to Michigan and Michigan State College to utilize troops. The university has a $2,000,000 program for war construction and maintenance, based on expectancy of 1940 students. The college likewise enrolls a 10,000 student enrollment with assistant, need for more classrooms and facilities. Dr. Eugene B. Platt, chairman of the Michigan Planning Commission, representative executive of education are considering additional grades to train tradesmen for industries.

done for a Detroit office building.

Criticism. The Detroit Labor News (AFL) has been touting the Harpoon regularly at Governor Kelly. In October it charged by editorial innuendo that Kelly either was catering for support of the Anti-Saloon league or was in league with bootleggers. Reason: Scarcity of liquor. On Nov. 19 the same publication carried this news: one bottle of "Mill Sought" — Gov. Kelly. Offers Whiskey? Reason: Scarcity of Milk. The shortage of hairpins offers new possibilities. Maybe Kelly can be blamed for that too.

Beer. The state liquor control commission reports that production of Michigan breweries during October was 21.37 per cent greater than in October, 1942.

THE FORGOTTEN LIGHT

There it shines, a forgotten porch light burning all night long at someone's door. In normal times your porch light is a real convenience. It helps callers find your house number, it discourages prowlers, and it reduces accidents from falls on dark steps. The cost is only two or three cents a week—for electricity is cheap.

Today our country is at war... and that light burning needlessly is a serious matter, especially when it burns all night. It uses vital coal and manpower and transportation. And today our Government is asking for the most careful saving of these critical resources. It is asking you to save VOLUNTARILY.

Remember that electricity is a WAR MATERIAL, even though it is cheap and unrationed. There is no shortage of facilities for making electricity. But thousands of tons of coal per day are required for its manufacture in Edison power plants. Use it as carefully as you would rubber or gasoline or other critical resources. Power saved at home means more power for the fighting fronts. The Detroit Edison Company.

Poor Lady! This morning she got a call for Ben's Men's Haberdashery. And yesterday one for Larry's Bowling Alley. Judging from the piece of her mind she gave the last caller, her peace of mind is definitely disturbed. Unfortunately, mix-ups like these are bound to occur when people trust to memory in calling telephone numbers. Even more unfortunately, a wrong number means an extra call on the already overburdened telephone system to correct the mistake. You will get fewer wrong numbers—and every one will benefit—if you will follow these practices:

1 If you are not absolutely sure of a number, check it in your telephone directory.

2 If you compile and use your own telephone list, go over it once in a while and eliminate obsolete numbers... write in the correct ones.

"We Are Buying War Bonds—Are You?"

Part of Sgt. Edward Surabue's left foot was shot away at Ferryville, near Bizerte, North Africa, at Halloran General Hospital, Staten Island, N. Y. They are building up his foot again. Sgt. Surabue, from Perth Amboy, N. J., buys War Bonds regularly. Do you do as much?

Sgt. Bernard Kello, 22, of New York, was wounded by snipers during the Sicilian campaign. His grandparents live in Naples, and he has a brother in the army. Both buy War Bonds regularly. Do you do as much?

Technician 3rd Grade John A. Wisniewski, 25, of Door, Mich., lost his right eye, three fingers and suffered chest wounds from shrapnel in the fight to capture Tunis. He is now recovering at Halloran and is a regular War Bond purchaser.

Pvt. Edward Heidemann's left leg will be two inches shorter when he is discharged from Halloran. He was wounded by a German bullet during the operations in Sicily last August. His home is Chicago. He has been in training since Sept. He's buying bonds.

The nickname of Pvt. Milton Lieberman, 27, of Brooklyn, is "Clark Gable." He was wounded in Sicily last August and has been at Halloran since October. Every payday $12.50 is taken out for War Bonds Lieberman is buying. How many do you buy?

Five Towns Club—The Five Towns Club met for their Christmas party last Friday at the Base Line home of Mrs. C. C. Yerkes, with Mrs. W. L. Yerkes and Mrs. J. R. McColl as co-hostesses. After a cooperative luncheon, the group listened to an informal talk on the recent Moscow conference by Mrs. McColl. This club has been in existence for several years, being originally made up of residents from five nearby towns, hence its name. Those present at the meeting Friday were Mrs. George Edmonds and Mrs. Ralph Colamore of Detroit, Mrs. Frank (Paul) and Mrs. J. W. Linton of Bloomfield Hills, Miss Margaret Cady of Saginaw and Mrs. Edmund Yerkes of this city.

BAPTIST CHURCH SPONSORS UNIQUE CLUB FOR BOYS AND GIRLS OF NORTHVILLE—The day afternoon at 3:30 for the opening of "Coca-Cola" club for the 27th school youngsters of Northville, 12 school children opened the first day. Their activities are guided by five counselors and the Club's plan is to be held at the Northville School building. The first activity of the club is a camp night at the home of Mrs. O. F. Beng on Friday, preceding the meeting at the library.

SESSIONS HOSPITAL—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Foersole, Plymouth, a son, James Wilbur, Nov. 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Latex Kemp, Plymouth, a daughter, Anita Roselyn, Dec. 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wells, of Farmington, a son, Stevens Anthony, Dec. 8; to Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Hedge, Plymouth, daughter, Dec. 8.

MSC TURF PLOTS SERVE WAR NEEDS—One of those ideal pieces of research that offer wartime information as well as ideas for peacetime needs has just been summarized at Michigan State College.

Twenty mixtures of 15 different grasses were seeded at various rates and various times. Results indicate which treatments give the quickest turf that might support airport traffic, hold road shoulders intact, support spray equipment in muddy orchards and yield useful information for the man who wants to get a weed-free lawn, or a productive hay or pasture field.

Seedings were made in April, June, August and late October at rates that varied from 15 pounds to the acre to 300 pounds, an acre.

For most plots with most grasses, the April or early April and the August 13 or later half of August seedings prove best under Michigan conditions, according to C. M. Harrison, MSC grass and pasture specialist. The only seedings which made sufficient cover from a June 21 planting were home grass at 15 pounds an acre, chagr grass and domestic rye grass.

When properly distributed, the seeding rate of 15 pounds to the acre of Kentucky bluegrass, or the wings fescue gave satisfactory cover to an acre as satisfactory as a 150 pound seeding rate and nearly as soon. Similarly, home grass at 15 pounds an acre covered out a good 1/2 a 100-pound seeding. Excessive seeding rate, such as the latter have been used occasionally to a full 1/2 support turf quickly.

Good competition rainfall and temperature were the factors that Harrison found critical in determining the best turf in Michigan.

Most of the June 13 seedings, for instance, were nearly smothered by weeds. August seedings of fescues and bluegrass were superior by Sept. 27 to the June seedings of the same grasses. By July 10 there was solid cover on all April seedings regardless of mixture or rate of seeding.

If Hitler wins, the issue for you will be living itself and not just the cost of living. Think that over and figure it out for yourself how much beyond 16 percent of your family income you should put into War Bonds every payday.

Millions of dollars' worth of material that was paid for by the dollars we saved and invested in War Bonds. Thousands of man hours have been lost.

BEDDING SCARCER TRY SAWDUST Bedding scarce? For livestock on the average Michigan farm feed to suggest that materials other than straw can be used to keep animals clean and comfortable during winter months. Dry sawdust makes suitable bedding material. There is no justification in the belief that sawdust injures the land from tests conducted by the Michigan State Department of Agriculture. State College and surplus material can be used to keep up manure. Twenty-five pounds of dry sawdust will absorb 100 pounds of liquid manure as efficiently as chopped straw. It is true that the sawdust has only about one-third the plant food contained in straw and decays slowly in the soil, but this is not harmful if the material is spread over the land. Used in excessive quantities, without manure, sawdust does take nitrogen from the soil, according to Dr. C. F. Miller of the MSU soil science staff. That is because the carbohydrates in the sawdust require bacterial action supported by nitrogen to decay. In combination with manure the sawdust does not need to rob the soil. Dried peat also has high absorbing ability. Shavings also can be used. Sifted corn stalks are excellent bedding. Since such material has twice as much nitrogen phosphorus and potash as wheat straw, the shredding also aids in corn border control.
