

NEWS of MEN AND WOMEN IN UNIFORM

PICTURES WHICH APPEAR IN THIS WEEK'S RECORD Lieutenant Sam Aldes, Jr., is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Aldes, 55, of Six Mile road. He was born in Indiana but has lived in Northville for fifteen years. Sam attended the Northville High School; played football and the other sports graduated at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

They were separated until they graduated from Mrs. Charles Foele of Royal Oak wrote the President on July 1, 1943. A presidential secretary replied promptly that the President had considered their case favorable and both twins were assigned to Hamilton Field. Both boys are married; both are fathers of sons named after them.

Because of the similarity of names the Foele twins drive army clerks to distraction. Supply sergeants are always charging both of them with the equipment one draws. If one goes out, the other turns up in the area and states his name isn't listed as absent, according to a Mississippi newspaper.

The twins are the sons of Baldwin, Jr., and Mrs. R. Cox

Walter C. Foele of 6495 Highland Boulevard, Walled Lake. He is the "Detroit" inductee center an automobile mechanic and February 26th.

Others in the call are Wallace G. Stocks, Detroit 23, Mich.

Harold C. Schwab, Detroit

Just a line to say hello to all my friends in Northville. This mouth, Michigan. Gerald R. Wilson weight on me already. It has put Plymouth, Mich.; Milton G. Laible, Plymouth, Mich.

Richard J. Holman, Detroit 23, Mich.; David B. Nixon, Plymouth, Mich.; Irving E. Merri-hew, Farmington, Mich.; Kenyon, Plymouth, Mich.

would like to receive the Record, but my address is not definite yet. I must quit now for the whistle just blew to fall out for best of luck to my Northville friends. Sincerely,

Dick Porterfield.

Word has been received by Mrs. F. Masters of Manisfield,

Ohio, from her son, Cpl. Gordon

Banks, who is somewhere in France. He wished to thank the Blue Star Soldier and other Northville people for their kind remembrances and packages.

Not only were the gits well received by Gordon but by the other fellows in his outfit, they said everything was so good they went without chow because they had eaten too much. He sent the letter of the Blue Star League home for a souvenir and two who have served but who have received discharges.

I want to thank you for sending the Record. I received it every week. This is the longest time I have ever been "Ocracoke Island" is terrible. I don't think much of islands and the Record comes in good time. It helps me keep track of the fellows. A good old Northville, it's really top. I want to thank you again for sending the Record. As ever,

Glad Jackson, shipper pool 24c

I have just received your Christmas Greeting and appreciate it very much and as I have a little time I will write to let you know I am all right and doing pretty well. We have been pretty busy lately teaching the Japs who's who. The people here were glad to see us and now nad then we get bananas and other things to eat. They have sweet watermelons which are really good

Have also some very pretty girls only we can't stay long enough in one place. This is pretty country and right now it's quiet with only an occasional big gun sounding off.

The other day I found a Jap saber and a rifle and bayonet in France. The last time I saw a Frenchman he was back in Italy as soon as I can I'll bring them home with a regular outfit out of space. Say hello to all for I'll have the same address me. Sincerely,

Paul Flowers.

Frank J. Defina, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Defina, 311

Yates Street, is now receiving his initial Naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois. When his recruit training is completed, the seaman will receive a period of leave.

H. U. S. Strategic Air Force

Station in England. Lieutenant

Howard R. Ebersole, husband of the former Mary M. Gotts of Franklin Road, Waterford, recently arrived in this war theatre at operations and received a letter of commendation from the station designed to help him adjust himself to life in a com-battalion. Lt. Ebersole will soon transfer to his permanent station from which America's fighting planes cover our advance into Germany. Prior to entering the Army Air Forces, he was employed as a Radio Operator by the Ford Motor Co. in Dearborn.

"Aids" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, Febr-

"There is a spirit in man and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding."

Among the Biblical citations is this passage (Romans 12:2): "And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

Navy Couple Wed in Candlelight Service

In a candlelight ceremony, home for a large number of guests, Mrs. Wilson Clark and Mrs. Charles Waterman presided. The bride, Mrs. Charles Williams of Portage, Wisconsin, was the officiating minister. Rev. W. Leslie Williams officiated.

The church was decorated in "Tea" colors. Blanche is the daughter of Mrs. Barton Connors Miller and Mrs. Walter Miller was the organist and played at the service. Mrs. Miller graduated from Northville High School, graduating in 1938.

sister, Mrs. Donald Waterman, in the class of 1940. Enlisting in the WAVES she was singing "Because" and "Love You Truly."

The bride who was given in training school. She entered service in April 1944 and has been stationed at Ottumwa, Iowa.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur G. Williams of Portage, Wisconsin. He attended Portage High School and previous to entering the service October 3, 1942, he was employed at the Badger Ordnance Works, Babcock, Wisconsin.

Williams has had nineteen months active sea duty in the South Pacific.

They wore gowns fashioned of blue marquisette, long full sleeves and sweetheart neckline. The headresses were heart-shaped and matched the gowns.

Following the service a reception was held in the church.

The groom's best man was Don Waterman of Northville and the ushers were Lynn Partridge of Plymouth and Bill Pope of Redford.

The bride's mother wore a "colored" crepe dress and her corsage was yellow roses.

Following the service a reception was held in the church.

Sponsor Bird House Contest

Once again the Northville branch of the National Farm and Garden Association will sponsor a bird house contest in the village.

Mrs. Edward C. Mollema is chairman of this project. Assisting her are E. C. Mollema and Ray V. Hildreth, both High School shop teachers.

The ladies of the Northville Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Thelma Schoutz on Cadet street Monday, March 12, for their regular meeting and there will be in a body of the High school where the winners are to be announced.

The names of the three judges will be announced later. The bird houses will be on display at a local store after March 12.

Entries are open for boys enrolled in the Recreation and general shop classes. Several bird houses are already in the process of construction by boys who have been among the first to enter the contest.

GOOD PROGRAMS AT CLUB

About 150 members of the Northville Woman's Club, their husbands and other guests attended the annual Men's night dinner and program held in the Presbyterian church house last Friday evening. Ladies of the church served a delicious dinner.

In spite of the rationing problem, and after introductory remarks by the club president and program chairman, the High School glee club sang three delightful numbers led by Leslie G. Lee of the school music faculty. The talk which followed, by the Very Rev. Kirk B. O'Reilly, D.D., held the attention of every one present, from beginning to end. Rev. O'Reilly, who is dean of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit, told of his visits to Germany in 1933, '36 and '38 and explained the mental attitude of Germans in this present war in relation to what should be done by the Allies.

Mrs. Paul A. Bayless of west Eight Mile road, will act as leader of Troop 8, replacing Mrs.

Leatrice Morgan Putnam of Seven Mile road, has agreed to show the Girl Scouts how to grow seeds in flower pots and transplant the plants, demonstrating each step of the process.

Mrs. Putnam was formerly connected with the Perry Seed Co. Other Northvillians who have hobbies which would interest the Girl Scouts will be welcomed as speakers at future meetings.

As seen as the weather breaks so that junior service is not needed the Scout building corner Dunlap and Hutton avenue, will be used for some of the Girl Scout meetings.

Mrs. Paul A. Bayless of west Eight Mile road, will act as leader of Troop 8, replacing Mrs.

March 2 is the next meeting date for the club. An afternoon
