Dear Sirs:

We were surprised to see each other when we visited my camp yesterday. I didn't know that he had been wounded so I wasn't expecting to see him so soon. To help matters, one of my buddies met Bob in a hospital and told him that I was either missing or dead. So when Bob came up here to find out what happened to me we really enjoyed the fact that we're both all right. My heart still aches that I'm dead so I'm going to enjoy myself when they get here. In an article in the Record it states that I'm in a Reconstruction company instead of in a Reconnaissance Company. There is quite bit of difference between the two. Bob Strong is enjoying the mistake. In closing I want to thank you very much for sending the Record.

Sincerely, Gene Nitze

Jerry E. Nelson S 1/c, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Nelson of Fairbrook Avenue, writes, "I was one of a picked group of sailors to march in the Army Day Parade here on Fish Avenue in New York City last Saturday. The parade was 30 blocks long and sailors, marines and waves marched. We sailors had to wear our dress blues and boots, carry our cartridge belt and bayonet. For carrying an extra good showing the sailors were given a 70 hour leave."

Edward Angove has been promoted from a 2nd term 1st Lieutenant. He is now in charge of the Base Weather Station at Van Nuys, California.

Homer Jackson of Davison visited at the home of his uncle, Leroy Stewart of Main Street. Jackson is a pilot of a B-29 in the Army Air Corps.

Cpl. Andrew Torok, Jr., of the United States Marine Corps sent a Bazooka Rocket to his parents, the Andrew Toroks, of Carpenter street. It is now on display in the Record window. Andy is in the Pacific with the 5th Marine Division.

Lt. (jg) J. Paul Terry is on a 36 day leave after serving in the southwest Pacific. Lt. and Mrs. Terry arrived in the village Friday evening from the east where Mrs. Terry went to meet her husband. The couple will divide their time between their apartment on Thayer Blvd. and the homes of out-of-town relatives.

C/N Shirley MacLean was home over the weekend. She is the daughter of the Donald MacLeans of Fairbrook Road. Shirley has been in Grace Hospital as a patient for the past month. She was to return to training duty Monday.

The two service sons of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller of First Street write that they have recently been in hospitals. Pvt. Jerry in Germany, for treatment of sinus and Paratrooper Roger in France for rest and treatment of an injured hand. Both Miller's figure that they were in the Holland jump and Jerry says he and his buddies sat on the bank of the Rhine and watched the Jerries across on the other bank just before he was sent to the hospital.

Sgt. Cecil Nieder writes that he is sending home the Purple Heart awarded to him for wounds received March 5, in the Italian mountains. He is the younger son of Mrs. Anna Nieder of north Rogers street.

California from 3 to 2½ per cent in 1942. Michigan and Washington are the only states which have a 3 per cent tax with no exemption of foods. Neither of these states has an income tax. North Carolina and Ohio, other 3 per cent states, exempt sales of food for consumption off the premises. Verily, the Michigan sales tax is the goose that lays the golden dollars—$100 millions estimated for the current year!

More about Blaney Park in the Upper Peninsula.

We have always looked for our ultimate return to the timber growing on the land rather than to the resort phase of the development," writes G. Harold Earle, president. "The things we did not realize about the resort phase include the fact that we didn't anticipate a most severe and prolonged depression during the major portion of the development of our project, to be followed by a world war, and more recently an attitude upon the part of Government generally unfavorable to business, and invasion of the threat of invasion of the field of private enterprise by government."

The two items alone, if they survive the sharpshooters, would cover the one-sixth of the state sales tax on production of the intangibles tax to produce approximately $7 million in profits and a hike in the state's profit from liquor sales to effect an increase of six millions in state revenues.

The two items alone, if they survive the sharpshooters, would cover the one-sixth of the state sales tax on the part of Government generally unfavorable to business, and invasion of the threat of invasion of the field of private enterprise by government.

"It was these things that caused me to say we might not be imposed on cigarettes and beer—two additional revenue possibilities suggested by we had known Governor Kelly, in a left-hand strategic move, to put the war and all of those things on the defensive."

The Earle brothers Harold and

Stewart still retain faith in the most promising future for both resort and recreational development in the Upper Peninsula.

Earle objects to reference to the Upper Peninsula as a "tough country," a description originated by John Martin, author of "This North

County," and quoted recently in this column.

Earle says his grandfather was not responsible for extension of the railroad to Hermansville.

The railroad was built as a branch from Powers to Quinnesec because of the opening of the iron mines there and happened to go through the location of Hermansville.

Your 1945 Garden
Good Practices
Produce Better

EVERY Victory garden should be tailored individually to the family it is expected to feed and to the space available for gardening.

In planning the 1945 garden every gardener will do well if he looks over the experience of the past year or two and tries to meet more needs of the appetites and food preferences of his own family. If any crop went to waste because the family did not care for the product, it is good gardening to admit it entirely in this year's planting or to cut it down so that the family will use. Use the space saved to grow something that is in demand.

First of all in planning the garden, a plot of land suitable for a town, or even a country garden, must be in the open where it can get direct sunlight at least six hours a day, with no obstructing trees or buildings.

The plot must be well drained, rich, deep sandy loam free from rocks, but such a soil is rarely found. Unless a soil is of such character that it can be tilled it is best to let it go, and then plant it into a loose crumbly condition. It will be difficult to work, if not definitely unsuitable, to vegetable growing. Land that is nearly level is best because it is easier to work and is less likely to be damaged through washing by heavy rains.

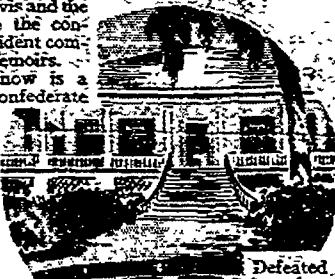

Convenience of the garden location is more important than might

Summer Skating Season Opens

Walled Lake Park announces the opening of the Summer season starting with four pre-season weekend openings before the Grand Opening on May 11.

The first preview will be this coming Friday, Saturday and Sunday, April 10th, 11th and 12th and will be followed by every Friday, Saturday and Sunday until May 11th when the big resort will swing into full operation.

Holler Skating will be the big feature in the early openings. The large Rink has been redecorated and put in first class condition for the thousands of skating enthusiasts who are awaiting their chance to again enjoy this popular Oakland County Resort.

New music of a sensational character will be offered for the first time, for special equipment has been developed during the winter months and is now ready for the pre-season openings.

Picnic bookings are coming in rapidly. Advantage was taken of the wonderful Fall weather after the park closed last year to resurface the two large baseball diamonds and the huge parking field. Two hundred new trees were planted and the ball diamonds were fenced in.

Then there was the one about the Scrimshaw who was found wandering around the streets of Northville. He was carrying an inner tube and asking where he could find a Free Air Station.

It is first important that definite plans be laid out for the garden.

be supposed. It should be as close to the home as a suitable place can be found because the gardener needs some attention almost every day. Even when it is too hot to plant or cultivate, the gardener should see it every day or two so as to follow all developments and know in advance what work needs to be done. Timelessness is a surprisingly large element in a successful garden.

There is no "right" way to arrange or plan a home garden. The gardener is urged to consider his own needs, the climate of his locality and his own particular garden spot in planning and arranging his garden. Conditions and details of methods of growing plants differ so widely over the country that it is impossible to give a uniform plan of growing vegetables that would fit all sections of the country.

A garden much larger than it is wise is generally more convenient to work. It matters little whether the rows run north or south east or west, but on a sloping area it is important that the rows run across the slope, not up and down, so that rainfall may be held on or in the soil, instead of running down the sloping rows, carrying away the soil.

The sweet young thing asked how golf is played.
"It's easy enough," came the reply, "you just smack the ball and then walk."
"How interesting!" she commented. "just like some auto rides I've been on."

is still a good old American Custom

WE AMERICANS are noted for being tolerant about mistakes and inconveniences that happen for unavoidable reasons.

In spite of shortages in coal, equipment, gas, tires and labor, we are still determined to conduct our business in a courteous manner. We must all recognize the serious aspect of our problem; we must sacrifice... but certainly we can do so without anger and discourtesy.

This year domestic coal will be harder to get than ever... concerted action on the part of both user and dealer is necessary if we are to be kept warm next winter.

We want to make your heating problem as easy as possible, but we must face the situation squarely. You can cooperate by filing your Consumer Declaration at once; by taking delivery whenever coal and labor make it possible; by being patient with our numerous shortcomings. Help us to help you. At least courtesy is not rationed.

The Indians, Tigers and Moosebacks finished in the order named. Rev. W. Leslie Williams, secretary of the league presented Harry German, the captain of the winners with a hand painted framed picture depicting the championship race in a graphic and most expressive manner.

The four teams were shown on parade with the Foxhounds in the lead, an Indian with rattled tomahawk about to slaughter the leaders, while a sorrowful Tiger trailed and Old Mooseback with whiskers and walking stick brought up the rear; the sad figure indeed. The picture was the handiwork of Mrs. Jane L. Langford.

A Woman's Plea

Just give me a man
With a million or two
Or one that is handsome
Would certainly do.
A dashing young fellow
I could any day.
Or one that is famous
Would suit me O.K.
But if the gals shortage
Should get any worse

SOLDIERS

met. It was good to see Herman and surprising to find that he hadn't changed a bit.

It did me good to see some one with a red-hot nose than mine. He was on patrol duty last night and stopped in at our place to see if I wanted to ride around with him until a little after the 10 o'clock curfew. I didn't have to be coaxed to go.

Most of the talking was done by Herman but I would have been offended had he not "jabbed" on describing everything he had seen or done since coming overseas.

He must have had a rough time of it on Leyte. There was one enraging incident he related to me. He and his buddies were directing traffic to the front, which was only a few hundred yards away, when suddenly the Japs cut loose with everything they had. Herman dived into a ditch for protection and landed right on a dead Jap. His pal up the line had noticed the shells landing in Herman's area, so he asked the ambulance driver, who was making an emergency run, to tell that next M.P. to wave to him if he's in there. So Herman stood up and they waved to each other just as another shell exploded. Shrapnel tore through the ground where he was standing. Two of his buddies rode around.

Herman was lucky to come home safe because he has been up at the front with no time for letter writing.

I guess no one knows that he got the Bronze Star for his work on Leyte so I'll send the word along to you. Won't he be proud and Uncle (Milt) and Grandpa (Sam) will be proud.

He's a real guy with plenty of guts according to his bud,

Almighty we were saved from the shelling and bombing. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

Well I'm writing this by flashlight and will do so for the rest of the night.

Love, Dale.
