

VICTORY IN EUROPE!

Teamwork of United Nations
Ends Long, Bitter Struggle;
U. S. Turns to Job in Pacific

Eleven hard and bitter months after General Dwight D. Eisenhower's armies smashed through the ramparts of "Fortress Europe" to set foot upon French soil, Germany's once proud wehrmacht, weakened after six years of the bloodiest war in history, bowed the knee unconditionally to the Allied powers.

The end saw Nazi generals capitulate to U. S., British and General Dwight D. Eisenhower, at left, laid plans for a complete and rapid defeat of Germany, as well as a world's peace to follow. Insert shows President Truman who, upon taking office, announced his support of the post-war policies developed at the Yalta Conference. These men then directed the final assault on Hitler's Germany.

Russian representatives even as enemy die-hards held out to the last in Czechoslovakia and Norway.

Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz's order to German troops to cease firing came as a sort of anti-climax since the bulk of the Nazis forces already had laid down their arms in the face of the Allied avalanche. And if 29,100,000 Nazis surrendered in northern Italy and western Austria; May 4, another 1,000,000 gave up in Holland and Denmark, and on May 5, 40,000 quit in southern Germany.

As the stiff-necked Germans officially admitted defeat rather than the beaten country's new masters contained any illusions as to the character of the Allied terms, with Foreign Minister Count Ludwig Schuman, Voo Krosigk telling the people:

"... Nobody must deceive himself on the harshness of the terms.... Nobody must have any doubt that heavy sacrifices will be demanded from us in all spheres of life...."

Thus did the European war come to its end six years after the mighty German army, striking at the unprepared western powers, rolled through Poland, invaded the lowlands and France, and then turned back to the east again to challenge giant Russia.

As the Germans capitulated, behind them lay the remnants of a once all-powerful army, which, like Napoleon's, underestimating the vast steppes of Russia, and then found the U. S. and Britain gathering force behind its back; behind them lay the remains of Germany's disintegration was the U. S. 1st army's surprise capture of the Ludendorff bridge spanning the Rhine below Cologne, permitting Lt. Gen Courtney Hodges to build up a powerful bridgehead, immediately below the vital Ruhr district and on the edge of the rolling plains leading eastward to Berlin.

As the 1st army's bold move threw the German command on the defensive, the remaining Allied forces to the west were forced to the Rhine, lost form daily water. Farther south in the center of the Reich, while British and Canadian troops struck out against eastern Holland and the North sea ports, the U. S. 9th army set about reducing the Ruhr valley while one wing of the 1st joined in the attack and another kept step with Gen. George Patton's famed armored columns dashing eastward across the Reich. Mean-while, the French 1st armies drove into the Nazis' mythical region in the Bavarian Alps.

As the American and British armies sliced through the German positions and turned to their rearward to isolate the enemy into separate pockets, the whole enemy's front lost its coherence, contributing to the disintegration of Nazi resistance.

With whole groups of German troops entrapped without hope of reinforcement, their defense was removed from the great event with the result that the nation accepted the news with restraint. As Germany's fall was substantiated, people looked to the east where the Japs still seemed to be defeated and the entire resources of the navy and well over 6,000,000 troops may be needed to assure victory.

With America scheduled to take over the occupation of central and western Germany and western Austria in accordance with Allied plans to maintain strict supervision over the country until a thoroughly democratic administration can be established, U. S. military authorities figure on the detention of 400,000 Nazis in Europe.

No sooner had the American and British armies thrown back the Nazis' last supreme effort in the west in the battle of the Belgian border than the Russians got their great winter offensive under way.

REPORTS CONFIRMED

When the real V-E Day came, most U. S. citizens got absolute confirmation of the news before starting victory celebrations. They remembered the false reports of Saturday, April 28, that had swept over the nation only to be eliminated by a White House denial of the peace rumor. Pres. Harry S. Truman said at that time that he had been in contact with General Eisenhower and that there was "no foundation" for the peace report.

Northville Celebrates V-E Day In Thoughtful Silence

7th War Loan Drive Now Underway Here

Schools and Village Seeking to Give Quota Raising of $340,000.00 Flying Start for May 14th Kickoff

Northville, inspired by the thoughts of V-E Day, tackles the huge job of meeting its quota of $340,000.00 in the Seventh War Loan Drive, which officially gets underway this week.

More than ever it is urged that the prayers of V-E Day be transformed into works by the continued and greater purchase of bonds in the present drive.

The children of the public schools have attacked the problem with renewed vigor which will give the community a fine running start on its large quota in this drive. The school had up to May 4th, raised 20% of its quota of $70.00 per pupil. The school has already sold $13,225.00 of its quota of 20.2% with the grade school having sold out the high school rooms for the first period. It is hoped that the sales through the school pupils will reach such a volume that the success of the drive here will be assured.

Caught in a giant muckrake, the German high command made its last desperate bid, opening the sluice gates of the huge Ruhr river dams in the hope of impeding the U. S. 1st and 9th armies' threat to the Rhine, while reportedly shifting its armored units to the east to combat the Russians.

Once the 1st and 9th armies had crossed the Roer's subsiding floodwaters, however, and the British and Canadians joined the push from Holland in the north and the U. S. 3rd and 7th armies from the Saar and Alsace to the south, General Eisenhower's Siegfried Line gathered increasing momentum.

The first big break that stabilized Germany's disintegration was the U. S. 1st army's surprise capture of the Ludendorff bridge spanning the Rhine below Cologne, permitting Lt. Gen Courtney Hodges to build up a powerful bridgehead, immediately below the vital Ruhr district and on the edge of the rolling plains leading eastward to Berlin.

As the 1st army's bold move threw the German command on the defensive, the remaining Allied forces to the west were forced to the Rhine, lost form daily water. Meanwhile, the French 1st armies drove into the Nazis' mythical region in the Bavarian Alps.

As the American and British armies sliced through the German positions and turned to their rearward to isolate the enemy into separate pockets, the whole enemy's front lost its coherence, contribut-

The National plan will be followed, and the Northville churches will be open and will observe prayers for the safety and well-being of our young men and women who are taking part in the mass invasion of enemy territory.

Plans are now progressing so nicely on the completion of the Northville Honor Roll Board that arrangements are being made to unveil the board on Memorial Day.

ELECTRO-MECHANICAL BRAIN... Do you know that your electric bill is figured entirely by an "electro-mechanical brain," with no human computations entering into it? Little holes punched in a card furnish the "brain" all the information needed for preparing your bill—such as your account number, class of service, present and previous meter readings, etc. From the time our meter reader marks your reading on a card, the "electro-mechanical brain" takes over—subtracting, multiplying, adding, checking and printing your bill. The chances of human error are almost entirely eliminated. Next time you receive your Edison bill, notice the little perforations: they are the "key" to this automatic billing.

Rites at Providence, R. I., Unite Popular Young Couple

By Leasa Gursell and length dress with trimming of yellow daisies and a matching hat having a shadow late bloom.

It was announced in November of last year, they were married at 10 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, May 2, in the Central Congregational church in Providence, Rhode Island. The Rev. Arthur Bradford, D. D. performed the double ring ceremony in daylight.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Gursell of Northville, was given in marriage by her mother, Marilyn, living in Apponaug, Rhode Island, near the Quonset Point base where Douglas has been stationed since returning to the states from Cuba and Trinidad, South America.

Marilyn, who lived in Northville for a number of years, graduated from Northville High in 1943. She attended the University of Michigan for three terms and remained at home this past year to assist her father at the Gursell Drug store.

Douglas is well known in this village having played for many of the school dancing parties with an orchestra composed of Northville High school boys, he being an accomplished pianist.

A graduate of Plymouth High in 1942, Douglas studied at Michigan State for a year, leaving to enter the U. S. Navy in 1943. Receiving training at Great Lakes and Purdue University, he was sent overseas, serving in Guadalcanal and Trinidad for a year and a half.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout troop 5 has six new members: Janice Lazar, Ellen Stark, Beverly Fly, Barbara Roff and Theresa Duchesneau. Barbara Consey.

Troop 3 met for their regular business meeting last week Thursday at the Presbyterian church. Mrs. Muriel Allen is the new assistant leader. Plans were discussed for the next meeting which is to be held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Clarke on West street. The troop planned to prepare supper and invite their troop committee.

The Brownie Scouts have contributed $22.09 toward the proposed Parkview hospital.

The Brownies honored their mothers with a tea in the Presbyterian church May 10.

Regular weekly meetings of troops in the Presbyterian church house are scheduled as follows:

Wednesday 4 p.m. Troop 4.

Thursday 3:30 p.m. Brownies.

4 p.m. Troops 3 and 5.

Mrs. George Kahl was honored Saturday night when fourteen Northville ladies gave a pantry shower in the newly purchased farm home of the Kahls on Walled Lake road just the other side of Novi. Mr. and Mrs. Kahl formerly lived on Wing street.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cassie, Sr., at Walled Lake was the scene of the wedding of their daughter, Lillian, to Albert Riley, also of Walled Lake, on Wednesday evening of last week. Rev. Neiman performed the double ring service in the presence of fifty guests.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua street length dress with an orchid corsage. Her attendant was Miss Alice Bentley, of Walled Lake, whose dress was old lace and her corsage, gardenias.

Donald Riley acted as best man for the bridegroom.

Mrs. Cassie was attired in blue and wore pink roses and carnations, while the groom's mother, Mrs. R. Riley, wore black and white with the same flowers.

A reception was later held for 300 guests, who came from Cleveland, Detroit, Pontiac and Northville.

Entertainment were Mrs. John Riley, Mrs. Ivan Cox, Mrs. John Erick and Miss Bentley.

Flowers and candles decorated the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Riley went to Canada for a few days, the bride wearing a travel costume of brown and white. The young couple will make their home at Walled Lake.

The bride, a former Northville resident, graduated from Northville High school with the class of 1931 and studied at Michigan State Normal College for a year. Mr. Riley, a graduate of Walled Lake High school, owns a gas station in that village.

YOU'VE EARNED THIS CELEBRATION!

But—let's not let up until FULL Victory

Who can blame Americans for going half mad with joy as Hitler's cruel war machine is smashed into the dust! For all who have fought and worked and suffered grievous loss, this hour of triumph is deserved.

But our men are still fighting and dying out there in the Pacific. If we let down now, we'll be letting them down!

Let's stick to our war jobs until Uncle Sam says, "Well done—you can relax!"

ELGIN Watches

Many of you want Elgin watches. And while we're sorry we can't supply you, we can be mighty thankful that the Elgin Watch Company was busy, even before Pearl Harbor, making precision instruments and timing devices our fighting husbands, sons and brothers need. For not infrequently their very lives depend upon these products. When you think of that, your purchase of an Elgin watch must seem less urgent now.

After Elgin's assigned war tasks are finished, you'll be able to choose from a grand array of new Elgin watches in this store . . . Elgins more brilliantly styled than before. Dependably accurate, they'll be timed to the stars.

The beginning of the gigantic life-and-death struggle known as World War II is generally set as September 1, 1939, the day the German armies rolled into Poland. Two days later France and England declared war on Germany.

Blitzkrieg tactics flattened Polish resistance in less than a month. Then began the half year of "phony war" at the Maginot line. In the spring of 1940 German troops overran Norway and Denmark, forcing the British. Early in May the campaign that frightened the entire world opened.

September, 1940, saw the massed air attacks on Britain by which Hitler hoped for a quick victory. The RAF held off the Nazi bombers until winter, when weather brought a slackening of attacks. That autumn of 1940 was probably the period of greatest peril to civilization in many centuries. Britain almost succumbed.

During the spring of 1941 Nazi troops smashed into the Balkans to aid the Italians, invading Yugoslavia and Greece. Hitler's proud Axis voluntarily Germany controlled all of continental Europe except Russia by the middle of the year.

Without warning on June 22, Nazi armies crossed the Russian frontier in a tremendous drive.

As alarmed America prepared for defense, Japan attacked without warning at Pearl Harbor in the Hawaiian Islands and the U.S. was immediately at war with both Japan and Germany.

By mid-1941 American Marines stopped the Japs in Guadalcanal. In Africa the British halted the drive on the Suez canal and counterattacked successfully. The Russians epic defense of Stalingrad stalled the

... but there is still another one to win. Before we can win the war against Japan, there is the gigantic problem of supplying and moving the troops from the European theater to the Pacific. The army estimates that 8,000,000 foot-soldiers will be needed to defeat Japan. Our entire navy and air forces will be required. Some men will be released from service if the individual call will be determined on total service, overseas service, combat service, and/or service of dependents. The task of the army will not be easiest.

Divisions will be regrouped to bring them up to newest strength. It will take several months to organize, train, and pack equipment before the units are ready to sail against Japan. Some advise a year longer. They
