WELL, GOD, here we are.

You up there. Me down here, with a burning sun, a mess of insects, too much ocean, and other buddies just as lonely as me.

Oh, God, how nice it must be back home, with Germany licked, and the folks humoring, and some of the boys all finished with the fighting.

But I guess that wasn't meant for me, was it? And tomorrow and tomorrow I'll still be dodging bullets, still feeling lost in the middle of the night.

Well, no hard feelings.

I'll go wherever You say, and do whatever You want me to. For You know what's best for me.

But say, if You can only get the people back home to remember me, maybe they'll still bear down. Maybe they'll still send us their blood, still stay on the job, still keep making the stuff we need.

You see, God, I'd like to get home, too.

As a member of the band on this ship, Bentley helps arrange programs of entertainment for the crew when the ship returns from battle action and there has been plenty of battle action in the past seven months. This battleship helped cover the landing at Leyte, played a prominent role in the battles of Surigao Straits last October, assisted in the landing on Mindoro and is busy enough to receive a transfer down pre-invasion to Washington, D. Once out of the forward combat zone, Bentley is kept very busy because the band has a full schedule each day. It plays military music in the morning, a concert program at noon and swing songs in the afternoon of early evening. The band always plays before each moving picture show aboard ship, and members of the band provide religious music at Sunday church services.

"Each of you," he continued, "is doing his part in the defeat of Germany. I am proud of you. The world is proud of you."

The Eighth Air Force was the world's mightiest strategic bombing force. Its personnel of 185,000 was the equivalent of 12 infantry divisions, and if it could send 21,000 airmen in 2,000 four-bomber flights over Germany, it is one thing I can say for the U. S. Army, they really have a wonderful hospital system. A dinner for the wedding party followed the service at one of the Quantico hotels, after which the bride and groom left for a three day stay at Washington, D. C. Each then returned to their base, Marjorie to Quantico, and Pfc. Diamond to Camp Lejeune.

Marjorie has lived in Northville for seven years, graduating from N.H.S. in 1940. She spent some time at Fort Hospital as an apprentice nurse and then went to work in the office of the Kelsey-Hayes Co. She left to enlist in the Women's Marine Corps March 6, 1944. Training at Camp Lejeune, she completed a thirteen weeks' course, advanced in rank to Pfc. and was sent to Quantico where she is serving in the quartermaster's office.

Pfc. Pat Heen of San Diego, Calif., was bridesmaid and T/Sgt. Glenn Biggs, stationed at Camp Lejeune, N.C., was best man.

The bride wore her summer uniform of white, as did the bridesmaids. Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Pemberthy of south Wing street went down for the wedding. Mr.

Pemberthy giving his daughter in marriage. For the ceremony Mrs. Pemberthy wore a two piece dress of aqua silk, with white hat and accessories.

S. J. Russell, unable to attend his sister's wedding as he was on sea duty, sent a telegram instead. Both Marjorie and Russell were home recently on furloughs.

Ensign Albert J. Boelens, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Boelens of Grandview are, was also a principal in a recent June weddin

Rev. Fr. John Navy Chaplain, read the marriage service in St. James' Cathedral, Spokane Wash., for Charlotte Kircher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kircher of Balfour Road, Grosse Pointe, and Ensign Boelens. The cathedral altar was decorated with late spring flowers and lighted candles and the wedding mass was sung.

The bride's floor length gown was of aqua net over taffeta and she carried white orchids. Her veil was held in place by a halo of net. The couple were attended by Mrs. Sequit of San Francisco, as matron of honor, and Lt. Small of Tacoma, as best man.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, at the Canfield hotel in Spokane, and that evening a reception took place at the Officers' Club.

The newly married couple expect to stay in Seattle until sailing orders arrive for the groom, who was home only recently, on a thirty-day leave. During that time the bride was a visitor in the Boelens home.

Albert has always lived in Northville, attending the Northville schools where he was a top athlete. He graduated from High school with the class of '38. After a period of employment in the Higgins defense plant, he enrolled in Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti. About a year and a half ago he left college to enlist and went to Alma college and to Columbia University, N.Y., for Navy V-12 training. Albert has served in the south Pacific area for about six months, on a transport troop carrier.

MORSE-STALKER

A wedding of interest to Northville people occurred Friday, June 1, when Mildred Morse of Lansing and Carl Stalker of Detroit were united in marriage at the Bushnell Congregational church.
