THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Two decades ago we had worked a year on a South Bend daily newspaper now extinct at the same time when Charlie Butterworth Hollywood film comic was on the police beat. Ring Gardner of Niles had left the staff to win fame in Chicago.

A reunion on Beaver Island of all places in the world, why this one?

Hatless, his face tanned by the winds and sun, Stevie had been painting two fishing boats on the dock. An old Plymouth sedan, badly worn with part of one rear window missing, provided transportation to his log cabin on Sandy Key, down a few miles from St. James. There he lived with an elderly sister. From rental of fishing boats, he managed to get along.

He confided: "You can live on five or six dollars a week food expense. There's no place to go on Beaver Island - no night clubs, no movie shows. You can't buy the finest air in the world bartered every minute of the day and night by Lake Michigan at every point of the compass. Sure I'm nuts about this place. I haven't a care in the world."

We had left Charlevoix at 9:30 a.m. on the conservation department patrol. No. 1, a 75-foot diesel-powered craft, commanded by a grand man, "Cap" Charles J. Allers. The patrol boat was on a regularly scheduled trip to inspect fish nets. Allers is a native of South Haven and Beaver Island, and his father had been a "salt water man," owner and master of sailing schooners out of South Haven. In fact, one of the last sailing vessels operated on the Great Lakes was owned by "Cap's" father while the family resided at St. James, back in 1883.

Let's introduce you to his crew. Erwin Belfy, assistant supervisor and first mate, doubled at the Shamrock Inn, the island's combination tavern and social center, as aide to the charter-promoter, Richard LaFraniere. Dick, his son-in-law, doubles as justice of the peace. One of Dick's trials held at the tavern, exiled a drunken Indian to work 90 days in a lumber camp. Justice on Beaver Island is stern.

Then there is Richard "Dick" Lahti, story-telling conservation officer who once served seven years in jail for the great forest fire. Emil Pischner, engineer-cook, is as handy in the kitchen as he is in the engine room, with no exceptions. Emil's whitefish dinner while we were en route to High Island was the finest we have ever consumed. That is a sincere compliment to Emil, and perhaps also, to the appetite-stimulating climate of the Beavers?

Beaver Islands, 42 miles from Charlevoix by a 10-mile-por-tour boat, are one of three archipelagoes at the northern rim of Lake Michigan. Just off the Lower Peninsula are the North and South Manitou Islands. Next lie the Foxes, North Fox and South Fox. At the northern end are the eight Beavers, including Beaver, Garden, High, Hogback, and Whisky.

Included among the beaten paths, St. James is an easy-going fishing village, the Michigan capital of Irish fishermen. Until a few years ago, no lamps provided household illumination, and a board walk linked the white-painted stores along the curving harbor thoroughfare.

Dan "Turner" Boyle, Irish fisherman, born on Beaver Island in 1872, is a fine specimen of robust health—bright pink cheeks, sparkling eyes, pure-white hair, with an effectionate smile and laugh. His voice is somewhat hoarse, but a singularly breezy.

"My father was Dan Boyle, and so was his father before him," said Dan who is known to every-

BITUMEN

My father had a son named Dan Boyle. His father was an Iris-Volunteer, you know. It's an Irish name, I suppose. He came to Beaver Island near Canada. A sea-faring man, he always goes to sea, say, to sail. Sure, the Irish do farming in many of them. It's easier to make a living on boats than farming—one reason why you see so many deserted farms on Beaver Island."

St. James with its lazy atmosphere was so named by King Strang, lawyer editor, who several years ago visited the Settlement of 1883 just 90 years ago.

King Strang was at the height of his bizarre career. At the picturesque harbor was a cluster of log buildings. A big tabernacle dominated the landscape.

Strang, lawyer editor, visited the Mormon settlement at Au-toe, Illinois, in 1844 and became a convert. When Joseph Smith

Moses of the Mormons, was killed by a mob at Carthage, a chapter of early American intolerance.

Strang claimed title as Smith's successor. The Mormon college of twelve elected Brigham Young who then led the historic trek to Salt Lake City.

Strang established a rival kingdom, first at Spring Prairie, Wisconsin, and later at St. James on Beaver Island.

It's a defiance of conventional morality led to his undoing, and ultimately, his death. The Irish on Mackinac Island and Pine River (Charlevoix) regarded him as an infidel and a pirate. Two jealous Mormon followers, some of whom were characterized by Surveyor Forster as the "lowest kind of white trash ignorant, leisurely introduced you to his crew. Erwin Belfy, assistant "Christian Science" will be the

The Golden Text, (Hebrew 12:

12, 13) is: "Lift up your hands which hang down and feeble knees; and make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather be healed."

Among the Bible citations is this passage (John 14:12): "Verily, Verily, I say unto you: He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

Four June Weddings Claim Interest this Week

BUTCHER-ANGOVE

The marriage of Angove, Ann, daughter of Robert Louis Angove, took place at altar in Saint Alphonsus Church in Dearborn, Rev. Fr. Sylvester Van Hemert officiating. The parents are the Stephen Paul Butchers of Dearborn. Mr. Angove is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Angove, of Northville. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white printed muslin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. The neckline of the dress were tea roses, daisies, and blue-larks.

Miss Marie Angove, sister of the groom, was a bridesmaid along with Miss Virginia Burke and Mrs. William Keegan Jr. of Dearborn. They were dressed in two tiny seed pearl pins. The full matching gowns of yellow dotted silk of the dress was made with a ruffled plenum down the back. A three-tiered veil was caught by two orange blossom clusters on each side. The bridal bouquet consisted of white roses centered with a white carnation.

Mrs. Roland Boundin, maid of honor, wore a dress of USNA. The bride's mother was gowned in a salmon blue dotted swiss. The bride's mother was gowned in a coral crepe dress with aqua neckline outlined by tiny ruffles and navy accessories. Mrs. Angove was dressed in navy blue silk with a basque top and full skirt fashion. Both wore navy accessories. Both wore down the back. Her head dress was a star-shaped net cap with flowers on each side. The colonial bouquet comprised yellow carnations.

The couple left for a honeymoon in Chicago, and had planned to later reside in Highland Park, Illinois but orders sent the groom to New York Wednesday.

Several out-of-town guests attended the wedding ceremony and reception.

Mrs. Angove attended Michigan State Normal College where she received her degree and since then has been on the faculty of the Dearborn schools.

The groom attended the Northville schools graduating in 1936. He then attended Michigan State Normal College and Michigan State College, receiving his degree from the latter. He entered the Navy two and a half years ago and has been stationed in the 23rd Regimental office.

EAREHART-MONTGOMERY

WALKER-EATON

The Northville Methodist Church was the scene Saturday night of the marriage of Ida Marie Walker, 2nd Lt. Louis C. Eaton, USNRA. Ida Marie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William S. Walker, Jr. of Happy Acres, Northville, and Louis, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Eaton of Eaton Drive, Northville. The Rev. W. Leslie Williams read the double ring ceremony by candlelight with giant bouquets of white peonies, Delphinium and colored snapdragons at the altar rail. Mrs. Conners played "Because" and "I Love You Truly" before the ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore heavy white net with deep gathered lace at neckline and sleeves. Her gown had a bustle-effect back with cascading ruffles to the edge of her long train. She wore a finger-tip veil with diamond-shaped head-piece decorated with a cluster of tiny pearls. Her attendants were Miss Dorothy Witt of Van Nuys, California, as Maid of Honor, and Miss Doris Tewksbury, of Northville, and Mrs. Paul Beard of Romulus, Michigan, as bridesmaids. The girls' dresses were of Mikrosuite, with ruffles in bustle-effect as the bride's. Dorothy wore pink, Doris aqua, and Peggy yellow. The best man was Mr. Fred Roush of Bryan, Ohio, and the others were Miss William Clark, of Detroit, Mr. Douglas McClellan, of Northville, and Mr. W. L. Walker, of Detroit. The bride's mother, Mrs. Walker was dressed in navy blue crepe with lace bodice and sleeves, and Mrs. Eaton in a lighter, blue crepe. Both mothers wore pink carnations.

A reception following the ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Happy Acres for 250 guests. The table was decorated with white peonies and white candles in silver candlesticks. Coffee and punch, with wedding cake and ice cream, were served by Mrs. Ida Lees Cunningham, and Mrs. Gordon C. Lees.

Mrs. Eaton's traveling costume was a simply-cut suit of light blue gabardine with white accessories and her corsage of gardenias. The bridal couple will take a short honeymoon and then shall live in Ann Arbor where the groom is a Navy dental student. The bride was graduated from Northville High School in 1941. It's easy to do — simply make watermelon jellies from the rind ... here's the recipe:

- 1 cup prepared watermelon rind
- 1 cup water
- 1 white allspice
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 lbs. whole cloves
- 1 stick cinnamon (3-inches)
- 1 crushed ginger root

Trim skin from rind and cube rind. Boil over high heat 1 qt. water, add rind, cover with clear water, boil 1 hour. Strain off water. Add vinegar and spices to cheese cloth for 20 min. Add rind; simmer 30 min. Let stand overnight. Add remaining sugar and vinegar; cook till rind is clear and syrup is thick. Add boiling water if too thick. Syrup is tender and clear. Makes 2 pints.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE TO THE RESIDENTS OF NORTHVILLE TOWNSHIP
Because of the willfulness and/or negligence of the residents of Northville Township, the cost of fire prevention in the Township has considerably increased during the past two years.
The taxpayers of Northville Township are paying approximately One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars per year to extinguish fires which were negligently set in the Township. This is not included in the above figure because of said fires and the losses amount to considerably more than the cost of the said protection.

If the number of fires per year do not decrease, it will be necessary to increase taxes to meet the additional expense.

The laws of the State of Michigan provide for the punishment of persons who willfully, negligently or carelessly set or cause combustible material by means of which the property of another is injured or endangered, and it is the intent of this notice, here to warn the residents of Northville Township, and/or other interested persons that steps will be taken to prosecute wrongdoers under this act.

At the Probate Court Room in the City of Detroit, on the first day of July in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty five, Patrick H. O'Brien, President of Probate, Judge of Probate of the County of Wayne, In the Circuit Court, Deceased, Mabel C. Gilbert, duly verified, The Probate Court, having been summoned to the said Township of Northville, where such fire had been made, and having therefore been licensed to make such fire, except for domestic purposes and to protect persons or property in the case of fire, without the written permission of the supervisor of the Township, unless a fire break sufficient to check such fire such fire shall have been freshly made or placed around the area wherein said fire is set.

Any person who willfully, negligently or carelessly sets or causes any fires to be set on fire any woods, grass lands or other combustible material, whether or not on his own lands, by means of which the property of another is injured or endangered, or any person who willfully, negligently or carelessly causes any fire to be set by himself to damage the property of another, or any person who malitiously sets any fires to be set on fire any
combustible material, whereby human life is endangered or destroyed shall be guilty of a felony, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of One Hundred Dollars nor over Five Hundred Dollars or by imprisonment in a State Prison for a term of not over ten years for both such fine and imprisonment.

GOOD RURAL LINE NEIGHBORS

KEEP CALLS SHORT

BEFORE the war, Michigan Bell was making real progress in reducing the number of telephones per rural line. But because there are so many more rural folks with telephones today, and because war has prevented expansion of the system, most lines are serving more families.

Even so, if everyone will "share the line" with typical American friendliness and consideration, you and all your telephone neighbors will enjoy better service. These three simple rules will go a long way in the right direction:

- 1 Please keep all calls short.
- 2 Please do not listen in or interrupt when the line is in use.
- 3 Please be sure to hang up your receiver. One receiver off the hook can tie up a whole line.
