

Interlochen, Michigan — The idea that was impossible — a National music camp for talented boys and girls — has become one of Michigan's outstanding tourist attractions here at Interlochen, near Traverse City.

It is the only place of its kind in the United States — and, indeed, in the world.

Talk about the United Nations! Here is a representative UN right in Michigan with an enrollment this summer of young people not only from 42 of our 48 states, plus the District of Columbia and the Central Zone, but from the following foreign lands: Bolivia, Canada, Chile, Columbia, England and Peru. Here is a global Golden Rule.

Termining with a merry of youth from early dawn until lights-out at night, this camp is as fascinating to behold as it is a bee-hive in a clover field.

Concerts are held in a lake-side hall each Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. The admission charge is 60 cents. The final concert of the season will be presented Sunday, August 25, by an ensemble of approximately 1,000 performers.

Each Sunday at 11:15 a. m. a religious service is held. Then there are daily rehearsals at 8 a. m., 12:40, 1:30 and 4:30 p. m. to which visitors are welcome to attend. On Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at 8 o'clock are interesting demonstrations in music sight reading — also free.

Started in 1927 with a modest short-term loan of $15,000, the National Music Camp has grown to a half million dollar investment of land, buildings and equipment. Enrollment has climbed steadily from 115 in 1927 to more than 1,900 in 1946.

An indebtedness of $40,000 in debentures due in 1934 was prolonged ten years at reduced interest. Then in 1944 when the debentures were to be paid off, the entire debt was retired — thanks to a little guy by the name of James Caesar Petrillo.

Today the Michigan camp is enjoying its best season with an all-time high enrollment. A new auditorium, seating 1,800 people, will be ready for the 1947 season. The Kresge Foundation, financed by "five and ten" profits, is the donor. The Michigan Federation of Women's Clubs has contributed a fine arts building.

But how about Petrillo? What appeared at first to be a great misfortune — the loss of coast-to-coast radio publicity following the edict of Petrillo, national czar of the musicians' union — proved to be a lucky break for Interlochen.

Newspaper headlines carried the story far and wide, of how one tyrant had forbidden radio broadcasters from carrying any program of music performed by students at the Michigan camp.

The public became indignant. United States Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg sponsored action in Congress. Graduates and friends of the camp rallied to its defense. Contributions rolled into the treasury — more than $40,000 in 1945.

Sensing the value of Interlochen to Michigan as a tourist attraction the Michigan State Legislature appropriated $300,000 each year to advertise the camp by natural color motion pictures and other methods.

Luncheon clubs everywhere began asking for these films which tell the story of an impossible idea — a national music camp for boys and girls.

Interlochen's fame spread throughout the Nation. A weekly

Crop Yields Top Average of 10 Years

Only Hay is Below Normal in State According to Early Survey Released by Reporting Service

Above average yields for grain, beans, potatoes and sugar beets are in prospect for Michigan this year, the Crop Reporting Service says. Of the major field crops, hay is the only one with a prospective yield below the 1936-46 average.

An above average set of fruit was indicated for peaches and sour cherries, but prospects were below average for apples, pears and grapes.

Michigan farmers have planted approximately the same acreage as last year but their crop plantings are different. Bean, sugar beet and potato acreage is up 17 per cent. Hay is down 2 per cent. Corn acreage is up 3 per cent and is the largest in the history of the state.

The corn crop was planted at the usual date but growth was retarded by cool weather until June 20. Since then temperatures have been above normal and soil moisture has been adequate, with the result that the crop has made rapid progress. The prospective yield of 38 bushels per acre has been exceeded only twice — in 1944 and 1945 crops but otherwise the largest since 1922. The prospective yield of 25 bushels has been exceeded twice — in 1945 with 27 bushels and in 1931 with 26 bushels.

A record crop of oats is in prospect. The early spring was favorable for planting and farmers planted a record acreage 31 per cent above the 10 year average. The average yield of 40 bushels has been exceeded twice — in 1940 and 1942 with yields of 45.5 and 45 bushels.

A near-record barley yield of 33 bushels is expected. This yield was equaled in 1942 and exceeded by the 1940 yield of 34 bushels. Farmers expect to harvest 531,000 acres of beans this year — well above last year's acreage of 298,000 but below the 10 year average of 546,000 acres. The yield of 900 lbs. per acre is above average.

Weather was favorable for sugar beets and farmers expect to harvest 160,000 acres, compared with 78,000 a year ago and the 10 year average of 96,000 acres. Above average yields are in prospect for most other crops.

Records Set at Downs for Mutuels Last Saturday

Record Set for First Twelve Days of Harness Horse Meeting; Hare, Largest Crowds in History of Local Racing

If anyone still harbors the notion that harness racing belongs in the realm of the county fair, the facts and figures at Northville Downs this spring will quickly dispel the idea. The 25-day meet last spring showed a grand total of $1,138,081.00 as compared with $1,283,014.00 for the first twelve days this year. For a closer comparison, the first eleven days in 1945 aggregated $420,442 with an average daily handle of $38,222. This year twelve days gives an average daily handle of well over $100,000. Northville is topping such notable race tracks as Bay Meadows and Old Orchard. There can be no doubt that the popularity of harness racing under the lights is steadily on the upgrade. Saturday night set a new all time high when $141,713 was wagered on the nine races with the attendance set at 10,670.

Monday night Clay Hesch, who has been driving for 32 years and has some 2200 races to his credit, brought Juedale Lynn in on top, and a $200 win ticket on her paid $59.20. Blue Again, the winner of the $50,000 Pacing Derby at Santa Anita, came out again on Wednesday night and beat such horses as Little Jack, holder of the world's record of 3:15 for 1 1/4 mile Volo H. (2:02 1/2), and Son G. (2:03 1/4).

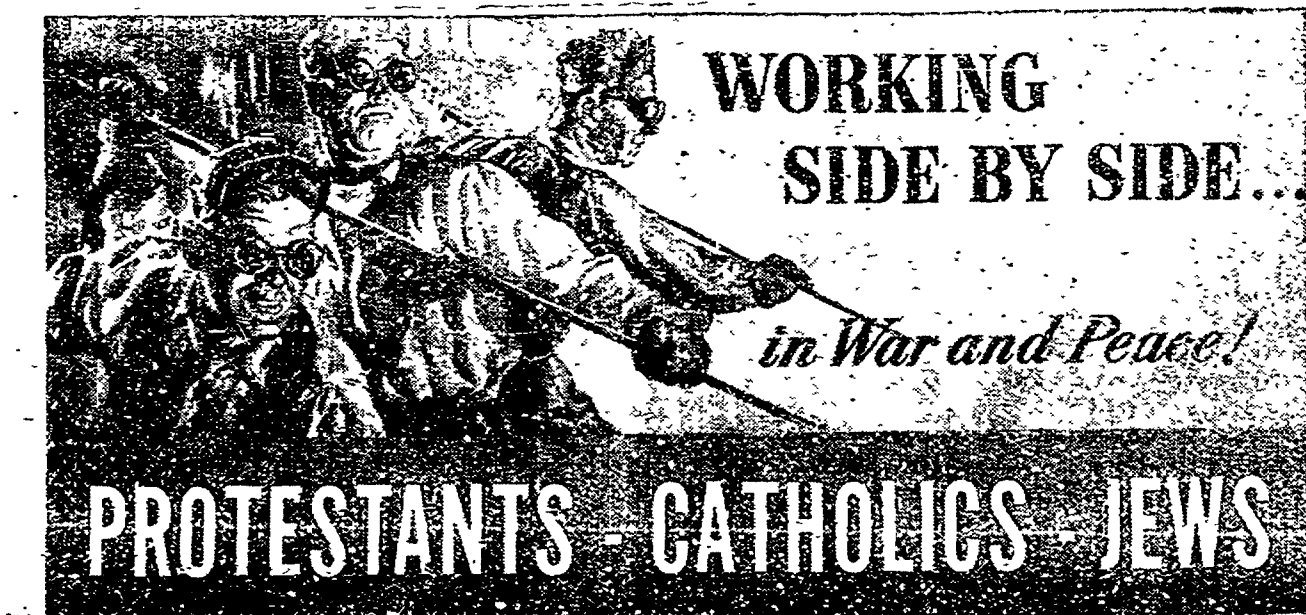

Saturday night saw another great race when Little Jack took the 9/16 dash of the free for all. He won the track record of 1:08, just a half second off the world's record. Charming Scot did not compete in this race, and Blue Again finished fourth. The mile and a sixteenth division of this race was all that was anticipated when Charming Scot came back again to defend her championship taken on the previous Saturday. Blue Again offered him a real challenge and was only noised out at the wire. The time equaled the track record of 1:13 1/2 set by Charming Scot July 20th.

Miss Ruby proved Saturday night that she is still an excellent mare. She served notice that she is again ready for her break down in Chicago when she stepped out and won the 12 Class Pace like a true champion. She may even prove to be a real threat to Charming Scot and Blue Again, and next Saturday night she will have a chance to show what she can do with some real competition. In addition to these Little Jack, Prince Yakima, Goldy Scot, and Volo H. will be among the great performers on the track. Among the free-for-all trotters will be Glenyce, Louellen, and Earl's Moody Guy. The featured race of the evening will be a 1 1/4 mile free for all pace.

Local 896 To Have Picnic Saturday

Local 896, U.A.W.-C.I.O., will hold their annual picnic at Cass Benton Park Saturday, August 3.

Many games have been scheduled for both youngsters and adults, with free drinks and food being served. A good time is promised for all.

$122,000,000.00 FOR THE "GENERAL WELFARE"

Through the ten years ending with 1945, The Detroit Edison Company paid taxes totaling more than $122,000,000. Those taxes were collected from us, under the authority of the Constitution, to "provide for the common defence and promote the general welfare."

More than $55,000,000 of that amount was paid to LOCAL units of government. That means it went to the cities, counties, villages and townships right here at home, in the territory which The Detroit Edison Company serves.

The tiniest village has Edison taxes in its treasury. The little red schoolhouse got its share of the $55,000,000. Edison tax payments were a major contribution to the funds necessary to meet the ever-growing governmental obligations of the City of Detroit.

In 1945, Detroit Edison's local taxes passed $6,000,000, for a new high, higher than our Federal taxes for the first time since 1940.

There is no intent either to boast or to complain about this record of tax payments. The Detroit Edison Company prides its position as a private citizen, and with that position goes the obligation to be a tax payer rather than a tax consumer.

Let it also be made crystal-clear that you, the buyers of Edison power and light, paid that $122,000,000.

It was a part of your electric bill, but it was not a charge for electricity. It WAS a part of your cost of government.

Thrilling moment in the 20 year-old film DON JUAN, featuring John Barrymore. This was the first full-length sound movie.

The modern movie is 20 years old on August 6

Twenty years ago the movies added sound to sight. DON JUAN was the film. A year later came THE JAZZ SINGER, the first feature to use lip synchronization.

Both were produced and presented by Warner Brothers. The equipment which made them possible was developed and made by Bell Telephone Laboratories and Western Electric Company. These two Bell System units have continued to apply their skills to improve sound reproduction.

They have contributed greatly to the excellent sound in today's movies.

Bell scientists were able to solve the talking picture problem because of their continuous study of every means to improve communication. The "talkies" came directly out of telephone research.

The modern movie has grown so that it speaks in peace and war around the world. It has become one of the great agencies affecting the heart and mind of man.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY

208 Killed by Fire in State Last Year

A toll of 208 lives and property destruction exceeding $15,500,000 was Michigan's 1945 fire loss, according to figures just released by Oscar G. Olander, Commissioner of the Michigan State Police and state fire marshal.

While this was an increase of 15 lives and approximately $200,000 in property loss over the preceding year, it was not in proportion to the increase in the country as a whole.

Two fires, one at Muskegon on March 16, in which 5 died from suffocation while fighting fire in the hole of an old ship, and one at the Export Box and Sealer Company, at Detroit, August 13, in which 15 persons met death, sent Michigan's fire death toll to an all-time high it was pointed out by Arnold C. Renner, Chief of the Fire Division of the state police.

An analysis of the report shows that of the number killed by fire in the state during 1945, 49 per cent were children. High on the list of causes of this loss of young lives, Renner said, was leaving children alone.

The job of fighting fire, the survey shows, grows more hazardous each year. Eight firemen lost their lives in the performance of duty during 1945. This was double the number killed in 1944. Three were killed in 1943, and none in 1942.

The survey lists 787 fires attributable to carelessness, which was 226 fewer fires than were recorded under the same heading in the 1944 report. This would indicate that spreading the gospel of fire prevention is having some effect, Renner said.

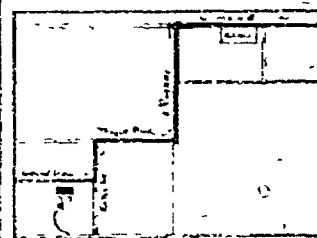

There was an upswing in the number of fires traceable to malicious mischief of juveniles in 1945, with 408 being recorded as against 313 in the preceding year.

From all other causes with the exception of a few such perils as overheated rooms, overheated stoves and furnaces, and the use of petroleum liquid to kindle fires, there was a notable decrease in the number of fires.

A recapitulation of the survey shows the following: Loss of life by fire, 208; total loss on buildings, $10,469,312.74; total loss on contents, $7,606,433.11; rural fire loss, $2,072,948.39; total fire loss, $19,543,707.47.

The report shows there were 49,167 fires in Michigan in 1945, which were 2,408 fewer than were recorded for the preceding 12 months period.

GENERAL DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S REPORT

Mention has already been made of the skill and devotion of our service forces whose efforts, both in the field and at home, made an essential contribution to our victory. To them, and to the civilian workers of factory and farm who provided us with unlimited means, we are forever indebted. Our enormous material superiority gave us an unchallengeable advantage over our foes. While Germany's own war potential crumbled, that of the Allies rose to heights unprecedented. No army or navy was ever supported so generously or so well. Never, during the entire campaign, were we forced to fight a major battle without the weapons that were needed.

More important even than the weapons, however, was the indomitable fighting spirit of the men of the Allied nations, who exhibited throughout the campaign, in the grim days of the Ardennes counter-offensive as well as in the excitement of the dash across France and later the advances into the midst of Germany, were unsurpassable. It was the spirit that had enabled them to withstand the shocks of Dunkirk and Pearl Harbor, which brought us at the last to Luback, to Torgo, and to Berchtesgaden.

Undertaking this invincibility of spirit was the confidence in Allied unity and the justice of the common cause which permeated all who were engaged, directly or indirectly, in the struggle. The comradeship which had been first exemplified in North Africa carried us to new triumphs in northwest Europe. Within my own Headquarters the American and British personnel worked harmoniously together, obliterating all distinction of national outlook in their zealous service to a single organization, while in the field of battle the men of the Allied armies fought shoulder to shoulder under my supreme command.

These civilian volunteers who shared the rigors and dangers of a campaign that they might enlighten the experience of our men have the assurance of our warmest gratitude.

The United States of America and Great Britain have worked, not merely as allies, but as one nation, pooling their resources of men and material alike, in this struggle against the forces of evil engendered by Hitler's Germany. In the Expeditionary Forces which it has been my privilege to lead, both in the Mediterranean Theater and in Northwest Europe, an Allied experiment unprecedented in the history of the world has been carried out with decisive results.

GENERAL EISENHOWER'S REPORT

In concluding this report it is with regret that I am unable to record here the details of my personal and official obligations and gratitude to those who served so devotedly at Supreme Headquarters and at the other headquarters which cooperated so loyally and effectively with us. Nor can I make adequate recognition of the collaboration of those many individuals in civil and military positions in Great Britain and the United States with whom my duties brought me into contact and whose efforts aided in a major degree the accomplishment of our common task. Yet I know that all these would have me pay a just tribute to the memory of two very senior and gallant officers who started the campaign with us and who lost their lives before its conclusion. These were Admiral Sir Bertram H. Ramsay of the Royal Navy, and Air Chief Marshal Sir Trafford Leigh-Mallory of the Royal Air Force. At the beginning of the operation these officers were respectively my Naval Commander-in-Chief and my Air Commander-in-Chief. The former lost his life in an airplane accident near Versailles, France, while still serving in the same capacity. The latter, relieved from my command to take over the Allied Air Forces in Southeast Asia, was lost in an airplane accident near Grenoble, France. The war service, the devotion to duty, and the sacrifice of these two outstanding men typify the irreplaceable cost of the campaign represented in the lives of thousands of officers and enlisted men and members of the women's services, of the American, British, and French forces.

All of them died in the spirit of that unity which found the Allies in our common ideals. To them, and to those who bear the wounds of battle, we, their comrades in arms, render most grateful and humble tribute.

Under the arrangements made by the Combined Chiefs of Staff for the control of the field forces, General of the Army George C. Marshall acted as their executive in transmitting to me their orders and instructions. Moreover, under the most distinguished Secretary of War, Henry L. Stimson, General Marshall was elevated to my direct administrative superior in my capacity as a commander of United States Army forces. To this great soldier-statesman, I owe a particular debt for his friendly counsel and constant support. There was nothing throughout the war so morally sustaining as the knowledge that General Marshall concurred in the plans I was adopting and the means I was taking to put them into effect.

"Love" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, August 4th.

The Golden Text (II Cor. 13:11) is: "Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you."
Among the Bible citations is this passage (I John 4:13): "There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear; because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love."

Bloat Superstitions
Fallen by Wayside
Many of the old notions about bloat have fallen by the wayside, in the wake of recent research, according to the American Veterinary Medical association. For example, bloat in sheep and cattle results from greater accumulation, not excessive production, of gases. Exploded also is the theory that alfalfa, clover and other legumes are more inclined to generate gases within an animal than the common pasture grasses.

Also headed for the discard is the belief that death is caused by intense pressures exerted by gases within the paunch. Instead, scientific research shows that it is practically impossible to kill animals through such pressure. Of the five principal gases generated within the paunch, carbon monoxide and hydrogen sulfide are the two most poisonous properties. Even slightly increased quantities of either, at time of bloating, is sufficient to cause death, which probably results from distention of the paunch walls.

Sweet Potato Variety

Good Starch Source
Large Yield Makes It
A Profitable Farm Crop

By W. J. DRYDEN
The sweet potato is fast taking its place as the main source of starch. This is largely due to the fact that starch can be produced or extracted easily from sweet potatoes and of the large volume that can be produced per acre.

Starch and its derivatives are used in the production of almost every item of commerce - from cream puffs to dynamite. In the wastelands of the Florida Everglades, the United States Sugar corporation is carrying on vast operations in the producing and manufacture of sweet potato starch. They now have requirements for 40 freight cars of sweet potatoes daily.

The starch sweet potato is a special variety developed and tested for years. It grows as large as a man's head and contains a much higher starch content than the table varieties. The yields are from 500 to 700 bushels per acre.

By-products are also important. Pulp stock-feed production as well as the vines for livestock feed have high nutritive value. The waste water is decomposed and gas used in power plant, the solids producing a high quality fertilizer.

Not only for Florida, but other sections where climate and soil production is suitable, this industry will prove of increasing interest and value to farmers. It has proved financially sound and the need for this quality starch is ever increasing.

Improved Machinery
Picking Machines

This automatic rubber finger picking machine will remove many of the feathers from the birds after they pass out of the scalders; it is a product of E. J. Albright company, Chicago.

The square, semi-soft gum rubber fingers lay flat against the carcass in pulling feathers. It is sturdy enough to stand continuous usage and operated with a one h. p. motor.

Electrical Drying Soft Corn Practical
Ohio Farmer Develops
Own Economical System
The problem of drying soft corn is not the difficult chore it once was, according to farmers who have experimented successfully with fan-operated, forced air systems installed in their own cribs.
Heat is not an essential factor in most installations, particularly when drying operations are conducted in the fall or early spring. The danger in cribbing immature corn is that it may spoil before cold weather arrives to restrain spoilage processes during the winter, or mold during the first few warm spring days.
Forced air drying is practical and economical without heat in temperatures as low as 50 degrees. Higher temperatures, however, speed up and cut costs of drying operations. Karl Mohr, Ohio farmer, for example, reported having spent $10 for electricity to crib-dry 60 tons of immature corn by forcing air through it for 100 continuous hours during a period when daytime temperature reached 80 degrees.
Mohr's drying arrangement is typical of workable, successful types which farmers can install themselves. His 35 by 10-foot, tight-crib has a slatted floor, with 14 by 4-inch slats installed edge-wise and spaced five-eighths of an inch apart. A 42-inch fan, driven by a 5-horsepower motor, blows air into a closed tunnel extending under the entire crib. Air, forced under the crib, moves up naturally through the slatted floor and out vents in the top of the crib, taking excessive moisture with it. Small or large cribs will work, as well with its extreme drying operations.

Mohr's crib was a double purpose. In addition to being excellent for air, the low side openings into which corn is cribbed for storage in the crib.

Six pieces of scrap pipe, a few lengths of scrap iron, a standard rubber tired wheel, and a few minutes use of arc welder will produce this handy wheelbarrow for the farm.

Short pipe sections fused to the front end of the pipe frame and handle members made ideal bearings for the wheel axle.

Know Your Breed Polled Hereford
By W. J. DRYDEN

Since 1902 American cattlemen have developed within the Hereford, a naturally hornless strain — the Polled Hereford. Since the early work done by Benjamin Tomkins in 1742, with English oxen, the breed is now classed as one of the greatest of beef cattle.

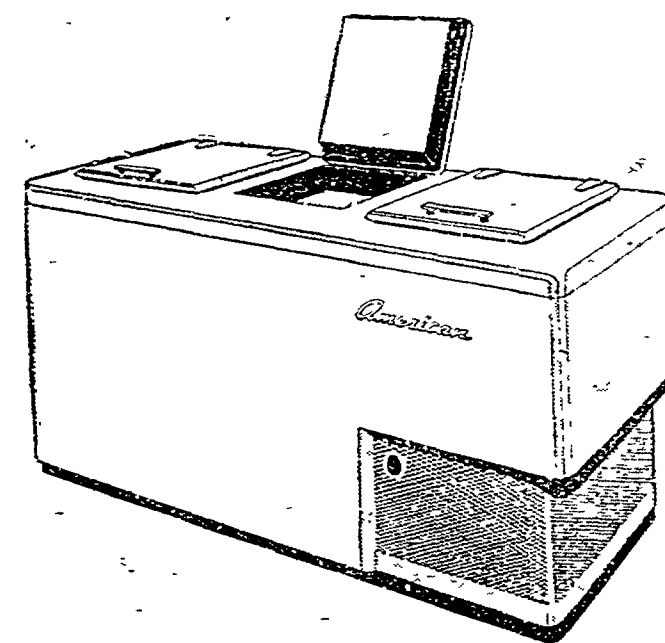

There are now some 200,000 on the official records. When original hornless bulls are mated with registered horned Hereford cows, about half the resulting calves are hornless. First known exhibit of hornless cattle was at Omaha fair in 1893. Today they take a leading part in every fair or show entered.

Michigan Mirror

magazine ran a feature, illustrated with color photographs. And so it went—a rising tide of favorable public opinion which proceeded Congress to outlaw the Petrillo edict and which inspired new and greater gifts of usefulness for the Michigan enterprise.

The man behind the idea is a story. James E. Maddy is the despair of the professional public relations counsel.

J. Lee Barrett, Detroit's convention and tourist go-getter, once conceived the nifty notion of publicizing Maddy as a musical genius wearing a long flowing robe. Maddy snapped "Non-sense!" and contrived to be the portrait of any boy's father—a chuckling, effervescent man who walks rapidly with a bouncing gait talks incessantly about his life dream, and devotes every waking moment of his day to the boys and girls at Interlochen.

With his charming wife Maddy holds receptions for students. He greets each one personally. His smile is infectious. It personifies the happy spirit of Interlochen—YOUTH!

Among the famous musicians who have contributed their services as guest conductors are Walter Damrosch, Edwin Ranko, Goldman, Ossip Gabrilowitch, Percy Grainger, Ferde Grofe, Howard Hanson, John Philip Sousa and Frederick Stock.

A Detroit automobile company recently donated a fleet of new trucks.

There is a junior division for boys and girls 8 to 14—new for 1946—featuring a symphony orchestra band and chorus.

The high school division with separate dormitories, includes a symphony orchestra of 240 pieces, a 150 piece band, a 150 voice choir, and classes in drama, dance, arts, crafts—all combined daily with wholesome outdoor recreation.

When you are driving in the Grand Traverse region on Route 31 between Leelanau and Traverse City be sure to stop at Interlochen, just a few miles from the main highway. It will be well worth your time.

Kim Sigler last week went fishing at Copper Harbor. His companion, George A. Averill, editor of a newspaper at Birmingham, had been giving Kim some fine advice about the art. George prides himself as being an expert. And then what happened? George didn't even get a nibble; Kim lands a 13-pound lake trout and Kim's daughter, Madeleine, gets the next largest—a ten-pounder. All of which provided the season's best joke for John W. Rice, genial publisher-editor of the Houghton Mining Gazette, who furnished us with the low-down about it.

82,944 Get Jobless Compensation Pay in Week

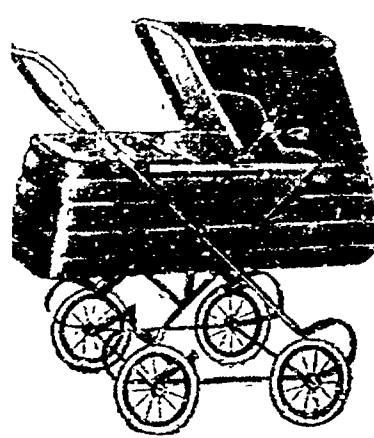

Unemployment compensation payments, totaling $2,919,513, were paid to 82,944 people in Michigan during the week ending July 29, Eugene T. Dornier, executive director of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation Commission, has announced. Payments were made to 4,988 fewer persons than in the preceding week.

Of the total amount paid out, 9,043 unemployed World War II veterans received $1,510,390, making claim under the GI Bill of Rights.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Gussell of West Main street and Dr. and Mrs. V. G. Chabot of Dunlap street left Wednesday morning for Harbor Beach where they will vacation until about the third week in August.

HOW DETROIT EXPRESSWAY INTERCHANGE WILL LOOK

The above picture from an artist's drawing prepared by the Detroit City Plan Commission from blueprints of the State Highway Department shows how the east-west Edsel Ford (Detroit-Crosstown) and north-south John C. Lodge expressways will meet near Hamilton and Kirby streets in Detroit. This is a true directional interchange as one will turn right to go right and left to go left. All cross traffic will be separated, to greatly reduce possibility of collisions. Construction of the two expressways will start this summer. The Highway Department is in charge of all construction on both limited access routes which will speed large traffic volumes east-west and north-south in Detroit. The Wayne County Road Commission will supervise work for the Highway Department on the Lodge route.

Three Amendments and Five Parties on November Ballot

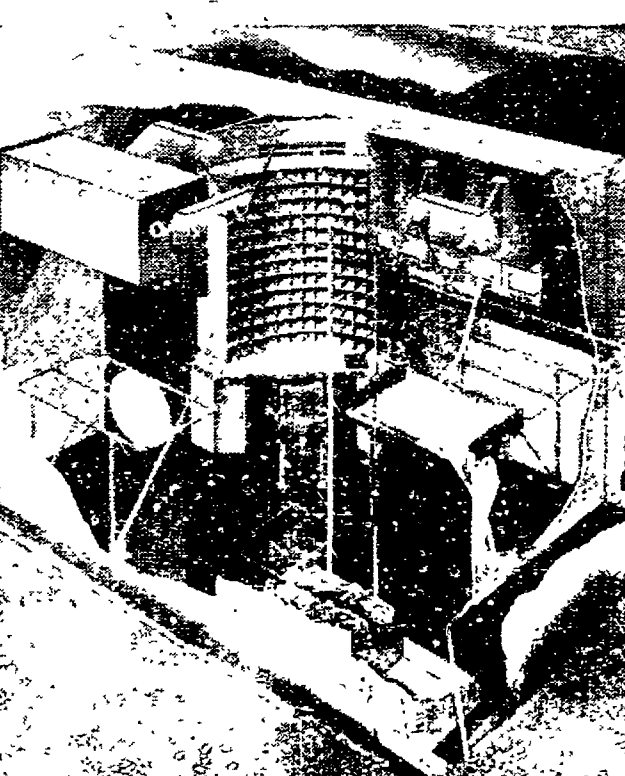

Sample ballots for the state general election November 5 show that there are five parties which have qualified for a place on the main ballot. They are: Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist Labor and Communist.

In addition three proposed amendments to the state constitution will be submitted to the voters besides a non-partisan ballot. Ballots were prepared early in order that members of the armed forces overseas could have an opportunity to vote absent voters ballots.

A complete set of state candidates will be found on the Republican, Democratic and Prohibition tickets. The Socialist Labor party has only a candidate for representative in congress from this district while the Communists do not have candidates for governor, lieutenant governor, auditor general or representative in congress. This is the first time the Communist party has been on the ballot since 1940.

Of the proposals to amend the constitution, No. 1 would lift the limit of state control and participation in internal improvements such as airports; No. 2 provides for return of one-tenth of state cities, villages and townships and schools, and also for continuation of school aid; and No. 3 would bond the state for $276,600,000 for payment of a bonus to veterans of World War II who served honorably between Sept. 16, 1940, and June 30, 1946.

WACS May Now Enlist for Europe

A bulletin just received from the War Department has reopened WAC re-enlistments for the European Theater, announced Lt. R. Weisbacher, of the Pontiac Recruiting Station. The Commanding General of the European Theater has stated that members of the WAC have done an outstanding job overseas, and due to the excellence of their work, more are desired by administrative commands.

At present, WACS who formerly had experience as Stenographers, General Clerks, Statistical Clerks, Teletype-writer Operator, Clerk-Typist, Administrative N.C.O., Telephone Switchboard Operator, Cryptographic Technician, or Supply Clerk, may re-enlist specifically for the European Theater.

To qualify for this assignment, former WAC members must re-enlist for the duration and six months and agree to stay overseas for a minimum of one year.

Further details on how to re-enlist may be secured at the local Recruiting Office, at 53 1/2 W. Huron street, Pontiac, Michigan.

In announcing the Eagles Get-Together for August 8th at the Veterans Memorial Hall we interpreted the invitation incorrectly. The event is strictly stag for members and guests, rather than a family affair as stated.
