

Yessir! It's a Great Day...

Labor Day is Monday, Sept. 2

Labor Day means more than just the chance to get away for the week-end . . . it's a tribute to the men and women who were instrumental in winning a great war . . . who are an integral force in our fight against inflation and for cooperation and understanding. You are invited to take a trip through our plant . . . to meet the men who serve you.

Notes from a traveler's journal

What is going to become of Captain Joe Beach's delightful leisurely "Toonerville Trolley" and river boat excursion to the Tahquamenon Falls in Luce County, Upper Peninsula?

The state conservation department has appropriated $50,000 to build an improved highway to the upper and lower Tahquamenon Falls—two of the scenic attractions of Michigan's famed north country.

The road will start at Paradise on Whitefish Bay, Lake Superior. It will proceed fourteen miles west to the lower falls and thence several miles more to within a quarter mile of the upper falls. To safeguard the falls from the noise of motor traffic, the state will require travelers to park their cars and to walk over a trail to the upper falls. There the visitors will view the 200-foot wide waterfall.

As we traveled on Captain Beach's excursion early in August, the question arose of what would happen to this unusual day's journey to the falls. The average American seems inclined to go places as quickly as possible. Leisure is a luxury in a two-week vacation. Somehow, we hope travelers will not overlook Joe's opportunity for a day of relaxation. On our trip we saw numerous deer, many ducks, and one bear.

Two so-called "night clubs" mark the town of Dollerville, a mile and a half south of Newberry. In company with a group of newspaper people we visited one of these hot spots. A piano player was singing away. A few minutes later, when the word was relayed of the "Monday night rush," a drummer arrived to reinforce him.

It seemed to be a far cry from the pioneer times when Robert Dollar was a "cooker" in a nearby logging camp and later rose to become the president of the Dollerville Lumber Company with vast mill and timber holdings. Dollar invested his logging profits in a steaming line. Yes, the Dollar Line of today was started on dollars earned by the ex-cooker of the Upper Peninsula many years ago.

Life is in constant transition, and Newberry is looking for a better postwar world.

Lumbering has been going on in Luce County since the Civil War. You begin to wonder how much longer it can continue.

Selective cutting was forgotten in the war-time rush to get out the lumber. From what the lumbermen say we doubt if selective cutting ever will be adopted voluntarily by the lumber industry. There is always a competitor and a competitor's price. Eventually state control must come, perhaps as a cooperative basis.

A one-time big industry in Newberry, the county seat of Luce County and home of the Newberry State Hospital, was the Newberry Lumber and Chemical company, founded in 1882 as a charcoal kiln and iron-furnace venture. Thousands of cords of hardwoods have been converted into charcoal for use in smelting iron ore.

After a brief war-time revival the plants are idle. New industries have taken their place, offering better wages for workers. Newberry is better off.

Canadian geese are nesting at the Cusins state game refuge at Seney. Years ago, in the 1850's and 1860's, Seney had the reputation of being the toughest spot in the Upper Peninsula. Gambling, fighting, drinking and prostitution were too common. True life story from Newberry.

place to merit newspaper attention. A woman reporter for a New York metropolitan newspaper concocted a wild yarn about strangers being "shanghaied" on the frontier and forced into chained bondage at the Seney Lumber camps. She called it "Ran's Pasture." The yarn became an overnight national sensation — One of the section bands on the railroad crew at Seney played a part in shaping our nation's history. Leon Czolgosz became the assassin of President William McKinley in the days of "manifest destiny."

Travelers to the Canadian Saul Ste-Marie-the-Soo—must see radios, cameras, typewriters, outboard motors and other valuable articles at the Canadian customs office. Serial numbers are carefully noted.

American travelers who remain 48 hours in Canada may return with $500 worth of Canadian merchandise without requirement of duty.

The new MacArthur lock at the St. Mary's canal is now fenced off. The war department provides guides who conduct visitors through the property.

On the west coast of Michigan you hear reports that the tourist business is off on the east coast.

And vice versa.

So we did a little investigation of our own at Petoskey. Joseph W. Songgin, manager of the J. C. Penny company store, said business was "excellent" and on par with 1940. The Northern Automobile Company, agents for Fords and Simca gasoline, reported a 40 percent increase in sales over 1940.

Petoskey is joining with Cheboygan and Indian River in pushing a program for improvement of the inland waterway, a 40-mile route for pleasure boats from Cheboygan to Petoskey. In 1930 the resortors induced Congress to declare the waterway a Federal controlled route. Active in this promotion are Charles T. Lathers, ex-Tiger player who has a dairy farm near Cheboygan; James Harrington, former Ford official and cottager on Burt Lake, and Joseph Garaman, summer resident and one of the Graham brothers of automobile pioneer days.

"Their Privilege - Our Duty"

This is a message to those whose high school and college years are behind them. It is a message to the parents of boys and girls of high school age. It is a message to every citizen who loves the United States of America and who wants to see that under the next generation this nation shall continue on its path of greatness.

This coming year, their country will need boys and girls of high school age for the most important job in the world—important both for themselves and their country. It will need them to prepare to serve in a thousand ways anywhere from a year or two to eight or ten years from now. It needs them to go to high school!

The high school population of the United States has dropped a round million since the war began. If this decline continues, education in this country is going into a tailspin just when we need educated young people most.

It's hard to blame young people for wanting to work and earn money. Youth is experimental. It finds it hard to take the long view. And here's where parents and other elders come in. They ought to reason with a boy or girl who is planning to stay out of high school. He or she should be made to see that time invested in study now will pay the richest sort of dividends in usefulness to their country, in helpfulness to their families, in the happiness that comes from possessing skill and knowledge.

When the school bells ring this fall, they ought to sound like bugles. We need these students as truly as we have needed soldiers, sailors and marines.

The first Mother and Son Pot-Luck meeting under the auspices of the Sunshine Sisters and the Neighborhood Bible School was held in the Neighborhood Church Monday evening of last week and proved a fair success. Following the bountiful meal, the group enjoyed a musical program and a fine address by Rev. Gordon, from the Gaylord Baptist Church.

Mr. Walter Dixon, from over Middlebelt, was calling on Grandma Ault, Thursday.

Paul Sackett, from New London, O., was a guest Sunday of the Mayfield Avenue Aults.

Mr. and Mrs. John Timmer, from near Muskegon, were recent week-end guests of relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stromme and children, from Wayne, were Sunday callers at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. William Owen and Mrs. Margaret Martin.

The Austin Aults visited in Toledo, Saturday. Their granddaughter, Ruth Ann Oman, accompanied them home.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Fuerst, Shady-side Avenue, are grandparents again. Their daughter, Mrs. Virginia Jones, has presented them with a granddaughter. Mother and child are now home from the hospital and doing nicely.

Shoppers in Detroit Saturday included Mrs. E. W. Stange and son Edward. Also visitors in that city were Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Ault.

Joanna Craig of Mayfield Avenue spent the last two weeks with relatives in Detroit.

The Bergmans, who have been living on Hubbard Avenue for some time, are moving to Randall Avenue.

Mrs. John Altemus, who has been on the sick list, is feeling much better.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Addis, Shady-side Avenue, a well-arranged reception was held Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Block. This marriage took place while Mr. Block was on furlough last winter. Recently Mr. Block was discharged from the service, and for the present the pair are residing with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Addis. About sixteen guests, relatives and close friends from Detroit and this neighborhood, were in attendance. Musical numbers added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Gifts were opened and an appropriate supper was served at the close of the evening.

Four hundred and fifty-two additional hospital cases are being processed, involving an estimated $57,820. In addition 16 hospital admissions as shown above 141 cases were processed and channelled to other local, state and federal agencies for assistance, or were rejected by the Office of Veterans Affairs as not being eligible for emergency care under its program.

The cost for hospitalization, prosthetic devices, blood plasma, medical expense, nurses, ambulance service and x-rays for these veterans from Wayne County already paid is $930,000, and the estimated cost of cases in process is $337,000 more. These amounts represent a considerable tax saving to the county as well as an earned and much needed service to the veterans.

One of the bureaus that furnish information and predictions concerning commercial conditions gave out this year:

"It looks as if the price of pork must drop. The big slump in corn will usher in a new era. Chopper hogs are on the wing."

To those who are awaiting delivery of their New Oldsmobiles

A Word of Appreciation . . . and a Suggestion, too!

We know how anxious you are to get your new Oldsmobile. And there's nothing we'd like better to do, right now, than to say to every Oldsmobile buyer: "Your car is here. Come get it!"

But frankly, it just isn't possible to do that. There still aren't enough new Oldsmobiles to go around. Due to shortages in materials and unavoidable limitations on production, the output of new cars still is behind schedule. And our allotments are far below the figures that we originally anticipated.

We want to assure you, however, that everything possible is being done, both here and at the factory, to get your car in your hands promptly. And we'd like to take this occasion to thank you sincerely for the patient and considerate way in which you have borne with us during this period of waiting.

Meanwhile, we have an important suggestion: Don't neglect the car you drive today.

Farmington Church Scene of Marriage

The First Methodist church of Farmington last Saturday evening was the scene of the marriage of Delores Livingway of Farmington Road to Donald Bachelor, also of Farmington Road. Rev. Stanley Stone read the double candlelight service before an altar flanked with baskets of white gladioli. Mrs. M. Burdock presided at the organ and Miss Virginia Matchitak of Farmington sang "Oh Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly."

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, Arnold Livingway, wore a white taffeta and chiffon gown which was fashioned in a square neckline, the long sleeves ending in points over the wrists and the full skirt ending in a long train. She wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white gladioli centered with an orchid.

Mrs. J. W. Erwin of Ten Mile Road was the matron of honor and she was attired in an aqua nylon gown. Bridesmaids were Helen Skog of Detroit, Loretta Widmaier and Mrs. Arthur Breitmeyer, both of Northville. All the bridesmaids wore net gowns. Helen in peach, Loretta in yellow and Mrs. Breitmeyer in blue. All the bridesmaids wore corsages of yellow gladioli.

Best man for the groom was Ralph Howle of Farmington. Seating the guests were J. W. Erwin of Ten Mile Road, Arthur Breitmeyer of Northville, and Jay Sprague, a cousin of the bride, from Howell.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy, blue and white crepe dress, and for her son's wedding, Mrs. Bachelor chose an aqua dress. Mrs. Bachelor wore a corsage of pink and white gladioli and Mrs. Bachelor's corsage was of yellow gladioli.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the American Legion Hall on Telegraph Road. The young couple then left on a week's honeymoon to Northern Michigan, motoring there. For going away, the bride chose a pink eyelet two-piece dress and white accessories. Upon their return, they will make their home on Farmington Road.

Delores attended Northville High school, graduating with the class of 1944. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Livingway of Farmington Road. Donald graduated from Farmington High school in 1941 and is associated with his father on their farm on North Farmington Road. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Bachelor.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Reng of Thayer Blvd. were hosts last Sunday at an alfresco supper at their home. Guests were eight couples from the surrounding vicinity.

BEDORE - BIRT
Irene Bedore of Butler avenue and William Birt Jr. of Plymouth were quietly married at Our Lady of Victory Church last Saturday morning by Rev. Lorenz E. Wood.

For her wedding the bride chose a grey suit with black accessories. She wore a corsage of white gardenias. Her only attendant was the sister of the groom, Mrs. Robert Winecuppe, and she was attired in a blue suit and wore a corsage of yellow roses. The groom's best man was his brother, Bernard Birt of Plymouth.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served; the wedding party and a few close friends at the Birt home on Ann Arbor Trail. The young couple then left on a week's honeymoon to Northern Canada, making the trip by car.

Irene attended the local schools, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Danai Bedore. William attended the Plymouth schools and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Birt of Ann Arbor Trail.

HOLD RECEPTION FOR NEWLY MARRIED COUPLE

A reception was held at the Veterans' Memorial Hall last Saturday evening honoring the recent marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Hodge (Madeline Denmore).

Bouquets of white and pink gladioli filled the rooms of the Hall. In the receiving line with the newly married couple were their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Denmore of Nine Mile Road and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hodge of High street. For her reception, Mrs. Homer Hodge chose a black street length crepe dress and she wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Denmore was attired in a blue suit and Mrs. Hodge chose a fuschia suit. (Continued)

I will now continue what I started last February, and if the Lord furnishes the means, with which to accomplish the objective, I will finish my mission.

There comes a time in every man's life when he must choose between "to evils," or between good and evil.

In times past I have said things that afterwards when told me I was wrong. And at other times I have spoken in such a way as to offend certain men, and they have said my words of expression and manner of speech was wrong.

Many times I have been told to keep still, listen, and learn from others, and then mould my life and speech after their's, and conform to their way of thinking and manner of obedience.

Having more or less of a tolerant nature, and willing to listen to both sides of all things, I have at times sought to obey the counsel of men, and did (I am sorry to say) apologize for what they said was wrong. But, in so doing, I lost confidence in myself, and did not have peace in my soul. My conscience had made me feel it was not pleasing God. Preachers who say "and do not" So, to again have peace in my soul, and regain the feeling that doubt was what Paul had in mind when he wrote, "Romans 14:13-15" (For whosoever shall decide to be my own natural self, and to do that I find I must apologize "again" but this time I must apologize—for apologizing).

When I am myself I am happy and carefree, cheerful, and full of joy. But when I try to conform to "others" conception of what I ought to be, I am sour, irritable, and want to fight—so, no conformity, no fight; no irritability no sour stomach.

I have learned (from sad experience) that the studying of Paul will never make a Paul; only a communion with the God that made Paul can make another Paul.

As Emerson wrote: "If you can love me for what I am, we will be happier. If you cannot, I will seek to deserve that you should. I must be myself. I will not hide my tastes or aversions. If you are noble, I will love you; if you are not, I will not hurt you and myself by hypocritical attentions." If you are true, but not in the same truth with me, and all men's, however long we have dwelt in lies, to live in truth. When would be a man, not be a nonconformist. Shakespeare will never be made by the study of Shakespeare. That which each can do best, none but his Maker can teach him. The relations of the soul to the divine spirit are so pure that it is profane to seek to interpose help. My friend suggested—"But these impulses may be from below and of the Lord's definition" of a Pharisee: "They sit in Moses seat (teaching other men's revelations without authority from the Lord) they say and do not."

These professors of religion, who have read about Jesus Christ talk about Him—but not of Him. They preach about the gospel—but do not know the secret of its message. The message of Jesus Christ to the world will never be known by reading about Him. The things written about Him, are for the purpose of making known "what one must do to get his message" so they can talk of Him—from Him. Unless the people obey his teachings, they never will talk of Him—only about Him.

If one could read all that was ever written "about Him" (but all that ever wrote of Him, as was originally written by them) that person would still know very little about his condition or true relation to God. Neither would that alone, save a soul or bring him any nearer to the celestial kingdom. Knowledge of the things of God, and our relation to those things, can only be known through obedience to the ordinances of God—through individual, personal experience.

And the ordinances of God are not made known to those who get their authority and communion from the scriptures—or from man.

No one will ever know what the everlasting covenant or ordinances are, or how, or by whom they are to be performed (administered), unless they receive that knowledge direct from the powers of heaven through personal experience—revelation.

This having to accept the Bible as the only means of knowledge of God, is only the misguided conception of Spiritless preachers, who have not the courage or backbone to test the precepts and see if they are true.

They are so afraid of their own salvation, and that some one will come along and expose their deceitfulness, hypocrisy, and powerlessness, ministry, that they put to them all their strength and cunning to blind the people's minds and eyes, to the simple truths as they are presented in the scriptures.

No wonder the Saviour said, (Matthew 23:13) "Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men; for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in."

All I can say is that words prove nothing; what I have written is written to show what the scriptures are for, and what they have done for me, and what they shall do for all who obey their precepts and admonitions.

I know from experience that revelations, visions, visitations, and manifestations of angels have not caused any preachers of other men's revelations, Arians, and heretics, to believe.

And I invite the professors of religion, and self-appointed preachers of the scriptures, to meet me in a public auditorium and prove their power and authority to preach and minister in the name of Jesus Christ.

There are in the world today, some half-billion people who believe (or, at least profess to believe) the Bible to be true. But out of this vast multitude I know of no religious sect, or organization, that obeys the commandments and teachings contained therein, or who is in possession of the gifts and promises promised in the scriptures to those who believe.

In this great mass of believers? there are scores of religious sects and organizations with potential—diagnosticians, and world-saviors, with antidotes and itching salves. These parasites are thriving on the misery and tearachas of a distressed people. They are waxing fat while they gaw at quivering vitals, and pull the purse-strings of a bewildered audience.

These spreaders of false doctrines and wrong interpretations have fed the people with such a diversity of opinions that they, of themselves, do not know what to do. Their minds are in a turbulent condition. The whole world is at the peak of its precipice. They are facing the greatest crisis of its history. The present creation is hanging by a thread because of the people's inability to grasp the significance of the times. A wrong choice at this state of existence would plunge the whole fabric of this present civilization into the very depths of chaotic disorder, misery, pain, dissolution, and death.

If this present world is to be saved from its chaotic condition something must be done—and that soon.

Peace conferences of nations and kingdoms or groups of men, will not do it unless they first make peace with Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the answer to all our problems. He, alone, has the right doctrines and true interpretations. He knows all the answers, and "revelateth his secrets unto his servants the prophets" who obey his commandments and the voice of the Spirit.

The wars, famines, destructions, and commotion of elements and governments which has and does exist among the kingdoms and nations is sufficient proof that man has not the answer to the world's problems; and has not the ability or power to organize and establish a government of peace.

God has a law by which all things exist, and has, in times past made known to certain men what the laws are and how things exist in his kingdom; and has given a pattern, with instruction, by which all things should be done, or built. Things are made after the pattern and instructions, are counterfeit, or imitation. And anything not made after the pattern God will not acknowledge, or accept.

The reason why the people do not repeat and obey the ordinances of God, as given in the pattern, and have not received the promises as promised in the Bible, is because the professors of religion, priests, and hirelings, promise them life, as saith Ezekiel 13:22 "With lies we have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life."

There are millions who would repent, obey the ordinances of God, do right and receive the promises of God, if someone, who is in a position of recognized authority, would step forth and tell them what to do. But the trouble is, the man or men who could lead the people out of chaos into states of peace and tranquillity do not know the pathway through which to lead them.

Some do know what would bring peace and tranquillity, but do not know how to obtain the means and power, with which to set the machinery into motion.

To day we have many potentials who stand at the head of large and small organizations. These men have been appointed, accepted, and acknowledged as the head of the various parties, and stand as the converts say, their head ready to receive instructions and revelations from God whenever He sees fit to send them. But standing in some principality or appointed position waiting to receive instructions from God, and actually receiving instructions, is two different personalities: the one receives while the other waits to receive.

These "waivers" all say, believe in God and obey his commandments, but not one of them receives a message directly from God. They all quote, from the scriptures, their rule by which to govern the people—but they all have a different interpretation of the scriptures—and so, we have division, strife, uncertainty, confusion, and a powerless ministry.

O ye people! How much longer will you spend your money to support the preachers, of other men's revelations; "who allure through the lusts of the flesh and with feigned words make merchandise of you" telling stories, quoting poetry, joking and jesting, while they feast with you, waxing fat, and enjoying their pleasures, vacations, and high-powered cars—at your expense?

A country is no better than its leaders, and a people is no better than its preachers.

To cure a disease one must get rid of the cause. A good doctor eliminates the cause, and the disease dies for lack of fuel. Which do you want? A good doctor, or a lingering disease? You have your free agency. You can eliminate the cause and enjoy the blessings of the Lord and receive a reward, or you can hold to your disease and lose the reward and blessings of the Lord and suffer the wrath of an offended God; for the wars, winds, lightnings, famines, earthquakes, and pestilences are the result of rejecting a good doctor—Jesus Christ. And these things shall continue until a full end is made of all nations and kingdoms who reject the counsel of Jesus Christ.

I am told I ought not to tear down another's house until I have built a better one—I believe I have built a better one; at least I have a blue-print of the best house that was ever built; and have a title to a lot on which to build the house; and have laid the foundation; and am in possession of the material with which to build the house (and I did not get the blue-print out of the Bible neither did I get the title, to the inheritance, out of the Bible). And the foundation was not laid on the sandy ground of men's opinions and private interpretations; nor did I get the building material from hay, wood, and stubble—other men's dreams, visions, and revelations.

No, I got the blue-print from the architect, that gave others their architectural dreams, visions, and revelations—by obeying the teachings in the scriptures. And the title, to the inheritance, came to me, from a king who owns, controls, and has power to defend against all enemies, armies, and fortresses.

After digging deep, in good ground, the foundation was laid on a rock (personal revelations)—not on Peter, the rock of certain infallible interpreters.

The building material is given me through personal communion with the owner and lawful possessor of incorruptible substances—eternal wealth; gold, silver, jewels, precious stones, silks, linens; in a kingdom of intelligent men and women; where cities of beautiful edifices are intelligently arranged; with vast areas of gardens, groves, walks, rivulets, fountains, flowers, fruits; and an invigorating atmosphere filled with refreshing fragrance, that thrills the soul, pleases the eye and taste; where pests, rust, and decay cannot enter.

Some say Christianity has failed. Before a thing can fail, it must first be a success. If the professing Christians, and religionists, have never put it to the test—how can it have failed?

If the promises and prophecies of the scriptures to the saints, are ever fulfilled, it will be under a different leadership than that which is now leading—unless they, the present leaders, get the keys, gifts, power, and authority, that they should have—but do not now have.
