U.S. Fish Hatchery

The U.S. Fish Hatchery located on Seven Mile Road is one of the most interesting institutions in Michigan.

Established by Nelson W. Clark in 1874, it was originally operated by the state, but since 1880 it has been under the United States Fish Commission. At present it is under the supervision of L. R. Wadley and has three other permanent personnel.

This station has Brook Trout, Lochleven, Rainbow Trout, Large Mouth Bass, Small Mouth Bass, and Sunfish. In the year 1945, the total output was 84,100 fish.

The station supplies almost all the lakes and streams of Michigan, the United States, and has exported millions of fish to French, Germany, South Africa, New Zealand, and other countries.

It spreads different species, it helps maintain fishing in a lake which is suitable for fish, and it keeps up the supply of fish in lakes in which many die during the winter, making a fisherman's dream of many small lakes and streams.

You figure it out:
A Temperate Climate makes it a desirable place for a vacation home or a place to live in during the winter months.
A South-Central location makes it a desirable place to live in during the winter months.

Restoration Fund To Rebuild Mission Schools

Above are the Presbyterian Church in Laguna, Philippines (top), and a Presbyterian Hospital (at top) in the Philippine Islands. The both of which were destroyed during the war.

The Presbyterian Church is raising the Restoration Fund to rebuild missions, churches and hospitals in Asia and the Pacific Islands. A total of about $11,500,000 will be spent for this purpose. The fund also is helping provide food, clothing and shelter for native Christian pastors and church leaders in those lands.

SMITH - NORTHROP
George Smith, son of Fred Smith of Plymouth and Clara Mae Northrop, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Northrop of this city were united in marriage Saturday evening, October 19th, in the Salem Federated Church. The double ring service was performed by candlelight and the young couple spoke their wedding vows before their pastor, Rev. Carl M. Penhall. Mrs. Clyde Hardesty of Whitmore Lake sang two numbers before the ceremony. "Because" and "At Dawning." The wedding music was played by Mrs. Harmon Gale.

Mr. Northrop accompanied his daughter to the altar. She wore a powder-blue suit with gray hat and a corsage of white peonies. Mrs. Knowles Buer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and Mrs. Floyd Northrop (a sister-in-law) of Ypsilanti, was bridesmaid. The matron of honor wore a light gray suit with brown accessories; her corsage was of yellow baby mums. The bridesmaid wore a dark gray suit with light accessories and corsage of yellow baby mums. Knowles Buer was the groom's attendant and Floyd Northrop, the bride's brother, was usher.

The church arch filled with palms made a fitting background for the traditional candlelight and bouquet of lilies, white and baby mums. The bride's mother, Mrs. Glen Northrop, wore a gown of black, white and white gardenias. After a reception held in the church dining room, Mr. and Mrs. Smith left for a trip to Canada. They have a furnished apartment on Six Mile Road in Salem and will be at home to their friends after October 30th.

Public schools of Michigan will gain on November 5, regardless of how voters decide the fate of ballot proposal No. 2.

This proposal would amend the state constitution whereby 75 per cent of all sales tax revenues would be earmarked for local governments. Schools would get approximately $160,000,000 a year compared with $60,000,000 in 1945-46. Cities, villages, and townships would get $47,000,000 instead of $20,000,000.

If the ballot proposal carries—and the Michigan Education Association believes it has a 50-50 chance of so doing—then school teachers will rejoice. No more legislative lobbying for funds. The state constitution will guarantee in perpetuity as long as the amendment stands—a big boost in money for payment of salaries and other expenses.

School teachers are underpaid in this postwar inflation period, as compared with the rest of our wage-earners. Property owners balk at lifting the 15-mil limitation on property taxes. The amendment would offer a happy solution for public education. No doubt about that.

If the ballot proposal is defeated by voters who fear it would lead to additional taxes in 1947, then the schools still stand an excellent chance of getting more funds at Lansing.

The straw in the wind to this conclusion is provided by Rep. John P. Espe, chairman of the powerful house ways and means committee of the State Legislature. Espe believes the amendment is bad legislation. He warns that the state government is not functioning with only 24 per cent of the sales tax revenue.

However, he recommends that state and local schools be increased from $60,000,000 to $75,000,000 or $90,000,000 a year, a boost of 25 to 33 per cent.

Espe also favors state aid for local units in school districts financially unable to carry on. His additions include an increase in the state aid to $10,000,000.

It is the judgment of the State Board of Education that the amendment is a good one and should be carried.

President of the Michigan Institute of Local Government, the adoption of the sales tax amendment would lead to a $21,500,000 deficit for the first year of operation of state government.

If the $275,000,000 veteran's benefit would be $39,114,000, the deficit would be $39,114,000.

You cannot stop caring for the present running the prison, paying all the expenses, educating your veterans, and the thousands of things state government is doing for the people of Michigan," he said. "People just can't stand for it."

Robert S. Ford, director of the University of Michigan's Bureau of Government, points out that local benefits under the tax amendment would depend on whether or not state and property tax levels stay at the present level for $1,800,000 for the entire state.

If those taxes are reduced, as they may be in school districts, revenues for schools will not be increased as much. A portion of the amendment is a now anticipated. Likewise, if the state should decide to impose additional taxes to maintain existing services, residents of school districts would have to pay more taxes.

Ford also pointed out that the hope of financial gains for cities, villages and townships may turn out to be a mirage. The state now returns all of the proceeds of the intangible tax and the new 10 percent tax on liquor to cities, villages and townships. The combined yield amounts to $18,000,000.

It is conceivable that the state legislature might amend the law to retain all of the proceeds of these two taxes for state purposes," he explains. "If so, the gains to local units would be almost entirely nullified."

The Detroit bureau of governmental research takes much the same view.

In an announcement December 8, the bureau declares that the adoption of the tax diversion amendment will lead inevitably to more taxes.

"As things now stand, the school lobby has been the most successful in the state," states the bureau report. "School aid distributed by the state has grown from 22 million in 1933, prior to the sales tax, to 50 million three years ago and close to 64 million last year. In 1941 basic grants to schools were 41 million. This year they are 60 million."

Fundamentally, in the opinion of the bureau, the amendment is unsound because it "violates the fundamental and sound principle that responsibility for raising money should accompany the spending of it. That principle is bedrock in responsible government."

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, recently pointed out that approval of the tax amendment may force the legislature to throw back upon local governments more than $4,000,000 worth of state educational services now paid by the state.

Michigan Society for Mental Hygiene, through its directors, has expressed opposition to the amendment, charging it would "jeopardize" the state's entire mental health program.

The State Association of Equalization Schools, headed by John S. Page, superintendent of schools at Howell, likewise opposes the amendment.

After studying all the arguments pro and con pertaining to the sales tax amendment, the writer of this column has come to the following conclusions: Schools will gain financially whether the amendment is defeated or adopted. New taxes will be imposed if the amendment is approved. Cities, villages and townships will not be ahead financially if the amendment carries.

It's always fair weather when good neighbors share together!

Regardless of the season, a thoughtful neighbor always knows how to share. That goes for his party-line telephone, too.

Today, with telephone equipment still scarce because of material shortages, knowing how to share your party line is more important than ever before. Sharing the lines means more service for more people sooner.

To provide as many waiting applicants as possible with telephone service, we are temporarily having to limit a lot of new installation to party lines. As additional facilities come through and are installed, we will be able to give individual-line service to those who want it.

But meanwhile, you can help to improve party-line service by following these simple suggestions:

- 1 When the line is in use, please don't interrupt except in case of emergency.
- 2 Keep all calls as brief as possible.
- 3 Avoid making several calls in succession.
- 4 Be sure to hang up after every call. One receiver off the hook puts all the telephones on the line out of service.

OBITUARY

DEAN F. GRISWOLD
Dean F. Griswold passed away on Thursday of last week at the age of 94 years after an almost lifetime residence in this village.
Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Caster-line Funeral Home with Rev.
Harold Fredsell officiating. Some sixty fellow Masons attended the services, led by Knights Templar in full uniform, and also conducted the burial rites in Rural Hill cemetery with prayer by Rev.
Fredsell.

Surviving are the wife, two daughters, Mrs. Allan W. Barron of Highland Park and Mrs. Howard E. Church of Cleveland, Ohio, and a nephew, Charles, of Searshlight, Arizona.

Dean Griswold was born to Clarke A. and Fanny Griswold at their farm-home located just east of town and bordered by what is now Base Line and Griswold Roads. Graduating from Michigan State College in 1873, he went to Olivet College for two years' additional study. He then returned to the family home here for a time, leaving for Dixon, Ill., where he resided for a few years. It was there he met and married Abbie March of that city. The Griswolds soon came back to Northville to reside. Mrs.
Griswold passed away in 1918.

Some time later Mr. Griswold married Mrs. Mattie Cunningham of this village and the couple have made their home at 315 West Dunlap street all these years. Mr. Griswold having retired from farm life about 1911 and purchased the town property for a permanent home.

CLARA SIMMONS GREER
Mrs. William K. Greer of Plymouth passed away Saturday in a Detroit hospital following a long illness. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Schrader Funeral Chapel in Plymouth.

Besides the husband, two sons survive, together with the deceased's father-in-law, Mr.
and Mrs. Elza Simmons, also of Plymouth. Mrs. Greer was a niece of Mrs. E. E. Miller of West street, Northville.

The Simmons family lived on Eight Mile Road, just east of town for many years previous to their removal to Plymouth.

IN MEMORIAM
In loving memory of our passion and father, Claude E. Finney, who passed away one year ago, Sunday, October 21. Sadly missed by his wife and family. 20

Know Your Breed Brahmans

Brahmans, the name given to the native humped cattle breed of India, were first imported into America because of their resistance to cattle fever ticks, ability to forage for food on poor land and capacity to stand extreme hot weather. As Brahmans were used for milk and as work animals and not for beef, the original stock imported into southern states, did not prove very suitable for beef. Rapid strides in breeding improvement has made Brahman of demand on the market.

The modern Brahman is a bulky, blocky animal, built along beef lines, although he retains his hump, dewlap, lapping ears and his ability to thrive in warm weather.

Use Seed Corn Tester
— Simple and Accurate —

Seed Corn Tester Made of Cloth, with Pockets for the Kernels.

Ear seed corn tester, shown in illustration may be made any size by taking two yard, of muslin cloth, doubling it and stitching across every 1 1/2 inches, cutting just below the lines of stitching, then stitching the other way, pockets in which to place the corn to be tested can be made. This will divide 375 pockets.

To use, start at the lower left hand corner, putting two or three kernels from an ear in each pocket, keep record. When filled, double end of the tester and tie in water a few minutes daily. Roll in a dry cloth and keep in a warm room. In four or five days the kernels will be well sprouted if fertile.

Farm Ponds Aid to Proper Flood Control

Where possible, a farm pond should have a relatively small drainage area. A pond that drains a large area, if the entire water supply is cut off from one of the tributaries, the loss is considerable.

If a small stream must be used, it is very easy to construct a large emergency spillway to care for excess water during flood periods. All of the spillway should be screened to prevent loss of fish during high water.

Sterilamp Use in the Poultry Shed Advised

Invisible bullets of light, sprayed by the sterilamp ultraviolet tube, has given the poultry raiser a new weapon to combat air-borne cross infections which are responsible for causing a high rate of mortality among chicks. In tests made it was found that chick mortality could be cut in half and that entering losses were greatly reduced when the ultraviolet tube was installed.

Production Line Is Adapted to Farms
Mechanical Age Proves Benefit to Agriculture

The production line generally is considered to exist only in city factories, but many farmers today have borrowed a leaf from industry's book by putting their grain handling operations on approximately the same automatic basis.

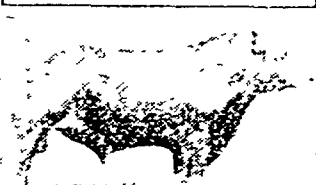

A by-product of the electro-agriculture age, a system of this nature is applicable to both small and large farms. Here's how it works: Grain-laden wagons are driven into the barn or adjacent to a building in which the produce is to be stored. Stationary or portable elevators, powered by electric motors as small as one-half horsepower, take grain from overhead bins, pass it over a series of rollers, and then into a ground grain bin. The roller system is controlled by a switch on the grain bin. The rollers are driven by a motor which is connected to the main power line. Know Your Breed

Brown Swiss

First importation of Brown Swiss into the United States was in 1869. The breed is well adapted to dairy and dairy-farming conditions. Brown Swiss, due to their ruggedness and ability to consume large quantities of coarse roughages as well as their carcass value are an ideal general farm breed.

The milk is white and the globules of medium size. The average test is 4 per cent butterfat.

Brown Swiss are second only to the Holstein in size among the dairy breeds. Mature cows weigh about 1,850 pounds. They are heatier, muscled, blockier and more fleshy and angular than other dairy breeds.

Inoculate Soybeans To Get Ride of Weeds

The best way to help soybeans stay ahead of weeds is to inoculate the seed. The presence of large numbers of effective bacteria, from the start, enables the young plants to draw nitrogen from the air for faster growth.

They quickly fill the row and shade the ground, preventing weed growth, conserving moisture, and lessening the need for cultivation.

The effectiveness of soybean inoculation was demonstrated at an eastern experiment station. The inoculated test plots matured into a highly profitable crop due to better stands, aided by a plentiful supply of immediately available nitrogen.

An Irishman with the British expeditionary force was telling his friend of his narrow escape at Dunkerque.

"The bullet went in me chest, and came out the back," said Pat. "But," answered his friend, "it would go through your heart, and kill you."

"Me heart was in me mouth at the time," came the quick reply.

Billy: "I want some soap that's got an extra strong perfume."

Greer: "What do you want to use it for, Billy?"

Billy: "Well, I want my mother to know when I've washed my face and ears so she won't make me do it all over again!"

N.H.S. Given Voice On Committee

If you have any ideas, write them down and give them to your Student-Council chairman.

Three Cheers For The Second Team

It's about time that we gave a little credit to our second team. These are the fellows that practice hard trying to better themselves so that they may make the first team. They carry on in spite of the fact that some may receive no letter for their efforts. In fact, some of the fellows get more satisfaction out of playing than in getting a school letter, even if they don't play on the first team.

The fellow who gives about everything and kicks because he can't play hasn't as much team spirit as the fellow who does as he is told. If a fellow quits playing baseball because they won't let him pitch, he has the wrong idea about sports and the team can get along better without him.

The main purpose in High School sports is to promote team-work and cooperation which will help the boys in their later life. Keep up the good work you reserves.

Did You Know? ...

The township of Northville and Plymouth combined was organized in 1824 or 1825. After the organization of the Township of Plymouth, two communities gradually developed. The two villages were divided in 1829.

Northville was given its name because it was the north part of the Village of Plymouth.

The first township election was held in Tibbitt's barn May 25, 1827. The first township organization was effected in the spring of 1827. At this town meeting a resolution was adopted that hogs be allowed to run in the highways. This was adopted because there were no highways to speak of and hogs could not be kept in their pens.

On the site of what is now the Northville Springs on the Fishery Road, Charles F. Roger built, in 1822, the first plant in America which successfully condensed milk and sold it commercially.

The decrepit old car drove up to the toll bridge. "Fifty cents," cried the bridge-keeper. "Sold," replied the driver.

If you're figuring NOW for '47...

With the end of harvest, and winter's approach, clear-thinking farmers start planning for next spring. They are thinking in terms of expansion-of increased profits in 1947.

Most farmers will agree that the answer to the manpower shortage is increased use of electricity. But it's not always easy-on a budget-to know whether an electric brooder will prove a better investment than a feed grinder or a portable grain elevator.

When it comes to electrical improvements for your farm, there's one man it pays to consult-your Edison Farm Service Advisor. He has the up-to-the-minute facts on every sort of electrical equipment-he can arrange practical demonstrations for you. More than that, your Edison man can give you accurate, impartial recommendations for planning your long-range electrification program. He has no equipment to sell...there's no charge for his services. He's simply available to help you-to put the latest Edison research and experience to work on your farm.

How many of these "WIRED HANDS" are working for you?
(The Edison man can advise you on each of these electrical time and labor savers, as applied to your own farm.)

Feed Grinders	Deep Freezers	Sterilizers
Feed Mixers	Barn Cleaners	Separators and Churners
Silo Fillers	Cattle Sprayers	Pumps and Water Heaters
Electric Fences	Plant Starters	Brooders
Stock Clippers	Crop Elevators and Huskers	Egg Candler and Graders
Yard and Barn Lights	Ventilators	Germ-Killing Lamps
Hay and Straw Choppers	Milkery and Milk Coolers	Poultry De-Beakers
