Buy Christmas Seals - Save Human Lives

In 1947 the American Red Cross and the National Tuberculosis Association co-operated in the sale of Christmas seals in order to save the lives of those suffering from tuberculosis. Officials estimate that at least 100,000 lives are saved each year in America through the sale of Christmas seals.

The Tuberculosis Association is not handling the campaign alone; the Red Cross is doing its part to the annual Red Cross drive.

The association's work does not end when the patient has been cured. The majority of cured patients are young, and are in need of a steady job. They are given a list of places where they can find a job, and are given some assistance until they are able to take their own place in society.

Protect Garden Furniture - Any piece of outdoor furniture, such as garden or lawn benches or tables, wears out or rusts much more quickly than furniture used indoors, because of its exposure to the elements. If garden furniture is to be made to last, it is imperative that it be thoroughly painted or varnished. If the doors during the winter, the repainting or revarnishing job should be done before the furniture is placed in the open for the coming season.

On heavy clay soils, small seeds should be sown deeper than shallow or they will rot. Generally, seeds should be sown only deep enough to insure that they be in soil that is moist and are covered deep enough so that they will not be splashed out or an enemy rain.

Home Pasturization Now Proven Practical
Small Herd Owner Now Able to Sell Pure Milk
Pasteurization - the process of heating milk to kill the micro-organisms - has long been generally accepted throughout the world. Most states do not have laws covering pasturization. Without exception, however, leading states require pasturization of milk sold to the public. Development of some type of pasturization machine is possible for the home. Safeguard home pasturization is a most desirable feature for the home. To meet U. S. public health requirements, the temperature of the milk should be 145 degrees for 30 minutes, after which cooling to 60 degrees, after which cooling water should be added to bring the milk to 60 degrees. This is the temperature that may be used for home pasturization. Miss Margaret Carpenter, who is attending the Baptist Seminary in Chicago spent Thanksgiving vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Carpenter of First street.

The Michigan State Medical society, one of the most progressive state medical groups in the Nation, has added another "first" to its long list of achievements. During World War II medical records found that 1,000 Michigan youths were rejected for military service because of cerebral trouble, due largely to rheumatic fever. Records also prove that rheumatic fever kills more children than any other disease.

Since with this factual information Michigan physicians and surgeons have established diagnostic centers in nine cities—Lansing, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Bay City, Traverse City, Jackson, Ann Arbor, Flint and Marquette. Family doctors are invited to bring cases to these centers for diagnosis. Laboratory tests and x-rays are made. Detection of the fever is extremely difficult in early stages.

Lieut. Governor Vernon J. Brown suggests that the legislature impose a three-mill property tax to guarantee adequate financial support to state-supported colleges. Such action is needed, he says, in view of the present approval of 76 per cent of the sales tax to local governments including the public schools.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, state superintendent of public instruction, recommends that $11,000,000 be set aside from the more than $100 million in state funds available for education. This sum would be used to finance and to improve the state's public schools. Contributions to the state's educational fund, vocational education and visiting teachers' expense.

Another proposal to ease the financial crisis at Lansing would return a portion of the state government's F. F. E. fund to local government. Reports that the state's public utility fund is $7,500,000 in excess of the state's needs. This would be used to finance and to improve the state's public schools. Contributions to the state's educational fund, vocational education and visiting teachers' expense.

Lansing reports are circulating that the state's public utility fund is $7,500,000 in excess of the state's needs. This would be used to finance and to improve the state's public schools. Contributions to the state's educational fund, vocational education and visiting teachers' expense.

cost of food would be reduced 3 per cent. The Michigan Education association is reported to be unfavorable to the plan. It would deprive schools of approximately $30,000,000.

A sharp break in food prices is forecast for spring, 1947. Prices today are 140 per cent above mid-1933—identical to the food price rise between 1914 and 1920. The pack of canned fruits and vegetables this season has been estimated by canners at 515 million cases of 24 cans each. That's about DOUBLE the 270 million case pack of the pre-war 1938-39 season.

The free enterprise system isn't always a profit system. It can be a loss system. Proof: A $51.6 million loss sustained by the Ford Motor company during the first nine months of 1946. Actually, during 15 years preceding World War II 58 per cent of all corporate profit and loss statements showed a LOSS. In 1939 81 corporations with total assets of $50 million or more showed a net profit of 3.1 per cent of their net worth.

The Ford management told Ford employees last December that the proposed increase in wages would result in a $65 million operating loss for 1946. Despite two price increases, the same month loss was $116 million. The company has been spending $50 million for added research and engineering facilities.

Less than 200 Michigan veterans were affected by the recent suspension of government-subsidized payments by the Veterans Administration. -- Laying costs from January through September increased 11 per cent according to the U. S. bureau of labor statistics. October and November will bring a further rise due to lifting of price controls.

Hard to believe. Despite newspaper headlines of airplane disasters, air travel has been safer in 1946 than in any previous year. The ratio of passengers killed for each 100,000,000 passenger miles flown from Jan. 1 to Oct. 31 was 1.14. Last year it was 2.57. Adoption of the airplane by the Michigan Navy will open the way to state-wide airport improvements in 1947.

Chosen: Harry F. Kelly has chosen the lobby on the state building at Lansing as the site for a new state office building. The site is located on the corner of State and Capitol streets. The building is to be completed in 1947.

Why in Lansing, Mich. is the state building at Lansing as the site for a new state office building. The site is located on the corner of State and Capitol streets. The building is to be completed in 1947.

mission is proceeding with full steam on its program of recreational improvements. A total of $2,700,000 will be sought in the 1947 legislative session for state park acquisition and development during the coming two years. -- Independent retailers reports a 24 per cent rise in sales for October, 1946, as compared with the same month a year ago.

Of Michigan's total land area of 36,494,500 acres, close to one-half is classed as forest lands. It is the opinion of Dr. Grover C. Dillman, president of the Michigan College of Mining and Technology at Houghton and Sault Ste. Marie, that Michigan is not deriving full economic benefit from its forest resources. Too much wood goes outside the state to be processed or manufactured into products. Second, only a portion of the wood used in Michigan is made into products affording the greatest economy. The export of wood wastes is tremendous. If more of Michigan's wood were to be processed in Michigan and if more of the wood waste were to be utilized by industry, Michigan would gain substantially in added employment.

The national legislative committee of the Veterans of Foreign Wars recommends that the United States government pay a federal bonus of $500 to each veteran of World War II. -- The state department of the American Legion is keeping a watchful eye on Michigan's $50,000,000 veterans' trust fund, now that the voters have approved a $270,000,000 state bonus for Michigan veterans. The trust fund was set up after Nebraska's $20,000,000 fund for veterans of World War I. There is one difference, however. Nebraska's fund was a substitute for a state bonus; Michigan's fund (which is sponsored by veterans in the same spirit) is a "plus" expenditure and service. Hence the Legion interest.

How to maintain public order of government, a home and a family, despite today's political inflation, is a real problem. It is one of the problems of state legislatures. Michigan's new state legislature, Governor Elmer Kim Sigler will have his inaugural message to the voters on January 2.

Michigan will have a Detroit governor-elect to take office on January 2. It was up to them to take Michigan out of the "political inflation" of the state. The governor of 56 per cent of state tax revenues to the government. How does what the legislature must do to do it? It is a real problem. It is a real problem. It is a real problem.

state had too much money on hand. These idle millions, so the logic went, should be returned back home to pay for increased costs of cities, schools and other home governments.

While it was true that the cash balances at Lansing were in excess of $125,000,000, it was equally true that only $21,532,000 of this sum was available to the legislature for appropriations. All other funds have been tagged, restricted, appropriated, earmarked—choose your own word for it. The veterans' trust fund, for example, is $50,000,000; state highway fund, $11,453,000; primary school fund, $14,417,000; appropriation balances for buildings and improvements (delayed due to lack of materials, etc.), $27,281,000.

Inflation caused higher prices and higher prices caused more taxes to be collected. The surplus at Lansing—built to unrealistic heights by emphasis on the $125,000,000 cash balances—collected squarely with inflation on operating costs. The result was a voters' dissatisfaction with effects of inflation. It is very doubtful that the amendment would ever have been adopted in normal times. Inflation created the condition whereby voters acted as they did. Now comes the news at Lansing that inflation of operating costs—higher cost of food, supplies, labor, etc.—will require higher appropriations for state departments and state institutions such as prisons, hospitals and colleges. Requests for legislative appropriations have risen to $212,650,000 for the coming fiscal year. However, revenues are estimated at only $144,032,000 because of the diversion of 79 per cent of the sales tax revenue back to home governments. The difference is $68,618,000. The final amount may be less or more.

Clarence W. Lock, deputy revenue commissioner, estimates the prospective deficit at $55,000,000. He points out that state aid to local governments and public services has mounted from $41,600,000 in 1932 to $167,036,000 by last June 30. It will go higher next year at a time when the state is being asked to finance veterans' bonuses, maintain facilities for education of veterans at colleges, and otherwise provide services all of which have been authorized by state legislators elected from home communities.

The state's current dilemma is much the same as the inflation problem confronting all business and industry. In 1932 Michigan's total sales tax revenue was $110,000,000. In 1946 it is $1,100,000,000. The state's revenue is $1,100,000,000. The state's revenue is $1,100,000,000.

demand deposits last week were in excess of $39 BILLION. That's a lot of money, a lot of pressure at a time when shortages are widespread.

James Truslow Adams, noted historian and writer, declared Nov. 19 that "the next crash will make 1929 look like a picnic."

Listen to this: "After every war, eventually the loss of capital goods has to be made good, and it can only be made good the hard way. In this World War we have destroyed more capital goods than ever before in the history of the world, and the crash will be correspondingly great."

Athletic Board Meeting

The Athletic Board had a meeting on the evening of November 25. The purpose of which was to discuss the rules which every boy and girl taking part in sports should obey. The rules are as follows:

1. No smoking.
2. No drinking.
3. Be home at 10:00 p.m. on week days and on Saturdays preceding Tuesday games.
4. Good citizenship in school as well as on the playing field.

Tolerance

What is tolerance? If you will consult your dictionary you will find that it means willingness to bear with others, especially those whose opinions differ from yours.

Tolerance is something everyone can always use more of. Around school there are many opportunities to practice it. Consider and respect your teachers. They not only give us plenty of knowledge and respect. For good citizenship tolerance must be put to practice. At the basketball game let's respect the referee's decisions, and you will be proud of your student body when they show good sportsmanship. Be tolerant with your friends. Most enemies are made by lack of tolerance. Let's sum this up. Tolerance is a part of respect for our neighbor. The good citizenship in our school surely will increase if we all be happier.

For further information, contact one of the bulletin boards located on both the Senior and Junior High School.

All applications must be in by December 17, so hurry fill out yours to take up to a test on January 18.

Mr. Sullivan also presented a check to the women of the Methodist church who have served the meals during the last four years. The Rotary club returns to the Presbyterian church, beginning December 3rd, for their regular meetings.

Basketball

This year the number of fellows allowed to play on the first basketball team has been limited to eight by Coach Decken. The second team, limited to fifteen, will be composed of Freshmen and Sophomores with no Juniors allowed. Coach Decken has taken this action because he wants to give special attention to Freshmen and Sophomores so that they may develop into a good first team later on.

Our game with Brighton this Friday marks the beginning of the basketball season. Let's all be there rooting for our boys.

Club News

The Junior Home Ec. Club is having a Christmas tea for their mothers tomorrow evening at 7:07. The new members will be formally initiated by candle light. Last Tuesday night at 7:00 Mrs. Lucht's room the Photo Club had a Scavenger Hunt. After the directions and the articles to be found had been given out the three groups then hit the groups were Photo Flash, Flash Bulbs, and Snap Shots.

Upon return, at 8:30, each group displayed their articles and Sheldon Williams counted them. The snap shots won with 22 of the 38 articles. Donuts and cider were enjoyed by every one.

Friday night December 6 will be the occasion of a dinner given by the N-Club for the Brighton varsity club. The boys will have chocolate milk by the case, a vegetable, and a choice of spaghetti, and meatballs or meatloaf and scalloped potatoes. The meal will be topped off by ice cream and cake. This "big feed" will be held in the advanced math room in the basement, after the basketball game, with some of the girls of the Home Ec. club serving.
