

Students Win U. of M. Honors

Approximately 1,000 University of Michigan students received recognition for scholastic achievement when the 24th annual Honors Convocation was held on Friday, April 25, in Hill Auditorium.

Speaker for the occasion was Marjorie Hope Nicolson, professor of English in the graduate school at Columbia University. Her subject was "Merchants of Light."

Freshman, Sophomore, Junior and Senior honors are awarded to those students who have attained an average equivalent to at least half A and half B. Graduate students are selected for outstanding achievement in special fields. Fellowship and scholarship holders and the recipients of special awards are likewise honored for outstanding achievement in their fields.

Following is the list of local students honored:

Northville: Marilyn Jean Kock, Sophomore Honors, Literacy College.

Plymouth: Janice A. Cavell, State College Scholarship, Jean R. Cranich, 971 Church, Malcolm Herbert MacGregor, Sophomore Honors, Literacy College, Yvonne J. Cook, University Scholarship, Senior Honors, Literacy College.

Walled Lake: John M. Culbertson, Rankham Department Honors, Freshman.

Marina graduated from Northville High with the class of 1945. A former Northville resident, graduated here in 1942 and from Michigan State Normal College last June. She expects to receive a master's degree in August. Both girls were recipients of scholarships for attendance at the University of Michigan.

First Grade Wins Attendance Banner

The Northville Parent-Teachers' Association met on Thursday of last week in the Grade school gym. Mrs. Newland's first grade room won the attendance banner with ten parents present.

The speaker for the evening was an officer from the traffic division of the Michigan State Police. A film was presented which illustrated the driving course now being taught in several high schools throughout the United States. A question and answer period followed.

Refreshments were served by third grade mothers from a table decorated with daffodils and jonquils.

Installation of officers will take place at the next meeting of the P.T.A. Officers-elect are: Wilbur Petz, president; Mrs. Al Charters, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth MacKay, secretary and Harold Mackay, treasurer.

Car Recovered from Waterford Dam

A sedan stolen March 24 from Henry Roman's, 3866 Croette avenue, Detroit, was recovered Saturday from the Waterford Dam, in Northville Township, by the Sheriff's road patrol.

The car had been stripped of its radio, heater and tires before it had been run down the concrete embankment, deputies said.

Receding flood waters revealed the top of the submerged automobile.

Organize Safety Test Program

The Northville Police Dept., under the leadership of Chief Joe Denton, is making preparations for the annual safety tests for local motorists.

During a specified week, brakes, lights, horn and wiper will be subjected to official tests and approval by supervising authorities.

Dates of the test will be announced later.

Speaks To Women

MISS RACHEL BENFER

Pres. Host to Methodist Women

The North Yorks Auxiliary will be hosts to the Service League of the Methodist Church and the members of the Woman's Union at a combined meeting on Tuesday evening, May 5, at 8:00 p. m. in the Presbyterian Church House.

The speaker for the evening is Miss Rachel Benfer who will come from Chicago to address the women. After her graduation from George Washington University, Miss Benfer spent some time in the Kentucky Mountains and then in Spanish-speaking work at the Allison-Jones School in Santa Fe.

Since becoming a member of the Board of National Missions, Miss Benfer has made visits to Indian, Inter-Mountain, Negro, Oriental, Spanish-speaking, Cuban, Alaskan, Migrant, Newer Americans, Cowboys, City and Rural, Fields.

This will be a public meeting and the Auxiliary will welcome the women of the community. A fellowship tea will be served at the close of the evening. Miss Benfer is remaining in Northville for the night and will leave for the College of Wooster at Wooster, Ohio, the following day.

Three Local Men Buy Northville Laundry Business

Messrs. Acel Dayton, Norman Frid and Walter Stamann have purchased the Northville Laundry of the Frid Brothers and took possession Monday, April 28th. The transfer involved the business and machinery but not the property.

Sid and Cyril Frid came to Northville 22 years ago last March and purchased the Gillespie Laundry located on the north east corner of S. Center and Cady streets. They later moved to the flatiron building near the foundry, where they conducted the business until the erection of their present building on N. Center street in 1931-32.

100 Whip Stream Saturday Morning

Saturday morning over 100 trout fishermen lined the banks and waded the west branch of the Rouge. Few got their limit and several one, two and three trout. Among the more fortunate anglers were Merritt Meaker with a 13 inch-15 oz. trout, Stan Proctor, John Card, Dick Richmond, John Stark and others also took fish.

Reports of poaching and theft of fish from the hatchery ponds have been reported. Supt. Widmeyer reminds those involved that they may be charged with a federal offense and receive stiff penalties.

Mustang Nine Takes Farmington

Northville High School's baseball team won their first home game (the second game of the season) Tuesday at Cass Benton Park when Farmington came over to take them on. Cole pitched Northville to an 8-0 win over the Farmington nine.

Elect Johnson Head of Men's Club

At the regular monthly meeting of the Presbyterian Men's Club on Monday, April 28, Carl H. Johnson was elected president to succeed Robert Taggart. Other officers elected at the same time were: Rodolph Richard, vice president; Roger Sackett, treasurer; and George Mellen re-elected secretary. Plans were discussed for the "Sport-Night Show" to be held Thursday, May 15th, the annual June picnic in June and the summer program of golf and tennis.

Two interesting local speakers were heard in the program which followed. Mr. Taggart spoke and showed pictures on a new vacuum-type commercial potato peeler and Thomas Carrington told of the early history of Northville.

At the May meeting the speakers are to be D. Harper Britton, on the subject of "Personal Taxes," George Weiss, who will exhibit the "Morse Chain" and Dr. R. Sears a psychiatrist, formerly with the Army under the Public Health Service, will speak on his experience in that field.

Named District Executive Officer

Mrs. Samuel Geraci has been named an executive officer of the district board for Wayne County Home Extension classes. Having taken an active part in the work of the local group for the past years, Mrs. Geraci will take her place with other board members in planning next year's program for this district, in conjunction with Extension leaders at Michigan State College.

On Monday, at 1:15, Mrs. Geraci will be heard on the air, Station WKHM, Dearborn (1540 cycles) along with Miss Emma DuBord and others. Mrs. Geraci will tell of the work done by Northville members of Extension classes.

The Northville Downs will be permitted to keep 9 per cent of its pari-mutuel handle while paying the State 2 per cent under a proposed revision in the Racing Control Act.

The bill originally called for a split of 8 and 3 per cent. Rep. Elton R. Eaton, of Plymouth, succeeded in putting through an amendment as the bill advanced for a final vote in the House.

Last season Northville paid a flat $50 daily license fee for its 57 days of racing. Under the new act the State would receive approximately $175,000 in contrast to the $28,500 it received in 1946.

Meanwhile, the House declined to make any adjustment in the proposed $250,000 rental of the Fairgrounds Race Track by the Detroit Racing Association. The Association paid $12,000 rental last season.

Committee provisions also provide for Detroit to participate in the racing revenue up to a $500,000 ceiling.

WARD DROUILLARD

Home after Trip to Antarctic

Ward Drouillard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph St. Onge of Northville, was a member of the crew of the U.S.S. Albatross, which recently returned from a two months' 19,000 mile cruise to the Antarctic with Rear Admiral Byrd.

Ward was born eighteen years ago in Novi and has lived there most of his life. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Hicks of that place. Ward attended Northville High until his eleventh year, at which time he enlisted in the U.S. Navy.

He signed up for this branch on June 30 and received July 5, 1945. He received his first training at San Diego, California. Ward is a seaman first class. The Byrd expedition was his first trip abroad.

Ward left with the expedition for the Antarctic on December 1946 from Fort Monmouth, California. He was aboard the U.S.S. Albatross, AKA 97, which carried a crew of 172 Seabees. Ward's duty was to drive a bulldozer and he spent about two weeks on the ice when the party received their destination.

Ward recently visited his home in Northville and reported to his father that he has another year to serve with the Seabees before his discharge. He has one brother, Harold, who recently received his discharge from the Navy.

P.T.A. Sponsors Benefit Show

The P.T.A. is sponsoring a benefit musical May 8 at 8:00 in the High School auditorium. The proceeds will be used for the newly installed P.A. System.

The Detroit Musical Productions, made up of veterans from the Detroit Institute of Technology, will present a variety of solos, dances, songs and humorous skits. Paul Gram will provide the music. Joseph Sfair is the producer and Ted Daffereau manager. To add variety Mr. Roy Rex, a magician will entertain between acts—Mustang.

The program will be open to the general public at a small admission fee.

The Fourth Quarterly Conference of the Northville Methodist Church, was held Thursday evening, April 24th. Rev. Butt, the district superintendent, presided. Rev. W. L. Williams was unanimously invited to return for another year.

The reports of the committees showed the church had made much progress during the year and at the present time had enjoyed the best year in the history of the church.

The various committees for the coming year, officers and trustees were named as follows:

Trustees: W. B. Walker, Jr., E. M. Bogart, Walter Miller, Roy Store, Clarence Jerome, W. F. Clark, Alton Peters, Stanley Proctor, M. R. Elbert, Guy Filkins (honorary).

Work Begins on Athletic Field

Preparations are now underway for further improvements at the Northville Athletic Field. The local committee under the leadership of Geo. Locke, is planning on first cleaning up the field, laying out the ball diamond, and then placing the seats on the concrete for the bleachers. The present set-up seats about $50.

Just now the committee is making another appeal for funds and would appreciate any contribution, large or small, that will enable them to meet every obligation as they come due.

Work May Start on Mental Hosp.

Construction of the proposed Northville State Hospital to care for the mentally ill in the Detroit area can begin in 1948 if the Legislature accepts Gov. Kim Sigler's building program.

First working units of the hospital, which has been "on-again-off-again" as various legislative committees sought a solution of the State's fiscal problem, would accommodate 700 patients and cost $3,500,000.

Long range plans envision a capacity of 3,500, at an eventual cost of $15,000,000.

Gov. Sigler recommended that the Legislature appropriate $10,000,000 for capital improvements in the calendar year and another $10,000,000 next year.

Northville is very much in the planning stage of the hospital. We are now in the process of planning for the hospital and will hold public hearings on the proposed hospital in the near future.

Northville's Yesterdays

ONE YEAR AGO:

A large group of relatives from Detroit, South Lyon and Northville gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary Predmore on Cady street Sunday to assist in celebrating her eighty-sixth birthday, which fell on April 29.

The clubs and classes of the Northville High school, under the sponsorship of the Home Economics Club, will hold a carnival Friday evening.

At the request of a number of Northville parents the Cottage Inn stayed open last Friday night.

The Veterans' Institute is now in operation and classes are being held from 3:30 to 6:00 p. m. and 7:00 to 9:30 p. m. Mondays through Fridays.

Northville High's baseball team won two games during last week. Clarkson High was defeated 8-3 on Wednesday and Clarenceville bowed to the Mustangs, 16-7, on Thursday.

More than two hundred Masons and their families enjoyed a Masonic family night, Monday evening.

Three weddings Saturday held the social interest. Those united in marriage were Madeline Graham and Robert Crawford, Dorothy Frid and Robert Widmaler and Bessie Colby and Sam Bonfigliani.

FIVE YEARS AGO:

Orson Atchinson has issued a call for hard ball players to meet at 10:30 a. m. Sunday, May 3, in Cass Benton Park.

A Christian flag will be presented in a special observance at 8 p. m. Sunday, May 3, in St. Paul's Lutheran church. The flag is a gift of the Weather League.

Before the members of the Medical Emergency corps got into action Sunday afternoon on their practice runs, Dr. J. E. Sellard explained the definite part the organization has in relationship to the civilian defense program at large.

Tuesday noon, the Northville Cub Scouts presented a program at the Rotary Club. The program was in charge of Paul Carter and Russell Stedd explained the work of the Cub Scouts, what they were doing, their plans, and organization in the community. Thirty-five Cub Scouts are now registered and are working for their awards.

TEN YEARS AGO:

Northville's PWA water reservoir is being filled this week for another leakage test following repairs made by H. B. Culbertson and the Western Waterproofing Company required by Engineer Herald F. Hamel and the village council.

Northville's proposed budget of $61,000 which is to be given a public hearing May 3, is an increase of $1,215 over the accepted 1936-37 budget.

Joseph Himmelsbach is the new Commander of the Northville Community Knights Templar. Dr. Roland Thompson, for six years a resident physician at the Michigan Sanatorium has resigned his position to promote the tuberculosis program in the summer resort of Ansonia.

George V. Patterson of Portland, Me., has given a contract for the purchase of the Northville High school building.

FIFTY YEARS AGO:

Grains of the Erie plant have spent a full time of 291 men with the work in 1947. Production of 1,000,000 bushels of wheat has been the goal for the past few days and one of the men here already has talked back to work.

The loss by death of four of Northville's substantial citizens, Charles H. Johnson, April 22, Thomas J. Murray, April 23, William T. Thompson, April 24, and A. K. Dolan, April 27, has dealt this community a severe blow.

A new concern has opened a place of business in Northville. M. S. Coving has established The Northville Roofing Company in the Ely building.

Married at the Methodist parsonage, April 30, Roy Matheson and Julia Hanna, both of Northville.

At the public meeting held in the Village Hall Friday for discussion of the question of a sewer system for Northville, some 50 businessmen of the town were in attendance. The consensus of opinion seemed to be that just at this time, conditions would not warrant the establishment of a system, even though it must be done in the future.

High Clawson has retired from the blacksmithing business which he has been conducting here for some years past, and moved with his family to Pine Lake where he will engage in gardening.

Elbridge Miles left Wednesday for Columbus, O., to take the final test for enlistment in the aviation department of the U. S. Signal Service.

Good Tools Are Often Key to Garden Success

The key to easy gardening is often good tools.

Jack Rose, gardening specialist at Michigan State college, says a few simple, lightweight, good quality tools are best for home gardening. Poorly designed equipment made of cheap or low grade materials can increase the amount of work required to care for the garden.

For the small garden Rose lists the necessary tools as a shovel or long-handled spading fork, a steel bow rake, a 7-inch common hoe, a strong cord for laying out rows, and a trowel to reach all parts of the plot. A trowel is useful in transplanting but not essential.

In large gardens, covering 2,000 square feet or more, a sturdy wheel hoe is worthwhile. It takes the place of the common hoe and covers the larger area with less effort.

Tools should be well cared for. A thorough cleaning and a wipe with an oiled rag will prevent rusting. Hand hoes and shovels' implements should be kept sharp for greatest efficiency of operation.

Farm Employees May Be Covered By Compensation Act

Spring operations on Michigan farms will mean increased need for help and a greater possibility of accidents, warns N. L. Smith, specialist in farm management at Michigan State college.

Possible claims by employees for injuries sustained while working can mean a cash-outlay for the farmer-employer. If it is proven that negligence on the employer's part caused the accident, he can be required by the court to compensate the injured employee.

A recent study, conducted by the MSC farm management department, showed that very few farmers carry insurance to financially protect themselves in case of injury to hired help.

Two methods are open to farmers who wish to insure against loss resulting from injury to employees. Farmers carrying workman's compensation insurance on their employees are automatically included under the Workman's Compensation Act of 1912. With this type of policy, the employee is protected through benefits provided under the act. The farmer, as the employer, is protected since his insurance will pay the benefits. Employees are eligible only for benefits provided by the act and cannot seek further damages. Rates for this insurance, a present, are about $2.53 per $100 of payroll.

Employer's liability insurance also offers protection to the farmer. This is essentially a liability policy which protects a farmer against claims arising from injury or death of an employee. Policies of this type provide no automatic benefits except hospitalization benefits written into some policies. Further compensation depends upon the investigation by the representatives of the insurance company. Rates for this insurance vary a great deal between companies and type of policy issued.

Hoe With Care and Avoid Work

Weeds rob cultivated plants of water, plant food, and even light and space. Getting rid of weeds is a necessary part of farm work, but the weeding should be done with judgment, according to soil specialists at Michigan State college.

Once a seedbed is correctly prepared, there is little to be gained from hoeing or cultivating too often. A light stirring of the surface soil is all that is necessary to control weeds in most garden crops.

Deep cultivation is hard work for the home gardener and the specialists warn that it can be injurious to plant roots.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Woodworth expected to move some time this week into their home on Thayer Blvd., which has been occupied by the A. W. Pottinger family. The place has been returned to its original plan of a single dwelling, the third floor apartment having been eliminated. Mr. and Mrs. Essee Nisder, who have been living in the apartment, will move into the Woodworth residence on North Grace Avenue.

Uncle Sam Says

Wherever I hear one of my nephews say he has bought United States Savings Bonds, I feel like nudging him and saying: "Nephew, you haven't really bought anything. The money sound strange at first, but the proof is simple. Ordinarily when you buy something you have to spend your money. What you have actually done in acquiring saving bonds is to exchange non-interest bearing notes for interest bearing ones. You have merely converted your money into a different form, in form in which it will start growing in amount. In savings bonds your money earns $4 for every $100 invested in ten years."

Parasite Dodder May
Be Killed by 2, 4-DSelection of Clean
Seed Also Essential

By W. J. DRYDEN

Field dodder is an annual parasitic vine, growing on lespedeza, alfalfa, clover and various members of the dandelion family. It attaches itself to other plants and sends small growth into their tissue to absorb the sap.

As preventive is easier than the cure, it is essential that only seed free from dodder be planted. Spots in fields should be eliminated. This Circle shows how dodder wraps itself around alfalfa to absorb the sap.

It is possible by the use of 2,4-D weed killer. While the 2,4-D also will kill lespedeza and other plants in the sprayed areas, the loss usually will prove negligible as the dodder usually will be confined to small scattered areas.

The labor involved in cutting out dodder is excessive and it is almost impossible to remove all of the parasite by this method. Infested fields may be planted to grain or corn for several years. These crops are not attacked, but care should be taken that the dodder does not continue growing on weeds in the field.

SUPERIOR LETTUCE

Slabott lettuce, developed by the USDA, is available for the first time to the gardener. Non-heading, long standing Slabott produces rounded, frilled, light green leaves. Plants are of moderate size.

If the plants are set 10 to 12 inches apart and only basal leaves used, Slabott lettuce may be harvested over a period of several weeks. Slabott makes a good fall crop from midsummer plantings. It produces usable leaves three weeks longer than many well-known commercial leaf lettuce varieties. It receives its name because it is slow to "bolt" seed stems in warm weather.

Spills Decrease

Counterfeiters cheated the American public out of only $18,000 in 1942, compared with $771,000 per year between 1933 and 1938, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. A counterfeit bill often can be detected by comparing it with a genuine bill of the same denomination, paying special attention to the quality of the portrait, which is usually fine in a genuine bill. Counterfeit coins usually feel greasy or slippery.

Washtenaw County Teachers Organize

On April 10, an evening M.E.A. meeting of Washtenaw County teachers met in Ann Arbor when leaders were selected to organize the Classroom Teachers' Organization, (C.T.O.). Mrs. Christie Bradley of Salem Union School was chosen to organize the teachers of Plymouth, Salem, Duxboro, Town Line and neighboring areas.

On Monday afternoon, April 14, teachers from some of these schools met at the Salem Union School to elect officers and plan work for the benefit and betterment of the schools and to promote better acquaintance and cooperation among classroom teachers.

Officers elected were: pres., Mrs. Christie Bradley and vice-president, Mrs. Helene McTaggart, Salem Union School; secretary, Mrs. Edna Griesel, Jan. So. Salem School; treasurer, Mrs. Ruth McMullen, Washtenaw-Oak School.

Committees chosen were: publicity, Mrs. Esther French, Lapham School; delegate, Mrs. Jean Spencer, Duxboro School; public relations, Mrs. Doris Covell, Walker School.

After selection of officers it was decided to hold the first meeting at the home of Mrs. Christie Bradley in South Lyon at 8:00 p. m. on Monday, May 5. This will be a business and social meeting with light refreshments served at the close of the evening.

Other classroom teachers who are interested in joining the Washtenaw County group will be welcomed into membership.

Girl Scouts Plan for Camp

At a Girl Scout Association meeting held April 22, plans were made for Day Camp which will be held in Cass Benton Park on July 1, 2, 3, and 8, 9, 10. Mrs. C. H. Bloom and Mrs. G. V. Harrison were chosen chairmen for the camp. Mrs. C. D. Yabne, who will be camp director again this year, is planning to go to the Girl Scout directors' camp at Metamora early in June. The unit leaders are Mrs. George Weiss, Mrs. S. H. Robinson, Mrs. Edwin Moody, Mrs. G. V. Harrison, Mrs. J. W. Clarke, Mrs. R. Carter, Mrs. C. Carrington, Mrs. A. M. Lawrence, Mrs. Roy Vanatta and Mrs. Charles Ely.

Entirely new crafts will be offered to campers this year and more cook-outs and nature lore have been scheduled.

The will be the second Day Camp held in Northville for Girl Scouts.

Excavate for Two New Homes

Excavations have been made for two more new homes in the village. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bogart have started the basement of their place on the lot corner of Carpenter and Lake streets.

The Clyde Ferguson of Plymouth has also begun work on a new home on North Center and Maplewood. (Mrs. Ferguson was formerly Thelma Nide of Northville).

Plant Trout in Rouge River

Last Friday 500 legal sized brook trout were planted in the west branch of the Rouge River. A delegation from the Northville Exchange Club assisted in the operation. Wednesday another 500 were planted in the same river by the same party. Later a number of rainbow trout will be planted. The fish come from the local hatchery and the planting was supervised by Mr. E. B. Wadsworth, who is in charge of the Fish Hatchery.

Exchange Shown War Pictures

Child Health Day May First

Prevention of home accidents involving children will be the general theme of National Child Health Day to be observed May 1. Special effort will be made to arouse parents and others to the serious loss of life resulting from accidents, which annually take as many lives in the 1-to-14-year-old group as all diseases combined.

Impetus to the observance has been given by proclamations issued by President Truman and by the governors of various states.

In connection with the observance, child health authorities point out that to be healthy and learn to live a happy, useful life, a child should have:

The security of a family in which he shares in the love and affection of his parents and the family group.

A clean, well-ventilated home and a room of his own.

Well-planned and adequate meals at regular times.

Participation in outdoor and indoor activities.

Enough clothes to keep him comfortable.

As much free air and sunlight as the weather permits.

Playthings and a place to play, indoors and out, and time to play.

A thorough examination by a physician at regular intervals.

A visit to the dentist every six months.

Inoculations against smallpox and diphtheria (and whooping cough and tetanus, too, if the doctor advises them).

Serve Fresh Smelt for Delicious Meals

Smelt season is here again - will you have yours fried, broiled, baked, pickled, or in canapés?

Mouth-watering sauces and ways to cook smelt have been tested at Michigan State College. Recipes proved in test kitchens are now available in a new publication of the agricultural experiment station, "Fish Recipes-Smelt."

Buy smelt that is strictly fresh because these small silvery fish lose their special flavor if the oil in their flesh evaporates. Smelt are easily cleaned and are delicious if cooked and served well.

You will find directions for cleaning smelt and other information about them in the 8-page folder. Directs are given for frying, broiling, baking and pickling the smelt. Several canapé recipes are included for serving.

Other recipes are included for serving with pan-fried smelt. Recipes for hot and cold cream, tartar, Spanish and Bolognese sauces are given for smelt.

Other sauce recipes are included for use with broiled smelt.

For more smelt recipes, Experiment Station Bulletin 100 can be obtained without charge from the county extension office or from the Bulletin Office, Department of Public Relations, Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan.

A word of caution is being issued by a doctor. "And what is the 1 to 10 in the middle of the 1 to 10?"

200,000 4-H Members Get Training in Soil Conservation

More than 200,000 4-H Club members have received special training in soil conservation during the last three years, according to the National committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. Last year, 43 states and Puerto Rico made that activity a part of their 4-H program.

The club member's training includes, among many other soil conservation practices, contour farming, strip cropping, terracing, soil testing, establishing permanent pastures, sodding waterways and planting shelter belts and windbreaks. The activity is conducted under the direction of the Federal and State Extension Services.

Meat awards for top ranking 4-H soil conservation records on county, state, sectional and national levels are again offered in 1947 by Firestone. Awards include gold medals for county winners and $50.00 U. S. Savings Bonds for the six highest rating entrants in each state. In addition, 16 selected state winners receive a sectional award, which is a trip to the 4-H Club Congress in Chicago. Eight of the sectional winners are chosen for national honors, each receiving a $200 college scholarship.

Last year's state winner in Michigan was Duane Davis of St. Johns. County winners were named in Allegan, Arenac, Cass, Iosco, Jackson, Mason, Mecosta, Muskegon, Ogemaw, Ottawa, Saginaw, Schoolcraft, St. Joseph and Van Buren counties.

Complete information concerning this activity will be furnished by county extension agents.

Jack Van Coevering Here May 15th

The Men's Club of the Presbyterian Church will present Jack Van Coevering, Wildlife Editor of the Detroit Free Press, on May 15th at the Church House. Mr. Van Coevering will speak and show colored slides on hunting and game spots in Michigan. The lecture is open to all and free. Tickets may be secured from members of the Men's Club.

812 Children at Dental Clinic

Eighty-one children of the Wayne County have received dental service from the Children's Fund of Michigan during the past year.

These children made 176 visits to clinic where 408 teeth were extracted, 1575 fillings inserted and 3171 other dental operations performed.

Most of the children had no money but still can't put a fall or from winter to summer without a spring - Ray D. Erickson, Farmer's Guide.

V-E Day, officially announced as May 8, was welcomed throughout the civilized world from the "Lady of the Lamp" who had watched over the millions of boys who again proved to her that Liberty meant something tangible, to the most humble home in America. V-E Day means a day of prayer, of thanksgiving that the first phase of the war was over and that many American lives would be spared to make this world a better place in which to live.

Walled Lake Talk Set for May 8th

Originally scheduled for March 25th, the talk by Father Robert Wilken, O.F.M., at St. Williams' Parish Auditorium, Walled Lake, is to be given Thursday evening, May 8th, at 8 o'clock. Inclement weather necessitated the postponement.

Father Wilken, who is professor of sociology at Dun Scotus College will speak on "Christian Principles in the Catholic Family."

Sponsoring this event is the family life committee of the Northwest Deanery of the National Council of Catholic Women.

Sets New Record for Attendance

The Northville Exchange Club boasts of a pretty hot record for attendance during the calendar year, beginning Jan. 1, 1947. To date 20 members have "perfect attendance," and nine have only one miss during that time. Exchange challenges any other local club to match that attendance record.

The man who watches the clock usually remains one of the hands.

Here Is One Day That We All Can Celebrate

No other day offers as many special events, holidays, celebrations and historical incidents as May 1. Outstanding events are:

May Day.

Lei Day in Hawaii.

Child Health Day.

International Labor Day.

Spring Festival Day.

National Baseball Day.

Dewey Day, anniversary of battle of Manila Bay.

Moving Day in many cities.

National Music Week

An event anticipated each spring in more than 2,500 communities over the country is National Music Week, beginning always the first Sunday in May.

This year's observance will be the 24th annual, for Music Week was initiated in 1924, after having been held at different times in a number of cities for several years previously.

Offerings range from unrehearsed hymn sings in small rural clubs to a well-ordered, well-paced series of events.

"What brought you here?" "Two policemen, Judge." "Drunk, I suppose?" "Yes, both of them."
