Northville's Yesterdays

ONE YEAR AGO:

The V. F. W., through Commander Harold M. Murray is sponsoring a Cub Pack in Northville for the little fellows who are too young to join the Boy Scouts, but who are anxious to learn the fundamentals of Scouting during their Cubbing years.

Miss Patricia Williams recently graduated from Stewardess School in Chicago, Ill.

Northville High School baseball team defeated Keego Harbor 12-7 and lost to Plymouth 3 to 3 in games played on Tuesday and Friday of last week.

About 200 mothers and daughters attended the community banquet which was held in the Methodist church house Friday evening.

According to official announcement, the summer racing meet of the Northville Downs will be held here from July 13th to August 3rd and possibly another week, if conditions warrant.

FIVE YEARS AGO:

With more than 200 entries in the 51 classes which mark the first annual Northville Charity Horse Show, events will start at 9:30 this Sunday afternoon, May 24th.

Phyllis Lyke, Shirley Magle and Esther Rossow, juniors in the Northville High school will represent Northville organizations at the Wolverine Girls' State which will be in session from June 12-25, at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

Leona Mae White will be graduated at 3 p. m. Monday, May 23, from the Grace Hospital School of Nursing, Detroit.

Clarence Ellis, colored comedian and singer and his five-piece Harlem Jesters will open a regular week end engagement at Ben's Noy Inn this Sunday.

In the June graduation class at Vassar college, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. will be Lois Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Worthington F. Chapman of Dunlap street.

TEN YEARS AGO:

Defective construction on the Northville P.W.A. reservoir was noted Thursday morning when serious leaks were detected in the structure, which, filled with water, was undergoing a leakage test.

Leslie G. Lee has been appointed to take the school census in Northville, a survey which is made yearly in Michigan school districts.

Simultaneously with the issuance of "Fordisms" in the River Rouge plant, Ford workers in the Northville factory were given copies of the same pamphlet Monday containing statements of Henry Ford's attitude toward union control.

An explosion at 4:39 p. m. Saturday at the William Montague home garden, caused serious eye injury and other burns to Mrs. Montague and completely destroyed the house.

C. R. Ely and his two sons, Charles and Ivan, have formed a partnership and the new firm will be known as the Ely Coal and Ice Company.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO:
 British pilots are numerous in Northville there being five of them all engaged in playing with the Scripps planes on the Triple A League. The five are: Brian Hutton, Edell Howland, Harry G. Smith, J. C. Moore and Harry G. Smith Jr.

"Polking Papa" a three-act play given tonight in the Northville High school under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association closed the continuation of the milk fund which provides food for undernourished school children.

Up to then, by noon the Lapeere State Savings Bank had received signatures representing 73 percent of the bank's deposits and the Northville State Savings Bank has signed up $25,000 of the necessary $400,000 required to open up the closed banks.

THIRTY YEARS AGO:
 General regret is expressed by the people of Northville because of the impending departure of Rev. Frank A. Brass, who is closing his pastorate with the local Baptist Church, Sunday.

MAN, NOT ELEMENTS, CAUSED THIS . . . It looks as if a cyclone had struck the Jim Munro home at Le Claire, Iowa. However, it was the landlord, not the elements, that caused this scene, the Munro family claims. They charge the landlord, Harold Olsen of Montpelier, Iowa, wrecked the summer kitchen of their home when they ignored a warning notice. Similar happenings have been reported in other parts of the country by landlords anxious to gain possession of homes.

Some of the Red Cross workers are giving a baked goods sale at Steele's Hardware Saturday to raise funds to purchase the comfort kits for the soldiers.

Consolation note: Coal is $60 a ton in Italy.

Another Northville boy who is in active service for his country is Frank Brown, Jr., who is a gunner on board one of the big warships.

The bridge work is now in progress in the Edison company's new building on Center street.

Harper Hospital Unit No. 17, of which Dr. T. B. Henry is a member expects to be called into service about June 1. The doctor expects to begin work as a First Lieutenant.

A card received from Francis Murphy of the Officers' reserve corps at Fort Sheridan, Ill., states that he is having a fine time in spite of having to do his share of taking three years' training in three months.

Editor

Dear Editor:

I am wondering how the other housewives and good citizens of our community feel about having to answer our door bells to very insistent out of town young men and women about on the average of twice a week, selling all sorts of literature, their same old story of getting enough points to go on trips, nursing school or college, etc. Yesterday a new racket came to my back door and I found out later from my neighbors, he came to all back doors, his excuse being in sympathy for the veteran getting a square deal and was so very anxious to my signing a blank piece of paper and paying 25c per month to carry on their work to Washington. When I stated that I had 3 veterans in my own family and was very familiar with veterans problems through being active in a veterans organization and wouldn't sign anything until I had investigated what he had to offer, he left and whistled to his buddy up the street and after various signs with their hands they went on making no more stops in the neighborhood.

As a mother and good citizen of Northville and believer of a square deal for the veteran I think we should be careful in letting outsiders come in and sign or subscribe to their literature, especially in these perilous times when all of us must fight communism. As I started in the beginning of this letter, I am wondering how others in the community feel.

Sincerely,
 Mrs. C. O. Hammond

Good way to keep a Honey Happy

THINK back to the days when your Buick stood proud, shiny and new at your door. A touch of your toe and that two tons of car romped away like a breeze — and just as obediently glided to a soft, sure stop.

That's the kind of driving that's right in the heart and soul of Buicks. It's there for you to have for years and years — especially when your car gets the kind of care such a honey should have.

That doesn't mean just filling her up and seeing that the oil doesn't get low. Nor a periodic lube job done with "one-kind-for-all" lubricants. It means competent care by men familiar with every part of a Buick — by men who know Buicks best and have an interest in seeing that you get the greatest satisfaction from yours.

Every detail of our service is aimed at this goal. The men are specialists on Buicks. They work with Buick-designed tools. They're backed up by a parts department stocked with Buick-engineered parts that are just made for Buick cars.

So you see the difference between ordinary service and Buick car care. It's the skillful, considerate care that keeps your Buick always a Buick. It's the kind of care which proves that next to you, we like your Buick best.

TIME TO REPOWER?

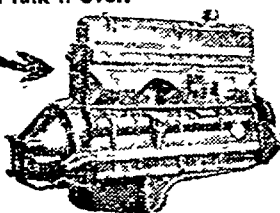

Suppose your Buick is crowding the big figures in high mileage. Suppose you don't want to wait for that new one. Here's a happy answer.

If your Buick's any model year from 1937 through 1942, you can make it factory-fresh as far as power is concerned with the Buick Power Package.

This is all the major assembly of a new Buick Fireball engine except carburetion and electrical systems. It puts good-as-new zip and performance into high-mileage cars.

Changing over takes less time and often costs less than a really thorough overhaul and replacement job.

Easy payments if you wish. Come in and talk it over.

Lansing — Jottings from a columnist's notebook:

That 109 farm people were accidentally killed in Michigan during 1946. Agriculture has more major accidental work deaths than any major industry. That's why Farm Safety Week will be observed July 20 to 26.

That Governor Kim Sigler will relate his cowboy experiences over Michigan State College's radio station WKAR at 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 3, as a feature for June Dairy Month. That the Sigler family is moving to the governor's summer residence on Mackinac Island, adjoining the old fort, about the middle of June. The governor will fly up for week-ends.

That 540 American Legion posts and 370 auxiliaries will offer poppies for sale May 22-24; that each red poppy is made by a hospitalized war veteran who sells the poppy to the Legion; that the funds raised will assist worthy veterans.

That the spring growing season in Michigan is already 12 days behind schedule; that Holland had to import blooming tulips for its Tulip Festival last week; that Charles Figg (Michigan agricultural commissioner) believes the 1947 peach crop will be just peachy — it may even top the 1946 record yield of 4,336,000 bushels.

That the average woman who complains about the price of clothes or fruit almost never wears her own clothes or eats her own fruit. Taint funny, either.

That Senator Arthur Vandenberg is advocating the St. Lawrence seaway to the Great Lakes, whereby cost of the same would be paid out of tolls paid by boats.

That Michigan has forest tracts owned by 370 schools and 120 cities under terms of a state law enacted in 1931.

That Michigan's newest member of the state conservation commission — Dick Fletcher of Bay City — is one of the grandest hosts on the AuSable. We still glow at the memory of the sight of two trout fishermen returning their live creel to the AuSable after a day's float. That is real sportsmanship!

That the U. S. Health Service estimates a million of us Americans become infected each year with tuberculosis germs and that 109,000 of us develop an active disease and take ill. The X-Ray film is still the best preventive.

That the city of Detroit made $35,000 profit last year out of a city-owned restaurant which sells beer.

That it pays to be feeble-minded, at least in Elba township in Lapeer county. This township is receiving a windfall of $12,000 from Lansing as a result of the sales tax diversion amendment. Why? Because 69 per cent of the folks who live in Elba township are feeble-minded in Lapeer.

That the Gwin's hardware store gets results from newspaper advertising such as this: "What could be better than a home complete, where you go to the grocery without leaving your feet? Could it be that Mr. Gwin has heard 'Oklahoma'."

That the hitting at the state capitol is ten to one that the state treasury will have a deficit by the end of the coming fiscal year. Legislators are not tax-minded, rural vs. city differences are at the root of the differences.

That the Hastings Manufacturing Company, makers of piston rings, is now operating only four days a week due to lack of orders. About 100 workers have been laid off. Another reason: sign: The Dow Chemical Company at Midland also has a top-heavy inventory and is slowing down production.

That both General Electric and Packard, which recently granted wage boosts, are now increasing prices once more.

That the Royal trailer coach factory at Hastings founded in 1940, is now turning out 12 to 14 hand-made trailers each week; that the trailer, 21 or 24 feet in length, is virtually a custom-made cabin on two wheels; that the price for the 21-foot model (which we inspected at Hastings the other day) is $1,595 including an electric refrigerator, license plates and taxes; that the two-door trailers are best for safety; that we're going to stick to an old-fashioned tent for a while.

That the state legislature is

BE A BUDDY-BUY A BUDDY POPPY. Made by disabled and needy veterans, Buddy Poppies will be placed on sale nationally preceding Memorial Day as an annual project of Veterans of Foreign Wars. A national goal of 21 million Buddies has been set for the 1947 sale. Proceeds are used for the organization's welfare and relief activities, including an allotment to the V. F. W. National Home for Widows and Orphans of Ex-Servicemen in Eaton Rapids, Mich. Above photo shows a group of disabled ex-servicemen, patients in the Veterans' hospital at Lyons, N. That there is a real slump in the hosiery business, that 500 hosiery makers are out of work in old Chicago and 600 of the city's 6,000, hosiery are reported ready to fold up; that folks are just not buying fancy, high-priced hosiery any more.

That Michigan ranked second last year in work time lost due to strikes; fifth in number of strikes, and ninth in number of labor disputes before the NLRB. No more bragging.

That the guzzling of canned fruit juice is 271 per cent over pre-war A.M.I. statistics nationwide.

First the fair employment practice commission bill, now shelved by the senate labor committee, was rejected by the Illinois legislature for the second time a two years. Instead of solving the problem of racial prejudice the anti-discrimination scheme has set up trouble, so things are no better.

That the federal government is considering a bill to buy 10 to 20 per cent more wheat from the United States than it has bought today.

of Michigan dairy products jumped from $81.5 to $121 millions in the same time; poultry, 16.7 to 38.5 millions.

That 80 per cent of the cost of building a home is due to labor; that wage costs in the building business have gone up 78 per cent since 1940.

That 20 per cent of families in these prosperous U.S.A. earn less than $1,000 a year; 40% do not have an automobile; 50% of all farm homes lack electricity.

Relief For Small Business

Congressman George A. Doncero, appearing before the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives in behalf of H.R. 1538, which he introduced in the House to extend the time when small business firms could file "certificates of Necessity", stated that because of the stress and strain of turning out war materials many small firms who did not have legal advice or were not entirely familiar with the requirements of the law failed to file their certificates of necessity, which would allow them to amortize over a five-year period the cost of land, buildings, machinery or equipment acquired after December 21, 1939, and used in the interest of national defense during the emergency period.

Many of our small business firms, which are the backbone of our nation's structure, find their tax returns being revised by the Bureau of Internal Revenue to such a degree that without am-ortization of war facilities, tax deficiencies will be paid only by wiping out these many thousands of small firms.

Small taxpayers should be able to do business under the same treatment as the large taxpayers, provided they are able to show that they are entitled to this amortization had they but known that they were obliged to make application for necessity certificates within the short time limit (usually six months of acquisition).

In World War I application could be made at any time while the tax returns of the parties were open for revision by the Government by showing actual need, which was a more equitable plan.

This proposed change in the law will not add to the expense of the government and would save money in any small business throughout the nation and would be a boon to a wide variety of small business firms.
The bill is designed to protect the small business owner from the payment of taxes on the basis of the cost of the property at the time of acquisition.

Cant in River Forest Project - The Committee on Public Works of the House of Representatives, of which Congressman Doncero is Chairman, adopted a resolution calling upon the Board of Engineers, Architects and Architects to review the project on the Clinton River, Michigan, to determine whether any modifications of the recommendations are advisable at this time. This project particularly affects the vicinity of Pontiac, Michigan. A report on the Pontiac Creek project is now in the process of being prepared.

Moscow Conference - At the recent Moscow Conference of seven weeks' duration and much talking the following agreements in brief, were reached: (1) Russia will no longer be a political unit; (2) All German armament plants are to be liquidated by June 29, 1948; (3) 2,000,000 German war prisoners are to be repatriated by December 21, 1948; (4)

A PATTERN FOR FUTURE SOCIETY
The unity of the human race, envisaged by Baha'u'llah, implies the establishment of a world commonwealth in which all nations, races, creeds and classes are, closely and permanently united, and in which the autonomy of its state members and the personal freedom and initiative of the individuals that compose them are definitely and completely safeguarded. This commonwealth must, as far as we can visualize it, consist of a world legislature, whose members will, as the trustees of the whole of mankind, ultimately control the entire resources of all the component nations, and will enact such laws as shall be required to regulate the life, satisfy the needs and adjust the relationships of all races and peoples. A world executive, backed by an international force, will carry out the decisions arrived at, and apply the laws enacted by this world legislature, and will safeguard the organic unity of the whole commonwealth. A world tribunal will adjudicate and deliver its compulsory and final verdict in all and any disputes that may arise between the various elements constituting this universal system. A mechanism of world inter-communication will be devised, embracing the whole planet, freed from national hindrances and restrictions, and functioning with marvelous swiftness and perfect regularity. A world metropolis will act as the nerve center of a world civilization, the focus towards which the unifying forces of life will converge and from which its energizing influences will radiate. A world language will either be invented or chosen from among the existing languages, and will be taught in the schools of all the civilized nations as an auxiliary to their mother tongue. A world script, a world literature, a uniform and universal system of currency, of weights and measures, will simplify and facilitate intercourse and understanding among the nations and races of mankind. In such a world society, science and religion, the two most potent forces in human life, will be united, will cooperate, will harmoniously develop, will press forward under such a unity while giving full scope to the expression of the diversified virtues and convictions of mankind, and will be mutually reinforced by vested interests, whether private or public, and will be liberated from the influence of contending governments and peoples. The economic resources of the world will be organized, its sources of raw materials will be tapped and fully utilized, its markets will be coordinated and developed, and the distribution of its products will be equitably regulated.

National rivalries, hatreds, and intrigues will cease, and racial animosity and prejudice will be replaced by racial unity, understanding and cooperation. The causes of religious strife will be permanently removed, economic barriers and restrictions will be completely abolished, and the inordinate distinction between classes will be obliterated. Destitution on the one hand, and gross accumulation of ownership on the other, will disappear. The enormous energy dissipated and wasted on war, whether economic or political, will be consecrated to such ends as will extend the range of human inventions and technical development, to the increase of the productivity of mankind, to the extermination of disease, to the extension of scientific research, to the raising of the standard of physical health, to the sharpening and refinement of the human brain, to the exploitation of the unused and unsuspected resources of the planet, to the prolongation of human life, and to the furtherance of any other agency that can stimulate the intellectual, the moral, and spiritual life of the entire human race.

A world federal system, ruling the whole earth and exercising unchallengeable authority over its unimaginably vast resources, blending and embodying the ideals of both the East and the West, liberated from the curse of war and its miseries and bent on the exploitation of all the available sources of energy on the surface of the planet, a system in which Force is made the servant of Justice, whose life is sustained by its recognition of one God and by its universal recognition of one common Revelation—such is the goal towards which humanity, impelled by the unifying forces of life, is moving.

These Baha'i teachings have been summarized in a book recently added to the Northville Public Library entitled, "Baha'u'llah and the New Era" by E. J. Essentment, and date from 1893.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Trickey, Sr. and Mrs. Chas. Trickey, Jr., and Larce Trickey will attend the wedding and reception of Mrs. Trickey, Sr.'s nephew, Robert Blaess, at the Mount Zion Lutheran Church in Detroit, Saturday evening.

Mrs. Eugene Root passed away at Sessions Hospital in Northville, Tuesday evening. A suitable obituary will appear in the Northville Record.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Rix spent the weekend at their lake cottage in Mecosta.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Buttorf of Ontario, California came back to Michigan to attend the funeral services of their brother, Clair Buttorf, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Bristol of Franklin Hills and Mrs. Roberts of Detroit were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Garlick.

SOCIETY Notes

STOVER - NOLTE
The Northville Veterans' Memorial Hall was the scene of the wedding, Saturday evening, which united in marriage Delona (Connie) Stover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Robertson of West Base Line, and Kermit E. Nolte, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Nolte of Iowa City, Iowa. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Turk of Deof medium blue. Her corsage was of mixed roses.

Acting as best man was Robert Stover, brother of the bride.
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Robertson chose a coral dress and her flowers were deep red roses.
A reception immediately followed the ceremony at the hall with about one hundred guests present. Mrs. Lee Wilcox was in charge.
Following the reception the newlyweds left for a short trip to an unknown destination. For going away the bride wore a print dress with white accessories.

TO CELEBRATE BIRTHDAY
Birth day congratulations on May 26th to William Matheron. On that date he will celebrate his eighteenth birthday. A family reunion will be held in Dearborn Sunday at which time Mr. Matheron will receive the best wishes of his relatives and friends.

Mr. Noble Wheeler of Woodland was an overnight guest, Sunday, of Mr. Don Miller of Flint. Mrs. Wheeler left Monday for her home, following a two week stay with her daughter, Mr. R. H. Boykin and family at White Village.

Mr. and Mrs. Al H. Lyon of New York City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Tremper Monday.

SEE PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATIONS
Last Monday the Home Ec. II Class of Northville High visited Mrs. E. V. Ellison's home where she demonstrated hat-making. They saw many hats and gained some hints during their short visit. Now class members are attempting hat-making for themselves and are really enjoying the work.
For the past few weeks the class has been studying household furnishings, at Miss Ruth Rounsaville's home on Thayer Blvd. they recently saw box slip covers and draperies were made. Besides obtaining helpful hints, the girls enjoyed seeing the many things their hostess is making.

BUT WHO CAN FEED A FAMILY ON WEEK END SPECIALS?

Nobody wants to eat weekend specials exclusively... and nobody should, because they don't provide a well-balanced diet. What's more "weekend specials" on a few items don't save you as much money in the long run as everyday low prices on everything you eat. That's why millions of people find that the best way to enjoy well-rounded meals and cut their food bills, too, is to shop regularly at A&P. You see, A&P doesn't believe in slashing prices on a few items on weekends and making up for it with high prices on other items all the other days of the week. Our policy has always been to save you money on everything every day in the week. Result? You get more good food for less money by doing all your marketing all the time at your thrifty A&P. Try it and see!

Twenty Million Acres May Be Unprofitable*Salt Proving Ruin to Much Irrigated LandAccumulation of salt is proving a continuing hazard to crop production on much of the 20 million acres of irrigated land in the Western states.Losses from reduction in yield and quality of crops may occur on lands containing some salts but not enough to throw them out of production. It has been estimated by the U. S. regional salinity laboratory, which isIrrigation always presents a problem in removal of salt excess in the soil.Working on this problem, that in many cases such losses amount to 10 to 25 per cent of the yield.Many saline and alkali soils are low in available phosphorus and will give better crop yields if phosphate fertilizers are used. Super-phosphate, triple superphosphate and ammonium phosphate are among those generally recommended.During reclamation of saline soil, caused by accumulation of salt due to irrigation, many farmers find it helpful to apply several tons of gassoline per acre, flood the land into the furrows for a week or more, dry out the soil in the furrows and then flood again. When a high water table exists, the upward movement of saline ground water results in a continuing accumulation of salt in the surface soil.Herds and FlocksTeach early pigs to eat grain and protein by feeding a feed in a cage—where they can get it and while still nursing their mother. This way the piglets will learn to eat when weaned from the sow.If you want to keep a record of farming data, a new one profitable to tell you how will arrive by examining theudder. Most cows farrow about 24 hours after milk starts flowing the udder.Poverty disease is less of a problem when young chicks are kept apart from older birds. Selling off all old birds and raising a new batch of chicks each year is a paying practice. As all pullets laying now, the poultry experts call it.Trim wool from around the eye's corner before lambing time. A newborn lamb will sometimes suck a lock of wool instead of a teat. Result, starvation.Newborn calves should have the cow's first milk (colostrum) because it is richer in vitamin A than milk produced some time after freshening.Protect Garden FurnitureAny piece of outdoor furniture, such as garden or lawn benches or tables, wears out or gets much more quickly than furniture used indoors, because of its exposure to the elements. If garden furniture is to be made to last, it is imperative that it be kept thoroughly painted or varnished. If kept indoors during the winter, the repainting or revarnishing job should be done before the furniture is placed in the open for the coming season.• Not the old but the young.

Servicemen WarnedOn Farm PurchasesMany war veterans, young and full of ambition, have bought, or plan to buy, farms of their own. In many instances, farming will prove a good life's work. In others grief may come through causes that might now be avoided.The first consideration that a prospective buyer of farm land should keep in mind is that the sound value of farm land depends on its capacity to produce a profitable income over a long period of years.
Agricultural leaders advise: This income must pay operating expenses, be sufficient to provide a living for the farm family and leave enough margin to pay interest and principal on any debt that has been contracted. Prices of many farms are high. In buying a farm now one should and out whether it will be substantially reduced. A buyer of a high-priced farm may have to pay for it out of a low income in the future.In general, then, the pattern in prices during and since the end of World War II has closely paralleled that of World War I.Previous experience, following World War I indicates that when prices in general start to recede from wartime high levels, the prices of products which farmers sell drop fastest and farthest than the prices of things which farmers buy. Then reduced net income may not support the debt on farm land previously purchased at high prices.Veterans should not purchase excessively high-priced land at present, unless value can be proven.
They should not borrow to speculate in farm land; they should retain their U. S. savings bonds and other liquid assets. This will provide cash that will enable farmers to buy needed materials and equipment when available and also will afford a cushion against a drop in farm income that may come in the future.Farmers Need Aid in*Soil Erosion ControlConditions which make it impossible for farmers to practice the best type of land use, says National Wildlife Federation, in relation to soil erosion, are heavy taxes, unfair mortgages and heavy debts.
The federation points out that such conditions will have to be remedied by increased financial returns to farmers, group action and government action to better the farmers' situation.Farming by the ClockA farmer who makes a habit of doing his work by the clock is a successful one. The farmer must be a natural clock watcher.
Mechanical power that gets the job done in the limited time when the farmer is right may mean the difference between good crops and a poor one.Thick Stand Helps in*Boosting Corn YieldFarmers who would boost their yields of corn should plant thicker stands than they ordinarily do, advises University of Kentucky Improved Soil and the use of liquid corn seed makes it possible for most farmers to have thicker stands. About 10,000 stalks can be grown on better-than-average land, and 12,000 to 14,000 stalks on very fertile land with good moisture-holding capacity.A Few Don'tsNever place an empty glass utensil over the flame. Use a wire rack or asbestos pad to protect the vessel from direct contact with heat.
Do not let glass containers boil dry.
Do not set a hot utensil on a wet surface, plunge it into water or let it come in contact with a wet cloth.
Do not use for deep fat frying.Prompt Removal of

You can make perfect seed beds with one piece of equipment in just one operation.

And, you can do a new and much superior job of cultivation throughout the season with that same piece of equipment. That's why growers everywhere are turning to Ro-tator's to save time and work and increase their profits. This versatile power tiller not only makes a ready-to-plant seed bed in one operation, but it enables you to make a richer, better-producing one. For you can break up and thoroughly mix organic matter or manure at the same time uniformly throughout the
