A very delicate young lady who was traveling in a railway train, was asked by a man sitting next to her whether she could recite very word in the Bible.

"Yes," she replied, "I do."

"Surely," exclaimed the man. "You don't believe that Joann was swallowed by the whale."

"I do," she answered, "and when I get to Heaven I'll ask it about it."

"But suppose he's not in Heaven?" inquired the stranger with a sneer.

"Then you ask him," was the young lady's reply.

Michigan is headed back to red state sales tax to local governments including public schools.

Several capital newspaper correspondents, who watch daily the parade of events at Lansing, confide that the inevitability of new taxes in 1948 will hurt Governor Sigler's chances of re-election. The governor's insistence that the legislature must lead itself also hasn't helped matters. The Detroit Free Press, one of Kim's original bellringers, smartly criticizes the governor for lack of leadership. Except: "Instead of creating behind him the power of public opinion to force enactment of his purposes, his publicity has been largely given over to the fun he is having with his new pilot's license and his plane. This has not set well with the voters of Michigan." Sigler has 18 more months to go before the voters will weigh the record. He has shown a tolerant willingness to take criticism provided it is constructive.

Root of Michigan's tax trouble lies in the deep antagonism between rural and urban interests, the fear of rural legislators that the legislature will be dominated by cities, and the lack of urban representation at Lansing although cities foot most of the tax bills. Less than one-half of the counties are self-supporting through taxes. Put this on your phonograph, and you go around and around. Your conclusion will depend largely upon your viewpoint. The Highland Parker, suburban newspaper of Detroit, advocates a constitutional amendment to assure that each county will get back its "just share" of taxes.

Governor Sigler's recommendation for a constitutional study commission was approved by the house, but rejected by the senate. Since the constitution was adopted in 1908, a total of 91 amendments have been submitted to the voters at elections. Of these, 43 were approved.

Like Alice in Wonderland who cried before she pricked a finger, the General Motors "train of tomorrow" permits a traveler to say where he is going before he gets there. Which is to say that this writer was among the passengers on the Lansing-to-Detroit run last week and viewed the approaching landscape through the "Astra-Dome" on top of one of the train coaches. It's an enclosed air-conditioned observatory. The noiseless glide of the Diesel-powered train is another feature which heralds tomorrow's railway transportation.

Railroads complain in national survey that most clerks are inefficient and must be re-trained to give prompt, intelligent customer service. Another straw in the wind.

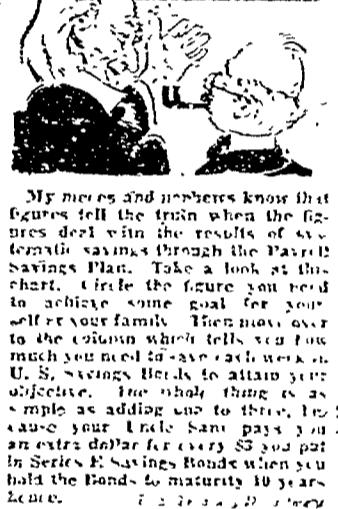

Union bricklayers on state construction jobs are laying only 50% bricks a day compared with 1,000 pre-war, says A. N. Langus, state building director. Low efficiency of union labor is blamed by Langus for high costs. Example: A Caro state hospital building, built in 1939 for $21,143, is being duplicated this year. The 1947 cost will exceed $289,600. Same building but $200,000 more.

As a curb on juvenile drivers, the Michigan legislature adopted a bill raising the minimum age from 14 to 16. However, licenses can be issued in cases of necessity" where parents agree to assume full responsibility.

Circle the figure you need to achieve some goal for your self or your family. Then move over to the column which tells you how much you need to save each week in U. S. ## NOW TWO GREAT RAILROADS UNITE TO FORM "THE GREATER C&O"

On June 6th the Pere Marquette Merged with the Chesapeake & Ohio. Shippers and Travelers now have a New, Unified Service between the Great Lakes and the Mid-Atlantic Coast.

FOR years it has been apparent that a combination of these two railroads is a common-sense proposition. One serves the nation's greatest coal-producing area, the other reaches some of the greatest coal-consuming sections.

A Great Network . . . Vital traffic lines of the Pere Marquette now join those of the C&O. The former is a natural extension of the great C&O system into Michigan, with direct service into Canada. Fast freight and passenger ferries across Lake Michigan serve the state of Wisconsin.

Improved Passenger Service . . . Both railroads have earned the appreciation of the traveling public for their pioneering of basic improvements in passenger service. Revolutionary new equipment, "Pay-As-You-Go" and Credit Card travel, "No Tipping," Hotel Accommodation service—these are some of the latest but not the last of C&O's popular innovations. Now the best features of both roads are combined to bring still further improvements in rail-riding comfort and convenience.

Shippers' Problems Simplified . . . The merger provides direct line communication for the exchange of the great industrial, agricultural and mineral output of the new "Pere Marquette District" of the C&O Railway, with the vast coal, agricultural and manufacturing wealth of its "Chesapeake District." And both of these rich areas will have direct access over the C&O to foreign trade, through the modern port at Newport News.

Broader Opportunities for Employees

This union of two major rail arteries means further security for the men and women who helped to develop these lines and who make them run. Diversified traffic, mutually beneficial to both sections, will result in broader opportunities for employees all down the line.

Stockholders Agree . . . The many stockholders of both railroads saw clearly the opportunity to improve both service and earnings by linking the 3,106-mile C&O with the area served by the 1,936-mile Pere Marquette.

The greater Chesapeake & Ohio is a major move toward closer communication, better service and increased prosperity.

THE U. S. TREASURY AND AMERICA'S BANKS

announce the Bond-a-Month Plan

An easy, automatic way to buy U. S. Savings Bonds for Americans who cannot take advantage of the Payroll Savings Plan.

FOR MILLIONS of Americans, the Payroll Savings Plan has proved the perfect way to save. Its ability to make saving a regular, continuous, automatic procedure has enabled these millions of people to accumulate billions of dollars in U. S. Savings Bonds—money which, for the most part, they would not otherwise have saved.

Now, through the co-operation of America's banks, all the advantages of the Payroll Plan are being made available to people NOT on payrolls—through the new Bond-a-Month Plan for buying U. S. Savings Bonds.

If you have a checking account here is your plan!

The mechanics of the new Plan are simple:

You go to the bank in which you keep a checking account. You authorize the bank to buy for you, at monthly intervals, a U. S. Savings Bond. From then on, the bank buys the Bond regularly, sends it to you, and debits your account for the purchase price.

Save the easy, automatic way—with U. S. Savings Bonds

DEPOSITORS STATE BANK

This is an official U. S. Treasury advertisement of the Treasury Department and Advertising Council.

Suppose you want to buy a $100 E Bond every month. You simply sign a card authorizing your bank to deduct $7.50 each month from your account. After that, the Bond is bought, registered in your name, and sent to you automatically.

Can you match these investments—anywhere?

As your banker will tell you, no other security of comparable safety will give you a return on your money as U. S. Savings Bonds.

In addition, these Bonds can be quickly turned into cash—without loss—in case of emergency. Any man who has any savings ought to have at least a substantial part of them in U. S. Savings Bonds.

The new Bond-a-Month Plan makes accumulating easy, safe, and above all, sure.

The Plan makes it easy for you to arrange a steady income for yourself in any amount you choose, starting 10 years from today. $75 a month put into Bonds now will give you $100 a month, beginning in 1957.

For a financially sound future, for both you and your family, see your bank and start buying U. S. Savings Bonds through the Bond-a-Month Plan—soon.

Farmers Repairing Equipment at Home*Increased Use of Arc Welding Aid to Farm

World War II and the rapid extension of government-approved rural power lines to meet farm production emergencies contributed, more than any other factors, to the widespread use of transformer-type

Thus a war-taught talent enters the peacetime picture with increasing popularity. Experience showed that many broken parts could be welded satisfactorily without having to remove them from the machine and that such equipment then could be returned to the fields promptly—especially when time-saving welding jobs were done on the farm. Also, farmers soon learned that they could use their welders to construct new equipment out of scrap metal and modify present equipment to suit their particular needs, as well as make necessary repairs.

With the use of welders, discarded repair parts and scrap metal can be made into feed ears, manure loaders, buck rakes, milk can trucks and racks, disc harrows and trailers; broken sickle bars, tractor wheel rims and spokeshoes, tractor hitch drawbars, spring tooth points, gears, gear teeth and sprockets can be repaired, and horse-drawn equipment is modified for tractor use.

Merely Using Your Head Will Save Your Heels

Is there an easier, better way to do that job? Purdue University answers with: "Yes, there probably is. There is an easy and a hard way, a labor-saving and a labor-wasting, a way to do any job. Few of us are doing our farm job the easiest way."

To avoid criticism: Say nothing, do nothing. If we use our heads we can save our heels—as well as time, energy and expense. But we rarely take time to save time. We don't figure out the easiest, most effective way—we just get it done.

Human nature is that which makes you swear at the driver when you are a pedestrian and at the pedestrian when you're the driver.

Believing that there is an important relationship between the intensity of sunlight, air temperature, the body temperature of the grasshopper, and where and when the pest do their eating, Professors Pepper and Hastings, Montana State College, have designed a special thermometer with which to take the temperature of grasshoppers.

Crop Rotation Plan Should Be Balanced

Unless a farm has a well balanced rotation for its fields, the chances are that the farmer who works that land is depleting the soil and getting lower yields of the crops he grows.

Dr. R. L. Cook, soil specialist at Michigan State College, says there probably is. There are several ways in which crop rotation may result in soil improvement. If a cultivated crop is continuously produced on one field, the organic matter content of the soil is decreased.

To avoid criticism: Say nothing, do nothing.

ON CAPITOL HILL

By Rep. George A. Dondero

ST. LAWRENCE SEAWAY: Hearings were held within the last few days on the Vandenberg-Dondero Bill for the completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Secretary of State Marshall, appearing before the Foreign Relations subcommittee of the Senate, urged approval of the measure because the project would increase the nation's security in the event of an atomic war by making it possible to build and repair ocean-going vessels on the Great Lakes and a deep-water channel from the Atlantic to the middle of the continent, which would be safe from submarines at least one-third of its length. He also stressed the importance of the new source of electrical power and the strengthening of the United States-Canadian security embankment.

Former President Hoover said the railroad industry's objection to the project was unfounded, since railroads now have all the traffic they can bear. He suggested that the ICC should give railroads "more reasonable treatment" in the matter of rates.

The Great Lakes-St. Lawrence project would provide cheaper overseas transportation and at least five cents a bushel more to the American farmer for his wheat. Mr. Hoover pointed out that the present shipment of 1.5 million tons of food to Europe each month could be increased without disrupting internal transportation in this country, and if the seaway were available all surplus American food could be sent abroad.

LABOR AND INCOME TAX BILLS: Last November, immediately after the election, President Truman announced that he would cooperate with the new Congress. If that announcement were not merely a political gesture, it meant that he would cooperate with the Congress in putting through the legislative program to which that Congress was committed. The Tax Bill and the pending Labor Relations Bill were part of the program. The Tax Bill is now in the President's hands for action.

The labor measure was not passed in haste or in anger with a desire to punish anyone. It was worked out carefully after extended hearings before the committees of both Houses. It was passed after full debate in both the House and Senate and for the purpose of insuring full and uninterrupted production of commodities which we need so urgently if we are to attain a prosperous and stable peacetime economy. As soon as the Senate acts on the Conference Report, it will be sent to the President. He will then decide in which to sign the measure or to veto it.

ADMISSION TAX: The House of Representatives unanimously passed H.R. 3602 exempting tickets to state and county fairs from admission tax.

TAX STUDY: The Trailer Coach industry appeared before the Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives recently, asking the repeal of the seven per cent tax on house trailers because many veterans use the trailers for permanent homes. Mr. George Miles of the Vagabond Coach Manufacturing Company of New Hudson, Oakland County, Michigan, was one of the witnesses. He stated that a total of 33,000 trailers had been programmed under the old Wyo. veterans' housing program and that during the year the cash value of trailers sold was $74,584,123. It was reported that the Government had collected more than $5 million in excise taxes on "essential housing" due ARMED APPROPRIATION BILL: The past week the House of Representatives passed another, the eighth, appropriation bill during this, the Eighty-first Congress. The Appropriations Committee recommended an appropriation of $3,240 million to which the House added $4 million, but this represented a cut of $36 million or 7.6 per cent over the budget estimate. The $40 million added goes to the Air Corps.

SUGAR RATIONING:

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson reported to the Committee on Banking and Currency that sugar rationing might end soon.

He stated that the lifting of controls would depend on how much of Cuba's 64 million crop is made available to us. Rumor has it that Cuba has more sugar than it knows what to do with and that our warehouses cannot accommodate what sugar we have on hand or will be ready for storage soon.
