On Capitol Hill

DONDERO OFFERS amendment to Save Tungsten Mine—A Mineral Vital to the United States: Congressman Dondero's amendment to the Civil Functions War Appropriation Bill would have eliminated $3,200,000 for the Bugs Island, North Carolina, Project, which was authorized in pre-war years when material and labor costs were far lower than today. He held that this project would be a needless federal expenditure. The Congressman said: "This project will cost 66% more than when authorized by Congress, private industry can furnish the power 4.69 mills per kilowatt hour cheaper; 15,000 acres cleared and 56,000 acres of good wood and timber land would be permanently destroyed, and the Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior has refused to recommend this project because of its injurious effect, which would far outweigh the benefits."

Congressman Dondero pointed out that the above items alone would justify the temporary shelving of the project for a re-survey and study on the basis of economic conditions.

"The outstanding factor," he pointed out, "which is little known or understood, far outweighs all others, namely the destruction of a tungsten mine which last year produced 25% of American production and next year will produce half of it."

"Engineers and experts testify that this mine will be seriously jeopardized in whole or part and may even be destroyed because the waters of the reservoir will be over 100 acres of ore-bearing formation now being worked."

"Tungsten is one of the few metals with which America was not richly endowed. We consume far more than we produce. It is a vital strategic material in wartime and essential to industry in peace. It is irreplaceable in its use with radar, radio, lighting, sparkplugs, high speed steel tools, carbide tools, contact points, and X-ray targets. One of the engineers stated that its use contributed in the development of the atomic bomb. 60% of the world's production of tungsten comes from China, and the area where it is produced is rapidly falling into the control of the only potential enemy this country has. Heavy orders for tungsten from Sweden and France indicate large stockpiling of this precious metal by Russia.

"This mine, under the circumstances, should not be jeopardized, as it is one of the most important sources of domestic production of this vital metal. For this reason alone, not to mention the other five outlined previously, this project should be eliminated from this appropriation bill."

CASHING OF G. I. BONDS: The Committee on Armed Services has reported H. R. 4917, authorizing veterans to cash their terminal leave pay bonds after September 1, and action will be taken this week. Under present law, the bonds must be held five years before they can be redeemed.

PENSIONS: The House unanimously approved H. R. 2591, increasing by 20% pensions to veterans of the Civil War and their dependents, also to veterans of the Spanish-American War and the Boxer Rebellion.

CLINTON RIVER-RED RUN DRAINAGE PROJECT: Colonel Rian, the District Engineer for Rivers and Harbors at Detroit, reports that two field surveys, part on the Clinton River and part on the Red Run, are being made and the field work should be completed on the Red Run portion in another month in reference to estimate of costs and planning. The work is being speeded up as much as possible.

UNRRA: The Senate and House of Representatives have enacted legislation authorizing the use of $23 million of unused UNRRA funds for liquidation purposes.

STATEHOOD FOR HAWAII: The House of Representatives passed H. R. 49, on June 30, granting statehood to Hawaii. It now goes to the Senate for action.

OIL SHORTAGE: Chairman Malone (R-Nev.) of the Committee on Public Lands Subcommittee of the Senate announced that hearings on the oil shortage will be held July 14 and 15. Acting Secretary of the Navy Sullivan reports a current shortage of available refined petroleum products in the United States and the Caribbean area. Present reserves on the East Coast are inadequate to meet an emergency. Efforts are being made to secure additional supplies of Navy special fuel oil but at the same time not to upset the civilian supply more than is necessary, which while this situation prevails on the East Coast, ten Russian tankers are being loaded with oil and gasoline in Los Angeles Harbor (during June and July, according to Moore-McCormick Lines, shipping agents for Amtorg (Russian agency). According to May, 1947, Fortune Magazine, Russia has a total reserve of 106 billion barrels of oil, while the United States has a total reserve of but 71 billion barrels.

The Novi W.S.C.S. will entertain the Northville and Brighton groups from their respective Methodist churches this Friday afternoon for a pot-luck luncheon and book review.

Sausage Apple
 To stuff apples with sausage, pare and core the apples, and fill the cavity in the apple with pork sausage, either in links or in bulk. A generous amount of sausage is allowed for each apple. Any excess sausage which cannot be stuffed into the apple may be left on top or around the apple. When the apples are stuffed, they are baked until soft and the sausage thoroughly cooked. The home economists suggest that these sausage stuffed apples may be used as a main dish for luncheon.

Northville's YesterdaysONE YEAR AGO:

The highest class competition in the history of Michigan harness racing came definitely into prospect for Northville Downs July 15 - August 3 meeting today as stall reservations passed the 360 mark.

Two hundred and ten boys and girls were present at Ford Field to help celebrate the 4th of July. These youngsters, together with a host of adults, made Northville's celebration a festive one.

Lead by the Exchange Club, a movement is afoot in the village to improve and light Ford Field for a community recreational center.

One of the loveliest weddings of the season took place last Saturday evening at St. Paul's Lutheran Church when Shirley Helene Musolf became the bride of Richard Lynn Davis.

George Locke has been appointed chairman of the V-J celebration to take place in the village.

George Simons, past commander of Lloyd H. Green Post American Legion was elected vice-commander of the 17th District at the annual meeting of that district last week.

FIVE YEARS AGO:
Lawrence Sims, Walled Lake man who enlisted in the U. S. Navy three years ago, has been reported missing in a telegram received by his father, Herbert F. Sims, a cook at the Ft. Custer base hospital.

The opportunity to become a petty officer in the U. S. Navy has been given LeRoy W. McTigue, 17 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James McTigue.

Six of Sam Pickard's pigeons are in the Army. They are stationed on the West Coast where they are undergoing special training for messenger service.

Two thousand five hundred Northville persons participated in and witnessed the Fourth of July celebration sponsored in Northville by the Township and Village.

Northville's YesterdaysTEN YEARS AGO:

Water was sent through the village pipe line July 2, from the PWA reservoir which has been under construction here since April, 1936. Although the village has the use of the structure at this time, members of the council have not accepted the project but father have tabled a letter from contractor H. B. Culbertson asking that the reservoir be approved and an extension of the deadline time be authorized from the last deadline granted in February of this year.

After more than 10 years of poor health, Mrs. Hilda Schlusbaum, 70, mother of Mrs. P. R. Alexander, died Wednesday.

The third annual mid-season horse event, the Gymkhana and Horse Show, which attracts the owners of some of the finest specimens of horse flesh in this immediate locality will take place Sunday at Arrowhead farms, the country home of Mrs. William Rayle Brown.

Marjorie Holden and Austin Schwager were united in marriage here, July 3.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO:
Northville will have a new bank in the near future. This was made certain yesterday with the announcement that the plan for a merger of the closed Lapham and the Northville State Savings banks had been successfully achieved.

Mrs. Roy Cole, for 55 years a resident of Northville, was killed almost instantly Monday when the car in which she was riding was struck by an automobile at an intersection near Holly.

Little Betty and Mary Holliday had a thrilling experience Monday when they flew high over their home in an airplane on their return from a visit in Grand Rapids at the home of their uncle, Donald Starr.

The twenty-first annual Lyke reunion was held June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lyke.

THIRTY YEARS AGO:
Mrs. Lena D. Larson of this place and Lyle B. Klev of Detroit were married July 1.

Northville's only set was fourth of July accident so far reported was that which happened to H. H. of Alger when he was killed by a car while riding on the Fourth, and another has sight.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mott have a new son, born July 3.

Northville has been in the "news" of a street car on this week, for the first time—possibly the last.

At the annual school meeting Monday the two trustees, E. E. Duggan and D. P. Yerkes, were re-elected.

What makes a vacation trip to Michigan memorable?

As likely as not, it will be the memory of Michigan hospitality—the warmth of friendship which Michigan people extend to strangers.

This thought was emphasized to me the other day. Meredith Clark, editor of the Tekonsha Patriot, a weekly newspaper at Tekonsha in Branch county, told me this story:

"My wife and I drove to Traverse City for the summer convention of the Michigan Press Association just before dinner. I discovered I had not packed a tie. It was about 6:30 p. m. then, and clothing stores were closed. Finally, I went to Wright's drug store and told the proprietor my dilemma. 'Do you know of a place where I could buy a tie?' The merchant noticed my convention badge. His face brightened. 'Here take my tie,' he exclaimed, whipping off his tie and putting it into my hands. I wore this man's tie Friday night and returned it to him the next morning. Here was a real test of hospitality. I'll never forget Traverse City."

Baby carriages are common on college campuses today.

The American Legion sponsored a Boys' State at Michigan State College the other week. The boys from towns all over the state gathered to study how government operates. They were housed in student barracks.

During assembly was at 6:30 a. m. Someone had the bright idea of sounding off a bugle for a call. He blew it loud and long.

From trailers in the veterans' village nearby came a chorus of "The Hotchkiss."

The next morning, no bugle. Colonel Baker had the right of it.

Frank Morris, Lansing correspondent of the Detroit Times: "Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Jr., is being groomed to succeed Sigler after a second term. A novice at politics, Alger has been surprisingly successful in quietly accomplishing objectives for the good of the state without stepping on toes."

Clarence W. Lock, deputy revenue commissioner, predicts that an amendment to the sales tax law may save Michigan farmers and owners of farms $1,500,000 to $2,000,000 a year. New exemptions were authorized by the 1947 legislature on purchases by persons "having an interest in tilling of soil or raising of livestock and poultry" for such things as clothing, household appliances, and other products. Buyers must sign statements as to intended use.

From my notebook: Communism thrives on low living standards and weaker middle class. Free elections in Hungary in November, 1945, while under Russian occupation, resulted in only 17 per cent vote for communists. There are three eagles' nests at the Ludington State Park which spreads over 3,142 acres. Rural Iowa is seriously over-churches; over one-half of the rural churches are standing still or declining; ministers are poorly paid. Dr. H. St. Paul's Church Scene of Stevens-Howes Wedding

At a very pretty candlelight of North Center street, became service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Saturday evening Dorothy Jean Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Stevens, Tampa, Florida, Rev. E. E. Rosow performed the double ring service at eight o'clock before an altar decorated with bouquets of stock, palms and carnations. Miss Selma Schulte presided at the organ, furnishing background music and the traditional wedding march. She also accompanied Mrs. Arthur Miller as she sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

Dorothy was given in marriage by her father. Her wedding dress of chiffon over satin was fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, outlined with a ruffle, long sleeves ending in points over the wrists, full skirt with ruffles down the front of the train. Her fingertip veil, caught to her head with a ruffle, was ornamented with mock lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of white roses inset with a center of gardenias.

The bride's cousin, Mrs. Roger McClain, served as her matron-of-honor. She wore a dress of blue net over satin.

Both bridesmaids, Wanda Croll, close friend of the bride, and Patricia Howes, sister of the bridegroom, wore dresses of pink net. Each attendant carried bouquets of daisies tied with ribbon matching their dresses and wore matching crowns of daisies in their hair.

Serving as best man was Donald Stevens, brother of the bride. Roger McClain and Sonny Howes, brother of the bridegroom, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stevens wore a printed aqua dress and Mrs. Howes wore navy blue esleat. Each mother was presented with a corsage of gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Veterans Memorial Hall for about 100 guests. The hall was decorated in pink and white. A large three-tiered cake was cut by the newlyweds and refreshments served to the guests. Many gifts were opened by the pair and dancing was enjoyed during the evening. Each of the bride's attendants was presented with rhinestone bracelets by the bride.

The young couple left on a short trip to Irish Hills.

For going away the new Mrs. Howes wore a light blue pique two-piece dress with a peplum. Her flowers were the center gardenias from her bridal bouquet.

Dorothy has lived all her life in Northville and graduated from Northville High School last June. The bridegroom attended school in Dearborn and Florida. He is now employed at the Kaiser-Frazer plant. Upon their return the couple will make their home on Dunlap street.

The bridegroom was attended by John Fewle and Emerson Reid. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hagadorn will make up residence on Main street, Northville.

Quality at Minimum Price

A recent release from the National Retail Dry Goods Association, which represents a large number of merchandising systems illustrates the work being done by representative retailers to protect the interests of the consumer.

The letter quotes Lew Hahn, general manager of the Association, who said: "Before the war, retailers carried goods of familiar quality at well established price lines. Consumers knew from experience what to expect from various types of goods. Retailers knew from experience at what prices such goods would most readily sell. During the war, all this passed out."

"Now the war is over. The time has come to reestablish those conditions which make for orderly trade and consumer satisfaction. Because of inevitable increases in cost, it may not be possible to provide the qualities which were familiar at the prices which prevailed before the war, but there is a price at which those familiar qualities should be available. That price must be a reasonable price and one which the great masses of the public can afford to pay."

"It is time that retailers began to show manufacturers the things which their public wants to buy and the prices at which it will buy them."

Retailers in all lines of business, including the progressive independents as well as the chains, are pursuing policies directed toward a similar end. Even as they attempt to hold price increases to the minimum, they are working to improve quality -- which in itself is a form of price control. The end result is a wider variety of goods of better quality, sold at prices which are as low as the economic facts of the present permit.

August Last Month for Veterans to Reinstate Insurance

This is the last month for veterans to reinstate GI Insurance without physical examination. Veterans Administration officials issued this final warning today while revealing that nearly two-thirds of Michigan's 600,000 veterans of World War II have dropped their National Service Life Insurance.

During the last month VA offices throughout the state are authorized to reinstate lapsed policies on payment of only two monthly premiums and a statement of prevailing good health. Physical examinations will be required after August 1.

Under the amended National Service Life Insurance Act, the veteran may name any person of his choice as his beneficiary. Lump sum payments and total disability benefits are also included.

Term, commonly known as GI insurance, may be converted at any VA office to any of the following types of policy in amounts from $1,000 to $10,000.

Nickel Industry - More than 77 million board feet of lumber and timber are used annually by the Canadian nickel industry. It requires approximately 4,000 freight cars to transport this material.

April-Fools - Although April 1 appears to have been observed in ancient Britain as a general festival, it was probably not until the beginning of the 18th century that the making of April-fools became a common custom. In Scotland, the custom was known as "glaikit the goos" (the cuckoo) and April-fools were "April-gowks."

Early Smoking

Gives Hints on Storage of Grain

Grain harvest is not too far in the future. County agricultural agent Karl D. Bailey advised that spare time can be profitably used in preparing bins for storage of grain.

For safe storage, the first requirement is a bin which has been thoroughly cleaned. All old wheat or grain should be removed and the bin swept clean. The second step is to make the bin tight so insects and rodents cannot enter. After those two chores are done, spraying for the control of weevils and other insects should be begun.

For grains stored for feed or cereal products, a spray containing five percent or less of DDT in refined, deodorized kerosene or in water suspensions or emulsions should be used. It should be applied to the walls and woodwork at a rate of not more than one gallon of spray per 1,000 square feet. The spray should be thoroughly dry before grain is put in the bin.

If the grain is to be stored for seed purposes, a different treatment should be used. Dust of 3-percent DDT in pyrophosphate, thoroughly mixed with the seed, applied at the rate of one-half ounce of dust to one bushel of seed, is the proper treatment. Three percent DDT in magnesia, mixed with the seed in the same manner, is also effective. These methods are not recommended for stored grains or cereal products to be used for food.

Under normal conditions, these precautions will take care of insects. If abnormal infestations arise, and fumigation becomes necessary, agent Karl D. Bailey's office should be consulted.

Long Bus, Short Turn
 A long bus that can turn short corners has been patented by a Californian. It is hinged in the middle. Front and rear axles are fixed, and each is powered with its own engine. The bus is steered by flexing the center joint through a hydraulic system controlled by the steering wheel.

Ingenious Inventor
 Already holding over 100 patents in the field of vacuum radio transmission, a New York inventor has been granted one more. It covers a new principle of a continuous synchronized mechanism for keeping both transmitter and receiver in perfect synchronization. The mechanism can be operated from any local power line or a portable battery such as used in airplanes or ships.

Output of 90,000 Cars in 6 Months Scheduled by K-F

WILLOW RUN, Mich. — The output of 90,000 automobiles by Kaiser-Frazer Corp. during the last half of 1947—barring basic material supply shortages—was forecast this week by Edgar F. Kaiser, vice president and general manager in a mid-year resume of K-F's production progress.

Mr. Kaiser, who announced that Kaiser-Frazer produced a new monthly high of 12,039 cars in June, said that the company earned a substantial profit in the quarter ended June 30. Sales approximated $22,000,000 as compared with $11,700,000 for the entire year of 1946, he said.

The company's June output, which represented a 16 per cent increase over the May figure of 10,387, was exceeded in volume only by the industry's "Big Three."

Production of the Kaiser, Frazer, and Frazer Manhattan automobiles totaled 49,203 in the first six months of this year, Mr. Kaiser said. Scheduling of 90,000 units for the balance of the year has been made possible by increased supplies of raw materials and engine obtained through subsidiary companies which have been acquired by Kaiser-Frazer, he explained.

He reported that the company this month completed stocking of service parts among its 145 distribution centers throughout the U. S. to insure prompt servicing of the more than 56,000 Kaisers, Frazers and Manitans which are now in the hands of private owners.

Mainly Waist-Line
 At one time it was the man who worried most about his waist-line. Cretan men artificially constricted their waists to the size of small boys', apparently by wearing tight belts of metal.

Quick Stain Removal
 Chocolate and cocoa stains should be removed as soon as possible, and always before laundering. For white collars and linens, dip the fabric up and down in hot water, wash in hot suds, bleach any remaining stain with hydrogen peroxide, and rinse well. For any washable colored fabric, wash in lukewarm suds, and use carbon tetrachloride to remove any grease spots caused by cream.

Diesels Coming Into Own

Diesel-electric locomotives for the twelve months of 1946 accounted for 33.1 per cent of the total switching hours, 12.3 per cent of the freight service gross ton miles and 22.7 per cent of the passenger car miles, produced by coal burning and diesel locomotives combined.

Three-Cent Piece

A three-cent piece containing 75 per cent copper and 25 per cent nickel was authorized by an Act of Congress on March 3, 1865, and the first coins were issued in that year. The nickel used was melted in the United States and sent to England in the form of matte for refining.

Employment Falls Slightly in May

In mid-May total nonagricultural employment in Michigan was 1,943,300 according to a report released today by Adolph O. Berger, Director of the Cleveland Regional Office of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. This estimate was 15,400 below the level of the previous month and 101,300 above the level of the previous year.

The decline in the April to May period was largely the result of a decrease of 10,000 workers in establishments manufacturing automobiles and automobile parts, which have been adversely affected by the shortage of steel.

Employment in nonmanufacturing industries decreased 4,900 in the month-to-month period. This change resulted primarily from a sharp and unseasonal decline in construction employment. In March of this year contract construction employment in Michigan began a seasonal increase which continued into April. However, unusually severe weather late in April and in early May, and possibly other factors, have caused construction employment to decline sharply in May.
