To the Editor

It seems to me that the tax payers should be interested enough to write to either the Record or the Council and express their desire to have it decided by ballot how the money received by the Village treasury should be spent.

I heartily agree with Mr. Starb's article in the Record August 22.

I believe the majority of the community would enjoy having the money applied against their taxes.

If we could reduce our tax rate, more people would build homes here too.

A Tax Payer.

Mr. Cattermele has rented his Center street store to the A. & P. company and the sale of the Ryder grocery business to Hill Bros. is in contemplation.

Two more Northville boys, Russell Stewart and Tracy Ely, have offered their services to Uncle Sam.

Northville carried off high honors in the better babies contest at the State Fair, Junior Schrader standing first in the under-2-year class and Warner Neal first in the under-3-year class.

TWO THINGS TO REMEMBER

FIRST: Fire never asks if property is insured or not. SECOND: Neither does fire ask if the insurance is adequate to cover the loss. In these days of greatly increased property values your fire insurance policy demands immediate attention to be sure the amount will cover the replacement cost. Ask us for helpful, practical information on how to bring your insurance up to date.

Attention Veterans Regarding Your Terminal Leave Bonds

The Law has been passed which makes it possible for you to cash your Terminal Leave Bonds any time after September 1st. However, it is not necessary that you cash your bonds at this time in order to receive the full amount due you. They may be cashed at any time after September 1st on demand and without delay by any Paying Agent. (Bank)

Unless you are in absolute need of the money now, this institution and the United States Treasury Department strongly recommend that you permit your bond to earn interest at 2 1/2% (up to maturity) or until you actually need the cash.

For those of you who must have the cash and who cannot afford to hold their bonds, we shall be pleased to offer our facilities in cashing them.

West Point Park News

By Miss L. A. Ault

Marcia and Nelson Meade, of Hubbard Avenue, have returned from a three weeks' visit with their grandparents in Flint.

Soldier Herbert Schult, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, Shady Side Avenue, is now a Private 1st Class. He is still stationed in Porto Rico.

Austin Ault, Irving Avenue who was very seriously ill last week, is now somewhat improved.

Members of the Borland Klan were holding their family reunion at Cass Benton Park Sunday. Attending from this locality were Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Ault and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson and family. Others came from Detroit and Wayne. About fifty persons sat down together at the picnic dinner.

Mrs. Neal Wyman from near Rochester, spent last week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult.

John Aittama, Jr. called in Mt. Carmel Hospital Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rehahn spent Sunday fishing at Clarke's Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fisher, Mayfield Avenue, left Thursday for St. Petersburg, Fla. Mrs. Fisher, who had been quite ill, was somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Roberts came up from Monroe to attend the Borland family reunion and were Saturday night guests of Mrs. Roberts' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Ault.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hardy and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hardy of Garden City, called on their grandmother, Mrs. Walter Rehahn, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ault visited the State Fair Tuesday evening. Billy Hoyt Mayfield Avenue, is over his siege of whooping cough and will be entering school this week.

Mr. Rudy Turner, who recently spent several weeks in St. Joseph's Hospital, Portage, is now improving at her home on Parkville Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon of T. on Road called on Mrs. J. W. Ault Thursday evening.

Mrs. Ida Mae Tullman called on Mrs. Gordon Cameron in Reidsford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Tullman expect to receive their new baby in the month of November.

Visiting the children attending in school so long for this week are the Gandy, Johnny, James, Jerry, Willet, Charles, Ed, Elmer, and Middlewood and Dora Mae Jennings.

Mrs. Nelsa Belmont of Hubbard Avenue, called on Mr. John Varhol last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Willet and daughter, Joanne, spent the week end in their Michigan home.

The following names were on the list of those who visited during the week:

Mr. and Mrs. Ault is now on vacation. He and Mrs. Ault have several short trips planned for the two week period.

The Grandchildren of Hubbard Ave. were all ill last week with summer flu.

Mrs. John Varhol is still confined to her bed and may not be up and around again for some time.

Rev. Teepal of the Community Methodist Church has returned from his vacation and is back at his usual duties. He is endeavoring to make a community canvas. School friends and others visited Marlene Gravelle at her home on Merriman Court Friday afternoon and honored her birthday. There were the usual features.

The condition of Mrs. Nora Couger, a patient in Wayne Co. General Hospital, is still serious.

Glenn Vance, who, two weeks ago was struck by a car while walking, with three companions, across a Detroit street, is still unconscious in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

A Hymn-Sing was in order at the Neighborhood Church last Thursday evening. A skilled pianist was on hand and special practice was made of some newer, less familiar numbers. During the fall season this church is open at 7:30 each Thursday evening.

"Social Security vs. Soul Security," was a topic provoking ready discussion at the 7:30 evening service in the Neighborhood Church Sunday.

September 14th is "Round-up Sunday" for the Neighborhood Bible School.

In one small subdivision located within the bounds of West Point Park four young ladies have chosen autumn dates for their weddings. Consequently the merry whirl of showers is beginning again. The brides-to-be are Ruth Grant, Audrey Roberts, Dorothy Baldwin and Irene Morris.

Cecil Beebe will soon be moving from Ardmore Avenue to his new residence on the north of Eight Mile Road between Mayfield and Hubbard. Consequently, his daughter, Rosemary is attending Farrington High, this year instead of Northville.

Jelly Mold
To turn cranberry sauce—or any jelly—from a tin can without soiling the shape of the mold, punch a small hole in the bottom of the can. Then remove the top with an opener that slices the tin evenly around the can. The hole in the bottom allows air to get in so the jelly will slide out easily.

VETERAN NEWS

OFFICE OF VETERANS' AFFAIRS
LANSING

G. I. Students Eligible for Subsistence Loans
Veterans attending Michigan colleges this fall who are faced with a sixty day delay in obtaining federal subsistence checks from the Veterans Administration may obtain a Student Subsistence Loan from the State Office of Veterans' Affairs, Lansing.

These loans are made solely for the purpose of providing the veteran with subsistence during the period between his enrollment and the date of the receipt of his first federal subsistence check.

Eligibility for such loans is confined to veterans who, at the time of induction, were bona fide residents of this state and who are now engaged in a course of instruction at a school located in the state of Michigan.

The amount of the loan will not exceed $65.00 for a single veteran, or $90.00 for a married veteran.

Student Subsistence Loans should be initiated and cleared through the veterans' counselor at the school. In cases where the school does not have this service, the veteran should make application for the loan at the nearest community counseling center, or write to the State Office of Veterans' Affairs, 411 West Michigan, Lansing, Michigan.

A Twentieth Century Fund survey reports a definite trend toward greater interest in outdoor sports. Over a million dollars has been received to sponsor for one baseball world series and the gate receipts at a single world championship prize fight have exceeded 25 million dollars. On the average, 12 million people pay 40 million dollars weekly to watch football during the season, while annual horse and dog racing receipts are twice as large.

Here's a New Light on an Old Subject

This tag identifies the revolutionary new Certified Lamp—the finest piece of home lighting equipment ever made. When your youngster does his homework under a Certified Lamp, you can be sure his eyes are getting the best. No glare or sharp shadows will tire him, cause him headaches, poor grades or, as is sometimes the case, serious eyestrain.

That's because these new lamps are the product of years of careful engineering; because they're sold as a unit—reflector, shade, stand and switch—each certified to be the last word in better, more healthful lighting. Available in floor, table and wall models—in every style and design—they're in Michigan shops and department stores this week.

You're sure, too, that your light is right if you have an Edison Home Lighting Specialist check over your lamps. Her visit costs you nothing—it may safeguard priceless eyesight. For this free service just call your nearest Edison office today.

Lindy Fraser Barred from Northville Track
Racing Commissioner Lewis Bredin has barred Driver-Owner Lindy Fraser of Forest, Ontario, from the Northville Downs for the remainder of the 1947 racing season. Bredin handed down the decision stating that Fraser was guilty of inhuman treatment of a horse.
It is said that Bredin charged the owner of the famous Dr. Stanton, the alleged favorite in the $5000 Governor's Cup race tonight, with beating the pacer, Belladale, with a whip until it was covered with welts last Monday.
Commissioner Bredin has ordered Fraser to leave the grounds and to take his stable with him. Current meeting ends Sept. 20.

Building Ban Lifted on Northville Downs
From the September 9 issue of The Detroit-News comes the following paragraph of local interest:
Northville Ban Lifted - With the consent of Morris Zwerdling, assistant district attorney, Federal Judge Ernest A. O'Brien has cleared the way for further construction at the Northville race track by dissolving a preliminary injunction granted last year preventing such work. Construction of grandstand additions and new betting booths was halted a year ago when the Civilian Production Administration accused the Northville Downs Association and Northville Driving Club of violating emergency building regulations. The regulations expired July 1.

Village Industries
say that in the late 1890's and early 1900's the building was occupied by the Globe Furniture Co. Foundry. They sold to the American Bell Foundry who manufactured furnaces as did the Independent Furnace Co., Chambers Furnace Co. and Campbell and Co. The Northville Foundry and Mfg. Co. Inc. purchased the building from J. O. Stephenson in 1946, who made parts for tanks in the 2nd World War and also turned out other cast iron parts.
These three industries are an important factor in making Northville a progressive town. The Michigan Powdered Metal Products, Weber Machine Tools, and Northville Foundry and Manufacturing Co., Inc. by their utilization of local manpower add to the growth and wealth of the village.

VISITS FAMILY
Arriving in the Village last week to visit Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rodgers and family of West Dunlap street were the Rodgers' son and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rodgers of Los Angeles, California.
Clayton and the former Loretta George of Inokern, California were married August 9th at the home of a close friend of the bride's in Los Angeles.
The bride wore a pink satin gown and carried pink roses centered with an orchid.
The bride's mother, Mrs. W. J. Bergeron of Inokern, California was her daughter's matron of honor. She was attired in pink crepe and carried Tahsman roses. Acting as best man was Roland Neff of Pasadena.
The young couple spent their honeymoon at Big Bear Lake in the California mountains.
Mrs. Rodgers is a former Northville resident having attended Junior High school here. She is a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Alger of Griswold Road. She and her husband will spend a few days visiting the senior Rodgers before going to East Lansing where they will make their home while Clayton attends MSC.
