

HAVE A TRULY SUPER HALLOWEEN

A WARNING AND REQUEST...

TO PARENTS - The Police-Department and School officials suggest that owing to the tension created by prowlers in the community that it would be wise if your children would do their regular soliciting right after school so that they will be home before dark.

TO DONORS - Chief Denison requests that you help by having your gifts ready after school to help in this precautionary effort.

THANK YOU!

Dr. Willis Returns From Abroad; Reports Conditions In Europe

Makes Report

DR. H. STUART WILLIS, formerly of Northville, who has recently returned from European tour.

Robt. Yerkes to Direct Dramatics

The Northville Dramatic Club, newly sponsored by the local Recreation committee, met for the first time last evening. The next meeting will occur on Tuesday evenings in the Presbyterian Church House. Robert G. Yerkes is the director of the club. Active membership in the Players' Club of Detroit from 1920 to 1935 and later a connection with the Ann Arbor unit, qualified Mr. Yerkes to direct such a group. Two plays written by him have been published and produced.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis, founders of Northville, reported conditions in England much worse than Americans currently imagine. "It is a tragedy to the world the way these people are suffering," Dr. Willis said.

Opens Business In the Village

A new business opened up this week in Northville, located in the first floor of the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Allen, corner Main and Griswold Rd. This is a business venture of Mrs. Allen (Inga Starnann) and will be run in connection with the monument sales agency conducted by Mr. Allen at the same location. The shop is located at the corner of Griswold Road and East Main street and entrance to the same may be attained from Griswold Road. A new business sign is to be erected soon over the entrance.

The shop features Roseville pottery with outdoor bird baths, vases, urns and gift articles of all kinds, as well as gift wrappings and greeting cards. Business will be conducted during the evening hours, as well as in the day time.

Orchestra to Give Two Concerts

The Women's Symphony Orchestra of Chicago, conducted by Bohumir Kryl, will come to Northville next Friday, November 7, to give two concerts in the local High school gymnasium. Concerts are planned for 2 o'clock and 2:15 o'clock. The first concert will be played for Grade school children and the later program is planned for High school pupils and local townspeople interested in symphonic music. Everyone will be welcome to attend and tickets may be secured at the High school.

Mr. Kryl's orchestra is familiar to local townpeople, having been heard in a concert here two years ago. This marks the 43rd annual tour of the orchestra.

Community Dance Evening of Nov. 6

An old time community dancing-party will be held Thursday, Nov. 6th, from 8:30 til 12 o'clock, in the Presbyterian Church House. A three-piece orchestra has been secured for the party, which is to be sponsored by the Men's Club of the church. Tickets may be secured at the Carrington Insurance Agency office or Johnson's Gift Shop.

Dedicate Lighted Field at Plymouth

The Northville High School Football Team and Band will participate in the dedication of the new-lighted Plymouth football field this Friday night, October 31st.

A special dedicatory program has been arranged for the occasion. Three fine bands will contribute to the colorful event, Northville, Plymouth and Livonia. And of course the Mustangs will make Plymouth work if they expect to be winners on their own home field that evening.

The dedicatory service will be held between the halves of the game with the raising of the flag and the playing of the Star Spangled banner by the massed bands. Mayor Jack Taylor will welcome the visitors and citizens of Plymouth to the event. Rotary President Paul Wiedman will present the field to the Plymouth Schools, and Sterling Eaton, President of the Plymouth Board of Education, will give the speech of acceptance. Rotarian Captain, Rev. Dr. Henry J. Walsh, will offer the dedicatory prayer.

Tickets for the game and services will be $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for students.

TUNIS P. BIDDLE, owner of Northville Coach Lines, opens new garage and office.

Completes Office-Garage Addition

Tunis Biddle of the Northville Coach Lines is now comfortably settled in his newly remodeled and enlarged garage and office on E. Seven Mile Road. A large addition 30 by 79 feet, has been constructed on the west side of the old building to be used for bus storage and a second story has been added over the present garage. It is finished off in a modern motif for office giving additional office space of 30x16 feet.

The new office has been floors with asphalt tile, has panel walls, and ceiling with large easement windows on the front elevation, giving an abundance of light.

At this season of the year one can see "glorious views" to the south and west.

Injured in Fall From Window

An unusual accident occurred in the village on Thursday of last week when Mrs. Clyde Ferguson and her three year old daughter, Jolene, fell from a second story window of the new Ferguson home in the process of erection in Oakwood. Mrs. Ferguson is a patient at Sessions Hospital and is resting comfortably, though suffering from broken ribs and other injuries including a number of facial bruises, the latter caused by landing on cement blocks and other building debris in the yard. X-rays show no internal injuries. Jolene was scarcely injured, the mother's body breaking in her child's fall.

The exact cause of the accident is uncertain, but it is believed the child must have gone too close to the window opening and that the mother, in trying to save her child, lost her balance and fell to the ground, two stories below.

Mrs. Ferguson is the daughter of Mrs. Anna Norder of North Rogers St., and with her husband and family, has been staying in her parent's home pending completion of the new house.

The Fergusons formerly lived in Plymouth.

Tuesday Is Election Day Here; Vote On City Hall-County Building Project

Protective Health Program is Set-up

A protective program has been planned for Northville school children, up to the age of ten years, through the cooperation of the village medical group, Wayne County Health Department and the school health service.

On each of the following dates Nov. 7, Dec. 5 and Jan. 9, four local doctors will be on duty in the school lunchroom from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for the purpose of administering combined antigens for diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus.

A vaccination program for all children including those in the kindergarten and up through the Twelfth grade, will be carried out simultaneously with the above plan, since health authorities state it is necessary that every person should be vaccinated once in every five years.

The local school health staff will send slips to parents, via the children, for the purpose of securing information and signatures before returning papers to the school. As usual only a small charge will be made for the preventive treatments.

In the High school the student council health officer, Frederick Bernhardt, and a number of students are in charge. The latter group is composed of one pupil from every home room in every grade.

This is the only time that you will be asked to do this election on Tuesday, November 4.

Distribute Novi Gun Club Money

A Northville organization, the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post, is one of three, to benefit by a division of funds from the Novi Rod and Gun Club recently dissolved. Others to receive monies were the V. F. W. Post, on Farmington, and the Novi chapter of Blue Star Mothers. $323.00, the amount in the Novi Club treasury, was evenly divided among the three groups mentioned.

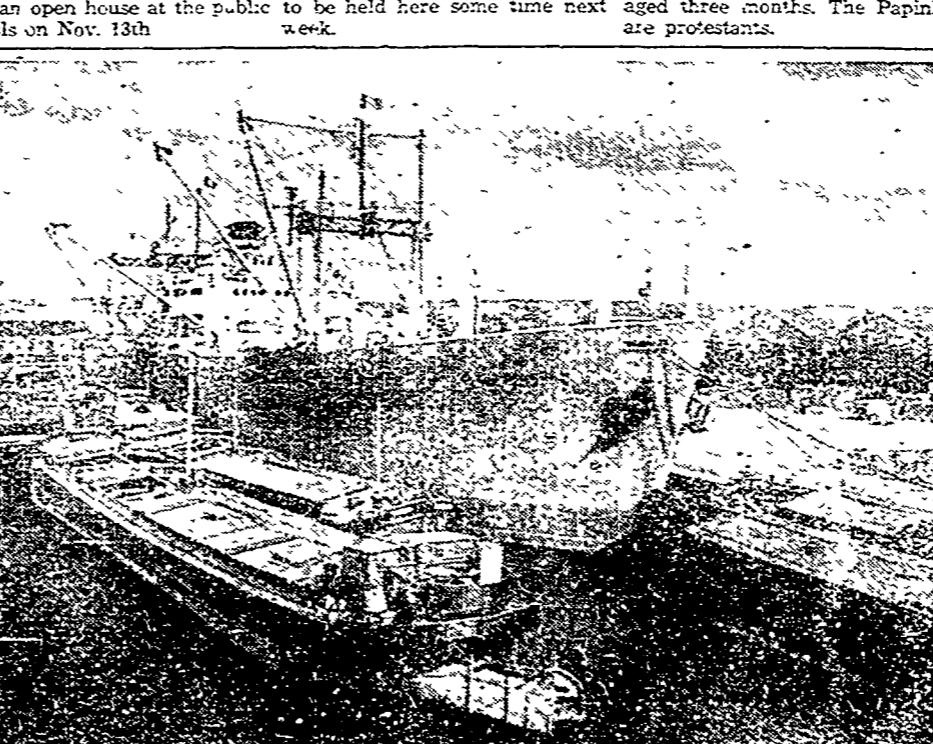

In existence for several years the membership of the Novi Rod and Gun Club was made up of men from Northville, Novi and Farmington. Officers were Arthur Krieger, of G and River avenue, president, and Wesley Maltby of Walnut St. Secretary-treasurer. During a recent business meeting held at Chas. Hall on 10 Mile Rd., club members decided to disband, owing to the fact that several larger clubs are now in existence which are able to offer more extensive activities, and funds in the club treasury were generously donated to the three patriotic organizations of the three neighboring towns.

Fire Dept. Called to Willis Home

The Northville Fire Department was called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Willis on North Wing street, Saturday morning, to extinguish a fire which had started in a clothes press.

Though considerable damage was done to furnishings and personal belongings, Mr. Willis reports that such would have been far greater had it not been for the speed and efficiency of the local fire department. The fire was of undetermined origin.

SCIENTIFIC HALLOWEEN

Raven Seeks Jet-Propelled Witches

"Nevermore," quoth the portly looking raven perched above the chamber door of Nucleus T. Kallikak, eminent physicist.

"Nevermore what?" snarled deep-browed Kallikak, started from his scientific reverie of the possibilities of the bubble-gum atom.

"Nevermore," quoth unquoth, the raven with a gloomy chuckle.

"Are you going now the bird, bird?" raged Nucleus T. Kallikak.

"Now, all I want to do is tell you about a perfectly deadly idea I have to improve Hallowe'en celebrations.

I'm a morbid character, you know." The raven laughed hoarsely.

"What's this, dear, you're saying of a 'super-duster'?"

"Jet-propelled broomsticks for witches."

"No, I'm serious," railed the raven, noticing Kallikak's stricken look. "Jet-propelled broomsticks would put that old-time atmosphere back into Hallowe'en. You never see witches riding broomsticks any more on October 31. That wonderful old tradition has died. And why?" Getting no answer from Kallikak and apparently unable to answer his own question himself, the raven continued: "Where do you suppose all the witches are now?"

"I couldn't know. Don't tell me I'm married over!"

"Fortunately, for any hapless witch you might have married, no," quoth the raven with a gloomy sarcasm. "They've all deserted their broomsticks and have taken to riding the basses, streetcars and subways. They're the ones who jar your upper plate loose trying to get an end of you and then look insur-

"I begin to enjoy your project as you outline it," stated Kallikak as he crushed an oversize molecule from his coat. "Let's expand it a little."

"First of all, we can contact the immigration authorities and have them fix a quota for bringing ban-shees and leprechauns into this country from Ireland. We haven't had any leprechauns here since the Pat and Mike jokes and horrible deaths early in the 19th century."

"Then we'll call in Dr. Burbank G. Fruity, the eminent geneticist and authority on biological development . . ."

"Why do we want Fruity?" interrupted the raven.

"We'll have him cross black cats with camels so their backs will be permanently arched, and—"

"Oh, no, logical-minded friend," the raven groaned, "I knew you'd bust up my beautiful plans for an old-fashioned Hallowe'en. Can they'll be the death of me yet. You killjoy. Hereafter I'll sit above your grave and not open my book except to quote 'Nevermore.'

"A good, old-fashioned Hallowe'en," signed Nucleus T. Kallikak as he started out to figure a quota for leprechauns and consider the means of crossing black cats with bookkeeping surplus and some what of an illusion in view of the future disbursements to be made. But it already has prompted a headline, "Inflation turns deficit into surplus for state," that is quite in reverse of the state's true financial situation.

Whether new taxes are to be levied in 1948, they are likely to be required by 1949, according to most state officials at Lansing. There is some argument about whether it would be desirable, politically, to do so in 1948, which is a state and national election year. Legislators are likely to impose new taxes at the eve of their own elections. And it won't help Governor Sibley any, either, in the judgment of many legislators.

The possibility of new taxes in 1948 has caused a number of vulnerable industrial interests to prepare for a legislative showdown. If a way can be found to postpone the necessity of such levies, the legislature will probably jump at it.

Repeal of the constitutional tax diversion amendment is to come before Michigan voters at the November election, 1948. The Michigan Public Expenditure Survey recently made a sample poll of voters to find their thinking. The Survey reports that incomplete returns show 63 per cent—nearly two-thirds—favor such repeal.

There is one observation that could be made about the Survey poll. However, it is being taken at luncheon club luncheons which are attended by business men. We have a strong bunch that many voters—especially those who read only headlines and do not get into the details—will be reluctant to vote against Santa Claus. It is nice to get more money from Lansing, as it is from Washington. This money is like a gift. It isn't "our" money. This illusion still prevails and will probably continue to do so along as human nature remains what it is.

Here's where the catch comes into the picture. It has state officials puzzled.

When prices are continually climbing, the state will always be dollars ahead in the division of funds based upon the previous year's collection. But when the tax revenue starts to dip—and it is bound to do so eventually, probably with a bang—the state will have the responsibility of paying funds to local governments at a greater rate than current tax collections.

State Treasurer D. Hale Broke thinks that the only prudent thing for the state of Michigan to do is to re-enact 44.7 percent of each month's tax collection, as is re-enacted by the state. This amount would be deducted monthly and held in reserve until ready for distribution to local governments, as required by the constitutional amendment.

The current surplus in the treasury thus becomes a mere

News and Comment from Congressman George A. Dondero
WEST POINT APPOINTMENT: Congressman George A. Dondero has just made his nominations to the Department of the Army for the United States Military Academy for the class of 1948, which class enters the Academy at West Point on July 1st of that year.

Mr. Dondero makes his appointments through a competitive examination conducted for him by the U. S. Civil Service Commission. The boys earning these nominations come from various points of the Seventeenth Congressional District, namely, Redford Township, Detroit and Plymouth of Wayne County, and Ferndale of Oakland County.

The young man who is fortunate enough to earn an appointment to West Point or Annapolis not only receives a four-year college or university education but the equivalent of many thousands of dollars, which represents the cost of such training.

The boys winning this distinction for the class of 1948 are:

Principal — Robert Ellsworth Thorne, 1549½ Central Avenue, Detroit 22 (Redford Township) Michigan

First Alternate — Raymond Charles Green, 623 Ferndale, Ferndale, Michigan

Second Alternate — Norman Keith Harrison, 10615 Ashton Road, Detroit 19, Michigan, and

Third Alternate — Rodriguez Lane Highfield, 449 Auburn Street, Plymouth, Michigan

Council Proceedings

A flunker. (Clerk was instructed to take this matter up with the proper authorities)

2nd. That the stop on Dunlap street, intersecting King street, is not marked clearly enough, and because of this fact is also dangerous.

3rd. The sidewalk in front of Bond Bros. store on Center street does not conform to grade and because of its slope from the store to the street is apt to be the cause of accidents during the winter months when there is ice.

Moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Fred, that the Village Clerk, in his opinion, has done an excellent job.

Moved by Fred, supported by Ely, that the Village Clerk also advertise for bids for the drilling of a 4" test well combined with the drilling of a 12" well at the present location of Fairbrook Spring corner of Fairbrook Ave. and Eaton Drive, providing a satisfactory water supply is located at this point. Bids to be made on the basis of drilling both wells, with separate figures for each operation. Carried.

Fred F VanAnta, representing the Northville Co-ordinating Council asked the Village Commission to consider what might be done to improve the following conditions now existing in the village.

1st. The intersection of Caly and Center streets is a dangerous traffic hazard, and the Co-ordinating Council feels that the Wayne County Road Commission should install some sort of warning sign at this point possible.

Issue Huron River Canoeing Guide

Shows the River Route in Four Stages Varying from 20-30 Miles Each

A Huron River canoeing guide has just been issued jointly by the Department of Conservation and the Huron-Clinton Metro-District Authority.

For ease in handling and for economy of general distribution, the guide has been printed in four sections showing the five route in four easy stages varying from 20 to 30 miles each. The total course covers a river distance of 99.5 miles and includes five camp sites available for immediate use.

But Brown, long recognized by Michigan livestock feeders as an authority on meat animal feeding, says it is not impossible and suggests 12 rules for farmers to follow. They are:

1. Use adequate amounts of protein supplements to balance the ration and increase the efficiency of corn or other grain.
2. Make the best possible use of roughages. - Even cheap roughages like straw and corn stalks can be fed cattle until the first of the year when hay should be fed more liberally.
3. Feed livestock in accordance with its ability to produce.
4. Practice hand-feeding - it is more efficient although it requires more labor.

5. Market pigs at 225 pounds or less in weight.
6. The most economical and efficient gains are made by young animals and during the first part of the feeding period with older animals.

7. Short, forced-feeding of cattle gives the best utilization of grain.
8. Protect animals from cold, fall rains and storms.
9. Provide warm drinking water at all times.

10. Keep animals free from both internal and external parasites.
11. Study the individual requirements of animals and feed accordingly.

12. Sort corn carefully and use soft corn immediately.

Farmers Must Get More Meat with Less Grain

It's squarely up to the American farmer to produce more meat with less feed than he has been using, thinks G. A. Brown, head of the animal husbandry department at Michigan State College.

How to maintain adequate numbers of livestock and still provide cereals grains for the needy people of less fortunate lands is one of the most difficult problems this generation will face, the livestock specialist believes.

But Brown, long recognized by Michigan livestock feeders as an authority on meat animal feeding, says it is not impossible and suggests 12 rules for farmers to follow. They are:

1. Use adequate amounts of protein supplements to balance the ration and increase the efficiency of corn or other grain.
2. Make the best possible use of roughages. - Even cheap roughages like straw and corn stalks can be fed cattle until the first of the year when hay should be fed more liberally.
3. Feed livestock in accordance with its ability to produce.
4. Practice hand-feeding - it is more efficient although it requires more labor.

5. Market pigs at 225 pounds or less in weight.
6. The most economical and efficient gains are made by young animals and during the first part of the feeding period with older animals.

7. Short, forced-feeding of cattle gives the best utilization of grain.
8. Protect animals from cold, fall rains and storms.
9. Provide warm drinking water at all times.

10. Keep animals free from both internal and external parasites.
11. Study the individual requirements of animals and feed accordingly.

12. Sort corn carefully and use soft corn immediately.

There've been some wrecks, it's true... And hardly a day goes by that at least one car isn't derailed. But ever since that Christmas morning when it first started operation, young Johnny's Living-Room and Basement Railroad has never lacked electrical power.

One reason for this is that all Detroit Edison power lines are interconnected. Even if the particular circuit supplying current to Johnny's home is shut down temporarily, another one can immediately take up the job of keeping lights burning, appliances going, and the L.R. & B. running right on schedule.

The work of supplying current to your home or place of business may be switched from one of the dozens of Edison substations to another. You never know it. But it is one important reason for the year-round reliability of your electrical service.

Bert A. Nelson's Celebrate 50th Wedding Anniversary

A very pleasant event took place Sunday afternoon and evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert A. Nelson on Five Mile Road, between Northville and South Lyon. The couple celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with an open house attended by about 230 relatives and friends. The house was decorated with baskets of oak leaves and golden marigolds, together with bouquets of chrysanthemums, also in shades of gold. The tea table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a low arrangement of gold and bronze bebe mums and chrysanthemums, with tall tapers, decorated in golden bells, at either side. A four-tiered wedding cake decorated with yellow roses also held a place of honor. Assisting with the buffet lunch were the Misses Hazel Brown and Gertrude Zwernikoska of Warden, Carol Briggs of Detroit, Maybel Clinchamith and Mrs. Roy Lyke of Plymouth.

The wedding cake was served by a daughter, Mrs. Chas. Freydi. Mrs. Betty Bruner of Portsmouth, Ohio, had charge of the guest book.

Eudora A. Ovenshine was born in Salem Township on Nov. 25th, 1877, the only daughter of Frank A. and Caroline Vanatta Ovenshine. Mr. Nelson was the only son of George and Alice Waters Nelson and was born at Lodi, Mich., April 26th, 1875.

The couple were united in marriage October 27th, 1897, at the home of the bride's parents in Northfield. Two of the guests at the wedding also attended the golden anniversary; Mrs. Sarah Waters of Ann Arbor and Win Corbin of Grand Rapids.

To Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were born three children, two daughters, Anna, who passed away at the age of six months, and Velma (Mrs. Chas. Freydi) and a son, Millard of Flint. There are three grandsons, Charles and Robert of Pontiac and Jimmie of Flint.

The first three years of their married life was spent on the groom's family farm in Salem. The remaining forty-seven have been spent on the farm which they now own, known as the Sylvester Sibley farm, the couple purchased the place from Dr. Sibley of Detroit, who, with his wife, attended the celebration.

For the anniversary party Mrs. Nelson wore a dress of powder blue lace over blue taffeta trimmed with pink and crystal beads from her wedding dress fifty years ago. Her coat was presented by the three grandsons, conected in orchid.

Guests at Sunday's affair came from Northville, Plymouth, Ann Arbor, Detroit, Grand Rapids, Houghton Lake, Holly, Pontiac, Milford, Silver Lake and Cherry Hill. Coming from Canada was Mr. and Mrs. Claude Baileya and son who flew their own plane.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are well known in this village, having frequently visited the Freydi home and the local Eastern Star chapter.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry German entertained several couples at a pre-Halloween costume party Sunday evening. Enjoying a co-operative dinner at the German home on Orchard Drive, were Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bogart, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Litscherberger, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Woodworth, Mrs. Wm. Liebetreu and the H. A. Boydens.

Marion Pigott of Fowler was a weekend visitor at the home of Mrs. Daisy Martin on Fairbrook Road.
