Novi Jr. Red Cross Pack Boxes for UNESCO

In gratefulness for their many blessings and in the spirit of the Christmas season the Novi School Junior Red Cross boys and girls have been busy collecting for and packing a box for UNESCO.

UNESCO is spelled and pronounced the same in every language regardless of what the initials are in that particular language. The name is derived from the English initials U N E S C O, meaning United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization.

Into the box went, among other things 83 pencils, 57 pads of paper, 25 boxes of paper and 4 boxes of paints for children in Europe's devastated countries.

For hospitalized veterans the Novi Jr. Red Cross has sent 122 menu folders, 50 carnival hats, 38 nut cups, 22 posters. The menu folders were made by the primary children from old Christmas cards. Posters and hats were the projects of the upper grades.

Their regular Christmas Red Cross gift boxes for needy children throughout the world are nearing completion.

Cite Mailing Tips for Xmas

The handling of Christmas mail can be greatly facilitated by careful preparation by the sender, advises Postmaster Fred Van Atta.

It should be particularly remembered in the addressing of Christmas Cards mailed at the 1½ cent rate. These cards can be neither forwarded nor returned, and if they are not properly prepared it is unlikely they will reach their destination. They do not travel at the same rate of speed and must therefore be mailed earlier than if first class postage were used.

The following information applies not only to Christmas but to any time, and the Postmaster suggests you clip the item to save for future reference.

Postage—Prepay postage fully on all mail matter. If not sure of the rate check at the Post Office.

Address—Address all matter plainly and completely in ink to insure to give the street address. Delivery zone numbers in all cities where used should be shown as it speeds up delivery.

Packing and Wrapping—Pack articles carefully in strong containers. Wrap securely, but do not seal. Parcels that are sealed are subject to letter rate.

Permissible Additions—Parcels may be marked "Do not open until Christmas. Do not include letters in parcels as doing so subjects the entire package to letter rate or three cent/nine cent. Letters may be sent with parcels by attaching securely to the outside and preparing 3 cent rate on the letter only.

Seals—Seal or stickers should not be placed on the address side of a parcel or letter.

Stamps—Mailers may save time by buying stamps in advance.

Speed—for speed in transit of parcels use Special Handling Always use Special Delivery for expeditious handling of all classes of mail.

Safety—Parcels should be in (Continued on page 8)

Ornament Making A Cottage Industry

Those colored glass ornaments that we hang on our Christmas tree used to come from Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland. A smaller size were made in Japan. When the war cut off these supplies, American glass manufacturers, who had never bothered with these products before, turned part of their facilities over to making the pretty glassware. Mechanical methods were soon developed that could blow as many ornaments in an hour as a European glassblower could make in a month. Thus modern efficiency may doom this picturesque little industry, carried on in the most famous towns of eastern Europe.

Ornament making is a typical cottage industry in the little villages that cling to the steep mountainsides. Families specialize in certain shapes and designs, patterns that have date back for hundreds of years unchanged. The father, using a basic burner, carefully blows the thin glass tubing to the desired shape, with the aid of an iron mold. His son, acting as mold boy, removes the hot ornament to a cooling table. Next the mother silvers the inside, and finally the daughter applies paint and perhaps decorative designs.

Christmas Rose Has Real Significance

Legend tells us that a young shepherd girl was weeping bitterly as she watched the Wise Men on their way to take gifts to the Christ Child.

An old legend says that as certain as the sun rises in the east, a girl was born to the world on Christmas Day. She was born in a stable, and when she was born, a star shone over the stable.

Water Cress Wins Show Championship

Water Cress Stock Farms of Northville has the senior junior champion stallion at the International Livestock Exposition at Chicago.

Water Cress Stock Farm won the 2nd standard from five entries exhibiting market Belgian Horses. Credit Fleeter was the reserve junior champion stallion.

This custom originated with the Dutch. They used their wooden shoes instead of stockings.

When the Dutch came to New Amsterdam, this custom came with them—the wooden shoes being gradually replaced by stockings made for the occasion out of net-like materials. As nearly every home had a fireplace the usual place to hang the stockings was over the fireplace.

Quaint Swiss Custom Of Meeting Lover

Forecasting is ritualized in Switzerland. Grandma goes to the cellar, selects the most perfect onion, cuts it, and peels 12 layers, one for each month. The next day these layers show what the weather will be during the coming year.

The daughter of the house goes about town at midnight to drink from nine different fountains. Then she goes to church. She expects to meet her unknown lover on the church steps.

The old Cherry Tree carol, or the legend upon which it is based, is undoubtedly the reason for the custom of placing a branch of cherry tree in water to bid for Christmas time.

According to this legend, Mary and Joseph on their way to Bethlehem passed a tree loaded with cherries. Mary was hungry for some of the fruit and asked Joseph to pick some cherries for her. The tree graciously bowed down so that Mary could pick the fruit herself.

It has been customary among the Czechs and Slovaks to take the branch of a cherry tree and place it in water at the late fall so that the buds reach the blossoming stage at Christmas time.

The belief was current that if the spring blossomed by Christmas Eve, the girl who tended it would marry during the New Year.

while the farmer was tinkering with his sprayer and getting ready to spray his barn, the cow suffered no bad effects.

At West Virginia University last year the dairy department threw caution to the wind and put 50 per cent DDT powder in 100 gallons of water -- then sprayed cows with it. That figures out about 16 per cent for DDT. Most recommendations to date have been under 1 per cent for DDT water sprays on animals. There were absolutely no harmful results tho' the head of the dairy department reported. The DDT controlled flies, too. The spray was put on in May, and there were no flies on the cows until the middle of August.

Ukrainians Hold To Many Old Customs

Ukrainian churches, both Greek Orthodox and Uniate, cling to the ancient Julian calendar, so their Christmas Day comes 12 days later than ours, or on January 6. Christmas Eve is celebrated with much traditional ceremony and festivity.

The High Super of Swista Wevers is very elaborate, consisting of 12 courses, in memory of the 12 apostles. Fish, baked, broiled and jellied, takes the place of meat. Borscht or beet soup, is generally served, and stuffed cabbage filled with rice. Vareniki, scrumptious like the Italian ravioli, also is a usual course. Dessert consists of special pudding called kifava made of wheat, poppy seeds and sugar.

During the Christmas Eve supper, one member of every Ukrainian family throws a handful of kifava into the ceiling. If it sticks, it means happy new year; if it falls, it means unhappy new year. After supper, a plate of braided bread, called tschach, is left on the table between the lit candles. Legend says the spirits of the family's dead return at midnight to eat this tschach.

The Ukrainian Christmas festival continues three days. In the evenings, the children go from house to house to sing carols relating the birth of Christ. This is followed by a play, usually carried on stage with children in some cases, they perform plays. These are rewarded by gifts of food or money.

ENGLISH PLUM PUDDING

In the Book of Common Prayer of the Church of England, the prayer for the last Sunday before Advent began with the words "Stir up." The people of Peterborough thought this to be a reminder that they should start their plum pudding at that time, and everybody in the family took a hand in stirring until it was ready on Christmas.

This indispensable old-time English Christmas dish was first made, or frumenty, which according to old time recipe was "wheat boiled until the grains burst, then strained and boiled again with broth or milk and yeeks of eggs." Frumenty was the forerunner to plum pudding.

Alms Giving Customs A Christmas Charity

Giving alms at Christmas originated in the belief that the Christ came sometimes to the door disguised as a beggar during the holiday season, and it was feared that he might be turned away unrecognized. There is an old legend that tells of the Christ child going from door to door on Christmas Eve in search of those who were kind and deserving. His test was to knock for aid and often he was turned away from the door. This story led to alms giving on Christmas Eve and it was rare that a beggar was refused.

Watford Carole

Near Bethlehem did shepherds keep Their flocks of lambs and feeding sheep; To whom God's angels did appear, Which put the shepherds in great fear; "Prepare and go," the angels said, "To Bethlehem be not afraid; For there you'll find this happy morn, A princely babe, sweet Jesus born."

Mr. Edwards is again selling Christmas trees next to the post office. See him for better trees.

At the close of the dinner hour, officers of Orient Chapter addressed the chapter room at the Grade School lunchroom. The children will not be names this year but will each bring a wrapped gift to be given to the Farmington Children who worked on the valiant Home. The tea arrangements will be managed by the Troop Mothers' Committee, headed by Mrs. A. Russell Clarke and assisted by Mrs. Gordon McElroy, Mrs. Robert Coolman, Mrs. Merriam. The children have practiced Christmas Carols and will shop for supplies, decorated the tables and cooked and served the meal. The venture began with a potato-peeling party in the home of Mrs. Lucile McKinney, Mother Advisor, the preceding evening.

As the result of careful planning and much labor on the part of the Rainbow Girls, the dinner party was a great success.

The evening's program was presided over by Miss Jean MacKay of Highland Park, president, who introduced the speakers in turn. Southeastern's secretary, Irma Friedrich of Royal Oak, read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. Reports from the federal relations committee were given by Margaret Stevens, state director of Port Huron. The main speaker of the evening was Mary E. A. Lewis of Ann Arbor. M. E. A. president Miss Lewis' topic was "The World Organization of the Teaching Profession in Session at Glasgow."

The purpose of this organization is to assist UNESCO (United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization). Thirty-five major countries belong to the group which hopes to promote friendly relations between countries as to inter-cultural relations. At the current events and language meet a UN-ESCO is meeting in Mexico City at the present time and next year some 123 exchange teachers and students in Europe with many of them from overseas scattered throughout America.

Miss Lewis gave her listeners a comprehensive picture of the auxiliary function of this great body, having attended the sessions last August. She told of her trip over to the Peace Ship, whose passengers were all enroute to this convention. Coming from all parts of the world, many found it simpler to fly to the States from their various homes as officers. We must feed their countries to sail direct to Glasgow. Miss Lewis also told of many interesting personal items such as her reception into Scottish homes and churches, rationing problems of that leadership—they are utterly defeated (spirit). "We have been overwhelmed with friendliness and hospitality since coming to the States from England and Scotland. You Americans are doing so much in the way of sending boxes of food and clothing extras to the children and other members of our immediate families in those countries." The best way to get to know a country is to live in it (thus). Speaking on behalf of students Miss Lewis also stressed the friendly American spirit. "I write to my family in China that this must be good to the foreigner to see I call you people 'foreigners' when they come to China for the Americans have been so kind to me." Come Christmas Royal Oak itself an exchange teacher in 1937-38 acted as chairman of the panel.

Result of this discussion was a gathering of names and addresses of boys and girls in many lands and even whole families, for purposes of correspondence and friendly aid, both material and spiritual, from members of the Southeastern Teachers' Association.

Also, this time, it should be stated here that the Northville Grade school children and the local Teachers' Club had already come their bit in the project both groups having raised a fund by donation and projects, to add materially to the sum needed for the purchase and sending to overseas, selected children pencils, paper and crayons, the supplies being greatly needed in European schools. After a informal discussion among members of the group as a whole the meeting was brought to a close by the presiding officer.

OIL WELLS, HOLLYWOOD STYLE . . . Looking like a giant over this startlingly life-like miniature oil field, a Hollywood technician makes a final adjustment on an oil derrick before cameras begin to roll. The oil field scene was used in a film produced for Shell Oil company, which traces the growth of the oil business from a single well to the industrial colossus it is today. More than a year was spent in making the film, which takes but 23 minutes to show on the screen.

The next meeting of SMATC will occur Feb. 11th at Ferndale

Legends of Holly

Many beliefs are connected with the Christmas holly. Legends relate that the crown of thorns was plaited from the holly, the white berries turning red like drops of blood after the crucifixion.

It is said that whoever brings the holly into the house first, either husband or wife, is the one who will rule in the ensuing year.

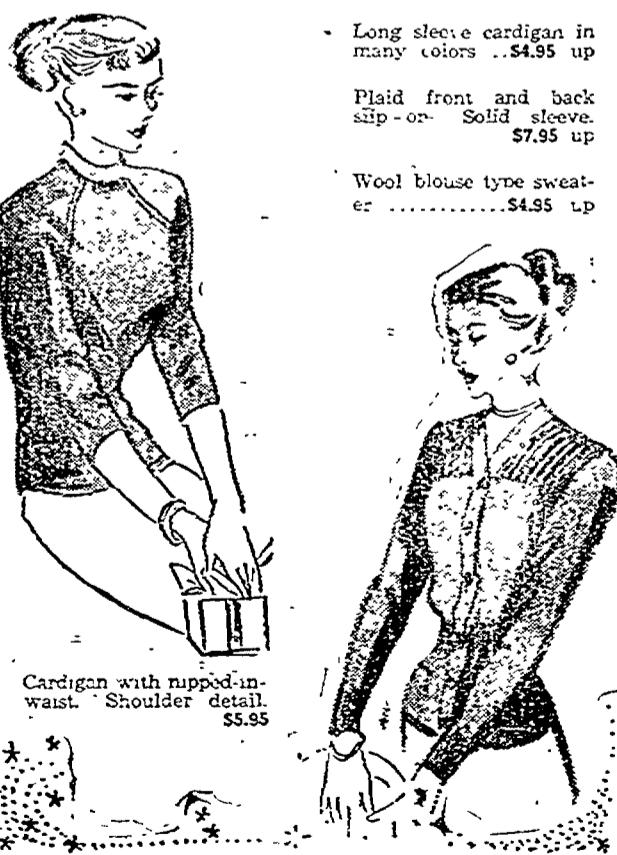

For many years the superstition persisted that holly was hateful to witches. It was placed on doors and windows to keep out evil spirits.

Reinforcements Needed To Maintain the Soil

Mature soil is important in furnishing plant food to the soil, adding organic matter and rebuilding soil structure. But you cannot maintain your soil supply by feeding crops to livestock and returning the manure to the land. The above chart shows the losses that occur when 1,000 bushels of corn are fed to livestock in making the feed into milk or

Horse Events Set For Farmers' Week

The big day of the year for Michigan horsemen is scheduled for Tuesday, January 25, 1948 during the Farmers' Week program at Michigan State college, according to Harry Moxley, MSC extension animal husbandry specialist.

Outstanding breed representatives of both draft and light horses will be on exhibit during the day. Draft breeds shown will be Belgians, Percherons and Clydesdales. The light breeds will be American Saddle Horse, American Trotting Horse, Thoroughbred, Walking Horse, Quarter Horse, Arabian, Appaloosa, Palomino, Morgan, and ponies. Many of these animals will be on display at state and national shows.

The morning program will be spent on draft horse events and horse pulling contests, while the afternoon will be devoted to the light horse program.

The results indicate that, with the rations fed, 20 per cent is the maximum amount that will allow satisfactory gains and efficient feed utilization. Above this level of molasses, both the rate of gain and efficiency of feed utilization decreases markedly.

Cost of Keeping Rats Runs High on Farms

Rats and mice, mankind's greatest animal enemies, cause enormous losses to agricultural crops, root crops, tubers, bulbs, cereals and trees. Rats also transmit such diseases as typhus and bubonic plague. It costs about two cents a day or $7.20 a year to keep a rat. One rat will eat and destroy from 85 to 100 pounds of feed a year, or as much as is consumed by a haying hen. A rat produces on food of 225 rats.

Conscience Triumphs

After 35 and 32 years of absence, two towels marked 1910 and 1914 were recently returned to the Pullman company — one from a woman in Massachusetts and the other from a woman in Iowa.

Industry depends on It

The Nation must have It

What is IT?

"adequate and efficient railway transportation service for the nation"

FROM THE OFFICIAL REPORT of the Interstate Commerce Commission on awarding a temporary freight rate increase of 10%, we quote:

"The law requires us to give due consideration, among other factors, to the need of revenue sufficient to enable the carriers under honest, economic, and efficient management to provide adequate and efficient railway transportation service for the nation..."

A moment's thought should convince any fair-minded person that keeping the American railroads healthy is to every body's advantage.

Every family, every businessman, even the Nation itself is in danger when this vital artery of American life is weakened.

And that threat is real, and it is now. For with increases in the cost of railroad operation piling up one atop another, how can the railroads' multimillion dollar program for desperately needed new equipment be continued? How can improvements in roadbeds, yards, stations, rolling stock, which took a merciless beating in the war years of peak traffic, be carried through?

They can't... UNLESS

Unless the railroads are granted freight rates adequate to meet the wage and material cost increases, and at the same time keep hundreds of American industries busy with new machinery and equipment orders.

Government requires that the railroads maintain a high standard of efficiency because You demand it, Industry depends on
