Babson is Optimistic Over Present Conditions in Great Britain

I have always been in close touch with Great Britain. For many years I have had an office in London and have crossed the ocean many times. From the earliest part of World War II, I constantly stated that England would suffer tremendous losses and would be temporarily forced to become a second-class power.

Holly Bronchos Fall to Mustangs

Cosch Russell's Mustangs came back strong after a three game slump last Friday night when they defeated the Holly Bronchos at the local gym which was packed with spectators. The final score was 45-25.

The Labor Government's Goal Today I am just as optimistic on Great Britain as I was pessimistic ten years ago. When reading the history of England, I am always impressed to see how many times, during the last thousand years, she has been "down and out".

Scoring was light during the first eight minutes of play and Holly had the slight edge of 7-5 as the quarter whistle blew. However the bronchos' lead was short lived and the Mustangs began dumping in baskets from beyond the half court in front of 22-12. The final five had little trouble outscoring the Holly team during the last half ending the third quarter 39-21 and at the final whistle the score stood at 45-25.

All Kroger stores started from the one little store opened in Cincinnati in 1852. That store grew into many through pleasing the people it served. And today any little store can grow into a big store—or into many stores—through giving better service and values that's the American way—the American way. It was—and is—the Kroger way, too.

Plans were being completed for the tenth Annual President's ball at the high school gym. N. H. S. Mustangs defeated the Holly team at Holly by the score of 26-22.

Floyd J. Chapman passed away at Sessions Hospital. Mrs. Joseph Denton was elected president of the Garden Club.

TEN YEARS AGO:

Floyd Lanning resigned from Depositors State Bank to accept the newly authorized post of clerk at the Maybury Sanatorium.

Mrs. Charles Murphy, State president of the American Legion Auxiliary, made a week's tour of the Upper Peninsula. Mr. and Mrs. William Hensch moved from Detroit to their apartment on West street. Mr. Hensch was a new member of the faculty.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO:

Mr. and Mrs. J. Murphy were surprised by a group of their friends who came to help them celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McCullough celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary.

THIRTY YEARS AGO:

Ed Johnson and Forrest Ault were ice-fishing Saturday.

During the last few weeks a number of West Point Park folks have dragged out discarded coal heaters and set them up, while oil tanks remained bare because of high cost and scarcity.

Mrs. Simpson of Mayfield Avenue, Monday in Detroit.

Freda Ault was the dinner guest of Mrs. Edwin Johnson on Clara avenue, Thursday evening.

Mrs. George Welch, who has been ill much of the winter, is able to be up and around in her home.

Mrs. Walter Dixon, Breton Road, has been ill with bronchitis for a week.

Mrs. Louis Graham and Mrs. Gordon Vance of Mayfield Avenue, and Mrs. Grant of Farmington Road visited patients in the Veterans' Hospital one evening last week.

Mrs. Harold McVicer is recovering from a flu attack.

Mrs. Ralph T. McCubbins, formerly Mrs. Mary Weigle, of Norfolk avenue, but now living near Plant City, Florida, writes of admiring the acres and acres of ripened strawberries on the farm belonging to Harry Hoaglan, also a former resident of West Point Park. However, she says the berries lack the sweet flavor of the Michigan sun-ripened kind. As she wrote, a sweater was a necessary part of her costume and frost was threatening the fruit. Her nephew, Steve Cronin, who at one time spent a year in West Point Park is at Corpus Christi, where just now he finds the climate cold and rainy.

URGES AID . . . LA. Gen. Albert Wedemeyer, whose report on China was made "top secret," urged congress to grant immediate U. S. military and economic aid to the Chiang Kai-shek Chinese Nationalist government.

Mrs. Russell Ault is convalescing from a flu attack.

Mrs. Leslie Grundy, Hubbard avenue, has a very sore hand, as the result of glass particles when a front door was accidentally shattered.

The Gagos, who until recently lived on Eight Mile near Hubbard, are now residing in California, like the west very much and expect to establish a permanent residence there.

Mrs. George Middlewood and son, Pat, were week-end victims of the throat infection now making the rounds.

The house which has been under construction for some time on Shady-side near Norfolk is now practically completed and neighbors expect to see the owners move in any day.

The Girl Scouts are now enthused with skating parties.

Tom Harrison, recently of Eight Mile Road, is now carrying mail for the U. S. Postal service.

Between twenty and twenty-five neighbors and relatives gathered at the home of M. E. Ault on Mayfield avenue Saturday evening and tendered him a birthday celebration. Cards were a diversion. At midnight an appetizing lunch proved most enjoyable.

The Prayer-Bible Study group of the Neighborhood Church held another very interesting session at the home of Mrs. Walter Rehahn, Thursday evening.

Raisins was a thought provoking topic at the Sunday evening service in the Neighborhood Church.

Because of rental difficulties the Livonia Methodists met in the Town Hall Sunday instead of in The Little Pink Church. They hope to be able to hold service before many weeks in the basement of their church now under construction.

KNOW YOUR BREED Blue-Game Chickens

A tradition that has been recorded by the historians of Delaware, is that during the early days of the Revolutionary war the men of Capt. Jonathan Caldwell's company took with them game chickens noted for their fighting ability. These chickens were said to be of the brood of a famous blue hen; the company soon received the sobriquet "Blue Hen's Chickens" and the state of Delaware in 1839 adopted the Blue Hen's Chicken as the state bird.

After grinding has been completed, the ground grain is blown into the mixer and necessary supplements added. The thoroughly mixed grain then flows out of the mixer and down a chute to be loaded into a feed cart on the first floor.

The only manual work required is dumping the sacked supplement into the mixer. A conventional type blower criss the whole grain automatically, while the blower attachment on the electrically powered grinder returns the ground grain to the mixer.

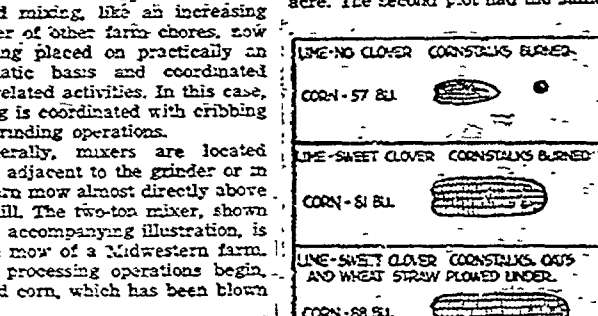

Setups of this type are becoming commonplace on scores of electrical farms. They can be constructed at relatively small cost and, in most cases, by unskilled farm labor.

All three plots in the tests were limed and the crop rotation on each included corn, oats and wheat. One plot had no clover. The small grain straw was removed and the cornstalks were burned. This plot produced a four-year average of 57 bushels per acre. The second plot had the same

Such a mixer will save labor, into a bin to the right of the mixer, drops through a chute to the grinder on the floor below. The blower pipe is shown at the right of the mixer.

After grinding has been completed, the ground grain is blown into the mixer and necessary supplements added. The thoroughly mixed grain then flows out of the mixer and down a chute to be loaded into a feed cart on the first floor.

The only manual work required is dumping the sacked supplement into the mixer. A conventional type blower criss the whole grain automatically, while the blower attachment on the electrically powered grinder returns the ground grain to the mixer.

Setups of this type are becoming commonplace on scores of electrical farms. They can be constructed at relatively small cost and, in most cases, by unskilled farm labor.

Good Soil Increases Farm Crop Yields
Tests Reveal Value Of Proper Nutrients
High crop yields per acre on the farm, like mass production in industry, are the secret of financial success, according to Errol Truog, professor of soils at University of Wisconsin.
"It costs no more for seed and tillage - usually the main expenses in crop production - to grow a $50 crop than a $25 crop," he declares.
Wisconsin tests show that additional crop yields resulting from heavy fertilization cost only $2 to $3 per ton for alfalfa and 10 to 15 cents per bushel for corn and oats.
"The extra cost of a larger yield per acre lies simply in the Proper fertilization has paid on thousands of farms, whether applied to corn, wheat, oats, soybeans, cotton or any other crop.

additional fertility removed from the soil. But even this is partly compensated for in the case of legumes by the greater amounts of nitrogen the bigger crop supplies to the soil.
"High acre yields are also the secret of success in erosion control and soil conservation. When yields on less erodible land are doubled or tripled through adequate liming and heavy fertilization, a bigger acreage of more erodible lands can be returned to forests and permanent grass. That means more and better food for all!"

Uncle Sam Says

Many tributes will be paid newspaper boys on annual Newspaper Day this month. Thousands of newspaper boys are members of thrift clubs, sponsored by the International Circulation Managers' Association. Perhaps no greater honor will come to these boys than to point them out as school boys who are demonstrating how to go into partnership with their Uncle Sam in building a growing fund for future education. By investing their newspaper boy earnings in U. S. Savings Bonds regularly, they are getting their Uncle Sam to pay part of the expense. Your bank officer or banker will explain how regular bond buying can provide four years of college education in one year of which will be paid for by your Uncle Sam as interest on your investment.

Repair Shop Saves Money for Farmers

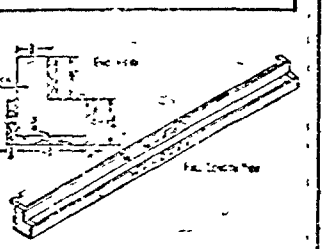

Money saved by farmers who do their car repair and maintenance work may not show up in the price of eggs but it will appear on the right side of the ledger when the year's account books are balanced. Buildings and equipment represent about one half of the average farm's total investment, and it pays to keep them in satisfactory condition. In order to do their best work, farmers use their craftsmen, purchase adequate tools because repair and maintenance work on equipment must be done during seasons and in unpleasant weather. It is wise to have a repair shop equipped for repair. Such a shop should be large enough so that the machinery can be moved inside and set in place by hand or by emergency power. It can be made at night.

Farmers are getting more and more interested in the use of electric power on their farms. The speed of their work and the time they save by using electricity are the main reasons. Some of the things that are being done on the farm probably are the first pieces of power equipment purchased. It is a tool grinder. Other electrical tools found on most farms include post and hand drills, wood lathes, no and sand saws, air compressors, battery chargers, paint sprayers and more recently, there former-type electric arc welders. There's money in repairing your own equipment and there's something else also—most boys are interested in the development of farm shops, a factor which should not be overlooked as a means of stimulating their interest in farming.

There is a man in our town And he was wiser than a wise man He saved his coal and saved his gas And did economize. AND WE URGE YOU TO ECONOMIZE THIS WINTER. We dislike finding ourselves givari you advice instead of gas. Perhaps we can explain! Your gas company was a war-time casualty, too. The demand for gas both from domestic and commercial users, rose to an all-time high. More people came to agree with what we've been preaching right along—that gas is safe, clean and one of the most economical of all fuels. Naturally, that made us pretty happy. But when it came to obtaining steel for pipe-lines, mains and other plant equipment, pushing and delivering gas, we were up against it. We learned that for the time being there wasn't enough steel to go around. Until we have all we need, we regret having to curtail new sales of gas for house heating.

"Landsakes, It's Past Seven!" GRANDMA RILEY wasn't fooling either. "Past seven" was bedtime when Grandma was a girl. She was tired and tomorrow would be another hard day. She'd be up at 5:30 and busy every minute. Bread had to be baked and the wood stove had started smoking again. Then there were kerosene lamps to be filled—wicks trimmed and chimneys polished. And the oblong copper tubs had to be filled with clothes and steaming soap... then hand-scrubbed and put through the wooden ringer. Beating and sunning the rugs was another job that just had to be done. It had been put off too long already. Today Grandma is living the life of Riley. She has electricity! THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

THE FIT IN KANSAS CITY... This picture shows commission merchants and brokers as they bid spiritedly for commodity grains on the Kansas City board of trade which Rep. Clarence Brown (Rep., Ohio) charged with receiving and handling "more orders from the District of Columbia than any other state." Grain pits came into limelight with congressional investigation into grain speculation by government officials who might take advantage of their inside information to profit in commodity trading.

Will Demonstrate Microwaves at Exchange Wednesday

W. J. Banks, Customer Relations Assistant for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, will demonstrate some of the phenomena of microwaves in a discussion of "Radar and Your Telephone" before the Northville Exchange Club at the Methodist Church, January 21, 1948. In "easy-to-understand" terms, Banks will describe the principle and operation of radar. He will use laboratory equipment to demonstrate some of the characteristics of the extremely short radio waves which make this revolutionary electronic development possible. He will also show how microwaves will be used by the Bell System to provide faster, better telephone service. Using a specially designed miniature microwave transmitter and receiver, Banks will illustrate the principle of the new microwave radio relay system whereby long distance telephone calls and television broadcasts will be beamed across the country by high frequency radio, instead of present day cables and wires. The flexibility of high frequency radio waves will be illustrated by directing these beams around corners and through obstructions. During the war, the Bell System was the largest single source of radar and electronic equipment. Some practical uses of these wonderful members of the electronics family will also be discussed.

"Hang your clothes on a hickory limb," said an indulgent mama to her daughter who sought permission to go in swimming. "But don't go near the water." This paradoxical reply, both agreeable and disagreeable, says a lot and still saying no, reminds us of an interesting situation now at the state capital. One year ago Kim Sigler, Michigan's fighting, crusading reform governor, took office. He had inherited a financial mess of no mean size. Voters had thumped approval of a constitutional amendment which deprived the state treasury of a big share of 44 percent of the previous year's total, which must be allocated to the public schools. A staggering inflation in prices had been utilized in a constant rise of sales tax receipts. Year after year the state financial experts were caught with unanticipated surpluses. Newspaper readers who skim the headlines and fail to get into the details had arrived at a conclusion that Lansing was literally rolling in wealth. They had a tolerant attitude toward government other federal officials. Being re-elected to a belief that it never would be so efficient as private business and hence would always contain a percentage of waste. Admonished by State Treasurer D. Hate Brule and others in his official capacity of the "truth at the consequences," Governor Sigler finally came out with an appeal to the state legislature to put a repeal ballot on the spring election. The legislators parried. The repeal move was delayed. Finally, in the closing days of the general session, legislators voted to put the repeal ballot to the voters at the November general election in 1948. So far, so good. At least, the logic of the state's financial plight was in a position of full consistency. The State of Michigan faced bankruptcy unless it was removed from the strait-jacket of a disastrous constitutional amendment, or unless it could discover a new and added source of taxation. The emphasis for 1948, an election year, was naturally upon the first. Let's repeal this obnoxious, impossible amendment. Let's revise the state constitution. Then came a new issue for 1948: Lack of responsibility in the power of the governor. The state executive was little less than a "glorified clerk." A remark was made about "the crummiest job in the country." Governor Sigler's new thesis was that Michigan was plagued by a multiplicity of invisible government—"boards, bureaus, agencies and commissions"—all of them beyond the control of the governor. "What would be do about it? Ask the legislature to abolish 'about a dozen' of these state bureaus." If the Michigan Education Association wanted to obtain new ammunition for its campaign to defeat repeal of the sales tax amendment, we can think of none better than this. The governor's new position, as we see it, confirms the suspicions of many voters that Lansing has too much money for its own good, that the State of Michigan could get along nicely with a lot less if someone would only streamline things and cut out inefficiency. The words "save familiar."

Babson Report

(Continued from Front Page) Watch Africa For ten years I have been urging readers to watch Russia. This was especially true directly following World War II when Russia was temporarily popular in this country. Now I say, "Watch Africa." Inside information indicates that the English industrialists are switching their energies and money from India and the Far East to Africa, which is richer and nearer home. I forecast that England and France will form an economic bloc for the development of Africa which — with the British Dominions — will again make the British Empire the world's greatest power. Therefore, I will end my "short" England will get out of India all that she has put in India with a great profit to boot. This also applies to certain other distant possessions which she gradually is relinquishing. India is cursed with an undecidable large population and an insupportable religion. Africa is richer in natural resources, has comparatively few

Mobile Telephone to Aid Consumers

Consumers' Power Company announced today that it is filing an application with the F. C. C. to establish the largest single private mobile telephone system in the world. The Michigan Bell Telephone Company, which would furnish the equipment for the system, has submitted a proposal, based on the power company's requirements, for 82 radio transmitting and receiving stations and 767 mobile units. D. F. Kern vice president and general manager of Consumers, said the company planned to install mobile telephone equipment in electric and gas construction trucks and service cars. This will speed up repairs in storms and other emergencies, he said. "It also will enable us to respond to all kinds of trouble calls with minimum delay." If authorized, the system will be built during a two-year period beginning next Spring. It will cover all of the power company's territory and will be operated over radio frequencies assigned by the F. C. C. The service will be provided for the exclusive use of the power company. Each vehicle will be equipped with a loud-speaker for verbal signaling from the land station and which it is operating, a telephone hand-set with which to carry on conversations a radio receiving unit, and a 30-watt transmitter.

Basketball

(Continued from Front Page) As the half time signal was sounded the Berkley five held the slight edge of 4-13 and retained their lead for the remainder of the game. Although following the half the Mustangs looked encouraging, at times they were unable to overcome the fast stepping opponent team. Scores at the end of the third and fourth quarters were 18-12 and 34-22. Tonight, Friday, Muirford comes to Northville to meet the Mustangs on their own floor. Game begins at 7 o'clock. Northville friends of the Harold Parkes family of Plymouth will be saddened to hear of the sudden death early Wednesday morning of Mrs. Parkes' funeral services have been arranged for Friday at 2:00 p. m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church at Livonia. A full obituary will appear in next week's Record.
