Exchange Is 25 Years Old

Next Wednesday the Northville Exchange Club will celebrate its 25th anniversary at the regular noon meeting.

Robert Brown, first president of the club, will be the speaker of the day. Mr. Brown is now district manager of the Detroit Edison at Ann Arbor, and a former resident of the Village. Charter members of the club will be especially invited to be present to renew acquaintances and participate in the program of the day. Reminiscence will play a prominent part in the functions of the day.

Carl Ely is compiling many pertinent facts bearing upon the history of the club and its past activities.

Eagles Plan Gold Rush Campaign

The Golden Anniversary year of the Fraternal Order of Eagles is being commemorated by the Northville Eagles by the launching of a Gold Rush campaign, it was announced by Lawrence Drake, Eagle president.

The campaign will spotlight the 50 year history of the organization which has a membership of approximately 1,400,000. An effort will be made to increase the strength of the Eagles "for continuance of its record in behalf of social legislation and human welfare," Drake said. A campaign slogan, "Hats Off to the Past, Coats Off to the Future" has been adopted.

Every member of the local Aerie is enlisted in the drive which will end June 1, 1948. The campaign will pay tribute to the achievements of the Eagles since their organization in Seattle, on February 6, 1898. The order was formed by only six men who dedicated themselves to making life better and happier.

The Gold Rush campaign is derived from the fact that about the time the Fraternal Order of Eagles was started the Yukon and Klondike gold seeking days were at their height. The order is determined to make its Gold Anniversary year the most outstanding in its history and add 350,000 new members for the current fiscal year.

A pot-luck dinner will be given at Veterans Memorial Hall in Northville, Thursday evening, May 13. All members and their wives or girl friends are invited.

Speaks On Labor Relations

Kirby L. Wilson, Jr., of River Rouge was the guest speaker at Exchange Club Wednesday. He brought a most sincere and thoughtful discussion of labor and management relations. He felt that legalist compulsion or mediation by government was not the solution of the problem. Rather another basis, embracing more of the human element of praise, appreciation and security could effect a more satisfactory agreement and be more lasting in its effect. Mr. Wilson conducted a question and answer period following his remarks.

Carl Johnson spent the past week-end in East Tawas visiting his mother, Mrs. Carl A. Johnson and helped her celebrate her birthday, Saturday, April 10th. While there he was a guest at a small party held Saturday evening in his mother's honor.

Baptist Minister Asked to Return

Other officers elected to fill vacancies were as follows: Wm. Stiles, Bruce McDaniel, Deacons; Clifford Turnbull, Trustee; Fred Prescott, Treasurer; Mrs. Frank Stanford, Clerk; Mrs. William Horsfall, Missionary Board; Locke Koonitz, Sunday School Superintendent.

Reports given by the various officers, boards and committees indicated substantial growth and progress in the church work for the past year.

The business session was preceded by a pot-luck supper held in the church basement.

Postmaster Warns of "Come On" Letters

Fred E. Van Atta, local postmaster, issues a warning to Northville citizens to be on the alert against what have been described as "come on" letters. This same fraud letter breaks out every once in a while and in the past month it has been very prevalent through this part of the country. The trend of the letters has been to ask for money to free the writer from a debtor's prison abroad.

Any person who receives a letter of this type is urged to send it to the post office inspector or give it to their local postmaster.

The Club will offer a Sun-Gold Trophy for the best in each variety group and for the best in match.

Fox Sportsman's Show at Ann Arbor This Week End

Most of the hard work has been taken out of camping, hunting and fishing! This is proved by what you will see at the Fox sportsman's show to be held this coming Saturday and Sunday at Ann Arbor. For example they have Shakespeare rods, feather-light, and made of glass. They show 1948 reels, that almost guarantee a trout, a bass or a bluegill. You probably saw these written about in Life magazine several weeks ago. They are the reels that even a rank amateur can use without getting lines snarled.

Bill Huser of Ann Arbor, a flying expert, will show fishermen how to "take the hair off a rabbit's ear," the skin off a turkey's neck, and a piece of thread, and fashion in a few seconds, a lure which is sure to get you a trout or a bass or something better. The description of the materials used may not be accurate, but the idea is correct.

Such are some of the attractions promised to all sportsmen at the second annual sportsman's show scheduled for Saturday and Sunday afternoon and evening by Alex L. Fox, of the tent and awning company bearing his name, and to be held at 624 S. Main Street, Ann Arbor.

Complete displays of equipment, camping gear, boats, canoes, wearing apparel and sporting goods will be shown. The show is open to the public without charge.

Genevieve, together with other MacArthur School teachers, was a special guest of the mayor of the town on the "Freedom Train" which she said was a most inspiring sight.

The meeting of the Nellie Yerkes Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church has been postponed from April 20 to April 27, at which time the ladies will have dinner and visit with the community.

"We would like to take the opportunity to say 'hello' to all our friends in and around Northville. Although we have been gone only five years, we have lost contact with all except a few close friends. We wish you could be here to enjoy our wonderful California weather. As you know we have experienced the worst drought in the history of the state during the past winter. We are on daylight saving time in order to conserve power due to the shortage of water power. However, late, although light rains have relieved drought conditions to a fair extent. We are hopeful that loss to livestock and crops may not be as great as has been anticipated. We have had some light rains during the past few days and are hopeful of more in the near future.

"We have been to Bakersfield several times lately to visit Mr. and Mrs. U. M. St. Johns, formerly of Northville. Other Northvillians hear us who see frequently are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Tewksbury, Jr., and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Ohis Tewksbury. The latter having spent the winter here in Pasadena.

We really enjoy getting the Record each week so we may keep abreast of what is happening in and around Northville. We don't want to miss one issue. We would like to offer our congratulations to Con Langford on his election as mayor of a fine little city.

I am still working for Pasadena City Lines. I've been with them about four and one-half years now.

We still have our rabbit business and have expanded to include a few guinea pigs.

We wish to extend our best wishes to you and all our friends back home."

Grade School Square Dancing

The Northville Grade School girls and boys will square dance on April 17th in the high school gym from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. George Weiss have given up their last five Saturdays to instructing this group and all the parents are urged to be present to watch these girls and boys go through the figures with calls. Don't forget that grade-school girls and boys square from 7 to 8:30 p.m. and Junior Senior High students and adults will square dance from 8:30 p.m. to 11:30 p.m.

Advanced Bridge

The Thursday evening advanced-bridge class has completed a three week bush up course under Mrs. Marie Rosshart of Detroit. For the next two weeks this group will meet and play bridge.

On April 30th they will join the Friday evening group for a series of three bridge lessons under Prof. Schorr.

Beginners

The beginners' bridge class which meets each Friday was very well attended through out the course. Instructors are Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz and Mrs. W. L. Howard. These folks invite everyone living in Northville and their friends to attend the next two lessons and take part in the three lessons being given by Prof. Albert Schorr starting Friday, April 23rd at 8 p.m. in the Scout Building on Dunlap Street. Doors open at 7:30 p.m. There is a charge of 10¢ and 2 decks of cards and four folks and enjoy a good evening of bridge.

Welding Class

The welding class, under Chl Winters and sponsored by the Northville Recreation Committee, is extending their course for six more weeks and are meeting each Tuesday at 7 p.m. in the shop at the Grade School Building.

Marbles

Due to the cool weather the start of the Marble tournament will be postponed until warmer weather. Bruce Felker has developed a sure hit shot and has several boys putting in hours of home practice to beat him. If weather permits the room play offs will be held the week of the 26th with the finals in May. Knuckle down, boys! Beat Plymouth!

The Youth Center Conference will be held at Walden Woods on May 6 and 7th and will be attended by Miss Tulane German and Jack Stovall representing the high school and Ward Masters, Mrs. George Stalker, Mrs. L. C. Stewart, C. E. Pierce, Wilson Funk and Alton Peters will represent the recreation committee.

MICHIGAN STATE BUILDING PROGRESSES

These seven structures comprise a sizeable portion of the $25,000,000 post-war building program under way at Michigan State College.

They are: No. 1, Landon Hall, girls dormitory; No. 2, the Physics Building; No. 3, a large wing to the Union building, center of student activities; No. 4, home management houses for use of home economics students; No. 5, electrical engineering building; No. 6, a large stadium, whose capacity will be more than 50,000 people; No. 7, new power plant.

Three of these structures, the dormitory, Union building addition and stadium, are among the numerous self-liquidating projects. These will be paid off through revenues realized from their operation and will cost the people of Michigan no tax money.

Even this big program will not meet the needs of a student body which grew from 3,272 in 1932 to 14,379 last fall. The college plant after completion of the current construction will be fully adequate for only about 7,000 students.

Traffic Mishaps at New Peak, But Death Toll Drops

Motor vehicle accidents on Michigan reached a new high in 1947, the injury toll was the second highest on record, travel mileage exceeded that of any previous year, but the death rate per 100 million miles of travel dropped to an all time low.

This information is revealed in the annual accident report released by Commissioner Donald S. Leonard of the Michigan State Police.

The report shows 17,510 traffic accidents during the year as compared with 110,531 in 1946, an increase of 27,088 or 25 per cent. There were 2,270 fatal accidents in which 1,434 persons met their deaths, 26,711 accidents which resulted in 38,195 injuries, and 109,635 property damage accidents. Compared with 1946 experience, there were 14 fewer deaths, or a reduction of two per cent, and an increase of 3,716 or 11 per cent, in injury accidents.

Estimated motor vehicle travel exceeded 17.6 billion miles in 1947, or 10 per cent more than in 1946, and the death rate of 6.11 per million miles of travel was 12 per cent below 1946.

More care in driving and walking and better control measures appear to be the most logical explanation for the reduced severity of accidents, the report states. Contributing to this was the important influence of the press and radio and other agencies in stressing safety. On the other hand, the increased mileage multiplied the chances for accidents and was partly responsible for the increase in personal injury and property damage mishaps.

Incorporated communities accounted for 35 per cent of all accidents, 63 per cent of the injuries and 37 per cent of the deaths. Rural areas accounted for 15 per cent of all accidents, 37 per cent of the injuries and 63 per cent of the deaths. Higher speeds were largely responsible for the increased severity of rural area accidents.

Pedestrian railroad train and ran-off-road accidents resulted in the highest ratio of deaths and injuries per accident. Passenger cars accounted for 77 per cent of the vehicles involved in fatal accidents, and trucks, buses, and taxicabs accounted for 20 per cent. In addition, 40 motorcycles and four school buses were involved in fatal accidents.

The counties, Cheboygan, Kalamazoo, Keeweenaw, Lake and Ogemaw, reported no traffic deaths for the year.

The report also points out that 52 per cent of the fatalities, although there is usually an overstatement of total daily travel during the hours.

Seven out of 10 drivers involved in fatal accidents were reported to be violating the law at the time. Driving too fast for conditions was by far the major cause. About one out of five, or 22 per cent, of these drivers had been drinking, and one out of 17, or six per cent, was under the influence.

There were 195 pedestrians killed in 1947, a reduction of eight per cent compared with 1946. Two out of three were violating the law or acting unsafely at the time. Children under 15 years of age accounted for 98, or one-fifth, of all pedestrian fatalities.

Vehicle defects were reported in 15 per cent of all fatal accidents.

"During the 10-year period of 1938 to 1947 there were 987,367 reported traffic accidents in Michigan," Leonard said. "These accidents resulted in 14,302 deaths and 301,098 injuries. The number of deaths was eight times greater than resulted from all types of murder and non-negligent homicide. Figured in earning capacity and other factors the loss is estimated in excess of $750,000,000. While we have made substantial gains in cutting the death rate in recent years, the entire accident record shows that the traffic toll will increase unless all forces intensify their efforts to keep it at a minimum."

Financial War Loss

Before the war, half the cost of Britain's imports was met by invisible exports, including income from overseas investments, shipping and insurance. During the war, Britain had to sell a major part of her overseas investments to a total value of $4,500,000,000 to help finance her war effort, and in addition acquired new indebtedness to a total of $11,500,000,000. Her shipping fleet never fully recovered from wartime sinkings.

Michigan Parents Solve Nursery School Problem
"How can we afford to put our little children in nursery school?" This question has been answered by parents in seven Michigan cities where cooperative school, a present a very promising, new movement.
Parent cooperative nursery schools are the answer to solving the problem of the parent. Margaret, instructor in the Michigan State college nursery school. Three of these schools are in Ann Arbor, two in Lansing, and one each in Ypsilanti, Willow Run, Mr. Pleasant Alligan, and Bloomfield Hills.
These parents realized that a good nursery school serves as a laboratory for children. There they can learn about things and people from other children, in a way that adults cannot duplicate. There they have equipment and materials to work with that homes may not have.
For such reasons these parents tried to find some way to furnish equipment by helping to make it, and the cost of instructors by working as teachers' assistants in the school. Very soon the parents discovered that they were profiting, too. They learned much about children from the teacher and from the children themselves.
Parent-cooperative nursery schools have demonstrated that their success depends largely upon a well-qualified teacher and the continuous interest and activity of the parents. It is not enough for parents to give money, they must help with the planning and work of the school. Real cooperation between the parents and the school are essential to its success. Fathers must do their share as well as mothers.

THE SCENE CHANGES:

Older residents will remember the scene brought to life for us by Charles A. Blair. "I remember," he said, "a sugaring off party of Mrs. Bliss' Sunday School class in early March of one year that was held in Thornton's Woods." "We watched the syrup boil down and those who couldn't resist would cool some of the thick syrup and pull it like taffy and eat the big thick sugar chunks." That was good eating and if you don't believe it you just ask Mrs. Charles Rogers (Gattie) she was there too. It is odd to think that not a single tree is standing in the place where that woods used to be. It would be just about where Nine Mile and Novi roads now intersect. Of course that was a long time ago.

Weddings Vows are Pledged In Three Home Weddings

PRIESTMAN-HILL

An evening candlelight service, Monday evening, united in marriage Rae Priestman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lionel D. Priestman of Horton Avenue and Clifton D. Hill, son of Mrs. Daly Hill of Chicago and the late Mr. Hill.

The wedding took place at the residence of the bridegroom at Hill-Cliff on Beck Road. The house was lighted only by candlelight and a bower arch was formed with evergreens and daffodils to make the setting for the ceremony. Silver candelabra were stationed behind the pastor to form a candle background for the arch. Only close friends and the immediate families of the couple were present. Reverend Percy Jones of St. John's Episcopal Church of Detroit, close friend of the bridegroom, performed the double-ring ceremony at eight o'clock. The formal Episcopal service was read, "Ave Maria" and Mendelssohn's wedding march were played before and during the ceremony.

The bride wore a tailored two-piece suit of olive green with a white flowered hat and turn back veil. Her corsage of carnations and white hyacinths was patterned to match the flowers of her hat.

Mrs. Joseph Callin of Franklin, Michigan attended the bride. She wore a pleated one-piece dress of honey-beige with a small straw hat, the flowers of which carried out the color theme of the dress. Her corsage consisted of pink and white carnations.

Michael Carey, lifetime friend of Mr. Hill, was best man. Mrs. Priestman, mother of the bride, wore a light green suit ensemble with gray accessories. Her corsage was fashioned of pink and white carnations.

A reception for about thirty people was held immediately following the ceremony at the Cottage Inn, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. A three-tiered wedding cake, completely covered with tiny white roses, formed the centerpiece of the wedding table together with a large bowl of white snapdragons and roses.

The couple later left for an extended wedding trip, stopping first at Chicago to visit Mr. Hill's mother and play for her the recorded version of the wedding which was taken on a wire recorde by Monte Ellis. Mrs. Hill has been ill and was unable to attend the wedding. After the Chicago visit the couple will honeymoon in the South and New Mexico.

The bride came to America from England in January, where she had studied law at Cambridge University and was doing graduate work in the London University. She was a member of the London Law Society.

The bridegroom is a well known lawyer of Detroit and Northville.

McTIGUE - WHITEFIELD

Saturday afternoon at 3:45 the home of Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Thomas was the scene of the wedding ceremony of their daughter, Erma Louise Whitefield to LeRoy William McTigue, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McTigue of Sunset Drive. Rev. H. F. Fredsell performed the double-ring ceremony which was attended by the immediate families and close friends.

The bride wore a gown of white taffeta and marquisette lace in princess style fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves and the full skirt extended into a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a crown of tiny seed pearls. Her arm bouquet was composed of red roses.

Mrs. Gertrude Young, an aunt of the bride, was the matron of honor. She wore a pastel green marquisette gown with matching headpiece and a corsage of yellow jonquills.

The bride's sister, Shirley Mae, and a cousin, Martha Lee, were bridesmaids. Shirley Mae wore a gown of yellow taffeta with matching headpiece and a corsage of pink roses. Martha was gown in rose taffeta with matching headpiece and her corsage consisted of white carnations.

Many guests attended the reception held later in the evening. Miss Madeline Sauer of Plymouth an accordionist furnished the music. The young couple left for a week's trip to Tennessee following which they will make their home in Northville.

FAMILY HONORED WITH TWO BIRTHDAY PARTIES

The Arnold Hix family enjoyed a day of surprises Saturday when separate birthday surprise parties were held for Mrs. Arnold Hix and her daughter, Patsy and both were really surprised. In the afternoon ten classmates and friends met at Patsy's home on Rayson St. from two until five to help celebrate her tenth birthday. They played games and enjoyed refreshments which were highlighted by a specially decorated birthday cake.

In the evening Mrs. C. Fleischman of Rayson St. and her daughter, Mrs. Sam Jones of Plymouth gave a surprise party for Mrs. Arnold Hix at which twenty-five guests from Northville, Plymouth and Detroit were present. Refreshments followed games, after which time, Mrs. Hix opened many lovely gifts.

YOUNG ADULTS HEAR REV. SHELDON RAHN

About 25 young people gathered at the home of Kay Stephens on Orchard Drive Sunday evening for a meeting of the Young Adult Community Group. Rev. Sheldon Rahn, who is associated with the Social Service Department in the Detroit Council of Churches, spoke about the work of his department and suggested several projects which the group might undertake. Refreshments brought the meeting to a close.

In place of the next regular meeting, which comes on April 23, the group is planning to drive to Pontiac to hear the Alma A. Capella Choir give their annual concert.

LARGE ATTENDANCE AT SPRING LUNCHEON

One hundred and eighteen ladies attended the joint Garden Club Spring Luncheon at the Mayflower hotel in Plymouth Monday afternoon. The Garden City Club was hostess to the clubs from Northville and Plymouth. Arrangements of roses, snapdragons and carnations centered each table.

Mrs. George F. Bouton was the guest speaker. Mrs. Bouton has charge of the Garden Center at Belle Isle and her main topic was the growing of perennials from the seed. She showed slides and also spoke on other flowers and plants.

BAPTIST LADIES TO BE INSTALLED

The Baptist Woman's Union will meet at the home of Mrs. Don Miller on First Street, on Thursday, April 22 at 12:30 for pot luck luncheon.

A business meeting will follow the luncheon at which time Rev. Walter Ballagh will install the recently elected officers. Ladies to be installed include Mrs. Phoebe Barry, president; Mrs. Jesse Mahaburg, vice president; Mrs. Roy Matheson, secretary; and Mrs. Harriett Angell, treasurer.

C. A. R. ELECTS OFFICERS

The C. A. R. (Children of the American Revolution) met Friday, April 9 at the home of Mary Lou Litsenberger on Dunlap St. Election of officers was held and the following young people were voted into office: Margaret Jean Willoughby, junior president; Cynthia Baker, vice president; Conrad Burkman, secretary; Nancy Mastick, treasurer; Mary Lou Litsenberger, registrar; Caroline Burkman, historian and press.

Refreshments brought the meeting to a close.

To promote peace and good will on earth

—From the Preamble to the Constitution of The American Legion

None desire peace more than those who have experienced War. Veterans of World Wars I and II joined in The American Legion are committed definitely to the support of a course that will permit our Nation to dwell in an honorably peaceful state.

War has come twice to us within the span of our generation. We should intelligently and as a group encourage every honest effort to promote international good will. Unfamiliarity, greed, hate, and envy are makers of armed strife, so part of our job is to combat those influences in national and international relations. One of the greatest forces for international peace is tolerant international understanding.

The Legion's peace efforts will always be built on a strong national defense program in all naval, military, and aviation departments. We have always supported laws empowering our national government to mobilize all necessary phases of industry in case of war. This must take the profit out of war and thereby promote peace.

Time and energy intelligently spent promoting peace and good will on earth will never be wasted.

DEMOCRACY IN ACTION

Democracy is more than a system of government. It is an attitude of mind—a technique of procedure—a way of life. It operates on the principles that voluntary action through group and individual initiative can solve social, community and even economic problems far more effectively than regimentation or governmental control. Here is a striking example of democracy at work.

A PROBLEM THAT CHALLENGED MICHIGAN CITIZENS—THE COST OF HOSPITAL AND SURGICAL CARE

Since hospital-surgical expense is often an unexpected emergency for which a family may be unprepared, the financial burden involved may be heavier than the average person can bear. Sometimes it can be ruinous to entire families. Often too, worry over paying hospital bills may retard or prevent a patient's recovery. This problem has been solved by Michigan's hospitals, Michigan's medical profession, and the public by voluntary democratic action and all round cooperation.

BLUE CROSS—A NON-PROFIT PUBLIC SERVICE

First, Michigan hospitals and its medical profession got together. They organized Blue Cross. Blue Cross is a non-profit plan of cooperation between hospitals, doctors of medicine, and the public to make good hospital and medical-surgical care available to every one without economic strain upon anyone. This is accomplished through the payment of a small monthly sum which entitles members of the plan and their families to needed hospital care or doctors' services without worry about the expense.

THE PUBLIC COOPERATED

The public quickly exercised their democratic right of voluntary choice. Today over 1,200,000 people of Michigan have solved the cost of hospital and surgical care by becoming members of Blue Cross. They are protected—their families are protected—again proving that no matter in what sphere it is applied, "DEMOCRACY WORKS!"
