

39th Anniversary
FEBRUARY 6 TO 12
BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

In every part of the nation more than 2,200,000 boys and their adult leaders, will observe Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6 to 12th, marking the 39th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America. The theme of the celebration is "Adventure—that's Scouting!" This year the movement is emphasizing the fun and fellowship its members get out of the game of Scouting. More high adventure is planned in the out-of-doors. Their adventure in citizenship will find Scouts emphasizing civic service activities, emergency service training and world Scouting relationships. During Boy Scout Week, Scouts, their parents and countless communities will honor the volunteer adult leaders of the nation's 70,000 Cub Packs, Scout Troops and Senior Units. Above is the official poster marking the Scout birthday.

Bell Rate Case Is Race Track Issue In Adjournment Makes Headlines

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company rate case is in adjournment pending the clarification of a legal point by the State Supreme Court.

At issue is the question as to the legality of the Michigan Public Service Commission proceeding with the case while the 1945 rate-reduction order is still in litigation.

Motion by the city of Detroit and the other utility companies to dismiss proceedings until the 1945 case, now before the Ingham Circuit Court on appeal, is settled were denied by the Commission. The Commission requested immediate appeals from its decision, however, on the part of Detroit and the state in order to clarify this matter once and for all time.

Chairman Stuart B. White pointed out that the Supreme Court twice had rejected Detroit's contention that hearings could not proceed while litigation was pending but had not accompanied its rulings with any comment. The Commission itself rejected Detroit's claim last year.

Increases requested by the company range from 50 cents to $1 a month for residence and from $1 to $1.50 for business service, together with increases in long distance rates. Increases would average 27 cents a day for residence users.

Michigan Bell has cited its expenses have gone up 237 per cent since 1933 while revenues are up only 180 per cent. The proposed increase, together with those authorized by the Commission last October, would raise the company's revenues 25 per cent. The October increase was the first to the company in 22 years.

Dondero Discusses Taft-Hartley Law

A movement is on foot by the Democrats in Congress to push the repeal of the Taft-Hartley Labor Act through Congress without hearings. Such a procedure is anything but an orderly way in which to pass vitally important measures and does not protect the rights and interests of the people. Conditions change materially over even a few months, hence it is important that hearings on any proposed law should be held to bring out any and all phases of the subject in order that injustices will be avoided as far as possible for all concerned. If such a procedure is followed or attempted, the Ranking Minority Members of the Senate, Senator Taft, has given notice that he will offer the whole of the Taft-Hartley Act, section by section, in the form of amendments both in Committee and on the floor of the Senate, and thus forcing a discussion and vote separately on each provision of the law. Under prevailing rules, amendments can be barred on the House floor but not on the floor of the Senate when the bill is before the Senate for action.

Guerrin Yerkes and Marjorie McKeague have accepted positions with the National Airlines, and will work as stewards.

J. Weston Wins Bowling Trophy

Jimmy Weston, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Weston, is proudly displaying a new radio with a bowling trophy attached to the top, which he received last Saturday for his participation in the ninth annual Free Press Captain Sponsor Tournament at the Detroit Recreation Alleys. He was given the award for being the youngest active captain bowler present.

A plaque attached to the top of the radio was inscribed with the following words: "Radio Station WXYZ—A Special Award for 1949 in the 9th Annual Detroit Free Press Captain Sponsor Tournament."

Jimmy, captain of the Snack Bar Team of the Hot and Tasty Keglers League won an individual triumph when he crossed alleys with his father and his team won a special match by 43 pins. He was bowling with Joe Alessi, owner of the Royal Recreation Alleys, which sponsors the "Tom Jimmy" bowled a 390 series and with the aid of his partner the score was boosted to 823.

Mr. Weston, captain of the Home Bakery team, and Elmer Liverson bowled a 840 series.

Freddy Wolf made the presentation to Jimmy Saturday night at the banquet held at the Masonic temple and when asked how he felt about the whole thing Jimmy replied that he was "scared." That part of the program was televised and when Jimmy was called upon for a few words he could think of nothing to say.

Mr. Alessi says he is looking forward to entering the tournament next year and getting bigger and better scores.

As for Mr. Weston, he is looking forward to winning a trophy and wants to arrange a match between the two teams soon.

Mrs. Slater Explains Hospitalization Cost

Mrs. Irene Slater of Sessions Hospital this week explained the high cost of hospitalization as due to the following factors: increased cost in food, linen, equipment, drugs, and wages for nurses and other hospital personnel.

Mrs. Slater said that there is a tremendous jump in the cost of food, linen, equipment and other hospital supplies. Added to this are many new and costly drugs which are being used to benefit the patients. They cost as much as $20.00 to $25.00 per day and with nursing care around the clock it is not difficult to understand why hospitalization is often costly.

There is a bright side to the hospitalization picture, Mrs. Slater states, and that is due to the fact that these new drugs often cure a patient in a few days whereas, before its discovery, a patient was hospitalized for a month or more.

Mrs. Slater advises all persons to be checked up periodically by their physician to insure their physical fitness.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casady of San Diego, California announce the birth of a son, Warren Arthur. The baby was born January 28 and weighed eight pounds and fourteen ounces. Mrs. Casady is the former Marilyn Cavell of Griswold Road.

March of Dimes Drive Successful

Nelson Schrader, chairman of the local March of Dimes drive, reports that from all indications the local drive for funds to aid polio stricken persons is a success. While the total report is not complete, Mr. Schrader feels that the drive has been worthwhile.

Many Village churches and clubs also donated to the point fund as well as scores of personal donations. To Present Recital at School

PIERO PIEROTIC

Concert Artist To Appear Here

Piero Pierotic, High School will attend a recital given by Piero Pierotic, baritone of the Vienna State Opera, during an assembly program next Thursday, February 10.

Mr. Pierotic has arranged a special recital for pupils which is an artistic masterpiece. He recognized that the average agency does not enjoy a recital devoted entirely to the usual austere concert program.

In this concert the first group is devoted to youthful songs in French all well known to his audience. He is not averse to including a No. 1 from the Hot Pants and the crowd group a short one and then singing the folk songs of his Dalmatian homeland. Then, while his accompanist introduces an interesting piano number, Piero Pierotic does a quick change of stage into the Rigolotti costume seen in the Vienna Opera Stage. After his accompanist comically imitates the story of the opera, Rigolotto Mr. Pierotic sings and acts a dramatic scene from the opera. This brings the concert to a close.

Notice to Advertisers and Record Readers

Due to the many requests received from our advertisers, the Northville Record has found it expedient to change its date of publication from Friday to Thursday, beginning with the issue of February 17. The change was brought about by the fact that Friday is just as big a shopping day for local merchants as Saturday is, and with an earlier publication day, the local advertisements will be more effective for the businessmen.

In making this date of publication change, the Record no doubt will run across some obstacles, but we are asking our readers to bear with us. It will mean that both the news and ad copy will have to reach our desk one day earlier each week. But we know that both the merchants and townspeople will cooperate with us so that the Record will reach its readers on Thursday instead of Friday.

Observe Boy Scout Week Feb. 6-12

The 2,200,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America will mark the 39th anniversary of the organization during Boy Scout Week which opens Sunday, Feb. 6, and ends Feb. 12.

The anniversary will be observed in every city and town and most villages and hamlets throughout the nation and in territories. It is the year of "Adventure—that's Scouting!" and the spirit of the celebration will be related to the theme.

During the week many door windows will be given over to the Boy Scouts for displays of their handiwork and to demonstrate some of the useful skills they acquire at their meetings and in Scout camp. New members will be inducted through invitational ceremonies.

BOY SCOUT SUNDAY

Next Sunday is Boy Scout Sunday. It will be marked in countless churches of all denominations. Scouts and leaders will attend religious services in uniform. Those of Jewish faith will hold their observances in synagogues and temples on Friday evening, Feb. 11 and Saturday, Feb. 12.

Many sermons addressed to the Scouts will touch on some aspect of the Boy Scout Week theme.

The programs of Scouting, leaders in the organization say, prepare Scouts to face the future, helping to build a new world with constructive not destructive as the goal. Scouting in the 42 nations recognized by the Boy Scout International Bureau has an enrollment of 4,498,780 Scouts and leaders.

They are striving, Scout leaders say, for a future of peaceful living where every man is a brother to every other man, regardless of his race, creed or color.

The World Friendship Fund of voluntary contributions from Scouts and leaders totaled $135,000 in a little more than three years. Through it, Scouting in 48 lands received assistance in rebuilding their organizations following the war's disruption.

"Adventure—that's Scouting!" the theme of Boy Scout Week this year is a reality for hundreds of thousands of Boy Scouts. They enjoy thrilling experiences in the 701 long-term camps maintained by Local Scout Councils and an even greater number of short-term camps for outings of one to three days. Camp property owned or leased by the Boy Scouts of America comes to more than 250,000 acres with a value of over ten million.

"Adventure - That's Scouting"

"Boys will be boys," they say. But we're sure you'll agree they'll be better, friendlier, happier boys if they're in the ranks of the Boy Scouts of America. For 89 years, the Boy Scouts have made an increasing contribution to a better America through a well-planned, up-to-date program to meet boys' interests. It's a program of adventure that appeals to every boy, when he knows about it. And there's the rub. Many a boy of 12 or over still needs to be informed of the exciting activities of Scouting. Many a parent needs to discover the values of Scouting for his boy. Many an adult needs to find out the enjoyment to be derived from helping boys find themselves through Scouting. Many a civic institution should look into the merits and advantages of sponsoring a Troop of Boy Scouts.

For these reasons we're taking the opportunity - during Boy Scout Week - to fulfill our obligation as an information-medium, by reminding you of your responsibility to the boys of America - the Men of Tomorrow!

More government employees; more government payrolls and more government taxes "for everyone are just beyond the horizon."

This prediction appears to be a safe bet for 1949.

There is only one possible "if." Congress must adopt the comprehensive social insurance program, proposed by President Truman. Many Washington observers agree that such is likely to happen. The popular mandate on Nov. 2 is cited to show which way public opinion is going.

Consider a Michigan worker who gets $3,000 income. Today his payroll deductions for social security—old age insurance—take 1 per cent or $30 a year. The "bite" on the regular paycheck is small.

Beginning July 1, 1949, if Congress approves expanded social security, for everyone, his paycheck deduction will more than double, from $30 to $67.50, an increase of $37.50. If the employee earns $4,800 or more, his payroll taxes would total $108. The employer would pay a like amount, $67.50 or $108 depending on the employee's wage.

If the worker is hired by a firm that has less than eight employees, the employer would be called upon for four successive years to contribute $157.50 for an employee earning $3,000 a year, of $232 for the employee earning $4,800 a year. Thereafter the unemployment compensation rate could decline to a minimum of 1 per cent, making a total minimum contribution of $97.50 by the employer.

These taxes are accounted for by the following proposed social security benefits:

Old-age insurance, now financed by a 1 per cent tax on both the employee and employer, would rise to 1.5 per cent on July 1, 1949. This tax would apply to individual income up to $3,000 in the case of an individual. Coverage would be broadened to include families, farm workers, doctors, small business men and even household help.

Unemployment compensation would be broadened to cover employees of firms having less than eight persons. The maximum wage, to be taxed, would be $4,800 instead of $3,000, as at present. The employer's payroll tax would be 3 per cent for four successive years, thereafter, 1 per cent minimum and 4 per cent maximum.

Disability (sickness) insurance would be financed by .95 per cent tax on employee and employer alike on the first $4,600 of income. This tax would increase as the program grew.

Health insurance would begin modestly with a .025 per cent tax on employee and employer on the first $4,600 of income. Later on this tax would go up gradually.

It all adds up to this. The combined payroll tax, levied by the federal government with credits available to the state governments which are to administer the benefits, would be 4.5 per cent of payroll income up to $4,800 as compared with the present 2 per cent combined tax on incomes up to $3,000.

The $4,800 income worker who now pays $30 a year would pay $108, an increase of $78 a year. Eventually the social security tax would rise to 7 1/2 to 10 per cent on the employee and also the employer. A vast army of government employees would be needed to administer the details of such a broad program affecting practically every man, woman and child in the Nation.

The 1949 payroll tax increase adds up to $2,000,000,000. This contribution would be in addition, of course, to higher federal taxes which are now forecast at $4,000,000,000 and higher taxes by the State of Michigan, also freely forecast as inevitable.

The above factual appraisal of our growing state socialism, whereby bigger and better benefits are to be made available to the American people, affords the readers of this column an inside look at the additional taxes they will be called upon to pay from their income. The State of Michigan will get increased "federal aid" for many social programs. This aid will come out of the earnings of workers and the earnings of business. The net result is more government and more inflation.

This is a diesel ... a modern locomotive that means better service to you.
Leaders of two unions think it's a feather-bed ... a "make work" grab that means less service to you.

Leaders of unions representing railroad engineers and firemen seek to force railroads to add extra, needless men on diesel locomotives. This is sheer waste—a "make-work" program which would mean fewer improvements and higher costs—for YOU!

Railroads use modern diesel locomotives because they are one of the means of giving faster, better service to you.

Two men compose the crew of a diesel. They occupy a clean, comfortable cab at the front. The engineer handles the throttle. The fireman sits and watches the track ahead. With no coal to shovel, he has practically nothing else to do.

No Benefit To You

Now the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen want to use the diesel locomotive as a means of forcing a feather-bedding scheme on the railroads. The extra men they propose to add to the diesel crews are not needed. There is no work for them.

The union leaders are fighting among themselves about which union should furnish these extra, needless men. The Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers have even threatened a strike. You may not be interested in this dispute of these two unions, but you would be vitally concerned if these groups succeed in putting through this feather-bedding scheme, because it would mean a swelling up of the improvement program of the railroads—of which the diesel is the outstanding symbol. Diesel crews are among the highest paid railroad employees—real aristocrats of labor! Their pay is high by any standard. Granting of these demands, therefore, would mean that the railroads would be paying out millions in unearned wages to these in the very highest pay brackets.

We'd Like To Spend This Money On You

You know how much the diesel has meant to you in increased speed, comfort and convenience. The railroads have many more of them on order for even greater improvement in service to you. But needless drains of money, such as this present demand of the unions for needless men on diesels reduce the ability of the railroads to spend money on better service for you.

Proud as the railroads are of the diesel, it is only a small part of their improvement program. Since the War, literally billions of dollars have been spent on improvement of tracks and stations, on new passenger and freight cars, as well as on diesel locomotives, and on the many other less conspicuous details of railroading that contribute to improved service.

Feather-Bedding Means Less Service To You

But brazen feather-bedding schemes like the one now proposed would, if successful, divert large sums of money from our present improvement programs. Even worse, they make improvements like the diesel worthless, by making the cost of their operation prohibitive. These demands are against YOUR interests—as well as those of the railroads. They are schemes to "make work." Neither you nor the railroads should be forced to pay such a penalty for progress.

That's why the railroads are resisting these "make work" demands to the last ditch—and why they are telling you about them.

Farmington Church Scene Of Schoultz-Schroeder Rites

Marjorie Schroeder, of Farmington and Harold Schoultz of Northville were united in marriage Friday night, January 28 at the Farmington Methodist Church. Rev. E. Stanley Stone performed the single ring service at 8:00 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Harley Schroeder and the late Mr. Schroeder and Harold is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoultz of Base Line Road.

The church was decorated with bouquets of white snapdragons, palms and candles. Leonella Wilcox sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "Grieg's 'I Love You'."

Given in marriage by her uncle, Leonard Coyne, the bride wore a gown of candle light satin styled with a yoke of illusion, long sleeves and a full skirt extending into a train. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mary Padden of Oak Park was the maid of honor and Dorothy Hendryx of Farmington was the bridesmaid. Both attendants wore gowns of forest green taffeta and carried bouquets of white roses.

Marvin Schoultz of Canton, Ohio was the best man and Bob Bliss of Birmingham and Norman Papsdorf of Clinton seated the guests.

A reception followed the ceremony in the church house. June Esch and Dorothy Hatch cut and served the wedding cake.

For going away the bride chose

The bridegroom graduated from Northville High School and is now a senior at Albion College where he is affiliated with Delta Sigma Phi Fraternity. During the war he served with the armed forces for three and one-half years.

Good Feed, Care Mean Long-Wearing Alfalfa

Well-Nourished Plants Resist Winter Killing

A deep, long-wearing carpet of alfalfa on rolling fields is a matter of timing, keeping the soil's dinner pail well filled with phosphate and potash and following pasture management methods that prevent premature "baldness."

Alfalfa will have a long life if it is well fed and cared for. When the plants are well nourished they are harder and better able to resist diseases and winter killing. They will anchor their roots firmer and establish healthier, thicker growth above ground.

Like other deep-rooted legumes, alfalfa takes large helpings of phosphate and potash-out of the soil. Agronomists recommend that heavy amounts of fertilizer carrying these nutrients be applied at the time of seeding.

The life of alfalfa can be prolonged and yields increased by top-dressing with phosphate or potash in the spring or fall. Tests at state agricultural experiment stations have shown that applications of 500 to 600 pounds or more per acre have been beneficial.

Good pasture management means going easy on grazing until stands are well established. It is wise to follow a rotation plan so cows will move from one field to another, before the pasture is grazed down to the ground. By this system the pasture will have a chance to renew itself, while cows are on other fields.

What you feed your livestock today will determine the profit you make tomorrow, for experts are agreed that keeping livestock healthy is a profitable job—and to do that, care must be observed in choosing livestock feed.

Feeding livestock on a ration deficient in minerals, vitamins, proteins and carbohydrates, as well as fats, often leads to nutritional diseases. Lack of any of the common or trace minerals in home grown feeds may be and often is, responsible for terrific livestock feed, labor and investment losses.

The problem of supplying minerals in their right proportions is only a part of the compounding of a product that will solve the livestock man's problems. First, no matter how good the ingredients that go into the making up of a feed, if livestock refuse to eat it the feed is useless so far as benefiting the animal is concerned.

In recent years much has been discovered about livestock diseases due to dietary influences. In this connection, the U. S. department of agriculture says: "Wherever a vital function is interrupted owing to continued failure of the diet to supply sufficient quantities of essential nutrients, or to the inability of the body to utilize these nutrients, the so-called nutritional diseases develop."

It is not unusual to find horses infected with cattle grubs.

Farming Is Dangerous In Terms of Accidents

Farming is dangerous. Of the eight major occupational groups in the country, farming is fourth in terms of the frequency of fatal accidents.

According to a report released by safety engineers of the Lumbermen's Mutual Casualty company of Chicago, 52 farm workers per 100,000 were killed accidentally last year.

Only more dangerous were mining, construction work and transportation. Safer groups were wholesale and retail trades, manufacturing, service industries and public utilities.

Early Egg-Laying Cited As Not Good for Hens

Healthy pullets can be fed to induce the starting of egg-laying during the fourth month, but experienced poultrymen usually avoid this early production on the theory that such pullets do not make as large or rugged hens.

Egg size continues to be small for a longer period where pullets are encouraged to lay early, thus reducing long-range profits through premature development.

It is not unusual to find horses infected with cattle grubs.

Wolf Chases Girl Again On The 1949 Valentines

Every Man A Casanova, Valentines Warn Fair Sex

Hold your hats, gals! You're in for a whirlwind courtship Cave Man style, come St. Valentine's Day.

The 1949 Valentines "pop" that vital question "in typically masculine and light-hearted fashion. One pictures a youngster grandly, a gigantic lipstick as he commands—

Hey, you!
Put this ON and—
Lemme TASTE IT!

But don't fret, gals—even if Leap Year is over. You can still give hesitating boy-friends a romantic nudge. Try sending this clever hint "To A Heart-breaker."

"I'll be your Little Red Riding Hood."

"If you'll be MY WOLF!"

Yes, Cupid reserves his tenderest verses, of course, for lovers in a bear-and-flowers mood. This year he's offering the widest choice ever of traditional Valen-time creations luxurious with pastel ribbons, filmy lace, and headdresses of gleaming satin.

Hundreds of special Valentine designs also are available to express your good wishes to husband or wife, parents, "The Mother of My Sweetheart," teachers and schoolchums, and "Just good friends."

From all indications, "Dan Cupid" will be as busy on Valentine's Day this year as Santa was on Christmas Eve.

The greeting card publishers predict that 200,000,000 Valentines will send hearts pit-a-pat all over the U.S. on February 14, the year's most sentimental occasion.

The field should first be worked in the direction of plowing using as many sections side by side as the tractor can pull with weight adjusted. The final finish is obtained by pulling the soil surgeon across the line of furrows. The soil surgeon should also be used as a crust breaker for all oncoming crops to mulch and kill small weeds.

'Soil Surgeon' Says Seedbed-Making Boon

Performs Multiple Work. Cuts Time in Half

A new, efficient device for producing finer, smoother seedbeds is the "soil surgeon" now on the market.

Designed for use in a plowed field only, the device does the combined work of a double-disc, spiked-toothed harrow and a float—and is said to give you a finer, smoother seedbed in half the time.

The exclusive use of the soil surgeon after plowing as a hot turn up dormant weed seeds or plowed under vegetation thus giving a cleaner growing crop and richer soil. It levels the ground, fills all air pockets and seals the moisture.

Sturdy and simple, the soil surgeon consists of two heavy steel pans with raised sides, to permit loading with dirt for added weight. These may be used singly or bolted together, depending on the desired width to be covered.

To the bottom of each pan are bolted 20 double-edged cultivator knives, each provided with a bearing to permit it to follow easily and automatically the tractor's line of travel. These heavy-duty knives slice the four and one-half inches of soil into one-inch strips, while the action of the pan pulverizes, smooths and levels the sliced soil.

'49 Pontiac Revealed in Showing Saturday

The long awaited, much speculated upon 1949 Pontiacs were revealed publicly last week-end as two completely new and strikingly beautiful lines of motorcars.

Harry J. Klingler, general manager of Pontiac Motor Division and vice president of General Motors, described the new Pontiacs as "The finest motorcars we have ever produced."

Pontiac offers the public two "New Looks" for 1949. The Chief-tain series is an entirely new concept of functional beauty distinguished by its ultra-styled series is an extremely advanced rear pattern. The Streamliner rendering of the flowing design factors popularized by Pontiac.

Both Chieftain and Streamliner series use a 120 inch wheel-base. The Torpedo line has been discontinued, Mr. Klingler said.

Approach pattern of both Chieftain and Streamliner from gleaming Indian head hood ornament to massive, wrap-around bumper is a design triumph of suave yet rugged elegance accentuated by Pontiac's traditional Silver Streak, stylized for 1949 but still serving to make Pontiac the world's best identified motorcar.

Pacific Island Farm

"Pigs is pigs," no matter where you find them—even on the Pacific Island of Guam in the Marianas. On farms established by the U. S. naval government on Guam, American sailors instruct natives in modern agricultural methods. Produce from the farms is used for naval personnel (who are fond of food anyway) and for the rehabilitation of the natives. In the photo an American seaman is driving some of the pigs to feed in the soil, thereby making for quicker germination and a higher yield.

Hospital Fund Gets Boost from Kresges

A $1,500,000 subscription to the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund, described by Fund leaders as one of the largest single gifts ever made for hospital construction in Detroit, has been pledged by the Kresge Foundation.

The contribution to the $19,720,000 Hospital Fund was approved this week by the Foundation's board of trustees and was announced last week by Cleveland Thurber, chairman of the Fund's foundations committee.

At the same time, a statement supporting the aims of the hospital building program was made by Sebastian S. Kresge, founder of the S. S. Kresge Company chain of retail stores who established the Kresge Foundation in 1924.

"Many factors," he said "were considered by the trustees of the Kresge Foundation in determining the Foundation's participation in the program of the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund.

"We are genuinely concerned about the hospital problems of Greater Detroit. The overcrowded conditions of our hospitals, the need for modernizing and re-equipping outdated structures and the inadequate hospital facilities available to serve certain newly developed and rapidly growing neighborhoods are all possible sources of a serious decline in the health standards of our city."

The Boy Scouts of America is organized not only in the United States, but in Alaska, Hawaii, Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Guam. Troops or Packs are also found in foreign countries where there are American boys.

HIGHLIGHTS OF MSC FARMERS' WEEK

Farmers' Week at Michigan State college showed to more than 35,000 rural Michigan people this year. Exhibits, educational meetings and crowning of champions featured the mid-winter, agricultural event held on the East Lansing campus. (1) Youth had its part with exhibits in grain, beans, potatoes and eggs. Here Clara Pink, Huron, shows her grand champion entry of beans to Gerald Ellenbaum, Owensdale. (2) Kenneth Trapp, Beulah, was crowned Michigan's onion king for raising 1,247 bushels an acre on his Benzle county muck farm. He shows a sack of his prize winning crop to Gov. G. Mennen Williams, Michigan's governor, who was a Farmers' Week visitor and speaker. (3) Smiling Ernest Hamel is a champion in two ways. His entry of Green Mountain seed potatoes won top honors in the certified seed contest and he's from Champion, in Marquette county of the state's upper peninsula. (4) "Phyl," the black Angus steer weighing 1,026 pounds, was judged grand champion in the steer show and was bought by Fred Fuszek, Ionia, for 60 cents a pound at auction. He also bought the grand champion swine. The steer was shown by Ray Smith, herdsman for the Raona Farms, Williamston, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Wadley. (5) One of the many outstanding exhibits which drew visitors was that on irrigation equipment in the new Agricultural Engineering building. Joseph McNally and Harold Friebe, farm neighbors from Kawkawlin, Bay county, watch a pump in operation. (6) Breeders of champion swine visit as preparations are made for the auction. A. L. Barnhart (center) and son Martin (left), Reading, had the grand championship pen of three barrows. They talk it over with Clarence Blossay, Williamston, whose Duroc was judged best individual barrow in the show. Blossay's 211-pound purker brought 70 cents a pound when sold at auction.

Be Honest With Yourself - - -

★ Did you ever stop to think that you sometimes bring things upon yourself. The cost of living has zoomed in the past year and the outlook isn't too bright for the future. It's up to you to control it. . . . No we may not be able to control the price of food in Minneapolis nor the price of clothing in New York, but we can help control it a lot right here at home.

★ It's true that a business man, in advertising his wares, must first consider the selling price. The price can't be too far out of line for if it is, it won't sell. Therefore it is necessary for him to offer merchandise at reasonable prices.

★ If by chance, you trade with a firm who doesn't advertise its merchandise, you can quickly tell how much you have helped the cost of living soar upward by comparing the prices you pay against the prices as advertised by a like firm in the columns of the Northville Record.

★ No kidding folks, compare the prices, you'll be amazed at what you could save!

Trade With Those Who Advertise . . .
... They Keep Prices Down!

D. Hale Brake Crusades For Party Responsibility

Michigan's secret primary is under fire.

According to D. Hale Brake, the primary, it has taken down party responsibility. It has made it impossible for voters to know who they are voting for. It has made it impossible for voters to know who they are voting for. It has made it impossible for voters to know who they are voting for.

Mr. Brake does not over-look the abandonment of the primary and return to the party convention system as its substitute. He never got along with Frank McKay when McKay was party boss. Brake does favor a pre-primary convention at which party delegates would be given the opportunity to select nominees. These nominees, together with any others who filed with petitions would be subject to the voters' approval or disapproval at the regular party primary.

While Mr. Brake has not alluded to recent party leaders in his campaign to abolish the secret primary, it is obvious that he has in mind former Governor Kim Sigler. Sigler was elected county prosecutor on a Democratic county ticket. He was not the choice of party leaders. Rebuffed by a circuit court judge who was presiding as a one-man grand jury, Sigler tossed his hat into the Republican primary. He was swept into nomination and election on a popular protest wave against so-called corruption and graft at Lansing. A figure of glamour himself, Sigler became the knight on the white horse, the reformer battling lobbyist and other arch enemies of good government. His pearl-gray crash-shooting coat, cowboy hat, and oratorical voice made a flashy combination. It was just like Hollywood.

Governor G. Mennen Williams comes from a family said to be generally Republican. He has been at odds with the Democratic state chairman. He ran his own campaign, financed his own funds, and otherwise operated outside of the party organization.

It is Treasurer Brake's belief that the secret primary, without party restraint or responsibility, invites the nomination of a man who excels in glamour, sex appeal or other charms that strike the voters' fancy at the moment.

Does Mr. Brake's conviction suggest a personal ambition that is now frustrated or at least handicapped? Lansing observers who have watched the steady progress of the state treasurer agree that what he lacks in glamour, personality, charm or call-it-what-you-may, he only makes up in plain old-fashioned common sense.

Here is a man who operates a successful firm in Northville, only near State St. He is not all about money and a car. He is a man who gives to the community and who looks to the future. He is a man who is not afraid to speak his mind. He is a man who is not afraid to speak his mind.

Mr. Brake does not over-look the abandonment of the primary and return to the party convention system as its substitute. He never got along with Frank McKay when McKay was party boss. Brake does favor a pre-primary convention at which party delegates would be given the opportunity to select nominees. These nominees, together with any others who filed with petitions would be subject to the voters' approval or disapproval at the regular party primary.

These nominees, together with any others who filed with petitions would be subject to the voters' approval or disapproval at the regular party primary.

Oakley L. Dixon, Detroit election supervisor, said the secret primary was introduced 14 years ago by a Republican legislature in order to protect Republican office-holders in a New Deal administration. Later the legislature required separate ballots for presidential and state tickets on the belief that this separation would prevent Democratic state leaders from riding to election on the coat-tails of FDR. What happened last November? The dual ballot plan backfired. Voters favored Gov. Thomas E. Dewey for president, but switched over by hundreds of thousands to mark a cross in front of the name of Democrat G. Mennen Williams for governor.

The present reaction against the secret primary is also one aftermath of the defeat of Kim Sigler last November. People who voted "against" Sigler by voting "for" Williams are now inclined to condemn "glamour"—the handsome face on the billboard, the oratorical voice on the radio, the happy personality on the platform.

Would a pre-primary convention serve as a check against these?

You're going to hear more in 1949 of D. Hale Brake's crusade for party responsibility.

The annual Awards Banquet honoring the men of the Ford Motor Company who had completed 35 years of service with the company was held recently at the Dearborn Country Club. Among the men who received service pins was Anthony Bender of Northville.

Dondero...

No one has advanced any good reason why the law should be repealed. The laboring men of America have benefited by this legislation. They have worked more days with less trouble in the year after the law was passed than they did in the year before its passage.

Dondero's Committee

Assignments
Congressman George A. Dondero occupies first place on the Minority side of the Committee on Public Works and in that position wields great influence in the framing of bills which will be reported from this important committee to the House of Representatives for action. Michigan's Republican Members of the House

Congressman Dondero will be an active member of the Subcommittee on Rivers & Harbors and the Subcommittee on Flood Control. Before the latter will come questions of public power. Michigan is vitally interested in river and harbor projects because of its long shore line, the longest of any State in the Union (1700 miles), and its transportation of iron ore and manufactured goods.

Lincoln Day Dinner

George A. Dondero has been chosen Chairman for the Lincoln Day Dinner to be held at the Mayflower Hotel, Washington, D. C., on February 8th. He is recognized as the Lincoln scholar of the United States Congress. This occasion is of nation-wide interest and is sponsored by the committee to the House of Representatives for action. Michigan's Republican Members of the House and Senate and the League of Republican Women of the District of Columbia; usual attendance, 1000 people.

Dondero, speaking of Abraham Lincoln, the 16th President, said: "He belongs not to America alone but to the world; for he is one of the great men of history. From a primitive dwelling, buried deep in the wilderness, came a spirit which enlightened the world."

Congressman Dondero will attend the Lincoln Banquets in Detroit and Pontiac on February 10 and 11th.

Agricultural Yearbooks

Congressman George A. Dondero announces that he has a limited supply of the following Agricultural Yearbooks available for the farmers of the 17th Congressional District of Michigan. Issue of 1941, "CLIMATE AND MEN", and 1942, "KEEPING LIVESTOCK HEALTHY". Copies will be sent as long as the books last.

This town-tailored suit, with its white pique lapels and bone buttons all in a row scored a ball's eye in Cosmopolitan magazine's Male-Fashioners jurors. Mickey Rooney, Jean Sablon, Steve Haunagan and Peter Lind Hayes agreed that they liked the "expensive look" of its "restrained" silhouette. Of Pacific Mills' Verdona crepe, with slim, eight gore skirt, the suit is tailored by Handmacher and is available in navy, black, grey, spring green or five other colors at about $65.
