

THEIR FUTURE SAFEGUARDED—Among the 1,250 boys and girls whose future health and education are under the sponsorship of the Fraternal Order of Eagles are Margaret Anne, 7, and Catherine, just turned 6, daughters of Pfc. William J. Starkey, of Rochester, Minn., member of the Eagles who died in Germany as a prisoner of war in 1945. The Memorial Foundation of the Eagles, whose chairman is Judge G. A. Farabaugh (inset), of South Bend, Ind., is now campaigning to increase the $3,000,000 now on hand to safeguard the future welfare and opportunities for the sons and daughters of 3,123 members who died in World War II. To provide the necessary needed money for the increased demands on the Foundation, the 1,500,000 Eagles are now purchasing, in large numbers, the special commemorative poster seal illustrated above, to perpetuate a "living memorial" to the dead American heroes.

Present Temporary Housing Not Adequate for School

Editors Note: (This is the fourth article in a series dealing with the problem of sufficient classroom space for the children in the Grade school. Next week's article will discuss the cost of the proposed addition to the Grade school.)

The holding of grade school classes in the three houses owned by the Village on Main Street has been a temporary measure which has been tolerated because for the last few years new construction has been out of the question and the number of extra rooms which might be needed could not be estimated with any accuracy.

This fall five classes made up of approximately 150 grade school pupils will be held in those houses which will tax their facilities to the limit. A year from this fall additional space will be required and it is estimated that the peak load in the grade school will be reached in 1953. That is the estimate made by school authorities generally and there does not appear to be anything in the local picture which will make Northville an exception to the general rule.

Faced with this situation, the Board of Education has been exploring several possibilities to provide additional classroom space. Thought has been given to the erection of a separate grade school building in some other section of the village rather than on the present school grounds. This would not necessarily be a school including all of the grades, but might house sections from the kindergarten through the third or fourth grades.

A survey, however, disclosed that there was no particular concentration of grade school pupils in any one section of the village which would make a new school in that area particularly desirable. The difficulty and cost of acquiring a suitable site were further problems. A separate building would be the most expensive project because it would have to be a complete unit in itself with a heating plant etc. The cost of this plan would be the highest of any considered even though a cheaper type of construction was used than that in the present grade school building.

The erection of a separate unit on property at present owned by the school district was another alternative. A questioner but was never seriously considered but the possibility of using one or a prearranged structure of better quality was examined. Such a unit could be placed at the rear of the present school property. It would not appear that a structure of this type would be a good investment. The present temporary housing would then be given up in favor of other housing of a similar nature whose quality isn't any better. The benefits to be gained from this plan did not appear to warrant or justify the expense that would be involved.

The present grade school building proper was so constructed that the wing on the west end could be extended south toward Cady Street. A number of years ago consideration was given to building such an addition but these plans were dropped because of cost, priority commitments and the problem of getting materials. The plans drawn up at that time have been reviewed and entirely redrawn to now provide a nine room addition to the present grade school. Ground is available for this addition and the heating plant in the present building is adequate to heat the added space. Such an addition appears to offer the most in return for each dollar invested and the building of this addition is the program which has been approved by the Board of Education.

A nine room addition to the present building will provide a few extra rooms for a year or two. The word "extra" is used in the sense that they will not be needed for actual classroom instruction. They can, however, be put to excellent use as a music room, library etc. which the grade school has been doing without for a number of years. The building of this addition is the program which has been approved by the Board of Education.

N.H.S. Grad Wins Hopwood Award

New honors came to Marilyn Jean Keck, a senior at the University of Michigan, this week as she was named one of the winners in the Hopwood contest in creative writing. Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Keck of Grand River and she received a $200 award for her manuscript, "In the Tradition," a fiction story.

Marilyn, who has maintained an almost all "A" record at the University, recently was awarded the Alice Crocker Lloyd Fellowship in the amount of $750.00 to be used for graduate studies. She will apply it towards her Masters degree which she will begin work on in the fall. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Phi Kappa Phi, national honor societies.

She has gone all four years to the University on an Alumni-Regents' scholarship. Marilyn majored in English and will receive a Bachelor of Arts degree and a teachers certificate in June.

Fourteen contestants received awards totaling $6,900.00 in the 19th annual Avery Hopwood and Julie Hopwood awards in creative writing. Six major awards and eight minor awards were announced by Professor Roy W. Cowden, director of the Hopwood awards.

Guests last Wednesday at the Exchange Club luncheon were Junior Exchanges Fred Wenker and Lester Tomazewski, Glenn Richardson and Rev. William Richardson, two club members who have been in Florida for the winter months, were welcomed back into the club. A film shown through the courtesy of Eastman Kodak Co. on "Life in Old Lansing" was the day's entertainment.

Gas Co. Seeks Lifting of Ban

Consumers Power Company is seeking to relax its ban on the connecting of additional gas heating customers.

In a petition filed with the Michigan Public Service Commission last Monday, the company said its gas supply has improved to the extent that it can safely take on 12,000 additional space-heating customers of household or similar size.

The company gas service in some 250 Michigan communities, including Flint, Saginaw, Lansing, Pontiac, Jackson, Kalamazoo, Bay City, Owosso, Alma, Marshall, Midland, Royal Oak, Birmingham, Mt. Clemens, Ferndale, Ionia and Hastings it already has about 40,000 gas heating customers.

The question as to how the additional customers shall be chosen, in case more than 12,000 customers along Consumers lines apply for heating service, was left for future determination.

Division Manager, David L. Brown, said all present customers of Consumers who do not now use gas for house-heating will receive through the mail within two weeks a form on which they may apply for gas house-heating service.

"After a plan of allocating the 12,000 customers has been worked out with the Commission," he said, "an approval certificate will be sent to each customer who is to receive gas heating service. No one should buy gas house-heating equipment or plan definitely on receiving gas house-heating service until he receives such a certificate from the company."

In a separate petition the company asked authority to lift present restrictions on gas service to industrial and commercial customers. It said it was prepared to meet all industrial and commercial demands except those for gas to be used as fuel under boilers of more than 50 horsepower.

The improvement in the company's gas supply is due in part to the fact that greater amounts of gas have been delivered to the storage fields of the Michigan Gas Storage Company, a subsidiary of Consumers, by the Panhandle Eastern Pipe Line Company. Panhandle's deliveries of gas from the Southwest have been supplemented by gas from the field near Howell, Michigan, owned by Panhandle.

A further improvement in the supply available to Consumers will follow the completion by the Michigan Gas Storage Company within a few days of a major gas pipeline from Freedom Junction, Washtenaw County, to Lansburg, Shiawassee County, with a branch line between Lansburg and Lansing. This pipeline will relieve the present load on other pipeline facilities and make possible the movement of greater quantities of gas into the storage fields.

The red brick church was built in 1848, which is the center portion of the present sanctuary. The two wings and the four columns were added in 1914 and the gallery was added three or four years later.

On the first Sunday of June, 1941, Rev. and Mrs. Fredsell began their pastorate, coming from the First Presbyterian Church of Jamaica, a suburb of New York City. They were on a leave of absence from the church for nineteen months on war service in Alaska during 1944 and 1945.

Starting the ninth year, the present pastorate has only been exceeded by Rev. James Dubuar, who served twenty years, and Rev. W. S. Jerome, who served twenty years.

The amount of money allocated to any county is based on the number of miles of McNitt roads in that county in proportion to the total McNitt road mileage in the state, which is 68,969 miles. The distributions amounts to $58 per mile for this year. Mileage is re-certified to the Highway Department biennially.

McNitt roads, as differing from other county roads, are former township roads which were taken over by the counties under provisions of the McNitt Act, which became effective in 1932.

Mr. and Mrs. James Howick (Jesse VanAlta) and son, Michael of East Lansing, were week-end guests of Mrs. Howick's parents, George and Mrs. VanAlta.

June 3-12 Named Aviation Week

Gov. G. Mennen Williams has ordered June 3 to 12 as "Michigan Aviation Week," it was announced today by James V. Votta, executive vice-president of the Aero Club of Michigan, the sponsoring organization.

In the Proclamation, the Governor said, "In Michigan there are some 40,000 persons who hold private or student pilots' licenses and some 5,000 privately owned aircraft. More than 100 Michigan industries own their own planes and use them in the conduct of their, regular business. The youngsters in Michigan are jetting model aircraft, designing, which have exceeded 150 MPH."

"It is with the purpose of demonstrating the development of this industry in Michigan that the Annual Michigan Aviation Week program is held."

Michigan Aviation Week, Votta said, will be launched June 1 with the arrival at Grrosse Pointe Naval Air Base, of the 180 passenger Lockheed plane, "Constitution," and will conclude with the important Michigan Flyer Championships June 12.

Special Services Honor Pastorate

Commemorating the 120th anniversary of the founding of the church and the start of the ninth year of the pastorate of Rev. Harold F. Fredsell, the First Presbyterian Church will devote Sunday's morning service to these occasions. Rev. Fredsell will preach on "The Church, the Conscience of the Community." Children will be presented for baptism and the choir will sing special music.

The original Presbyterian church, a small wooden structure was built at the site of the present church and in 1848 was moved to Cady Street.

The red brick church was built in 1848, which is the center portion of the present sanctuary. The two wings and the four columns were added in 1914 and the gallery was added three or four years later.

Land Purchased for New Track

The following article of local interest appeared in Sunday's Detroit News:

Meadowbrook Race Track, a harness track, came into being Saturday when Ray Carroll, international representative of the American Federation of Labor, sold his 55-acre farm to a syndicate which plans to build a harness track there for 1950 racing.

The site is almost directly across the road from the Meadowbrook Country Club.

The syndicate which purchased the property and will erect the track includes Arthur M. Wirtz, of Chicago, and James D. Morris, vice-president of the Detroit Red Wings.

The syndicate said it would apply to the United States Trotting Association, most powerful harness organization in the country, for a franchise within two weeks.

Carroll said it was his impression that stock would not be sold in the new organization. Two Detroiters, Max Handler, president of the National Coal Company, and Herman Radner, hotel man, probably will join the syndicate.

It is planned to construct a grandstand seating 3,500 and a clubhouse for 1,500. There would be parking space for 2,000 automobiles.

Fredney Baxter, of Detroit, is attorney for the new group.

PGA Driving Champ.

MELVIN "CHICK" HARBERT, 34 year old Meadowbrook Golf Pro who last week was declared 1949 PGA driving champion.

Harbert Declared Driving Champion

Meivlin "Chick" Harbert, Golf Pro at Meadowbrook Country Club, last week was named the 1949 official PGA driving champion by virtue of being able to drive a golf ball farther than anybody else.

In token of his accomplishment, the 34 year old pro was presented with an engraved wrist watch telling of that feat, after he had driven a ball 305 yards at the Hermitage Country Club in Richmond, Va.

Harbert's record-breaking drive is all the more amazing since he was rushed to the hospital April 19 at Augusta, Georgia for an emergency appendectomy.

Harbert this week is seeking a spot in the National Open golf tournament by playing in the qualifying tour being conducted at Plum Hollow Golf Club.

Church History Is Recalled At Salem

Services were held Sunday, May 29 at the Salem Methodist Church for the first time in about a year. Rev. Ben Hollis of St. Clair Shores, who had attended Sunday school there when he was a boy, conducted the service.

The tiny church which is located in the Salem-Walker Cemetery, has been renovated through the efforts of old-timers in this community who used to attend Sunday school there when they were children. Regular services have not been conducted there for many years. The exterior has been repainted white and the shutters green. The interior has been cleaned, the carpet brushed and the straight-backed pews repaired. The original organ, said to be about 90 years old, is still in use and services are conducted about once a year in the quaint church on Angle Road.

Regular services have not been held in the church for many a decade because most of the congregation moved away, leaving the church without a congregation sufficient to maintain it.

Many of the persons whose ancestors are buried next to the church have banded together and donated generous sums to maintain the pretty little church.

Dondero Pilots Post Office Building Bill Through House

Congressman George A. Dondero, Ranking Republican Minority Member of the Committee on Public Works of the House of Representatives, took charge of the bill providing for new post office sites throughout the United States.

Congressman Dondero stated: "I am not surprised that there is so much interest shown in regard to this legislation. It affects every congressional district in the United States. Few, if any, post offices have been built in this country for almost a decade. The bill provides for substantially 435 buildings. A list of 4000 eligible post offices and public buildings was submitted, and this bill provides for about ten percent of the need to bring the building program somewhere near where it is adequate to take care of the needs of our people."

"In my own district in Michigan I have fifteen cities eligible for post office buildings. The bill before us is just a beginning."

The measure passed authorized $10 million for the purchase of sites and $30 million for the repair of present buildings with the provision that $10 million will be provided each year for three years for this purpose.

Your Share of The National, State and Local Debt

Congressman George A. Dondero points out that according to the Census Bureau of the United States, the national debt in 1948 amounted to $1721 per capita for every man, woman, and child) as against $326 per capita in 1940, an increase of $1395 in nine years; while our local debt of $127 in 1940 decreased to $102 per capita in the same period. The per capita state debt stood at $27 in 1940 and decreased to $25 in 1948. With the national per capita debt at $1721, that means the average family owes $6890.

Michigan's debt per capita in 1948 stood at a little over $45 and Detroit's per capita debt at $182.60.

This situation clearly shows that local communities and states are in much better financial shape than the Federal Government to undertake many of the proposed projects sponsored by the administration in power, thus saving the taxpayers' dollars. This is especially true in the light of present world unrest and this year's deflationary spiral which is being bolstered by Federal Reserve Board action.

"The House of Representatives has this year passed appropriation bills calling for about $6 billion more than in 1948. The total cash appropriation and contract authorizations in 1950 amount to over $11,844,385,750. This is nearly $6 billion in excess of the amount approved by Congress in 1949 for the same departments for fiscal year 1949."

Presidential Vetoes

President Truman's first veto of a Legislative measure passed by his Democrat-controlled 81st Congress was over-ridden by a solid block of Republicans and Democrats—313 to 49. The bill concerned would reimburse the owners of unused internal revenue stamps, in the amount of $8,437.93, destroyed in a fire which razed a Tennessee tobacco warehouse. This would have been a total loss to the owners. The action of Congress did simple justice by reimbursing the owners without any loss to the United States.

Congressman George A. Dondero states: "This action on the part of the House of Representatives brings President Truman's total vetoes over-ridden to seven, placing him third in the list of all presidents to suffer such defeats at the hands of the national legislative body. President Johnson heads the list with fifteen; and the late President Roosevelt is second with nine."

CARE will continue to carry its big 22½-pound $10 food parcel, which was recently increased in content value. Mr. French stressed. The $3.50 package, he explained, was devised for Americans who want to continue the help still needed by the people overseas, but do not feel they can afford $10, as well as to provide an additional variety for regular CARE donors.

Orders for the new food package can be placed immediately through CARE headquarters, 20 Broad Street, New York 5, or any CARE outlet throughout the country. Delivery is guaranteed in Austria, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Finland, France, Great Britain, Greece, the Western zones of Germany and all Berlin, Italy, the Netherlands and Norway.

The $5.50 assortment features a two-pound, pre-cooked ham, skinless and boneless, so that there is no waste, and seven ounces of assorted spices, a rarity in Europe since the war. Complete contents are: Two-pound ham, one pound each of rice, cheese, peanut butter and coffee, a half-pound tea will be substituted for the British 14-oz. 14 ounces of condensed milk, a half-pound of chocolate, one ounce each of pepper and nutmeg, one and a quarter ounces each of cinnamon, ginger, mustard and paprika, two cakes (six ounces) soap.

June is Dairy Month

30 IMPORTANT DAYS IN MICHIGAN

June has been proclaimed Dairy Month in Michigan by Governor Williams—not as a good-will gesture to dairy farmers but because dairying is generally considered the state's most essential industry.

Milk provides Michigan farmers their largest cash income—more than 218 million dollars last year.

The million dairy cows on Michigan farms provide in excess of 2 billion 650 million quarts of milk a year. These dairy herds represent an investment of 273 million dollars just in livestock alone.

But aside from these impressive figures, Milk has won a place in the "Hall of Fame" as the most essential item of food in the American diet—it is indispensable to the Nation's welfare.

More than 15,000 members of this Cooperative are working unitedly to provide their markets with the finest of milk and dairy products. This month they are setting aside a portion of their incomes to help finance both state and national programs of research and experimentation. These projects are carried on to improve the quality of their herds and products and find new uses for milk. All of which contributes to better health and a greater enjoyment of life by all of our people.

requiring economy in state appropriations.

Judging from the spring election strategy, the G. O. P. position may also be this: "We saved the state from a C. I. O.-inspired raid on the state treasury."

Republican State Chairman Owen J. Cleary hammered away throughout the spring campaign that the C. I. O. had dominated the Democratic state convention. It was openly charged that the C. I. O. was telling Governor Williams what to do.

Michigan's bi-partisan government, so-called at least, was brought about by the switching of approximately one-half million voters from the Kim Sigler banner — all in two year's time.

Although Republican leaders feel that the election of a Democratic governor was a by-product of a protest vote against the Republican governor-nominee, Governor Williams has accepted the verdict as a mandate for social causes he advocated.

The legislative session of 1949 was predestined to be a stalemate and draw between these two conflicting viewpoints. And since Governor Williams is ready to campaign for re-election in 1950 on the Republican-made issues, the final answer obviously must come from the voters in November, 1950.

One wise-cracking newspaper reporter recently observed at the capitol: "What Williams needs in 1950 is another Kim Sigler."

Williams believes he has everything he needs to win. He is confident, to say the least.

Bills adopted by the legislature include the following:

Fishermen can catch panfish of any size. The conservation director may designate which waters may be fished for rainbows in the fall.

Campers on state land must get free permits and must clean up the grounds before leaving. Old age welfare (assistance) maximum benefits are increased from $50 to $60 monthly.

Salaries of circuit court judges increased $2,000 year.

Agricultural inspection fees transferred to general fund.

Adjustment in fees and salaries for probate judges, jurors, township officers and many others.

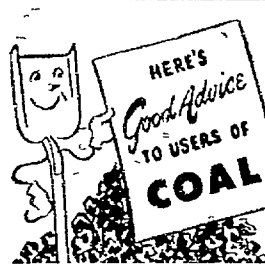

Workmen's compensation payments raised.

"Loopholes" in state sales tax act are plugged for better revenue collection.

Drugs Vital in Modern Medicine

The pharmacy is one of the most extensively used therapeutic facilities of a modern hospital, and the pharmacist is truly a front-line soldier in the constant war against disease. His role in the care of patients throughout Western Wayne is a vital one and, in planning the new 200-bed Oakwood Hospital, to be constructed in Oakwood Boulevard, hospital authorities have given the all-important pharmacy careful consideration. Planned to supply patients with prompt service, it will have available the new and powerful pharmaceuticals that have been developed recently.

There have been great developments in the field of drugs and medicines during recent years and each of these developments has brought new problems and responsibilities to the hospital pharmacist. As soon as a new remedy is discovered and tested by scientists, the hospital pharmacy must have a supply of that remedy because members of the hospital staff may call for it at any hour of the day or night. If scientists discover that an old remedy is useless, that remedy must be removed from the shelves, which are almost always overcrowded, to make room for new ones.

First the biologicals, the serums and vaccines, began to crowd old and useless remedies off the shelves. Then sulfa drugs appeared and space had to be found for them.

Penicillin created a series of problems because it was used in various forms, one form supplanting the other. The earlier forms had to be kept under constant refrigeration. In the newer powdered or crystal form, this is not necessary.

As it was first used, penicillin ran through the body in as little as three hours, and many injections were necessary to maintain a sufficiently high level of the drug in the bloodstream to check the growth of infection germs. Methods of lengthening the period of penicillin efficiency were revealed through continued experiments. Injections of penicillin implanted in wax allowed the antibiotic to drip gradually into the blood stream as the wax melted, and a high level of penicillin was thereby maintained in the body for a longer time.

However this wax mixture often clogged the hypodermic needle. Finally it was discovered that penicillin and procaine united readily and produced the desired results. The new compound, labeled "procaine penicillin," appeared on the pharmacy shelves.

This advance continues. Hospital pharmacies must constantly expand and pharmacists must assume new responsibilities. The new Oakwood Hospital will assign ample space to the pharmacy, so that it can expand over the years as medical science develops.

Toward the construction of Oakwood Hospital $3,000,000 has been allocated by the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund which is now beginning a program to raise $19,720,000 to help build four new hospitals, including Oakwood, and expand ten leading ones in Greater Detroit.

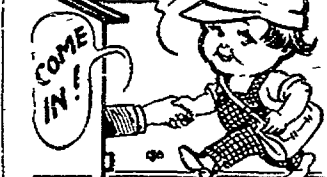

Fishermen are urged to hunt up those old inner-tubes for possible emergency use while boating.

Your Wilson's snipe chicks, less than one week old, were brought to the Swan Creek Wildlife experiment station near Allegan when the mother was destroyed by a car on M-89.

In preparing rhubarb for sauce or pie, wash the stalks well and cut off the leaves and woody ends. Don't remove the red skin as it will give the cooked fruit a more attractive color than it will have otherwise. A bit of grated orange peel will enhance the flavor of rhubarb pie.

Offer Civil Service Exam for WCTS Jobs

The Wayne County Civil Service Commission has recently announced examinations for men to begin shortly for Attendance positions at the Wayne County Training School. The examinations will result in the establishment of an eligible list from which present and future vacancies of the next several months will be filled.

Persons interested in the possibilities of entering this work are assured that the prime requirements of applicants are that they be intelligent, active and interested. In-service training is offered by the staff to overcome these deficiencies. It is felt that these positions provide a great many advantages which should be considered by young persons choosing their life work.

Men between the ages of 20 and 36, who are interested, are urged to contact the Wayne County Civil Service Commission, 2200 Barlum Tower, Detroit, or the Wayne County Training School for further details.

FIVE POLIO PRECAUTIONS ARE LISTED FOR PARENTS

Warning that the 1949 polio season is "just around the corner," the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis today issued a list of precautionary measures to be observed by those in charge of children during the epidemic danger period which usually runs from May through October, reaching its peak during the hot, mid-summer months. The five easy-to-follow health rules for children are:

1. Avoid crowds and places where close contact with other persons is likely.
2. Avoid over-fatigue caused by too active play or exercise, or irregular hours.
3. Avoid swimming in polluted water. Use only beaches or public pools declared safe by local health authorities.
4. Avoid sudden chilling. Remove wet shoes and clothing at once and keep extra blankets and heavier clothing handy for sudden weather changes.
5. Observe the golden rule of personal cleanliness. Keep food lightly covered and safe from flies or other insects. Garbage should be tightly covered and, if other disposal facilities are lacking, it should be buried or burned.

The National Foundation also listed the following symptoms of infantile paralysis: headache, fever, sea or upset stomach, muscle soreness or stiffness, and unexplained fever. Should polio strike in your family, call a doctor immediately. Early diagnosis and prompt treatment by qualified medical personnel often prevent serious crippling. The National Foundation pointed out that fear and anxiety should be held to a minimum. A calm, confident attitude is conducive to health and recovery. Parents, it said, should remember that of all those stricken, 50 per cent or more recover completely, while another 25 per cent are left with only slight after effects.

If polio is actually diagnosed, contact the chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis serving your community. The chapter will pay that part of the cost of care and treatment which patient or family cannot meet.

Health Dept. Warns Of Rabies Menace

A warning as to danger of spread of rabies has been issued by the Wayne County Health Department. Seven rabid dogs have been reported within the past two weeks. Three of these in one day — Tuesday, May 24th. This is as great a number as was reported in any similar period during the epidemic of rabies last year. The difference this year is that these cases have occurred in widely scattered areas throughout the county. The last seven rabid dogs were found in the following localities — two in Dearborn Township and one each in the Townships of Canton, Van Buren, Gratiot and Cities of Plymouth and River Rouge.

Dr. David Littlejohn, Director of the Wayne County Health Department issued the following advice for all dog owners: "These rabid dogs found in so many different localities clearly indicates that the danger of rabies is present throughout the county. The disease is a threat to children and dogs. It can be controlled by doing two things: namely, vaccinate all dogs in life want to destroy all stray and unwanted dogs. You can help dog warden and police officials to vaccinate the stray dogs if you will keep them on a leash at all time. It is wise to have all wanted dogs vaccinated regularly. A number of dogs have developed rabies that were bitten by a rabid dog though they were on a leash or while on a leash. Vaccination does not protect the dog but does it protect the dog with the scent of a hunting blimp. Every dog that is worth keeping is worth protection by vaccination."

Freshman: "What kind of oil do you use in your car?"
 Sophomore: "Oh, I usually begin by telling them I'm lonely."

Eskimo Baby: "Mom — I want a drink."
 Eskimo Mamma: "Shut up, it's only six months until morning."

"Avoid poison ivy. It is out early this spring. If you have been near it, scrub with laundry soap. If blisters appear, see your doctor."

Urge Medical Exam For Preschool Child

Preschool children who will enter kindergarten this fall should be taken to their physicians now for a complete health check-up, Dr. Goldie Corneliuson, chief of the Maternal and Child Health Section, Michigan Department of Health advised today.

The new school situation will place increased demands on the child's energy and vitality. He should have the best health and morale possible when he enters school, she added.

An examination now will reveal any physical defects or handicaps that may be corrected before school starts. If his teeth require attention or if he needs medical care, the summer will allow time for such treatments. If he needs glasses it will allow time for him to become used to them. If he has earaches or running ears immediate treatment may prevent serious hearing loss. Carefully carry out the physician's recommendations.

The child should be given booster shots for whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus and smallpox to bolster his immunity to these diseases.

Let your child play and rest this summer — to build himself up to his best health, Dr. Corneliuson said. Good food and rest are extremely important. The child needs citrus fruits, eggs, meat, whole grain cereals, milk and vegetables and plenty of good warm food in summer, as well as in winter. The average preschool child needs about ten hours of sleep at night. He plays hard and should have definite rest periods during the day. He should be out of doors a good share of the time, but his head and body should be protected from extreme heat of the sun. Both fatigue and chilling should be avoided. He should be protected from unnecessary exposure to disease, but his adjustment to school life will be better if he is encouraged to play with other children.

Talk to your child about his school. Keep him free from worry. Show him the safe route to school. Counsel him to obey police and safety patrol people and never to run into or play in the street. Do not let him ride vehicles he cannot safely handle. Accidents as well as disease endanger the life and health of the young school child, Dr. Corneliuson said.

Irregular feeding of the nursing sow will cause pigs to go hungry from lack of milk on one day and scour from overfeeding the next day.

Red Influence On Art Is Discussed

Congressman George A. Dondero had something to say in reference to Communist infiltration in American art. "For as you know," the Congressman said, "our educators have long since adopted visual methods of instructing our children. A single picture can be worth many times more than a thousand words."

"There are two things I consider at my duty to do: first, to turn the revealing light of publicity on a limited area, which I believe is typical of the general condition, and to inform the public to put them on guard to successfully resist encroachment by subtlety and falsehood into our national traditions by perverting our American art."

"I believe this unhealthy condition in the American field of culture has come about primarily because the hard-working, talented, reserved, patriotic proponents of academic art in the United States have been reluctant to engage in an argument or a quarrel with the highly organized minority group which has invaded this field. Some of our artists are unaware of the magnitude of the invasion; others are unwilling to act alone."

"Secondly," Dondero continued, "it is my firm conviction that the time has come when the loyal, patriotic, clean-minded, right-thinking artists of this country must rouse themselves, band together and purge their establishment of this social disease. The labor organizations of the country are doing a noble task in throwing out the Communists and Communist sympathizers head over heels, and it would be an admission of transcendent weakness and feeble manhood if such powerful and healthy organizations as the National Academy of Design, the American Artists Professional League, the Allied Artists of America, the Illustrators' Society, and the American Watercolor Society were unwilling or reluctant now to grid themselves for battle in a common cause and throw the Marxists out."

"Where the radicals and proponents of Communism have taken over organizations as a minority group in control, let the right-thinking members or a militant part of them organize themselves and fight these traitors of our American inheritance with their own weapons, if need be. It is time these persons and organizations which believe

13th JUNE DAIRY MONTH

June is Dairy Month from coast to coast. It highlights dairy foods for which housewives spend more than 15 per cent of their food budgets. In turn they get nearly 30 per cent of the food consumed annually in this country.

The physical well-being of every person, old and young, leans heavily on milk and its many products. Take fresh milk and cream, for example, about 69 million quarts are distributed through stores and doorsteps daily across the nation. Today milk consumption alone is 14 per cent higher than before World War II.

Dairy foods used in each home represent an industry that employs full time at least 1,500,000 persons and gives a livelihood to about 10 million people. In addition the industry contributes $10 billion to national commerce.

in the American tradition establish their standards of work, and that there be no appeasement at any time which will permit a form of art distortion and perversion. It is time for these organizations to unite for the right and purge them. Let them regain for America that which belongs to Americans."

Lobbyists—Are They All Bad?

The impression has gone out that legislation passed by Congress is the result of lobbying activities," says Congressman George A. Dondero. "There are many lobbyists, most of whom are registered as provided by law. There are lobbyists on both sides of practically every measure brought on each side to counteract each other and provide valuable information. Some claim to spend a lot of money to influence Congressmen; they, however, just can't be bought that easily. Most lobbyists are bona fide representatives of legitimate organizations and should be respected as such."

"It might be of interest to know that during 1948, according to the Budget Bureau, $74,829,467 was spent on publicity and propaganda of all kinds by Federal Agencies of the Executive Departments and that 42,000 employees were engaged in this work. Undoubtedly a large portion of this great sum was spent to influence Congress directly or indirectly. By indirect influence I mean such attempts to mold public opinion as would result in desired legislation such as politically-controlled medicine, pressure for greater appropriations for certain governmental departments, etc.

"There are, of course, some non-governmental lobbyists which try to wield a powerful influence."

Machinery Show To Be Feature Of Grass Days

Displays of the latest equipment for the harvesting and handling of forage crops will be a highlight of the statewide Grass Day programs this June.

All major companies have indicated they will participate, reports Arthur J. Bell, extension specialist in agricultural engineering at Michigan State College. The exhibits will be prepared by local implement dealers in the different areas.

All machinery used in seeding, harvesting, and handling forage crops will be shown. These include: balers, forage harvesters, bale loaders, forage wagons, bale elevators, blowers, rakes, mow driers, tractors, grass seeding equipment and field choppers.

Several companies have reported they will be showing new equipment for the first time. New designs in forage harvesters, rakes, and wagons will be featured.

In 1948 an average of 70 pieces of machinery was displayed at each meeting. This equipment is displayed in the morning and then demonstrated in the field in the afternoon.

Factory representatives will be on hand to discuss their machinery with interested farmers. Bell urges all farmers to attend the Grass Day in their area to learn how improved farm machinery can be used in their farming program. The programs are sponsored by the Michigan State College extension service in conjunction with county agricultural agents and local planning committees.

Unfavorable environmental conditions alone do not start outbreaks of infectious disease, but they do make livestock easier targets for infection-producing germs that are lurking nearby.

Anglers at this time of the year are more heavily dressed than during summer months and thereby face greater danger from occasional spills because the human body is less maneuverable equipped with heavy clothing and rubber boots.

Spray Produces Early Tomatoes

Tomatoes will not set fruit as long as night temperatures remain low, says Dr. S. H. Wittwer, Michigan State College horticulturist. Last year, however, some growers were able to produce ripe fruit two to three weeks earlier through the use of a hormone spray.

Dr. Wittwer, who has done much work with plant growth regulators, relates that fruit set depends on the presence of a hormone or growth controlling chemical. The chemical is not present in the flower in sufficient amount at temperatures below 59 degrees Fahrenheit.

Manufacturers have given the hormone, artificially produced, such trade names as Sure-Set, Tomato-Tone, and other names. When it is applied, fruit setting results even though night temperatures are below 59 degrees Fahrenheit.

The hormone spray should be applied to the flowers while they are open. On commercial plantings special two-quart pressure sprayers are used in applying the hormone. Ordinary household sprayers can be used on smaller plantings. The practice is to go through the field once every five days and spray all blossoms showing color. Care should be used to spray as little as possible on the foliage.

Fruit set will be increased only as long as night temperatures remain below 59 degrees Fahrenheit. Fruit size will be increased somewhat any time during the season. Size increases of as much as 30 percent have been measured.
