Rotarians Hear Talk On Raising Bees

Les Lee and Sullivan Sullivan collaborated in a talk on the problems and rewards of apiculture - beekeeping - at the Rotary meeting last Tuesday noon. Both men keep honey bees as a hobby.

Lee discussed the equipment necessary to begin and maintain an apiary and showed examples of beehives and cages used in the transportation of bees. He described the function of workers, drones and the queen bee, the three classifications, and pointed out the contribution of each.

Sullivan added to Lee's remarks and answered questions of the group. The most significant contribution of bees, the men said, is the manufacture of honey and the pollination of blossoms and flowers, especially in orchards.

C & O To Cut Service North

In a compromise approved Monday by the Michigan Public Service Commission, passenger service between Saginaw and Detroit on the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad will be reduced to once-daily passenger service. The change will become effective about November 1.

The Company some time ago made application to the Service Commission to discontinue twice-daily passenger service between Bay City and Detroit. The Service Commission made a compromise with the C. and O., granting them permission to discontinue the twice-daily service between Bay City and Detroit, providing that they replace it with once daily service between Saginaw and Detroit. The new service will be on a six month trial basis.

The new train is expected to leave Saginaw about 8:00 a. m. daily except Sunday, stop at Flint, make a flag stop at Milford and leave Detroit for the return trip about 6:15 p. m.

Denton Outlines Oct. Safety Plan

"Teach your child safety as you would good manners."

This was the plea today of Chief of Police, Joseph Denton, who heads the October traffic safety drive in cooperation with the State Safety Commission. The local police chief has taken as its theme this month "Child Safety."

"Up to a certain age," Chief Denton said, "the child really knows very little about what is expected of him in traffic. But, by school age, if he is still ignorant of safety rules, the parents are criminally negligent in his training."

Chief Denton points out that about 3,800 children under the age of 14 are killed annually in traffic accidents. This means that out of every three children killed in accidents each year, one is a traffic victim.

"For his own sake the child must be taught safety, but even then the motorist must also realize that a child is a creature of whims and prepare for the forgetfulness and carelessness of immaturity," Denton said.

The State Safety Commission outlined the following tips for parents.

1. Do not allow your children to play in the street under any circumstances.
2. Insist that he cross the street only at intersections when no cars are coming.
3. Do not allow him to ride a bicycle in traffic until he has demonstrated to your satisfaction that he has the necessary skill.
4. Impress upon him the fact that bicycle riding is subject to the same rules of safety and courtesy that actual driving is.
5. Confine his play with tricycles, skates, scooters, and wagons to the sidewalk and well away from alleys and driveways.

"If parents will emphasize these points they will materially reduce the possibility that they may someday suffer the heartbreak of seeing their child killed or maimed in the streets," Chief Denton said.

Lois Taft flew to Long Island, New York last Thursday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Carl Longobardi (Marilyn Goza). She is expected to return today.

Bentley Bows To NHS Eleven, 6-0

A Mustang squad which is showing gradual improvement will be out to stretch its victory string to three when it takes the field against Busch High School of Ferndale tomorrow night. Kick-off is scheduled for 8 p. m. under the lights at Ford Field. Northville outscored Busch 19-13 in last season's game, but had a good passing attack which is noticeably lacking this year.

More than a thousand spectators watched the Mustangs win their second home game by squeezing past Bentley of Livonia, 6-0. Chuck Stephens scored the game's only touchdown shortly after the third quarter opened on an eight-yard plunge through the left side of the Bentley line.

Northville kicked off to Bentley to open the second half and a Bentley fumble on the first play was recovered by Northville on the Bentley 19-yard line. Left halfback, Chuck Dickinson picked up two yards, Stephens added eight more and Jerry Heaton moved the ball to the eight yard line from where Stephens scored. Tom Sutton had to hurry his kick for the extra point after the third quarter opened on an eight-yard plunge through the left side of the Bentley line.

Although the Mustangs had only six points to show for their efforts, they were constantly knocking at Bentley's door. A fast series of plays in the fourth quarter which included runs by fullback Dick Gray, Stephens, and a pass from Tom Shrike to Ronny Jennings moved the ball to the Mustangs two-yard line, but a holding penalty against Northville ruined the drive. Horie, Bentley's speedy halfback, then intercepted Rodamsky's pass and ran the ball out of danger back to the Northville 44.

Bentley immediately took to the air in an attempt to knot the score, but the Northville ends hurried the passer. After two incomplete passes and one that clocked for ten yards, Jerry Heaton intercepted a high, wobbly toss on the Northville 30-yard line. The Mustangs then collaborated on an impromptu, figure-it-as-you-go play which clearly resulted in a TD. Dick Gray started around right end and, finding all exits blocked, turned and threw a pass across field to Heaton, who picked up several blockers and headed down the sideline. He picked up 27 yards but was stopped at mid-field by a Bentley tackler who filtered through Heaton's interference.

COLUMBUS DAY FACTS

Queen Isabella was 41 when she financed Columbus' voyage. Columbus lived 60 years. Mystery surrounds his birthplace and year of birth, but historians generally believe he was born in 1446 at Genoa, Italy, and died in 1506. No one is certain where he is buried.

His name in English is Christopher Columbus. In Italian it is Cristoforo Colombo, and in Spanish it is Cristobal Colon.

The Spanish rulers agreed to finance his explorations April 17, 1492, after seven years of pleading on his part.

Columbus sailed on a Friday from Palos, discovered the new world on a Friday.

Columbus Day was first observed in Colorado.

Much speculation takes place upon who really did discover America. Besides Columbus and Leif Erikson, candidates are offered by the Chinese, Japanese, Negroes, Welsh, Irish, Corsicans, Greeks and Spanish.

The tribe of Indians present at Columbus' landing—the Caribs, living on a reservation on British-owned Dominica in the West Indies—are about extinct.

There are 15 cities in Italy where tourists are shown the "birthplace" of Columbus.

Columbus seems to have been physically ill of a brain disorder after returning from his fourth voyage and probably died at Valladolid, Spain.

State Parks Attract Fall Vacationers

Lure of autumn coloring, nature's own show on display in 40 state parks and 13 downstate recreation areas is the fall attraction renewing interest in the state's playspots which already have attracted 12,400,000 persons through September.

Although most summer park activities have all but faded from the picture, park officials of the conservation department now are confident that the 1949 attendance total will at least equal if not exceed the 1948 record year of 12,500,000 visitors.

Among the upper peninsula parks offering a generous exhibition of nature at her best are Tahquamenon Falls, Porcupine Mountains, Fort Wilkins, Gogebic Lake and Bunge Shorter color tours beckoning outdoor enthusiasts are in such natural beauty parks as Warren Dunes, Muskegon, Ludington Wilderness and Hartwick Pines.

Comparatively new recreation areas operated by the conservation department in southern Michigan, within a short driving distance of metropolitan centers, are Yankee Springs, Waterloo, Pontiac Lake, Proud Lake, Island Lake, Orionville, Brighton and Pinckney.

Origin of "Vanilla"

The word vanilla is from the Spanish, and means "little pod." In each of the now widely scattered species of the vanilla plant, the little pod is preceded by a dainty yellow bloom which leaves no doubt that the plant belongs to the orchid family.

Pitcairnia Island

Pitcairnia island was discovered in 1767, by Captain Phillip Carteret of the British sloop "Swallow." Carteret was struck with the island's possibilities for colonization purposes and named it Pitcairnia, after the misanthrope who first signed it.

Never Too Early To Teach Children Proper Table Manners

Silverware: 1847 Rogers Bros. "First Love"
SPECIAL KNIVES and forks perfectly suited for the fumbling grasp of small hands are now available to enable parents to teach children table manners at an early age.

It's never too soon to start teaching a child good table manners, including the proper use of silverware.

Of course, it isn't an easy job. Parents must show considerable patience day after day. There's no definite age at which the lessons should begin. It is generally agreed, however, that the start should be made during the months when the diet is being changed from all-milk to milk-and-cereal. Thus, routine manners will have been learned before a child joins grown-ups at the dinner table.

To aid parents, 1847 Rogers Bros. now has a complete set of children's silverware. In addition to the little cup and the baby's spoon with the looped handle, there are special knives and forks perfectly suited for the fumbling grasp of small hands. This step-up set can be used until a child is nine or ten years old.

Early exposure to fine and beautiful things like silverware gives a child a splendid start in learning an appreciation and respect for that which is beautiful.

A little girl, for example, should be encouraged by her mother to help set the table. She can't harm the silver by dropping it. Therefore, she could place the knives, forks and spoons while the mother is arranging china and glassware. Whether the little girl realizes it or not, she'll be receiving a lesson in etiquette and art appreciation.

Children... and parents, too will derive a great deal of satisfaction from family dinners if the youngsters have been taught good table manners at an early age.

Homemakers Can Save Time Doing
Household Tasks

Latest advice to homemakers who are interested in applying the streamlined techniques of industry to their chores is to take advantage of the warming up period.

In industry saving time means saving money and studies show that in doing one specific job there is usually an increase in speed from the beginning of the task to the time of greatest output.

Irma H. Gross head of the department of home management and child development at Michigan State College, applies this principle to household tasks. For example, if you have four beds to make, it probably will save you time if you make them in succession rather than stopping to dust in between bed making.

In housemaking, there are many different jobs during the day—washing dishes, making beds, cooking, dusting and others. If homemakers realized that every time they changed from one job to another they went through this "warming up period," they would stay at one job longer.

This same idea applies to cleaning a group of rooms. If all dusting is done in the group of rooms at one time, then the vacuum cleaner used in all, there is less loss of speed than using a warming up period in each room.

Carrots Gain Food Value In Storage

Carrot marketing with a new look and offering higher food value is gaining favor in Michigan. Increasing quantities are being marketed with tops off and packed in cellophane bags. Packaging begins with freshly harvested carrots and continues throughout the winter with roots from storage.

R. D. Carolus, research horticulturist at Michigan State College says that carrots stored properly will actually be better in quality and higher in food value. Carrots stored for winter use at temperatures of 32 to 35 degrees Fahrenheit and at a relatively high humidity increased in sugar content and depth of orange color.

Flavor was found superior to that of the freshly harvested crops. Carrots of an inch to an inch and a half in diameter of the Danvers or Nantes variety have given the best packaged product.

U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists have found that carrots in storage increased in vitamin content. Carrots tested after 30 weeks of storage under cool, moist conditions showed a higher content of carotene, the basic material of vitamin A, than was present in those carrots before the storage period started.

In addition to the improved quality and food value due to storage, the removal of tops immediately after harvest further preserves the food value in the root.

Carolus cites that contrary to

STATE CRIPPLED CHILDREN SOCIETY TO MEET OCTOBER 28, 29 IN DETROIT

The 26th Annual Convention of the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Disabled

Adults, Inc., will be held at the Book Cadillac Hotel, Friday and Saturday, October 28 and 29. This convention is free to the public. There is no registration fee. Anyone interested in the cause of the Physically Handicapped, including parents, are cordially invited to attend.

Emmet Richards, Alameda, President of the Society, announces that outstanding authorities in the field of service to the physically handicapped are secured as program participants. The theme of the convention is "Present and Future Trends - Using Every Resource to Meet the Challenge."

Registrations will begin at 9 p.m. on Thursday, October 27, and at 6 p.m. that same evening. The Board of Directors will meet in Annual Session. The program proper begins on October 28. The morning session will include discussions of Occupational Therapy and Craft Work with the Homebound, the Society's Cerebral Palsy Program, Rheumatic Fever Control, and at 11 a.m. the regular assembly meeting of voting delegates will convene.

On Friday afternoon the program will be as follows: A Cerebral Palsy Nursery School Demonstration - participants will be a Physical Therapist, Occupational Therapist, Special Teacher and Speech Correctionist, with children from the Orthopedic Clinic. Following this, there is a panel, "As We See It." The participants on this panel will all be physically handicapped persons, representing different types who have been rehabilitated.

The banquet is at 7 p.m. and there will be an address by the President of the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., John J. Lee, Ph.D., Detroit, and an address with demonstration by Dr. Max Karl Newman, Director of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, Harper Hospital, Detroit.

On Saturday morning, October 29, there will be a panel and demonstration on "Speech and Hearing Rehabilitation" by authorities and clients. Local workers from various sections of the state, under the caption, "How We Do It," will discuss their programs with emphasis on Home Teaching, Classroom to Home Instruction, Other Agency Cooperation, Therapy in Physical Medicine, Controlling Convulsive Disorders, and Case Evaluation and Rehabilitation Planning.

This is the only Annual Meeting in Michigan devoted exclusively to all phases of work with and for all types of physically handicapped persons, and President Richards emphasizes that anyone concerned is cordially invited to attend.

One-Inch Steaks

If dad prefers his steak rare, it will take from 15 to 20 minutes cooking time for one-inch steaks. Medium done steaks require from 20 to 25 minutes. Thicker—two-inch steaks cook in 35 to 40 minutes for rare and around 45 minutes for medium done.

Federation Favors Highway Reforms

Administrative reforms for auditing and keeping records of state collected road funds by 564 governmental agencies were recommended 18 months ago by the Michigan Good Roads Federation in its report, "Highway Needs in Michigan."

The Federation recommended that the legislature adopt administrative reforms based on the following quotation from page 134 of the report:

"The state highway commissioner should include in his biennial report to the legislature a section describing progress of the statewide highway improvement program and giving an accounting of all expenditures of state-collected road funds by all highway agencies. This section should also include in summary form, for the information of the legislature and the people, the program of improvements scheduled for the next biennium by all highway agencies."

A Federation spokesman pointed out that the agencies affected by these administrative reforms have actively advocated their enactment by the legislature. "It was further pointed out that two governors have already been asked to introduce and support legislation based on this recommendation as part of the Federation's program to modernize Michigan's over-all highway system and increase road revenues. Governor Sigler refused to introduce the legislation, while Governor Williams has been non-committal since his original endorsement of it.

Forest fires have been known to overtake running deer and men on horseback.

Red Cross Recreation Program Helps Hospitalized Servicemen

Providing recreation and entertainment for hospitalized and convalescent servicemen is an important Red Cross job at military hospitals. These Red Cross hospital recreation workers take a group of patients for a tour of Mammoth Cave, Ky., during an outing sponsored by a community service organization.

Any woman will tell you she's rather tired of sick children than one sick man. Doctors and nurses are inclined to agree with her. A man resents being helpless and is often beset by fears for himself and his family.

The sick soldier is little different from the civilian, except that treating the sick serviceman presents additional problems.

Unlike the patient in the civilian hospital, who undergoes his convalescence at home, the soldier remains in the hospital until he is completely fit for duty. After the acute phase of the serviceman's illness is past, he is sent to a "reconditioning ward," where he remains until he is able to take up his regular military job. Sometimes he remains there for weeks. An usually he is far from home.

For recreation and simple, pleasurable activities to fill those long hours of convalescence, military physicians in post hospitals look to the American Red Cross and its corps of specially trained recreation workers.

Recreational programs are adapted to the needs of both the man confined to his ward and the convalescent. They range from teaching a bedridden man to play solitaire to dances and bingo games for the man on the road to recovery.

There are motion pictures for both ward patients and the convalescent, and for the ambulatory patients there are tickets and transportation to nearby ball parks and theaters.

There are also the special services provided by volunteer workers. Gray Ladies run errands and write letters. Motor Service provides transportation. Volunteer Services, working with other community agencies, help bring into the hospital boys and girls of the same age group as the hospitalized serviceman.

Red Cross provides the "home touch" which, added to medical and nursing care, helps restore the sick man to good health.

Monument to Gulls

Mothers raised a monument at Salt Lake City to the gulls which give answer to their prayers for an end to a grasshopper plague.

Public Transit

The public transit industry employed regularly last year almost 300,000 workers who received $825,000,000 in wages.

Summer Sauce

It's a tasty sauce for fresh green beans. Just prepare cooked diced bacon, drain, add minced onion and one half cup tomato juice. Simmer for a few minutes. Pour the sauce over cooked beans.

Jet's Deliver Huge Power

A hypothetical 10,000 pound thrust jet engine would deliver more than 20,000 horsepower when traveling at the speed of sound, 760 miles an hour. Engineers explain that jet power is figured in pounds of thrust. This is directly equal to horsepower only at 375 miles an hour. It increases in horsepower value as speed mounts.

Fruit In Roll

To make a wonderful dessert, roll out your favorite biscuit dough and spread it with a thick fruit sauce—rhubarb, strawberry, peach—or any of your favorite summer time fruits. Then roll it up jelly roll style and cut the roll into two-inch slices and bake. The clever dessert slices can be topped with more of the fruit sauce or with sweetened whipped cream.

Concrete Pipe

Although shrinkage cracks may develop in "exposed" concrete pipe, these small cracks will heal themselves in the presence of moisture and in fact become stronger than before the break. The reason: concrete in the presence of moisture exudes calcium hydroxide, which upon exposure to the atmosphere is converted to calcium carbonate which seals the cracks and prevents rusting of the metal reinforcement.

Franklin's Business Philosophy
In illustrating Franklin's tactics in business, it is interesting to note his reaction to a rival's unfair practice. Bradford, printer of a competitive newspaper and postmaster of Philadelphia, would not allow Franklin's "Pennsylvania Gazette" to go through the mails. When Franklin succeeded Bradford as postmaster, however, he did not seek revenge. He said, "I thought so meanly of him for it that, when I afterward came into his situation, I took care never to imitate it."

Population of Lithuania

The present population of Lithuania within its actual boundaries of 1939, the regions of Vilnius and Klaipeda inclusive, is estimated at 2,700,000. (The population of Lithuania within the same boundaries was 3,032,863 in 1939.) The present population figure includes more than 200,000 Soviet-imported Russian settlers, and units of the Red army, the MVD, and the MGB. Most of the Russian settlers are to be found in the cities, and especially in the regions of Vilnius and Klaipeda.

Fire Danger Great In Rural Dwellings

A call to all farmers for extra efforts in fire prevention was made this week by agricultural extension specialists of Michigan State College in preparation for Fire Prevention Week, October 9-15.

"Citing that danger of loss of life by fire is greater in a farmhouse than in a city home, the specialists urged farmers to make sure that their farms will not become another figure on the annual toll."

Fire losses in Michigan last year included 184 lives and almost 30 million dollars worth of property. A substantial portion of these losses were on farms. The national toll of fire deaths was 11,000 lives.

Eight common fire hazards cause most farm fires, the specialists say. Removing all of the hazards could eliminate 90 percent of the farm fires. Most common are:

- 1-Careless smoking habits. Make sure cigarettes are out before discarding.
- 2-Accumulations of trash. Clean up all rubbish that will burn.
- 3-Careless handling of matches. Keep them away from children.
- 4-Flammable shingle roofs. Use fire-resistant roofing.
- 5-Improper storage of gasoline and kerosene. Store away from main buildings in accordance with regulations.
- 6-Improperly cured hay in barns. Cure thoroughly—keep it dry.
- 7-Dirty or defective heating plants, chimneys, lamps, lanterns, motors, and machinery. Keep equipment clean and make repairs promptly.
- 8-Lightning. Use lightning rods on all main buildings.

Under forest management, it is possible to take a harvest from the woods and still leave a growing forest.

NEWS and COMMENT

FROM CONGRESSMAN GEORGE A. DONDERO

The House of Representatives passed a Social Security Extension Bill last week by a large majority vote. It is expected, though, that the Senate will not act until next year.

By this time, of course, everyone is more or less familiar with the provisions of the new measure. They know that President Truman asked that about 23,000,000 people not now covered be brought under Social Security, and that the bill as passed does increase the coverage by about 11,000,000 persons, including nearly everyone except farmers, farm labor and professional people. By this time, too, everyone has heard that social security benefits under the new measure will be doubled. They now run from $10 to $45 per month. Under the new bill they will run from $25 to $84, while family benefits will run from $40 to $150 per month.

Perhaps fewer people know that the present two per cent payroll tax (one per cent on employer and one per cent on employee) will be increased to three per cent in January, 1950 — four per cent in January, 1951 — five per cent in January, 1952 — six per cent in January, 1953 — and six and one-half per cent in January, 1954. This means that by 1954 every person under Social Security will be paying at least three and one-quarter per cent of his entire income each year in payroll tax alone. Self-employed people will have to pay half again as much as those employed by others. Everybody's income for social security purposes, instead of the present $3,000, will be taxable up to $3,600. All this if the bill passed by the House becomes law.

Now Social Security is a splendid thing if it is supposed to provide financial independence for old folks no longer able to work. Properly administered, it would do just that. But as it is now administered by New Deal politicians, it is "phony." The Social Security objective is desirable, the manner in which it is now administered constitutes nothing less than a deception of the American people.

It came about this way. The New Deal politicians who set up the Social Security administrative plan wanted the payroll tax money to spend at once, so they put over on American workers and employers a scheme to collect taxes now for old age benefits, spend the money for other things, and then levy additional taxes on future generations to pay the old age benefits that

Tax-Reverted Lots On Auction Block

The conservation department's first public auction of tax-reverted lands in southern Michigan since 1937, covering 1,462 platted lots with a minimum appraisal value of $129,863, is slated for Nov. 15, 16 and 17 in Macomb, Oakland and Wayne counties.

Largest auction, including 990 platted lots in 93 Wayne county subdivisions, will be held in Detroit, Nov. 17 at 10:00 a.m. Minimum appraisal prices range from $5 to $1,110 per lot.

Another 48 lots in seven Macomb county subdivisions will go on the block in Mt. Clemens, Nov. 15 at 1:00 p.m. Some 424 lots in 50 Oakland county subdivisions will be offered to bidders in Pontiac, Nov. 16, at 10:00 a.m.

The conservation department's lands division advises prospective purchasers they must pay the full purchase price at the time of sale or at close of the auction. Some properties in certain subdivisions are being offered in groups of lots only. Mineral rights on platted lots are not reserved to the state, although they usually are reserved on acreage offered.

The now defunct state land board had charge of disposition of tax-reverted lands in the southern 36 counties of the state from 1937 until May of this year when jurisdiction was returned to the conservation department.

Pan Fish Size Not Clear To Fishermen

Any length pan fish is "keeper" size the conservation department points out to fishermen still not clear on the new fishing regulations which went into effect late last month.

Conservation officers and other department field men are telling anglers that the removal of the six-inch size limit applies to bluegills, sunfish, perch, rock and cisco bass. Size limits on pike, perch (wallers) have not been removed, but reduced from 14 to 13 inches. The 14-inch minimum length on northern pike continues, as does the 19-inch size limit on large and small-mouth black bass.

Hotel Men To Meet Oct. 21-22 at MSC

More than 25 hotel executives from Michigan and adjoining states and approximately 200 Michigan State College hotel administration students will participate in the third annual Chairman of the Board Day to be held on the MSC campus, October 21-22.

Joe Davis of the El Comodore Hotel, Miami, Fla., and immediate past president of the American Hotel Association, will preside over the two-day convocation, according to Bernard R. Proulx, head of the MSC hotel administration department.

The greatest change this year in the Michigan educational pattern will come at the high school level," said Dr. Lee M. Thurston, state superintendent of public instruction, in an interview for the "Michigan Mirror".

Public schools are experiencing a boom. With $140 millions of state aid to school districts and teacher retirement, Michigan public schools this year have more classrooms, more pupils,
better paid teachers and more
building construction.

In the opinion of Dr. Thurston,
"head man" for our school system, the new college agreement program for high schools is of utmost significance. Through this plan local high schools by agreement with the colleges and universities of the state may modify their curriculum to more adequately fit the needs of students and yet permit these students to gain college entrance.

"Increased funds will also mean a substantial improvement
in the vocational offerings," said Dr. Thurston. "There will be modern shop equipment, new business machines and typewriters
for commercial training."

"Many schools will improve their training in agricultural and business education programs.
There will be increased services
to children in terms of counseling and guidance."

"This year will also witness an outstanding change in the offerings of junior colleges. Junior colleges of the state are modifying their program to meet the needs of youngsters who wish additional training but who do not intend to continue on through college."

"High school boys and girls, who graduate at the age of 17
and 18, are finding it increasingly difficult to find work without additional technical training and maturity. Many of them will attend junior colleges with the idea of increasing their ability to make a living."

"In fact the junior colleges
will be serving as true community colleges which are a distinct break from the old academic type junior college which simply offered preparation for professional schools."

"These junior colleges will now offer courses in office management, medical technology, shop management, training as tool and die technicians, inspectors and testers of work, sanitary engineering, operators of small business and others."

"Adult education will also have increased emphasis since even

Red Cross Hospital Workers Help Speed Patient Recovery

The job of rebuilding sick bodies
and minds of servicemen in military hospitals and restoring them to useful life is carried forward by a team—doctors, nurses, and Red Cross workers. The Red Cross worker may be a medical or psychiatric social worker, a recreation specialist, or a combination of them
assisted by a Gray Lady.

Military physicians and nurses find that restoring the health of a sick man requires much more than medicine and food. The will to live and the will to do things must be revived before medical treatment can get in its beneficial work. That's where the Red Cross enters the picture.

A young soldier, only 23, was injured in an accident at a military proving ground. Half of his face and neck were blown away.
Pain-racked and frightened, he had little taste for ordinary hospital recreation. He loved music, though, so the recreation worker brought to his bedside a radio phonograph and then, by mere chance, found she could satisfy a greater longing.
The boy revealed that he wanted to write to his young wife those tender, personal things that he hesitated to dictate.

Under federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matter of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

adults are finding there are many technical changes in industry that require additional skills to continue their jobs.

"Schools will also give greater attention to safety education this year. Last year 215 schools trained some 20,000 high school
youngsters to drive automobiles safely. It is expected by the end of this year that this number may reach 35,000."

"There will also be greater attention to fire safety in schools;
school bus and inspection and training programs will be carried on in the 1949-50 school year."

"The Department emphasis program this year in the instructional area will be in terms of citizenship education. Bulletins and pamphlets will be distributed and meetings will be held to stimulate greater interest in Michigan and United States history. There will be greater effort on the part of schools to give youth a better understanding of local, state and federal government and also increased emphasis in economic and thrift education."

"Year after year, increased numbers of youngsters have visited the state and national capitols. The department will work with school to provide materials
and an understanding of govern-

Red Cross hospital workers assist medical officers with welfare and recreation programs for military patients.

A recording machine was brought to his bedside, and he found the words to tell his longings to his distant wife. It wasn't easy because his injury had damaged his vocal chords and articulation was difficult. But after patient practice with the hospital worker, he finally poured out his heart to the record and sent it off to his wife.

To the arthritic, the tubercular,
the rheumatic heart sufferer, doomed to long periods of bed care, the recreational services provided by Red Cross ease their burden of helplessness and discouragement.
Neatly chapters in cooperation with other local agencies bring into the hospitals young people from the nearby communities, women who serve as hostesses for parties,
young people who dance and play games, all reminding the sick soldier that he is not forgotten by those he served.

ment which will make these visits
more significant.

"The Area Study Act as passed by the legislature gives the department and the citizens of the state the greatest opportunity in a generation to study the quality and quantity of Michigan education and the organization of its school district system."

"The citizens have already expressed their desires by a willingness to spend nearly one-quarter billion dollars for school operation, therefore there can only be one result—better schools for all the children of all the people."

"Virginia Tobacco"
North Carolinians can't do anything about it, but most so-called "Virginia" tobacco is raised in their state, and they also raise more "Virginia" peanuts than Virginia does.
