

NO APPLE IS BIG ENOUGH!

As long as we live, we cannot express in full our debt to our teachers.

The knowledge they pass on to us — their influence on our thinking — actually become factors in determining what our lives turn out to be.

For the past few years, our teachers have worked valiantly in the face of many odds — crowded classrooms, long hours, shortages of textbooks and supplies. Today progress is being made to correct these conditions — to make teaching continually more attractive to the specially gifted men and women who belong in this highly honored profession.

Observe National Education Week, November 6-12. Remember education molds our future! Better schools make better communities!

Rotarians Hear Talk On Ryder Cup Series

Melvin "Chick" Herbert, Meadowbrook Country club professional, described his trip to England as a member of the victorious U. S. Ryder Cup team in a talk before the Rotary club last Tuesday noon.

Herbert reviewed part of his golf career, stating that he began playing at the age of three-and-one-half, with his golf professional father as instructor. The Ryder Cup team, said Herbert, is composed of the ten top professional golfers in the country who belong to the P.G.A. Organized in 1927, Ryder cup competition had a ten year lapse during the war years. Great Britain has defeated the U. S. team only twice.

"The English did everything possible to make our stay in their country comfortable," said Herbert. "They were excellent hosts."

Dr. E. B. Cavell of Griswold Road and Mike Gussell of West Main Street left Monday morning for a hunting trip at MacIvor, Michigan.

Mustangs To Play Plymouth Friday

The Northville Mustangs will take on their traditional rivals, the Plymouth Rocks, tomorrow night under the lights at Plymouth. The Mustangs downed the Rocks last year, 20-7, after a victory fame which had lasted 13 years. Kick-off will be at 8 p. m.

A blocked Northville punt which resulted in a safety and two points was probably the deciding factor in the Mustangs' 8-7 defeat at the hands of Clarenceville last Friday.

Northville's touchdown was the direct result of a Clarenceville fumble. Right half Dale Pound lost control of the ball on the Clarenceville 23-yard line when he was tackled hard at the line of scrimmage. Left tackle Dick Gussell Mustang captain, picked the ball out of the air and quickly slanted to the right, crossing the goal line all alone. Bob Cole came back from his position at left guard to kick the extra point.

Clarenceville began a drive in the second quarter which brought the ball from the Clarenceville 30 to the Northville 14-yard line. Four plays later, Clarenceville was inches short of a first down and surrendered the ball to NHS on the four yard line. The Mustangs tried a run for no gain and a pass was knocked down. Tom Shrake's attempted punt from the end zone went astray when a horde of Clarenceville linemen poured in and a safety, worth two points, was charged to the Mustang.

Just before the third quarter ended, Pound intercepted a pass on his own 25 and raced down the sideline to the Northville four-yard line before he was tackled. The Northville defense held for two plays before Pound muffed over from the three-and-one line. The extra point failed and the score was 7-7 in favor of Clarenceville.

The Mustangs had their last claim in the final period when they had the ball 72 yards from pay dirt but the Clarenceville eleven buckled down and stopped everything thrown at them.

The game under Northville's home stand for this season the two remaining games on the schedule are away, tomorrow at Plymouth and at South Lyon November 11.

The starting lineup for last Friday's game was:

- RE ... Jennings
RT ... Dahlgren
RG ... BlacF
C ... Sutton
LG ... Cole
LT ... Gussell
LE ... Prom
QB ... Holman
LH ... Dickinson
RH ... Stepters
FB ... Gray

28 Brownies Advance To Girl Scout Rank

Twenty-eight girls from Browne Troop No. 8, sponsored by St. Paul's Lutheran Church, received their Girl Scout pins at a candlelight investiture service at the Northville High school last Wednesday evening. Mrs. A. M. Lawrence is the troop's leader and co-leaders are Mrs. George Weiss and Mrs. Alfred Lillington.

A good crowd was on hand to witness the investiture services. About 176 Girl Scouts and Brownies were present, sitting in a block, to watch the 28 Brownies advance to the rank of Girl Scouts at the impressive ceremony.

Mrs. Warren B. Cooksey, active Scout woman from Detroit, briefly addressed the assemblage on Scouting. All the Girl Scouts joined in singing the first verse of the Scout hymn and then Eleanore Pecke sang two verses. Arthur Schnute, chairman of the Lutheran Church board, on behalf of St. Paul's Lutheran church, presented the girls with their troop flag and the American flag.

Franny Pat Malley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Malley of Beck Road was hostess Saturday evening to several of her classmates at a Halloween party. The affair was in the nature of a barn dance.

Game To Benefit Recreation Groups

The Michigan-Ontario Amateur Roller Hockey League will donate receipts from one of its games in the near future to the Recreation committees of Northville, Plymouth and Livonia townships, said Eddy Martin, chairman of the league's board of directors. The benefit game will occur Monday, November 14, according to present plans.

The four-year-old league is something new in the way of sports. The five teams use regulation hockey rules, but cater to roller skates and maple floors instead of ice rinks. This, according to the players, gives the game more action and speed.

The league divides its games among the Riverside Arena at Plymouth, the Arcadia Roller Rink in Detroit and the London Arena at London, Ont., Canada. The Riverside Arena is the home this year of the Aurora Flyers and the Eton Packers, composed of roller skating enthusiasts from Wayne and Oakland county areas.

The other three teams in the league are the Arcadia White at the Detroit Barons and the London Falcons, the present champions.

The season's first game at Riverside will be Monday evening at 8:30 between the Flyers and the Packers. There will be a game at Riverside every Monday night and one at Arcadia every Wednesday evening.

Emergency Finds Aristo-Cat Napping

Last Friday was a tough day for Mighty Mite. His day began peacefully, but mid-afternoon found him insulted and nursing shattered nerves.

Mighty Mite is a cat, but no ordinary feline. He is at home at the Westfield Farm Supply on Main street. Mighty Mite is a non-worker, haughty and disdainful since he discovered that the seven tocs on each of his front paws are invaluable for getting attention. He refuses to perform a cat's normal function, mice-catching. His are brought wrapped in paper.

Friday was different. Wally Westfield and Jack Wilhs were assembling an elevator and discovered they couldn't get the endless chain housing the five-by-seven inch housing, 28 feet long. Pressed into service, Mighty was unwillingly and unceremoniously escorted to the housing, a cord tied to his body, and invited to crawl. It is said that some encouragement other than verbal was necessary, but Mighty finally made his way to the other end, accompanied by coaxing, rattling the housing and threats of having to catch his own mice. The threats probably did the job. Mighty spent the rest of the day muttering to himself and glaring at anyone who wanted to look at his fourteen front toes.

Fred VanDyke of Detroit was the speaker at last Wednesday evening's Optimist Club meeting. His topic was "Life Inside Russia." Louie Babbitt was his father's guest at the dinner meeting.

ONE YEAR AGO:

Although the state and nation went Democratic in the election, Northville remained traditionally Republican.

St. Paul's Lutheran church, corner High and Elm Streets, will soon begin construction of an estimated $150,000 church and parish hall. Rev. E. E. Rossow, who has been the pastor at St. Paul's since 1937 states that the drawings are now complete and construction will begin in the very near future.

Officers of Orient Chapter No. 77 will meet at the Masonic Temple tonight Friday for their 58th installation ceremony which is to be open to the public.

This week the Mother's Club distributed bottles to all the local places of business for contributions to their milk fund project.

FIVE YEARS AGO

Voters on November 7 will find that they will be burdened with plenty of paper in the form of six ballots in Wayne County and four in Oakland, containing names of candidates and proposals.

At the time of going to press reports coming in on the reception and pledges to the War Chest are not so encouraging.

Articles of incorporation for the new community hospital are being prepared for filing, having been submitted to the incorporators and approved.

Phillip S. Palmer, a life-long resident of Northville, died Wednesday morning, November 1 at University Hospital, Ann Arbor.

TEN YEARS AGO

Henry Hoffman and Don Cooper headed the first polo team of Northville, playing against Rochester.

Hunters Finding Rabbits Plentiful

Rabbits are the big surprise at the conservation department's Rose Lake experiment station near here with hunters bagging more cottontails the first nine days of the season than in the entire seasons of 1947 or 1948. Reports indicate this season will be best since 1942.

The station, one of the few locations where the department has a positive check of hunter activity, already has tallied a daughter, were in Detroit Friday evening attending the rehearsal and dinner for the marriage of Joyce Varhol and George Ring.

Young folks of the Livonia Methodist Church sponsored a hayride Wednesday evening. The party seems to have been full of incidents, including the performance of some Halloween pranks.

A Halloween party for the young folks was held Friday evening under the auspices of the Livonia Methodist Church. Young folks of the Neighborhood Church section have requested privilege of a potluck get-together, as a Thanksgiving celebration, near the latter part of the month. Two of the young ladies, Miss Hazen and Miss Bartz, are making plans.

Rally Day was observed in the Neighborhood Bible School Sunday, October 23. A lively well-attended service was the result.

kill of 188 rabbits compared to a 1947 season total of 97 and a 1948 bag of 181.

Season in southern lower peninsula again runs from October 15 - December 31.

Station Manager Ted Black says the area has attracted 1,545 hunters who also have shot 62 wild pheasants in contrast to 1,271 hunters who got 57 native birds last year through this period. Total ringneck take in the shorter 12-day season last year was 62, total hunters, 1,546. Black says this may prove to be the best season at the station since 1944.

Squirrel take is up from 38 last year at this time to 67 so far and sportsmen have included one fox and two woodcock in their bag as well.

The station is open to the public and the only request made of hunters is that they check in and out of the area so an accurate count can be kept on the number using the station and the game kill.

 Many 4-H clubs are planning programs for "National Achievement Week" of the organization which is November 6-12. Much of America is unfamiliar with 4-H club purposes and the good 4-H does. How can we reach those persons who have not learned about our clubs, members write: "what should we try to show the public during achievement week?"
 The aims of the week are: to report the year's total accomplishments of 4-H members; to highlight the contributions of 4-H members to food production and conservation; to aid parents in understanding the accomplishments of their boys and girls; to recognize individual achievement; to develop plans for the coming year and to stimulate enrollment.
 In many states, clubs will be reorganized and goals set for the coming year. Nationally, as well as on a state basis, the week will feature greetings to club members by prominent government officials.
 The public may be reached through newspaper releases and advertisements, circulars, display cards on streetcars and buses and displays in stores and store windows. Achievement award banquets may be held and exhibits featuring projects.
 The challenge to leaders during this special week was expressed by the late Dr. C. B. Smith, former assistant director of the federal extension service.
 "If we continue in 4-H work to stress great living in the minds of rural youth and train men and women who have regard for efficiency, 4-H club work will grow."

 To the many kind friends and the many organizations, I wish to say "Thank you from the bottom of my heart", for the lovely cards and flowers sent to me while in the hospital. James Ritchies to Make Their Home in Plymouth

Doris Trene Cole, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Cole of Plymouth, became the bride of James A. Ritchie, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ritchie of East Main Street Saturday night. The service took place at the First Presbyterian Church in Plymouth.

Beauty baskets of white gladstole, lighted tapers, ferns and palms formed the background for the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a white satin gown which had a fitted bodice with round neckline and small turned down collar and a seed pearl design outlining the yoke. Her full circular skirt fell into a long train. A headpiece of satin held her fingertip veil of net and seed pearls in place. An orchid surrounded by white chrysanthemums formed her colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Harvey Ritchie of West Main Street was the matron-of-honor and she wore a dusty rose taffeta gown. Her colonial bouquet consisted of chrysanthemums shading from lavender to rose. Matching flowers were worn in her hair.

Marcia Hartung of Adrian, a cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid and she wore a deep aqua-taffeta gown. Yellow mums formed her bouquet.

Ronald Ritchie attended, his brother as best man and seating the guests were another brother, Harvey Ritchie and Jack Hartung of Adrian.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony at which the bride's grandmothers, Mrs. Alvina Cole and Mrs. Marie Hartung, presided.

The newlyweds left on a trip to Tampa, Florida. Upon their return they will make their home on Pine Street in Plymouth.

Answer: Yes. That is why millions of American Families do all their food shopping at A & P.

Question: Is A & P a monopoly?

Answer: No. We do only a small share of the nation's food business... a smaller share than we did 10 years ago.

Question: Does A & P drive our competitors out of business?

Answer: No. We have more competitors today than we had 10 years ago and many of our good competitors have publicly advertised their willingness and ability to compete with us.

Why, then, do the anti-trust lawyers want to put your A & P out of business?

Tender Cokers from Corn-fed Porkers!

PORK LOIN ROASTS

Only tender, young, medium-weight pork makes the grade... the "Super-Right" grade... at A & P. What's more, only approximately 1/2 of the loin's weight is taken out of the center to be sold as chops or center-cut roast. That means you get plenty of desirable center meat when you buy a half loin or a rib-end or loin-end roast at A & P. And that means more good eating for your money.

YOUR OLD TRUCK MAY TRADE FOR $25 TO $200 MORE THAN YOU THINK

THESE FOLKS MADE MONEY ON A FORD TRUCK TRADE!

See Ford! Save Money!

Why Don't You?

"My old truck was just about ready for retirement, so when I heard about the big trade-in allowances my Ford Dealer was making, I decided to deal. If I had waited a few months longer, I would have had to take a couple of hundred dollars less for my old truck."—Roy Gigg.

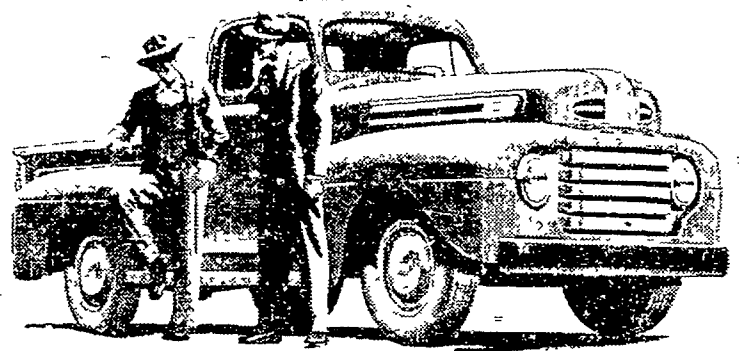

"When I decided to trade in my old truck, I did a little shopping around to see how good a deal I could make. The best deal was at Ford! My old truck brought me $75 more from my Ford Dealer than it would have at three other places."—Ben Heischman.

"My old truck was facing some big repair bills. So, when I heard that my Ford Dealer was making big trade-in allowances, I went down to see. In addition to a dandy allowance, I figure I made a fast $200 on a Ford Truck trade. Used truck prices were slipping so fast that in 90 days, the kind of truck I traded in was selling for $200 less."—Leonard Dobe.

"When I heard my Ford Dealer was making the best truck deals in town, I decided to check. I made up my mind on the spot, and I'm tickled pink I did. Used truck values have slipped in the last three months, so that I figure my quick thinking and fast action got me at least $175 extra on a Ford Truck trade."—Andrew Liggett.

"When he topped the best previous offer by $100, my Ford Dealer proved he was making the best truck deals in town. But that isn't all! I figure I made another $150 by trading rather than waiting because used truck values were slipping so fast."—Sam Perlsten.

Saves gas Ford owners have reported up to 30% savings on fuel! Whether you get the 145-hp. V-8, the 100-hp. V-6, or the 95-hp. Six—you can count on Ford's thirty truck engines to give you top gas economy!

To the Supervisor of the Township of Redford, Wayne County, Michigan:

You are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did, at a meeting of said Board held on Thursday, October 20, 1949, decide and determine that the certain described in the minutes of said Board, heretofore taken over as a County road, should be absolutely abandoned and discontinued as a public highway, reserving thereon the easement set forth in said determination.

The portion of the minutes of said meeting fully describing said alley is attached hereto and made a part of the notice, which is being given and by the virtue of the Public Act of the Public Acts of 1909 as amended.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 27th day of October, A.D. 1949.

BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS - WAYNE COUNTY OF WAYNE, MICHIGAN
Michael J. O'Brien, Chairman
John P. O'Hara, Vice-Chairman
Edgar M. Brantigan, Clerk
By Carl W. Bischoff, Deputy Clerk.

ROAD JURISDICTION DETERMINATION
Commissioner Wilson moved the adoption of the following resolution:

WHEREAS, this Board has received a petition from seven freeholders of the Township of Redford to abandon and discontinue the 20-foot public alley lying between the east side of E. 11th St. and the west side of E. 12th St. in the Township of Redford, Wayne County, Michigan, as recorded in Liber 62 of Plats, on Page 41, Wayne County Record, being in all 0.037 mile of alley, and the same is hereby abandoned and discontinued as a public highway, upon the condition that the same shall be and hereby is reserved an easement for the use and benefit of the public.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the 20-foot public alley lying in the rear of Lots 2103 to 2120 both inclusive of Frischkorn's Grand-Dale Gardens No. 1, being a subdivision of part of the E. 11th St. of Sec. 11, T1S, R10E, Redford Township, Wayne County, Michigan, as recorded in Liber 62 of Plats, on Page 41, Wayne County Record, being in all 0.037 mile of alley, and the same is hereby abandoned and discontinued as a public highway, upon the condition that the same shall be and hereby is reserved an easement for the use and benefit of the public.

IT IS FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board believe it to be in the best interests of the public that said alley be abandoned and discontinued, should the abutting landowners not agree to the same as a public highway, as set forth in the resolution, and that the same be and hereby is reserved an easement for the use and benefit of the public.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Board has hereunto set its hand and seal at Detroit, Michigan, this 27th day of October, A.D. 1949.

RED CROSS CHAPTERS MEET VARIED NEEDS OF SERVICEMEN

The Red Cross Home Service worker looked up from her desk to find an old man holding a telegram and twenty-five dollars.

"My boy wants to come home, but he hasn't got the money for such an expensive trip," the old gentleman said. "He has just returned from 2 years overseas service and is getting a leave before reassignment. His mother has been very sick and I think he might help her to get well. We are living on our family allowance and whatever money my son can send, but I've scraped together this $25. Can you give me enough more to bring him home?"

After verifying the facts, the Home Service worker sent a telegram to the Red Cross field director at the boy's camp, telling of the father's request and of the offer of the twenty-five dollars he could so ill afford. The following day she received an answering wire from the field director:

Under Federal statute and regulations of the Army, the Navy, and the Air Force, the American Red Cross furnishes volunteer aid to the sick and wounded of the armed forces and acts in matter of voluntary relief and as a medium of communication between the people of the United States and their armed forces.

"Return twenty-five dollars to father. Army granting emergency leave and arranging for air transportation home. We are arranging for maintenance and return transportation."

It was only one item in a busy worker's day, but to two old people and a long-absent son it meant a lot.

Often the need is not for financial aid but for help with the unexpected problems that may hit any family and are more acute when the head of the family is thousands of miles away.

It was so with an Air Force sergeant who reenlisted after overseas combat service. He left his wife and children in Kentucky on a farm with his mother-in-law. He also left 25 head of cattle, through which the family income would be supplemented. He thought his family secure for the 3 years of his new enlistment. Then disaster struck. The wife's mother became ill and was compelled to sell the farm and go to live with a distant sister. This left the sergeant's family without housing, and 25 head of cattle without care.

The Red Cross helped the soldier get emergency leave, helped him find suitable living quarters for his wife, and arranged for quick sale of his livestock. The sergeant then returned to duty, content in the knowledge that his wife and two small children were provided for.

Often, the need for help extends beyond the time a man is separated from the service. If, as a veteran, the man and his family continue to need aid, the chapter is ready to help.

That is Red Cross Home Service—a friend and counselor to the perplexed, to those in need, to men and women with problems.

ON CAPITOL HILL
NEWS and COMMENT
FROM CONGRESSMAN
GEORGE A. DONDERO

CIO President Phil Murray says the steel strike primarily is for pensions, as a measure of social security for steel workers. Some captial wags have been saying that to Murray's mind "a raise by any other name would smell as sweet". Whatever its basic reason, whether social security or concealed wage raise, the strike makes little sense when other factors are considered.

The President's fact finding board which, by the way, has no legal standing, wanted the steel industry to make pension payments which would combine with a worker's government social security benefit to give him a retirement income of $100 a month. The board estimated this could be done for about six cents per working hour.

But the Lower House of Congress, in the session just ended, voted to increase old-age and survivor benefits by about 80 per cent. Thus an elderly couple would get as much as $126 per month. I can see small likelihood that the Senate will fail to go along with the House in this.

At the same time, various steel companies have offered to meet Phil Murray's demand for pension payments of ten cents per working hour, but with the proviso that workers shall contribute a few cents an hour to the pension fund if the industry contribution proves insufficient to keep the fund solvent. Whether such worker contributions shall be made appears to be the sole strike issue.

In view of these considerations, what should be done? Should the steel industry pay six cents, or even ten cents, per working hour into the pension fund, and then drastically reduce such payments when and if Congress boosts old-age and survivor benefits, as Congress is almost sure to do? Or should the industry payments be made firm at some point between six and ten cents, regardless of Congressional action?

In the latter event Walter Reuther might be expected to regret his haste in making a pension agreement with the Ford Motor Company. Under this agreement, which runs for five and one-half years Ford must pay into the pension fund only enough to give those who reach age 65 after 30 years with the company a retirement income of $100 a month, including their government social security benefits.

There are cogent reasons why public policy demands that the pattern set by the Ford pension contract shall be followed in any settlement of the steel strike, if Congressional action does not make any final settlement unnecessary, at least so far as pensions are concerned.

The President's fact finding board said "so long as the government fails to provide an adequate amount (of social security benefits), industry should take up the slack". This was wrong because it would not be industry that takes up the slack; it would

Stock Show Draws Farm Youngsters

Farm boys and girls from the world over will figure prominently in affairs of the Golden Jubilee edition of the International Live Stock Exposition.

The big 50th anniversary show is scheduled for November 26 through December 3 in the Amphitheatre of the Chicago Stock Yards.

The Junior Live Stock Feeding Contest at which boys and girls show baby beeves, lambs and barrows of their own raising, and the Junior Livestock Judging Contest, which determines the national winner among state champion teams of amateur livestock judges are among the curtain-raiser on opening day.

Youngsters Win Top Honors
Last year farm youngsters exhibited nearly a thousand head of livestock in the Junior contest. Many of these went on to win top places in the open show for adult livestock feeders. In the 1947 International, two of the three individual show grand champion animals were shown by youngsters.

The auction of livestock shown by boys and girls last year totaled nearly half a million dollars.

The 28th National 4-H Club Congress will be held in downtown Chicago to augment the affairs of International week. It will bring the cream of farm youth—its delegates to the congress. They will have a huge exhibit in the Amphitheatre during the eight-day show.

On Wednesday more than a thousand club members will be guests at a matinee horse show and supper at the Exposition and, in the evening will parade under banners in the arena, providing what many believe is the most colorful and moving spectacle of the entire week.

Several College Events
College-age young men and women will have their special events at the Exposition. They will have their Collegiate Livestock Judging Contest opening day at which agricultural college teams will compete.

The judging contest for agricultural students was begun 50 years ago at the first International. Through the years many top winners in the contest have become agricultural leaders of the nation.

The International Grain and Hay Show, held as a part of the Exposition, will have its Collegiate Crop Judging Contest for agricultural students, and the Meat Show sponsored by the National Live Stock and Meat Board, will have its Inter-Collegiate Meat Judging contest.

Boxing Cassafles
Five boxers were killed as a result of bouts up to April 20, 1949, 15 in 1948, nine during 1947, and 11 in 1946.

HERE'S Good Advice TO USERS OF COAL

FOUNDATION UNDERMINED. NO FOOTING

Farmers should always be on the alert to the danger of runoff water washing away footings under foundations, particularly on outbuildings where such caution, normally, might not be exercised. When runoff water washes away footings under foundations, the building settles.

Edison Festivities Attended By Gov'r

Dedication of Detroit Edison Company's 100,000 kilowatt turbo-generator at the Trenton Channel plant, recently, was hailed by Gov. G. Mennen Williams as an "expression of faith in the future of Michigan, worthy of the audacity, the vision, courage and stature of the spirit of Paul Bunyan, which motivates our champion state."

Governor Williams was the principal speaker at a luncheon attended by representatives of state and local governments, the churches, military services, industry and labor, farm and veterans' groups.

The new giant turbo-generator is the first of two. The second will be in operation early next year, two major steps in Edison's five-year, $200,000,000 expansion program.

Additional power provided by these important additions will flow into new homes, new and enlarged factories, offices, stores, churches, farms, schools, hospitals, large and small centers of recreation, and amusement. It will increase industrial production, expand old and develop new sources of wealth, creating profitable employment upon which the community depends.

James W. Parker, Edison president emphasized: Prentiss M. Brown, Edison chairman, reported that every home, place of business and farm in Edison's southeastern Michigan territory could have all the electricity needed, contrasting this with England where even the smallest electric iron is prohibited because of the shortage of power under the Socialist government.

C. E. Wilson, president of General Electric Co., W. A. Mayberry, president Detroit Board of Commerce, Brig-General C. S. Perrin, representing the Military district, and J. A. McCartney, chairman Michigan Public Service Commission, emphasized that the Edison expansion had national and international significance, confirming the ability and willingness of American industry not only to meet and to anticipate needs, but to contribute to their realization.

The $200 million expansion will be financed by thousands of people through their investments in stocks and bonds of the company. Edison now has 51,800 stockholders, 26,500 of whom live in Michigan.

In the last 19 years in which records have been kept of gunshot accidents occurring in Michigan hunting seasons 486 persons have died and 1,536 more have been injured.

When you talk about VALVE-IN-HEAD you're talking about FIREBALL BUICK VALVE-IN-HEAD

The Power that made Buick Famous

If you want to know what's "the newest thing" in automobile engines, look at the Buick engine pictured here, and you'll see the words "valve-in-head." But it happens that this isn't new with Buick. As a matter of fact, the valve-in-head engine was invented back in 1902—U.S. Patent No. 771095—and immediately, Buick adopted the principle, which became the first in a long string of "Buick firsts." Not everyone went for the idea—then. In spite of the fact that this engine "breathes" more freely—gets fuel in and exhaust gases out more easily—others hung onto their pet ideas. Then came the airplane, with its need for maximum power from every drop of fuel—and every maker of internal combustion airplane engines adopted the valve-in-head principle. And more recently—with the hope that higher-octane fuels will become available—a lot of automotive engine designers are taking a new look at the valve-in-head idea. But just for the record, we'd like to point out that Buick got there first. And ever since, Buick has gone steadily ahead, building up a name as "valve-in-headquarters." Buick engineers reshaped pistons to put Fireball wallop in these engines. They stepped up compression ratios as fast as better fuels came along. So perhaps you'll want to remember, when you hear the term "valve-in-head," that this is the type of power that made Buick famous. If others want to climb on the bandwagon, we say "more power to them"—and no pun is intended. But Buick has been doing more with valve-in-head right from the start. And—we might add—it stands to reason that Buick is not-through making this type of engine better and better.

Keep DDT Away From Dairy Cows Experts Cite Danger Of Milk Contamination

The U. S. department of agriculture's entomologists have issued a warning that DDT should not be used for insect control on dairy cows.

Even small amounts of DDT in food such as milk—a universal diet for infants and small children—might prove harmful in time, according to toxicologists of the food and drug administration who have studied the subject for several years. They say presence of the chemical in milk would be contrary to the food, drug and cosmetic act.

It may be a temptation to use DDT in order to keep your dairy herd looking as sleek and contented as these animals, but authorities warn against it.

The entomologists now recommend methoxychlor, another effective insecticide, be substituted for DDT to control insect pests on dairy cows.

Federal entomologists make no change in their recommendations for the use of DDT in controlling insect pests on other livestock, including beef cattle.

The department's entomologists, chemists, and veterinarians, cooperating in the investigation of the toxicology of DDT, and other insecticides, say the application of DDT directly to milk cows for controlling insects results in the presence of small quantities of the insecticide in the milk. They say although DDT in small quantities can be detected sometimes in milk following ordinary use of the insecticide for fly control in dairy barns.

The bureau of entomology and plant quarantine has repeatedly cautioned that forage treated with DDT and other chlorinated hydrocarbon insecticides should not be fed to dairy animals or to livestock being finished for slaughter. A number of new insecticides are under investigation by federal entomologists for controlling insects on cows and in dairy establishments.

Leaves Tell Story

The leaves on corn plants tell whether the crop is well fed or starved. That can make a lot of difference at the harvest. For only well fed corn can produce high yields, well filled kernels and good quality ears.

Growers should take a little time to examine those corn leaves in the field. Healthy, well fed corn is a deep, dark green. Any other color spells trouble. It means that the corn plant is starving for one or more of the three plant nutrients—nitrogen, phosphate or potash.

Figure 1 in the illustration shows a typical case of nitrogen hunger. The signs show first at the tip then spread to the midrib of the lower leaves. The middle of the leaf turns yellow and dies.

Figure 2 illustrates potash starvation. It shows on the tips and edges of the leaves. These turn yellow and later look scorched. Corn hungry for potash has weak roots and stalks. It lodges easily. Potash starvation signs can appear at any stage of the corn's growth.

Barn Hay Driers Attract Attention of Many Farmers

Barn hay driers have been attracting a lot of attention recently and many farmers are reported thinking of installing equipment in order to assure themselves of higher-quality hay.

Usually any information desired on techniques or equipment for this work can be obtained from the local county farm agent, or from extension service specialists at the various state universities.

Buying a farm is one of the biggest business transactions of a lifetime. Michigan State College agricultural specialists suggest that farm buyers talk to the county agricultural agent for information about farming in the region where they intend to buy.
