

Girl Scout Benefit Party Goal Set for $350.00

One week from next Tuesday, February 7, the annual Girl Scout Benefit will be held under the sponsorship of the Executive Council and adult members of the Northville Girl Scout Association. It will be held at 8:00 p. m. at the Veterans' Memorial Hall and the High school gymnasium and will take the form of a card party.

Tickets are $1.00 per person and the ticket committee urges all friends of Scouting to make up a table of four, whenever possible and the group may select the game of their choice. All types of card games will be played and dessert and coffee will be served later in the evening.

The goal of the drive in terms of money is $350.00 which makes up the entire amount of the budget for the year's Scouting program. The number of girls actively represented now numbers 80 which, in terms of money spent per year, per girl, comes to less than $2.00 per girl. All monies collected in the drive are used in Northville.

The community is invited to examine the budget which has been set up for 1950. Three hundred and fifty dollars represents an abundance of fellowship and community spirit when interpreted in terms of what can be accomplished for the girls by wise planning.

Money has been apportioned to cover expenses for holding Day Camp again this year for assuming our share of expenses in maintaining the established camp for girls of this area; for purchasing books and supplies necessary for troop handicrafts, camp life and nature study. Money had been designated to establish camperships for needy girls and to send a delegate to the national convention each year.

Another budget item the importance of which cannot be overestimated is the leaders training program which assures the troops of the best possible leadership. These are the main uses to which the money will be put. It is also hoped that this year will see the start of an outdoor camping unit, bedrolls, tents, utensils, etc. that will facilitate more actual outdoor camping for the girls. Any surplus or additional money received during the year will be used for this purpose.

Mrs. Walter Couse, Benefit chairman, hopes for the aid of the entire community in this annual drive. Any donations will be gratefully accepted and may be sent to Mrs. J. P. Mauley, President, Beck Road, Northville.

Many Employees at Ford Family Party

A "Ford Family Party" was held at the Northville High school Wednesday evening for employees of the local Ford plant and their families. "The Human Bridge," a Ford documentary motion picture, depicting the creative talents and skills of 140,000 Ford Motor Company employees, was shown.

The movie told the dramatic industrial story of how an idea in the minds of a few men resulted in the manufacture of more than a million cars. The unusual motion picture told with simple realism how the new Ford was produced, showing how the production sweeps across the birth and growth of a new car from the drawing board to final assembly. Special showings now are being held throughout the country for Ford employees and their families. Title of the motion picture was taken from an inscription above the main entrances to the company's engineering laboratory in Dearborn.

Safety Record Set by Bell Telephone

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company had the safest year on record in 1949, when a low of only 13 lost-time accidents occurred for 8,000 plant department employees throughout the state.

These men, with the performance of 16,000,000 man-hours of work, took part in the company's annual safety contest. The safety record applied to time spent actually on the job or in company vehicles going to and from regular work assignments.

In announcing the results of last year's contest, Erwin E. Scherdt, manager here for Michigan Bell, said the company's safety program covers all phases of construction, installation, and repair work, as well as the operation and maintenance of a fleet of over 3,000 motor vehicles, the handling of heavy equipment, and the up-keep of central offices.

"Those taking part in the contest included installers, repairmen, linemen, spicers, engineers, and building and motor equipment forces."

"They are on the job during good weather and bad, during normal times and during emergencies, to meet Michigan Bell's growing telephone needs on a 24 hour, day-by-day basis," Scherdt said.

"The importance of personal safety is maintained continuously as the number one objective of the plant department."

"In doing their work, the men realize that no job is so important and no service is so urgent that they cannot take time to perform their work safely," he said.

The force taking part in the safety drive is divided into 27 separate groups of from 50 to 700 employees each which annually compete for highest honors.

Motorists Urged To Buy '50 Plates Now

T. R. Carrington, local representative for the Department of State, was notified this week by F. M. Alger, Jr., secretary of state, that there are 2,153,364 automobile owners in Michigan who have not obtained 1950 license plates for their vehicles.

At this time last year, an average of 11,000 people daily were securing their plates, while this year the average has been less than 8,000. Making the job of re-licensing even more difficult is the fact that there are 170,000 more motor vehicles owned in Michigan now than in January of last year.

Two good reasons why the public is urged to secure plates early are: first, such action will enable them to secure more rapid service and second, the last minute rushes are exceedingly costly to the state.

To complete the sale by February 28th in the days remaining more than 63,000 people must apply daily and unless the average daily sales pick up very soon, indications are that in the last few days of the sale, there will be long waiting lines of those who have waited until the last minute.

of the best dramas of the year, "Madwoman of Chailot" to Arthur Miller's "Death of A Salesman", "Death of A Salesman" says much about the importance or illusion in life and its tragic implications, she said, and some of the same theme is seen in the second play.

Newspapers of Michigan each year salute Michigan agriculture through a "All-Michigan Dinner" sponsored by the Michigan Press Association, Inc., in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Agriculture.

This annual climax to the State Convention was held Saturday evening, January 21, and again newspaper editors learned new facts about the remarkable and varied history of modern Michigan.

For example, a baked potato was served to dinner guests as a reminder that Michigan holds the national championship potato record for 1949, if not for all previous years, in the remarkable yield of 1,038 bushels per acre on the Marquette county farm of Paul Van Damme.

D. L. Clannahan, farm crops extension specialist at Michigan State College, has searched American records of high yields on unirrigated land and can find no previous claim of such heavy production.

Van Damme reported his high yield in late September, 1949, and it was checked by R. H. Kaven, Marquette county agricultural agent. The yield of 1,038 bushels of potatoes to an acre came from a six acre plot of recently cleared land on the Van Damme farm.

Thus a Michigan farmer again has established a remarkable food record of high production.

A half century ago Michigan was recognized as a leader in the potato production of the United States. With the growth and new developments in this culture in other parts of the nation, Michigan now ranks 10th.

During the past year 17,160,000 bushels of potatoes were produced; most of this production being in the upper half of the lower peninsula and the upper peninsula.

Twenty-five years ago considerable of Michigan's supply of potatoes was produced in the southern half of lower Michigan. This acreage has almost disappeared and judging by the acreage now in the upper peninsula, it appears that most of it has moved up there.

It may not be news to readers of the "Michigan Mirror" but Michigan represents over 90 percent of the navy bean crop of the nation. As usual more than likely shipments will be made to every state east of the Rocky Mountains and an important supply will go abroad to meet foreign trade needs.

The rich Thumb area is the navy bean capitol of the United States.

The growing dairy industry in Michigan, which now produces nearly one-third of the total agricultural income, was represented by a dairy snack bar presided over by the 1949 dairy queen, Miss Jane McKimmy, 17, Beaverton high school student.

Approximately 140,000 farmers in Michigan have one million cows daily producing milk supplies for use as a health-giving beverage, butter, cheese and other dairy products.

Last December 19 a four year old Holstein cow, "Minnow Creek Eden Repeat", completed one year lactation period during which time she produced 35,243 pounds of milk. This set a new national record for volume of milk production, and it gave to Michigan another championship honor in the field of agriculture. If all of the butter fat produced by this one cow had been processed into butter, it would have totaled 1,530 pounds! This production, the achievement of F. K. Merkley of Flint, is equivalent to that of the production of six average cows.

Member newspapers of the Michigan Press Association, Inc., most of which are in small towns and rural areas, take great pride in the 1949 achievement of 170,000 farms which produced more than $600,000,000 of agricultural products.

In volume this record exceeded previous yields, but in value, due to decline of commodity prices in 1949, it was somewhat below the previous year's high.

These achievements are taken from a miniature newspaper front page which was distributed to newspaper editors and their guests at the dinner. Co-sponsor of the "All-Michigan Dinner", was the Michigan Department of Agriculture, administered by the Michigan Agricultural Commission.

Woodchuck Nuisance
Woodchucks are nuisances on any farm or pasture. Many a head of livestock has broken its leg by stepping into one of these holes. The mounds of dirt around the holes interfere with farm machinery. These animals destroy a certain amount of grain but their main damage is done in their burrowing.

JANUARY 16-31
March of Dimes

THE SUPPORT of American newspapers in emergency fund drives to combat infantile paralysis is appreciated by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The 1950 appeal is scheduled for January 16-31.

Acting public relations director Dorothy Ducas expressed her thanks recently for aid extended by American newspapers during the 1949 polio epidemic emergency drive.

"It is gratifying to know that publishers realized the obligation of the National Foundation to inform the public of the grim facts of record incidence and overwhelming costs," she said. "Their assistance helped make it possible for us to fulfill that obligation."

The drive was a stop-gap measure to raise funds so that the National Foundation would be able to continue its help to infantile paralysis patients until the regular January March of Dimes. The epidemic last summer, expected to boost the 1949 toll to a record of more than 40,000 cases, wiped out the national epidemic aid fund of the National Foundation.

The epidemic emergency developed so rapidly that it was not possible to organize a full appeal staffed by volunteers. "Although infantile paralysis is no longer on the front pages," Miss Ducas added, "the long and costly program of follow-up care and rehabilitation for this year's victims of the disease is continuing."

MSC Veterinary Facilities Top Bids for Funds

Enlarged veterinary facilities topped the list of capital outlay improvements sought for Michigan State College in a requested legislative appropriation totalling $5,984,400, according to Secretary Karl H. McDonel.

The request embodied total building funds necessary during the 1950-51 school year, McDonel said.

Urgent need for improved veterinary facilities was spotlighted in 1948 when the American Veterinary Medicine Association tendered a highly critical report on college facilities.

Association spokesmen threatened withdrawal of recognition from MSC if improvements were not made. Subsequently, the college was forced to reduce new classes of veterinary medicine students from 96 to 64.

The legislature appropriated $90,600 for building plans in the regular session last March. Plans call for a new building, connecting the present veterinary clinic and anatomy building, and modernization of the older buildings. Estimated cost of the building is $2,174,400.

High on the list was a request for $3,000,000 to build a new library to replace one designed for 3,000 students. It is inadequate in the face of enrollments of more than 16,000, McDonel said.

Appropriations were also asked for an underground water reservoir for fire protection, and permanent buildings to replace temporary classroom and office buildings.

Open Hearth Record

A record was set in the production of 34,400,000 tons of open hearth steel in 1923. This tonnage was equalled in less than six months of 1948.

WEST POINT PARK NEWS

By Miss L. A. Ault

Mr. and Mrs. John Ackerman of Dearborn and Mrs. Carl Russell of Detroit called on Mrs. M. E. Ault Monday evening.

The Sandaus of Hubbard Ave. have one after another been ill with flu during the last few weeks. Merwyn, the eldest son, lost his first day of school in two and one-half years.

Mrs. M. E. Ault was in Detroit Wednesday evening attending the birthday dinner of her son, Robert Hunter, at his home on Burt.

Herman Schult is leaving Friday for a few weeks' employment in Florida.

The Imonens of Hubbard Ave. had open house Thursday afternoon and evening, honoring the 4th birthday of Mrs. Imonen's father, Mr. Gamble.

Honoring the 18th birthday of their daughter, Lois, Mr. and Mrs. Velve Barnes gave a nice dinner Thursday evening.

The Jeffersons, who have been occupying the Richardson property on Mayfield avenue for a few months, plan moving to Wayne in the early spring. It is understood that the Richardson property has been sold.

Arguments for and against incorporation of Livonia township still monopolize much of the conversation whenever a group of people happen to meet. This week, efforts were being made to arrange for a get-together of women from the neighborhood section, which has problems somewhat different from other parts of the township. Officials are to be on hand to answer questions and give information concerning the forthcoming election.

Coastguardsman Wayne Ault is doing his usual weekend visiting. His location is still Cleveland.

Mrs. Van Auker, who formerly resided in what is now known as the Diehle property on Shady-side avenue, has returned to California after a lengthy visit with relatives on Six Mile Road. Mrs. Van Auker is convalescing from a serious illness. A daughter traveled with her.

Donna Posner was a Detroit visitor Saturday.

Leftover Chicken
A good way to use bits of leftover chicken or turkey is to combine them with mushroom soup and fold in cooked noodles. Pour the mixture into a casserole and sprinkle with margarine bread crumbs and nippy cheese. Bake about 20 minutes and you have an excellent main course.

NEWS
CONGRESSMAN
GEORGE A. DONDERO

For the fourth successive year since the end of World War II President Truman has presented to Congress a federal spending budget in excess of the one he submitted the year before. Each successive request has set a new all-time high for government spending in peacetime.

He has proposed a budget of $42,439,000,000 for the 1951 fiscal year beginning next July 1. But government receipts for the period are estimated at only $37, 306,000,000. Thus the President has in effect recommended deficit spending to the extent of $5,133,000,000. He has beckoned the nation farther along the perilous road of deficit financing it has traveled for eighteen out of the past twenty years.

This is bad enough, but it is not all that the President has proposed. His budget request contains also a proposal for $9,200,000,000 of so-called contract authority, by means of which federal agencies would be empowered to obligate the full amount next year in advance of appropriation by Congress.

Having been obligated under contracts for construction or other services, the money would be spent just as effectively as though it had been included with that portion of the budget for which appropriations will be made by this session of Congress. Government credit must be maintained by fulfillment of these contracts.

Therefore it requires only a simple exercise in arithmetic to arrive at the conclusion that granting of the requested contract authority would raise next year's government deficit from $5,133,000,000 to $14,333,000,000.

In his budget message the President expressed a hope that deficit financing will end presently, when foreign aid and defense outlays are reduced, and when a higher national income will yield greater federal tax revenues. But what certainty do we have that these things will come about?

Furthermore, the President's budget message took no account of the fact that future outlays for the new socialistic spending programs, including social welfare measures financed by payroll taxes, eventually would impose on all the people new tax burdens of such staggering proportions as to dwarf any possible reduction in government salaries or in spending for national defense and foreign aid, however substantial these might be.

In his frenzied search for means of buying the votes of all minority pressure groups, the President ignores the distance this nation has traveled along the road to socialization, and to eventual bankruptcy, with its train of ills such as total destruction of property values, paralysis of industry, and actual suffering and want. This to say nothing of the loss of American freedoms.

The time is here right now to face up to the deficit problem and solve it without delay. Congress would do well to avail itself of the blueprint for a $36,000,000,000 budget for 1951 recently made public by Senator Harry F. Byrd of Virginia.

Byrd shows that the federal establishment next year can live within its $37,306,000,000 income and at the same time provide all services essential to the nation's defense, the welfare of the people and their economic well-being.

Pays to Mechanize

The mechanical age is paying dividends on the farm as well as in industry, says the Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar association. A century ago 64 man-hours of labor were required to produce an acre of wheat, now less than 10 hours are needed. One hundred fifty years ago the labor of 19 farm workers was necessary to produce the food consumed by one person living in the city, now one worker can produce for four people living in the cities.

HERE'S A LOOK AT BASEBALL FROM A DIFFERENT ANGLE

In practically no time at all, gloves and balls and bats will come out of closets all over the nation, and baseball, the Great American Sport, will slip into high gear.

The weather can't seem to make up its mind what the season is, and every mild day sees the fresh entry into conversation of such words as "four bagger," "fanned," "shut out" and "curve ball." And sooner or later someone mentions the forgotten man of baseball, the umpire.

Let's take a look at baseball as seen by one of the "forgotten men," Ray Westphall, 218 High street, an umpire in the American Association, just one step down from the major leagues.

"An umpire," says Ray, "is on a diamond to see that games are played according to the rules. He's there to enforce rules, not explain them, except in cases of rules which are seldom broken, and therefore unfamiliar.

Umpires can't afford to be partial, Ray claims, despite comments to the contrary hurled from the stands, occasionally accompanied by paper boxes, hats and pop bottles. In the American Association, which consists of Kansas City, Mo., Toledo, Ohio; Columbus, Ohio; Louisville, Ky.; St. Paul, Minn.; Milwaukee, Wisc.; Indianapolis, Ind., and Minneapolis, Minn., umpires work in teams of three, rotating from the plate to third base to first base, and moving from game to game according to a pre-conceived schedule. Bruce Dudley, the league president, is responsible for hiring them.

Performances of umpires are constantly checked by a crew of supervisors headed by William Carpenter, who is chief supervisor for all minor baseball leagues, which number about 59. He is aided by four or five men, all experts.

"We quickly become used to comments from the stands and are not bothered by them," Ray commented. "Besides, the better the league the easier it is to call the plays. Umpires seldom have trouble with good players. They usually know when they're out and don't argue about it."

We asked the "how" of becoming an umpire and Westphall answered, "It's not complicated. I went to a school, George Barr's umpire school at Orlando, Florida, now located at Sanford, Fla. There are several good schools now in operation, the sessions lasting from six to eight weeks. At the finish, if the student is any good, he's recommended and usually hired by one of the leagues, probably starting in Class D ball. Big men are preferred (Ray is a husky six footer) but smaller men are not handicapped."

Westphall added that he had never umpired a game before attending Barr's school. An athlete from the early days of his youth, Ray was on a player draft to the White Sox when another kind of draft got him in 1941. While stationed at Camp Grant, Ill., he played football and basketball and became acquainted with Art Passarella, the American league umpire, who now conducts an umpire's school at Bartow, Fla.

Westphall's wife, Audrey, had first suggested umpiring as an occupation, and when Passarella mentioned the same thing, Ray got serious.

He attended Barr's school after discharge from the army in 1946, broke into Class D baseball, and moved up to the American Association on July 4, 1947. "Umpires are drafted from league to league in the same manner as ball players," says Westphall. "They move up according to ability. At the present time there are more jobs than good students in the schools, with the 59 minor leagues requiring approximately eight umpires each."

"We need to brush up every spring," Ray added. "This is done by working exhibition games during and after spring training. Many of us officiate at football and basketball games during the winter to keep eyes and judgment sharp." At present, Ray is officiating at basketball games in the South Lyon area.

Westphall, along with other American Association umpires, will gather with the league president just before the season opens and go over rulebook changes thoroughly. The book has been rewritten and clarified this year.

"The requirements for good umpires are, generally, sharp eyes and judgment and a love for the game. That's important. If a man doesn't really love the game he might as well forget becoming an umpire," Ray emphasized, and added that if any of the boys in town are interested in becoming umpires, he will be glad to talk to them, separately or in groups.

Mustangs Nudge Clarenceville, 31-30

The Northville Mustangs lost a 23-19 third quarter lead, went behind two points and came back to nick the Clarenceville basketball five by one point last Monday night, 31-30.

The game was a near-perfect illustration of the value of free throws. Dick Gray's successful toss broke a 30-30 deadlock in the final minute, but statistics show the real difference: Northville had 11 baskets and made nine out of 18 free throws, a 50 percent average. Clarenceville also had 11 baskets, had 20 free throws and made eight. It doesn't take a mathematician to see that the game was decided at the foul line.

At the beginning of the third quarter the Mustangs led 23-19, but Clarenceville knotted the count at 28-28 with about two minutes left in the game. Godette put Clarenceville ahead with a hook shot from the foul circle, then missed a free throw after being fouled. Gerry Heaton, who collected 11 points on four baskets and three foul shots, looped one in to tie up the game and Dick Gray's free throw provided the winning margin.

The Colts had a bad first half but came from behind to clip the Clarenceville reserves, 26-21, last Monday night on Clarenceville's new floor.

The Colts were trailing 7-1 in the first quarter and pulled up to 9-8 at the half. Spagnuolo, Sommers and Rebitzke combined to push the score to 20-15 in Northville's favor at the three-quarter mark and Lee added a basket to Spagnuolo's two in the final frame to keep the Colt margin intact. Faler tallied nine points for Clarenceville.

Barons Suffocate Under Hail Storm of Packer Goals

The league-leading Easton-Packars went on a scoring spree last Monday night at Riverside Arena in Plymouth and smothered the Detroit Barons, 18-4, in the last game to be played at Riverside this year. All teams in the Michigan-Ontario Amateur Roller Hockey league will play their games hereafter at Arcadia Roller Rink on Woodward avenue on Wednesday nights.

The Packers looped in ten goals in the first period of Monday's game while the Barons were tallying only one. The Packers got two in the second frame but the Packers added three to boast their lead to 13-3, and went on to garner five more in the last period.

Joe LaFrancia got six goals and Sam Tome had five. Charrier and Fuzzy Sutherland scored two each, and Campeau, Dick LaFrancia and Gorman got one each.

Both the Packers and Barons had two men in the penalty box in the closing minutes of the third period. Tome and Cox, as usual, got into a slugfest and were banished from the floor for five minutes.

Young Sluggers To Participate in Boxing Program

The first boxing show this season for the Plymouth Recreation Boxing club will begin at 8 p. m. Saturday evening, January 28, at Plymouth High school. There will be about 15 bouts. The program is sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars of Plymouth.

Taking part in bouts will be boys from the Wayne, Ann Arbor and Plymouth boxing clubs, the last name including boxers from Plymouth, Northville and Livonia township.

No Northville boys will take part in the first week's card because of their late entrance in the program, according to the director of the Plymouth Recreation program, but will be included in later shows. The director expressed hope that more Northville boys will enter the program in the future.

Plymouth is now affiliated with the Michigan AAU, which supplies referees, judges and timers. Boxing in Plymouth is under the supervision of Mike Spitz.

The 15 bouts Saturday night will be short, consisting of three two-minute rounds. Bob Burley is chairman of the ticket committee.

Keego Harbor Five Stops Mustangs

The Mustangs lost their fourth basketball game this year when a powerful Keego Harbor quintet rolled up a 50-23 win at the NHS gym last Friday night.

Keego's Vanderculk was the top scorer for the night, looping in ten baskets and three free throws for 23 points. Scoring for the Mustangs was fairly even, with Bud Porter high with six points. Dick Gray and Bob Cole got four each on field goals, and Johnny Poulos, Ron Jennings and Tom Shraake each hit the bucket once. Gerry Heaton added a free throw to a field goal for three points.

The Colts were outscored by Keego Harbor's reserves, 44-30, in the game preceding the varsity tilt. Pete Spagnuolo racked up 19 points for Northville and Collins got 15 for Keego.

The Mustangs and Colts will play Keego Harbor again in the season's last scheduled game February 24. Keego's only loss this season was to Farmington.

Basketball NEWS

The Brighton High School basketball squad will visit the NHS gym tomorrow night, Friday, with hopes of evening the score against the Mustangs in the current cage series. Brighton lost to Northville 27-15 December 9 at the Hartland gym.

The Mustangs had a little bit of fast adjusting to do at Clarenceville last Monday. The big, new floor was quite different from the small courts usually found in this area.

The great rise in spectator interest in basketball the last few years puts schools with older gyms at a disadvantage, since little or no space was provided for the game's fans. The Clarenceville gym, planned with spectators in mind, has enough space on both sides of the floor to seat 800 persons comfortably.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of Eva Martz, who passed away Jan. 29, 1949.
Sweetest memories are all that are left.
Of a loved one so precious we'll never forget.
No earthly wealth could ever replace
Her smiling face and loving ways.
Always thoughtful, willing and kind
What a beautiful memory she left behind.
Sadly missed by her Husband and Daughter. 34x
