Parking Meter Funds Discussed

Since the Village had the parking meters installed, a lot of discussion has been going on, pro and con for the merits of the meters.

A talk with Mayor Conrad E. Langfield reveals that the meters were installed in the Village at no cost for a six month's trial. If at the end of that time, they are not desired the Ypsilanti Park-O-Meter Company will be asked to remove them. The meters will be paid for out of the coins taken from them, fifty per cent of which is kept in the Village and the remaining being taken by the company in payment for the meters.

The money which is being received from the meters, the mayor stated, will be set aside for improving the alleys in the Village and for eventually buying a Village parking lot. The location or the hours of the meters, are subject to change and they can be removed or transferred to more desirable spots when it is deemed wise.

Parking meters are effective in Northville from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and from 9:00 a.m. to 8:30 p.m. on Friday and Saturday. They are not in effect on Sundays and holidays.

Chicken Dinner To Be Served Tonight

The Methodist Church will sponsor their annual chicken pie dinner tonight, Thursday, at the church house. The ladies of the W.S.C.S. at the request of the Official Board of the church, and with the cooperation of the various groups of the church, are planning this event which is open to the public.

Mrs. Oscar Hammond, Roy Stone, Fred Clark and D. J. Stark are directing the dinner which will be served from 5:30 to 7:30. Those who have not yet obtained tickets may get them at the door.

Proceeds for the dinner will be used for needed repairs to the church property. It is expected that as soon as weather permits, the sidewalks will be raised and the driveways fixed.

Besides this chicken pie dinner, a pancake and sausage dinner will be served in March with Ed Bogart in charge and Fred Fry will have charge of a fish fry in April. All proceeds from these dinners will go towards repairs and decorating of the sanctuary.

5 Hobby Classes Offered Villagers

Mrs. Hugh G. Godfrey and Lynn Sullivan, Recreation Committee members on the program committee, report that requests have been made for classes in oil or water painting, fly tying, beginners and advanced sewing, ceramics and public speaking.

To begin each of these hobby classes, at least 10 adults must sign up for a class. Those persons in the community interested in any of the classes are asked to contact either Mrs. Godfrey or Mr. Sullivan or else leave their name and address with Mrs. Mary Alexander at the Village Hall. Funk To Organize Village Boy's Club

A joint meeting of the Village Commission, Township Board and Recreation Committee was called last Friday evening by Mayor Conrad E. Langfield for the purpose of discussing the future of the Village and Township recreation program.

Members of the various groups were called upon by the mayor to voice their opinion as to the merits of the program and it was generally agreed that the Village and Township should continue their support in financing the work. Edward Mollma pointed out that all Northville spends per boy per hour in the Recreation program is twelve and one-half cents, which is far less than any other community spends to keep its recreation program going.

It was suggested by the group present that Wilson Funk proceed with the organization of the Northville Boy's Club. The boys would receive membership cards and would elect their own leader and governing body. Both the Village Commission and Township Boards expressed their desire to increase the Recreation Committee's budget so that the program may be expanded.

Gas Co. To Serve 6000 New Accounts

Approximately 6,000 home owners in this part of Michigan will be able to install gas furnaces in 1950 as a result of Michigan Public Service Commission action.

The commission made increased gas heating possible in Michigan by removing restrictions on new installations.

Consumers' Power company Pontiac division office made the 6,000 estimate today on the basis of present distribution of its natural gas customers in Michigan.

The long awaited lifting of space heating restrictions permits the company to serve as many customers as its recently expanded facilities and supplies will allow.

D. E. Karn, vice-president and general manager, estimates that 15,000 new space heating customers can be connected this year. He points out that despite the new order some customers will have to wait until next year.

David L. Brown, Division Manager, states that the Pontiac Division handles approximately one-third of the company's 288,000 Michigan customers.

If this proportion is maintained, he points out, Consumers will be able to serve about 6,000 new customers.

Old applications are valid and will be checked carefully before new applications are processed, Mr. Brown states.

No new gas furnaces may be installed until the company has approved customer's written applications, and the customer has been notified in writing by the Company that they can be served. Watch your local newspaper for further instructions or information, or contact our local office in your community.

MSC "Flying Classroom" Goes to Europe

Michigan State College will launch its first annual European "Flying Classroom" March 18, under direction of Prof. Carl M. Horn, head of continuing education at MSC. Horn, left, discusses plans with M. A. Waldo of Waldo Travel Agency in Lansing, technical consultant for the tour, and Dr. Paul H. Kinsel, right, director of travel service for the National Education Association. Sixty top-flight educators from every state in the nation will take part in the six-week flying field study of economic, political, social and educational conditions in 12 European countries, including if possible, Czechoslovakia. Several thousand organizations will join hands to provide scholarships for one representative from each state, as selected by state educational committees. Horn is the nation's leading exponent of "education with wings" and has directed five regional and national "Flying Classroom" studies in the past five years.

out from Detroit the first of the week to visit Mrs. Ring's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Varhol on Shadyside avenue. The Rings will be leaving shortly for a two weeks vacation trip to Alabama, where they will be guests of Mr. Ring's relatives. They will return by way of New York and visit friends there.

Mrs. John Aittama was confined to her home most of last week with flu accompanied by an ear infection.

A celebration honoring the 5th birthday of Janet, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schult, was held at the Schults residence on Shadyside avenue.

Mrs. Charles A. Armstrong called Tuesday at the Glenbrook Hospital on Newburg.

Mrs. Louis Graham has taken a position at the Convalescent Hospital in Thirteen Mile Road.

Death of a friend called Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Tallman to Detroit last Tuesday evening.

The Safety Patrol of Pierson School gave a tea at the school Wednesday at 4 o'clock.

Marion Bolyard was a visitor in Monroe Wednesday.

Norfolk and Hubbard avenue seemed too much of a risk for the school bus Thursday. Consequently boys and girls met it on Eight Mile Road. However, before the day was over road conditions had improved considerably.

Mrs. Clyde Buckingham and son, Wallace, spent Friday afternoon in Detroit.

School children transferring from one school to another this mid-season have been having a few days vacation.

First Graders of Pierson School go on full day session Monday, the 29th.

Monday afternoon, January 23, about twenty-five women of the section near Eight Mile Road gathered in the little Neighborhood Church and after a brief devotional service listened to a talk and joined in a discussion regarding the proposed incorporation of Livonia Township. Harry Wolfe, Sr., was the speaker. The ladies seemed chiefly interested in learning whether, in the case of incorporation, better roads and transportation should be secured and the mail service remain good. It was later discovered that the county would still be obliged to carry a large share of the road upkeep, that the postal system depends solely upon the Federal government, and that while a township cannot, a city can grant franchise to a bus company.

Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson of Clarita avenue is taking her first air flight this weekend. She will go to Akron for a ten day visit with relatives. During her absence, her mother, Mrs. M. E. Ault, will care for the Johnson home and children.

The Turners of Seven Mile Road have recovered from their recent illness.

Mrs. Frank Gould, Farmington Road, is a flu convalescent.

Mrs. E. W. Stange was hostess to the Sunshine Sisters Wednesday afternoon. A dozen ladies were on hand for the occasion. "Remembering the sick" was the topic and after devotional service, was fully discussed. With flowers now being unwelcome in many hospitals and sick-rooms; and perfect rest and quiet being prescribed for all types of sicknesses, old practices of cheering ill folks are now out of place, though kindly attentions are still needed.

During the social hour Mrs. Stange served cake and sandwiches, with tea or coffee. In honor of little Janet Schult, whose birthday happened to be that day, and who was present with her mother, the cake was declared as a birthday cake and greetings were sung for the young lady.

The next Sunshine meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Walter Rehahn on Mayfield Ave. Wednesday afternoon, March 8, at 2 o'clock. At this time there will be the annual Valentine exchange. Each lady will bring an unaddressed valentine or valentine gift. All will be placed in a container and drawn out, grab-bag fashion, so that each person will have one to take home.

Medicine should be kept in a special medicine cabinet and thrown out after the person using it no longer needs it. This will eliminate danger of taking it by mistake which often has serious effects, reminds Olevia Meyer, Michigan State College, home economist.

Poultrymen will find a comprehensive program at the 1950 Farmers' Week program at Michigan State College. Sessions covering management, broiler production, rearing flock replacements, feeding, and turkey growing problems are planned. A baby chick show, an egg show, and equipment displays will be held during the week for the rural visitors.

For Your Own Protection-

Don't Buy ANY Gas Heating Equipment Unless Your Application Has Been Approved by Consumers Power Company

The Michigan Public Service Commission has issued an order permitting this Company to resume connecting additional gas space-heating customers.

The Commission acted on evidence supplied by the Company showing that our gas storage field program has advanced to a point where restrictions on the sale of gas for heating houses and other buildings are no longer necessary.

This does not mean that everyone can have gas house-heating service immediately. Many can; others will have to wait a little longer because gas mains in their particular areas do not have capacity enough to supply the needs of all who want gas heat. This is true of some streets, some neighborhoods and even some communities.

Regulations on file with the Public Service Commission require that anyone wishing gas heating service must fill out a written application and obtain the Company's approval. This regulation is designed to protect both you and the present gas space-heating customers in your vicinity, whose service might suffer if too many customers were connected to existing facilities.

To avoid tying up your money in equipment you may not be able to use, please refrain from buying any gas space-heating equipment until and unless your written application has been approved in writing by the Company.*

CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY

*When you do buy gas heating equipment, be sure it bears the approval of the American Gas Association.

Why Should a Dollar's Worth of Travel Continue to Cost You $1¹⁵?

IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY? you were asked in 1941, when every inch of space was needed for troops and war supplies. To discourage travel then, a tax was added on your travel dollar, a tax that grew to 15% during the war. The Federal Government collected it through the railroads. The Government still collects it, though your travel need not be rationed now.

Today, the original purpose of this tax is as obsolete as an Air Warden's helmet. But, four years after the war's end, YOU are still paying the Government at the rate of $250,000,000 a year in travel tax.

And, of the billion and three quarters collected since 1941, over half came out of your pocket after the green light on travel went on again.

You don't have food rationing today... you don't have gasoline rationing today. Yet, a very real brake is still being put on travel. On a coach trip from New York to Chicago, for example, YOU are still paying $4.61 in Federal tax.

And the same with the goods that are shipped to your home community. On every dollar you pay for freight, you pay the Government an extra 3 cents (4¢ a ton on coal). That means YOU are still paying over $300,000,000 a year -freight tax alone.

This tax should be repealed NOW. There is no longer any reason you should pay $1.15 for every dollar's worth of travel... $1.03 for every dollar of railroad freight.

Girl Scout News
TROOP NO. 9
 Our first meeting for 1950 was held January 16 at the home of Catherine Rambeau on Taft Road. We discussed our camping trip and decided that if there is no snow, we won't take the trip. We were each given four tickets to sell for the Girl Scout Card Party to be held February 7 at the Veterans' Memorial Hall. Six girls from our troop will help serve the refreshments.
 Mrs. Weiss, our assistant leader then taught us some new songs and we also sang many old ones. Right after the adjournment of the meeting, Mrs. Rambeau and Catherine served lovely refreshments.
 On February 3 our troop is having a hay ride. Each girl is supposed to invite a boy.
 The ride will begin at Frosty's on Eight Mile Road. Afterwards there will be refreshments and dancing in Frosty's clubroom.
 Janis Lazar, Scribe.

BROWNIE TROOP NO. 3
 We had our annual birthday party celebrating our second glorious year with our leader Mrs. Merriam. We think she is one of the best leaders we have ever had. Mrs. Houser sent us a very lovely chiffon cake. Miss Sally Merriam taught us a new song, and we sang our annual Scout song.
 Each Brownie was given tickets for the Girl Scout card party.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP NO. 6
 Friday, January 27th, Troop No. 6 held their Scout meeting at Batt's house.
 We decided we did not want to have a Valentine Party. We talked about what we would rather do than have the party.
 We also talked about doing badge work as a troop and tried to decide which badge we would work on. A few other matters were talked over and voted on.
 After the meeting we had cookies and candy and the meeting adjourned about 3:30.
 Veronica Batt, Scribe.

Plans Changed for Girl Scout Benefit

To eliminate the complications brought about by planning to hold the annual Girl Scout Benefit Party at two different locations, new arrangements have been made, making it possible to accommodate everyone at the Veterans' Memorial Hall. The High School gym will not be used. The party will be held Tuesday, February 7 at 8 o'clock and will take the form of a card party.

Final arrangements for the party were discussed at a breakfast held at the home of Mrs. Walter Couse, benefit chairman, Tuesday morning. A report from Mrs. Fran Jennings, prizes chairman, listing the gifts given by merchants and volunteer donations of townspersons showed a marvelous interest in the project on the part of the community and is aiding in making the party a social as well as financial success. The financial goal of the drive is $350, which covers the operating expenses for the year.

Ticket sales indicate a large crowd and the report of the food committee promises a satisfactory conclusion to the evening in the way of refreshments.

Tickets are still available and may be purchased from the ticket chairman, Mrs. Harold Bloom, phone 421. A few tickets are being reserved for sale at the door.

The honor attendant wore a ruby red chiffon velvet gown and matching headress. Her bouquet consisted of talisman roses. The bridesmaids were gowned in emerald green chiffon velvet and they also carried talisman roses.

LEGAL NOTICES

To the Supervisor of the Township of Redford, Wayne County, Michigan.

You are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did, at a meeting of said Board held on Thursday, January 12, 1950, decide and determine that the certain alleys described in the minutes of said Board, heretofore taken over by County roads, should be absolutely abandoned and discontinued as public highways, reserving thereon the easement set forth in said determination.

The portion of the minutes of said meeting fully describing said alleys are attached hereto and made a part of the notice, which is given under and by virtue of Act 283 of the Public Acts of 1929 as amended.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 15th day of January, A. D. 1950.

BOARD OF COUNTY ROAD COMMISSIONERS OF THE COUNTY OF WAYNE, MICHIGAN.
Michael J. O'Brien, Chairman
John P. O'Hara, Vice-Chairman
Charles L. Wilson, Commissioner
EDGAR M. BRANNIN, Clerk
By Carl W. Bischoff, Deputy Clerk.

Road Jurisdiction Determination
Commissioner Wilson moved the adoption of the following resolution: WHEREAS, this Board has received a petition from the residents of the Township of Redford to abandon and discontinue the 20-foot public alley in the rear of Lots 1244 to 1260 and 1333 to 1345 both inclusive of Sheet No. 2 of Frischkorn's Grand-Dale Gardens, being a subdivision of part of Secs. 29, 31 and 32, T15S, R10E, Redford Township, Wayne County, Michigan, recorded in Liber 59 of Plats, on Page 32, Wayne County Records, said alleys being county roads under the jurisdiction of this Board;

WHEREAS, pursuant to said petition and in accordance with the provisions of Section 18 of Chapter 1 of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan for the year 1929, and amendments thereto this Board did by resolution dated November 23rd, 1949, resolve that a hearing be held on January 5, 1950, at 11:00 a.m., E.S.T., at 3800 Cadillac Tower, Michigan, to determine the necessity or advisability of abandoning and discontinuing said alleys;

WHEREAS, pursuant to the above mentioned statute, this Board has served a notice of said hearing upon all of the owners and occupants of lands intersected by or adjoining said alleys and published a copy of said notice in The Legal Counselor, a newspaper published within the County of Wayne, on December 2, 1949; and

WHEREAS, said hearing was held at the time and place appointed by this resolution and this Board did then proceed to view the premises in accordance with the statute; and

WHEREAS, it appearing from said hearing and view of the premises that the public will have no further use for the alleys in said subdivision, and that it is desirable to maintain therein public utility easement for the use and benefit of the public.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the 20-foot public alley lying in the rear of Lots 1244 to 1260 and 1333 to 1345 both inclusive of Sheet No. 2 of Frischkorn's Grand-Dale Gardens, being a subdivision of part of Secs. 29, 31 and 32, T15S, R10E, Redford Township, Wayne County, Michigan, as recorded in Liber 59 of Plats, on Page 32, Wayne County Records, being in all 0.16 mile and the same to be and the same are hereby abandoned and discontinued as public highways upon the express condition that there be and hereby is reserved an easement in the lands now occupied by said alleys for the installation and maintenance of sewer, water, gas, electric, telephone and all other public utilities for the use and benefit of the public, and all persons, firms or corporations owning or operating said public utilities shall have the right to enter upon said easement for the purpose of installing, maintaining or operating said public utilities.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Board believes it to be to the best interest of the public that the alleys to be abandoned and discontinued should be absolutely abandoned and discontinued as public highways, reserving thereon the easement as herein set forth.

The motion was supported by Commissioner O'Hara, and carried by the following: Commissioners O'Brien, O'Hara and Wilson; Nays, None. 34-36

For the motorist and non-driver alike, the automobile industry stimulates a tremendous amount of interest. Concrete evidence of the public's enthusiasm is manifest in the large numbers of people who visit dealer showrooms and by the hundreds of visitors anxious to join automobile plant tours such as those conducted daily by Studebaker in South Bend, Ind. High lights of these tours include (1) the body drop where a specific passenger car body type is lowered onto a specific chassis moving along the final assembly line; (2) the upholstery division where layer upon layer of expensive material is cut for seat backs, seat cushions and headlining. What the visitors don't see are the nearly continuous road tests conducted at the Studebaker proving ground as expert drivers go looking for trouble as, for instance, (3) on the sand track. The final thrill for the "tourists" comes as they watch two endless rows of new cars (4) rolling off the final assembly line at a rate which made 1949 the biggest year in company history.

Plymouth—Members of the Citizens' League are circulating petitions for Eleanor Hammond, Floyd Tibbitts and Cass S. Hough to qualify them as candidates for re-election as members of the city commission. The three will run as a team for the commission with Mr. Tibbitts and Mrs. Hammond as candidates for the two year terms and Mr. Hough as a candidate for the one year term.

Howell—Last Saturday, January 28, the Reverend Richard S. Emrich, bishop of Michigan, ordained the Reverend John Ross Wellwood to the Sacred Order of Priests of the Episcopal church. Wellwood attended Wayne University, Detroit; Union Theological Seminary, New York; and Seabury - Western Theological Seminary, Evanston, Illinois.

Rochester—When the new census is taken in Rochester this year, it appears as though the official population of the village will not total over the 5,000 mark.

Changes Advocated in State Financial Aid to Local Units

State financial aid to local governments in Michigan needs improvement for fairer distribution of tax revenues and more efficient government.

These findings by Paul H. Wileiden, research analyst in the state's Department of Administration, were published this week by the Bureau of Government of the University of Michigan.

Money from the state is not a cure-all for local fiscal ills, Wileiden writes, "The fundamental problem is one of determining what are to be local functional responsibilities and proper methods of financing them," he asserts.

Any shifting of functions, Wileiden reports, must be based upon reorganizing and modernizing local governments to meet the needs of a "society long since changed by the tremendous advances in science and commerce." "There is seldom enough attention paid to reducing the costs of local government through greater administrative efficiency or the elimination of unnecessary or wasteful activities," he says. Property tax, local government's major revenue producer, has had its yield hampered, the state analyst points out, by inadequacies in assessment and collection practices, by extensive tax exemptions, and by a too stringent constitutional limitation of its rates.

Wileiden suggests broadening the local tax base as a "logical and necessary step" especially for cities with large commuting populations. There is a need for "stability" in local revenues and more equitable distribution of state aids, he says.

Formerly a research assistant in the University bureau, Wileiden bases his opinions on figures for 1945 and 1946 when state aid to local units was two-thirds of Michigan's total expenditures—over $180,000,000.

Seven counties, making up a cross-section of the state were included in Wileiden's study. These were Genesee, Kent, Washtenaw, Branch, Cheboygan, Ontonagon and Marquette.

Copies of "State Aid and Local Finance in Selected Michigan Counties" are available from the Bureau of Government, University of Michigan, Ann Arbor.

The home which is comfortably operated, following the golden mean of not too much nor too little system, is apt to be one in which family members are freer to enjoy each other.

When buying meat consider cost not only from the standpoint of the price per pound, but from the standpoint of cost per serving, considering the amounts of fat, bone and waste. Consider also family satisfaction, advises Jeanette Lee, assistant to the dean of home economics at Michigan State College.

NEWS and COMMENT
FROM CONGRESSMAN
GEORGE A. DONDERO

In presenting his federal budget for the government fiscal year beginning next July 1, President Harry S. Truman designated it as an "honest" budget, on the score that in presenting it he had nothing up his sleeves. He was right in this, of course, because the program of wasteful spending for partisan political purposes was there in all its cynicism for anyone to see.

Now I mentioned briefly in last week's comment the vital necessity of curbing the Fair Deal squandering at once and the desirability of adopting to that end the substitute budget proposals made by Senator Harry Flood Byrd, of Virginia. The Senator from the Old Dominion State has spent half a lifetime studying government finance and without doubt is the country's leading authority on the subject. The President's budget calls for actual appropriations of $42.4 billion dollars, and so-called contract authorizations of $9.2 billion dollars. Thus the President would have Congress vote expenditures actually of $51.6 billion dollars. This because the $9.2 billion dollars would be spent exactly as one spends the money he obligates himself to pay in buying an automobile on the installment plan. At the same time estimated federal income from all sources next year is only $37.3 billion dollars.

The budget prepared by Senator Byrd calls for appropriations of $36 billion dollars, and no contract authorizations whatsoever. Let it be remembered in this connection that next year's federal income is estimated at $37.3 billion dollars.

Thus the President's budget contemplates expenditures in excess of income amounting either to $5.1 billion dollars or $14.3 billion dollars, depending on how one chooses to look at the contract authority subterfuge for concealing a portion of the proposed expenditures. Senator Byrd's budget contemplates a surplus of $1.3 billion dollars, which he proposes should be used to reduce the $256 billion dollar public debt.

Here are the major reductions contained in Senator Byrd's proposed budget: Domestic-civilian services, $8.9 billion; down $3.4 billion from the Truman budget; national defense, $11.3 billion, down $2.2 billion; foreign outlays, $4.8 billion, up $0.1 billion from the Truman budget; veterans services, $5.3 billion, down $0.8 billion; interest on public debt, $5.7 billion, up $0.1 billion; reserve for contingencies, none, down $0.2 billion.

Senator Byrd would save $900 million dollars by cutting civilian employment from 1,000,000 to 750,000; save $400 million by tightening open-end mortgage purchase program of the R.F.C.; save $200 million by re-examination of open-end CCC authorization; save $1 billion by reducing public works projects to 1948 GOP level; save $175 million by cutting payroll and administrative costs of the Veterans Administration; save $900 million by cutting veterans' readjustment benefits, since most veterans have been out of the service four years; save $2.2 billion by reducing Armed Services civilian employment and taking full advantage of unification economies.

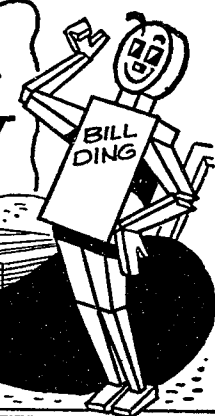

Senator Byrd's budget makes little if any allowance for the initiation of thirty-four new spending programs included in the President's budget, which call for first year outlays totaling $956.3 millions, and scores of billions annually thereafter.

In making public his budget proposals, Senator Byrd asserted that a $36 billion dollar budget can be achieved "without impairing either our security or any essential function" of the government. I believe he knows what he is talking about. I shall support any and all moves to substitute Senator Byrd's budget proposals for those made by the President.

Do you know that, although teen-agers make up only a small percent of the total number of drivers on the highway, they are responsible for a large majority of accidents? That fact spells danger, everytime a youngster gets behind the wheel of an auto—and it should be a signal for you to sit down for a heart-to-heart chat with every teen-ager driver in your family.

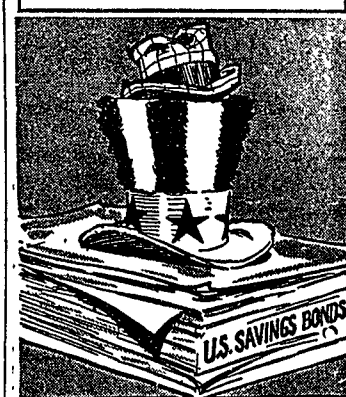

What are the causes for these accidents? There are many—and speed is probably the greatest cause of all. Caution your children to drive at a safe, slow rate of speed. Explain why it is so necessary to drive at a safe speed—tell them about the extra dangers of fast driving in rainy weather—in snow or sleet when slippery pavements make stopping twice as difficult.

Tell your children that "getting a ticket" is not a joke—it's a reminder to them to "play safe". Perhaps the policeman who stopped their car may have saved their lives, simply by making them slow down. Make Safe Driving a habit in your family by constant good example... by frequent discussions which will help to "drive home" the need for caution and common sense when behind the wheel.

Remember, a little extra effort on your part may be the means of keeping your youngsters safe. Don't neglect this very important duty as a parent—don't "let up" on your drive for safety—the old Grim Reaper on the highways never lets up!

General Marshall To Speak Feb. 8

General George C. Marshall, who as Chief of Staff guided the American and Allied armies to victory in World War II, and while Secretary of State instituted the famous Marshall Plan for the rehabilitation of Europe and as a bulwark against Communism, will make his first visit to Detroit February 8 as President of the American National Red Cross.

He will arrive at Willow Run at 3:42 p. m., according to Henry T. Ewald, chairman of the Detroit Chapter, and leave for Toledo the next morning.

In the evening he will be guest of honor at a dinner at the Book-Cadillac Hotel. Between five and six hundred Red Cross workers from Detroit and other chapters in Michigan will hear General Marshall speak.

The General is devoting his entire time to the job of administering Red Cross affairs. Recently, he flew 7,500 miles in six days to visit 15 cities and talk with 158 chapter leaders. His visit here is the start of a 9,000 mile trip which includes an itinerary of 20 cities.

The man who has been called "the greatest living American" is happy in his job. "There is so much about Red Cross work that appeals to the heart and soul that I find full recompense in the effort" he said recently. "It is a great relief to be wholly engaged in a beneficent mission rather than one that demands great human sacrifice and suffering."

Over Million Fishing Licenses Sold in Michigan in 1949

Michigan replaced California as the state with the most licensed fishermen and climbed from fourth to the second slot in terms of fishing license revenue received during the fiscal year ending June, 1949.

The U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service credits the Michigan conservation department with distribution of 1,110,109 licenses which produced $2,102,347 in fees. California switched places with Michigan for the second best record in the nation, issuing 1,030,617 fishing licenses.

The western state continued to exceed all others in revenue with $3,138,501. In climbing to second place in the revenue department, Michigan passed Minnesota and Wisconsin, states which were second and third respectively in the 1948 fiscal year. New York moved up to third, Washington to fourth.

In order behind Michigan and California in most licenses issued were Wisconsin, Ohio, Minnesota, Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania, Missouri, and Tennessee.

Wisconsin swapped places with Michigan in attracting most out-state anglers. Nonresident licenses issued by Wisconsin tallied 285,277. Following in a close second was the Wolverine state with 283,879. California reported the sale of only 13,312 nonresident licenses, a 3,435 increase.

Sales for the entire 48 states reached a new high of 5,478,570, or over 1,400,000 more licensed resident and nonresident fishermen.

Licensed anglers contributed $32,657,940 toward the support of sport fishing, up from $27,324,644 the preceding year which had been the all time high.

TWO-WAY STRETCH

that's strictly inside stuff!

HERE'S THE NEW 1950 BUICK SUPER 126, companion body-type to the equally new ROADMASTER 130. Both are shorter than last year's 4-door Sedans—yet 4 inches longer in wheelbase. In both, the difference is used to give you real stretch-out room in the rear seat.

What the boys did here really calls for some medals.

We gave them the job of coming up with something that was bigger inside—for room and comfort—longer in wheelbase—always important to good riding qualities—yet unbulky and easy-handling in over-all dimensions.

Just look how well this tidy number meets these "impossible" specifications!

Item one—rear-seat cushions are a full foot wider than last year's SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Item two—in every dimension—leg-room, head-room, hip-room, shoulder-room—this rear-seat compartment is bigger than previous models—and nearly four inches longer, fore and aft, than other 1950 Buick interiors.

Item three—wheelbases are the longest of our 1950 line. On the SUPER, it is 125½" instead of 121½"—on the ROADMASTER 130¼" instead of 126¼".

Yet—and here's where the magic comes in—the whole car is shorter over-all. Actually less from bumper to bumper than previous Buicks in these series.

That means easier parking, easier tucking away in family garages, easier maneuvering in crowded traffic.

There are some other things too. An extra rear-quarter window not found in standard 4-door Sedans. A different upperstructure styling that makes this body-type stand out as something pretty special.

Even special names that let you say, "I drive a SUPER 126," or "Mine's a ROADMASTER 130," just by way of being different.

Yes, we think we hit on a happy idea in the "Longfellows," as they're coming to be known. They are not longer, on the outside, but there's a two-way stretch—in width and length—in the rear compartment.

You're going to like that—as you'll see by calling on your own Buick dealer. If he doesn't have one on hand, he can get it pretty promptly—and at a price and on a deal you'll have trouble matching, much less beating, anywhere else.

See him now, will you—about placing an order?

Mustangs Cagers Hang Up 52-42 Win Against Brighton

After a hard fought first half last Friday night, the Northville Mustangs rolled up a 40-26 third quarter total and then drifted to a 52-42 win over the Brighton basketball squad. Brighton had not lost a game since falling to Northville December 9.

A slow first quarter was followed by a free scoring second period which ended with Northville leading the Bulldogs 24-15. In the third frame the Mustangs began hitting the hoop and pulled 14 points ahead. Coach Harry Smith used his entire squad during the second half.

Gerry Heaton, who collected 15 points, seven of them on free throws, was connecting on close-in shots and Dick Gray, hitting with long one-handed push shots, added nine points. Johnny Poulos also kept the defense out with his low push shot and rapped in four field goals. Robinson mixed his shots and tallied on three baskets and two free throws. Stanley lobbed in a field goal, Jennings got one and a foul shot and Porter popped a free throw. Bob Prom looped in three field goals in three tries in rapid succession for six points.

Brighton's greatest difficulty was getting the ball under the basket. The center shot opened two or three times, but the Mustang defense closed it for the rest of the night.

MSC Breaks Winter Enrollment Record

Enrollment at Michigan State College stood at a record-breaking 15,756 as late winter term registrations hiked the total 422 over the 15,334 figure of last winter, Registrar Robert S. Linton said.

Despite a sharp drop in veteran enrollment, 15,182 regular students signed up for classes and 574 enrolled in short courses, Linton said. Veteran enrollment has dipped from 52 to 40 percent since last winter, he said.

Colts Nip Brighton 32-31 in Thriller

The Northville Colts staged a slap-bang college try finish last Friday night and nipped the Brighton reserve cage squad 32-31.

The Colts had trailed the Bulldogs after the first quarter and were behind 28-22 with four minutes left in the game. Pete Spagnuolo erased two points of the margin with two free throws and Don Graham added a point on a foul shot.

With two minutes left, Graham pumped in a field goal to pull the Colts to within a point of Brighton. The Bulldog lead increased to two points via a free throw and then decreased again when Jerry Graham sank a foul shot, making the count 29-28. Dick Gussell tied it up at 29 with a free throw and Lee pushed the Colts ahead 31-29 when he flipped in a field goal. Brighton quickly countered with two points to knot the score at 31, and with less than a minute to go, Lee popped a free throw and the Colts, with a one-point lead, stalled until time ran out.

The significance of the win is that while trailing by six points the Colts won by scoring only two baskets - - - and six free throws; a painful route, but a win which again emphasizes the importance of foul shots.

Don Graham led Colt scoring with 10 points, followed by Pete Spagnuolo with eight. Gussell and Rebitzke tallied four each, and Jerry Graham and Lee got three apiece.

Basketball NEWS

After two victories and hopes that they have regained the winning habit, the Mustangs and Colts will travel to Dexter tomorrow night to see if they can repeat what happened last December 16. The Mustangs won 40-36 in a tough game and the Colts topped Dexter's reserves 46-26.

Next Tuesday, February 7, Northville's teams move over to Plymouth to undo what the Rocks did December 20. The Colts fell before the Plymouth reserves that night, 31-26, and the Rocks won the varsity game 45-43. With Eckler and Ebersole graduated out of the Plymouth lineup, things may be brighter. Maybe.

What's happened to the over-flowing mobs which used to jam the high school on basketball nights? I'm told that often there was hardly standing room in the gym last year when the cagers were in action. If memory serves there has not been a time this season when the crowds (loosely speaking) filled all the seats.

We aren't complaining or griping about it, we just wonder, how come? This is especially evident after watching and hearing the yowling, screaming, enthusiastic gang over at Clarenceville January 23.

A good resolution for the new year is to farm in such a way that if your farm could choose its operator it would still choose you.

Offer Agricultural Scholarships to 32

Thirty-two freshman scholarships will be available in the school of agriculture at Michigan State College in the fall of 1950 for high school graduates.

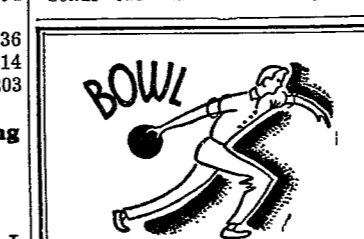

Dr. C. R. Megee, assistant dean in charge of academic teaching, says students interested in these scholarships can get complete information from county agricultural agents or vocational agriculture teachers.

Requirements are based on high school scholarship, leadership in school and community activities such as F.F.A., 4-H Club, Grange, Junior Farm Bureau, etc.

One scholarship in the amount of $250 is available through the National Association of Thoroughbred Breeders and three scholarships amounting to $200 are offered by the Kroger company. Sears Roebuck company offers 11 scholarships of $150 and the Rite Way Products company offers two scholarships of $100 each. Through the F.F.A. and the State Board of Agriculture, 15 scholarships of $50 each are available.

These scholarship are not available to short course students or those planning to take veterinary medicine. Only those taking the regular four year course in agriculture can be considered, Dr. Megee said.
