

Local Boy Scouts Return From National Jamboree

Dick Gussell, Charles Dickinson, James Lapham, Bud Cansfield, Robert Sheffer, Edward Nash, Lucien Lovell, Art Carlson, Jr., and Allen Maltby, returned to their homes Sunday after a two week stay at the second National Boy Scout Jamboree held at Valley Forge, Pa.

Before arriving at the Jamboree site they travelled to Washington, D. C. where some 600 Michigan Scouts were greeted on the capital steps by a Michigan senator, Homer Ferguson. The boys enjoyed a short tour of the sites of Washington and then journeyed to Valley Forge where they began the trials of establishing a camp for themselves.

One thousand Detroit Scouts were grouped together including the Sunset District which sent 35 Scouts and three leaders to the site.

The official Jamboree was opened with a gathering of 47,000 Scouts who congregated in an open air arena to listen to an address given by President Truman. The President, who had just been awarded the Boy Scout's award for "Distinguished Service to Boyhood", urged Scouts to spread freedom to lands from all nations. "We must make it clear to them," he said, "that we believe in the fellowship of human beings, in the possibility of co-operative human action, and in peace based on mutual understanding."

The local Scouts spent the day trading insignias, badges and other things with Scouts from other parts of the world. Charles Dickinson was shrewd enough to obtain an Indian headress. The boys went on a conducted tour of Philadelphia where they visited such monuments as the home of Betsy Ross, Christ Church where Washington worshipped, Independence Hall and the Liberty Bell.

During the day the Scouts tramped over Valley Forge inspecting the historic sites used by General Washington and his Army during the Revolutionary War. On July Fourth at the arena the Scouts gathered to see a pageant which commemorated the growth of the Boy Scouts from the pioneer days to the present. General Eisenhower delivered a short speech to the boys after which the Scouts enjoyed a $5,000 display of fire works.

The 1,000 Detroit Scouts had a campfire on a very picturesque hill. An old time Scout called Uncle Otto lit the immense fire by friction created from a special flint and steel apparatus. Each troop performed different acts. Bud Cansfield's group performed "Heap Big Smoke Bug No Fire", which was a pantomime on Indian tribal dances. The camp fire closed by group singing.

It took six months for the cooks to gather enough steak to feed the Scouts for one night. A special boat was chartered to bring the boys' pineapple which they ate in one meal.

Camp closed July 7 from which some of the Scouts took a trip to Atlantic City, New Jersey and New York City. The boys swam in the Ocean, slept at the Armory, cruised around Manhattan, saw the Bowery, Statue of Liberty and Chinatown.

The second national Jamboree other parts of the world. gathered Scouts from the United States, Canada, Austria, Nova Scotia, Korea, Philippines and

Speed Endangers Occupants Lives

Chief of Police Joseph Denton today likened the chances of a driver walking away from his car uninjured after striking a telephone pole at 60 miles an hour to the chances of an egg remaining uncracked after being hit with a badminton racket.

The Chief's remark came in connection with the operation of the State Safety Commission's June program of traffic safety education, which has as its theme: SPEED CONTROL.

"Roughly," he said, "the effect of hitting a solid obstruction at 60 miles an hour is equivalent to driving your car from the roof of a 10-story building. The damage to the car occupants is the same in either case."

The State Safety Commission's program, this month, will emphasize to motorists the terrible energy and destructive power that is inherent in the speeding car. "At 60 miles an hour," Chief Denton said, "the occupant of the car, if injured, is eight times more likely to die of these injuries, than if the accident had occurred at 20 miles an hour."

One of the chief reasons that excessive speed is so often involved in traffic accidents, according to the State Safety Commission, is the greatly increased stopping distances incurred at high speeds. At 70 miles an hour, for instance, a car will hurtle along 100 feet in the time required for one short breath—one second!

The State Safety Commission's emphasis on speed this month is being sponsored in cooperation with the National Safety Council, and coordinated in Northville by the Village Police Department.

Three Local Lads Report to Grosse Ile

The Second Annual Recruit Training Class was convened at Grosse Ile Naval Air Station last week as 116 young men from the Grosse Ile Area and 25 candidates from the Akron, Ohio area began an eight weeks tour of active duty at Grosse Ile Naval Air Station, Captain James P. Walker, Commanding Officer announced.

Among the personnel from this area in the class are: Huston Butler, 46040 Neeson street, Charles Stephens, 1160 Orchard Drive, and Gerad Heaton, 560 Orchard Drive.

During the eight weeks program, the students will receive instruction which will qualify them to take part in the Organized Reserve and to begin specializing in one of the many phases of aviation training offered at Grosse Ile.

As the students progress, they will be given practical "on the job" training in the various Station Departments. Also, they will receive indoctrination in flight safety and will fly as passengers on military aircraft to learn something of the requirements of military flying.

Captain Walker commented, on the high quality of the young men in this group. "Our entrance requirements were exceptionally high," said Walker. "This is an outstanding group of young men drawn from Detroit and surrounding communities. We feel certain that both the Navy and the individuals will gain much from their active participation in the Naval Air Reserve Program."

F. Hills, Realtor Gets Commendation

Frank E. Hills has received a Certificate of Distinction from the Real Estate Division of the Michigan Corporations and Securities Commission recognizing the fact that he has been licensed by that division for twenty-five consecutive years.

The letter which he received from the commission reads as follows:

Dear Broker: The records of this Commission disclose you have been licensed by our Real Estate Division for twenty-five consecutive years. Our records indicate no deviation by you during these years from the regulations established by this Commission for the protection of the public.

A quarter century of faithful service warrants recognition and acknowledgment, we believe, from the agency created by the state to coordinate the activities of real estate brokers. This we are happy to do, and, at the same time, we enclose a Certificate of Distinction Service which we hope will display publicly our awareness of your record.

Sincerely yours, Philip A. Hart, Commissioner.

Program To Close Scout Day Camp

This last week has seen the completion of a very successful Girl Scout and Brownie Day Camp. Over 90 girls attended the camp. This is nearly twice the number that has attended in previous years.

The camp site has proved most satisfactory and gave the girls many opportunities to observe nature. During walks in the woods and near a marsh the girls collected a number of snails, pollywogs, spiders and other animals.

The Scouts stayed overnight in their camp four different times. They cooked their own breakfast, lunch and dinner by campfire. Today our Camp Day begins. Girls will gather at 3:15 p. m. and cook and eat their own supper at camp. After supper at 7:00 the girls will welcome parents and friends for a short closing program. All are welcome.

The program will be held at the new camp site which is located on West Main Street just east of Beck road. There is a Girl Scout sign on the road just to the left of the drive which leads into the woods.

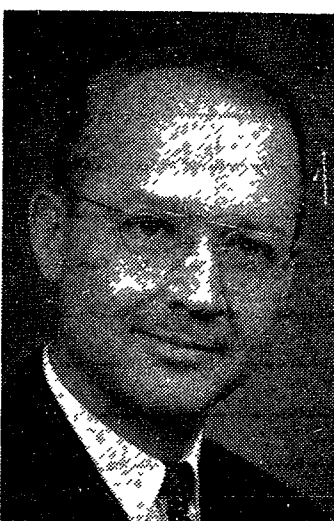

Open Letter To Town Merchants

The Police Department would like to take this opportunity to urge all local merchants to be wary of cashing checks for strangers. Last week the George Clark Hardware accepted for payment a forged check which resembled a pay roll check from the V. P. Cauhoreen Corn Co. Mr. Clark paid the forger from $51.74. He obtained identification from the gentleman but did not check the credentials thoroughly enough because the identification too was forged.

It is up to the merchants to check all identification of any strangers who desire to cash checks at their establishments. Especially beware of those who present pay roll checks. These checks are presented by professional forgers who know how to print a check so that it looks like the real thing.

The police are doing all in their power to catch these culprits but it is up to the merchants to watch for checks, especially payroll checks, and not to cash checks for strangers. In this way we can curb the crime before it becomes a crime.

Blind Trotter Races at Downs

"In the Winner's Circle, we have... Nine times an evening a husky voice excitedly shouts this statement to an eagerly awaiting crowd which gathers every night to be either elated or deflated by the outcome of the races at Northville Downs by the horses which parade through the flower bedecked winner's circle and receive their prize for winning another race.

The horses that are fortunate enough to have the honor of the winner's circle bestowed upon them are animals taught from colthood to use their legs and eyes to win a race for their master. It takes years of patience and practice before a horse can hope to win a race. Few horses make the grade. It is practically impossible for a blind horse to win a race. This, however, is the case with a blind horse racing at Northville Downs.

Up and Up a 10-year-old trotter by FollowUp-Crescent Limited, owned and driven by Sherwood, Sampier of Lake Placid, N. Y., was blinded while still a young horse through an accident in the barn. Up and Up, through the kindness of the grooms and the pleading of young Miss Sampier, was taught to run by the use of his ears. By constant practice on the racing oval he was taught to race for the rail, hold that position and win the race.

During the present season Up and Up has won two races, finished second, once and third, another time, racing in the trots at the Downs. Recently he entered a 25 Condition Trot, going against such top horses as G. M. Guy and Kathreen and others.

At the start of the race Up and Up, driven by Mr. Sampier, got away in fine style. He was third at the end of the first half mile, then second, and tried to go to the front, when, suddenly another horse bore over a little and caught the wheel of the sulky. Mr. Sampier, in order to avoid a serious accident had to stop the horse. This was a sad race for Up and Up and some fans suggested shooting the horse but Mr. Sampier is still racing Up and Up and has great confidence in the horse's ability even though the horse is racing under the severe handicap of blindness.

Mr. and Mrs. Gael Downer and daughters, Ann and Jean attended the Thayer-Miller wedding at the Plymouth Presbyterian Church Saturday night.

Principal Returns from NEA Conclave

More than 4000 teachers from the United States and its territories assembled in St. Louis, July 3-7 to attend the 80th annual meeting of the National Education Association. A representative assembly of 3300 delegates transacted business of the organization and 800 leaders conducted sessions of more than 20 NEA departments.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Ellison of West Dunlap street attended the convention Mr. Ellison is president of the Michigan Education Association and attended as one of their official delegates.

Appraising the achievements of the public school system, convention speakers occasionally bristled at the attacks of those who disparaged the effectiveness of America's educational program. The first expression of resentment against unjustified attacks on the schools was made by Andrew D. Holt, Secretary of the Tenn. Education Association and President of the National Organization, in his keynote address. "While constructive citizens' committees for education have been springing up the country over," said President Holt, "there have also come into being certain other groups whose primary purpose apparently is to weaken the public schools, at least to arouse public doubt concerning the value of their program. These groups have lambasted us for failing to teach the three R's; for giving too many vocational courses, or too few vocational courses; for over-emphasizing athletics, or for under-emphasizing athletics. Their main purpose seems to be to discredit our school program—whatever they may be."

A three-day discussion group of the convention devoted its attention to the improvement of school public relations, naming as a first objective informing the public on the improvement of educational opportunity in recent years. A feature of the convention was its emphasis upon the responsibility of the teacher to aid in building peaceful international relations. Forty-two educators from other nations attended the meetings.

Improved relationships between races received emphasis. John W. Furbay, director of the Air World Education, Kansas City, Mo., pleaded for elimination of prejudice, calling attention to the fact that a large majority of the peoples of the world are dark-skinned, and that many of them have evolved cultures comparable to those of the light-skinned minorities. Delegates adopted a by-law as follows: "... only those cities shall be considered (for convention purposes) where it is possible to provide a maximum degree of equality for the housing, feeding, seating at the meetings and general welfare of all members of the association."

Miss Corma Mowrey, Charleston, West Virginia, was elected president for the year 1950-51; Paul Grigsby, superintendent of the Community High School, Granite City, Illinois, was elected first vice-president. The next annual meeting of the National Education Association will be held in San Francisco, July, 1951.

Members of the Ford Motor Car Company staff will also be present to greet the Villagers.

54 Night Meet Ends Saturday at Downs

Saturday night (July 15) is the final night of harness racing for 1950 at Northville Downs. It marks the close of one of Northville's best seasons.

The 54 night meet ends up with three feature stake races on Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

Scheduled for Thursday night is the $1700 Alpena County Fair Stake for trotters of the 21 class Friday night-the trotters are featured again in the $1800 St. Joseph County Fair Stake for horses of the 19 class. The final night of racing, Saturday night, will see 14 class pacers in the $2000 Northern District Fair Stake.

Northville Downs fans are particularly happy that a Michigan bred horse, Royal Blackstone, was the winner of the $10,000 Michigan Pacing Derby held at Northville last Friday. The victory scored by this four-year-old beauty, owned by Bill Brown of Birmingham, added an extra home-spun touch to the successful meeting.

Earlier the Governor's Cup Trot for $10,000 was won by the Canadian-owned gelding, Grat-tan Volo, for the second year in a row.

These two nationally known events in harness racing circles attracted greater interest and crowds than ever before.

By the time the meet closes this Saturday night more than 800 of the country's best harness horses and drivers will have participated in Northville's 1950 program.

4 Year Nursing Planned at MSC

A new, four-year course for training professional nurses will be started by Michigan State College in September, it was announced by Lloyd C. Emmons, dean of MSC's School of Science and Arts.

The course, to be a combination of academic study at Michigan State and practice training in hospitals, is the result of a survey made by a special seven-man committee, headed by Dean Emmons, in consultation with hospital nursing staffs and local committees on nursing located within a 75-mile radius of East Lansing.

It will be administered by a director, assistant, supervisor and staffs of hospitals where students will take their clinical training. The course will be offered in the Division of Biological Sciences of the School of Science and Arts, Dean Emmons said.

Named acting director of the curriculum was Prof. H. J. Staffeth, who is director of the Division of Biological Sciences. He will remain in this capacity until a full-time director is named.

Between 15 and 25 young women are expected to enroll in the course this fall, Dean Emmons said. Until enrollment expands, he said, two hospitals will be used for the clinical phase of the course—Edward W. Sparrow Hospital in Lansing, and Butterworth Hospital in Grand Rapids. Students will receive 140 credits for work at MSC, and 60 for clinical training. Graduates in the curriculum will receive the Degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in nursing.

Cooperating with MSC in setting up the new course are: the W. K. Kellogg Foundation, the National League of Nursing Education, the U. S. Public Health Service and the Michigan Board of Registration of Nurses

Pilgrims' Cows
The pilgrims allotted one cow to every six persons. Health conditions were greatly improved after the arrival of the cows in Plymouth.

Motor Fuels
Present trends in the direction of increased sulfur content of motor fuels have two important effects on the use of leaded gasoline in engines. Increased sulfur in leaded fuels reduces the antiknock efficiency of tetraethyl lead and causes lead-sulfur compounds to be major products of combustion.

N. Michigan Offers Hay Fever Relief

Hay fever sufferers may expect to find haven in about half of Michigan's area this summer, the Michigan Department of Health said today. "Comparative relief from ragweed hay fever may be expected in the northern third of the lower peninsula and in most of our upper peninsula," the Department said in its report of the 1949 ragweed pollen survey which incorporates facts from previous years' surveys.

Six Michigan communities were virtually free of ragweed pollen last summer and 17 others reported no more than six days when the pollen concentration reached 100 grains per cubic yard of air. The survey was conducted in 58 communities throughout the state.

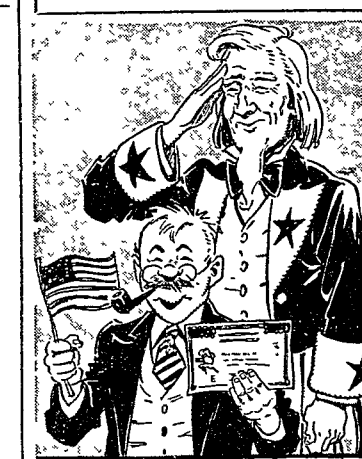

Areas which reported no significant pollen counts during the 1949 season were Boyne City, Charlevoix, East Tawas, Petoskey, St. Ignace and Sault Ste. Marie. Munising reported only one day with a pollen count of over 100 grains per cu. yard of air; Crystal Falls, Marquette, Newberry and Ontonagon, only three days; Escanaba, Gladwin, and Houghton, only four days; Mackinac Island, only five days; and Eagle Harbor and Manistique, only six days.

Cities having the longest ragweed hay fever season were Battle Creek, Grand Rapids, Hillsdale and Saginaw each of which had 33 days with ragweed pollen counts of over 100 grains. Lansing and Jackson were close behind with 32 and 31 days, respectively.

Ragweed pollen began to appear in Michigan about mid-July; counts of more than 100 grains were not common until the second and third week in August, and the greatest concentration of pollen occurred the last week in August and the first week in September.

Copies of the 1949 ragweed pollen survey report which include a detailed chart of the 1949 and previous seasons, may be obtained without charge from the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan. Because of budget cuts, the Department will be unable to conduct a ragweed pollen survey this summer.

Uncle Sam Says

Each June 14 we pay honor to the Stars and Stripes on what is officially designated "Flag Day." Under that flag our country has remained free and it is everyone's desire that it stays that way. It has been said that no country can ever be stronger than its people, citizens who are free in every way. One of the keystones in this freedom is financial security and your government has provided a safe, sure and automatic way of saving. It is U. S. Savings Bonds which can be piled up through the Payroll Savings Plan at work, the Bond-A-Month Plan at your bank, or for cash at your bank or post office.

NEWS LETTER

The "arsenal of democracy" for World War II is getting ready for World War III

While hoping that Russia would not precipitate another world conflagration, Michigan government and civilian leaders are taking a practical viewpoint. If war does break out, Michigan, can expect aerial attack from the enemy for the first time in the commonwealth's history

Governor G. Mennen Williams has asked mayors of 45 cities, all over 10,000 population to appoint civilian defense directors at once. A temporary air raid warning system will be placed into operation by Commissioner Donald Leonard, Michigan State Police. The governor was assured by Rep. Victor Knox, speaker of the House, that the legislature would convene promptly if, in the opinion of the governor new legislation was needed to prepare Michigan for any emergency. The legislature is now technically in recess.

At the Soo locks the government closed the locks to visitors as a security precaution, labeled as a "10 day test"

The state police radio network is being alerted for possible emergency use.

In Detroit, where munitions were mass-produced during World War II at victorious volume, steps have been taken to notify the public if Russia attempts a sneak attack by air. Sirens have been silenced on police and fire equipment so that the sound of sirens, at any time, will mean just one thing: WAR! Augmenting the Police-fire sirens warnings will be the whistles of 140 factories.

Plans to evacuate industrial centers are being rushed, while first aid organization was being pushed to provide doctors, nurses and nurses' aides for bombed areas.

All of these hurried preparations reveal the extent of which Michigan citizens have been suffering from war jitters.

At Washington the Congress approved extension of the Draft, empowering the president to draft needed manpower for the armed forces, now 635,000 men short. Michigan's selective service machinery is being kept on a stand-by basis for instant call.

Last Thursday (July 6) at Lansing all civilian defense coordinators gathered for a statewide session.

Detroit's coordinator, Brig. Gen. Clyde E. Dougherty, gave this bit of advice, as publicized in the press:

"Al! I can say is be calm, don't get hysterical, get under cover, turn off the gas and lights, leave the radio on for advice, and have plenty of water available.

Washington advice is that an outbreak of war would automatically invoke the most drastic restrictions on food, transportation, and materials. Prices would be put under ceilings; wages probably frozen.

All of this disturbing preparation is likely, as long as war clouds are on the horizon, to prompt apprehensive housewives to "play safe" by purchasing a few extra pounds of sugar; families to take that year-planned vacation in the near future and perhaps to order a

Speed Causes Most Traffic Accidents

Nearly one thousand persons are being killed or injured on Michigan highways each week, and speed is one of the principal causes, Sgt. H. P. Kozowicz of the Detroit post of the Michigan State Police asserted today in urging motorists to cooperate in the present campaign to reduce the frequency of this most serious traffic offense.

"The slogan of the campaign, 'Speeders Lose,' has been well selected, for the records prove that speeders do lose," Sgt. Kozowicz said. "Even when speed is not the direct cause of an accident it often contributes to its seriousness and means the difference between life and death."

"Not only was speed a factor in 500 Michigan traffic deaths last year, but also was responsible for the injury of many of the 41,000 persons who were hurt

new automobile, television set, clothes and other commodities which might become scarce articles. Hoarding of this kind will have one inevitable result: An artificial shortage, thus created, will skyrocket prices unnecessarily.

And yet human nature may be expected to function, as it always does.

Michigan's big news-of-the-week is the hurried preparation to get under cover from Russian bombing planes if and when war breaks.

If war does come, a lot of people fear that Michigan may be caught unprepared. The big industrial centers and the Soo locks offer ideal targets, and a few bombs, placed accurately, could become miniature "Pearl Harbors" to American security.

in the 143,000 accidents that occurred in the state.

"Motorists should take heed of the fact that accidents are on the increase in Michigan. So are injuries and deaths. Many pleasure drives and vacation trips are ending in tragedy. The answer is that every driver, for his own sake as well as for the welfare of others, should drive carefully and alertly, and remember particularly that speeders lose."

Sgt. Kozowicz also explained that where there is no specified speed limit, which is the case on most of the highway system, the state law provides that it is a violation to drive faster than conditions such as traffic, weather and time of day permit.

Sparling-Frid Vows Read In Home Ceremony July 8

Saturday afternoon at 3:30, Marcia Jane Sparling, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Harold I. Sparling and Norman Jesse Frid, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Frid of 321 North Center Street, were united in marriage at the bride's home, 324 Main street.

Rev. Henry Walch of the Plymouth Presbyterian church performed the double ring ceremony before the fireplace decorated with palms and summer flowers in the presence of the immediate families.

Mrs. Barton Connors presided at the piano. She played "Because" and "At Dawning".

The bride who came down the improvised aisle on the arm of her father, wore a white cap-sleeved ballerina gown of marquisette over taffeta. White net gauntlets completed the ensemble and her shoulder-length veil of white net was caught to her head by a crown of white net. She carried a bouquet of summer flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Light (Grace Bird) and Marcia's sister, Carol Ann, who wore gowns of white marquisette over colored taffeta slips. Mrs. Light's was orchid taffeta and Carol Ann's was apple green taffeta. Their nylon crownless picture hats were trimmed in colors similar to that of their gowns. Both wore wrist corsages of summer flowers.

Hugh Lockhart of 618 Orchard Drive acted as the bridegroom's best man. William Light of Northville was the usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Sparling wore a taupe shantung dress with white accessories and a corsage of summer flowers. Mrs. Frid wore a powder blue dress with black accessories and she also wore a corsage of summer flowers.

A garden reception immediately followed the ceremony for 150 friends and relatives who were present from Canada, Albion, Ann Arbor, Plymouth and Northville.

The newlyweds will travel by car to the Upper Peninsula and upon their return will make their home at 430 East Main Street. For her trip, the bride wore a tweed shantung dress with brown accessories.

Marcia is a graduate of Northville High school and attended Kathryn Gibbs Secretarial school in Chicago, Ill. The bridegroom is also a graduate of Northville High school and is now attending the Detroit Business College. He is co-owner of the Northville Laundry.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Quinn and son, Dennis of Beloit, Wisconsin were recent house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack White of Butler avenue. Mrs. Quinn and Mrs. White are sisters.

Haefner-Getts Vows Read in Plymouth

Saturday evening, July 1, Joan Haefner became the bride of Roland Getts in a candlelight ceremony performed in the First Presbyterian Church, Plymouth, with the Rev. Henry J. Walch officiating. White gladioli decorated the church for the evening wedding.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Haefner of Plymouth, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of embroidered imported Swiss organdy over taffeta. It was designed with fitted bodice buttoned to the waistline in front, a sweetheart neckline and long fitted sleeves. The skirt fell in a circular train. A fingertip veil attached to a halo shaped headpiece completed the bride's ensemble. White roses and Stephanotis made up her bouquet.

Sandra Walch, maid of honor, wore blue organdy over taffeta for her gown, which featured a portrait neckline and buttons to the waist in the front. Stephanotis trimmed the maid of honor's blue tulle headpiece and yellow roses were her bouquet.

How Hudson's exclusive recessed floor brings you America's Roomiest Car!

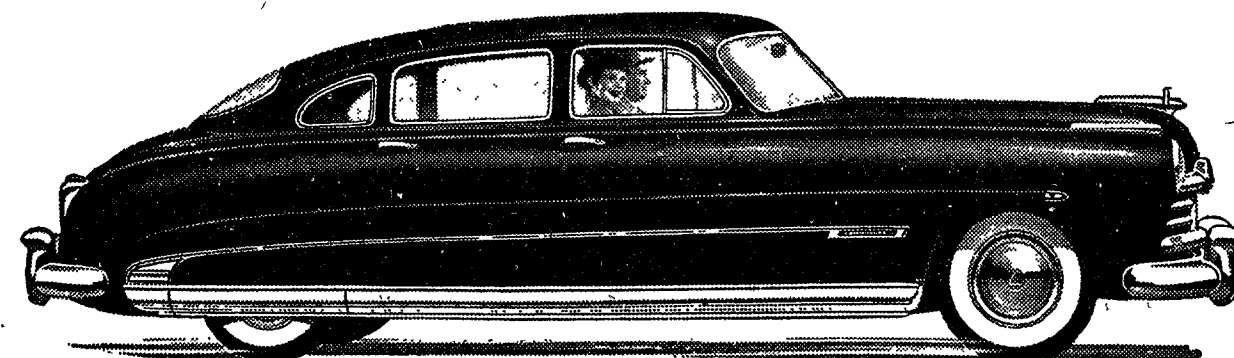

HUDSON

Recessed floor ("step-down" design) brings the space between frame members, which is wasted in other cars, into Hudson's passenger compartment. This results in America's lowest center of gravity (and full road clearance), while providing more head room and seating room than any other car.

OTHER CARS

Floor is on top of the frame, so the vital space between frame members is not available for passenger use. The result is a higher center of gravity and either a high roof line or insufficient head room. Seats are narrower; passenger space is reduced.

SPORTS

Stones Takes Lead in Softball As Teams Scramble

Stone's Gamble Store softball team moved into first place last Monday night in the Northville league by defeating Schrader's Furniture 4-3. The Mayor's team helped them by dropping the second game of the evening to Bloom's Insurance, 16-9, and by forfeiting a game last Thursday night to the Optimists because the Mayors couldn't field a full team by game time.

The week's four games saw each of the six teams in the league change places in the standings. Stone's moved from second to first and the Mayors plunged into a tie for third with Bloom's. The Optimists rose from third to second spot.

The Bev Smith Ford team edged Schrader's last Thursday night, 6-5, and Schrader's second defeat Monday pushed Ford into fifth in the standings and dropped Schrader's from third into the cellar.

How they stand:

	W	L
Stone's	4	2
Optimists	3	2
Mayors	3	3
Blooms	3	3
Ford's	2	3
Schrader's	2	4

The new Ford team, which is getting a late start in the league, won the first game last Thursday night at Ford Field, topping Schrader's 6-5. In the second game, the Mayors had only eight players by game time and had to forfeit to the Optimists, but won a practice game 10-2.

Perry Graham, supported by good fielding, gave up only three hits as Stone's defeated Schrader's 4-3 last Monday night. The three hits were costly, however, Menchasa's single in the second inning scored Dick Vaughn, who had walked, and Lyster Wick's four-bagger scored Sonny Johnson ahead of him in the fifth.

Stone's got a run in the second when Pottinger singled and tallied on an error and Stison tallied in the third when a thrown ball hit him and bounded into center field as he was taking second on a passed ball. Graham scored in the same inning on Pottinger's double. The final tally came in the fifth when Stison scored on Robinson's double after walking and taking second on Nitzel's sacrifice bunt. The Bloom-Mayors game, the evening wind-up, wound up in a

Daisy Rifle Tied for First Place

As the Central Michigan Girls Softball League reaches the halfway mark, Adrian, Daisy and Lansing are in a three way tie for first place with 4 wins and 2 losses each, while Ann Arbor has yet to win a game in 6 starts. The odd part of this is that Adrian has beaten Lansing two games, Lansing has beaten Daisy twice and Daisy has beaten Adrian twice.

The Daisy girls traveled to Flint and engaged the I. M. A. Girls, a semi-pro team, and lost by the score of 4 to 3 in nine innings, with Betty Ross getting a home run with none on and a triple with 2 on. Margaret Satterla pitched 4 1/2 innings and allowed 7 hits and Marge Sowa pitched the remainder and allowed but 1 hit. Miss Sowa struck out 5 and walked one. Miss Satterla allowed all four runs but only one was earned.

Daisy will be guests to Lansing July 16 at Ford Field. July 22 Daisy journeys to Brighton to meet Ann Arbor and Pontiac comes to Northville for a game July 23.

slugging match liberally spiced with errors. The score was knotted at 9-9 going into the last of sixth inning, with Bloom's at bat, but Bloom's unloaded seven runs, four of them with two out, to win 16-9. The game was called at the end of the sixth because of the time-limit rule. Ray Doolin was the winning pitcher, Cal Bidwell the loser.

Hilltoppers Win First Round in Summer League

Something a little different in softball is the Cross-Town league, composed of four teams, sponsored by the Recreation Committee. It's different in that the teams are composed of both boys and girls. An added out-of-the-way touch is provided by the tournament set-ups. They're short. In fact, there is a championship tangle each week.

The four teams in the league are Central, Northside, Hilltoppers and Bealtown, each a geographic area of Northville. On Thursdays, two games are played and the winners meet on Fridays for the show-down. So, if a team doesn't win a championship this week, there's no need to brood about it, there's a new chance next week.

The Hilltoppers won the first round last Friday in seven innings, stopping Northside 8-6 at Ford Field. Al Iversen was the winning pitcher.

Lamar Nalley got a triple in the first inning to score Iversen. Jerry Graham got a double for Northside in the fifth.

In last Thursday's first game, Northside showered Central in the first inning and emerged on the top of a 14-5 score to qualify for the play off. The Central hurler gave up six runs in the first frame on four walks, hits by Conrad Burkman and Bill Lemmon and a three-bagger by Dick Grimshaw. Lemmon's triple in the second frame was instrumental in two more runs, and Dave Waterloo, Burkman, Jim Newhouse and Jack Waterloo figured in three more tallies in the third. Lemmon and Albert Cronquist got hits after Grimshaw walked in the fourth, producing three final tallies.

Jim Weston scored for Central in the first frame after three Northside errors. Bob Wagenschutz and Johnny Gregory got across the plate in the second on Jim Weston's hit, and Betty Gregory's home run with Jim Allan on base in the third accounted for the other two scores. Joe Wooton, Peter Gross, Walter Palmer, Garry Hix and Bob Dayton rounded out the Northside lineup, and Jim Patterson, and Jim Dale and Dolores Burrell were in there for Central.

In the second game last Thursday, the Hilltoppers edged Bealtown 2 to 1 in a tight game won by pitcher Al Iversen. Bob Schock was charged with the loss.

Iversen gave up six bases-on-balls in the tilt, two of which cost Bealtown's lone tally. Charles Wilson and Dave Hartner opened the game with free passes and Wilson scored on a hit by Glen Howarth. Dick Buckley and Howarth got as far as third later in the game, but couldn't score.

Gene Rebitzke and Lamar Nally provided the two runs for the Hilltoppers on three Bealtown errors in the second inning. Schock hurled a good game the rest of the way, allowing only two hits, but the early errors cost him the game. He issued no walks.

Playing for the Hilltoppers were Iversen, Joe Girardin, Doug Bennett, Rebitzke, Nalley, Bob Gregory, Dick Willis, Bill Dietz and Ron Grissom.

Wilson, Hartner, Schock, Howarth, Bob Wilson, Don Johnson, Jim Wilson, Buckley and Ollie Spencer were the Bealtown lineup.

Edward Lanning's Poetry Wins Cash Award

In the recent Avery Hopwood and Jule Hopwood writing contest conducted this spring at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Edward Putnam Lanning won a $200.00 prize in the minor poetry division.

Edward, who submitted his poems under the pen name, "Robinson E. Putnam," is a sophomore at the University and the son of Mrs. Marjorie Lanning of South Wing Street and the late Floyd Lanning. The group of poems, entitled "Miscellany," consisted of several sonnets, a series on "The Coming of Spring," "Three Quatrains" as well as other poems.

The following are two of Edward's poems:

Complaint

A word's a ferment in the void,
A brittle nothingness alloyed
With chaos from the periphery:
An arbitrary insanity.

A word's a ragged temple wreck
Of twisted stone and crumbled brick,
Built by a madman architect
In service to an insane sect.

A word is but an empty glass,
A coffee cup, a demitasse,
A goblet for the Rheinisch wine,
A tumbler, or a pewter stein.
A word sits vacant on the shelf,
Empty and senseless in itself,

Unwashed, a filthy, useless shelf,
That smells of some supernal
jape:
No sense, no meaning, till the day
When language takes it from its tray,
Cleanses it for a new creation,
And fills it with association.

To A Dreamer

Oh, softly dreamer, from the world withdrawn
Like some grey midnight moon
That still pursues
Its well-trod orbit, till the gray dawn
Bugles a soft retreat: the sun is loose.

Throughout the night-time of your childhood life
Have you along your distant path
revolved;

And dreamed your deathless dreams, and known no strife,
And left your dreams unsampled
and unsolved:

But now, an outer change has issued call
For inner change; you are not as you were.

From childhood's eyes illusion's blinds must fall:
The recluse must too soon his dreams defer.

And voh, I would that you could always be
The soft, sweet breath of spring
you are to me.

OBITUARY

LT. RICHARD N. CLARKE

Lt. Richard N. Clarke of New York City, age 44, died Sunday, July 9 in the Presbyterian Hospital in New York City. Services were held in Bronxville, New York and burial was made in the Rural Hill Cemetery where several other members of the Clarke family are buried.

Surviving are Mr. Clarke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence D. Clarke of Bronxville, New York and formerly of Northville; his wife, Mrs. Edith A. Clarke and a sister, Sister Maria St. Pricilla of the House of Good Shepherd, Dearborn.

Mr. Clarke was born in Northville September 4, 1906 and lived here four years. He was a member of the American Legion and Delta Tau Delta fraternity at Columbia University.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Casterline of West Dunlap street were members of the Saner-Penney wedding party on Friday, June 30. Mrs. Casterline was a bridesmaid for her sister, Madeline Saner who became the bride of Avery Penney at St. Peter's Lutheran church. Fred served as an usher in the wedding party.

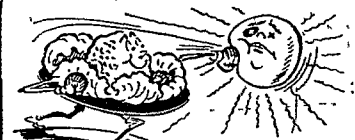

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Owens of Northville Road were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Littleton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Owens and family and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keene and family.

Mrs. Harvey Hodge of Dunlap street returned from a short trip to Manitowac, Wisconsin where she visited her husband while his ship was in drydock.

SUMMER SALAD PLATES

For a lift at the end of a hot summer day, a salad—crisp, cool, and loaded with vitamins—is unbeatable. When meat is an ingredient, it makes a perfect main dish for a warm evening. The meat may be cooked during the cooler morning hours, or it may be a carry-over from last night's dinner. This salad calls for the crispness of greens and thorough chilling before serving.

Changeabout Salad

2 cups cooked diced meat or flaked fish
1 cup diced celery
1/4 cup chopped sour pickle or 1/3 cup pickle relish
2 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 head of lettuce, torn into pieces

Mix together all ingredients except lettuce. Add lettuce at serving time and mix lightly. Serve in salad bowls or on plates. Yield: 5 to 6 servings.

Fish Salad

Adding cooked shrimp or whitefish, with 2 tablespoons each of diced green pepper and pimiento for color and flavor, give a version of Changeabout Salad that is as good as it is attractive. Heap on fresh green leaf lettuce and surround by a pineapple slice topped with cottage cheese, chilled asparagus, and brown rice. Add a small amount of lemon juice to the mayonnaise and garnish with one-half cup toasted almonds.

Chicken Luncheon Combination

For that "special" luncheon, substitute one cup of grapefruit sections or pineapple cutlets for the pickles when chicken is used. Add a small amount of lemon juice to the mayonnaise and garnish with one-half cup toasted almonds. A hot green vegetable such as broccoli or beans, and hot biscuits with honey are perfect with this salad. For dessert try fruit sherbet and brownies—it's sure to please.

State Dep't Plans Camping Program

Two of the 60 state parks and recreation areas are serving as test tubes for a new camping program which the conservation department will expand should popularity warrant.

Experimental camp units, now in operation at the Brighton and Pinckney recreation areas near Ann Arbor and Jackson, are designed for small groups, such as families, who always have wanted to take a short whirl at tent camping but who have balked at the thought of investing large sums in tenting equipment.

Tents are not designed to accommodate more than a total of eight adults and children. Groups may stay for one day or a week and have one-week renewal privileges providing there is no conflict with other reservations. Near each tent site are such facilities as pit toilets, grills, water supply, fishing, swimming and others. Nominal fee $1 per day including rental of tenting equipment covers all camping charges.

The department's parks division says that neither test camping program interferes with regular park activities.

Interested persons may write park managers — William Tait at Brighton, or Ernest Bottke at Pinckney.

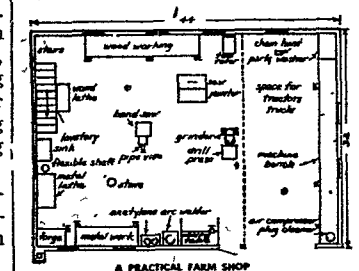

Farm Shop Layout Adds More Space

More Equipment Added As Skill Is Increased

The shop layout, sketched by Harold E. Gulvin, New York teacher of vocational agriculture, includes spaces for more equipment than most farmers plan to put in their shops. But he has observed, he says, that farmers rapidly obtain more equipment as they become skilled in handling their own repair and construction work.

In describing the farm shop in the book, "Welding Helps Farmers," published by the James F. Lincoln Arc Welding Foundation, Cleveland, Ohio, states that this plan is the result of many years of experience in working in and examining many farm shops, and makes the following suggestions:

For storage space, many drawers should be installed under the benches. The walls can be used to hang other tools where they can easily be seen and reached. The heating stove is placed in the corner near the smokestack provided for the forge.

The entire right side of this shop plan is for tractors and trucks. There is a handy chain hoist for raising heavy machinery opposite the large overhead outside door. The air compressor and the welder are close to the outside door so that tires can be inflated and machines can be welded without having to drive into the shop. The welder should have sufficient welding cable to reach well over the repair area.

The combination of an arc welder, an acetylene torch, a blacksmith's forge, a heavy-duty grinder, a drill press, and a metal lathe are all included in this shop and are grouped together. The grinder and drill press are installed on a supporting post, allowing the grinding and drilling of long pieces. The pipe vise is attached to another supporting post.

Foot Ventilation
Reason doctors urge removing rubbers and galoshes indoors is that leather soles on shoes cannot ventilate properly if hampered by impermeable foot coverings.

The Car that puts your Best Foot forward

WE think you'll agree that the whole story of an automobile isn't told in its power, its room, its styling, even in its ride.

There is the all-important point about what a car does to you—and that's where ROADMASTER really shines.

For you can't slip into this bonny beauty's broad seats without feeling like somebody pretty special.

When you take its neat wheel in your hand—when you cut loose, with a toe-touch, the rich baritone of its big Fireball straight-eight power plant—when you feel the smooth surge of its Dynaflo-cushioned take-off—

Man, then you know you've got a real automobile!

And don't overlook this:

That graceful sweep of chrome along the fender—found on no other car made today—is a mighty eye-catching note of distinction.

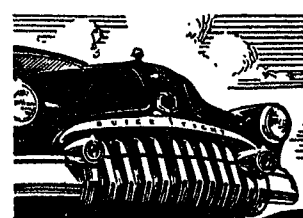

Those four Ventiports, too, cause many a head to turn—they mark you unmistakably as the owner of the biggest and best Buick built—a car as fine and rich as any man has need for.

There are a lot of good, solid, dollars-and-cents reasons for making ROADMASTER your choice over any other car:

Its size. The commanding performance of its 152-hp Fireball valve-in-head straight-eight engine. Dynaflo Drive standard. A ride that's quite matchless in its gentle softness. Distinguished styling from bold, protective front end to gleaming "double bubble" taillight.

But if you're ready for a car that's more than just an automobile—if you want one that puts your best foot forward in any company—that's the real reason for seeing your Buick dealer quickly—to talk turkey about a ROADMASTER.

FOUR-WAY FOREFRONT

This rugged front end (1) sets the style note, (2) saves on repair costs—vertical bars are individually replaceable, (3) avoids "locking horns," (4) makes parking and garaging easier.

NEWS and COMMENT

FROM CONGRESSMAN

GEORGE A. DONDERO

There is an old saying "In time of peace, prepare for war." That advice is sound. In a world such as we now have, the nation which does not follow that advice is asking for defeat. Yet it would seem that, insofar as the Far East is concerned, Uncle Sam has failed to take the measures which would have put him in a position to defend his own interests of all peace-loving nations. Defense, that is, without severe losses and tremendous expenditures, which otherwise could have been avoided.

During the years when Chiang Kai-Shek and his Nationalist Government in China were fighting the Chinese Communist armies of the North, no demand was made upon Uncle Sam for the use of American soldiers. "Give us some money, and more munitions," said Chiang, "and we will put an end to Communism in China." But pinks and fellow travelers in Uncle Sam's government would have nothing of Chiang. They succeeded in defeating the will of Congress. They succeeded in holding up money and supplies earmarked by Congress for the Chinese Nationalists, until Chiang had nothing left to fight with, and was driven to a final refuge on the island of Formosa. The Chinese Communists took over all of China.

These men who defeated the will of Congress, it should be noted, were such as Alger Hiss, who stands convicted of lying about his assistance to Russian espionage agents, and others who have been whitewashed or who escaped with slight punishment. These are the men whom Senator McCarthy has been trying to smoke out of their jobs in Uncle Sam's government.

Now Uncle Sam always had supported the Chinese Nationalist Government, from the days when Sun Yat Sen dethroned the Manchu dynasty and set up the Chinese Republic. The Chinese Republic was in existence when Chiang Kai-Shek came upon the scene, and the boundaries of the Republic were well defined. Helped by the Kremlin, the Chinese Communists revolted, seized part of China, and set up their own government. Two separate nations thus were created.

But the gang in effective control of our Far Eastern policy called the war between Chiang and the Chinese Communists a Civil War. The Chinese Communists were called Agrarian Reformers. Uncle Sam did not intervene, because it was held that he had no business interfering in a Civil War. Perhaps this was so. Nevertheless, if it was the truth, then how does the situation in Korea differ from that which earlier prevailed in China? The North and South Koreans are no more and no less one nation than were the Chinese Nationalists and Chinese Communists.

We are told that Uncle Sam is not at war; that the action in South Korea is merely a police action in behalf of the United Nations. Undeniably this is true. Yet if Uncle Sam had acted in the Chinese war, as he has in the present one; if the police action had been taken then, the same situation would have arisen with respect to the United Nations, and we would have had millions of Chinese soldiers on our side, instead of on the side of the Kremlin. American boys would not be dying in the Far East, as they are doing today.

As matters stand now, we can be sure that the hostilities will determine what nations would stand by us, and which would not, in the event of a third World War. It will be interesting to see who joins in the present police action.

Detroit Track To Open Harness Meet Monday, July 17

Big-time harness racing comes to Detroit Monday night, July 17, with the opening of the 43-night meeting at the handsome new $4,500,000 Detroit Race Track, Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Roads.

The fastest pacers and trotters in the country are now assembling at the Detroit track to bid for honors in this meet, lured by the richest purses ever offered at a harness track in the Midwest.

Among the entries are the top winners from such outstanding tracks as Santa Anita in California, the Roosevelt Raceway in New York and Maywood Park in Chicago. Most of these horses will be making their first appearances on a Michigan oval.

Eight races will be held every night except Sunday throughout the meeting. The first race will start at 8:15 each night. The track's 94-million candlepower lighting system is the best in the country.

Approximately 1,000 carefully selected horses have been accepted for the meet. This represents full capacity for the available stall space.

The pacer and trot fields are both crowded with horses whose names are touched with magic for harness race fans everywhere. Ed Cobb and Jerry Burdick are bringing in 20 fine horses from Santa Anita, including Jerry the First, winner of the $50,000 Golden West Pace at the California oval this Summer. Cobb will drive Jerry the First here. William H. Cane, president of the Wolverine Harness Raceway, has entered Good Time, the leading money winner among pacers on the Grand Circuit as a two-year-old and as a three-year-old. Other outstanding pacers are Charming Scott, True Neil and Noble F. Charming Scot, winner of six of seven starts at Maywood this Summer, has traveled the mile in 2:04.3. True Neil and Noble F. have each gone the mile in 2:05.

Fay Spencer is indexed as one of the top trotters. Fay Spencer comes here from Maywood where she set a track record with a 2:06 2/5 mile recently.

Jeffrey Hanover and Joe Donlin, each with a 2:07 mile on the record books, are other favorites among the trotters.

Blood Test for Hogs
The blood test is a means of detecting brucellosis in a herd of swine, but it is not reliable when applied to individual hogs.
