Ann Davis Tells of European Trip

Ann Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Davis of Cambridge Drive returned last week from a six weeks tour of England, France, Scotland, Belgium, Italy and Switzerland.

Ann journeyed abroad with several of her Michigan State College classmates on the White Star Cunard boat, Georgic. They docked in Liverpool, England June 17 and went to Edinburgh, Scotland to sightsee for a few days. Ann reports that it was very cool there, and that they needed gas heat in their hotel room.

From Edinburgh, the group journeyed to London where they visited many historic places such as Buckingham Palace, Westminster Abbey and Charles Dickens home. Ann stated that the English people are still eating the dark black bread, although their articles of food and clothing are no longer rationed.

Paris, France was next on the agenda and the young people spent July 4th as guests of the American Embassy where the day was spent in shooting off fireworks. They next journeyed to southern France and Ann reports that the first view of the Mediterranean Sea was breathtaking. From her hotel room balcony, the sea seemed to change colors three or four times a day she stated. The food situation was much better in France, Ann reported.

Florence, Italy and Rome were next on the list of cities to be toured. Rome was very jammed with American tourists, Ann said. She saw Lou Costello of the movies in Rome and trips were made to the Pantheon and the centuries old, coliseum.

Venice was the next city visited and the group rode gondola buses, and toured glass blowing factories and watched the ladies make lace.

Switzerland, with all its scenic splendor captured Ann's fancy. The group rode a cog wheel train to the timberline of Mt. Pilatus in the Alps and then climbed to the summit. Another interesting experience was a boat ride on beautiful Lake Lucerne. A week-end was spent in Geneva which Ann found to be jammed with American tourists.

Brussels, Belgium was visited a few days after King Leopold's return to the country and then the group crossed the channel to London and thence to Liverpool where the group embarked on the Georgic for New York.

Stones' Beat Mayors In Playoffs, 5-4

The Stone's Gamble Store team knocked the Mayor's team out of the men's softball playoffs Tuesday night in an extra-inning game by a score of 5 to 4. The game was almost flawless in its early stages but developed into a hit-and-error melee in the extra two innings.

Stone's hurler Dave Pottinger held the Mayors to three scattered hits and sported a 1-0 lead until the last of the seventh when Bishop tied it up by scoring from third on a passed ball. Pottinger drove in Stone's first run with an infield rap in the third frame.

Perry Graham singled and scored in the top of the eighth on Pottinger's infield grounder, but Tom Stalker got home for the Mayors to knot the count again.

Stone's got three unearned runs in the first of the ninth via Ken Farrell's single, four errors and two passed balls. In their half of the ninth, the Mayors almost got the range on Pottinger. Bishop smashed a sharp single through the box and came home on Charlie Cole's triple. Clayt Graham slammed a three-bagger over the center-fielder's head to score Cole, but that ended the scoring and the game.

Displaced Family Reaches Northville

Sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church of Northville, a family of displaced persons had their first introduction to American community life here this week.

Mrs. Lidia Korol, and her three children, Lidia, Constantine and George are temporary guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur H. Johnston. After twenty days aboard ship, they arrived in New York City and then on to Detroit where Dr. and Mrs. Johnston met them on Thursday morning, August 10. The Korols are one of sixty-two family units who will be assisted by the Presbytery of Detroit. Brought to this country by Church World Service, the united protestant agency, they have been living at the Munchen-Laim DP Camp in the United States Zone of Germany. Their home was originally in the Ukraine.

Members of the community enjoyed visiting with the family following the Summer Union church service at the Methodist Church. Lidia Korol, the daughter speaks English quite fluently. Mrs. Korol and the daughter plan to work and the two boys will attend school. They are trying to find a flat in the Detroit area. Donations of furniture will be very acceptable to the family, those who can assist will kindly call Rev. Harold F. Fredsell or Dr. W. H. Johnston, chairman of the displaced persons committee.

Obey Signal Lights Is Police Slogan

Joe Denton, Chief of the Northville police department, again reminds all motorists of Northville that his department is cooperating with the State Highway Department and the Michigan State Safety Commission in a program designed to make our highways safer. The campaign continues through the month of August.

This week, Chief Denton says, stress is being put upon the reasons for obeying stop and go signal lights. "This is an all-out drive to save lives, prevent injuries and stop the property damage on our streets and highways," he said.

"Traffic stop and go lights are very dangerous," the Chief said, "unless all drivers obey them, because drivers approaching from opposite directions depend upon each other and when one fails to heed a stop light a crash is certain. Stop and go lights are there for driver and pedestrian protection, but do not provide automatic safety. If all drivers and pedestrians obeyed, the traffic lights at all times there would be no accidents at intersections."

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler says that stop and go signal lights are placed only after careful study determines that safety conditions at an intersection will be definitely improved. He warns that drivers trying to "beat the lights" are the greatest contributors to intersection accidents.

Loses Tam Play-Off

MELVIN "CHICK" HARBERT

Harbert Places 2nd in Golf Play-Off

Melvin "Chick" Harbert, Meadowbrook Country Club's hard hitting golf professional, lost to Henry Ransom Monday to place second in the Tam O'Shanter "world" golf championship.

Harbert's prize for second place was a $5,000 which boosts his winnings this year to $8,398 and places him 11th in the list of money winners. Tops in the list is Sam Snead who had garnered $29,048.84 this season. Ransom's prize in the tournament was the "plum" of the golfing season, $11,000, which boosts his earnings this year to $18,885.03, making him second in the PGA's listing of money winners for 1950.

Harbert was beaten by three strokes in the last nine holes of the play-off Monday. The play-off was necessitated after the two pros had tied at 281 Sunday after the 72 hole tournament had ended. During the first nine holes the lead changed three times, but in the last nine it was Ransom's game all the way. The game ended with 69 for the 39 year old Texan from Dallas as compared to 72 for the Meadowbrook pro.

Harbert returns to Northville this week and he will make a public appearance Sunday when he will participate in a golf exhibition and clinic with Horton Smith and the famous Bauer sisters, Marlene and Alice, at his home club. The public is invited to attend this outstanding event in golf which will get underway at 2:00 p. m.

The Bauer sisters' home is in California and they were taught golf by their father, Dave Bauer, a pro. Rev. H. F. Fredsell read the candlelight service at eight o'clock before an altar banked with bouquets of white gladioli, ferns, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Gladys Connors presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist Leonard Randall, cousin of the bridegroom, as he sang "Through the Years" and "I Love Thee."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of white slipper satin styled with long sleeves that ended in points over the hands, illusion and Chantilly lace neckline edged with a small berth of satin and the full skirt fell over a hoop and ended in a train. Little Donald Jones, brother of the bride, was the train bearer and he was dressed in an all white suit.

Deane McDaris of Detroit, cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man and the ushers were William Morgan of Detroit, William Hawkins of Grosse Pointe and Irving Hansen of Northville.

Year's Enrollment at Michigan State Sets New Record

A grand total of 20,499 persons were enrolled in campus classes and extension courses offered by Michigan State College during the 1949-50 fiscal year, according to the annual report of Robert S. Linton, registrar.

Included in this total are 17,627 regular students, 783 additional persons who took short courses, and 548 enrolled in the college's extension courses throughout the state. This exceeds, by nearly 500, last year's cumulative total of 20,005. Linton said.

High point in enrollment was reached in the fall quarter, when a total of 16,243 students registered. This was enough to boost Michigan State to the number 11 position among the nation's colleges and universities in full-time enrollments.

Represented in regular campus enrollment were 15,304 students (87 per cent) from every Michigan county but Keweenaw; 3,378 from 47 other states and five possessions; and 349 students from 49 foreign countries.

Total degrees awarded by Michigan State came to 4,074, more than 900 over the 1948-1949 total of 3,158.

With every Southern state stressing good forest management the golden age of forestry is just beginning in the South.

MARRIED SATURDAY MORNING

Luttman-Wakefield Rites Read in St. Agatha's Church

Kathleen Ann Luttman of 18921 Melvin Street and Alvin Wakefield Jr. of 21327 Negaunee were united in marriage Saturday morning at St. Agatha's Catholic Church, Detroit.

The double ring service was pledged before an altar which was flanked with baskets of gladiolus. The church choir sang the nuptial mass.

Given in marriage by her father, Russell Luttman, Kathleen chose a gown of white marguerite over satin which was fashioned with an illusion neckline and bouffant skirt which ended in a long train. Lace ruffling trimmed the illusion neckline and the edge of the train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara and she carried a prayer book topped with gladiolus.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Eileen Luttman and Betty Murphrey of Livonia was the bridesmaid. The bridal attendants wore off the shoulder organza gowns, Eileen's being green and Betty's yellow. They carried bouquets of gladiolus.

Alvin's best man was Ralph Murphrey of Livonia and the guests were seated by Harold Luttman and Frederick Luttman, brothers of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Luttman wore a black flowered silk dress with black accessories and Mrs. Wakefield chose a navy blue sheer dress with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages composed of pink and white carnations.

A bridal breakfast for the wedding party was held after the ceremony at the bride's home and a reception was held that evening at the Maccabees Hall in Livonia.

The young couple left on a honeymoon to New York and Niagara Falls. For going away, the bride wore a rust suit with white accessories. Upon their return they will make their home at 18658 Negaunee.

Kathleen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Luttman of Livonia and she attended Northville High school. Alvin's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wakefield, Sr. of Livonia.

HOT, FIERY GAS

Stomach Like a Furnace
A Northville man said recently that his stomach used to burn like a "gas factory!" That is, when he ate a meal it seemed to turn right into hot gas. He was always bloated, had gas pains daily. But now this man says he is FREE of STOMACH GAS and he says the change is due to taking CERTA-VIN. His meals agree with him.

CERTA-VIN is a new formula. Taken before meals it works with your food, expels the gas, and thus you get the fullest good out of your meals. It contains Ten Great Herbs, plus vitamin B and Iron. Besides relieving gas it also enriches the blood (with iron) and makes stronger nerves (with vitamin B.) Miserable people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering! Research at U-M Offers Hay Fever Victims Some Hope

There's better news for hay fever sufferers this year - - at least for 15 of them in a research project at the University of Michigan Hospital.

The group of pollen-plagued got complete relief from their symptoms following a course of treatment with the new compounds so effective against rheumatoid arthritis. Cortisone and ACTH, according to Dr. John M. Sheldon, professor of internal medicine, in charge of the hospital's Allergy Clinic.

property is being taken over by Mr. and Mrs. Galosky of Detroit. Three sons of the Galoskys are shortly being sent into active service with the armed forces.

From California we hear that Lt. and Mrs. Al Guilmette had reached their new station in Hawaii, only to have orders almost immediately to fly to Japan. Mrs. Guilmette is believed to have remained with friends in Hawaii.

John Mercer remains in very poor health.

He reported that Cortisone relieved symptoms in two to three days and ACTH brought relief within a few hours following administration. Patients were given twice-daily injections of the compounds for an average of three to five days in the majority of cases, he said.

Although the quick acting ACTH can be a life-saving measure in extreme cases of asthma, the compounds must be given under closely supervised conditions, Dr. Sheldon warned. Improper administration can result in skin eruptions (acne), severe blood chemical changes, high blood pressure and still other undesirable reactions, he indicated.

For these reasons, the compounds must be considered as primarily research tools and not as routinely used drugs, he pointed out. Their real value lies in providing new knowledge about previously poorly understood allergic mechanisms, he stated.

The anti-histamine compounds are still very useful for controlling some patients but they are not the whole answer for treating allergies, he said. They don't affect some symptoms at all, such as a particular type of nasal obstruction, and they should not be used to the exclusion of other types of treatment, the doctor stressed.

To the Editor

Enclosed is a bank draft paying my subscription for the Northville Record in 1950. I was not able to return with my family when they were here and I am doubtful when I will be able to visit Northville and the home-locks, thus I am forwarding the check.

I am taking the liberty to send along some copies of the Councilor edited in our office and perhaps you have shut-ins who would like to receive it, and if so, would send their names to the Layman's Christian Council, care of the John Street Methodist Church, New York City. We are establishing a "Fellowship Fund" and a "Sunshine Corner", and perhaps you might like to inform the Layman's Council at the above address. With continued success to your most valued paper,

I am, very sincerely,
H. H. White.

P. S. Perhaps you might like to know the John Street Church is the oldest edifice of Methodism in U.S.A. and is called the "Mother Church of Methodism in the U. S. A." Thus it is a tremendously interesting and historic place for any one visiting N. Y. City.

Many Educational Developments Due at U-M This Fall

Classes in the Fall Semester at the University of Michigan will open on Monday, September 25. Enrollment is expected to be approximately the same as last fall or about 21,000 students, according to University officials.

Some 5,000 new students, including both freshmen and transfer students, will be on the campus for the first time and an extensive orientation week has been arranged from Monday through Saturday, September 18 to 23, to make these students thoroughly familiar with the campus.

On the educational side, the Fall Semester will bring many important developments. Among the major events will be:

(1) The start of a new School of Natural Resources to replace the School of Forestry and Conservation.

(2) A four-year undergraduate program in public health technology leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Public Health which will be offered in the School of Public Health. Previous work in this school has been at the graduate level.

(3) The opening of the new Portage Lake Observatory, equipped with a 24-inch Schmidt-type reflecting telescope, will permit the Department of Astronomy to undertake research and instruction in almost any astronomical problem. Because of this, the Department will have the largest enrollment of graduate students in astronomy in the country.

(4) The School of Dentistry will start the year under a new dean, Dr. Paul H. Jeserich, who has replaced Dr. Russell W. Bunting, now on retirement furlough.

(5) The Medical School will begin its second century in a notable record of medical education.

There are many other educational innovations. The School of Architecture and Design is pioneering by introducing building economics into its curriculum. This will bring the social sciences into the training of architects to go along with proficiency in architectural engineering and design.

The School of Business Administration is planning to give emphasis to insurance in the curriculum. It has appointed a Professor of Insurance. It will also provide courses in business as a background for students interested in actuarial work.

The School of Education will offer two courses in new fields, a first semester course on the junior college and a second semester seminar on higher education.

In the College of Literature,

Science and the Arts, the revising of course to meet the new curriculum introduced in the Fall of 1949 continues. The Departments of Botany and Philosophy will offer new elementary courses designed to provide a knowledge of these subjects to students who are not planning to pursue further studies in these fields.

Later in the Fall Semester, the School of Dentistry will inaugurate postgraduate courses in the use of the Air Dent unit and the "Airbrasive" technique.

delegate Wayne County members are financing Mrs. Dugan's trip. Women from 30 countries are expected to attend the international event which has real significance in the creation of better international understanding among women of the free nations of the world.

NEWS

CONGRESSMAN
GEORGE A. DONDERO

Within a few days an effort will be made in the House of Representatives to put through H.R. 8195, a bill to rescind the order of the Postmaster General curtailing postal services with respect to residential deliveries and hours during which postal stations are open to serve the public.

It is my belief that this order by the Postmaster General was unwarranted by the facts, and may have been conceived as a means whereby political pressure might be exerted upon the Congress to grant excessive budget requests of the Post Office Department. Because of this belief, I shall support H.R. 8195.

Coupled with the demand for a postal appropriation for next year far in excess of anything ever granted before, was a statement by the Postmaster General. This statement pointed to deficits on second and third class mail, postal cards, parcel post, and special services. It was said that these deficits aggregate about $435 million annually, whereas the over-all deficit of the Post cream "paddle pops" and 1,000 bottles of pop were consumed in short order. The refreshments had been donated by the Central Fibre company.

Rochester — After a fire in a home under construction at 110 Walnut road in Avon Township south of Rochester on Saturday evening, a state investigation was to be held this week.

Plymouth — Tentative plans for enlarging Dunning library were made at the commission meeting Monday night when the commissioners supported a resolution offered by Commissioner Perry Richwine authorizing City Manager Al Glassford to obtain the necessary plans and estimates for an addition to the present building on Main street.

Chelsea — High School tuition for non-resident pupils for the year 1950-51 was set at $186.77 at Tuesday night's meeting of the Chelsea Agricultural Schools Board of Education. This is approximately $59 higher than last year's $127 and some cents, according to Harold Widmayer, secretary of the Board.

Plymouth — As completion of the new Geo A Smith grade school draws near, the city and members of the school board are making plans to begin work on streets adjacent to the school building.

Office Department is running to about $500 million each year.

In an effort to reduce this deficit and hence the appropriation required to cover it, the House recently approved a bill which would increase rates in the classifications mentioned by the Postmaster General by about $130 million a year. This would make the prospective deficit, to be covered by appropriation, approximately $370 million.

Now it has long been the policy of the Congress to keep postal rates as low as possible, even though deficits are incurred. This because low rates encourage the circulation of books, magazines, and newspapers, and in general permit a vastly greater dissemination of information, without which our form of government could not long survive. Congress expects each year to make up postal deficits. But Congress does not like the idea of making up excessive deficits caused more than anything else by Post Office Department waste and inefficiency.

The Hoover Commission reported that postal operations are not only wasteful and inefficient, but are antiquated, in many respects remaining unchanged for more than a century. But the Truman administration, while it proposed changes in conformance with the Hoover Commission recommendations.

For example, the Post Office Department pays the highest rail rates of any shipper, and accepts railroad figures on how much space and how many cars the railroads should use for mail service. The Post Office Department is the only shipper which reimburses the railroads for dead-head cars traveling without mail cargo, and pays for these cars at passenger rates, although they are returned to rail points in freight trains. Thus the railroads are paid twenty-two per cent of the $221 million they receive annually for rendering no service.

Another change recommended by the Hoover Commission was to stop the policy of subsidizing airlines with mail pay. Many millions of dollars each year are paid to airlines in excess of actual costs plus a fair profit. This policy remains unchanged. If airlines need to be subsidized, as undoubtedly they do as a national defense measure, the subsidies should be appropriated directly by Congress.

If the Hoover Commission recommendations were carried out, then no postal rate increases would be necessary, and the Post Office Department would be largely self-supporting. The Postmaster General's curtailment of mail deliveries did not solve the problem, and never could solve it, while the public has been greatly inconvenienced.

The three-day national field archery tournament is scheduled at East Tawas, August 18-21.

How Hudson, with exclusive recessed floor, brings you the world's Best Ride

HUDSON OTHER CARS

"Step-down" design, with its recessed floor, brings space between frame members, which is wasted in other cars, into Hudson's passenger compartment. This results in America's lowest center of gravity (and full road clearance) for a smoother, steadier, safer ride than is possible in any other car!

Floor is on top of the frame, so the vital space between frame members is not available for passenger use. This creates a higher center of gravity which results in less stability, less smoothness as you ride, particularly on curves, in cross winds and on rough roads.

YOU ARE especially invited to try a Hudson ride, to enjoy a new way of going not available elsewhere at any price!

Hudson's new way of building automobiles with exclusive recessed floor ("step-down" design) results in America's lowest center of gravity—which is the key to the steadiest road-hugging ride ever known!

Hudson's exclusive recessed floor also results in low-built, streamlined beauty. Right along with full road clearance, it brings you more head and seating room than in any other car!

And brilliant, high-compression engine performance, a traditional characteristic with Hudson, is another engineering triumph that makes riding in this great car the outstanding automotive experience of the year! Won't you try it soon?

The new, lower-priced Pacemaker brings you all of Hudson's great advantages for just a few dollars more than the lowest-priced cars!

Softball Playoffs In Home Stretch

The men's softball league playoffs hit the home stretch this week with the Mayors, Stone's Hardware and Schrader's Furniture left to fight it out for the crown.

As of Monday night, Stone's had the mathematical edge, sporting a two-won, no-loss record against a loss each for the Mayors and Schrader's. The playoffs were set up on a two-loss knockout basis, enabling a team to lose one game and still go on to win.

Stone's handed Schrader's their first loss in the tourney Monday night, coming from behind with a four run fifth inning to win 5-3. The Bev. Smith Ford team knocked themselves out of the playoffs by forfeiting to the Mayors' team in what was to be the second game of the evening.

Stone's and the Mayors were slated to meet Tuesday night. The results are on another page in this issue. At this writing, a loss for the Mayors or Schrader's would mean elimination, but a loss by Stone's would put all three teams on an even basis.

The Optimists were knocked out of the playoffs Friday night, losing 5-3 to the Mayors. The Optimists held a 3-0 lead until the sixth inning when the Mayors touched hurler Dick Stanley for five hits which, combined with a hit batter and an error, were good for five tallies. The first Optimist loss was to Stone's in the first playoff game Monday, August 7. The Optimists won their second game, dropping Bloom's Insurance 6-4 Wednesday, August 9, to knock them out. Bloom's had previously lost to the Ford team on Tuesday, August 8.

Stone's has beaten the Optimists and Schrader's. The Mayors have beaten Ford's and the Optimists, and lost to Schrader's.

Schrader's has beaten the Mayors and Ford's and lost to Stone's.

Keglers Map Plans for Coming Season

Both Joe Alessi at Royal Recreation and Angie Gadioli at Northville Center Recreation are in the process of organizing bowling leagues for the coming season. Both report reconditioned and resurfaced alleys for the leagues this fall and winter.

Meetings have been in progress nightly during the past week at Northville Center, and Alessi has scheduled Royal Recreation organizational meetings on August 28 for the Monday league and on September 1 for the Friday league.

Alessi also issued a signing-up call by the Hot 'n Tots so the Saturday league can begin by September. The league is open to youngsters nine to fourteen years of age. They will begin at 10:30 a. m. every Saturday this year to allow them more free time in the afternoon. The Northville Men's Shop team won top honors last year and young keggers were presented with individual trophies by Mr. Maurice Lapham, owner of the Men's Shop.

Brader's Take 2nd In Baseball League

The baseball team sponsored by Brader's Department Store finished the season in second place in the "F" league behind Utilities. The Cardinals and Great Americans were third and fourth.

All All Star team will take on Utilities in an exhibition game Friday night in Plymouth to put the lid on the season.

Brader's was the only Northville team in the league, the other three coming from Plymouth. The team wishes to express its appreciation to Mr. Orson Atchinson, of Atchinson Motor Sales, who furnished a truck for transportation each time Brader's played.

CONSUMERS POWER COMPANY

Edison Forsees No Power Shortage

"There is plenty of electric power available here in Michigan's industrial heart to carry out the area's full share of the nation's new defense production program," Detroit Edison president, James W. Parker, said today.

There is available as much power as can be used when industrial plants take up their allotted share of the defense production loads, he said. In most instances, manpower will be the limiting factor. With every employable person in the area on the job, there will be enough electric horsepower to go around.

Parker declared there would be just as during the last war—enough power to take care of the defense program without curbing either residential or farm use of electricity. He said the electric industry as a whole will have power to meet the country's needs provided no governmental restrictions are imposed which would retard the construction program now under way.

"Even though new peaks of demand have been reached during 1950," the Edison president said, "our capacity is advancing well ahead of use."

Present capacity of the Edison Company is about 1,500,000 kilowatts—roughly 2,000,000 horsepower. This includes the 200,000 kilowatts added recently at Trenton Channel. Two new turbo-generators which will go into service at Conners Creek within a year will bring capacity to 1,750,000 kilowatts.

Also important are the interconnections with others. Between Consumers Power and the Edison Company the interconnections have been tripled to strengthen Michigan's over-all electric supply system.

Parker also announced that construction will soon start on a project to add another 250,000 kilowatts. Originally scheduled in part at an existing plant, this addition may, in view of recent events, require the building of a new plant.

The company's revised expansion plan will enable it to keep longer in service three older generators which were slated for retirement before the outbreak of trouble in Korea, Parker explained.

"I hope present stepped-up expansion of the nation's electric power will not be interrupted," Parker said. "It is vital that the government should cooperate in private power company expansion plans."

The present Edison expansion target is 1,850,000 kilowatts since 1945.

Parker said this goal has been set with an eye to maintaining year-round, around-the-clock industrial production—either for armament or for whatever the nation calls upon the Detroit area to build.

Commenting on nationwide power adequacy, Parker said reports of the entire electric industry show that power supply in most parts of the country is geared to keep well ahead of both industrial and civilian needs. This takes the defense production program, as now known to the industry, fully into account.

Electric generating capability today is nearly double that of 1941, totaling 66,000,000 kilowatts. Since World War II 16,500,000 kilowatts have been added. Another 18,000,000 kilowatts at least will be available by the end of 1953, according to present estimates.

At present, 80 per cent of the nation's electric power is being generated by investor-owned companies, whose systems have been built entirely with private capital.

Parker reiterated his hope that government limitations would not halt scheduled expansions.

Most electric companies' expansion programs have been speeded up since the United Nations undertook the task of driving the Communists out of South Korea.

Confidence was again expressed by Parker that the interconnected power systems of the United States are well prepared to cope with added defense loads. "The light and power industry has made tremendous strides since the end of World War II," he said. "The national power situation is good—and don't let anyone tell you otherwise."

gradual but healthy growth. All profit from the Fair goes back into the non-profit corporation for the improvement of the grounds. Last year the first exhibit building 100 foot long was built. This year an addition of a 50 foot dining room has been added. The major portion of the exhibits are housed in large tents. This year no admission will be charged for the Fair, however, there will be a parking charge of 50c per car.

The Wayne County 4-H Fair was organized four years ago by a group of ten men who were parents and friends of 4-H Club work. Their desire was to build a Fair that would further the development of all forms of 4-H Club work in Wayne County where boys and girls could exhibit under wholesome surroundings. This group of men are acting as trustees of the association for five years at the end of which time it is their hope to turn over to a membership organization a fairgrounds and a set of buildings free of debt, which will continue to be used as a 4-H Club Fair.

All of the work and time spent in developing and operating this Fair has been donated by parents and friends of the 4-H program. When a building is to be constructed, a fence to be built or grass to be cut, civic-minded people come in with their tools and equipment and give of their time to do the job.

This year there will be a Midway operated by the Lee United Shows. There will be large exhibits of farm machinery, farm produce, merchandise, and automobiles. There will be open classes for non 4-H members in livestock and farm produce. At this show some of the outstanding cattle of the County can be seen. With such a Fair so close to the urban center of Michigan, many city boys and girls will want to come and see what the 4-H Club program is doing.

Joan White of Cincinnati, Ohio was a Tuesday evening dinner guest of Arlene Jerome of Dubuque street. Arlene returned to Cincinnati, Ohio with Joan and she will spend the rest of the week visiting there.

WAYNE COUNTY 4-H FAIR

Quirk Road, North of Express Highway, Belleville

August 22 to August 26

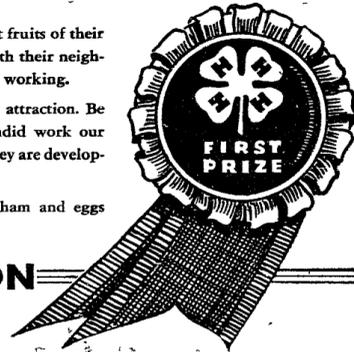

Once again it's time to meet old friends, make new ones at the County Fair.

Farm folk are gathering to exhibit the choicest fruits of their labor, to vie in keen but friendly competition with their neighbors, to learn new and better ways of living and working.

And as always, the 4H Club tent is a feature attraction. Be sure to spend some time there. See what splendid work our young people are doing, what skills and talents they are developing under the four leaf clover emblem.

Yes, come to the Fair! It's as American as ham and eggs for breakfast.
