

W. Couse Attends Building Forum

Walter L. Couse of West Seven Mile Road, returned last week from New York City where he attended a conference on what controls may become necessary for the building industry as they move into a war economy.

The conference, sponsored by Time and Fortune magazines, was attended by key men in the nation's industries. Mr. Couse, who is president of W. L. Couse and Company of Detroit, and president of the Associated General Contractors of America, represented the latter organization at the forum.

Results of the round table discussion were as follows:

1. As far as possible, the requirements of the rearmament program should be met by expansion (additions to the civilian economy) rather than by diversion (subtractions from the civilian economy). This runs counter to the popular notion that our 1950 civilian economy is not capable of such great and rapid expansion as the half idle economy of 1940.

2. Direct controls of the civilian economy, such as wage and price ceilings, government allocations and priorities for non-military uses are at best a necessary evil. Private enterprise should take the necessary initiative to make them unnecessary as long as possible.

3. Credit controls to reduce demand are generally preferable to direct controls allocating the supply.

Other men present at the round table discussion were: C. E. Wilson, pres., General Electric Company; J. D. Biggers, pres., Libbey-Owens-Ford Glass Company; G. A. Bryant, pres., Austin Co.; Ralph Walker, pres., American Institute of Architects; Milton MacDonald, acting pres., Mortgage Bankers Assn.; Thomas Coogan, pres., National Ass'n of Home Builders; William Levitt, pres., Levitt and Sons; Douglas Meredith, vice pres., National Life Insurance Co.; H. Turner, pres., Turner Construction Co.; Admiral Moreell, pres., Jones and Laughlin Steel Corp.; C. J. Beckstrand, pres., Armstrong Cork Co.; Norman Mason, past pres., National Retail Lumber Association and Miles Coleman, consulting economist to Time and Fortune magazines.

CORRECTION

Last week's Record carried a story concerning the straightening out of the curve on West Seven Mile Road near the home of Merritt Meaker.

The story stated "that the road is now being resurfaced and men are surveying on his property. The Village clerk was instructed to write the Wayne County Road Commission stating that the Village was willing to give them the land if they will straighten the curve."

The article should have read that Howard Fuller, owner of the land across the street from the Meaker residence, would be willing to donate the land if the curve were straightened out. The Record regrets this error.

Bob Freydl of Eaton Drive was home for the week-end from Adrian College.

U-M Alumni To Hold Atom Day Rally

The atom's promise as a constructive force for mankind far outweighs its destructive threat — if aggressive action is taken to put it to work.

This is the theme of the "Atom Day" rally to be held at the Presbyterian Church next Monday night under the joint sponsorship of the Plymouth and Northville alumni of the University of Michigan. The meeting, designed to focus attention on the University's expanding program of atomic research, is to be held simultaneously with hundreds of others throughout the country.

Outstanding national figures will discuss the use of the atom to strengthen America, speaking to all of the meetings over a transcontinental telephone hookup. They include General Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia University, Warren G. Austin, U.S. delegate to the United Nations, Gordon E. Dean, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, and others of national prominence. The University of Michigan band and the University glee club will participate in the program.

James E. Littell, local chairman of the rally, said the Atom Day activity touches off a national campaign to raise funds for the extension of the University's work in atomic research and for the creation of a center to coordinate atomic studies in all fields of knowledge.

"Research on the atom as an agent of destruction is an organized project — financed and controlled by our Government," he said.

"Research on the atom as an agent of peace is largely unorganized. America has not yet met the need for organized centers to coordinate and speed the atomic research of scientists in private and public institutions who are independently exploring its unknown benefits. Such centers are missing because of the lack of adequate facilities and financing.

"Through the present program we hope to start things moving to make the atom work for the benefit of all mankind."

Today mankind has a chance to plot the course of the atomic age and not let it grow uncontrolled as did the steam engine's industrial revolution. And that's where the lawyer, the businessman, the psychologist — yes and the economist, the sociologist and the public opinion expert enter the picture.

The Michigan project has two phases: first the physicists, engineers, chemists and doctors will find new ways of using atomic energy to make this a better world to live in. Then the social scientists — virtually under the same roof — will study how these new things can be absorbed, without upsetting the whole society.

The research program is called the Michigan Memorial-Phoenix Project. It is a living memorial dedicated to graduates who died in World War II. Possibility of another world war creates a new urgency for finding constructive uses of atomic energy, to make this a stronger nation.

Beyond that the Phoenix Project, to cost $6,500,000, seeks to benefit all people by giving them longer lives, easier lives and happier lives. By spending two billion dollars the government in the last decade proved that atomic energy was useful for killing. But atomic energy gives promise of a better world.

October 13 is the date set by the Interdenominational directors of the Christian Rural Overseas Program for a county-wide canvass to obtain contributions to the fifth annual relief drive dedicated to the starving peoples of Europe and Asia.

Area representatives of the Catholic Rural Life movement, the Church World Service and the Lutheran World Relief organization compose the campaign executive committees. This national drive, CROP, is designed to solicit cash donations and surplus foodstuffs for the world's destitute.

Mr. Hunting spokesman for the group, said that the campaign for foodstuffs would be concentrated in the suburban areas and the petition for funds will be stressed in the urban appeal. On September 26 a rural CROP rally was held at the Wayne High School.

BPW Club Endorses Hospital Bond Issue

At their meeting Monday evening, members of the Northville Business and Professional Women's Club pledged their support to the group of Wayne County citizens who are seeking to have the overcrowded conditions in the state's mental hospitals relieved.

The Wayne County Citizens Education Committee is asking the legislature to adopt the proposed $65,000,000 bond issue to finance construction of state mental hospitals. Committee member, Dr. Joseph Molner stated that the only hope of relieving the overcrowded conditions in the psychopathic ward at Receiving Hospital was that the state must accept the responsibility towards its mentally ill.

A constitutional amendment providing for the bond issue to construct new hospitals is to appear on the ballot in the November 7 election.

Defense Director Recommends Plans

In connection with the newly announced Federal civil defense program, State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard, who is also state civil defense director, has completed a series of organization proposals which he has recommended for immediate action.

Leonard outlined the proposals as follows:

1. Appointment of a state operating staff consisting of chiefs of line services such as police, fire, public works, emergency medical, etc., and also a property officer. These chiefs would not be paid civil defense personnel, but would be assigned by other state departments.

2. Appointment by the Governor of three additional state technical committees: evacuation, air raid shelters, and morticians.

3. Appointment of a paid civil defense coordinator for the Detroit metropolitan area who would work under the supervision of the state director.

4. Completion as soon as possible of state-wide surveys of personnel, equipment, and facilities covering medical, public works, utilities, etc.

5. Provision by the state for mobile support to stricken communities through the assignment, under attack conditions, of State Police, State Guard and aid from other state departments.

6. Study of the model civil defense act contained in the Federal program so that appropriate recommendations for legislation can be submitted for the consideration of the Governor and the Legislature.

7. Establishment of a temporary table of organization covering types and personnel required for civil defense squads, pending further advice from the Federal government.

8. Establishment of radiological monitoring services through the appointment of local instructors. Physics and chemistry teachers are suggested for such appointments.

9. Recommendation that the Governor request Chairman W. Stuart Symington, of the National Security Resources Board, to specify the types of equipment and supplies the Federal government will provide so that there will be no duplicate purchases on state and local levels.

10. Recommendation that the Federal government pass the necessary legislation and appropriation to cover injury compensation and death benefits for civil defense personnel injured or killed in training exercises or under attack conditions.

Col. A. D. Howell, of East Lansing, has been named assistant to the director of civil defense and other plans are under way for completion of the state staff.

Scoreboard Proves Popular at Field

A major improvement at Ford Field this fall is the new football scoreboard which commands the southeast corner of the field and the view of the record crowds turning out for the high school grid contests.

The scoreboard was erected just in time for the first Mustang game against Ypsilanti Roosevelt, although the steel, concrete-imbbed posts had been placed previously.

The board is representative of cooperative effort by Northville townspeople and businessmen, a project which is resulting in increased appreciation of football games by all who attend.

Cost of the board, just under $1600, was defrayed by individual contributions, receipts from Northville schools faculty recreation basketball games, Junior high school football games and high school organizations.

The scoreboard fund originated with a contribution of $204.47 by the Class of 1948. Mrs. M. C. Gussell has been instrumental in past months in obtaining funds for the board.

Individual contributions to date have been made by the Carrington Insurance Agency, E.M.B. Food Market, Northville Shoe Repair, Ellis Electronics, Freydl Cleaners, E. M. Rotary Head

CASS PIOTROWSKI, Rotary District Governor, will pay an official visit to the local club October 3.

District Governor To Visit Rotary

The Rotary Club of Northville will be host to Cass Piotrowski, Governor of the 223rd District of Rotary International, Tuesday, October 3, when he makes his annual official visit to Northville. The visit to Northville is one of 37 being made to as many clubs in Wayne, Lenawee and Monroe counties in Michigan, and Essex County in Ontario, Canada.

He will confer with Northville Rotary President, Arthur H. Schnute and Secretary, Edward M. Bogart, as well as other officers and committee chairmen, before addressing the entire club. A partner in the law and insurance firm of Piotrowski and Lemke, Piotrowski is a member of the Hamtramck Rotary Club, of which he is a past president. He is also a director of the Liberty State Bank of Hamtramck, as well as president of the Hamtramck Recreation Commission.

He is one of the 201 Rotary District Governors who are supervising the activities of some 7,100 Rotary clubs which have a membership of 342,000 business and professional executives in 83 countries and geographical regions throughout the world.

Wherever Rotary clubs are located, their activities are similar to those of the Northville Rotary Club because they are based on the same general objectives — developing better understanding and fellowship among business and professional men, promoting community betterment undertakings, raising the standards of business and professions, and fostering the advancement of good will, understanding and peace among all the peoples of the world.

In his talk to the Northville members, Piotrowski will tell of Rotary Foundation Fellowships which enable outstanding graduate students to study for one year in countries other than their own, as ambassadors of good will. Since the program was established in 1947, 195 fellowships have been awarded to students in 35 countries with the grants totaling $500,000.

Piotrowski will also point out the striking parallel between the program of Rotary and the United Nations Charter showing that since the UN's founding in 1945, Rotary clubs throughout the world have been active in the public opinion on the objectives of the UN in an endeavor to make it an effective instrument for free people everywhere.

Distribution was done through the Occupational Therapy Department, with each patient taking from three to five cards and many requesting specialties such as "from my home town," or "new friend". Many cards were sent to the Children's Unit for the pleasure of the older children there.

School Educator Attends Conference

Superintendent Russell H. Amerman accompanied by Mrs. Amerman attended the Michigan Association of School Administrators meeting last week-end at Traverse City.

Over 400 school superintendents were present at the three day conference. Dr. Lee Thurston, State Superintendent of Public Instruction addressed the group on the state program of education. He cited the acute teacher shortage, caused in part by young people going into industry because of the larger pay there.

On Friday, the group heard Donald S. Leonard, state police commissioner, talk on "Education and the National Emergency." He stressed the need for civilian defense and that schools must plan for such an emergency.

Friday evening, Dr. Charles Anspach, president of Central State Teachers College at Mt. Pleasant spoke on his recent experiences while in Europe touring the schools there.

The convention closed on Saturday morning with a number of resolutions being passed. Two of the most important which were passed were that:

1. The group went on record endorsing education for sound Americanism, re-asserting their faith in our American way of life.

2. They pledged the schools to support national effort in the present world crisis.

Miss Ione Palmer, High School Librarian, Miss Ruth Knapp, Grade School Librarian and school nurse, and Miss Olga Nelson, second grade teacher, spent the week-end at St. Mary's Camp at Battle Creek attending the Michigan Librarian Association. NHS Band To Play at U-M October 7

Northville High school's band will be among the 37 high school bands which will join with the University of Michigan Band in staging the half-time show at the Michigan-Dartmouth football game on Saturday, October 7.

William D. Revelli, conductor of the University of Michigan bands, has completed arrangements for the second Annual High School Band Day. Approximately 2,500 bandmen will be on the field for the half-time performance. The first band day was held last year on November 12 at the time of the Indiana game. There were 29 high school bands and 1,850 bandmen in action at that time.

For the 1950 show, Revelli and his assistant, Jack Lee, have worked out two mass formations. The combined bands will first form the letters MICH, reaching from goal line to goal line, and then play and sing, "The Victors", famed University of Michigan song. Then the bands will form the letters USA and play "God Bless America." The formation will first face one side of the field and then be reversed to face the opposite side.

Besides the NHS band composed of 60 members, the following bands will be at Ann Arbor for the half-time show: Ann Arbor, Adrian, Big Rapids, Birmingham, Blissfield, Bronson, Cass City, Charlotte, Clarenceville, Dearborn-Fordson, Eaton Rapids, Elkton, Ferndale, Fowlerville, Grand Ledge, Holland, Inlay City, Ionia, Jackson, Battle Creek-Lakeview, Lapeer, Linden, Lowell, Marshall, Mason, Mt. Pleasant, Napoleon, Niles, Oxford, Plymouth, St. Joseph, Three Rivers, Center Line, Warren, Yale and Ypsilanti.

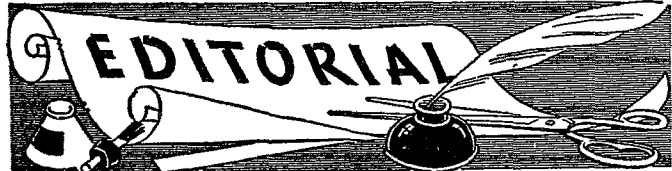

Presbyterians To Hold Family Night

The first of the family church nights of the season will be held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday, October 4th at 6:30 p. m. Officers of the church will be hosts, as the congregation will be seated according to the twelve districts of the parish. Elders, Deacons and Trustees have been visiting members of the parish inviting them to attend this opening pot-luck supper of the fall.

An excellent film on the Christian home will be shown following the supper. This film produced by the Protestant Film Commission is thought to be the finest production to date of this interdenominational agency. Of interest to both young people and adults the picture has received very favorable reviews throughout the country. It is a full length sound production. The showing is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. for those who cannot attend the supper. It is a Hollywood-made production, based on the original story by Faith Baldwin. Ed and Emily Dean are a typical American couple who miss the best things in life by fixing their aim on what is second best. A crisis experience gives them a "Second Chance."

The last in the series of the Americanism films, "Land of the Free," sponsored by the Optimist Club was shown Monday evening at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall with a fair crowd in attendance.

We were glad to see among the group many High school pupils and wished that the group of young people who recently departed from the community for college had had the same privilege. Some of these young people will come in contact for the first time with groups at colleges and universities who are working to break down the "American Way of Life" and should be cautioned about the fine sounding names of some of these organizations.

One such organization which is infiltrating the American campus is the International Union of Students who were sponsors of the Student World Congress in Red-governed Czechoslovakia last month.

A Detroit News article last week stated "Two Canadian student leaders Wednesday night urged fellow collegians to steer clear of the International Union of Students, sponsors of the Student World Congress. The abstention appeals came from Bill Turner and Denis Lazure, student council presidents at the Universities of Toronto and Montreal. Both attended the IUS congress in Prague."

Cass To Present "Lend An Ear"

"Lend An Ear," the smash hit musical which played to New York theatre audiences for 58 solid capacity weeks, and Chicago for six months is now entering its second and final week at the Cass Theatre. The allstar cast is headed by John Beal, star of stage, screen and radio, and including Gloria Hamilton, Jenny Lou Law, William Skipper, Jeanne Bledso, Al Checco, Joan Cornburn, Peter Conlow, Robert Dixon, Antoinette Guhike, Margaret Jeanne, Sid Lawson, Don Little, Florence Lord, Calvin Lovell and Rica Owens.

"Spicy," "smart," "sophisticated" and "saucy" are the adjectives which most succinctly and spontaneously trip off the tongue of audiences and critics in labeling "Lend An Ear." The satirical skits constantly hit a high level in the tropical travesties that make up the material in this lively revue, which is attractively staged, with fresh and fetching dance routines deftly devised by Gower Champion, to punctuate the performance with still more zest.

There is such a topical number as "Words Without Song," a burlesque on high opera which spoofs the staid Diamond Horseshoe section of the Metropolitan Opera House on Broadway. Another is "The Gladiola Girl," an hilarious and nostalgically pleasant lampoon of the 1925 musical comedy, throwing the spotlight on such popular dance crazes of that era as the Charleston and the Black Bottom.

The lilting and hummable music includes such Hit Parade numbers as "Molly O'Reilly," "Who Hit Me?", "When Someone You Love Loves You," and "Give Your Heart A Chance to Sing."

Charles Gaynor wrote the sketches, lyrics and music. Hal Gerson directed. Costumes, settings and lighting are by Raoul Pene DuBois. Gower Champion, the noted choreographer, conceived and staged the dances as well as staging the overall production.

MATERIALS THAT YOU REQUIRE, TO KEEP YOUR FARM AS YOU DESIRE

Red Cross Needs "O" Blood Donors

Here is a chance to save the life of a fighting man.

Hundreds of type "O" blood donors are needed in the next four weeks to give blood for wounded American soldiers in Korea, Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross announces.

The Chapter is appealing to every eligible donor with type "O" blood to get in touch with the Regional Blood Center, 153 E. Elizabeth, as soon as possible and make appointment. The telephone number is WOODWARD 1-3900.

Persons who have given blood are requested to check their cards for type and report promptly if they are still qualified as donors. The age requirements are 21 to 60, but young people between 18 and 21 may give blood with the written consent of parents if otherwise qualified. Donors should be in good physical condition and weigh at least 110 pounds.

"We have been asked to make daily shipments to Korea for the next four weeks," starting at once," said John M. Sullivan, executive director of the chapter. "That means a minimum of 50 new type 'O' donors every day to play safe, for not all of those who report will be able to meet the physical requirements."

"At the same time we must continue to serve some 70 hospitals in Wayne and Macomb counties from our regular supply. To furnish hundreds of extra pints on short notice and keep up daily shipments is a tremendous undertaking, but this blood is needed to help save the lives of our own American boys and we are not going to let them down."

To accommodate more donors at the Center and not keep them waiting, donor hours have been extended for the period of the emergency. The new hours are: Monday through Wednesday 1:00 p. m. - 7:00 p. m. Thursday and Friday 10:00 a. m. - 3:00 p. m. Saturday 12:00 noon - 4 p. m.

Blood for Korea should not be more than two days old, according to Blood Center officials. Thus a fresh supply is necessary every day to maintain the exacting shipping schedule. The blood is shipped in refrigerated cases by air express to San Francisco, and from there is flown overseas by the Military Air Transport Service. Within 48 hours from the time it is given, blood from Detroit donors is being administered to wounded men in Korean hospitals.

World War II OSS Members Sought

The "cloak and dagger boys" of World War II, still scattered around Michigan, learned how to conceal their identity.

In fact, they learned that lesson too well, according to Nicholas V. Olds, president of the Michigan Out-State Chapter of the Veterans of the Office of Strategic Services.

Olds is trying to round them up for a meeting in Lansing September 30 when men recently music includes such Hit Parade numbers as "Molly O'Reilly," "Who Hit Me?", "When Someone You Love Loves You," and "Give Your Heart A Chance to Sing."

Charles Gaynor wrote the sketches, lyrics and music. Hal Gerson directed. Costumes, settings and lighting are by Raoul Pene DuBois. Gower Champion, the noted choreographer, conceived and staged the dances as well as staging the overall production.

returned from Korea and China will speak.

Many members of the OSS are unknown to each other but a start is being made in the organizing of chapters at the behest of Gen. William J. (Wild Bill) Donovan who commanded the OSS in wartime.

Olds is an assistant attorney general.

Opportunity doesn't knock these days; it rings the phone and asks a silly question.—Sunshine Magazine.

When purchasing a new refrigerator, remember that the minimum size recommended is six cubic feet for two people, with an extra cubic for each additional person. WITH OUR NEIGHBORS

Plymouth—Morris F. Beasley, a 17-year-old Plymouth high school boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beasley, 162 Fair street, is Plymouth's first casualty of the fateful Korean war.

Farmington—Rent controls within the City of Farmington were lifted as of September 13 following the approval of a resolution passed by the City Commission at its regular meeting last Wednesday.

Brighton—Two heifers were found dead in a field by Harry Kellogg when he was looking for the animals, which he had missed earlier from his herd. The heifers had been shot with shotgun slugs.

South Lyon—Engineering is now under way by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company for the introduction of extended-area service between South Lyon and three of its neighboring communities to become effective next year.

Chelsea—Residents and businessmen in the recently-created fire district in the downtown area are being notified on printed forms of a modification of the rules pertaining to the burning of rubbish and waste paper in the district.

Howell—Driving a new Ford car that police say was stolen in Lansing, Eddie Jarchow, 15, of Lansing was killed instantly here when the machine collided near Culver's Triangle west of town on U.S.-16 with a 1947 Oldsmobile driven by Joseph F. Lavey, 32, a Lansing attorney.

Rochester—The water rates in Rochester are very low, as compared with all surrounding communities, and the charges for tapping on to the system are only about a third as much as the charges in other cities and villages, it was revealed to the Common Council at its last meeting.

Chelsea—George Seitz and Dr. A. A. Palmer have been elected directors to serve six-year terms of office on the board of Oak Grove Cemetery Association. The two men replace Charles Finkbeiner who died August 1 of this year, and L. P. Vogel, who retired after serving on the board as secretary and treasurer since 1911.

Rochester—Rochester businessmen apparently are united as one against parking meters for the village, either as a police measure to control traffic, or as a means of raising revenue to supplement the village's rapidly decreasing supply of money, due to the increased cost of government, and the need for street improvement.

Plymouth—The S. S. Kresge company has completed plans to construct a modern new store in Plymouth on South Main street, announces D. C. Fisher, company president. The contract for the construction work will be awarded later this month and work will be started the first of the year on razing the buildings now occupying the property, he said.

Howell—The usual procedure of children starting off for school for a day of work is due for a reversal Thursday evening, September 28th, when parents will set out for school for an evening of fun. There they will be joined by teachers who have abandoned their textbooks, shed their dignity and have nothing weightier on their minds than mastering "Pop Goes the Weasel" or "The Grapevine Twist."

South Lyon—At a special meeting of the Board of Education of the Township School District of Lyon Township, the board decided to purchase a Ford 8-cylinder Station Wagon from Hugh Arms & Son, to supplement the fleet of school buses now in operation. This will facilitate the handling of small groups of children in special areas, and will also be usable for many other things in connection with the school system.

A large number attended the Rally Day services last Sunday, when 48 were advanced in the graded lessons; 15 pupils were awarded pins for perfect attendance records. Arlene Jerome received the award for perfect attendance for 10 years. Several received 7 year pins, as well as 4, 3, 2 and 1 year pins. Outstanding and worthy of special recognition was the fact that the entire family of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stone received pins for perfect attendance. This enviable record should well be duplicated by many families in this community. Officers and teachers for the coming year were installed at the morning worship service.

Hobby Exposition Opens September 30

On September 30, the International Hobby Exposition will open at Convention Hall, the first show of its kind ever held in Detroit and will continue through to October 8. Under the management of M. Gordon, exhibits will include outstanding examples of craftsmanship from all over the United States and Canada. "The purposes of the International Hobby Exposition," says Mr. Gordon, "are to provide recognition for the work of craftsmen, to encourage creative and artistic ability, and to develop appreciation of the healthful benefits to be derived from various hobby crafts."

In addition to outstanding exhibits of handicraft and craftsmanship, "unusual" hobbies will be shown, where ingenuity has produced collections not necessarily requiring any particular talent for handicraft.

Some of the featured exhibits and highlights

A model circus in actual operation - known as the Barrett Brothers Circus and Mardi Gras Show - and representing 16,000 hours of labor during the past 22 years, is one of the featured exhibits of the Hobby Show. The circus covers an area 20 ft. x 50 ft., with 33 tents, 88 wagons, 28 railway cars, and includes 400 'performers', with a parade in four sections covering 112 feet. It features a merry-go-round, ferris wheel, airplane swing and eight car whip, all electrically operated. Recorded old-time circus music is played through 14 loud speakers, trained seals perform, and dancing girls do hulas. It is the work of "Pop" (John W.) Barrett and has been his absorbing hobby since retiring from circus business 22 years ago.

Smallest producing sawmill in the world, the "Little Mills Lumber Company" was built by Phil Quelch, of British Columbia, Canada. It is an accurate replica of a modern sawmill built to the scale of one inch to the foot. It turns out a miniature log into finished lumber in five minutes.

Knock! Knock! We are working our way — to Washington, D. C. We get a certain number of points for every box of Christmas cards or wrappings which we sell. Won't you help us work our way to Washington? The Senior Class

P. S. Watch for notices of our bake sales. That is one of our money making devices too. Let it not be said that any Northvilleites let the Senior Class hitch-hike back from Washington. 17

Rumor sez that a lot of wild birds aren't long for this world. Hunting season is just around the corner on the calendar. If you need shotgun shells, cleaning kits, or what-have-you in the hunting line, it'll pay you to come down to Stone's Gamble Store. 17

MICHIGAN MIRROR
NON-PARTISAN NEWS LETTER

Baseball, war and politics crammed front pages in Michigan this week. There will be another world series next year, but no second chance in Korea.

Now it can be told. This year saw the biggest primary turnout (900,000 voters) since 1940. What would happen to baseball if spectators participation reflected such apathy.

But the coming election will get its share of news space in the next month. Both sides are lining up for a slugfest, with the G. O. P. recognizing the heavy Democratic turnout as a call to arms. Both major parties are treading lightly. An error now might reveal a chink in political armor for the opposition to hammer.

When the new state legislature convenes Jan. 1, it will again take time for them to get acquainted. There will be 42 changes.

Sure sign that fall has arrived is the return of children to school and a lessening of the now annual polio epidemic. Experts report a "better year" in combatting the crippling disease.

Housewives are getting a surprise now that chilly, meat-eating weather is back. While they served cold cuts and potato salad this summer roasts, chops and even poultry jumped a few cents in price. And eggs are going up even faster despite the fact that the U. S. Grade A egg production in August was the highest on record for the month.

But sugar may go down, officials in the industry state. U. S., European and Cuban crops were highest on record this year. Many a housewife may find herself sweeping around that 50-pound sack in the basement.

Farmers also are coming into the state spotlight over the oleo referendum this fall. The fight for ready-colored oleomargarine has raged for a year now. Both dairy and margarine interests are confident of victory — both are beating the bushes in these last weeks before the people decide the issue for them.

Since the Korean war has taken a turn for the better, the news that half of the Michigan men called for pre-induction examinations have been rejected is not so disheartening. Of 18,384 examined, 9,502 were rejected.

Relief for those inducted — draftees and recruits can forget their bills. While in service not even income tax evasion can be prosecuted and the serviceman's family cannot be evicted for non-payment of rent without a special court order.

But if the serviceman gets to Korea he may miss out on his beer ration — at least if the Temperance league of America has its way. This group recommends giving the combat boys fruit juice and soft drinks instead.

While more profit taxes are boomed in Washington, the echo can be heard in Michigan. State controller Robert F. Steadman says the state had a $45,673,724 operating deficit during the fiscal year ending June 30. He says that only by new taxes can the state overcome this deficit position.

But Michiganders are saving their money. At least bank deposits in state went up five percent last year making a total of more than five million dollars as of last December.

War officially has come to Michigan's industry now. Ford and Cadillac have announced they now have war contracts — first large contracts to be let in the state.

Hand in glove with war contracts goes the labor problem. The U. S. Labor department is urging employees to consider physically handicapped workers. Perhaps now handicapped World War II veterans will find a place in this new crisis.

A committee has been formed in the state to push the $65,000,000 bond issue (to be on the November ballot) which would authorize the state to borrow money for construction of mental and TB beds. Name? Michigan Citizens Education Committee on Bond Issue for Mental and Tuberculosis Patients.

A four color map of "Historic Michigan" will be ready for distribution early in 1951, according to the state historical commission. The map has been three years in the making and goes to the printers soon.

Daisy Girls Tops in Wayne County

The victory-minded Daisy Girls softball team finished the season with two crowns, leading the Central Michigan Softball league, and winning the Wayne County title in the Times Tournament. The team includes, back row, l. to r., Coach Will Rayburn, Lee Feldler, Dolly Bouterse, Marion Kraft, Manager Floyd Fleming, Gloria Fellows, Eleanor Hoelscher, Dot Clatterbuck, Betty Ross, Coach Joe Sowa; front row, Verna Rayburn, Nan Johnson, Alma Forester, Marjorie Sowa, Margaret Satterlie, Mary Spitz, Jean Siterlet and Faye Melton.

Double-winners in softball this year are the Daisy Girls softball team, of Plymouth. The girls won nine of 14 games in the Central Michigan Softball league, emerging victors in a close race, and put on the pressure to sweep through four wins and possession of the Wayne County crown in the Times tournament.

The girls played 32 games during the season, winning 22, against Flint, Owosso, Lansing, Pontiac, Brighton, Ann Arbor, Pinckney, Roseville, Wyandotte, Adrian and Detroit teams.

Home games were played at Ford Field in Northville as no lighting facilities were available in Plymouth for Sunday night games.

Marjorie Sowa, pitching in all but one game, hurled six shut-outs and one no-hitter. She fanned 149 batters. Doing a fine job behind the plate was scrappy Dolly Bouterse. Third baseman Eleanor Hoelscher captured the batting crown with a healthy .336 average, batting in 34 runs and collecting three home runs and eight triples. Betty Ross and Gloria Fellows also slugged out three homers and Jean Siterlet got two.

The girls travelled through central Michigan on a chartered bus provided by the Daisy Manufacturing company, sponsors of the team.

Floyd Fleming was the team manager, with Joe Sowa and Will Rayburn coaching. The girls are now on a short vacation from sports, resting before the basketball season begins. Last year the hoopers topped the Inter-City league by winning 13 of 14 games.

Mustangs Sink Dreadnaughts, 20-7

Striking hard in the first half, the Northville High Mustangs outclassed Dexter High School 20-7 last Friday night at Ford Field. Northville scored on a pair of nine-yard touchdowns dashes by fullback Leon Holman and a pass from Dick Gray to Don Graham that travelled 22 yards from scrimmage. Gray's attempted drop-kick failed after the first TD, but he added conversion points on the last two scores with passes to Don Maclean.

Dexter scored in the final quarter on a 15-yard aerial from Russ White to Jack Blanchard. White ran the ball across from the two-yard stripe for the extra point.

Northville again demonstrated defensive strength against a team with a heavier line. The Mustangs held Dexter to 32 yards gained on the ground and 15 in the air while they were netting 211 yards by rushing and 22 by passing. Add the two pass conversions and the passing yardage increases. The Mustangs garnered 13 first downs while the Dreadnaughts were getting three.

Dick Gray and Leon Holman shared ground-gaining honors. Gray, running from the right-halfback position, averaged a decimal or so under five yards a try. Holman, the end converted into fullback, averaged 6½ yards a carry.

Blanchard and White were the big guns for Dexter, but were constantly harried by Mustang linemen breaking through to wreck plays. The Gunsell-Back-Cole-Pullen spread from tackle to tackle is proving a rugged combination and Coach Al Jones, who substituted freely once the Mustangs had collected 13 points, is finding relief talent on the bench. Ken Rowe, at center in his first year of football, is developing into a good line backer, and Coaches Jones and Kay have several ends to alternate in the line-up.

Bill Sullivan's kick-off to Dexter opened the game, with White running the ball from the goal line, to his 20. The Dreadnaughts got to the 34 and punted, Gray returning the ball to the Northville 43. After a five-yard penalty on the first play and a fumble, the Mustangs staged a drive that resulted in one of Holman's nine-yard sprints across the goal, with less than four minutes remaining in the first quarter. Gray's kick missed.

After Sullivan's kick-off, Dexter punted, but Northville stalled out and Gray kicked to the Dexter 24. The Dreadnaughts started a drive but drew a 15-yard penalty and fumbled, with Bob Prom and Jim Clark recovering for Northville on the 33-yard marker. Holman and Gray moved the ball to the 22 and first down. Two passes by Chuck Dickinson, but Gray connected incomplete, but Gray connected on the fourth try, a perfect pitch to Graham down the middle into the end zone. Gray's pass in the flat to Maclean was good for the conversion. Score 13-0.

Opening the second half, Gray picked up twelve yards, freshman Ron Grissom added 15 and Holman ran 13 for three consecutive first downs, but penalties stalled the attack. After an exchange of punts, Dexter intercepted a Northville lateral, but Holman snared a Dreadnaught pass, ran it back to the nine-yard line and went across for the third TD on the first play. Gray's pass to Maclean was good for the conversion.

Dexter's only score, in the last quarter, was the result of recovering a fumbled punt on the 20-yard line, a mis-play that handed Dexter 27 free yards. The TD pass came on the second play from scrimmage.

Big Game Season Opens October 1

Michigan big game hunting gets underway October 1 with an estimated 12,000 - 14,000 sportsmen hoping to bag deer in a 36-day season which calls for arrows and not bullets.

While 12,689 persons purchased bow and arrow hunting licenses last season, conservation department game officials refuse to further hazard a guess on the possible effect of the war situation in holding down an increase in the Robinhood-style army. However, the number of bow and arrow deer hunters regularly has increased in the last few years. As recently as 1945 only 1,800 entered the field.

More deer than the Michigan range safely can carry through the winter are around for the patient and skillful bowmen to stalk, notes I. H. Bartlett, department deer specialist. And a growing army of archers are becoming more successful, he says. Records show that in 1947 only one in 20 got a deer the hard way, in 1948 one in 17 and last year as high as one out of about every 14 returned home with venison.

Approximately 70 per cent of the archers last season limited their stalking range to a half-dozen counties. Highest hunter concentrations were recorded in Roscommon, Allegan, Crawford, Oscoda, Iosco and Montmorency counties. These counties accounted for roughly 80 per cent of the 878 deer harvested via the bow and arrow method in 1949.

Deer of either sex may be taken October 1 - November 5 in every county in the state except Keweenaw, Houghton, Marquette, Dickinson, Menominee, Chippewa save Drummond Island, Emmet, Cheboygan, Presque Isle, Otsego, Kalkaska, Missaukee, Ogemaw, Osceola, Clare, Gladwin, Arenac and northern parts of Bay and Huron counties. In the counties specifically mentioned, male deer with three-inch antlers or over are legal targets only. Deer of either sex may continue to be hunted with bow and arrow through December 15 in Allegan county.

Any archer who does not get his legal limit of one deer in any of the bow seasons is eligible to purchase a gun license to hunt in the general firearm season November 15-30.

Resident bow and arrow deer and bear license again is $3.50 as is the resident firearm deer and bear license. Nonresidents will continue to pay $10 for a bow and arrow and $35 for a firearm license.

Bow hunters wanting to look over last season's deer hunting data can get "dope sheets" with state hunting map outline from the department's game division. For the downstate Robinhood who wants a place to hunt not too far from home, there is over 175,000 acres of state-owned land, mostly forest, game and recreation area acreage, open which is fair to good hunting territory. For the majority of bow hunters who are able to go north, over 5,900,000 acres of mainly national and state forest lands are open to public bow hunting.

Two breezy Westerners who visited Wall Street in search of funds for mine developments, were introduced to a shrewd financier. "Suspicious old chap, isn't he?" remarked one, when they had left him.

"I didn't notice. How was that?"

"Didn't you see how he counted his fingers after I had shaken hands with him?"

Farming today requires great skill on the part of the farmer. Not only must he know soils, fertilizers, and seeds, but he must be an expert operator to operate all types of farm machinery. In other words, a farmer works hard for his money and in a highly speculative business. He should make that money work for him—in a non-speculative and safe investment. U. S. Savings Bonds, guaranteed by our government, are a crop that NEVER fails. It's always ready when needed. Savings Bonds are a good place for this year's crop money. They grow, rain or shine. The Oakland County Past Noble Grand Association will meet at South Lyon Thursday, September 28, for a noon luncheon and afternoon meeting.

Doris Darling and Lou Hicks were joint hostesses to the Novi Past Noble Grands at the Hicks home last Thursday. After a delicious dinner and short business meeting, cards were the diversion of the afternoon. Lilian Trickey won first prize, Ida Harris consolation and Ella Curtis captured the door prize.

Several sisters of the Novi Rebekah Lodge donated funds to buy Venetian Blinds for their lodge room. The blinds were purchased by the committee in charge and the brother Oddfellows installed them Monday evening prior to their lodge meetings. The sister Rebekahs treated them to a lunch after the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Roberts, Mrs. George Waite and Mrs. George Hines went to Florence, Canada last Thursday evening. Mr. McRoberts visited his mother and other relatives while the ladies had the privilege of attending the Rebekah Lodge there.

Watson Receives Industrial Award

Thomas J. Watson has been unanimously chosen to receive the 1950 Industrial Award of the Society of Industrial Realtors, Captain Edward V. Rickenbacker, chairman of an impartial award board, announced after a meeting of the board in Washington, D. C., this month.

Mr. Watson, president of International Business Machines Corp., New York City, was singled out for recognition as the industrialist of the year "for his life-long insistence upon intensive research, development, and marketing which have resulted in an array of business machines that have revolutionized business systems of accounting and record keeping," Captain Rickenbacker stated on behalf of the award board.

A great recent achievement was the development by Mr. Watson's engineering laboratories of the selective sequence electronic calculator — an electronic brain which carries out calculations of astronomical size in seconds and which has made possible pure mathematical computations for research that are beyond the capabilities of an individual.

Besides his tremendous contributions to industrial efficiency and scientific research, Mr. Watson has also been noted during nearly four decades as president of IBM as a humanitarian who has substantially aided higher education and social welfare and as an internationalist devoted to developing world trade and understanding.

The award trophy is a statuette symbolizing industrial development and is customarily presented to its recipient by the chairman of the award board during the Society's annual banquet, which will be held in Miami Beach, Wednesday evening, November 15.

Mr. Watson's unanimous selection was made from a score of outstanding industrialists who had been nominated for this year's honors by members of the Society of Industrial Realtors, the one national organization of Realtors specializing in industrial real property transactions.

Oriental Blight Strikes Italian Chestnut Trees

What America has learned about combating chestnut blight may turn out to be a blessing for Italy. The same oriental blight that ravished chestnut forest from New England to Tennessee and Missouri, is now raging through the chestnut forests of Italy where the nuts are considered a sort of second front against hunger.

American knowledge is now being used to combat the disease in Italy.

"HENRY, WE'RE GETTING A BABY!"

MAYBE OUR ARTIST exaggerated a little, but you have to admit that kids sure grow fast. Mom's no sooner finished knitting booties, and presto! Her "baby" is chasing cuties. Before you can say "Johnathan George Rabbitt," you've got a full-grown feller around... a full-grown feller who wants all the things you want to give him... First a bicycle. Then a new suit to take his best girl to the prom... and pretty soon, the "baby" wants to be a doctor, a lawyer or something else that takes money!

You're likely to feel kinda sick inside if you can't give him as good a chance as the next feller. But there's a medicine to prevent that sickness.

It's called the Payroll Savings Plan. Automatically, you put aside a part of every paycheck for U. S. Savings Bonds. And instead of worrying about how time flies, you're collecting $4 for every $3 you've invested!

Your employer or your bank can arrange this sure way of saving today! Speak to one or the other—but quick! Remember, the money you invest in Bonds is probably money you'd spend anyway!

You've been worrying about when you're going to start saving!

Why put it off any longer?

AUTOMATIC SAVING IS SURE SAVING— U.S. SAVINGS BONDS
