Kings Daughters Plans Charity Work

At the December meeting of the Mizpah Circle of the Kings Daughters, Mrs. E. B. Cavell was appointed chairman of the Christmas basket committee by the leader, Mrs. Gerald Tarr. Mrs. Ernest Wood was named the co-chairman.

Each year this organization which does most of the charity work in the Village makes an earnest attempt to see that families who might not otherwise have a Christmas dinner be given a basket containing a complete dinner.

Mrs. Cavell asks that other organizations, planning to send baskets to families or having more families than they can care for call her so that all will be looked after but that there will be no duplications.

Civilian Defense Cooperation Sought

At a meeting of the Northville Citizens League Saturday, December 9, Harry Porter was appointed as a representative of the League to attend the joint committee meetings of the American Legion and VFW Posts to offer the help of the League in planning for Civilian Defense in Northville.

In the present world crisis it is impossible to rule out the possibility that such a large industrial city as Detroit would suffer an atom bomb attack. In that event, outlying communities like Northville will most certainly be overrun with refugees from the blast, all in need of housing and food, and many in need of medical attention.

The League feels that the keynote of Civilian Defense in this community should be a program of preparedness to care for the maximum number of such refugees.

A meeting of the Citizens League will be held at the home of Dr. Harold I. Sparling on Saturday evening, December 16, 1950 at 9:00 o'clock p. m. for further discussion of this problem. Interested citizens are invited to attend.

Fredsell Named to Anniversary Group

At the recent meeting of the Presbytery of Detroit, Rev. Harold I. Fredsell of Northville was appointed to represent the Presbyterian Churches in the 250th anniversary celebration of the founding of the City of Detroit.

He was asked to prepare an anniversary booklet in honor of John Monteith, the first resident protestant minister in the city of Detroit who became the co-founder and first President of the University of Michigan. Another committee will work under Dr. Frederick H. Oler, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit who has been asked to write and direct a pageant depicting the pioneer work done by the founding protestant church. Aside from the historical booklet, Mr. Fredsell's committee has been asked to prepare radio presentations and television programs.

Two Legionnaires Receive State Jobs

Two Northville American Legionnaires were appointed to the "1951 Fighting Force" of Department Commander J. Addington Wagner last weekend in Lansing when the executive committee approved the 1951 officers. They were C. Oscar Hammond, 511 N. Center street, named to the "1951 Fighting Force" of the American Legion, and George E. Simmons, 4432 Ten Mile Road, appointed to the "1951 Fighting Force" of the Wolverine Boys' State committee.

Both new members will take office in 1951 with the avowed purpose of carrying out the Legion program of preparing America for any eventual conflict by keeping up our armed strength and by fighting internal subversive forces, as well as furthering Legion sponsored community services.

Commander Wagner expressed great personal satisfaction in being able to appoint two such capable men as Hammond and Simmons to responsible positions within the organization.

"It's not often a state commander has had such a wealth of material from which to draw in making appointments to forward 'the Legion's programs,'" Wagner declared.

Two Blazes Dec. 6 Keep Firemen Busy

The Northville Fire Department last Wednesday was called to the scene of two home fires.

Wednesday morning they were called to the Howard Meyers residence, 48120 West Eight Mile Road, to assist in putting out a blaze which began by an oil stove working improperly. Little damage was done and the blaze was soon extinguished.

That afternoon the firemen were called by the Novi Fire Department to the home of Mrs. Ida Clark, aged 58, at the corner of Nine Mile and Haggerty Roads. The two story home was leveled by the blaze and Mrs. Clark was said to have estimated the loss at $40,000. The home has been a landmark in the Novi area for about 100 years.

School Decorates for Holiday Season

The Northville Grade School began to take on a festive air this week when Biblical scenes depicting the Christmas story began to appear on the upper windows of the building.

Each room has been furnished with a Christmas tree by the Board of Education and the youngsters are busily preparing decorations out of paper and are stringing pop corn and cranberries. Pupils are left to their ingenuity in planning and designing their room decorations. Several classes are busily engaged in making creches complete with all the furnishings.

The room parties will be held Thursday, December 21. To add to the festivities, Santa Claus will be on hand to visit each room.

The Grade School chorus group, under the direction of Miss Eleanor Peeke, will carol through the halls and proceed to the lunch room where they will present a general Christmas program for the pupils.

Parents are reminded that school will be recessed for the holidays December 21 and will reconvene for regular session January 3.

A huge decorated tree, donated by the village, has been erected at the corner, and "Seasons Greetings" Christmas card fashion, has been scrolled across the billboard. The Spring on Northville Road will be decorated as usual with boughs of evergreen and lights.

But what decorations are complete without that jovial friend of children, Santa Claus? Yes, Santa will be in Northville about the streets and visiting through out the stores Saturday afternoon.

In the next issue of the Northville Record will appear a list of the merchants who contributed to make the decorations possible.

Club Ladies To Hear Serbian Folk Tale

Northville Woman's Club members and their guests will hear Betty Roberts of Birmingham at their Christmas meeting and tea Friday at 2:30 p. m. in the Village Library.

Miss Roberts will speak on the Serbian folk tale, "This was the Christmas." Well known for her many radio appearances for the last twenty-three years, Miss Roberts has spent the last three years travelling and giving lectures. The story she will tell Northville club women concerns a charming old world folk story from Serbia, little known in this country.

Following her talk, a tea under the auspices of the social committee will take place. Mrs. Ernest Wood is in charge of decorations and social committee members helping with the tea are Mrs. C. H. Johnson, Mrs. R. H. Amerman, Mrs. Clifton D. Hill, Mrs. J. Gerritt Rooks, Mrs. Alfred Millington, Mrs. George Kohls, Mrs. H. A. Willis, Mrs. M. S. Austin, Mrs. George Weiss and Mrs. E. A. Chapman.

Public Views Atchison Memorial Hospital

Memorial Hospital Admits First Patients Monday

Atchison Memorial Hospital, corner Dunlap and Linden streets, went into operation Monday admitting its first patients to the twelve bed structure.

The hospital was open for business Monday following the open house Sunday afternoon at which members of the Board of Trustees greeted many visitors from Northville, and the surrounding communities. The modern structure was bedecked with many baskets of flowers from laymen and doctors who wished the hospital success. Members of the Board of Trustees are Edward Angove, president; Mrs. Russell M. Atchison, vice president; A. Russell Clarke, treasurer; Edmund P. Yerkes, secretary, and Mrs. Walter L. Couse, trustee.

Cases to be handled at the hospital are medical, pediatric, traumatic, and minor surgery. Esther Rossow, R. N., will serve as supervisor for the floor. Because the hospital is a non-profit organization, and is approved by the Blue Cross, any physician may use the facilities of the hospital.

A tour of inspection of the hospital which occupies the second floor of the medical building reveals its modern and homey atmosphere. Each room is individually interior decorated with walls painted in pastel shades of pink, grey and yellow or papered in bright floral designs or crisp tweeds or stripes. Chintz and cretonne drapes in gay floral patterns enhance the walls and the color motif is carried out in colorful bedspreads.

The hospital rooms are two bed units equipped with the most modern and efficient equipment available. Leather bedside chairs further add to the beauty and comfort of the rooms.

A unique fire alarm system system has been installed in the hospital. It is controlled by 50 thermostats which are placed throughout the building. A ten degree rise in temperature will set off a bell at the switchboard located at the nurse's desk and a light will flash on designating the location. Charles Kinney of Novi Road, an engineer at the Michigan Bell Telephone, installed the fire alarm system which state authorities have acclaimed as being very efficient.

Atchison Memorial Hospital is the result of the long range planning of Dr. Russell M. Atchison, and is named for the latter's father who practiced medicine in the Village from 1924 to 1938. The senior Dr. Atchison died following a prolonged illness of parkinsonism disease.

Dr. Atchison came to Northville in 1924 after serving as superintendent of the University of Michigan Homeopathic Hospital for 19 years. His patients found him a friend and counselor as well as a physician, and the hospital is dedicated to his memory.

Auxiliaries Unite in Xmas Tree Project

The V.F.W. Northville 4012 Auxiliary will work in conjunction with the American Legion Auxiliary Lloyd H. Green Post 147 on the Christmas Tree Project for the Adult Units at the Maybury Sanatorium.

Originally, the American Legion Auxiliary planned to give eight trees but with the cooperation of the V.F.W. Auxiliary, sixteen trees will be donated. Delivered by December 18, they will be decorated by the Sanatorium personnel.

Co-chairmen of the committee are Mrs. Doris Smith of the V. F. W. Auxiliary and Mrs. George Risher of the American Legion Auxiliary.

TB Seal Response Reported High

According to Mrs. W. L. Howard, Northville Chairman for the 1950 double-barred - Christmas Seal Sale, this is the time of the season when many plans to contribute to the TB and Health Society's Seal Sale are lost in the pre-holiday shuffle.

"Although contributions up to Saturday were reportedly running ahead of last year the gain isn't sufficient to offset higher costs and to insure new activities planned by the TB and Health Society of Wayne County for 1951," the Chairman reports.

Mrs. Howard pointed out that every extra dollar received will mean just that much more tuberculosis case-finding, health education, and rehabilitation and will insure the continuation of the TB and Health Society's important prevention and control program.

Ladies who helped to man the seal booths at the Depositors State Bank and the post office were Mrs. Paul Schulz, Mrs. Emma Reid, Mrs. Ernest Wood, Mrs. Frank Beeks, Mrs. Del Hahn, Mrs. Russell Atchison, Mrs. Mermer Eilber, Mrs. Gerald Woodworth, Mrs. L. C. Stewart, Mrs. Don Matzen, Mrs. Belle McColl, Mrs. Harvey Whipple, Mrs. Joseph Plunkett, Mrs. Robert Niemi, Mrs. Pat Malley, Mrs. Ruth Starkweather, Mrs. Phyllis Saley, Mrs. Ted Kampf, Mrs. W. H. Cansfield, Mrs. E. A. Chapman, Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz, Mrs. Ted Hegge, Mrs. Robert Coolman, Mrs. E. R. Widmyer and Mrs. Robert Yerkes.

Leslie G. Lee will direct the chorus of about 85 voices and the soloists will be four music students from the University of Michigan, Frances Hanslovsky, soprano; Ruth Orr, contralto; Robert Pearson, tenor; Dale Thomas Thompson, bass. Accompanist's will be Mrs. Gerald V. Harrison at the organ and Mrs. Barton Connors at the piano. Rev. Harold F. The chorus will practice Sunday afternoon at 3:00 p. m. and at that time seating arrangements will be made. An invitation has been extended to college and university students who have sung in past performances. To be present to sing once again with the group.

Following the evening's performance, an informal gathering of the soloists, members of the chorus and their friends will be held in the church house. Ladies in the chorus are asked to bring sandwiches and the men will be asked to defray the cost of the rest of the refreshments.

Christmas Rush On At Post Office

"Finish your Christmas shopping early and get the packages in the mail as quickly as possible." This is the urgent request of Postmaster Smith and local carriers.

"In addition to the heavy Christmas mail and the regular amount of mail, at this time of year the post office must handle increased commercial shipments. So if everyone waits and the mail all comes in at the last minute, we will be swamped in spite of our efforts." The Post Office Department will make every possible attempt to deliver all holiday mail on time for Christmas, but the cooperation of the public is vital in keeping it moving.

The local post office will be open to 6:00 p. m. on Saturdays, December 16 and 23 for the convenience of Saturday shoppers. Postal windows are most crowded at the noon hours and late afternoon, so to avoid lines and to expedite service, patrons are recommended to mail packages before 10:00 a. m. or between 1:30 and 3:30 p. m.

Postmaster Smith renews his appeal that the public cooperate in the following manner:

Address all mail completely and plainly, giving street and number, P.O. box or RFD number. (There will be no directory service this year.)

Wrap packages stoutly, using stiff corrugated fiberboard, strong outer paper and heavy twine. As a precaution in case the outer wrappings are torn, it is wise to repeat the address inside the parcel. However, written messages may not be included in packages. Show return address in upper left hand corner.

70 pounds and 100 inches in combined length and girth is the limit for parcels.

"Above all - mail early! - Patrons mailing a number of cards, can help by tying them in a bundle with addresses all faced one way.

Your postman will appreciate clean walks and steps as snowy paths are hazardous and delay service. Your rural carrier will likewise appreciate a clear road in front of the mailbox. To insure delivery of mail by substitute workers not familiar with the route, be sure to have your complete name clearly printed on your box. A crayon will do.

As a courtesy to your postal employees who already have an overload of outgoing mail, put your greeting cards and other mail in the boxes situated on the corners throughout the village.

The execution of these simple suggestions will save valuable time and be of great assistance to your harassed mailmen, as well as insuring delivery of your holiday greeting cards and gifts by Christmas.

Careless Walkers Warned by Chief

"Last year in Michigan 419 pedestrians were killed in traffic accidents and another 7,494 were injured - some of them very seriously. Who was to blame?"

These facts, and the question they pose, according to Chief Denton are the reasons behind the State Safety Commission's current traffic safety education program.

"Last November 47 pedestrians were killed - more than in any other month of the year, Saturday was the worst day, accounting for 22% of the total, 62.4% were killed during hours of darkness, and the worst three hours were 6:00 - 9:00 p. m." Chief Denton said.

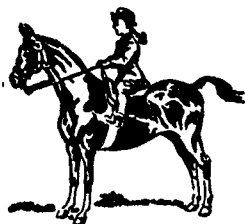

The irony of the pedestrian fatality problem, according to the State Safety Commission is that nearly two out of three pedestrians killed each year have no one to blame but themselves. They are the ones who use the roadway incorrectly inviting death.

The most common unsafe pedestrian acts, according to the National Safety Council, are crossing between intersections and crossing against the light.

"Nearly one-half of the pedestrians who are killed in the city each year," Chief Denton said, "are crossing between intersections, from behind parked cars, walking in the roadway, playing or lying in the roadway, or hitching onto vehicles. With such a widespread disregard for their own lives, is it any wonder pedestrians kill themselves off with such amazing regularity?"

The December traffic safety theme "Beware of the Careless Walker" is sponsored by the State Safety Commission and is being conducted in cooperation with the National Safety Council's "Operation Safety" program of traffic safety promotion.

Improper stabling and lack of good bedding are among the most common causes of teat injuries in cows, say Michigan State College dairy specialists.

Rural Tele-news

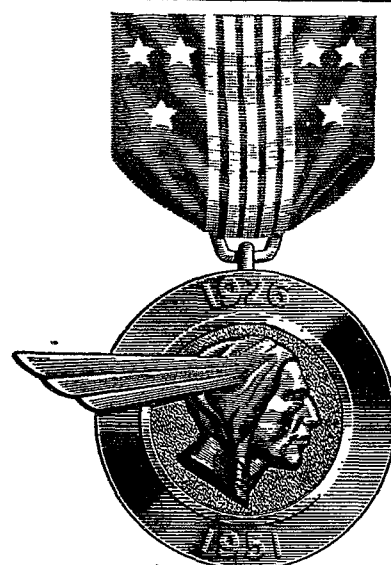

MAKES HOURS OUT OF A MINUTE—The Fastax camera can take so many pictures so fast that one minute's action, when slowed down on a movie screen, would make an eight-hour show. Developed by Bell Telephone Laboratories, the camera is used to study the rapid motions of telephone switching equipment as well as the action of human vocal cords. Research aids such as the Fastax help to improve telephone service.

THE RINGS YOU CAN'T HEAR—It wasn't too many years ago that nearly every rural-line customer served by Michigan Bell could hear the rings of all other parties on the line. Today, thanks to technical improvements, nine out of every ten hear the rings of no more than half the parties on their line. This is but one of many ways Michigan Bell is providing steadily better rural service.

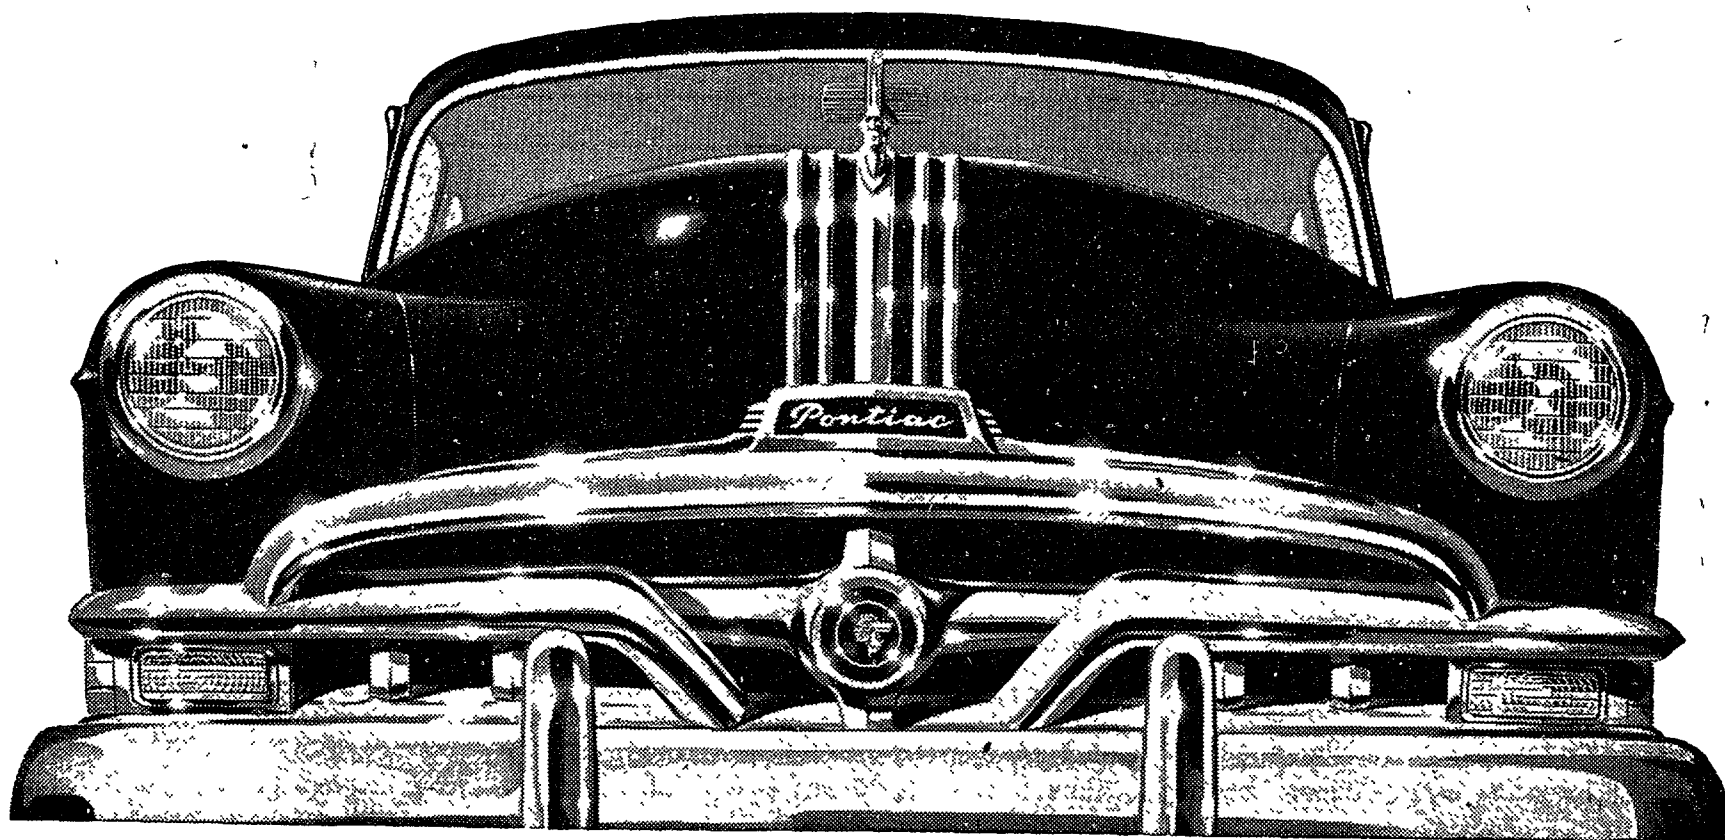

HOW DO THEY SOUND TO YOU?
In recent months many Michigan Bell operators have been attending meetings to find ways to give you better service. They've listened to their own voices on wire recorders . . . and analyzed many other phases of their work and they're putting their findings into practice. They hope you notice the improvement.

Florida Honeymoon Follows Nuptials

Rose Margaret Moine, daughter of Mrs. Aubrey C. Moine of Whitmore Road, Detroit, and the late Mr. Moine, and Donald James Wilsher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilsher of South

Rogers street, were united in marriage Saturday evening. The eight o'clock candlelight ceremony was read at the Bushnell Congregational Church. The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Thomas K. Moine of Memphis, Tennessee, and she chose an ivory satin and lace gown designed with a short train. Her fingertip length veil was held in place by a pleated satin cloche and she carried a bouquet of white poinsettias, accented with ivy. Maid of honor was Gertrude Retherford and bridesmaid was the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Robert Flattery, Jr., who were gowned in emerald green velvet frocks. They were fashioned with sweetheart necklines and long sleeves and their flowers were red poinsettias and ivy.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, George Wilsher and seating the guests were Robert Geyman of Flint, Fred Schairer of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Edward Thompson of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Moine was attired in a gown of gold tissue faille and a corsage of brown orchids. Mrs. Wilsher was gowned in toast lace and tissue faille and her flowers were pink orchids.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Sheraton. The young couple are now honeymooning in Miami Beach, Florida, and for going away the bride chose a navy blue gabardine suit with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

They will be at home to their friends on Farrand Park.

Couple Pledge Vows in Evening Rites

In a candlelight ceremony held Saturday evening, December 2 at the Novi Baptist Church, Audrey Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Graham of West Seven Mile Road became the bride of Robert Hines.

Preceding the ceremony "Because" and "A Wedding Prayer" were sung by Mrs. Russell A. Sutton accompanied by Miss Edward Hines at the piano. Rev. C. G. Morse read the nuptial vows before an altar flanked with white shaggy mums, palms and candelabra.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight satin fashioned with a high round neckline of illusion edged by a ruffle of lace which extended over the shoulders. The lace ruffling repeated in the skirt, formed an apron effect. The gown was styled with a fitted bodice and the full skirt extended into a train.

A Juliette cap of satin fashioned with satin flowerettes on each side held her finger tip veil of illusion in place. A single strand of pearls and a white Bible, adorned with white roses and streamers complimented her attire.

Preceding the bride down the aisle as maid of honor was her sister, Pauline, gowned in a taffeta fashion of shades of green, styled with a round neckline and fitted bodice. The peplum flared softly around the full skirt and matching green gloves extended to the brief caplets. Her cloche was of chartreuse with a dark green rosette at the side. Her ensemble was completed by a colonial bouquet of bronze mums.

As bridesmaid, Maxine Marr was attired in a gown of yellow taffeta, fashioned along similar lines. Her yellow cloche was identical in style to the maid of honor's and she carried a bouquet of bronze mums.

Little Patricia Ann Martin, niece of the bride, attended as flower girl. Her yellow floor length frock and headpiece were a copy of the bridesmaid's and she wore a corsage of bronze mums. Bearing the rings to the altar on a white satin pillow was John Hines, nephew of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Graham chose a dress of grey crepe accented by maroon accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Byrle Hines, was attired in a dress of green crepe and complimenting accessories. Both mothers were presented with shoulder corsages of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for over 100 guests was held in the church parlors. The bride's table was centered by a bouquet of white cluster mums flanked by lighted tapers.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Hines left on a wedding trip to New Orleans, Louisiana and Washington, D. C. For her travel costume, the bride changed into a dress of white wool and wore brown accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Walled Lake High school and has been currently employed as cashier at the Kroger Company.

Water Is Best for Treating Yule Trees

Keep your Christmas tree in water to keep it fresh, green, fire-resistant, and to prevent the needles from falling, advises Dorothy Grey, Michigan State College home economist.

Cut trees, like cut flowers, must have water to stay moist and fresh. Foresters advise buying a tree that has been cut as recently as possible, putting it in water promptly, and keeping it in a cool place until put up for decorating.

As soon as you bring the tree home, cut off the end of the trunk diagonally at least an inch above the original cut. Stand it in a container of water and keep the water level above the cut surface as long as the tree is in use. A crosswise brace of wood across the water container can be attractively disguised by covering with the metal foil now sold for kitchen and florists' use.

Buying freshly cut trees and then keeping them in water pays. If the tree s'ands and dries after cutting, it gradually loses its ability to draw up water. To tell whether the tree is fresh before buying, break off a small branch and see whether the wood under the bark is moist.

Fortunately, the water treatment is the simplest as well as the best way to make the Yule-tree fire-resistant.

Mustangs Lose 2; Colts Divide Pair

After a victorious season opener against South Lyon, the Mustang basketball squad lost to County Day School December 5, 34 to 28, and to Clarkston in an away game December 8, 50 to 41.

The Colts came out a little better, topping the Country Day reserves 37 to 24, but losing to the Clarkston reserves, 49 to 47, in a game decided in an overtime period.

Country Day led the Mustangs by a single point in the first and second periods, 11-10 and 17-16, but increased the margin to 25-17 at the end of the third quarter. Charlie Rebitzke hit the top for two baskets, Don Graham added a foul shot and Tom Shrake picked up four free throws and a basket in the final stanza, but Country Day kept pace to finish out six points ahead.

After a 10-10 and a 15-15 initial two quarters, the Colts picked up speed on baskets by Ed Nash, Bob Scheffer and Glen Howarth. 3) 0 lead 25-20 at the three quarter mark, and shots by Ken Rowe, Lucien Lovewell (2), and Nash outdistanced the Country Day reserves.

A tea and reception followed. The tea table being centered with white and red poinsettias, red and ivory tapers in silver candelabra. The fourth quarterly meeting of the Deanery will be held early in February at Ann Arbor.

WCTS Holstein Cow Completes Record

Wacots Bessie Fayne, a registered Holstein cow in the herd owned by Wayne County Training School, Northville, has just completed a lifetime production record of more than 100,000 pounds of milk on official test with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. She is the 2,354th Holstein in the nation's history to produce more than this amount of milk.

In 8 yearly milking periods, this cow has produced a total of 3,627 pounds of butterfat and 105,547 pounds of milk. Her highest single record was made at the age of 8 years, 2 months when she produced 539 pounds of butterfat and 15,453 pounds of milk.

Red Cross Seeks Blood Donors

Red Cross chapters in four counties of southeastern Michigan have joined the Detroit and Wayne County Red Cross in starting the greatest blood donor recruitment campaign since World War II.

The goal for December is 6,000 pints of whole blood, most of which will be flown to hospitals here and overseas, to help save the lives of men wounded in the Korean fighting, including many from this area.

John M. Sullivan, executive director of Detroit Chapter, regards this stepped-up program, requested by the Department of Defense, as the most important peace-time job the chapter has ever undertaken.

Blood donors will be needed in a constant stream, he said, to insure an adequate quantity of fresh whole blood for daily shipments. Donor hours at the Red Cross Regional Center, 153 E. Elizabeth, have been extended to take care of more people, and an extra mobile unit has been pressed into service to accommodate more donor groups in their own neighborhoods. Appointments for group donations may be made through local chapters or branches. The telephone number of the Center is WO 1-3900.

All healthy persons between 21 and 60 years of age are eligible to donate blood, and young people 18 to 21 may give with their parents' written consent.

"It's a wonderful opportunity," said Sullivan, "for people of this area to include our fighting men, and that means a lot of our own home-town boys, in their Christmas giving. A gift of blood can be a gift of life to a wounded soldier."

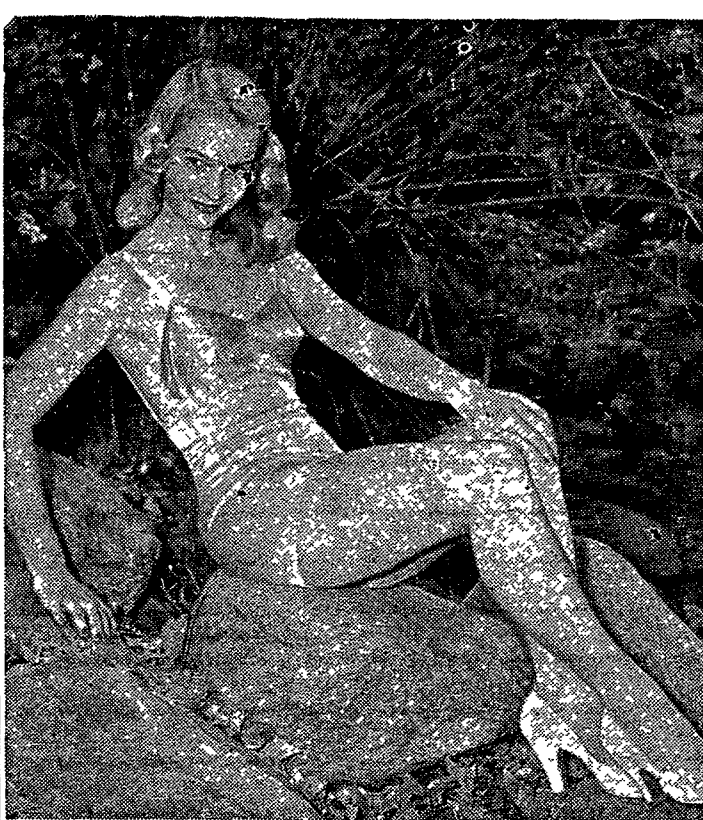

No appointment is necessary at the Center, which is open from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m., Monday through Friday and 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. on Saturday.

ON CAPITOL HILL

NEWS and COMMENT

FROM CONGRESSMAN

GEORGE A. DONDERO

While the excess profits tax bill passed by the House of Representatives last week was better than expected, nevertheless I voted for it with some misgivings.

It does not seem to me that this form of taxation is the best that could be selected, as a means of draining off into the United States Treasury a major portion of war profits. I believe it to be inequitable in some respects, and in others it can serve only to discourage production and the creation of new enterprises. It encourages inflationary wastefulness by war contractors, while forcing smaller war plants to bear a major portion of the war tax burden.

Because of these things, my vote for the excess profits tax bill was predicated upon only one consideration. Production of war munitions and equipment is getting under way. It is only just that corporations, which profit in one way or another from war output, should be compelled to make financial sacrifices in support of the war commensurate with the sacrifices already asked, and to be asked, of personal income earners.

It is quite possible, that the United States Senate will approve the House bill, and we will end with an excess profits tax law. In that event some method should be devised for relief in hardship cases, where small and comparatively new companies would be the victims of taxation amounting to almost confiscation.

On the other hand, it was understood, at the time the House bill was passed, that the Senate Finance Committee plans to amend the House bill by substituting an entirely new measure, written by the Senate committee.

This substitute bill, it was understood, would increase both normal and surtaxes on all corporations, making them bear their full share of war taxes. In addition, this bill would impose a drastic tax upon profits derived from war contracts.

Thus the Senate bill would put corporations on an even basis with wage and other personal income earners, and effectively take any excessive profits out of war production as such. Furthermore, it would not reach down into the normal earnings of smaller corporations, whose profit records in past years would make them especially vulnerable to excessive taxes under an excess profit tax arrangement.

Should the Senate pass the substitute bill, it appears probable that this measure would be adopted in substance by the Conference Committee. I, for one, would support the conference report, in that event, because such a measure would not leave business and industry prostrate after the war, as it did after World War II.

State Sets Good Forest Fire Record

Michigan has achieved her best forest fire record in history. Reaching a milestone in the annals of state forest fire history, conservation department forest fire chief, Milton M. Bergman, announces 839 fires blackened only 5,390 acres in the 33-week, 1950 forest fire danger period. This is nearly 50 percent less fires and about 75 percent fewer acres burned than last year. The 1949 toll was 21,108 acres by 1,624 fires.

The 1950 record shatters the best previous mark reached by a considerable margin. That year was 1941 when 10,463 acres were burned by 1,604 fires.

Bergman points out "the 1950 record is in marked contrast to several thousand fires which gutted over 2,000,000 acres in 1871," the first year records were out. He says the meager notes on fires prior to 1871 "indicate thousands of blazes annually and millions of acres under fire." Many, he adds, were land-clearing fires which got out of control.

With due respect for the pert weather, can play in holding down losses, Bergman says cooperation of the public and industry, efficient fire-fighting crews and up-to-the-minute equipment are the important factors to be stressed. Many Michigan newspapers printed special supplements and almost all continually kept the fire problem before the public this year. Newspaper and radio station cooperation this year was on a scale never approached in Michigan before, according to Bergman.

"Matching the 1950 record next year will be tough but not impossible," Bergman allows.

Causes and costs of 1950 fires now are being checked. Brush burners and smokers were responsible for over three-fourths of the acreage damaged in 1949. Actual suppression costs totaled $69,243 last year.

MSC Dormitory Rates Boosted in January

Michigan State College students will find their dormitory rates slightly higher when they come back to the school for the winter term.

Dormitory food fare was boosted $8 a term for all students, and men students will get an additional $5 increase in room prices a quarter. Winter term food rates will be $188 for men, compared to $175 last year, and $193 for women, compared to $185 last year. Increased rates were necessary because of rising food and labor costs, college officials said.

Winter Scheduled To Arrive Dec. 22

What happens in the way of weather after 5:14 a. m., Eastern Standard Time, on Friday, December 22 can be properly charged against Winter.

What has happened thus far only the forerunner of Winter, according to Dr. Hazel M. Losh, assistant professor of astronomy at the University of Michigan who has consulted the astronomical charts to find the exact moment when Winter begins. "During most of December, the sun will be more than 23 degrees south of the equator but on December 22 it will reach the most southerly point in its apparent yearly journey around the earth," Dr. Losh reports. Since it will have its shortest daily path across the sky, the day will be only nine hours long and the night will last for 15 hours, the shortest and longest respectively of the year, she points out. But once again, she explains that the conservation of heat by the earth and atmospheric blanket will keep the coldest weather of the season from occurring at the time of the shortest day.

"During December and especially at the Christmas season, some of the most beautiful and colorful stars in all the heavens light the eastern horizon in the evening," she reports. "There is no constellation that equals in splendor and beauty the giant Orion striding majestically across the southern sky."

This constellation precedes and announces the approaching rise of Sirius, the brightest star in the whole heavens. Other bright spots in the east at about 9 p.m. are the Twins in Gemini, while at the same time during the Christmas season the Northern Cross can be seen standing upright in the west with the bright Deneb marking the top.

Orion can be spotted quite easily since three bright stars in a row mark the belt that holds the sword of this might hunter, Dr. Losh reports. Arranged like steps in the sky, these stars point directly downward toward Sirius, just appearing over the horizon by 9 p. m. and point upwards toward the orange Aldebaran in Taurus.

Drunk Drivers Lose Their Licenses

DAWN - DUSK - DARKNESS - DEATH! That, Sheriff Andrew C. Baird said today, is the all too familiar pattern of December traffic.

"This is especially true regarding accidents involving drinking drivers," he continued, "pointing out that as the sun goes down such accidents go up."

The records show that 3 out of 4 accidents involving "drinking accidents" occur during hours of darkness and the greatest concentration of such accidents occur between midnight and 3:00 a. m.

To give this dangerous period special attention, Sheriff Baird announced that the law enforcement agencies of Michigan, in cooperation with all bar owners, have established a "bar patrol" in which officers in uniform will make a call at each bar during the last two hours before closing time.

As their part of the campaign the bar owners will place on each table a table card bearing the message "If you are driving - TAKE IT EASY". It is hoped that the safety reminder of the table card and the officers in uniform will encourage all motorists to be particularly careful in their driving after dark.

BOX KITE SEQUEL

Jets Are Beyond Wright Brothers' Wildest Dreams

FORTY-SEVEN YEARS AGO Dec. 17, the world saw the first two flights of a heavier-than-air machine. Orville Wright flew 120 feet in 12 seconds at Kitty Hawk, N. C. and his brother, Wilbur, followed with a flight of 852 feet in 59 seconds. The Wrights were from Dayton, Ohio.

Today, a turbojet can streak the 700 miles from Kitty Hawk to Dayton in little more than an hour. The Wrights tinkered for two years to build a contraption that could fly 24 miles in 35 minutes.

Other inventors took up where the Wrights left off and developed propeller-driven planes into the 150 mile-an-hour craft of World War I. These craft in a few decades were replaced by World War II planes which were sitting ducks if they couldn't reach 500 m.p.h. Propeller planes thus had reached their maximum attainable speed. They were butting against the aerodynamic wall.

Another phase of flying was ready to take over—jet propulsion. The ability of the turbojets to crack the sonic barrier was leaving propeller-driven craft as obsolete as the Wright's awkward biplane. In the Korean fighting, propeller-driven P-51's are enjoying a brief respite from oblivion because the swift jets have been unable to carry enough fuel to fly from distant bases and make more than one pass at their targets. The speed of the jets therefore has been a hindrance. But this has been a minor technical difficulty and the fuel problem will be solved. Then good bye to propeller-driven fighters!

Perhaps the jets will not enjoy their superiority long. The rockets are appearing on the scene. Both Britain and America are experimenting with rockets. Rockets have unlimited speed and altitude, but they consume fuel at such a high rate that flight is limited to a few minutes. This hampers them with more of a fuel problem than the jets have.

But rockets are being used in experiments far beyond the sound barrier. As far as physical effects are concerned, flying faster than sound is no different from sitting in your arm chair at home. The earth is spinning at 1,035 m.p.h. but you don't notice it because your surroundings are traveling at the same speed you are. In the cockpit of a rocket, there is no sensation of speed.

The only uncomfortable part of supersonic flight is the buffeting from the pressure waves that build up. With the engine in the rear of the cockpit, its roar never catches up with the ears of the pilot.

It's hard to believe that the rapid jets and rockets of today are the offsprings of the Wright brothers' fragile box kite with engine attached.

East or West—Home-Made is Best

The best gifts are those you make with your own two hands; and one of the sweetest gifts you can give is a box of candy, made and wrapped at home, with your own personal touches. A special candy-making chocolate helps you produce candies as delicious and professional-looking as any you could buy—and especially welcome because you made them yourself!

Chocolate Caramels
1 cup sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup light corn syrup 1 1/2 cups heavy cream
3 squares candy-making chocolate

Combine sugar, corn syrup, chocolate, salt, and cream. Place over low heat and stir constantly until sugar is dissolved and mixture boils. Continue boiling over low heat until a small amount of the mixture forms a firm ball in cold water (or to a temperature of 246° F.) stirring constantly after mixture begins to thicken. Pour into lightly buttered 8x4x3-inch pan. (Do not scrape pan.) Let stand until cold. Mark in 1/2-inch squares with knife and turn out on cold slab, top-side up. Cut in squares, using full length of long, sharp blade. Let stand in cool place 2 to 3 hours to dry. Wrap each caramel in waxed paper. Makes 40 caramels.

Quick French Creams
1 package (8 squares) candy-making chocolate 1 tablespoon milk
1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar 1 egg, well beaten

Heat chocolate over boiling water until partly melted. Then remove from boiling water and stir rapidly until entirely melted. Add sugar, milk, and egg and beat only enough to blend. Chill until mixture can be shaped in 1/2-inch balls. Shape balls and roll lightly in breakfast cocoa, chocolate sprinkles, or chopped shredded coconut or nut meats. Makes about 5 dozen French creams.

Game Animals Head Toward Yard Areas

Michigan's game animals are doing quite well, thank you.

Heavy surge of snow and cold weather has started shunting deer toward the yarding areas and the bears have beat at least a temporary retreat to their dens. But conservation department game men say it would take a prolonged siege of winter with deep snows to cause real trouble in the animal world.

Usually it takes a foot or more of snow to force the deer into winter quarters. Any resemblance to a thaw in December could bring the bears out again before they hibernate for the duration.

Bulk of the migrating ducks have left the state, however, some of the other migrants will keep the local ducks company this winter.

In spite of early snows, pheasants still have access to weed seeds, waste grain and shrub fruits.

Grouse rarely are bothered by winter since they feed well above the snow line.

In my book the younger they come the better I like them, and I'm thinking of grandchildren who seem to have possibilities.

Bear cubs are surprisingly small at birth, being about eight inches long, and weighing from nine to 12 ounces.

The Happiest Kid on the Block

... will he be yours this Christmas?

HE CAN BE—he will be—if you bring home the television set that he's wanted so long, that he'll use so much.

Laughter, music, adventure, magic—television at home means all that to a growing boy these days, but it means a lot more than just programs.

Now he'll be able to invite the gang over to his house for TV instead of having to slip over to the neighbors to see television himself.

Now he can choose his own programs, with you to help develop his tastes, instead of viewing the choices of someone else.

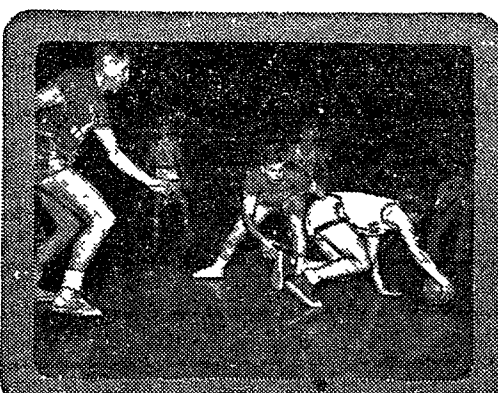

Now he'll spend a lot more time with Dad, watching ball games together and listening to Dad's stories about the very teams they're watching.

No wonder the happiest kid on the block will be your son when you make this year his "Television Christmas."

With TV this magic world is his to enjoy every day!

CHILD PERFORMERS—Talented singers, dancers, musicians, inspire your children to cultivate their own talents. They'll be more eager to learn—practice more willingly.

WORLD'S GREATEST athletic events—Fathers and sons follow their favorite teams together from a front row seat. Television helps teach your children sportsmanship.

THE WONDERFUL world of make believe enchants children for hours—is often both educational and entertaining. It sure helps Mom—especially on rainy days.

MUSIC DELUXE! Now you can see as well as hear your favorite orchestras, singers, instrumentalists! Yes, Television gets you right "on stage" seats, no money could buy!

LAUGHTER under your roof—the shared pleasure that binds your family closer. The greatest comedians of the entertainment world are in your living room every night on TV.

Peter Capra

Executive Director of the Boys Club of New York, says:

"Television is more than fun for boys. It is significant and true that since the inclusion of television in the Boys Club program, the Glee Club, Drama and Music Groups have improved tremendously in the number of boys participating. Television properly integrated in the over-all program of wholesome recreation will continue to make an increasingly valuable contribution by keeping growing boys informed, entertained and happy... essential factors in building character and developing personality."

Jobs "Go Begging" MSC Official Says

Michigan State College's placement director has a weighty problem on his shoulders these days, but it's just the opposite of his perennial worry.

John Schluter says he feels like Old Mother Hubbard with "so many good jobs I don't know what to do."

Schluter says there is a critical need for graduates of engineering, chemistry, physics and related fields.

"At MSC we will be fortunate to fill one-fourth of these positions available between now and April," he added. Such technical jobs pay new graduates about $275 - $325 a month to start. The wage represents a 5 to 10 per cent increase over last year.

Schluter attributes the situation to several factors, including complete absorption of 1950 college graduates by industry; heavy demand for technical graduates in military defense, and reluctance of draft eligible graduates to apply for jobs.

Records from Michigan Dairy Herd Improvement associations show that it takes three cows producing at a 200-pound butterfat level to return as much income above cost of feed as one cow producing 400 pounds of butterfat a year.

Ed Bauman Attends Ohio Convention

Ed Bauman of California Spray Chemical Corporation, 125 Walnut street, Northville, was in Dayton Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week attending the sixth annual convention of the Ohio Pest Control Operators Association held there at the Biltmore Hotel.

The three day educational program included talks and demonstrations by national authorities, climaxed by a study of the part pest control operators can play in civilian defense against atomic or bacteriological attacks. The OPCA is an association of pest control operators dedicated to high standards and fair dealings. Membership is limited to those who agree to follow a strict code of ethics.

The program included a talk by Ira Hatfield, technical supervisor of wood preservatives for the Monsanto Chemical Company of Saint Louis, Mo., who discussed the latest chemical weapons against pests. T. H. Parks, extension entomologist of Ohio State University outlined some of his recent experiences with termites and termite racketeers. Ray O'Connor of Miami University, warned about bacteriological warfare through poisoned drinking water and J. Edwin Sameth of Newark, N. J., president of the National Pest Control Association, described efforts to raise the skill and standards of pest control operators nationally.

One day of the convention was devoted to field demonstrations of latest control techniques. A Dayton city dump being treated for rats and vermin and a house completely protected against termite infestation.

Arthur Davis, of the ABC Exterminating and Pest Control Company, is retiring president of the Ohio Association. W. H.

TO APPEAR ON MSC RADIO STATION

Perhaps a woman's work is never done, but Mrs. Elsa Salow, 16185 Newburg Road near Plymouth, has found a way to do it faster and easier. She will tell her story on "Electricity at Work For You," Michigan State College radio program scheduled for 1:15 p. m. Wednesday, December 20 on Station WKAR 870 on your dial.

Appearing with Mrs. Salow will be Don Hamilton of MSC and William Scott, Detroit Edison Farm Service Advisor.

When neighbors wonder how she manages to farm 270 acres with 46 head of cattle, Mrs. Salow points out that she has two hard-working sons, Charles and Gerald, plus the help of an electric hay dryer, feed mixer and milkhouse water heater.

Busy as they are, the entire Salow family finds time to take active part in community affairs. Mrs. Salow has been interested in farm organizations for years. Son Charles is a veteran 4-H Club leader, and Gerald Salow was awarded a 4-H Club Scholarship to Michigan State College.

McCain, president of Exterminal Chemicals, Inc., was convention program chairman.

Bauman is a member of the National Pest Control Association.

Store knives in a knife rack or drawer equipped with a rack, say Michigan State College farm safety specialists. Sharp knives should be washed separately from other utensils as a precaution against cuts.

Michigan State College agricultural authorities say young stock can be kept in a pen where hay can be self fed and silage fed once a day. The pen does not have to be heated or closed. In fact, a straw shed makes a good shelter for young stock.
