

Ed Yerkes phoned us the other day in regard to the recent story in the Record on how Northville streets were named. He tells us that Clement road got its moniker from his father, Clement Charles Yerkes. The latter gentleman was instrumental in subdividing the land in the Clement road area.

This little pig really got to market... the words "desperado loose" spread down North Center Street Wednesday morning. The "desperado" turned out to be a 30 pound porker belonging to L. Jordan of Gerald avenue.

Little porky enjoyed a frolic through the alley and parking lot in the rear of the North Center Street stores. He raced from one spot to another and when weary, rooted himself a bed next to the Record office. The crowd gathered, merchants streamed out of their back doors to aid in catching the runaway animal. Even Police Sergeant Clarence Baum was called to aid in the capture.

Fifteen minutes passed and still the chase went on... from one end of the alley to the other raced Mr. Pig with the crowd behind him. Heroes who finally made the flying tackle on the beast and "sacked" him in a bur-lap bag were three teen-agers, who passed into the crowd, and so their names remain unknown.

This week's sock and tie collection for the Detroit House of Correction Occupational Therapy department was added to by Mrs. J. M. Miller, Thomas R. Carrington, Mrs. F. Bryan and others who didn't leave their names. Have you left your cast-off ties and socks at the Record office or at the home of E. J. Willis, 119 Rayson street?

Northville Downs was visited Saturday night by Governor G. Mennen Williams and other Democratic party dignitaries. The Governor posed for pictures in the "tote" room.

The Northville Record office was visited Thursday by a lady from Northville, South Dakota. The lady and her family were en-route to Lansing, spotted Northville, Mich. on the map and couldn't resist paying a call to the town.

Legionnaires Hear Governor Williams

Joining delegates from every Michigan Chapter of the American Legion Posts and Auxiliaries, Northville delegates participated in the organization's annual convention held in Detroit last week. In attendance as delegates of the Lloyd H. Green Post 147 were Charles Carrington, Commander; Paul Burnham, Commander-elect; George Simmons and Conrad Springer. Delegate-at-large was Charles Murphy.

The Legion conclave was held for the first time at the new Veterans' Memorial Building. Among the prominent people who addressed various groups throughout the convention were Governor G. Mennen Williams, Senator Blair Moody and Fred M. Alger, Secretary of State.

Through the courtesy of Mayor Conrad Langfield, the float representing Northville which appeared in Detroit's 250th anniversary parade, was entered in the traditional Legionnaire's Parade down Woodward avenue Saturday.

Members of the state auxiliaries held their meetings simultaneously in the Hotel Staller. Northville delegates to the convention were Auxiliary President, Mrs. Donald B. Severance, Mrs. Morris Cohen and Mrs. George Risher. Mrs. Charles Murphy attended as delegate-at-large.

Following the Sunday morning Memorial services, regular session convened for discussion of the proposed year's program. At this meeting Andrea Owen, Governor of Girls' State held recently in Ann Arbor, addressed the group briefly, welcoming and congratulating the representatives of Girls' Nation on behalf of the citizens of the mythical 49th state.

Mrs. J. D. Miller of Redford is visiting the Don Miller family of First street for a few days.

Dorothy Trapp was a member of the bridal party of the Kero-Holmes wedding Saturday in Detroit.

Five Teams Begin Softball Playoffs

After three days of play in the Northville softball league playoffs, one team has been eliminated and three others have suffered losses pushing them closer to the knockout stage.

The Northville Hotel and Bar team outscored the Mayors 18 to 11 in the first game Monday night and the Optimists turned back the Cy Owens Ford team 5 to 2 in the second game. Stone's Hardware edged the Optimists 6 to 5 in a close battle on Tuesday, followed by the second defeat of the Mayors, at the hands of the Ford team, in a 14 to 12 slugfest.

The Stone team and the Hotel team were scheduled to face each other on Wednesday, with the Optimists and Cy Owens Ford teams slated to take the diamond at 8:30 p.m. Monday, August 13. The coming Tuesday and Wednesday games will depend on which teams are eliminated.

Playoff rules call for the elimination of a team after it has lost twice. The Mayors team became the first victim, with the Ford squad and the Optimists still in with a defeat and a win each. Wednesday's game relegated either Stone's or the Hotel to the same category.

Al Wistert and LaRue had perfect nights at bat for the Hotel team in their game Monday. Wistert got two hits and drew three walks, scoring three runs. LaRue poled out a grand slam home run in the sixth inning scoring four runs. Frank Bongiovanni duplicated the effort with a bases loaded home run in the sixth for the Mayors. The Hotel team fashioned nine runs in the fourth inning and five in the sixth for the bulk of their 18 to 11 victory.

Gerry Graham pitched fourth-inning softball to lead the Optimists to their 5 to 2 victory over the Ford team Monday night. Jack Ratliff's single in the first inning sent Don Johnson, Gerry Graham and Earl Hollis across the plate. Dennis Winkler's single shortly after scored Ratliff and Charlie Reitzke.

The Ford team scored two runs in the third frame on an error, a base on balls and Wellman's double through the fence in deep left center field, a hit which was called a ground rule double.

Stone's Hardware took a 6 to 5 decision from the Optimists in Tuesday's first game chiefly by virtue of a three-run error. The Optimists led 4 to 0 going into the last half of the fourth inning, with the Ford team at bat, but a hit batsman followed by three walks forced in a run. Then, with the sacks loaded, the Optimist center fielder dropped a fly to let in three runs to knot the count at 4 to 4. Stone's pushed ahead 5 to 4 in the fifth frame on a hit by Norm Rody.

The Optimists tied it up at 5 to 5 in the seventh, but Don Maclean's hit in the bottom of the inning provided the winning run.

The Ford-Mayors scoring marathon wound up 14-12 with the Mayors eliminated from the playoffs via two losses. Stoner had three hits for the Mayors for a perfect day at the plate. Chuck Mankin rapped out two triples, as did Joe Gatter for the Ford nine. The Ford team got four runs in the second inning, two in the third, four in the sixth and five in the seventh. The Mayors crossed the plate three times in the second frame, twice in the third, three times in the sixth and four in the seventh.

New Episcopal Rector

REV. EUGENE CHAPMAN

Chapman Named To Plymouth Rectory

The vestry of St. John's Episcopal Church have extended a call to the Rev. Eugene Chapman of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to become rector of the Plymouth church. Mr. Chapman has been Senior Associate Minister of the Calvary Episcopal Church in Pittsburgh since February 1950.

Born in Peekskill, New York, Mr. Chapman graduated from Harvard and took his divinity work at the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, Massachusetts. He is married and has three children. His work at Calvary Church was executive and administrative, in charge of the church staff and of the calling program. He has been a member of the Diocesan Commission on Church Architecture and a director of the parish camp. He and Mrs. Chapman organized programs for parent education groups and she has been active in Girl Scout work and diocesan affairs. Mr. Chapman will spend the next month and a half at the clergy graduate school at the University of the South at Seawane, Tennessee.

He and his family will come to Plymouth about September 15 and will occupy the rectory at 185 Blunk which is being redecorated for them. St. John's looks forward to a continued and greater growth under Mr. Chapman's leadership.

VFW To Sponsor Donkey Ball Game

The old argument about the merits of female softball players as opposed to the male section of the sport won't be decided Sunday, August 12 at Ford Field in Northville.

The Plymouth Girls' League will play a softball game against the VFW Post 4012 boys, but the winners will be the team which can make noises best understood by donkeys.

It's the old donkey ball game coming to town, the softball variation in which players use donkeys for transportation on the basepaths and field. The strongest hitter can line a home run into the most remote corner of the field, but he doesn't even have a single if his donkey doesn't feel like carrying him to first base. The game is won by persuasion and luck, not power.

The donkey game is an unpredictable leveler of softball talent. It's always funny, frequently hilarious and good entertainment for the whole family.

The Dearborn Drum and Bugle Corps will play at 7:00 p.m. with the game following. The game is sponsored by the VFW Post 4012. There will be a small admission charge.

For more details, see the advertisement on page 11 of this issue.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Locke of South Rogers street and Mrs. L. C. Stewart of Orchard Drive motored to Geneva, New York last week-end to visit the Locke's son, Rusty, who is taking his basic training at Sampson Air Force Base.

NHS Band To Play at State Fair

More than 75 bands representing every section of Michigan will participate in a brilliant musical program throughout the Mid-Century Michigan State fair August 31 through September 9, according to Graham T. Overgard, musical director. This is the largest number of bands ever elected from the hundreds of applications received each year.

Prominent among the groups will be the Northville High School band directed by Leslie G. Lee. The 65 member band will put on a half-hour concert in the Music Shell on Monday, September 3 (Labor Day).

Each band coming to the fair will perform in the Music Shell and members of the organizations will be guests of General Manager James D. Friel and the fair's board of managers at many of the fair's special attractions.

The high school bands will provide only one of the highlights of the finest entertainment program ever put together for a Michigan State Fair.

Stage, screen and radio stars will be on hand in person, with Bob Hope, providing a headline touch. The star packed Cherokee Hammond Rodeo featuring Wild Bill Elliot (Red Ryder of the movies) will be the grandstand attraction August 31 through September 8, and a 100-mile sanctioned auto race and the Lucky Lett Hel Drivers will take over the grandstand for the final day, September 9.

A daily feature will be a parade on the Fairgrounds, featuring headline performers, contestants in the fair's drum major and beauty contests, and the high school bands on that day.

German Students Take Look at Village Government

Wide new vistas have been opened for four German youths, Ingeborg Rothenpieler, Ludwig Jagla, Charles Wursching and Ingrid Haenzel who arrived in Northville Thursday. Sponsored by the Rotary Club, the teenagers will be calling Northville their home for a year.

They were met in Dearborn by their "foster parents," Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, Mayor and

Mrs. Conrad E. Langfield, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Carrington and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Petz. Memories of their first meeting with these parents will linger with these youths for a long time, for the greetings were filled with mixed emotions... tears, gaiety and laughter. Theirs were tears of happiness for being chosen to come to the United States to study for a year and they were excited and glad to be so warmly welcomed by their foster parents.

The two boys and two girls are but a part of the 74 German high school seniors brought to the United States from the British, French and American occupied zones of Germany. They are the first to be brought over under the "Youth For Understanding" (Continued on Back Page)

The grading and blacktopping will begin in the immediate future with the total cost of the job estimated at $6,000. The cost will be divided with Wayne County paying $3,000, the Township $2,000 and the Village $1,000. The County has assumed the responsibility of having the job done.

The Kroger Company petitioned the Council for permission to hold a street dance August 28 on Hutton street between Dunlap and Main street, prior to the grand opening of their new "Food-O-Mat." Permission for roping off the area was granted.

Thomas Rooney of Walnut street was present and submitted to the Council a proposal extending Cady street through to Plymouth avenue. The Council has taken this matter under advisement.

The Council discussed the progress being made on negotiations for the property affected in extending the parking facilities. They also heard the police, fire, street and health reports for the month of July. No further business appearing, the meeting was adjourned.

Northville Downs To Close Saturday

Harness racing at Northville Downs closes this week with get-away night scheduled for Saturday, August 11.

Chmaxing the most successful season enjoyed by the half mile track, a $2000 feature 18 class pace—the Freeman Car Pace—will be held Thursday night.

Early closing nominees for the pace include such headliners as Denny Painter, Hollywood Suzette, Kim Castle, Mac Dale, My Chief and Pat Song.

Daily wagering at Northville this season has averaged $195,000 compared to $165,000 a year ago. This is an increase of more than 20 percent.

Experts trace the increased interest at Northville and at other of the nation's tracks to the "growing up" of pari-mutuel harness racing as a sport. Year after year more fans have developed and adopted the harness sport.

Northville Downs, in operation only eight years, still is the pioneer track in the Midwest and one of the oldest in the country.

Oddfellows Plan Auction, Bake Sale

Beginning the month-long activities will be a street dance

Tuesday, August 28 on Hutton, between Main and Dunlap street. This event is being sponsored by the Kroger Company and will hail the opening of their new "Food-O-Mat" on East Main street. The "Parade of Progress" activities will be climaxed with the awarding of a new Ford car on September 28. Simultaneously, Cy Owens has planned the formal opening of his showroom which will be followed with a street dance on Wing street and a vaudeville show sponsored by the Ford Motor Car Company.

Everyone who shops in Northville except immediate families of participating Retail Merchants Association members is eligible to win the prizes. Shoppers buying from members of the association will receive a ticket for every 50 cent purchase. Every Friday evening at 9:00 p.m. the drawing will take place on the "four corners" and the holder of the lucky ticket must be present to win. Many prizes will be awarded each Friday evening and the cost of them is being underwritten by members of the Association.

The "Parade of Progress" is being sponsored by the Retail Merchants Association whose sole interest is in making Northville a better place in which to live and shop. They want to promote retail trade in the Village by improving the trading area.

Businessmen not already members of the Northville Retail Merchants Association have until August 13 to join the group and they will automatically be eligible to participate in the five-weeks' program. Anyone desiring to join should contact Nelson Schrader, president; Nellie Bailey, vice president, or Roy Stone, treasurer.

These metals are so rare that the average annual production could theoretically be stored in a 3' 4 1/2" cubical bin.

To the Editor

To The Editor:
Northville Record
After commending the Record staff for the article on the history of the Village Streets in the issue of July 26, I want to question one item concerning the "Northville Academy." The old-timers will have to bear me out but I believe this was held in what is now the John A. Boyce home at 204 Randolph street. If my information is correct it was conducted by the Rev. Sylvester Cochran.

I doubt very much that this old New England "dominie" would conduct a "dancing school." To my knowledge the "Northville Academy" was a girls' seminary, one of the many such schools throughout the Western Reserve during the years 1830 to 1880. I understand Mr. Boyce found in the attic of that lovely old home, large memory cards used in drilling the students of that day. The academics of the period would correspond to our High Schools, or preparatory schools similar to the so-called finishing schools of the South.
The Rev. Sylvester Cochran and his wife are buried in the Rural Hill cemetery at Northville. He served the New-School Presbyterian Church (now the Northville Library building) from 1845 until 1849. Later he was Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth, Michigan. His daughter-in-law was Sarah Ann Cochran 1832-1917, likewise buried in Rural Hill cemetery, a distinguished teacher and librarian, of whom the local chapter of The Daughters of the American Revolution is named after.

I am sure the Record will not mind my questioning the historicity of their calling the Northville Academy "a dancing school." It is important to have dancing schools in our fine community, but I feel that this old preacher and his distinguished daughter-in-law might turn in their graves if this mistake in history was not corrected.

Cordially,
Harold F. Fredsell

ELECTRICITY NOW AVAILABLE TO NEARLY ALL U. S. FARMS

Power Companies Will Celebrate August 26 to Sept. 1 as "FARM ELECTRIFICATION WEEK"

Electricity now is available to over 90 per cent of America's occupied farms. And the nation's electric light and power companies are marking the virtual attainment of farm electrification with special ceremonies during the week of August 26 to September 1.
Evidence of the growth of farm electricity is in the record. In 1923, only about 200,000 American farms had electric service. Today, it is available to 4,900,000 of the country's 5,200,000 occupied farms as a result of the companies and local electric cooperatives working together.
The electric light and power companies pioneered in farm electrification. They now serve nearly half of America's farms. Almost the entire remaining half are being served by the local electric cooperatives. The electric companies are proud of the privilege of furnishing, at wholesale rates, about half the electricity distributed by these local electric cooperatives to their customers.

As the job of bringing electric service to farms nears completion, the electric light and power companies will continue to cooperate with local electric cooperatives and with agricultural colleges and experiment stations to sponsor research to put electricity to work in more ways for more farmers.

Scout Dick Gunsell Finds Travels Interesting, Varied

Joining over 15,000 Boy Scout delegates from every section of the world, Dick Gunsell and Jim Lapham, local Scout delegates, are participating in the World Scout Jamboree at Bad Ischl, Austria from August 3-10. On July 13, the Scouts and their leaders boarded the S. S. Argentina at Hoboken, New Jersey for Algiers, North Africa, their first stop.

(The following are excerpts from letters received by Dick's parents, the M. C. Gunsells of Clemen road, which describe his varied experiences and itinerary.)

July 17
Our ship, the S. S. Argentina, is owned by an Italian company and the crew of 100 men are all Italians. Food is excellent—especially the wonderful spaghetti! After we were assigned our cabins, and schedules were made out, drinking water for the trip was rationed. It was fun trying to understand the crew and to pick up bits of the language. The captain took us around and showed us the chart rooms and explained the navigation systems. Very few of the boys were seasick, although we did have a rough day or two.

July 20
As we approached the islands of the Azores, the Captain took the boat as close to shore as possible so that we could get a view of the islands. The land which rises sharply from the shoreline, is for the most part, terraced to utilize every bit of space. Windmills dotted the beautiful landscape and we spotted a few active volcanoes.

July 21
Among the activities aboard ship today, we had lessons in the Italian, German and French languages. We are learning enough phrases to help ourselves along. We also organized a band and planned several pageants, which will be given at the Jamboree—strictly the American sagas: cowboys, Indians and other typical American lore. The weather is very cool and our heavy sweaters sure feel good.

July 23
We entered the harbor in Algiers, North Africa, at 7:45 a.m. At 9:00 a.m. we left the ship in troop formation and full dress uniform, and boarded the waiting buses for a visit to the city. You should have seen the beggars and little children—they were sick and almost without clothing. By the way, I was very fortunate to shake the hand of our American Counsel General to Algiers who lives in the city. The metropolis is on a hillside—to the southeast of the Harbor is the Kasbah with all its low buildings huddled in a group on the hillside. We visited the Museum Fanchet D'Espey which is right inside the gate of the Kasbah. We also visited an old Turkish Fort near the Museum (French Foreign Legion). From there we went by foot on the Rue de Lakasbah into the deep heart of the Kasbah.

I would never be able to explain the people and their life in the Kasbah—it's so weird and mysterious. First of all, the people live like animals—a little hole in the wall will serve as a home. The streets, which are more like alleys, are an aimless length wide, dirty beyond all belief and very dark. The stench is something I shall never forget. Anyway I think each boy will soon find out what home is—he will learn what America has to offer him. Those poor creatures in Algiers just live and that's about all. Half of the people are blind and diseased—even the children. So you see I sure wish that more people, young folks my age, could have shared in what I saw and above all what I have learned! I learned what the word America meant in a short two hours. By all means, I am serious and speak for all the other fellows who also speak on the same line.

In the afternoon we visited the European or the "rich section," composed mostly of French people and a few Americans. From a spot high on the hillside, we viewed the city's beautiful homes and scenery. We climbed by electric street car to the Notre Dame D'Afrique which is on the very highest hill overlooking Algiers and the bay.

That Evening
We are now far out into the Mediterranean and already have passed Sardinia. We dock at Naples about 7:30 a.m. tomorrow and my next letter will tell you about Naples and Rome.

(Next Week — Italy)
It costs more to keep weeds than it does to kill them.

FAST, ACCURATE TELEPHONE SERVICE IS VITAL TO CIVIL DEFENSE

Warnings of approaching planes, coming from air raid spotters or military radar screens, are flashed over networks of Long Distance and local telephone lines to Filter Centers:

Telephone reports are quickly charted on Filter Center maps. Then waiting Air Force interceptor planes are alerted.

This is but one type of the many special telephone networks serving government and military forces to help protect our nation.

This great and growing telephone system was built to serve America in peace. But it is just as ready to serve in any emergency:

The value of this nationwide telephone network was never greater—never clearer—than it is today.

It must be kept strong. It is vital to a strong America.

To help speed your Long Distance call, please give the operator the out-of-town telephone number. • Telephone lines are busy with national defense.

NEWS

•GEORGE A. DONDERO

A strange development in connection with the Amerasia espionage case, which it was my privilege to bring to the attention of Congress and the American people, came to light during the past week.

The notorious Amerasia case involved theft, during World War II, of top secret documents relating directly to national security from the War, State and Navy Departments. The papers were taken by persons connected with Amerasia Magazine, a Communist front publication devoted to discussions of this country's Far Eastern policies.

At the time, several witnesses testified before Congressional committees that Owen Lattimore, a former State Department adviser on the Far East, was directly involved in the Amerasia conspiracy. This was denied by Lattimore. The State Department leaped to his defense. Lattimore is now a lecturer on foreign affairs at Johns Hopkins University at Baltimore.

On Tuesday of last week, Alexander Barmine, a former Russian Brigadier General, once high in the Communist military intelligence service, testified before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. He told the committee that General Ian Antonovich Berzin, chief of military intelligence at Moscow, once informed him that Lattimore, and Joseph Barnes, a New York newspaperman, were "our men"—meaning that they could be used to help Barmine in supplying arms to Communists in a western Chinese province.

Both Lattimore and Barnes have characterized Barmine's story as "poppycock" and "lies." Neither the State Department nor the Administration has made any comment.

Circumstances surrounding Barmine's testimony lead to the belief by Internal Security subcommittee members that he is telling the truth. Barmine fled from Russia, after turning against his Communist masters. He is now head of the Russian desk of the State Department's Voice of America program.

Regardless of any considerations as to Barmine's veracity, one thing seems clear to me: Either the State Department and the Administration must accept his testimony as to Lattimore or admit that the Voice of America has been infiltrated by a Communist secret agent.

Either Barmine is telling the truth or he is an agent of the Kremlin. In either circumstance, the State Department and the Administration may find it very hard to explain the matter to the satisfaction of all loyal Americans.

In the latest issue of the Oakland Citizens League Bulletin, I came upon an item with which I agree so completely that I shall include it here in hopes that everyone in the County will have opportunity to read it. The item follows:

"The latest excuse brain-trusters have put out for ever increasing taxes is the promise that it is supposed to combat inflation. In an era when the average worker finds it hard to feed his family and heat his home, he is supposed to be so rich that he needs somebody to take away what surplus cash he might have.

"Higher taxes do one thing. They enable the government to hire more people and spend more money, much of it on non-essential programs. If the average American appears to be squandering money on television sets, it is because he can no longer afford outside-the-home entertainment."

Conners Creek Plant Generator To Boost Detroit Area Electricity

Electric power supply in the metropolitan Detroit area was increased 168,000 horsepower Wednesday with the starting up of a new steam turbine-generator at Detroit Edison's Conners Creek plant.

The new generator, including boilers and other equipment, cost $15,000,000. It is the second of two identical units placed in operation at Conners Creek this year, and marks the completion of a 2½ year construction program at the Conners Creek station.

Starting up the new unit also brings to completion the company's current program of additions to existing plants. Besides the two Conners Creek additions, two 168,000 horsepower generators have been put in service at Edison's Trenton Channel plant—one in October, 1949, and the second in February, 1950.

Detroit Edison's over-all expansion plans carry through 1954. A new 3-unit plant now under construction between St. Clair and Marine City is scheduled to provide 600,000 horsepower by late 1953, and plans for another

Customers' Corner

Have you noticed that chickens generally are plumper, meatier than they were a few years ago?

The principal reason for this is the "Chicken-of-Tomorrow" breeding program, sponsored by A&P with the cooperation of the poultry industry.

This six-year program has resulted in chickens that mature when they are younger and more tender, and have more meat in relation to bone.

Why don't you try the superior chickens at your A&P and let us know what you think of them? Please write:
