Krogers Getting Ready for Grand Opening on August 29

Kroger will touch off another spark in its "Parade of Progress" by opening a new Food-O-Mat Food Store here in Northville at 215 East Main Street on Wednesday, August 29.

The grand opening will be preceded by a street dance Tuesday evening on Hutton at East Main Street. Television stars will be on hand to add to the festivities of the grand opening.

The Food-O-Mat is a new 100% self-serve shopping sensation that is entirely new in this area and promises to bring the latest and most up-to-date features in food shopping anywhere in the country. Everything is designed with the customer in mind, as to convenience to facilitate easier and quicker shopping. The Food-O-Mat cuts shopping time and saves walking distance.

Stocks are always complete, and items are easy to see, easy to select along with the fact that there is no aisle congestion. Over 1,800 items are at the shopper's fingertips. The Food-O-Mat works on the principle of a huge battery of chutes. Each chute dispenses a particular brand of an item. You select the brand you want, and another item of the same brand rolls down to replace it. After making your purchases, modern speedy check-out stands that work automatically rush you through the normally long waiting-time at the cash registers, speed you on to the magic carpet doors that open as you approach them making it easier to leave the store if you have parcels in your arms.

Nothing has been spared to keep from this new Food-O-Mat anything but the best and most modern shopping food-centers in Michigan. An important feature that is sure to make a big hit with Kroger shoppers is that the new store is air conditioned. Shopping in cool comfort in the hottest days of the summer has long been the dream of many a housewife.

Larcenies Continue To Confront Police

Larceny cases continue to confront the Northville police force, according to Police Chief Joseph Denton. State Police have found no fingerprints to lead them to the thieves of the wheels and tires from three motor vehicles stolen this week.

Saturday night, August 18, two wheels and tires from a green and a blue truck at the Petz Brothers Studebaker Service were taken. Mrs. Herbert Koesler of West Eight Mile road reported the stealing of a wheel and tire from her 1950 Ford on Thursday, August 16.

The City Hall was the scene of the trial Saturday, August 18 of Clarence Abiltz, 2670 Gladstone, Detroit who was charged and found guilty of reckless operation of a car. The case was brought before Judge E. J. Willis at 10 a. m. The other party in the accident, which took place July 22, was Jennings Odean Dyrdaal, 26353 W. Warren, Garden City. The damage to both cars involved was total loss and Abiltz was seriously injured and taken to Sessions Hospital at the time.

Recreation Closes Summer Activities

The summer activities sponsored by the Northville Recreation Committee are now being discontinued as the Village youngsters' thoughts are again turning to school. Richard Kay, director of the summer program, has given the following report covering the summer's play.

In the softball and baseball groups, the boys under twelve won eight out of ten games they played. Their opponent teams were Salem and the play yard teams at Plymouth.

The V.F.W. sponsored the boys' baseball team for boys under fifteen and they were successful in winning the Plymouth-Northville-Farmington League. They lost in Ann Arbor to Ypsilanti, which team went into the state finals.

Bradars sponsored the softball team for boys under fifteen which won two and lost two games with Wayne County Training School.

The girls played in the Western Wayne League but didn't post a single victory. Between sixty-five and eighty boys and girls attended the swimming sessions held each Tuesday. The groups were taken to Rouge pools, Kent Lake and Whitmore Lake.

Walter Palmer and Bruce Felker were the winners in the horse shoe tournament. They were presented with tickets to a Detroit Tiger-Yankee game.

Special fun enjoyed by the youngsters were trips to Walled Lake and Edgewater Amusement Parks and Severance cottage. Transportation to various activities was furnished by Jack Stevens, Orson Atchinson Motor Sales, Rathburn Chevrolet, Geo. Miller Garage, Petz Motor Sales, Rambeau's station wagon and other private cars.

The older boys camped out over a July week-end at Dodge State Park.

One of the most successful activities of the summer was the July 4th field day and parade.

Other activities enjoyed were checkers, chess, dominoes, basketball, football, comic books, notepaper magazines, rotation ping pong, pool, soft drinks and candy.

An encouraging factor this summer was the absence of vandalism around Ford Field and the Scout Hall.

Members of the board met Monday night in Waterford to discuss further the possibility of the annexation. The Wayne county Board of Education will hold an open hearing today, Thursday, at 4 p.m. in the Waterford School building to hear the arguments of the two vying parties. No decision will be rendered until a later date.

Local Fruit Grower Expects Good Crop

Prospects are for a good fruit crop in Michigan and especially in this area. Ralph Foreman, fruit grower of West Seven Mile road says that the quality should be good this year and that peaches and early apples will be ready by the end of the month.

Though the crop is good, the output this fall will be considerably short of last years. Severe freezes last November and this February brought considerable damage to local fruit. On top of all this Mr. Foreman warns that worms and fungus have taken a large toll of fruit this year; therefore be sure to buy sprayed fruit.

A guest at the Optimist Club meeting last Wednesday evening was Bill Walker. He came with Nelson Schrader.

Village Cooperates in Safety Program

Joseph E. Denton, Chief of the Northville police department, reminds all motorists of Northville that his department is cooperating with the State Highway Department and the Michigan Safety Commission in a program designed to make our highways safer. The campaign continues through the month of August.

This week, Chief Denton says, stress is being put upon the reasons for obeying traffic signals. "This is an all-out drive to save lives, prevent injuries and stop the property damage on our streets and highways," he said. "Traffic signals are very dangerous," the Chief said, "unless all drivers obey them, because drivers approaching from opposite directions depend upon each other and when one fails to heed a stop light a crash is certain. Stop and go lights, yellow flashing lights, and red flashing lights, are there for driver and pedestrian protection, but do not provide automatic safety. If all drivers and pedestrians obeyed the traffic lights at all times there would be no accidents at intersections."

State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler says that stop and go signal lights are placed only after careful study determines that safety conditions at an intersection will be definitely improved. He warns that drivers trying to "beat lights" are the greatest contributors to intersection accidents.

Margery Johnson, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William A. Johnson of Dunlap street, will leave Monday to attend the five day session of the National Methodist Youth Convocation at Purdue University, Lafayette, Indiana. Margery is one of the nine delegates from the Ann Arbor district.

About 2,000 representatives of the state's nearly 60,000 4-H Club members will vie for top honors at the 36th annual State 4-H Club Show, according to A. G. Kettunen, state 4-H Club leader.

The state 4-H show will be held at Michigan State College August 28 to 31. "The top 4-H Club members of the state will be exhibiting their work for the year. There will be many interesting events for the public," Kettunen said, "and admission is free."

Nearly 1,500 head of top quality livestock, thousands of home economics projects, as well as handicraft, electrical, crops, flower, conservation, and vegetable exhibits will be judged during the event.

About $20,000 in awards will be distributed to winners during the state 4-H show, the only one of its kind in the country held on a college campus and not at a fairgrounds.

Horse, dairy cattle, sheep and hog judging, clothing judging and dairy showmanship will climax the annual event which ends on Friday afternoon.

Remember that odor is the best guide in buying melons. Color, plumpness, and freedom from bruises also should be considered in buying all fruits. Size may affect the price of fruit but does not always affect its eating quality.

Cracked dishes should not be used. Water and food seep into the cracks and provide a breeding place for germs of all kinds. Even though the dish is not used immediately after washing, the bacteria will remain alive to come out and infect fresh food placed on the dish later.

There are 40,000 Federal employees in Michigan. Divided by 83, it works out to nearly 500 Federal employees per county. What on earth can they find to do?

Polio the crippler is with us again—or yet. According to the health department officials this looks like an "average year," as no epidemics have been reported. They said 416 cases have been reported in the state thus far. There were 300 cases in the same period last year; 687 in 1949. The 1950 total was 2,029 cases.

Work on the new state office building is going ahead on schedule. Houses on the block-square plot west of the Capitol building are being razed and the site prepared for digging. What will be housed in the new building? The only sure bet is that the Highway and Conservation departments and Civil Service Commission will win berths in the modern structure.

Michigan's National Guard is at camp—at a cost of some $2,000,000.

Michigan's National Guard is at camp—at a cost of some $2,000,000. The expense of keeping our citizen army trained and up-to-date on modern warfare runs $18.41 per day during the two-week stay for each of the nearly 7,000 guardsmen in field training.

Young Trees Ready for Fall Planting

Nearly 20,000,000 young trees, largest stock the conservation department ever has been able to offer for private reforestation work, will be available for fall planting.

Farmers and other landowners now can send requests to the department's forestry division, Lansing.

For the first time the department can supply some trees from the old federal Wyman nursery near Manistique, supplementing output at the Higgins Lake and Hardwood nurseries.

Eight classes of pine can be had at slight price increases ranging from about $1 a thousand more for seedlings and $2 a thousand more for transplants included are the first scotch pine seedlings to be supplied in nearly 20 years to meet the demand for Christmas stock in southern Michigan. Others on the new list are two-year-old red, jack or Banks, and white pine seedlings; three-year-old jack seedlings and red and white transplants, and four-year-old red pine transplants. Only the scotch pine supply is limited.

Nursery shipments will be made about September 15-November 1 for fall planting. Stock is distributed at cost for reforestation purposes only and may not be re-sold or otherwise used commercially.

Abadan Oil Port Had Spectacular Growth Period

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The eyes of the oil-consuming world are turned toward Iran and a steaming hot port near the head of the Persian Gulf.

There, centered in the small city and big refinery of Abadan, Iran's huge petroleum industry developed under British concession stands at a crucial turning point. Behind stretch four decades of spectacular growth. Ahead lies an uncertain future, inflated by the Iranian government's recent nationalization of all its oil resources, and followed by British appeal of the case to the International Court of Justice.

Although concessions to other foreign-controlled companies have been taken up and later abandoned, the British operation is the only recent one. Its overall plant includes the world's largest refinery at Abadan, another at Kermanshah, and seven producing fields in southwest and western Iran.

In Nomad Land
 At the turn of the century Abadan Island, cut by winding channels at the mouth of the Shatt al-Arab, presented a series of desolate mud flats, fringed by date palms.
 North and east of the island, the now industrialized oil districts were little more than mountain and desert wastelands, where nomad life went on much as it had since the days of Harun-al-Rashid, Caliph of the "Arabian Nights."

The region's oil—destined to place Iran among the world's leading producers—was by no means then unknown. In prehistoric times oil springs and gas outlets had fed "eternal flames" housed by Zoroaster temples. Visitors of 200 years before had found the people not only burning petroleum for fuel, but using it in medicines, varnishes, and paints.

It remained for pioneers from the West, however, to turn on the commercial spigots. In 1901 Iran granted British subject William D'Arcy an oil concession covering all the country except its northern provinces.

Oil-Made Booms
 After many disappointments, the first valuable oil deposits were discovered in 1908 at Masjed-i-Sulaiman in the Zagros Mountains about 120 miles northeast of Abadan Island.

The Anglo-Persian Oil Company (later called Anglo-Iranian) was soon formed. Added to private investments were the contributions of the British government, which was eventually to hold the controlling majority of the stock.

Other wells gushed liquid gold in the Zagros foothills. More oil turned up at Naft-i-Shah, midway along the Iran-Iraq border in the west. From Naft-i-Shah the petroleum was pumped over the mountains to the Kermanshah refinery and distributed in the form of kerosene and gasoline over much of northern Iran.

At Abadan a half dozen pipelines poured rivers of oil into a complex, modern refinery whose annual capacity is now estimated at 20 million tons.

In the oilfields and refineries some sixty to seventy thousand workers have been employed by the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company. The town and neighboring villages that have grown up around the Abadan refinery count 140,000 or more inhabitants.

New roads, airfields, and housing developments have been built, and various training, education, health and recreation programs have been put into effect by the Company as part of its huge Iranian investment and working operation.

Chickens don't stand high temperatures very well. Make sure your chicken house is well ventilated, MSC poultrymen warn.

Copper and copper-base alloys play an important part in the oil industry. In refineries, tankers, tank cars and filling stations go millions of pounds of the red metal annually.

Defense is your job, too!

Swabbing down their cruiser's forecandle deck or passing ammunition to her eight-inch guns, it's all in the day's duty for these young American seamen. Day or night, fair weather or foul, they're on the job; keeping our Navy the First Line of Defense—for America and for you!

But in these critical times, defense is your job, too. And one of the most important parts of that job is maintaining the economic strength of America, as the sailors are working to maintain her naval strength. How can you do that? By buying U.S. Defense Bonds—buying them now and buying them regularly. So go to your pay office and join the Payroll Savings Plan or sign up at your bank's Bond-A-Month Plan. But do it today!

The U. S. Defense Bonds you buy give you personal financial independence
 Remember that when you're buying Defense Bonds you're building a personal reserve of cash savings. Money that will some day buy you a house or educate your children, or support you when you retire. Remember, too, that if you don't save regularly, you generally don't save at all. So go to your company's pay office—now—and sign up to buy Defense Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan.
 Don't forget that bonds are now a better buy than ever. Because now every Series E Bond you own automatically goes on earning interest every year for 20 years from date of purchase instead of 10 as before! This means that the bond you bought for $18.75 can return you not just $25—but as much as $33.33! For a $37.50 bond pays $66.66. And so on. For your security and your country's, too, buy U. S. Defense Bonds now!

Balconi-VanHellemont Rites Read in Saturday Ceremony

Our Lady of Victory Church of Northville was the scene of the wedding Saturday which united Yvonne Van Hellemont of Detroit and Paul Balconi of Houghton in marriage. Yvonne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Prosper Van Hellemont of Detroit, formerly of Northville. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Balconi of Houghton.

The single ring service was read at 12:30 by Rev. L. E. Woods. Blue and white bouquets of mixed summer flowers formed the background for the ceremony. Lois Nixon of Detroit sang "Ave Maria."

Yvonne was presented in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a ballerina length gown of embroidered organdy, fashioned with cap sleeves, a scalloped neckline and very full skirt. Her fingertip veil was caught to her head by a sweetheart headpiece. White gladioli and blue forget-me-nots centered with a white orchid, formed her headpiece.

Serving as maid of honor was the bride's niece, Patricia Elm of Farmington and the bridesmaids were June Nelson of Northville and Mrs. Robert Hess (Mary Graham) of Farmington. The attendants wore identical ballerina length gowns of blue embroidered organdy, styled with round collars, cap sleeves and bouffant skirts. Picture hats of organdy adorned their heads. Patricia's bouquet consisted of blue and yellow daisies and the bridesmaids carried nosegay bouquets of yellow daisies.

Rucki Elm, niece of the bride, was the flower girl and she wore a yellow organdy dress. She carried a basket of rose petals.

William Ralph of Hancock, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, attended as best man and guests were seated by William Niemi and William Balconi of Detroit.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Van Hellemont chose a navy blue lace and crepe dress with blue accessories. Her corsage consisted of Rubrum lilies. Mrs. Balconi wore a navy blue sheen dress with matching accessories and her corsage was also of Rubrum lilies.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at Veterans' Memorial Hall, Northville. Betty Heintz of Northville and Mrs. William Moore (Ella Orr) of Grand Rapids poured.

The newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to northern Michigan. For traveling the bride chose a purple suit with white and black accessories.

Yvonne graduated from Northville High School with the class of '46 and previous to her marriage was employed at the General Motors office building in Detroit. Her husband is a graduate of the School of Mining and Technology at Houghton and is a service engineer for the Excelsior Company.

Salem Homecoming Is Well Attended

Last Sunday, August 19, 200 friends and former residents of the West Salem Country Church on Angling road, gathered on the church lawn to renew their acquaintances with friends who came from Flint, Fowlerville, Kalamazoo, Ann Arbor, Holly and Detroit.

At 12:30 p.m. the guests enjoyed a delicious fried chicken dinner which was followed by a worship service conducted by Rev. Patrick Clifford, in the quaint old church. Speakers included Judge Pray of Ann Arbor who emphasized that only the work of the Christian church can keep alive freedom and democracy in the United States.

Another speaker was Rev. Fred Burnette who emphasized the lasting friendships that are made among those with local church affiliations. Violin solos were rendered by William Groth, who was accompanied by Mrs. Myron Atchison. Mr. Jones, Rev. Clifford's assistant, and Mr. Richards, choir leader, sang several solos. Mrs. Clifford played several selections on the cow-bells. Poems were read by Mrs. McFadden.

An interesting letter was read from one of Salem's old timers, 92-year-old Mrs. Elizabeth Tait, who formerly taught school in the building across from the church. She mentioned some of the families who played a vital part in the community life such as Mr. and Mrs. George Wheeler, the Simmons, Sobers and Stanbros.

Following the service watermelons were donated by Mr. Bond, a Salem store proprietor. The young and old alike were entertained by William Schneider's horse, Ranger, who answered many Bible questions.

Rev. and Mrs. Clifford wish to thank all those who made the day so successful.

Orange and Semi-Sweet Chocolate Make Novel Flavor Combination

Newest of dessert treats combine the flavors of fresh orange and semi-sweet chocolate. A delightful way to enjoy this flavor harmony is in a home-made orange cake that can be iced with a delicious chocolate frosting made with semi-sweet chocolate morsels, or the cake can be topped with ice cream and sauced with chocolate. Also included is a simple Chocolate Duet recipe that makes either frosting or sauce, depending on the amount of milk added.

Orange Cake

- 3 cups sifted cake flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup shortening
- 1 cup sugar
- 3 eggs
- 1/4 cup orange marmalade
- 2 tablespoons grated orange rind
- 1 cup orange juice

Sift flour with baking powder and salt. Cream shortening, add sugar gradually, blending together until light and fluffy. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each addition. Stir in marmalade and orange rind. Add flour alternately with orange juice, mixing well, ending with flour. Turn batter into well greased pan (10"x15"x3"). Bake in a moderate oven (350°F), 30 minutes. Cut cake into squares, top with slice of ice cream, and serve with chocolate sauce, or frost cake with chocolate frosting. If desired, top with whole or chopped nuts. YIELD: 24 squares.

Chocolate Duet (Frosting or Sauce)

- 1 package semi-sweet chocolate
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
- 3 to 4 tablespoons hot milk, for frosting
- 1/2 cup hot milk, for sauce
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

In top of double boiler put semi-sweet chocolate and butter. Heat until melted and mix until smooth. Remove from heat. For frosting add milk and sugar alternately, adding enough milk to make a spreadable consistency. Stir in vanilla. For sauce, increase milk to 1/2 cup. YIELD: Frosting for top of 10x15 inch cake, or 1 1/2 cups chocolate sauce.

Geologists Spur World Progress Through Surveys

WASHINGTON, D.C.—The geologist has come into his own. The scientist who studies the nature and distribution of rocks, soil, water, and other components of the earth's crust has all the work he can handle, observes the National Geographic Society. The whole world is his nation. His employers are the world's national and provincial governments, its research and educational institutions, and a growing list of industries. His skill, leading to discovery of metal ore deposits, reservoirs of oil and other treasures, constantly spurs economic progress.

Delaware, first of the 48 states to enter the Union, pointed up the fact of the geologists' current heyday early this summer by becoming the first but the 48th state to establish its own permanent geology staff. Federal Survey Blazes Trail Delaware, next to smallest and the lowest in mean altitude among the states, has had less need than other states for the geologist's help. Its new Delaware State Geological Survey will mesh field operations with the U.S. Geological Survey, explore mineral resources, surface and underground water flow, record rock strata suitable for road and building stone.

Most state geological surveys have earned permanent status only since 1900. New Jersey, Michigan, and Alabama are among the few whose earth-crust researches have been continuous since soon after the close of the Civil War. Mississippian River, however, took fliers in geology more than a century ago. The Carolinas separately authorized field excursions in 1823-24. State geological surveys labeled as such were launched by Massachusetts in 1830, by Tennessee in 1831, and by Maryland in 1838. Delaware had one, also, in 1837-38. Take Guess Out of Oil Hunt Geologists of the U.S. Geological Survey, established in 1879, have made more than 4,000 large-scale contour maps of quadrangles within the 48 states, all accurately compiled in the field. Useful in many ways, these maps have proved indispensable to private developers of resources in interpreting earth-crust structure.

Groups of specialists work effectively within the Federal Survey. The fuels group, studying the relative geology of coal, oil, and gas, has since 1920 taken much of the chance out of the search for oil by developing knowledge of the signs favorable to well-drilling. The metals group, studying the occurrence of ore deposits, has guided mining engineers to actual deposits of many metals, and leads the search for metals in which the nation is short.

Hot Weather is not Cause of Insomnia, Experts Say With hot weather ahead of us many people are already beginning to blame their sleepless nights on the humidity and the heat. Although this can contribute to sleeplessness, it is not the cause. That aged-old villain, insomnia, thrives on people who have too many worries and fears. It is the daytime problems that creep into the bedroom that drive away sleep. The best way, naturally, to woo sleep is to have a comfortable bed. A completely level mattress and spring with the degree of resiliency suited to the individual is a natural sleep-inducer. One can assume any number of different positions on well-constructed bedding so that each part of his body has a chance to rest.

A popular and effective way of luring sleep is the trick of making oneself relax by de-kinking nerves and muscles or by diverting the thoughts that will not give in to sleep. Reading an absorbing or humorous book will also change one's train of thought and allow sleep to come more easily. A hobby, visiting with friends, or taking a short walk also relaxes these nerves and muscles and brings sleep within easy reach. A recent survey in the United States showed that "very happy" people are bothered less with insomnia than are people who are bogged down with worries and fears.

Fall Enrollment at U-M Uncertain

World affairs continue to give an air of uncertainty to the enrollment estimates at the University of Michigan for this fall. University officials frankly admit that the best word on the enrollment total will come when classes start in the Fall Semester on Monday, September 24.

The budget for the coming year is based on an estimated enrollment of 16,000 students. The months that have followed since the budget was prepared have brought some optimism into the Korean portion of the world's problems and officials now believe the enrollment may fall somewhere between 16,000 and 17,000 students.

The military demand for manpower—and the declining birth-rate of the early thirties—will affect this fall's enrollment as compared with a year ago. There were 19,487 students last fall taking resident credit courses. The Medical School is one unit expecting an increase this fall since its freshman class will be increased by 50 students to make a class of 200. University officials believe this will be the largest entering freshman class in any medical school in the country.

The University, which last year awarded 6,393 degrees, will open the Fall Semester with a new president, Harlan H. Hatcher, vice-president of the Ohio State University, noted educator and author. He will be the eighth person to hold the office. Alexander G. Ruthven, who has been president since 1929, will retire August 31. The University also will have four new deans. George Granger Brown of the College of Engineering, Stanley G. Fontana of the School of Natural Resources and Thomas D. Rowe of the College of Pharmacy all took office July 1. Fidele F. Fauri has held his post as dean of the newly-created School of Social Work since March 1. The school, formerly the Institute of Social Work, will move its headquarters from Detroit to the campus in Ann Arbor during September. The College of Pharmacy is heading into an eventful year and plans are under way for an observance of its 25th anniversary late in October. The college also has arranged with the School of Business Administration for a course in retail store management especially for pharmacy students.

Social Security Covers Domestic

Housewives should ask their maids or other regularly household help for their social security account numbers as soon as they are hired. This word of advice comes from C. A. Mattson, manager of the Detroit Northwest social security office, located at 12065 Wyoming, corner of Grand River.

"Wages reported without social security numbers—or with incorrect numbers—usually result in loss of wage credits for the employee. Moreover, failure to include the maid's social security number on the wage report may call for follow-up contacts which may be bothersome to her employer," Mr. Mattson pointed out. To avoid this, he suggests that the housewife make a permanent record of her maid's social security account number, copying both the name and number directly from her worker's social security card.

Mr. Mattson said that his office will gladly help cooks, laundresses, yardmen, and other workers in private households, who have never had a social security card, or have lost their original card if they will come to his office at 12065 Wyoming avenue, they can fill out the application blank right there if they live at a distance from his office, they can phone for one or obtain one from the post office and mail it in.

"Ask your employee to show you her card as soon as she receives it," Mattson urges. "Impress on her the importance to her, as well as to you, of showing you her card before you report her wages."

Housewives who have not yet read the little booklet, "Do You Have A Maid?" should get a copy from the Detroit Northwest office or phone TE 4-4750, and one will be mailed to them.

ON CAPITOL HILL
NEWS
and
CONGRESSMAN
GEORGE A. DONDERO

This week the House and Senate Conference Committee has been trying to compose the differences between the House and Senate versions of the Defense Housing and Community Facilities and Services Act of 1951. It was hoped that a Conference Report on the bills might be approved by the House before it enters on a series of three day recesses, lasting over Labor Day.

In its essence, the legislation is designed to provide first of all that private enterprise shall have full opportunity to build housing needed on short notice in critical defense areas, as determined by the President, where new or enlarged war plants or government installations of a military nature are established. To provide this opportunity, residential credit restrictions under the Defense Production Act are relaxed, and federal mortgage insurance aids to take advantage of the opportunity, then Federal agencies are authorized to construct permanent housing and to create and maintain community facilities and services in connection therewith. This housing would be sold after the war emergency.

It seemed to me that the bill, as passed by the House, provides some safeguards against the ambitions of socialist bureaucrats in the administration to use the war emergency as a means of further socializing the home-building industry. If the Senate conferees agree to the House version of the bill, and the Senate concurs, the legislation may serve to further defense mobilization without undue disruption of the nation's economy.

I was especially glad that the House acted to limit Federal activities in creating and maintaining community facilities and services to such as, customarily are created and maintained by all communities through local government action.

As passed by the Senate, the facilities and services provisions were open-end provisions in effect. By the Senate provisions, the Federal Government would have the power to take over and operate even such things as banks, filling stations, stores and other privately owned ventures even though the Government had not paid for their establishment.

Let me point out, however, that the House Bill does provide for Government operation of hospitals, libraries, recreational facilities, and day-care centers, in addition to waterworks, sewers, sewage disposal plants, police and fire protection, hospitals, libraries and recreation, I believe, should remain firmly in the hands of local governments, even in a war emergency such as we have now.

State Fair Offers Free Entertainment

The Michigan State Fair, according to General Manager James D. Friel, is featuring more free entertainment and educational features this year than at any time since the fair was started 102 years ago. It will be held August 31 through September 8 in Detroit.

Once the family has paid the admission fare this year they can visit scores of special events free of charge. Along with the carnival spirit goes the husband and hog calling contest, tug of war, greased pig contest, ax and sawing contest, clowns and parades of gay floats each day. A watermelon eating contest is new this year. The Old Timers Grove will be the scene of the Sheep Shearing contest, where skill and expert timing will vie for honors and prizes.

Beauty Queens from all parts of the state will be assembled in the Music Shell to pass in review for the judges and the loveliest girl from some place in Michigan will be crowned queen. There will be free outdoor professional shows daily.

Teen-agers can be entertained by the fireworks that will be a nightly feature, high school bands, baton twirling contests, television shows and movies.

Michigan artists will have their oil and water color paintings on display at the clubhouse. The automotive industry will have an exhibition showing all the glory and luxury of new models, the comforts that the public can expect in modern design.

A cooking school featuring leading dieticians and demonstrators will hold forth in White Hall on the Fairgrounds each afternoon and evening, with prizes for those that attend the school.

The 1951 Michigan State Fair is offering the public more for admission price this year since it opened in 1849, 102 years ago.

GAS is FINE in the Furnace—not in Your Stomach

If your stomach burns "like fire" it means your food turns to gas instead of digesting. So you are in misery with bloat and can hardly breathe.

Northville people say they are free of stomach gas since they got CERTA-VIN. This new medicine digests food faster and better. Taken before meals it works with your food. Gas pains go!
