

Should Northville Incorporate As A City?

This is one of a series of articles prepared and published in the public interest. An attempt has been made to keep the subject matter wholly factual and it is offered solely for the purpose of permitting the residents of Northville and the surrounding community to determine for themselves the desirability of incorporating all or a portion of the community as a city. Upon completion of the articles, an attempt will be made to answer any specific questions which may be submitted to the editor upon this general subject.

During the past six months there has been considerable discussion locally as to whether or not it would be desirable for the Village of Northville to incorporate as a city. Some public discussions before interested city groups and other associations have been conducted by officials of the Michigan Municipal League, an organization of cities and villages in Michigan.

The Village Commission has given considerable study and thought to the problem and in a recent special meeting of the Commission all members unanimously agreed, in the interest of public information, to make available to the people of Northville factual information concerning city government as compared with village government, so that people of Northville could intelligently draw their own conclusions.

It seems only proper in considering the problem to briefly explain why the subject is presently being so widely discussed.

The Michigan Municipal League reports that up until 1931 there was comparatively little interest on the part of the residents of Michigan villages in becoming incorporated as cities. In 1931 the League began publicizing certain information which it maintained clearly established advantages of city incorporation. Since that year a great many Michigan villages have changed over to a city form of government. Between 1931 and 1949 forty-eight different Michigan villages incorporated as cities.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A VILLAGE AND A CITY

The first question in the minds of people, naturally, is what is the difference between a village and a city? This can best be answered by considering the kinds of local government activities which are supplied the people as distinguished from state government activities. For the purpose of supplying local government activities, the state has been divided into two primary governmental units, namely cities and townships. There is no overlapping of duties and services between these two units.

Local governmental activities divide themselves generally into two broad classes based upon the type of activity performed. These two broad classes may be defined as (1) legally required duties, and (2) local services.

The legally required duties which must be furnished residents by the primary unit of government are as follows:

1. Assessing property as a basis for county and school taxes,
2. Collecting taxes for county and school,
3. Conducting county, state and national elections,
4. Furnishing a district for sending supervisors to the County Board of Supervisors,
5. Providing a primary or justice court system.

The local services, which are not generally required by law but usually are supplied as a result of public demand, are as follows:

1. Police protection,
2. Fire protection,
3. Water supply,
4. Zoning,
5. Public health,
6. Many other services of a local nature, which residents demand and are willing to pay for.

The village, not being a primary governmental unit, does not supply the above listed legally required duties, but only furnishes the so-called local services. In townships where there are no cities and no villages, the township supplies both legally required services and any local services furnished. In townships in which cities are located, the city supplies both legally required duties and local services and the township supplies neither within the corporate limits of the city. In townships where a village is located, the village supplies the local services within its corporate limits and the township supplies the legally required duties within the limits of the village.

Thus, it is clear that in villages, and only in villages, the governmental activities are divided between two governments, namely the village government and the township government. This dual system does not exist in cities and this may be stated to be the fundamental difference between a city and a village. Village residents, therefore, through their taxes, support two governmental units. First, the village has the burden of supplying local services, and second, the township supplies the legally required duties of local government.

The problem then can be stated in its simplest form "Should the village, by incorporation as a city, withdraw from the township and continue to supply, through the new city government, all present local services, be supplied, and assume, in addition thereto, the legally required duties now being supplied by the township?"

The primary questions arising in the consideration of such a move are basically two in number. First, what would be the effect of such a change and, second, how much additional cost would be involved to the taxpayers?

Subsequent articles will consider the effect and cost, and a sincere attempt will be made to apply factual situations peculiar to Northville so as to aid local residents in an intelligent contemplation of the problem.

Public Housing Talk Value of TB Seal Heard at Exchange Dollar Explained

Louis J. Appolisto, former president of the Northwestern Realty association, was the speaker at the Exchange club luncheon last Wednesday.

Mr. Appolisto stated that the greatest menace to taxpayers today is the gross waste of funds used in the government subsidizing program to groups of people who aid in perpetuating those in power who control the favors.

Investigation of many in low cost public housing disclosed numerous individuals of the charity income levels who used the public housing for their own personal gain. He said that 93 percent of those in government owned houses voted as a block in the last election for those who dispensed the gratuities. Included with those enjoying support at public expense were police officers, firemen and other public employees.

Mr. Appolisto explained that public housing projects are expensive; first because of the high cost of construction, second because the administration is careless and wasteful, and third, because the people who reside there for the most part have no interest in maintaining the place.

The Wesley Service Guild of the Methodist church will meet with Mrs. Lucille McLaughlin at her home on Grandview Tuesday, December 4 at 8:00 p.m.

"The 1951 Christmas Seal Sale of the double-barred cross is underway and this year's Seals feature one of the world's most familiar symbols, Santa Claus," Mrs. W. L. Howard, Northville Seal Sale chairman, pointed out. Beginning December 7 the villagers will be solicited for their Christmas Seal contributions. Places of sale will be set up at the Depositors State bank and at the local Post Office during their regular hours of business, said Mrs. Howard. The local drive will continue until December 15. Mrs. Howard then went on to explain the full value of your Christmas Seal dollar: 29 cents helps with rehabilitation; 13 cents helps operate mobile X-ray units in Detroit and Wayne county; promotes X-ray surveys in factories, schools and neighborhoods; 31 cents is used to inform folks about TB; 16 cents is used in TB control; and 11 cents used in the administration of the program.

Tuberculosis, still a major health problem in the United States, can be cured and can be prevented, Mrs. Howard urged everyone to send in their Christmas Seal contributions today.

Mrs. George Mellen and daughter, Cynthia, heard Lily Pons in her concert last week at the Masonic auditorium in Detroit.

Optimists To View Films on Africa

For Wednesday, December 5 the Optimist club is fortunate to obtain for its speaker, Dr. M. S. deVilliers of Detroit, who has been very much in demand as an after-dinner or luncheon speaker. Last June he returned from a trip to his homeland, the Union of South Africa.

Dr. M. S. deVilliers, known to all dentist and his friends, as the "Duke," was born in South Africa, close to the very end of the 19th century. He survived the Boer War, received his primary and high school education in South Africa and came to the University of Michigan after World War I, graduating in dentistry in 1923. He has practiced in Detroit ever since, the last four years in his home on Tireman avenue.

In March, 1951, he took an airplane trip to his homeland to see his brothers and have a dip in the old swimming hole. From there he went through the gold and diamond mines, spent some time in Pretoria where he paid his tribute to the grave of Field Marshal Jan Christian Smuts. Then he proceeded to the great Kruger National game reserve, (9,000 square miles) where he photographed the animals. His 16 mm. colored movies are most beautiful and with a running narrative he keeps his audience in a gay mood.

Services Held for E. J. Cobb

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon for Erlin J. Cobb, 85, a Village resident for 65 years. Mr. Cobb died Friday, November 23, at Sessions hospital.

Born to the Daniel I. Cobbs on April 9, 1866 in Cherry Hill, Canton township, he had lived at his home, 605 Grace street, for 59 years. On January 29, 1891, he married Elizabeth Clark of Northville and last year on that day, the couple celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary at an open house. Mr. Cobb, who was a cabinet maker with the Globe Furniture company until it closed in 1929, was a member of the Woodman's fraternity, an insurance group, and the Knights of Pythias. He was also a member of the First Methodist church.

Surviving besides his wife, are one daughter, Mrs. Gladys C. Ballard, of Grosse Pointe; two grandchildren, Mrs. Margaret Becker, of Decatur, Georgia and Mrs. Shirley Wigle of Royal Oak; and six great-grandchildren, Bob, Dick, Suzanne, David, Jim and Linda.

The service Monday was conducted by Rev. William Johnson from the Catherine Funeral Home and burial was at Rural Hill cemetery.

Street Decorations To Get Underway

The Village of Northville will soon take on a festive air for the holiday season. Members of the Northville Retail Merchants Association have been soliciting business places for funds to be used in decorating the town.

John Wortman, chairman, aided by Alfred Sibley, Ed Barnes, Leland Smith and Harvey Ritchie, are busy planning the trimmings. The decorations will be much the same as in previous years, festooning complete with colorful lights will be strung across the main thoroughfares. Wortman stated that he hopes that the holiday decorations will be up within the next week.

Carl Johnson reports that arrangements have been completed whereby Santa Claus will be in the Village for two weeks preceding Christmas. He will be at the Depositors State Bank during banking hours (Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, Friday from 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.; Wednesday, 9:30 to 12:00 noon, Friday evening, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., and Saturday 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon). Mothers are invited to bring their children in during these hours to visit with Santa Claus.

Senior Play Cast Rehearsals Begun

The modern, swift-moving American family contrasted to the old Connecticut Yankees will be symbolized by the cast of the Northville High school's Senior class play, "January Thaw." The production, directed by Miss Florence Panattoni, dramatics coach, will be given December 13 and 14 at the Northville High school auditorium.

As a result of an unusual set of circumstances, most of the characters in the play comprise two families all living under the same roof. From the two family groups, one of modern principles and the other of the old school, many difficulties arise and are solved in the Senior class production.

The double cast for the week-end performances are "Marge" played by Cece Bloom and Janice Smith; "Herbert" portrayed by Charles Ely and Dick Sands; "Mrs. Rockwood" by Mary Jean Woodruff and Gay Dueison; "Mr. Rockwood" by Ted Masters; "Matt Rockwood" by Stan Dahlager; "Uncle Walter" by Fred Weyer; "George Huster" by Howie McCoy; "Barbara" by Judy Seehlin and Joan Toussant; "Paula" by Maxine Clark and Nazera Shammee; "Sarah" by Betty Haworth and Marilyn Funk; "Frieda" by Martha Humphries and Gail Matzen and "Mr. Loomis" by Conrad Burkman.

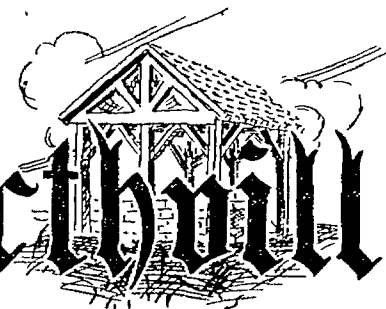

The school production is open to the public.

Clearing House Set for Village Events

The home of Mrs. E. J. Willis, 119 Rayson street, has been designated by the Coordinating Council as the clearing house for community events. Before definitely planning civic church or social functions for the general public, Village organizations are urged to check their proposed dates with Mrs. Willis.

In the past, because too many functions were planned for one night, many groups have been disappointed in the turn-outs at their functions, said Mrs. Willis. By setting up this clearing house, the council hopes to avoid this.

With this issue of the Northville Record, the first weekly community calendar is being published. For securing entrance of information about other events for future calendars, organizations are asked to call Mrs. Willis at 99-R.

300 Santa Assistants Needed for Hospitalized Children

Approximately 300 citizens are needed to play Santa Claus to hospitalized children at Maybury sanatorium and the Children's hospital, Farmington.

Mrs. V. George Chabut of Sheldon road has the letters from these youngsters who wrote Santa telling him their wants. Mrs. Chabut said that for the majority, their wants are small. One little boy wants a Bible with a New Testament in it, another a Rosary, while another child wants coloring books and crayons. One little fellow, she explained, wrote his letter to Santa the day after he received word that his father had died.

Many of the letters asked that the television set in their ward be repaired. Helen Jean Isabelle, a ten year old girl wrote that this was her fourth Christmas at the Sanatorium, and her brother and sister were also there. A little South African girl wrote that her brothers and sisters are all very sick in the hospital and that her mother is dying at Heifer hospital. Juanita, aged seven, has been hospitalized since March, 1947, and has been in a frame for many months. Some day she hopes Santa will bring her braces so she may walk again.

Mrs. Chabut will be assisted in distributing the letters by members of the Rotary club who have adopted the project. Anyone who would like to see that an underprivileged child is remembered at Christmas time is invited to contact Mrs. Chabut, phone 131.

1952 License Sale Begins Saturday

Saturday, December 1, the new 1952 vehicle license plates will go on sale at the Carrington Agency on North Center street, the local branch of the Michigan Secretary of State office.

Licenses issued in Northville this year will be of the CB series, states Thomas Carrington. The black numerals are placed on a silver background in the new issue of the plates for Michigan drivers. Carrington states that of the nearly 2,500,000 passenger and commercial licenses sold in Michigan last year 4,000 were purchased at the Village agency.

Local CAP Flyers Join Celebration

First Lieut. Peter L. Perkins, commanding officer of the Plymouth Flight 534-5 Civil Air Patrol, who lives at 228 West street, announced that his unit of the CAP is actively participating in honoring the 10th anniversary of the Civil Air Patrol during this week of November 25 to December 1. Governor G. Mennen Williams recently proclaimed this week as Civil Air Patrol Week.

Warrant Officer Heinz Hilger of Rogers street, Elden Biery of Dunlap street and Arthur Cawley and Staff Sgt. Irving Gaffield of Grace street, are members of the Plymouth CAP. W/O Hilger and 1st Lieut. Perkins own their own planes which fly with the Patrol.

The Civil Air Patrol, an auxiliary of the U. S. Air Force, was organized on December 1, 1941 by an-minded citizens who enrolled to aid the National Defense. During the years of the last war, civilian volunteers in the CAP donated their time and service as anti-submarine patrols, border patrols, target towing, courier service and air rescue missions.

Since the end of major hostilities, the CAP has continued its efforts to train the nation's youth through the Cadet organization, to train its senior members for emergencies and civil defense volunteer services in air search and rescue missions and established a wide-spread radio communications network.

On October 28 of this year, the Northville members of the CAP joined in the search maneuver originating in Detroit as part of their CAP flight training.

The theme for Civil Air Patrol Week will be "Commemorating a Decade of Volunteer Service." Plans for the week will be climaxed by a dance at the Reo Club house, Lansing, on Saturday evening for all senior members of the Michigan Wing CAP.

Mr and Mrs Frank Bosak of East Nine Mile road wish to announce the arrival of Virginia Jean Bosak, born November 7 at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital. She weighed seven pounds, 11 ounces.

Blood Bank Heads Ask Villagers' Aid

James Blair, Detroit Red Cross out-county representative, will be on hand for the organizational meeting of the Northville blood bank called for Monday, December 3, by Co-chairmen Philip Ogilvie and Dr. Hugh Godfrey. The meeting will be held at 8.00 p.m. at the Veterans' Memorial hall.

Representatives of every Village organization are asked to be present to help formulate plans for the drive which is sponsored by the Lloyd H. Green Post No. 147, American Legion. Blair will answer any questions that might arise concerning the organization of the bank, said Ogilvie.

The Northville blood bank will be in operation on January 18 in a place to be designated after the December 3 meeting. At this time the place for registration will also be set, Ogilvie stated.

Contributions of blood will be as usual on the volunteer basis, with 43 percent of the blood given to be used for the armed forces and 57 percent remaining at the Detroit regional blood center for use by civilians. The Red Cross blood bank unit will come from the Detroit regional center for the January 18 drive in Northville.

Village To Receive Defense Money

Of the Federal grant of $334,370 to help finance Michigan's civil defense purchasing program, Northville will receive $699.58. This is the expenditure including the state and local matching sums.

The Federal money going to the Village will be matched 25 percent by our local unit and 25 percent by the State. The State will match funds received from the Federal Government for the State agencies. The total of this matched allocation will be $668,741. Most of the money will go for the purchase of first-aid kits and medical supplies.

Governor Mennen Williams said he regretted that an additional $985,629 in Federal money available to Michigan cannot be matched at this time since Congress failed to pass the civil-defense appropriation bill until after all the State legislatures had adjourned.

The State Health Department will receive $31,487.40 and the State of Michigan $474,185.25 for supplies for civil defense.

Northville will be the best represented community in the state at the Michigan International Horse show which opens at the State Fair Coliseum Wednesday, December 5 and run through Saturday, December 8, states J. P. Malley, general manager of the show.

Heading the list of the officials is Gerald Taft who is finance chairman of the show as well as treasurer of the sponsoring group, the Michigan Horse Show association. The association is a non-profit organization of more than 300 leading horsemen and horsewomen. The show will not only be the first Michigan International but will mark the return after 20 years of major horse show competition to the State Fair Coliseum.

The Morgan Horse classes at the show will see the local horses from Taft's Spring Brook Farm and Jack Appling, competing for honors.

Band To Play Friday
Friday evening, December 7, the Northville High school band, under the direction of Leslie G. Lee, will have the honor of playing the salute to the colors of the United States and Canada before the official box of Governor G. Mennen Williams, Mayor Cobo and Canadian dignitaries.

300 Horses Entered
The highlight of the 10 divisions of competition will be the International Jumping classes. These Olympic type classes have attracted the top jumpers of the nation as well as 33 of Canada's best big game jumpers, said Malley.

Three hundred show horses from all over the country have been entered in the 63 classes. Besides the Hunters and Jumpers and Morgans, there will be classes for three and five gaited saddle horses, fine harness horses, western horses and walking horses. Junior classes are for equitation, jumping and ponies.

Highlighting the junior events will be the Junior Olympic Jumping class. This is a 16 jump course run off the same as the senior Olympic jumping competition except that the jumps are modified in height. The schedule of events for the first day of the show is given elsewhere in this issue of the paper.

The show will open at 7:00 p.m. Wednesday through Saturday evenings, with Saturday matinee classes starting at noon. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Porath, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haass and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Taft will be among the boxholders for the show.

Do Your Christmas Shopping Early in Northville!

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Now last week we told a story about birds and bees and no sooner is it in print, than someone comes along and tries to top it. A very sensible lady that we know (she drives a Studebaker) drove into the garage the other day. She told of a wedding, recently performed. As the bridegroom expected to spend most of the time, that should have been used for a honeymoon, in the Uniform of Uncle Sam's army, the kiss that followed the ceremony was long and breath-taking. The silence of the church, during this solemn moment was rudely shattered when a small but distinct voice piped up, "Mommy, is he spreading the pollen over her now?"

Oh well, that's as things should be and we suppose that we will have to wait a bit before we can sell that couple a new Studebaker, as his address isn't going to be exactly permanent for a while. Too bad too, because he will have to miss the thrill of driving this beautiful new Studebaker with its amazingly powerful engine, its ease of handling and its downright comfortable riding qualities. The downright economy of the car would make his soldier's pay, stretch farther too. May we give you a demonstration?

We're informed also that a local store owner turned good samaritan this past week-end. With a window full of toys, a soiled little urchin spent much time with his soiled little hands and dusty nose pressed firmly against the plate glass, admiring a beautiful red truck that carried a price tag of 79c. So one day, our informant tells us, the merchant picked up the little red 79c truck and gave it to the lad, with the provision he go home and not look in the window any more. "So," says our story teller, "you're a pretty good Joe after all."

How has your car been performing these winter days? We hope that you have it completely winterized throughout, including winter grease in the transmission. If you've missed that winter lubricant, better bring it in today. These expert mechanics of ours will be glad to give it a winter tune-up too, just to make sure that it starts, no matter how cold it may get some brisk morning. Takes a bit of time, calling a tow truck when you're in a hurry.

That's that, but we don't have any closing line this week, except a Scotch proverb that goes, "never marry for money, you can borrow it cheaper at the bank."

Yours,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

MARVIN GUNTZVILLER

Guntzviller Brothers' Hobby Becomes Full-Time Occupation

For the three Guntzviller brothers, Marvin, Harvey and Herbert, the taxidermy business started out as a hobby but soon changed to a thriving, full-time inter-state enterprise.

In 1927, Marvin relates that after a hunting trip he brought home some of his kill and began mounting it for his own pleasure. Soon his friends were asking him to cure their deerskins or mount their animals, and the word spread, until today when thousands of hunters bring their kill to the Guntzviller Taxidermy on Ten Mile road to be cured, tanned or mounted.

His brother, Harvey, joined the business at a later date, and Herbert Guntzviller does the buying of raw furs and also fawns.

The Guntzvillers' business is two fold: curing hides (such as deer and bear), and mounting animals, fowl and fish. Marvin explained to us that when the hides are brought in they are salted down for months so that all the hair and blood is removed. Then they are placed in a pickling vat for further aging.

Northville Hospital To Aid Conditions

When disclosing the overcrowded conditions in the psychopathic wards of Receiving hospital, Detroit, acting mayor Louis Mirani said that "The one ray of hope is that the first section of the new Northville State hospital will be opened by next March 1, providing 600 beds for mental patients."

Dr. Ralph R. Piper, Receiving superintendent, said the hospital's four mental wards were so crowded that some patients were sleeping on mattresses on the floor of the recreation room and on cots in corridors. This condition exists despite the fact that during last June and July, the state moved more than 300 mental patients from Receiving into its own institution.

Record Given AAA Rating in State

In the state-by-state evaluation study of weekly newspapers conducted by Community Research Bureau, an independent organization specializing in the study of newspapers and newspaper markets, the Northville Record received word last week that it was given an AAA rating.

Said Director Frank B. Hutchinson "As you can read by proof with the enclosed report, your paper is one of the top advertising buys in the State." Ratings of AAA, AA, A, B and C were given with the Record rating as the highest.

The four main factors used in rating the newspapers were (1) circulation of the newspaper which is checked by means of sworn statements published and filed with the Post Office Department; (2) the advertising rate; (3) the market factor; and (4) a complete analysis of typical issues of the newspapers, including weighted credit for local news, pictures and advertising, both display and classified, which are evidences of coverage, reader interest, and local market activity.

In the report sent to The Record, CRB ratings of all the weekly newspapers in Michigan were given. In Wayne county Northville, with a population of 3,221 is the town with the second smallest population to have a newspaper with an AAA rating. The Enterprise-Roman in Belleville which has a population of 1,718 was given an AAA rating. The Plymouth Livonian and the Plymouth Mail which serve a town of 6,649, are also classed as AAA newspapers.

This study covering the weekly newspapers in the State of Michigan was issued by the Community Research Bureau with cooperation of the American Weekly Newspaper Publishers Council.

Walled Lake Plans
Dec. 8 Blood Bank

The Walled Lake High school has been designated by the American Red Cross, Oakland county chapter, as the spot for their Blood Bank on December 8. Mrs. John Monroe at Federal 2-1677 or the Red Cross office Federal 4-3575 will make appointments for those wishing to donate.

Donors must be between the ages of 18 and 59 with parental consent necessary for those between the ages of 18 and 21 years. Persons who have given blood in the past ten weeks are not acceptable as donors.

The Red Cross blood bank unit is traveling to Ferndale, Birmingham and Royal Oak as well as Walled Lake in hopes of replenishing the dwindling supply of blood. The Red Cross underscores the fact that blood is desperately needed to save the lives of boys in Korea and also civilian casualties.

The average person in the United States today eats about 60 percent more fruits and vegetables than he did in the period 1909 to 1913. Increase in individual diets, plus an increase in population, has boosted the importance of home gardens and other sources of fresh vegetables and fruits.

PCA To Become Farmer Owned

At its annual meeting to be held Wednesday, December 5, the Pontiac Production Credit Association, the local co-operative credit association serving farmers in Oakland, Macomb, Lapeer, Livingston and Genesee counties will retire the last of the government capital by presenting George Susens, president, Production Credit Corporation of St. Paul with a giant sized check for $5,000.00.

In 1933-34, the federal government helped the production credit associations of the nation to get started by providing most of the capital. The balance was obtained from the farmers themselves who invested in the capital stock of their local co-operative credit association when they borrowed money to finance their production and operating costs.

The production credit associations were organized to provide farmers with a source of credit adapted to their special needs. They are not solely dependent upon local funds. Most of the money is obtained from private investors through the sale of debentures by the nation-wide system of federal intermediate credit bank.

Today, 25 of the 54 production credit association in this district have entirely repaid the government and are solely owned by the farmer-members. This fall, 11 of the remaining associations will follow suit.

"The board of directors, members and office personnel are proud of its 18 year record of serving farmers in the community and are solely owned by the farmer-members. This fall, 11 of the remaining associations will follow suit."

The directors whose terms expire this year are Harry J. Green of Washington and Ralph Davenport of Lapeer. Others of the Board of Directors are Ernest Lawson of Howell, Albert Luchman of Washington and Russell W. Perrott of Pontiac.

In January the Talent show troupe from the five member schools, Clarkston, Clarenceville, Holly, Milford and Northville will present shows at those schools.

Another round of performances will be made by the Wayne-Oakland league troupe sometime in February and again in June, said Mr. Ellison.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our loving son and brother, Ronald, who passed away, 12 years ago, December 1, 1939:
The month of December is here again the saddest of the year. The sun and moon are shining on alone and silent grave, Beneath lies one we dearly loved, But whom we could not save. Friends may think we have forgotten, When at times they see us smile, Little do they know the heartache That our smile hides all the while.

Marines in Korea Bathe In New Homemade Bathtub

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA—Resourceful Marines on the central Korea front have come up with a new gimmick in the pursuit of cleanliness.
Weary of bathing out of their helmets, Corporal Fred Seick, of Irvington, New Jersey, and Corporal Gerald Reed, Brinsdale, Pennsylvania, members of a Marine reconnaissance company, used an exploded napalm bomb to good advantage.
The bomb—an aircraft belly tank filled with jellied gasoline—was disarmed, saved horizontally in half, scrubbed and filled with water. The result: A bathtub more adequate than a helmet.

Motorists Warned of Winter Hazards

Chief of Police Joseph E. Denton warned motorists today that winter, with its increasing accident rate, is just around the corner, and coupled his warning with an admonition that now is the time to get cars ready for winter driving.
"Sometime this winter," he said, "the millionth person will be killed as the result of a traffic accident, according to the National Safety Council. A little care now may keep you from being one in a million. There are definite things you can do right now, before winter comes, to prevent injury to yourself or others."
He listed them as follows:
1—Be sure your windshield wiper blades and defroster are in good working order. You can't drive safely if you can't see clearly.
2—Check your brakes to be sure they are equalized. Faulty brakes breed skids.
3—See that your tire chains are in good condition, or get them if you have none. Chainless vehicles on ice or snow often result in skid-wrecks and traffic tie-ups, not to mention cases of heart attacks from pushing stalled cars.
In addition, Chief Denton advised motorists when starting out on slippery streets to get the "feet" of the road surface, and to reduce speed when roads are snowy or icy. "Winterize your driving habits as well as your car," he said.
"When stopping, a pumping action on the brake pedal will stop you straighter, with less risk of a skid, than steady pressure which may lock your wheels. With locked wheels, a car which has started to slide is completely out of control. Synthetic rubber tires, once again being widely used, do wear better and perform normally on wet or dry pavements. They skid farther and have considerably less tractive ability, however, on snow or ice than natural rubber tires."

SCHRADER FUNERAL HOME
LEADERSHIP THROUGH FIVE GENERATIONS
404 WEST MAIN ST. PHONE 48, NORTHVILLE, MICH.

To The Editor:

The Safety Patrol boys and girls do a very commendable task assisting the smaller children across the main highways that lead to school in our Village every day of a school week, and because of their dependability I would like to make a suggestion.
Why not have a Safety Patrol boy aboard each school bus to assist the smaller children across the road each time the bus stops? Now, I realize the driver is unable to leave the bus to do this task, but a Safety Patrol boy could and would be very reliable for this duty.
It may prevent another tragic accident such as occurred on W. Seven Mile road, Wednesday, November 14 when little Richard Finley was struck by an auto while crossing the road after getting off the school bus.
A Mother
Dear Editor:
I would like to voice my appreciation of the action taken by the Village Council in regard to the water and street light problem. I mentioned in my recent letter. I didn't expect such fast response and want everyone to know that I am very pleased and grateful. "Village Council, I thank you."
Sincerely,
Mrs. R. E. Parmenter

Novi News

By Mrs. L. Rix

Mrs. Belle Walter spent last weekend as the guest of Mrs. W. E. Abbott and family in Milford Monday afternoon. Mrs. Walter left Novi with her brother, William McCowan for Mason where they will make an indefinite stay at the home of her brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ortwin are the parents of a daughter, born at St. Joseph hospital, Northville, Sunday, November 8. The baby weighed four pounds, 12 ounces.

J. A. Hanish of West Grand River was one of the first deer hunters to bring home his buck.

Next Tuesday evening, December 4, the AmVets Auxiliary will sponsor a plastic demonstration at the Novi school beginning at 8:00 o'clock. The public is invited and will be served lunch by the committee.

Ed Putnam, Ed Schwartz, C. Schwartz and Bill Hanson, Jr. spent the deer hunting season in the upper peninsula. Ed Putnam came home with his buck.

Mrs. Floyd Darling helped to celebrate her son, Tommy's birthday, Friday, November 16 by giving treats to all of Tommy's third grade classmates.

Mr. Crum, seventh grade teacher, and Mr. Konodel, eighth grade teacher at Novi school, were on the science committee and attended a meeting last Monday afternoon in the County office in Pontiac.

Ronny Jennings spent Thanksgiving weekend holiday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fran Jennings. He returned to Alma college Monday afternoon.

Eighteen members of the Joe Gardella family were present for Thanksgiving dinner. The sons and daughters and their children came from Detroit, Wayne and Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Trickey, Sr. spent ten days of the deer hunting season at Manistique as the guests of the latter's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Werner Blaess, who have a cottage there. Mr. Blaess, the lucky hunter, shared his buck with the Trickeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Bell spent a few days of the hunting season at the home of Duane's mother, Mrs. Cole, at Glenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Lockwood and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walters of Union Lake spent Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Bates to help celebrate the eighth birthday of Jimmy Bates, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Putnam spent their deer hunting time near Lewiston.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Roberson of Lincoln Park called on the L. C. Rixes and David O'Learys Saturday evening, Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Break and son, David, were the dinner guests of the Rixes and O'Learys.

Death came suddenly in Toledo, Ohio Saturday to Joseph L. Patvin, a member of Lakeside Lodge No. 487. Funeral services were held Tuesday at 1:00 p.m. at the Richardson-Bird Funeral Home, Walled Lake, and burial was in Wixom cemetery. The brother Oddfellows conducted graveside services.

ON CAPITOL HILL NEWS and COMMENT FROM CONGRESSMAN GEORGE A. DONDERO

Now that they have had time to think about it, and to study the figures carefully, I believe most members of Congress realize that the 11.75 percent increase in federal taxes voted at the end of the recent session of Congress was largely unnecessary.

The true situation had begun to dawn upon them even as they voted. Many of the facts, which since appear to have persuaded so many Congressmen that the tax boost was needless, were plainly evident at the time. On the basis of those facts, I voted against the tax bill.

For example, even then tax collections for the 1951-52 fiscal year, which ends next June 30, were running far ahead of those for the 1950-51 year. At present, they are running at least $12 billion ahead of last year. Meanwhile, the United States Treasury estimates the federal deficit for this year at $10 billion.

If one subtracts $12 billion from $10 billion, it leaves $2 billion. It would have been possible to cut the federal budget as much as $9 billion, instead of something less than $3 billion, if useless non-defense spending and wastefulness in defense spending had been eliminated. Then this year would have shown a surplus.

As matters stand now, unless the administration makes some tremendous additional demands in January for the remainder of this year, the deficit is likely to be small. If tax collections continue to pull ahead of last year's, a small surplus might accrue.

This could be true, even on the basis of moneys actually appropriated rather than on the basis of actual expenditures. What actually happened in the closing days of the recent session of Congress was this: The groups which persuaded the Congressional majority to pass the needlessly large and often economically unwarranted appropriations got busy. It was pointed out that the Congress must keep its promises. Congress, it was said, could not make the appropriations and then fail to pass tax legislation to defray the cost of the appropriations.

Here is an instance. More than $1 billion was appropriated for unemployment relief, in a day when virtually every American able to work is employed. Why was this done? The answer is clear when it is considered that nearly 62,000,000 people are employed, and presumably are supporting their dependents, yet one out of every 26 persons in the country is on poor relief. Not Social Security, but charity from the Federal Treasury.

In view of this situation, it seems to me that everyone in every state where the Legislature has not already done so should urge the Legislature to approve the Constitutional amendment which would curb the federal power to tax and spend.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

NON-PARTISAN NEWS LETTER

Come January 9, and our legislature will hitch up its pants and jump into the fastest regular session in its history—if everything goes right. This comes under the constitution amendment allowing for a regular session every year rather than one every two years plus a series of special sessions at which lawmakers can consider only what the governor proposes.

Can the legislators get through a "quickie" session and be cleaned up by the April 11 deadline? None of the experts is ready to say—yet. Everyone agrees it will be an achievement. Ordinarily such a session would last until May 15, at least. Some 1,000 bills would be introduced. About one-third would be approved.

From 140-150 bills already have been drafted for the 1952 session. Whether there will be 1,000 is doubtful. But if the lawmakers can meet their deadlines, everyone concerned will be pleased.

buildings or building additions are now in use. Construction is underway on four other projects and three structures are in the planning stage.

Latest reports indicate there are 135,000 unemployed in Michigan, compared with 56,000 a year ago. Williams' full employment committee laid the blame on delay in obtaining new plants and machine tools to perform defense contracts already issued.

Public service commission made its first outright denial of a Bell Telephone rate increase in the state's history. The company wanted a $22,500,000 rate jump. President John Greene said his company would continue its effort to get money "we need for sound operation." Says the governor: ".....sound thinking."

Since police handle more breaking and entering cases than any other major crime, State Police will conduct a series of special schools in fingerprinting, identification and burglary investigation during the next two months. Classes will be held in various communities all over the state.

Before Christmas arrives more than 1,000,000 Yule trees and tons of evergreen boughs will be brought in from Michigan forests.

Stamping Co. Starts Plymouth Addition

Grading has been completed and excavation for foundations started for the new plant to be erected on the south side of Ann Arbor road just west of Lilley road by the Plymouth Stamping company.

The building permit, issued sometime ago by the township, is for a new structure 86x142 feet that will cost somewhere around $75,000.

While no definite time has been set for completion of the structure, it will probably be ready for occupancy late in the winter. The present plant of the company is located on Main street in the old King manufacturing plant. The Stamping company purchased its new site a number of years ago in anticipation of the move which will double its size by the end of the next six months.

Ford Foundation TV Series To Feature U N Assembly

The United Nations' General Assembly at Paris is the subject of the Ford Foundation's first series of programs under its newly established Television-Radio Workshop. The program, called Assembly VI, appears over WWJ-TV on Sundays at noon.

Running for 12 weeks, the series consists of current film reports of United Nations General Assembly activities in Paris. Professor Arthur M. Schlesinger, Jr., of Harvard University, noted historian and author of the Pulitzer Prize-winning book, "The Age of Jackson," is the narrator on the series.

Making the announcement of the Ford Workshop's first television venture, Robert Saudek, Workshop director said: "Both the Television-Radio Workshop and the National Broadcasting company feel that the UN General Assembly in Paris is of such importance in this critical year that a complete visual record of the proceedings should be made available to the American people. The Workshop, therefore, has dispatched a film production crew headed by G. B. Buscemi, on leave of absence from the March of Time television department, to Paris for the duration of 'Assembly VI,' as the series will be called. Comprehensive filmed reports brought up-to-the-minute will be available to American families in their homes each week.

On behalf of NBC, Frederic W. Wile, Jr., director of TV network production, said: "The network has been conferring for months with the TV-Radio Workshop established by the Ford Foundation and is happy to broadcast the Workshop's initial series of television programs. The Workshop has set its sights high, and we in NBC are ready to cooperate. NBC looks forward to continued exploration of ways by which superior informative programs can command an increasingly large audience on commercial stations."

The transoceanic "Assembly VI" series marks the start of the Television-Radio Workshop in the programming field. Created in August of this year, the Workshop has $1,200,000 available to produce programs combining cultural, public service and entertainment qualities for use in the normal stream of commercial broadcasting. The "Assembly VI" series will be offered by the Workshop for commercial sponsorship on a non-profit basis.

The series of weekly reports on the United Nations General Assembly are produced under supervision of Saudek and James Webb Young, consultant on mass communications to the Ford Foundation, with the cooperation

Father, Son Operate Modern Farm

RAYMOND AND ELMER SCHULTZ

Electricity Termed Vital on Canton Twp. "Family Farm"

The Schultz farm on Proctor road, southwest of Plymouth, is typical of the many modern, well-equipped "family farms" of Wayne county.

Operated by Elmer W. Schultz and his 18-year-old son, Raymond, the 360 acre Canton township tract is devoted mainly to dairying and sweetcorn raising.

Six In Family, All At Home

Besides Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. Schultz have three other children—Barbara, 16; Robert, 10; and Richard, who is eight. The family is active in rural community affairs. Mr. Schultz is secretary-treasurer of the Cherryhill section of the Wayne County Farm Bureau and also serves as a reserve aid and adviser to the local Boy Scout organization.

Although the farm was partly modernized when the present owners took it over in 1938, both Mr. and Mrs. Schultz have memories of long ago when farming meant kerosene lamps, dim lanterns, pumping and carrying water, and milking by hand. "Every thing depends so much on electricity these days," says Mr. Schultz. "It is our best hired help."

Electrical equipment on the farm includes a range, refrigerator, and complete line of household appliances, as well as a milker, cooler, barn cleaner and many other aids to dairying. "It is this electrical help, with its saving of time, work and money, that makes possible an abundant farm life like that lived by the Schultz family. Before electricity came, increased farm productivity usually meant increased effort—often to the point where a single person had to do very nearly the work of two."

Many Extra Helpers

Electricity changed that—and here's the reason. Electric consumption on the Schultz farm is about 12,800 kilowatt hours a year not including two automatic electric water heaters. This means that Elmer Schultz and his son have the benefit of the energy of many man hours working for them all year long.

Electricity For All

The Schultz farm gets its electricity from The Detroit Edison company, which serves a total of 36,000 farm customers. Every farm in the company's 7,600-square-mile service area now has electricity available.

For the company, this marks the completion of the initial phase of farm electrification. It is also an important midpoint in the continuing job of making electricity ever more useful to the farmers of the area.

The Schultz farm, with its father-and-son teamwork, its modern equipment and its high productivity, symbolizes the outstanding accomplishments of Michigan farmers, to whom electricity was first brought more than 44 years ago.

Here's what
Michigan doctors prescribe to ease the cost of illness!

They prescribe BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD to protect your family against the costs of hospital and surgical care!

These health-care plans, developed by Michigan hospitals and doctors, are known, respected and welcomed in every part of Michigan!

NEARLY 2½ MILLION MEMBERS MEANS GREATER BENEFITS—MORE SECURITY!

• The last to recover from an accident or illness in your family is always your pocketbook! That's why it, too, deserves expert medical help. That's why it gets this kind of help from Michigan hospitals and doctors who pooled their intimate knowledge of your problems to set up and direct the BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD health-care plans.

Benefits as high as $8,058
have been provided!

BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD have provided hospital and surgical benefits totalling as much as $8,058 in a single hospital stay. There are hundreds of cases on record in which benefits have amounted to $2,000 or more.

MICHIGAN BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD have paid out more than 211 million dollars in health-care benefits in the past twelve years. This fact alone is striking evidence of the service rendered by these great plans.

Blue Cross-Blue Shield have millions of friends!

BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD also offer advantages that money alone cannot buy. For one thing, they are Michigan Hospitals' and Doctors' own health-care plans. And there are over 2,400,000 BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD members in the State of Michigan.

All this simply means that BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD are known and accepted in every part of Michigan. A great advantage in times of emergency... a great advantage at any time because it means you can get into and out of a hospital without annoying red tape, without the need for filing any claims. BLUE CROSS - BLUE SHIELD pay hospital and doctor directly.

Here's What These Plans Do!

Blue Cross Comprehensive Group Hospital Plan covers up to 120 days of hospital care in ward or semi-private room, according to the service for which you enroll. Unlike plans that pay fixed amounts for hospital care, this plan covers hospital bills IN FULL for a wide range of certificate benefits when you are admitted to a BLUE CROSS participating hospital. No cash limit for drugs, for operating room, for anesthesia, and for many other hospital services.

Blue Shield Medical-Surgical Plan pays generous stated amounts to your doctor for more than 480 medical-surgical procedures. And it pays towards your doctor's visits to the hospital in non-surgical cases.

Chances are 1 out of 4 that your family will be faced with hospital and medical bills this coming year. And with today's hospital and surgical bills often running into thousands of dollars, it's easy to see how the protection these plans provide is worth many times the little you pay.

Twenty Models of Other Makes of Cars
Cost More!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

There are hundreds of thousands of people who should be intensely interested in what we are writing here.

They are the people who paid more for their cars than a Cadillac costs—and still didn't get a Cadillac.

You see—there are five manufacturers of motor cars who produce a total of twenty models which actually cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac. And during recent years, hundreds of thousands of people have taken title to these, higher-priced models.

Surely, a large percentage of these owners did not understand, at the time of purchase, how little a Cadillac can cost. They assumed that a Cadillac must cost more—because of its reputation. So they paid for a Cadillac—and still failed to get the things a Cadillac provides.

They failed to get the irresistible performance of its great master high-compression engine... the soft, gliding ride that makes every road a better road... and the wonderful prestige which marks the Cadillac owner, throughout the civilized world, as a man distinctly apart.

Surely, they won't want to miss all this again. It's a lot to lose—especially when it costs no more to have it.

If we already have your order for a Cadillac—please be assured that you have made a wise decision—and stand firm until your car is ready for delivery.

But if we don't have your order—better come in and see us today. We are certain you don't want to pay the price of a Cadillac—and still not get one!

and is suitable entertainment for the whole family.

Family night, Wednesday, December 5, will feature "Million Dollar Pursuit" starring Penny Edwards and "When the Redskins Rode" with John Hall and Mary Castle in the feature roles. "Million Dollar Pursuit" is a routine cops and robbers melodrama with a commonplace plot, but the action is fast and the scenes well played, making it an enjoyable movie. The accompanying feature, "When the Redskins Rode" was photographed by the Supermencolor process and should prove enjoyable for kids from eight to eighty. The drama takes place at the time of the French and Indian Wars in 1753. There are plenty of thrills in the skirmishes between the whooping Indians and the militiamen, with bows and arrows and flintlocks as weapons.

Arlene Whelan, John Payne and Dennis O'Keefe star in "Passage West" Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 6, 7 and 8. This technicolor outdoor melodrama is exciting and fine relaxation for the whole family. Set in 1863 and dealing with the terror ridden journey of a group of religious pioneers whose wagon train is commanded at gun point by a desperate gang of escaped convicts, the story grips one's interest throughout. Dennis O'Keefe plays the fearless preacher, John Payne the coarse, ruthless convict leader, and Arlene Whelan is an organist engaged to the preacher.

I confess that my life has turned out better than I expected, that I earn more and live better, and that I would not care to go back to my father's life around 1900.

Four Villagers Bag Their Deer

Lady luck rode with one of the many hunting parties traveling North from the Village last week. The deer shown above in the hunting camp near Rose City, were bagged by John Schroder and Clifford Schroder of Ridge Road. Don Steers of Plymouth and Dick Robinson of Taft Road.

They bagged three prizes the first day and Dick got his deer on Saturday.

Dick returned to the Army Air Corps Monday and Clifford reported for duty with the Army on Wednesday of this week.

Dave Lee Only Exchange Student Remaining In Europe

David Lee, the Rotary exchange student from Northville, has had the opportunity since sailing from New York in September to see much of the world. After a tour of France and a short stay in Germany, Dave stayed a month in Copenhagen, Denmark, and December 1 will leave for Abo, Finland.

As these excerpts from his letters tell, David is the only American student from the group that is remaining in Europe on extended time. The other students will sail for home on December 9 while Dave will not board the "Queen Mary" in England until January 15.

From Bremen, Germany to Copenhagen, Denmark

On November 1 Rev. Sullivan, a boy from Windsor and Jim Dalley from Wyandotte and I met at the depot and boarded a train for Copenhagen, Denmark. We ate breakfast and dinner on the train and while crossing a bay we had our evening meal. We arrived in Copenhagen about eight that evening and I was met by the family with whom I will stay for the next month. We drove through the town and all the lights were on. It was very pretty. At the house I had tea and went to bed. The house is outside the main part of town and takes about a half-hour to go by train. I have a small room for myself.

Sunday we took a trip with Jim to see the Palace of Kronborg. It is in the north-east corner of Denmark in the town of Helsingor. We were only 2 1/2 miles from Sweden while there. This place is where they present Hamlet every year because Shakespeare laid the scene in Elsinore, the English name for Helsingor.

On November 5, after writing to you, I rode my bike to Jim's and we went into the "King's Woods." It was a beautiful ride and on our way we saw herds of deer. Then we continued to ride along the coast.

Wednesday morning I went to Copenhagen by myself and saw the "Mermaid" and many other statues. At 11:45 I went to Mr. Carlsen's office and met him. We both went to Rotary where Rev. Sullivan gave a short speech. After Rotary, Lorne, Jim and I went to the Holland-American office and declared our tickets. I cancelled mine and found I could change to a different line if I cared to. So I chose January 15 as my new sailing date when I will board the "Queen Mary" at Southampton, England. This will give me a few days of sight-seeing in London, too.

Thursday I went to the town hall with Mrs. Carlsen and I received my ration stamps for coffee and sugar. I also got a stamp in my passport.

On November 15, Rev. Sullivan and the two boys left to return to Germany. Jim Dalley decided at the last minute to return with the others which leaves me on my own from now on. The others will all sail for home December 9.

About Dec. 1, I will leave the Carlsen's to start out for Abo, Finland where I have a choice of staying either at the home of a business man or at the home of a professor. I will probably spend Christmas in Finland or Sweden. That part of my trip is not too definite as yet. The Ahlers in Bremen, Germany also have invited me to return to their home over the holidays but that is quite far away now.

The people in Denmark are the same as at home. Every place I have been on the whole trip has seemed like home. I didn't realize that this was so, but I guess that is what this program is for.

Everyone in this family can speak English except the maid and the little girl. The son, who goes to college, said I could go with him to some of his mechanical drawing classes, but all the rest of the time he has lectures. The father is away all day and is home on Saturday afternoons and Sunday. He has a fine sense of humor. The mother spends much of her time in gym, and tennis. She is taking English lessons now. The little girl is away at school all day. She, like

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Vici and Miss Ricky Lou Vici of Detroit, were guests of Rev. Lucia M. Stroh for dinner Sunday.

Bennie Burnham, Joyce Wilson and Pat Benjamin had their dress patterns fitted and Marjorie Clemons and Priscilla Hilton worked on their aprons. A new member entered our group, she is Barbara Nagy. Reporter, Joyce Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bell visited Mrs. Bell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, at Litchfield Tuesday and Wednesday.

Happy birthday to Mrs. Emily Lewis and Arthur Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kidston and family moved to Plymouth Tuesday. They have purchased a home there.

From the school paper, "The Salem Chat and Chum," we find the boys have a project that illustrates the principles of American citizenship. The boys built a church showing freedom of religion. They built a school house showing belief in education. The post office and capital building show that laws are made by and for the people. The newspaper building and the radio broadcasting building show we have freedom of speech. The lake with the fisherman, the cars on the road and the hunter show we are entitled to the "Pursuit of Happiness." We think the boys did a fine job in the project.

George Roberts and daughter, Ivah, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lyke and daughters, Janice and Beverly home from MSC, Mr. and Mrs. Myrta Lyke and son, Murray, enjoyed a turkey dinner on Thanksgiving with Mrs. Opal Lyke in Plymouth.

Callers in the George Bennett home Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Judd Green, Mrs. Donald Green and children from Northville.

Ethel Littell was a weekend guest of her aunt, Mrs. Myra Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Lewis and daughter, Sharon, and Mrs. Celia Rider spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Bunge in Wayne Thursday.

The young people returning to college after the holiday from Salem were Lila May Rakestraw to Ypsilanti, Beverly Lyke and George Bock to MSC, Roger and Allan Kidston to Ann Arbor.

Bennie Bock returned home on Monday from the F.F.A. convention held in Chicago, where he with several others from South Lyon spent several days. Ben-most little ones, has a pack on her back with about 7 or 8 books in it. I will try to find out more about their schools.

All the homes in this section of town where I'm living are very modern. There are also many new apartment houses. They have many flowers in the homes. In one room of the house where Jim stayed there were vines up one wall and over all the ceiling. Most every house has one or two maids.

Saturday night I went with Mogens Carlsen to see the opera, "Madame Butterfly." It was very good. And on Sunday we all went to Roshilde and saw the tombs of the kings.

Wait now for my Finnish address before writing again.

nie is president of this association in South Lyon. Sunday guests in the William H Bock home were Mr. and Mrs. William Kause and family of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Keckhut and family of Detroit.

Villager Judged Grinnell Finalist

Mrs. Robert Westley of South Center street was one of 14 finalists in the recent Grinnell Foundation scholarship contest held in Detroit.

A lyric soprano, Mrs. Westley for the past eight years has been studying voice with Mrs. Thelma VonEisenhauer in Detroit. In 1947 she was graduated from Wayne university with a Bachelor of Music degree.

Hundreds of vocalists throughout the state competed in the Grinnell Foundation contest, the first prize being $2,000 to be used to further vocal training in New York. The auditions were held before the director of the New York City Opera company.

Mrs. Westley sings regularly in a Detroit church. She and her husband, who is employed in the rehabilitation department at Maybury sanatorium, moved to the Village a little over a year ago.

Villager Donates Piano To Youth Center

Jimmy Weston, representing his grandmother, Mrs. Joe Weston, presents a piano to Recreation Director Wilson Funk, for use in the Youth Center.

No longer will the youth of the Village struggle with sticking keys, non-sounding notes and flat sounds from the piano at the Youth Center on East Dunlap street. Since the advent of the "new" upright piano, donated by Mrs. Joe Weston of Grace street, to the Center, the instrument won't be to blame for false sounding music.

The "new" piano at the Center was officially initiated by the fifth and sixth graders and the junior high boys and girls at their miniature J-Hop last Friday night.

The discarded piano has been given to Cy Owens who will have the instrument repaired for use as a community piano. Mr. Owens states that the piano will be loaned out for use at such functions as community street dances, talent shows and the like.

Under the direction of Wilson Funk, recreation director, the Youth Center building is taking on a new look. With the remodeling of the downstairs snack bar, more room is now available around the three pool tables and the ping pong table in the basement. A reading literature table is also set up in this recreation room. The basement stairs have been made safer and a new stairway has been built to the attic thus making it a more convenient storage space. The one-time kitchen on the first floor is to be made into a cloak room to alleviate congestion in the front lobby.

One thing about equipment at any recreation place is that ping pong paddles get lost and dishes get broken. Funk said that the Center is always happy for donations of dishes for use at the snack bar, and ping pong paddles and games for use by the youth of the community. The upstairs room is at the present rather devoid of a "home-like" atmosphere but an appeal is being made for donations of wicker furniture. Good magazines such as Popular Science, Popular Mechanics and sports magazines are always in demand at the Center said Funk.

Friday and Saturday evenings the Youth Center is always open for dancing and recreation and the Boys club, the Boy and Girl Scouts and many other community activities are constantly occupying the rooms for meetings. The parents of the Village are invited to stop in and see the Center in operation any time, Funk concluded.

OBITUARY

ABRAHAM VAN AKEN
Funeral services for Abraham Van Aken, aged 84, will be conducted Thursday at 2:00 p.m. from the Casterline Funeral Home, with burial in Lapham cemetery. Death came Tuesday at the Atchison Memorial hospital.

Kimberly of Worcester, Mass. and Mrs. A. M. Kimberly of Worcester, Mass. Also surviving are four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

RECORD AMBLINGS

You can now pay your Bell Telephone company bills at the Detroit Edison office, corner Center and Dunlap streets. As of Monday the local office was closed and all business transactions taken to the Plymouth office.

Leave it to a woman to get a nine point buck on her first hunting trip. Mrs. Mercy Bathey of Six Mile road along with her husband, Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Willis, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schrader of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Schrader, were hunting near Gaylord last week. Sighting the buck, she aimed her gun and pulled the trigger once. Result? One buck, dressed weighing 176 pounds. Incidentally, Mrs. Bathey was the only one in the hunting party to return with a deer.

One of the very nicest holiday traditions in Northville is the annual presentation of Handel's famous oratorio, "The Messiah." Scheduled for December 23, the community chorus, which is made up entirely of volunteers, is directed by Leslie G. Lee. For many years Mr. Lee has devoted his Sundays preceding Christmas to working with the citizens in the community who like to sing. The practices take place at the First Presbyterian church each Sunday at 4:00 p.m. More voices, especially male (tenor and bass) are needed. Come on, men, help the group out.

We think a word of thanks goes to the management of a local business on Main street for playing host to the Village aged and homeless on Thanksgiving Day. They worked until 8:00 p.m. on the 22nd to feed, fill of charge, 23 dinners to these people. That's a fine example of the Holiday spirit, in our minds eye.

"FOOD FAIR"

Dear Friends,
Do you remember that hit song of the twenties about being "too tired to wash the supper dishes but not too tired to go see a show"? Guess that describes us today—too tired to write about "Food Fair" for this week, but not too tired to be out to rambling on and on about our favorite food topic.

We weren't asked to go see a show, but when a patron with whom we were planning a party menu wondered whether or not we make our own lemon pie fillings, using the fresh fruit juice, etc., we forgot our fatigue. And here we are telling you again how we use only the best from Mother Nature's storehouse—adding nothing and subtracting nothing from Nature's own goodness. This is true of all foods prepared in our kitchens.

But it's impossible for us to try to prove this in words—so we invite you to taste and let our products speak for themselves.

Every day from now 'til Christmas, we will feature bite size samples of some one of our holiday specialties.

Stop in any time.

Sincerely,
William and Ruth Black of Black's Catering Service
