

Village Takes Step To Earmark Building Fund

The Northville Village Commission took steps at its meeting Monday evening to specifically earmark the approximately $161,000 now in the Village's "building fund" for construction of a community building. This sum represents monies received from Northville Downs over the past several years, plus interest.

The Commission instructed James E. Littell, Village attorney, to draw a resolution establishing a public improvement fund for a community building, and a second resolution transferring the funds now in the "building fund" to the new public improvement fund.

These moves followed presentation to the commission by Mr. Littell of a formal opinion as to whether the monies now in the building fund can be earmarked to guarantee that they will be used for the acquisition or construction of a community building and for no other purpose. The opinion was requested by the Commission at the previous meeting February 4, after several Northville residents appeared to ask that the funds be so earmarked.

Mr. Littell explained that even though funds are now set aside in the improvement fund for the specific purpose of erecting a community building, the Village Commission in future years will have the authority to designate that they may be used for some other public improvement purpose if it deems that the community building is no longer desired by Village residents.

Must Appropriate Money

The only way in which the Commission can make certain that present funds are used solely for the community building will be to appropriate them specifically for this purpose during the next fiscal year and let the contract for construction after plans have been approved, Mr. Littell said.

Mr. Walter L. Couse, who was actively identified with the original planning of the building project several years ago spoke in favor of going ahead with the construction at this time. He emphasized the necessity of dusting off the old plans, making any changes deemed desirable now, and getting ready to proceed as soon as the National Production Authority in Washington gives the "go-ahead" for such construction. Charles E. Wilson, Defense Mobilizer, indicated at a meeting attended by Couse last week, that such projects will probably be permitted by next fall. Couse warned that if plans are not underway now, the Village is going to be well down the list when authorizations are handed out.

Couse Offers Estimate

Couse also offered to present an up-to-date estimate of what the structure would cost at today's prices, if the commission so desired. It could be ready for the March 17 meeting, he said. No action was taken along this line, however.

All members of the commission appeared to favor the undertaking but some questioned how it could be completed without sufficient funds on hand to pay the entire cost. Specifically, doubt was expressed that residents would favor a bond issue, as advocated by some proponents of immediate construction, to raise any difference between the $161,000 now on hand and the probable cost of around $300,000. Those favoring the project, however, argued that if the voters understood fully the extent to which inflationary increases in building costs have nullified the commission's "savings" program of the past seven years, they undoubtedly would wish to go ahead at this time. They pointed out that the approximately $20,000 which the Village receives each year from Northville Downs not only would pay the interest on any bonds issued, but also would pay off the principal in a ten year period.

Replying to a question by the Commission, Mr. Couse stated that the building as originally planned would have cost about $168,000 then. Construction costs have increased 75 percent in the meantime, he said. (This would indicate present cost of the building at approximately $300,000).

Mr. Couse and A. Russell Clarke, Village treasurer, also mentioned the possibility of housing present municipal offices in the new structure. "This could be done," Couse said, "with only minor changes in the original plans. It would give the building even greater utility to Village residents than if it were used only for other community purposes."

License Plate Sales to End Next Friday

The local agent for the Michigan Department of State, Thomas Carrington, announced this week that his place of business, the Carrington Agency on North Center street, will be open Friday night. Next week the agency will be open every evening.

The sale of license plates will close next Friday, February 29, he said. To date approximately 2,500 plates have been purchased. About 2,415 of them are for passenger cars, Carrington reports.

The early bird gets the worm—Mrs. Doris Wick of West Seven Mile road, reports seeing a robin Sunday morning. We wonder if anyone can better the date.

E. V. Ellison, principal of the Northville High school, reports that about 349 students in grades 9 to 12 were X-rayed Monday morning and early afternoon while the mobile unit was stationed at the school.

In this week's Record, the text of the proposed amendment to the zoning ordinance of the township of Northville appears. With the hearing only a week away, might not be a bad idea to familiarize yourself with the changes. It will affect you, so if you want changes they have to be made now. Take a look!

The truck from the Northville Mental hospital has made another trip to the Record office for the magazines and hangers donated by our readers. Among those contributing this week were Guy Simons of South Lyon, Mrs. Lucille Lanning, Mrs. Roger Sackett and Mrs. James LaRue.

In an attempt to get better representation at the meeting of the Coordinating Council tonight, the council and the Record made this plea. Representatives from every organization in Northville should be present at the 7:15 p.m. meeting at the Village library.

After the totals for the March of Dimes drive were reported at the Northville High school, evidently the upper grades were ashamed that the grade school had raised more money. Anyway a renewed effort was made with the speech class in the lead. After collecting an additional $80.22, the check sent in amounted to $262.08 from the entire school system. The high school alone collected $107.77 during their two drives.

Rotary Club Hears Talk on Its History

Rotary club members heard Russell Amerman and Cy Frid review the organization's history at the meeting Tuesday noon.

Amerman explained the club's origin in 1905 and traced its growth to its 47th anniversary this month. Rotary International now has local clubs in 7,400 cities and towns in 83 countries in the world, said Frid. More than 350,000 business and professional men are members.

PETITIONS BEING CIRCULATED FOR PAVING BOND ISSUE

Consumers Power Company to Lay Gas Mains in Main Street Alley

Consumers Power company has agreed not to break the sidewalk on the south side of Main street from the First Presbyterian church to Center street to lay its new gas main.

The agreement followed an inspection tour of the property purchased by the Village to the rear of stores on the south side of Main street Tuesday morning.

Mr. George Mayhew, Consumers Power Plymouth branch manager, and Commissioner Claude Ely and Street Superintendent Herman Hartner made the inspection tour after the problem came up at Monday's Commission meeting.

The gas main will turn south off Main street at the former Blackburn property, it was decided, then turn west again and run through property purchased for the proposed alley and parking project. The main will go under South Center street near the alley entrance and turn north to Main street.

However, the section of gas main to be laid from the main four corners to the corner of Center and Baseline will necessitate breaking the sidewalk periodically in the block between Main and Dunlap streets on the west side, said Mr. Mayhew.

In addition, the concrete walk between Center and Wing streets on the south side must be broken at intervals to lay pipe to service the west side of Northville with gas, Mayhew said.

Rather than tear up whole sections of concrete, workmen are tunneling as far as possible before a break in the sidewalk is made. Consumers Power has agreed to replace complete slabs of sidewalk rather than patch the holes.

The project will not block entrances to stores or obstruct trade any more than necessary, Mayhew stated.

Workmen may bypass the alley portion for two or three weeks because of engineering problems caused by the alley's natural slope, which makes it difficult to determine proper levels for pipe, Mayhew said. Also, the property must be cleared to some extent. The contractors expect to have worked their way past the First Presbyterian church by Friday this week. The entire project should take about six weeks according to Mayhew's estimate, unless slowed by weather or other unforeseen factors.

The new gas main replaces lines which have been used for an estimated thirty to forty years. The new six-inch, corrosion-treated, welded-seam pipes are designed to give Northville the kind of gas service needed, Mayhew said.

Mustang Cagers Nip Plymouth 51 to 49

Northville's Mustangs avenged an earlier defeat at the hands of Plymouth by nipping the Rocks 51 to 49 in an overtime basketball game Tuesday night.

Glenn Howarth pushed in the deciding goal, boosting his game total to 12 points. Dick Somers followed with 11.

The Northville cagers led 45 to 40 with a minute to go in regular playing time, but the Rocks pulled even on two free throws to push the game into a three-minute overtime period.

The Blue Star Mothers will hold a bake sale at Freydl cleaners, East Main street, Friday, February 29, beginning at 10 a.m.

N. C. Schrader, Jr. (l.), president of the Retail Merchants Association, and Commissioner John F. Stubenvoll (r.), who are interested in a paving program for Northville.

TO: THE VILLAGE COUNCIL NORTHVILLE, MICHIGAN

We, the undersigned taxpayers, respectfully request the Council to consider the following petition; which petition is sponsored by the Members of the Retail Merchants Association, Inc., of Northville, Michigan:

"Petition is hereby made to the Village Council requesting that an extensive paving program be inaugurated for the Village of Northville, financing of such program to be covered by bond issue. THAT plans be drawn for such extensive paving program as the Council may determine and be presented on the ballot for vote by the TAXPAYERS of Northville, Michigan."

SIGNED THIS 18th day of February, 1952.

Village Buys Land For Alley Project

The Northville Village Commission purchased the Fred Bartholomew property to the rear of Stone's Gamble store for $400 Monday night, removing the last property obstacle in the proposed alley and parking project south of East Main street.

Free X-Ray Unit Here Today, Friday

Local residents still have today and tomorrow to take advantage of free chest X-rays given by the mobile unit at the Village fire hall.

The Thursday hours are set from 9 a.m. to noon and 5 to 7 p.m.; Friday hours are 1 to 5 p.m. and 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Two thousand eight hundred and forty-seven residents were X-rayed in 1950 when the unit visited Northville. Dr. V. George Chabot, Northville health commissioner, and the Civil Defense Housing committee, which made a house-to-house canvass of residents, urge Villagers to take advantage of the service again so that steps can be taken to help those with abnormal or questionable results.

Villagers should register at the Village hall before going to the unit for their X-rays.

Special Election Required If Village-Wide Improvement Program Is Carried Out

Members of the Northville Retail Merchants Association are circulating petitions requesting the Village Commission to call a special election this spring to give taxpayers an opportunity to vote on a bond issue to finance an intensive paving program within the Village limits.

The size of such a bond issue would be determined after an engineering survey of the streets to be paved, and determination of the over-all cost of paving, curbs, gutters, etc.

The decision to have the petition circulated was made at the Village Commission meeting Monday evening, after Nelson Schrader, Association president, had urged the need for a comprehensive paving program during the present year. The Merchants Association had gone on record unanimously at its meeting last week as favoring such a program at this time.

Commissioner John F. Stubenvoll pointed out that approximately $25,000 which the Village has been spending annually for paving is only a piecemeal approach to the Village's most pressing problem. "Everywhere, the streets are showing signs of breaking down and it is imperative that effective steps be taken, not only to keep present streets in repair, but also to pave the streets that are now unpaved."

Piecemeal Program Ineffective
It was also emphasized, and the Commission agreed, that the piecemeal program as conducted in the past is both ineffectual in enabling the Village to catch up with the need, and much more costly than would be the case if a comprehensive program were adopted. The higher cost, it was explained, comes from moving contractors' paving equipment from one location to another, and is always inherent in the getting of small contracts, he said.

The Commission briefly discussed the relative merits of defraying paving costs for the remainder of the Village through issuance of special assessment or general obligation bonds, with the consensus of opinion seemingly favoring general obligation bonds. (Special assessment bonds would provide for a special tax levy against property benefitted by the paving, whereas general obligation bonds are an obligation of the Village as a whole, and are payable from general tax receipts.)

General Obligation Bonds
The argument in favor of general obligation bonds was that the cost of paving in the Village thus far has been paid in part by taxes levied against property not benefitted by the paving. Therefore, it was argued, it is only fair that owners of property now fronting on paved streets in turn help defray the cost of paving in front of property which has been taxed without receiving any benefit in the past.

The question of an over-all paving program for the Village came before the Commission several years ago, but was tabled indefinitely because of the outbreak of the Korean war and the difficulty of securing materials at the time. Some Commission members feel that even though the same general problems are present today, the need for pavements has become so acute that it can no longer be ignored.

Village President Conrad E. Langfield asked Schrader to have the Merchants Association circulate the present petitions to ascertain if Village residents favor a general paving program at this time.

The Association promised to bring in petitions bearing 200 names of Northville taxpayers at the Commission meeting on March 3. Upon receipt of such petitions, it is expected that the Commission will order a survey made of the various streets requiring paving, together with estimates of the total cost involved.

After receiving a 1 rating in the district solo and ensemble festival for District 4 in Ypsilanti on Saturday, the Northville High school flute trio, composed of Marilyn Funk, Arlene Jerome and Gloria Clark, will play in the state finals in Jackson on April 5. Marlene Weiss accompanies the trio.

The festival which is put on as part of the Michigan School Band and Orchestra association, had 781 entrants from Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw, Monroe and Wayne counties. District 4, of which Northville is a part, is the largest district in the state, said Leslie G. Lee, director of the Northville band. Judging was done by qualified musicians in each field by the numbers system. Ratings of 1 to 5 were given. Only those with 1 ratings are sent to the state finals.

Roy Miller of the Wayne university faculty judged the Northville flute trio. He gave the group the highest possible rating, said Lee.

Two other Northville entries, Marlene Weiss with an oboe solo, and Marilyn Funk in the flute solo class, were each given 2 ratings.

Lee stated that the Northville band is now preparing for the March 15 band festival at Ypsilanti.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Now the other day a young couple was in this Studebaker Emporium of ours busily selecting one of these ever-so-beautiful Studebakers for '52. So what with one thing and another we engaged in a bit of idle chit-chat about kids and what was the modern world coming to and kids. The young father says modern kids don't have initiative, especially the sort he had when he was young. "Why," says he, "when I was a kid I played hooky from school quite often I'd come home with the other kids and on one, ever, was any the wiser."

And his ever-loving wife, who no doubt had long awaited the opportunity, said, "especially you dear!"

But that's the way things go and if you've been playing hooky from our show-room, you haven't had the opportunity to see how really great the '52 Studebaker is, especially the new hard-top "Starliner." Long, sweeping lines, beautiful interiors, a superbly powerful V-8 engine in the Commander models, plus truly amazing economy, make the Studebaker a car you must see... and enjoy. Drop around this week-end for a demonstration... you'll love the way it handles.

Not too long ago, a lady brought her car in for a bit of lubrication and naturally we had to ask how things were. She told us about her four-year-old son and do we feel sorry for him. He tackled the cookie jar, but it slipped to the floor and broke. Hoping to cover up, he ran into the front room exclaiming "Mother, just come and see what our dog did!" There on the sofa beside his mother was the dog.

There's a mild touch of spring and a mild touch of winter in the air these days. (In fact with income tax at hand there's a real touch in the air.) Makes it a bit rugged on the oils and greases in that car of yours, especially if they've been there too long. Give the car a break this week and see that the lubricants are new and fresh... and while you're here, have these expert mechanics of ours give the motor a first-class tune-up... you'll be glad you did.

That's that, but with income tax at hand these guys that have operated on the basis "the world owes me a living" had better write it off as a bad debt.

Yours,
BILL and WILL PETZ.

BROTHERHOOD WEEK FEB. 17-24

The thinness of the veneer covering deep-seated religious, racial and political prejudices of all segments of the human race is occasionally emphasized with dramatic force. Twice within the past week this veneer has been stripped away in our own country, to reveal the intolerance prevailing in some localities of the nation which is preaching the virtues of democracy as a way of life that the rest of the world should adopt.

We refer specifically to the incident in South San Francisco, where residents of an all-white residential district voted 174 to 28 against an American-educated former Chinese intelligence officer, Sing Sheng, his American-born wife and small son, occupying a house which he had purchased in the district.

We also refer to the FBI's arrest at Fair Bluff, North Carolina, of ten former members of the North Carolina Ku Klux Klan for kidnaping and flogging a white man and woman last October.

These events, which took place 3,000 miles apart, occurred on the eve of Brotherhood Week, which the National Conference of Christians and Jews is sponsoring February 17-24 to focus attention upon the need for better understanding between men of different races and religions. Prejudice against this religion or that race is as human as it is ugly. Only patient education can overcome it. The pigny accomplishments to date, in comparison with the need, make the current effort of the Conference worthy of the whole-hearted support of every citizen who is really interested in improving our democracy to make it a better example to the rest of the world.

We are reminded of the words of that great philosopher, George Santayana, in an essay on religion and morals.

"Almost all nations and religions, and especially the liberal party in them, think themselves the salt of the earth. They believe that their special institutions are normal or just, and hope to see them everywhere adopted. They declare that only the scriptures handed down by their own clergy are divinely inspired; that only their own native language is clear, convenient, deeply beautiful, and ultimately destined to become universal; that only the logic of their home philosophers is essentially cogent; and that the universal rule of morals, if not contained in tablets preserved in their temple, is concentrated in an insoluble pellet of moral prejudice, like the categorical imperative of Kant, lodged in their breast. Not being content, or not being able, to cultivate their local virtues in peace at home, they fiercely desire to sweep everything foreign from the face of the earth."

Attorney's Opinion on Building Fund

Following are the highlights of an opinion by James E. Little, Village Attorney, with respect to the method by which the Village Commission can earmark the approximately $161,000 now in the village general fund expressly for the construction of a community building.

"The Village Commission has asked for an opinion as to whether the monies presently on hand in the 'Building Fund,' so-called, representing the aggregate of annual receipts from the Northville Downs race track operation, can be earmarked so as to guarantee that they will be used for the acquisition or construction of a community building and for no other purpose.

"It is our opinion that by proper action of the Village Commission a Public Improvement Fund could be established, to which could be transferred the monies presently on hand and received from the Northville Downs Association and to which could be allocated future receipts anticipated from such source . . .

"It is our opinion that if the Public Improvement Fund is established solely for the use of one designated public improvement and there is no outstanding obligation of the village to any third party in respect to any monies in the fund, the purposes and public improvement designated may be changed, if decision should be made that the original public improvement be discontinued. We are led to this conclusion because of the statutory provision that once monies have been accumulated in a Public Improvement Fund they shall not be used for any other purpose than public improvements.

"It, therefore, appears to us that:

- (a) The Village Commission has the authority to establish a Public Improvement Fund for a community building;
- (b) The Village Commission has the authority to transfer to such fund the monies presently on hand and received from past Northville Downs Association race track operations.
- (c) The Village Commission has the authority to allocate to such Public Improvement Fund future receipts from the same source of revenue;
- (d) If these monies are not used for a community building, they can be designated for some other public improvement purpose.

"If it is the desire of the Village Commission to make certain that the funds presently on hand from the race track revenue are used solely for a community building, in our opinion the only practical means of guaranteeing this result would be to adopt the following procedure:

- (1) Establish by proper resolution a Public Improvement fund for a community building purpose;
- (2) Transfer these funds to such newly created Public Improvement fund;
- (3) Appropriate the funds for the construction of a community building within the next fiscal year;
- (4) Prepare plans, specifications and advertise for bids, and let the contract for such construction."

Young Livonia Dance Band Provides Program for Youth

Four young Livonia boys and their parents have found a way to help fight juvenile delinquency. What's more, they're having fun doing it.

The boys have a dance band and play for Friday night dances to which both young people and adults are invited.

That's not very unusual, until their ages enter the picture. The "Rhythm Rascals" range in age from 11 to 14 years, but it doesn't show in their music. Dancers and patrons at the Michigan Barn Dance, where the "Rascals" play, compare their music with that of many older bands. Sam Clark, owner of the Barn Dance on West Seven Mile road, calls square dances for them. He says "his boys" have a fine future in music.

The band started a while back when the boys, after weeks of practice, decided they'd like to play for the public. Their parents contacted Clark, who was enthusiastic about the idea of a youth program. Livonia Police Chief George Harmon cooperated and the program began. The boys do the playing at the dances and the parents do the managing and supervising.

Bob Goudeseune, who is 13, plays accordion. He's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Goudeseune of West Seven Mile road. Bob Wilson is the drummer. He's 14, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Young's namesake, Allen, is the youngest at 11, and plays guitar. John Shellock, 13, fills out the quartet with his accordion. His

Merchants Sponsor Safety Calendars

Forty-eight Northville businessmen are sponsoring traffic safety calendars which will hang in business places in the Northville area.

The calendars point out the grim highway traffic toll which totals more deaths in the 53-year history of the automobile than in all our wars in 177 years. The calendars display the warning: "102 Persons Will Not Be Alive To Read This Tomorrow."

Police Chiefs of some 3,000 communities have adopted the Kemper-Thomas Safety campaign, made possible by the wholehearted cooperation of public spirited business leaders who buy advertising space on the calendars.

parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Shellock.

The sponsoring parents invite young people and adults to the dances, which begin at 8 p.m. Friday nights and end at 11:30. Transportation home will be provided for youngsters, if needed. To cover costs of the program, a small admission is charged.

Local P & A Theatre Slates Weekend of Abbott & Costello, Hope Comedies

A week end of comedy is scheduled for the Northville Penniman Allen theatre starting with the Abbott and Costello movie "Comin' Round the Mountain." Teamed with Dorothy Shay, the boys will appear in showings tonight, Friday and Saturday. The latest Bob Hope comedy is slated for Sunday and Monday, February 24 and 25.

The whole family should enjoy this mixture of slapstick and typical Hope gags. Hedy Lamarr provides his women interest in this movie. This time Hope plays the dual role of a sinister European spy and an American burlesque comedian. The story has him drafted by the government to pose as the spy. Wednesday night's special will be a "Rocky" Lane movie entitled "Desert of Lost Men" plus "Fugitive Lady" starring Janis Paige and Bonnie Barnes. Produced in Italy, the picture is a murder melodrama in which the flashback technique is used extensively. The actual Italian backgrounds are interesting with good photography.

William Holden, Nancy Olsen and William Bendix appear in "Submarine Command" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, February 28, 29 and March 1. The hero is tormented throughout the story by doubts as to whether or not he did the right thing in ordering his ship to submerge during a Jap attack rather than linger on the surface to rescue two wounded men trapped on the bridge. William Bendix plays his usual tough man role while Holden is the executive officer in command.

Some Stayed Home: Hartley Reports Annual Bird Count

Most birds have sense enough to head south when the frost hits the punkin', but some members of the feathered clan apparently like the snow and slush, a fact indicated by the Christmas bird census taken by Harold S. Hartley of 602 Randolph street, Northville.

The survey, sponsored by the National Audubon Society, began in 1900. Thousands of observers now participate in the count and millions of birds are observed. The idea is to indicate trends toward increases or decreases of population and to gather other scientific data—and maybe figure out if the stay-at-homes in winter are actually fond of snow, or if they just come back for Christmas.

Hartley did his observing chiefly in Northville township from a car and on short walks in 35 to 40 degree temperatures with a foot of moist snow on the ground.

Hartley observed the usual tree and song sparrows, pheasant, bob white, domestic pigeon, morning dove, blue jay and hairy and downy woodpecker. He also saw a buteo hawk, two sharp-shinned hawks and a sparrow hawk. Others he saw were the black-capped chickadee, tufted titmouse, white-breasted nuthatch, weaver finch and cardinal.

Point Distribution of Mustang Cagers Pleases Coach

Basketball Coach Dick Kay was happy to look at the record book last Friday night. Besides carrying the information that his high school team had beaten Milford and annexed the Wayne-Oakland league title, the book showed the great distribution in points among the seven players Kay used in the Redskins game.

It's very comforting for a coach to know that he has seven or eight players he can use almost interchangeably in a game without weakening the team.

A glance at point totals in the 13 games played this season is fair evidence. The point range among regulars and semi-regulars is 10 to 127. Glenn Howarth is top Mustang scorer with 127, followed by Charlie Rebitzke, with 116.

Rebitzke is most proficient at the free throw line, having successfully tossed in 34 foul shots in 57 tries, for a 59-plus percentage. Howarth and Jerry Graham are close behind with 55-plus percentages, respectively. Graham also has the edge on personal fouls committed: 52 in 13 games.

Christian Science Churches
That there is one infinite Mind and that this Mind is God is the teaching of Christian Science. The Lesson-Sermon entitled "Mind" which will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, February 24, will reveal the reason for this teaching. The Golden Text is from Romans (12:2): "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Ps. 133:1): "Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!"
Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "When we realize that there is one Mind, the divine law of loving our neighbor as ourselves is unfolded." (p. 205)

Observances of this kind began in the year 1887 and now the first Friday in Lent is annually set apart as the World Day of Prayer. The theme for the 1952 services is "Christ, Our Hope," with the program based on the prayers of agricultural migratory workers, sharecroppers and American Indians and those who live close to the soil in other lands.

Translated into many languages and dialects, the World Day of Prayer service is used on the day, not only in the United States but in 104 countries around the world, said Mrs. Johnson. In our country the General Department of United Church Women of the National Council of Churches sponsors the day.

Security Benefits Should be Checked

Newly-covered workers should make certain that they are receiving credit on their social security accounts, Ray V. Haning, manager of the Northwest social security office located at 12065 Wyoming avenue, corner of Grand River, reminded today.

He was referring especially to regularly employed household workers and regularly employed farm workers who are among the groups which were given social security protection by the changes in the social security law effective January 1, 1951.

To make certain that they will qualify for retirement benefits at age 65 or later, or that their families will receive the survivors benefits provided in death cases, regularly employed household workers and regularly employed farm workers are urged to contact their nearest social security office for information. The social security office will explain the old-age and survivors benefits. By getting in touch with the social security office, workers can make certain that they will receive credit on their social security account, if their work is covered by the law, says Haning.

A representative from the Detroit-Northwest office is at the Plymouth post office on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon to offer the same services to the residents of this community that are available at the Detroit office.

Experience is what you get while looking for something else.

Customers' Corner

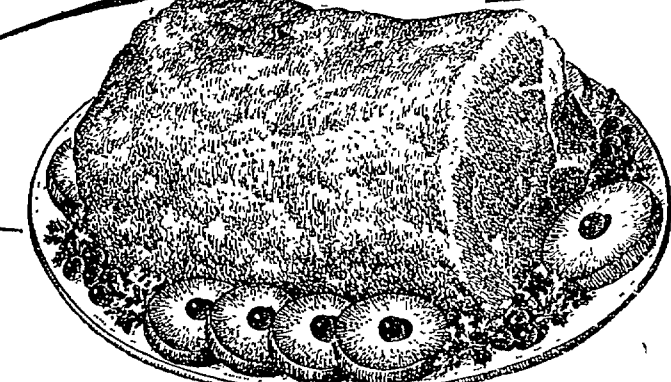

George Washington said it first. This week, the celebration of Washington's birthday brings to mind the story about the famous cherry tree. Whether he said, "I cannot tell a lie" or not, we don't know, but the father of our country did say, "honesty is always the best policy." The founding father of A&P—George Huntington Hartford—had the same idea when he said, "Always do what is honest, fair and sincere and in the best interest of our customers." That's the spirit that has always guided the folks of A&P. It always will!

Section 3.09. NON-CONFORMING USES. The lawful use of buildings or of land existing at the time of the adoption of this ordinance may be continued subject to the provisions of Section 3.03 hereof in respect to dwellings, although such use does not conform with the provisions hereof, and such uses may be extended throughout the building, provided no structural alterations or changes are made therein, except those required by law or ordinance or such as may be required for safety, or such as may be necessary to secure or insure the continued advantageous use of the building during its natural life.

Nothing in this ordinance shall prevent the reconstruction, repairing, or rebuilding and continued use of any non-conforming building or structure damaged by fire, collapse, explosion, or acts of God or public enemy, subsequent to the effective date of this ordinance, wherein the expense of such reconstruction does not exceed sixty (60) per cent of the assessed valuation of the building or structure at the time such damage occurred.

Wherever a non-conforming use of a building or land has been changed to a more restricted use or to a conforming use, such use shall not thereafter be changed back to a less restricted use.

If a non-conforming use of a building is discontinued for a continuous period of one (1) year, any subsequent use of such building or of the land on which the same is situated shall be in conformity with the regulations specified by this ordinance for zoning districts in which such building and land are located.

Immediately after the effective date of this zoning ordinance or amendment thereto, the Township Zoning Board shall prepare a complete record of all non-conforming uses and occupations of lands, buildings and structures, including tents and trailer coaches, existing at the time of such ordinance or amendment. Such record shall contain the names and addresses of the owners of such non-conforming use and of any occupant, other than the owner, the legal description of the land and the nature and extent of use. The Township Board shall prescribe the procedure for making any necessary corrections and copies of the corrected record, when approved by the Township Board, shall be filed in the offices of the Township Clerk, which record shall constitute prima facie evidence of the number, character and extent of the non-conformances at the time an ordinance or an amendment thereto becomes effective. The record of non-conformance shall be revised annually as the Township Board may prescribe.

Section 10.01. USES PERMITTED. All other uses not prohibited by law, except any of the following uses:

- Bag cleaning;

Any use which by reason of the emission of odor, fumes, dust, smoke, vibration or noise, or the disposal of wastes, if deleterious to other industrial or commercial activities lawfully conducted within the district, or if noxious or offensive to uses permitted and conducted in neighboring residence or commercial districts.

Section 13.01. No building or structure within the limits of the unincorporated area of the Township of Northville shall hereafter be erected or altered until a permit shall have been obtained by the owner of said building from the Building Inspector. No such permit shall be issued to erect or alter a building or structure or make any changes of use unless they are in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance and amendments hereto hereafter duly enacted.

No building permit shall be issued under the terms of this Ordinance before:

- (a) The Building Inspector shall have inspected and verified the existence of a well or water supply, and
- (b) The Building Inspector shall have approved plans for the disposal system and the location and distances of the building (residential, commercial, industrial or assembly) from the well and the disposal system.

Section 16.01. CHANGES AND AMENDMENTS. The Zoning Board of the Township of Northville shall, at least once each year, prepare and file with the Township Board a report on the operations of the Zoning Ordinance, as amended, including, when necessary, recommendations as to the enactment of amendments or supplements thereto.

The Zoning Board shall receive petitions from individual property owners or groups of property owners requesting district changes or amendments or supplements to said Zoning Ordinance. MICHIGAN MIRROR

NON-PARTISAN NEWS LETTER

Loren B. Miller, Detroit advocate of reform in state government, has a nickname of "Red." It refers to his hair.

Miller lived up to his sobriquet at a Michigan Press Association convention luncheon featuring proposed reorganization of state government. But in a different way to this extent: He became obviously red-faced when State Treasurer D. Hale Brake stole the thunder and delivered the best speech of his capital career. Here's the story.

Miller was given the lead-off spot, preceding appearance of constitutional state officials. He pleaded that the governor should be given more power—authority to appoint heads of departments such as civil service, conservation and agriculture. Such was the recommendation of a joint legislative committee of which Miller was director.

Brake's reply was masterful. He tore the argument into shreds and wound up with a terrific applause from newspaper editors. Declared Brake:

Civil service in Michigan is safeguarded from partisan politics through a commission "responsible to nobody but the people of the state." Members serve long terms, staggered to prevent domination by any one governor.

The agriculture department now has a career director responsible solely to a commission, appointed in the same manner as civil service and hence free from political control by any one governor. This change was brought out primarily by the Fair Bur-

County Zoning Commission or the County Coordinating Zoning Committee, the Zoning Board shall then report its district changes, amendments or supplements to the Township Board and recommend their adoption.

Part III. That the Zoning Ordinance of the Township of Northville is hereby amended by the amending of Article XVIII thereof to read as follows:

ARTICLE XVIII.

VIOLETION, ENFORCEMENT AND PENALTIES

Section 18.01. It shall be the duty of all architects, contractors, sub-contractors and other persons having charge of the erecting, altering, changing or remodeling of any building or structure, including tents and trailer coaches, before beginning or undertaking any such work, to see that a proper permit has been granted therefor and that such work does not conflict with and is not in violation of the terms of this Ordinance; and any such architect, builder, contractor or other person doing or performing any such work of erecting, repairing, altering, changing or remodeling without such a permit having been issued or in violation of, or in conflict with the terms of this Ordinance, shall be deemed guilty of a violation hereof in the same manner and to the same extent as the owner of the premises or the persons or person for whom such buildings are erected, repaired, altered, changed or remodeled in violation hereof and shall be held accountable for such violation.

Section 18.02. Any building or structure, including tents and trailer coaches, erected or being erected, constructed or reconstructed, altered, repaired, converted or maintained, or any building, structure, including tents and trailer coaches, or land used in violation of this ordinance or other regulation made under the authority of the Township of Northville is hereby declared to be a nuisance per se and the Township of Northville through its qualified officers as provided for by statute for maintaining suits, may institute proceedings in the Circuit Court in Chancery for the purpose of restraining any violation of any of the provisions of this Ordinance. The Building Inspector, the Legislative Body of the Township, the Board of Appeals or any court having jurisdiction shall order such nuisance abated and the owner or agent in charge of such building or land shall be adjudged guilty of maintaining a nuisance per se.

Section 18.03. Any person, firm or corporation who shall violate any provision of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof punished by a fine not to exceed One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and the costs of prosecution or, in default of the payment thereof, by imprisonment in the County Jail for not to exceed ninety (90) days, or of both such fine or imprisonment in the discretion of the court. Each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense. The imposition of any sentence shall not exempt the offender from compliance with the requirements of this Ordinance.

Section 18.04. RELIEF FROM PERSONAL RESPONSIBILITY. The Building Inspector shall not be personally liable while acting for the Township and he is hereby relieved from all personal liability from any damage that may accrue to persons or property as a result of any act required or permitted in the discharge of his official duties.

Part IV. That the Zoning Ordinance of the Township of Northville is hereby amended by the addition of new sections to appear and become a part of said Ordinance in numerical sequence and be numbered as follows: Article I, Section 1.20 (a); Article III, Sections 3.19, 3.20 and 3.21, respectively.

Section 1.20 (a). FLOOR AREA. Floor area shall be the area including within the exterior walls of the main structure at the ground floor level, not including garages or enclosed or unenclosed porches and not including attached utility or accessory rooms having three or more exterior doors.

Section 3.19. REMOVAL OF TOPSOIL, ETC. The commercial use of land for and by the removal of topsoil, clay, sand, gravel, stone, rock or aggregates from the land is not permitted in any district except under a Temporary Certificate from the Board of Appeals, which may be denied or issued in appropriate cases upon the filing of an application accompanied by a suitable agreement or bond that such removal will not cause stagnant water to collect or leave the surface of the land at the expiration of such permit in an unstable condition or unfit for the growing of turf or for other land uses permitted in the district in which such removal occurs.

Section 3.20. TEMPORARY OR GARAGE DWELLING. All temporary basement dwellings, or garage dwellings, which have been heretofore erected or occupied, are hereby declared to be unlawful dwellings and shall be vacated within a period of two (2) years or otherwise altered so as to comply with the provisions of this Ordinance. Buildings erected as garages shall in no case be occupied for dwelling purposes unless they comply with all the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 3.21. STORAGE AND PARKING OF MOVING VANS, TRAILERS, ETC. The storage or parking or use of moving vans, automobile trailers, trailer coaches, bus or street car bodies, or similar dwellings, or tents shall not be allowed or considered a legal accessory use in an R-1, R-1-F, R-2, C-1 and C-2 districts except that a temporary permit may be issued for the parking of one (1) house trailer for not more than sixty (60) days within any calendar year when occupants of such house trailer are provided with the sanitary facilities used by the household on whose lot they are occupying. This shall not prohibit the storage of one unoccupied house trailer in the rear yard which is the property of the occupant.

Part V. CONFLICTING PROVISIONS REPEALED. Any ordinance or parts of an ordinance in conflict with any of the provisions of this Ordinance are hereby repealed.

Part VI. WHEN EFFECTIVE. The provisions of this Ordinance are hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health, safety and general welfare and are hereby ordered to take effect thirty (30) days after final enactment and publication.

Part VII. VALIDITY. Should any section, clause or provision of this Ordinance be declared by the courts to be invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the Ordinance as a whole, or any part thereof, other than the part so declared to be invalid.

eau and Grange as the result of farmers' complaints over the constant change of directors as governors arrived and left.

The conservation commission would become "advisory" under Miller's plan with the director named by the governor. Brake's best punch line was this:

"Perhaps the difference between Mr. Miller and myself is chiefly this: He has read too darn many books. (Long pause) I have known too darn many governors. (Laughter) After all, seven governors have come in since I entered state government and six have gone out. Perhaps the voters will have to decide whether I outlast the seventh."

Can you blame Miller for being a bit red-faced?

He failed to sell his case to newspaper editors, despite a wealth of factual material available from other states where reorganization programs have become a reality.

Note. Miller had 15 minutes, the governor (through a substitute) 15 minutes. Brake spoke 20 minutes, his original five-minute allocation being augmented by cooperating officials.

With the announcement that Lt. Gov. William C. Vandenberg would be gubernatorial candidate, Republican political waters grew roiled from within. Getting off on one foot or the other Vandenberg, in his opening statement, said, "I have never believed that the governorship, Michigan's highest office, was for sale."

An obvious belt at Alger's wealth which presumably will not hurt his campaign.

Alger replied, "I naturally regretted Lt. Gov. Vandenberg's announcement because I hoped that for once we would present a united front to the electorate. . . It is his privilege to be a candidate if he so desires."

Among state measures which died a-borning because they were not reported out of committee in time to meet the rule requiring bills to be brought out in 21 days were two fair employment practices bills. Others to die of default would have provided for compulsory vehicle inspection, repealed the "lien law" under which the state can recover from estates of deceased old age assistance recipients a part of the benefits paid; increased old age assistance from $60 to $75. All were hot questions.

December was the most disastrous month in history for accidents in Michigan. There were 19,892 accidents, including 3,691 injuries and 120 deaths. The 1951 traffic fatality list had 1,646 persons listed, highest since 1941 when traffic claimed 2,133.

Some 22,000 state civil service employees have received their pay rise. Adjustment was ordered by the civil service commission last December. It gives all classified employees a flat $5 per month and a 7 percent increase in salary. Overall state pay increases will cost Michigan $9,443,529 for the year beginning July 1.

The state library has received $233,326.46 for equipment and books lost in the state office building fire of a year ago. Five insurance companies made the payment.

And it looks as though the new state office building (and repair of the old one) will get a shot in its building arm. National production authority has approved allotment for all the steel necessary to complete both structures.

Mustangs Topple Milford 51 to 43, Win League Crown

Long Shots Break Milford's Defense in Fourth Quarter Northville Rally

A second half drive by the Northville Mustangs upended a determined Milford basketball team 51 to 43 last Friday night. The victory clinched the Wayne-Oakland league title for Northville, even if the high school cagers should lose to Clarenceville Friday night.

Milford's Tom Baker (17 points) and Fred Winterhalter (13 points) made it rough for the Mustangs, but the Redskins couldn't keep up with Northville's fight and consistency.

The Mustangs, unable to crack Milford's zone defense, trailed in the first two periods. With a five-point deficit to make up in the second half, the Mustangs pulled almost even, 35 to 33, on Don Thomson's three baskets from out-court and the corner, and a field goal each by Dick Somers and Jerry Graham. The game broke up in the final quarter when Ed Nash hit on two shots from almost center court and Thomson pushed in another long one. Milford abandoned its zone for a pressing man-to-man defense and Somers, Glenn Howarth, Charlie Rebitzke and Lamar Nalley began hitting from close in. Nalley was top scorer for Northville with 11 counters, but the remaining 40 points were distributed among the other six players used by Coach Dick Kay. It was the usual Mustang scrap and ball hawking, plus the cracking of Milford's zone defense that spelled downfall for the Redskins.

To date, Northville has won six games and lost one in league competition, with the final loop match to be played Friday. All other league teams have lost at least three matches.

Friday's summary:

Colts Trip Milford Reserves 47 to 44

After opening ten-point gap in the final quarter, the Northville Colts beat down a rally by the Milford reserves and won 47 to 44 last Friday night.

The Colts trailed most of the way by a small margin, but took command in the third quarter, going into the final stanza with a 30 to 27 lead.

Coach Al Jones used all his reserves in the last period, with a fair lead, and they held off Milford's drive without help.

Jim Mitchell collected 12 points to head scoring for both teams, although six teammates contributed to the total.

Farmington C. of C. Slates Minstrel Show

Farmington's Junior Chamber of Commerce has begun construction of another in its series of annual community talent shows. This year's "Fine and Dandy" minstrel show is slated for March 28 at Farmington's high school gym.

Arthur Mann and James Warner are again co-chairmen of the show. Robert Cassell, Detroit artist, will prepare sets as art director, and Kenneth Schweizer, Philip Thomas and John Hulett will handle ticket and program details.

Warner and Mann say selecting talent is a problem. "There's enough ham in everyone to want to be in the show, but we've got a high standard of quality to live up to," they say. The show, originally conceived in 1949, has played to bigger crowds each year. It has supported the young men's club in its annual Christmas party for Farmington youngsters, and other community projects such as the organization of a Citizens Committee for Charter Revision which brought the city manager form of government to Farmington.

Church Honors Rev. E. E. Rossow

In token of the 15 years of service that the Rev. E. E. Rossow has given to the Northville St. Paul's Lutheran church, the congregation of the church gave an informal reception last Sunday evening.

The affair followed the organ concert by Herbert Gotsch which commemorated the second anniversary of the church and parish hall. During the reception in the parish hall, the president of the congregation, Arthur Schnute, presented Rev. Rossow with a gift. Seated at the head of the table for the Sunday observance were the Rev. Herbert Wacker of the Detroit Covenant church and the Rev. George Hildner of the Taber church, Detroit.

During the Friday joint meeting of the Northville and Farmington Men's clubs of the Lutheran churches, Rev. Rossow was guest of honor and was presented with a birthday gift. The Rev. Walter Rutkowski was toastmaster for the evening. Fred Fischer is president of the Northville club.

McArthur's God Complex

Constantine Brown, a commentator for the Washington "Evening Star" recently stated that a few months before General McArthur was relieved of his far Eastern command, a high government official told him that the General should be replaced by a younger man. "He is not able at 71," he said, "to take an active part in the campaign. Moreover, when you have had a God-complex in your younger days and actually believe it when you are McArthur's age, it is dangerous for the prosecution of the campaign." This high government official had better consider what the Bible says about those who say there is no God. God says plainly that such a man is a fool (Psalm 14:1). He had better consider too the foundations laid by Christians in the founding of this great nation which down through the years have contributed to its success. He had better consider whether we can do without God's help in event another war breaks out. If we had more men in government offices who had the "God-complex" of McArthur we would not have need of Kefauver investigations. We might well pray for the success of the coming "Evangelistic Campaign" to be held in our nation's capitol by Evangelist Billy Graham. Never forget, the ultimate victory shall be God Almighty's. Is He on your side?

Tags to Divorce Acetates, Rayons For Customers

Acetate and rayon materials, long confused or unidentifiable by consumers, will be differentiated easily now . . . by tag. Washington, through the Federal Trade commission, has cracked down on major manufacturers of acetate and rayon fibers. Now they must stop lumping the materials into the same category in labeling advertising and sales promotion, according to Esquire's Apparel Arts, a clothing trade magazine.

For the many who have forgotten the difference between the fibers, the Celanese Corporation of America is putting on an intensive educational campaign, both for the consumer and the retailer.

Rayon and acetate are chemically different fibers. Rayon is 100 per cent cellulose, like cotton and linen, and takes the same dye-stuffs as the natural fibers. Acetate is a chemical creation, made by chemically combining cellulose with other ingredients to form an entirely different compound, different chemically from other fibers. Acetate and rayon require different spot removing agents. Acetate takes the same kinds of dyes as nylon.

Rayon's tensile, or break-resisting, strength is greater than that of an acetate, and is better suited for utility or sheer fabrics. Acetates, on the other hand, recover from wear, wrinkles and soft creasing because of properties not contained by rayon. Moths can't do much damage to either rayon or acetate, but rayon, like cotton, is fair prey for mold and mildew, while acetate resists those two trouble-makers but is susceptible to excess heat. Much of this information will be included on tags suitable for use on garments made wholly or predominantly of acetate fibers. The tags will also carry care instructions as well as fiber identification.
