

"Bewildered Teenager" Letter Causes Wide Disagreement

"Bewildered Teenager's" letter in last week's Northville Record apparently was widely read and discussed by parents and teenagers alike, if we may judge from the written and verbal response to our request for comments. We are publishing below, and on the following page, letters replying to her statement that Northville teenagers lack a suitable recreation spot in which to spend their idle evenings.

To the Editor:

The problem of "Bewildered Teenager" interested me greatly, and I believe that being a teenager myself, I am qualified to answer her letter.

In the first place, I believe that by the time you reach the twelfth grade, you should be able to stay at home once in a while. With the urgent need for baby sitters, I should think that any teenager with as many as three and four free evenings a week would be glad to baby sit, not only to give the parents a "night off," but to earn a little spending money.

As far as the boys going to the poolroom is concerned, I can remember that during my fifth and sixth grades, the boys would spend their lunch money to play pool, not because they didn't have anything else to do but because they wanted to play pool.

As a teenager, I don't consider an evening "hanging around" the drug store very exciting, and as a customer, I don't enjoy going into a store full of kids, who are just passing the time of day.

I agree with Mr. Amerman's statement that there have always been enough planned activities, but the older group resent having things planned for them. In addition to school activities all of the churches have young peoples' organizations. I remember the many times that dances have been held for the teenagers at the Scout Building, but most of the time either no one comes or the bunch gets a little overactive.

I have heard my mother tell of what a great treat it was for your date to have the family car for the night. Nowadays, the teenagers, boys and girls, aren't satisfied with this system. They either have to have a car of their own or be able to have the family car anytime. I think that they should have the car, when there is someplace to go, but when they just drive around for no good reason, it seems pretty foolish to me.

However, I believe that too much emphasis is being placed on the so-called "Teenage Problem." For instance, I don't think that the articles on "Teenage Dope Addiction" have done too much good. The youth of today has an adventurous soul. Teenagers are given so many more freedoms that they have started to take advantage of their good fortune.

I am sure that all of the teenagers don't lead as dull a life as "Bewildered Teenager," for I'm sure that if a poll were taken, we would find that few of them spent more than one night a week at home.

For those who do not work usually attend school activities, such as band practice, forensics and basketball games. I think that quite a few of the kids consider "free evenings" to be those spent wandering around with friends when there is nothing definite planned out ahead of time.

I enjoy getting together with my classmates, but I am sure that I would soon tire of their company if I were obliged to spend all of my evenings in planned group activities.

Here's hoping my classmates will read this and begin to realize that we are now young adults and should be ready, willing, and able to plan our own lives.

Another Teenager

To the Editor:

On Thursday you published a letter from a "bewildered teenager." Being a teenager, and also bewildered, I decided to write also.

The teenagers in Northville really do need a place where they can meet and be together. We need a place other than school where we can spend time with our friends.

If the teenagers were given a place to meet, I'm sure they would take an interest in it.

As things are now, we have nothing to do, and go place to go during our spare time. School activities are not enough. We want some place to go outside of school. Certainly our parents would rather have us at a recreation center of some type instead of riding around in cars.

The high school years are the years which will determine the type of person we will be in later life. If we are not given a chance now, what then can be expected of us later on?

The decision on this problem rests with you, the readers of the Record. Will the teenagers of

Teenage Burglaries Solved by Chief; Restitution Made

Seven burglaries committed during the past year by teenage Northville boys have been solved by Police Chief Joseph Denton. Restitution has been made in all instances by the boys or their parents. No charges have been pressed by the victims, so the boys may have another chance.

Three of the burglaries were committed in Northville grade schools, on January 15, Jan. 16 and June 11, 1951, and one at the high school on October 20, 1951. Six boys were involved in the grade school incidents and three at the High School. The total sum taken was approximately $800 and settlement in this amount has been accepted by school authorities, Chief Denton states.

Other burglaries were committed as follows:

The William Lee Walker residence at 42625 East Seven Mile Road, involving two boys, in October;

The Speedway Gasoline Station on West Main Street, by two boys, on October 23;

Dr. V. George Chabot office, 206 Dunlap Street, by two boys, on October 27;

Farm Crest Ranch, on West Six Mile Road near Beck, by two boys, on Feb. 2, 1952.

Northville be given a recreation center of some sort, or will we be left to run wild?

Another Teenager

To Bewildered Teenager:

I wish you would have spoken for yourself and not all teenagers. Some of us are not as bewildered as you are.

I. M. Unbewildered

To the Editor:

As there are so few of our teenagers on the honor roll, I think they should spend more of their evenings improving their schoolwork. They will need this in after years.

I have heard many mothers say "I can't get Junior up in time to shovel the snow off the walk before going to school." Also "Betty has no time to help with the housework." They have too many activities outside the home now.

The first thing in the evening at our house is to do their homework. They have some every night. Then they can watch television or play games. Many homes have recreation rooms where they can spend their evenings in a good clean place.

It's more home life we need in Northville.

A Mother

Sirs:

With regard to "Bewildered Teenager's" letter in your March 13th issue, I am wondering just what is her problem.

In the first place, this girl must either be a genius or is flunking every subject, and she couldn't be very active in school activities, to have "three or four nights a week free."

Also, she couldn't have much interest in family life, or her problem would be solved. Certainly she owes it to her parents to stay home a few nights a week. Does she stay home only on nights she has "jobs"? Does she expect the Recreation Committee and the Board of Education and various other committees and boards and panels to be her mother and father?

What's she complaining about? Sincerely yours, James Rambeau

The Northville High School Band, directed by Leslie G. Lee, qualified for the finals in state band competition at Lansing on April 26 by winning four ratings of "one" at the District Band Festival in Ypsilanti last Saturday.

The band, formerly in Class C, played against 17 highly competitive Class B bands from the District of Southeastern Michigan for the first time.

Three concert judges and a sight-reading judge awarded the Northville band the highest rating. Only bands with ratings of "one" are eligible for the state finals.

Ninety-four percent of township taxes have been collected to date, reports Township Treasurer Roy M. Terrill. Taxpayers have paid $124,959 of the total tax roll of $133,022, leaving a delinquency of $8,063.

According to Terrill, $1,161 of the delinquency is the State of Michigan's portion on exemptions, as yet unpaid.

Detroit Fined For Reckless Driving

James Edwin Buckner, 18 years old, of 16701 Chatham Street, Detroit was arrested by Northville police Monday evening and fined $25 and costs on a reckless driving charge.

Elected to the Northville Rotary Club's board of directors this week were A. Malcolm Allen, Charles F. Carrington, Clyde Dethloff, Carl Johnson, Philip Ogilvie, George Simmons and Harry B. Smith.

The board of directors will elect a president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary and sergeant-at-arms before April 1.

Fluoride Clinic Planned at School

With the consent of the parents of children in second, fifth and eighth grades of the Northville school, a sodium fluoride treatment program for the prevention of tooth decay is being contemplated. Miss Ruth Knapp, R.N., has sent letters this week to the parents asking their approval.

The program will be carried on with the approval and cooperation of the local dentists, the Parent-Teachers Association and the Mother's Club, said Miss Knapp. Equipment will be loaned by the Michigan Department of Health.

Four visits to the clinic will be made over a two week period. Teeth are cleaned and a series of four applications of fluoride is made to the surface of the teeth, the nurse reports. Treatments are given to only the three above mentioned classes since new teeth can best be reached at this time, she said.

If the program is approved by parents, 244 children will be treated. Miss Knapp stated that the health department of the school hopes to establish the clinic as a yearly project.

Cards sent to parents ask them to designate their ability to pay for the service.

Cost Estimate $375,000 for Community Building

A cost estimate of approximately $375,000 for construction now of a Community Building that could have been built for $198,000 in 1946 was presented to the Northville Village Commission last Monday evening by Mr. Walter L. Couse, president of Walter L. Couse & Co.

The building would include these features:

1. An auditorium for public meetings, plays and other community projects.
2. A gymnasium.
3. Dining room or cafeteria.
4. Meeting rooms for Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.
5. Recreation areas for other youth activities.
6. Space for Village offices, including a jail.

Mr. Couse pointed out that the building is planned so that seven different activities could be in progress at the same time without interfering with each other in any way.

8 Streets to Get Delivery of Mail

Mail delivery will begin April 1 for residents of eight streets in Northville, said Postmaster Leland V. Smith Wednesday. Residents of the affected streets have depended on post office boxes and general delivery service in the past.

Delivery will begin on Plymouth Avenue between Gardner Street and Seven Mile Road; all of Scott Avenue; Grace and North Center Streets from Hill to Maplewood Streets; Carpenter and Horton Streets from Carlisle to Hill Streets; Novi Road from Baseline Road to Hill Street, and on Baseline from Oakland Street to the Village Limit.

Presbyterian Women to Have Thrift Shop

The Women's Union of the First Presbyterian Church will conduct a Thrift Shop in the Telephone Building on North Center Street April 3 through 30.

It will be open April 1 to receive contributed articles for sale, such as clothing, furniture, dishes, etc., with members of the Women's Union also soliciting saleable merchandise.

The Thrift Shop will be open three days a week; Thursday afternoons, Friday all day and evening, and Saturday until 6 p.m.

Profits from the Thrift Shop will be contributed by the Women's Union to help defray the cost of remodeling the basement of the First Presbyterian Church.

Space for the month is donated by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

Woman Hospitalized After Fall From Car

Mrs. Robert King, 27180 Martindale, South Lyon, was hospitalized at the Atchison Memorial Hospital this week by injuries to her head and left arm as a result of falling out of the car being driven by her husband.

The couple were returning home on West Eight Mile Road at about 35 miles per hour, with Mrs. King leaning against the car door when it came open.

New Northville Broker

Earl Lee Reed, 320 Orchard Drive, recently passed examinations for a real estate broker's license. Temporarily, his office will be at his home address.

Reed has been connected with the Abstract and Title Guaranty Company for 26 years and has acquired credits at the Detroit College of Law. He has lived in Northville since 1948.

Langfield Thanks Voters For Election As Village President

Conrad E. Langfield has asked the Northville Record to express his appreciation of the confidence of Northville voters in re-electing him to his third term as Village President. Mr. Langfield pledges himself to exert his best effort and judgment in dealing with the several very important matters of wide community interest that are scheduled for submission to voters during his coming term of office.

Vote to Determine District Annexation

Members of Thayer School District No. 10, fractional, will vote Saturday, March 22, on whether or not they favor annexation to Northville School District No. 2, fractional. Polls will be open from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Thayer School house, according to Roy M. Terrill, moderator for Thayer District.

The Northville School Board, when asked its opinion by Thayer District Board members March 3, voted to annex the district if its members are favorable to the action.

About 45 children now attend Thayer School, which has eight grades. If the district is annexed, the Northville School Board will decide whether to maintain Thayer School or to allow the children to attend the Northville Grade School.

Waterford, DeKay and Hunman School Districts were annexed to the Northville District in October, 1951.

Northville Theatre May Close Doors

Northville's Penniman - Allen Theatre may close its doors in the near future unless business improves, said Manager Joseph Brisbois at the Village Commission meeting Monday night.

Brisbois appeared at the meeting to ask commissioners for suggestions and criticisms to forestall closing of the theatre. He said that he has plans for a new policy, but that closing probably could not be prevented unless the theatre can do better than operate at a loss, as it has in the past.

Village President Conrad E. Langfield and others suggested that better pictures be shown, and commented that since Plymouth theatres get first choice of movies, Northville residents attend them there.

The Northville theatre reopened November 4, 1951, after being closed several months.

Will Improve Northville As Residential-Trading Area

Northville Moves Step Toward Its Community Bldg.

Northville moved a step forward this week toward attainment of its goal of constructing a Community Building through use of the approximately $160,000 that has been paid to the Village by Northville Downs since 1946. The Village Commission now knows, from an estimate submitted by Walter L. Couse, president of Walter L. Couse and Co., that such a building will cost in the neighborhood of $350,000 to $375,000.

The next move is up to the Commission, which must decide if construction of the building should be gotten under way this year and what community facilities it should include. When these decisions have been reached, the Commission then must submit to Northville voters a proposal for issuance of long-term bonds to obtain the necessary money over and above the $160,000.

Could Pay Off in Ten Years
Mr. Couse told the Commission that the approximately $20,000 which it has been crediting to the Village's building fund each year out of money received from Northville Downs will pay off the bond issue in about ten years, while the Village will have the use of the Community Building in the meantime.

For the $375,000 which Mr. Couse estimated as the building's cost at this time, a structure could be erected to house the Village offices as well as a wide range of community activities. He urged that the overall project should be considered in conjunction with necessary enlargement of the Northville High School in the near future. Proper integration of facilities of the two buildings will result in substantial savings for the school system, and make it unnecessary to build an entire new school building within the next few years.

School Remodeling
The Community Building as planned would include a modern heating system and power house to serve it, and the High School's needs, Couse said. "The entire basement of the present school could be converted into additional classrooms, shops and other facilities, plus an intermediate floor slab at approximately the level of the present gymnasium track to make available considerable more classroom space at this level."

As many as seven different activities could take place in the Community Building without any one of them interfering with the others. For example, the Village Commission could meet with a play going on in the auditorium, a basketball game in the gymnasium, band practice in progress, also a dinner in the cafeteria or dining room. At the same time, both the Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts could be meeting in their respective quarters, while older boys and girls could be carrying on their activities in the recreation areas. The jail would be located in another part of the building.

"I am certain that when the programs that can be accomplished in this building are made known to the Village as a whole, they will enthusiastically urge the Commission to proceed with the entire set-up, which can be handled on a sound financial basis."

The Lucy Filkins Circle of the WSCS will meet with Mrs. Greer at 527 West Dunlap Street Tuesday, March 25.

Duane Branch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Branch, of Eleven Mile Road, has been released from the Marine Corps.

Four parts of a program for the betterment of Northville as a residential and trading center are gradually taking shape at meetings of the Village Commission. If they meet with the approval of residents of the community, all can be gotten under way this year. Two of them can be completed.

These projects are:
Procurement of adequate off-street parking facilities;
Improved surfacing of residential streets at an accelerated pace;

Construction of the long-planned-for Community Building;
Incorporation of the Village of Northville as a fourth class city.

Off-Street Parking

As matters stand now, it appears to be only a matter of deciding what areas downtown, in addition to the one adjacent to the First Presbyterian Church, are logical for off-street parking, and determination of their fair purchase value, before actual steps can be taken to raise the money necessary for acquisition and surfacing. This probably will be done without cost to taxpayers, through issuance of revenue bonds as suggested by the Northville Record three weeks ago. Such bonds could be retired over a period of years from parking meter receipts.

Village Treasurer A. Russell Clarke, and Commissioners John F. Stubbenvoll and Gerald Woodworth met last Friday with Matthew Carey, Detroit municipal finance consultant, to investigate the feasibility of such a bond issue. They reported favorably to the Village Commission Monday night, and were delegated by President Conrad E. Langfield to determine as nearly as possible the total cost of adequate parking facilities so steps could be taken to issue bonds for such an amount.

Community Building

At the same Commission meeting, the problem of proceeding with construction of a Community Building and with an accelerated surfacing program for residential streets was discussed in considerable detail. Commissioners Stubbenvoll and Peters advocated use of the approximately $160,000 that has been accumulated from payments by Northville Downs over the past six years, plus additional money to be obtained from a bond issue, to start work on the Community Building as soon as possible. Such a bond issue could be paid off over a period of years.

Faster Paving Program

Stubbenvoll's proposal, which he said originated with Clarke, suggested that if Northville residents approved a bond issue to complete the Community Building now, the Village in the future could use the $20,000 received annually from Northville Downs, together with funds coming from the state under the Dykstra Act, and some money from the general fund for a comprehensive surfacing program for residential streets at an accelerated rate. His proposal had the general support of President Langfield and Commissioners Woodworth and Peters. Pending a more detailed examination of architect's plans for the Community Building at the next meeting, a final decision with respect to both the building and the paving program was held in abeyance.

Stubbenvoll and Woodworth also reported to the Commission that detailed studies are being made of the desirability of incorporating Northville as a city. As soon as these studies are completed, they will be presented to the general public through the press and by speakers at various community organizations, they said. They indicated, however, that this matter probably cannot be put to a vote until next fall.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Well, March 15th has come and gone and all we have to say is that the lug who wrote, "a fool and his money are soon parted", never tangled with a modern day income tax report. The Collector of ETERNAL Revenue makes no such distinctions.

As a matter of fact, considering that day just past, we're not sure that we should bring the subject of a new car to your attention. If it were any car but the '52 Studebaker we wouldn't, but considering the true economy of the car, we feel that we'd be doing you an injustice if we didn't give you a chance to catch even. This '52 Studebaker, whose middle name is "Economy Plus", grows by comparison daily. The most copied car of a decade, you'll love its long sweeping lines, ease of handling and comfortable riding qualities. Why not arrange for a demonstration and see for yourself the thrill you'll get from the power-packed V-8 engine of the Commander line.

Now we've been going to make a few personal weather observations for some time, but last week we overheard a couple of would-be golfers discussing the subject and decided there's nothing we could add. Nothing we could print anyway.

Instead we'll tell you of the fellow who dropped in to see his doctor. The Doc. maintains his office in his home, so when our friend enters he's met by a little six year old girl who informs that her Daddy has been called away and is now at the hospital performing an appendectomy.

"My," says the caller, "what a long word, do you know what it means?"
"Yes sir," says the little girl, "it means one hundred and fifty dollars."

Now we know we've never mentioned cost when discussing our service, but you'll find our prices most fair and our service excellent, no matter what the job; a complete lubrication, a complete overhaul. One thing we urge though, is that you protect your car with proper lubrication at regular intervals and an occasional motor tune-up. You'll be surprised and pleased at how easily a bit of check-up now and then will prevent major repair bills later on. Besides your car will operate much more efficiently the year around. Of course, if you want the major operation and nuts to prevention, well that's your business—we can certainly use the money.

That's that, but we've noticed this season that we haven't had to listen to as many tales of the tough winters of years ago. In fact, practically every one who used to make such remarks of how hard the bygone winters used to be are either in the hospital or in Florida at the moment.

Yours,

More on the "Teenage Problem"

It is paradoxical that the Record's front page this week carries several letters from parents and teenagers in reply to the complaint last week of "Bewildered Teenager" concerning lack of suitable place to spend idle evenings, and a story saying that the Northville Police Department has solved breaking and entering cases in which nine local teen-age boys were involved during the past year.

It is not enough to say that the recreational facilities of the schools, churches, and the Scout Building are available to teenagers. Or that they should be staying at home with their parents. These things are very true, and for the great majority of our teenagers they probably suffice.

But what about those boys and girls whose home environment has not led them into churches, and whose parental guidance has not encouraged them to participate as fully as they might in school activities, or in scouting and other healthy outlets for the boundless energy of youth? Are we to blame the children for the shortcomings of their parents, which may be due to broken homes or just plain indifference?

We merely raise the question now. Later, we may venture to give our own answer, as we see it.

One thing must be said. The reason that boys get into trouble is basically a lack of discipline. This is a matter that should start at home. When it doesn't, and trouble develops, as it has for nine of our youngsters, it becomes a community problem that lands right in the lap of Police Chief Joseph Denton and his officers.

Fortunately, the local police department has done an excellent job in apprehending the boys who have got on the wrong side of the law. Their identity is known to their parents and to our school authorities. Restitution has been made by the boys or their parents. They have not been taken into Juvenile Court because the victims of their burglaries have been unwilling to sign complaints against them, and because our school authorities and others interested in their welfare want to give them another chance.

It is only fair to note, however, that Chief Denton and his staff have solved the series of burglaries that have been the subject of a whispering campaign that the police department ought to do something about it. Something has been done, and Chief Denton is to be congratulated.

When we are tempted to criticize others we generally defer to the scriptural admonition: "Let him who is without sin among you, cast the first stone." This we are doing in refraining from comment on the failure of 70% of Northville's registered voters to take the trouble to go to the polls on March 10 to vote for the men who will run the Village's business for the next two years.

To those who were elected to office, we offer our congratulations, and our assurance that the news columns of the Northville Record will be open to you at all times to present your side of all matters that are of interest to the community. On our own initiative, we shall endeavor to present the news arising from your official decisions as completely and impartially as possible.

Green Ridge Nursery received accreditation in February by the American Association of Nurserymen, reports Miller.

50 Degree Water Starts Smelt Runs

When will the smelt run?

Scooping up the silvery fish in hand nets actually, is legal now in non-trout streams. However, Conservation Department records show most runs do not begin before early April and the peak runs until days later.

An early spring hastens the start of the annual spawning runs; continued cold will delay the seasonal dashes up the many tributary streams of the Great Lakes. Usually, over 40 degree water temperatures are needed to induce a run and peak upstream movement develops in close to 50 degrees temperature.

Two of the biggest run areas in recent years have been: (1) Green Bay tributary streams in Menominee and Delta Counties, and (2) Saginaw Bay tributary streams in Arenac, Huron and Isco Counties.

Substantial runs have developed in tributaries in Alcona, Alpena, Leelanau, Emmet, Grand Traverse, Antrim, Charlevoix, Mackinac and Chippewa Counties. Most runs finish for the season by the first or second week in May, about the time the trout season opens.

There are no limits on number and size of smelt which can be taken, but the hand nets used cannot exceed five feet in circumference, with or without handles. Fishing license is required.

Weekend Activities For Youth Told

Attendance at the weekend parties planned by the North-Recreation Committee shows only fair participation, states Wilson Funk, Recreation Director.

The "Melody Five," a band composed of local talent, played for the first hour with the new juke box furnishing music during the rest of the evening. The fifth graders from Miss Margaret DeKett's class furnished refreshments.

Saturday night the Recreation Building was open to teenagers. Funk reports that 37 were present. At the Optimist sponsored dance in Plymouth that evening, 17 teenage couples from Northville, said Funk.

A place is provided for members to eat their lunches and to participate in game activities, according to Wilson Funk, Recreation Director.

The Northville Recreation Committee will meet at the Boy Scout Building at 4 p.m. Sunday, March 23. Chairman R. D. Merriam has extended an invitation to Northville's youth to attend the meeting.

Teenager Letters

To the Editor:

I'd like to answer Teenager's letter, but before I do, I just went down into the basement and asked the boys that "hangout" around our house what their comment on this letter is and their answer was: "It's full of baloney!"

First, no Teenager should be out three or four evenings a week. No adult for that matter either. That's one thing wrong with home life today. My complaint has been there is too much recreation for young people in Northville. I've just about raised my fifth Teenager and not one has complained of time on their hands. If you take an active part in the activities as outlined by Mr. Amerman, in school, church, scouting and various hobby classes available, you will be busy every night. However, if the writer who will be a graduate this year can't find something worthwhile to do evenings, I'm afraid this graduate isn't ready to face the world.

However, dear Teenager, the fault does not fall on Northville, it's with the parents. If the Teenager cannot be kept occupied, just start checking from your own home. Most Northville homes are normal homes. However, once in a while unfortunate circumstances prevail and a young person can become bewildered, but our teaching staff is always ready to help in a friendly way and so are the ministers.

No, I don't think Northville has failed, there isn't a town doing more for its young people. You see, Teenager, the World does not owe you a living nor a good time, you must get it yourself in the Good Old American Way and there were never more opportunities for young people than there are today.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. C. Carlson

To the Editor:

I am convinced that mentioning a community building in conjunction with Teenager's letter, will give our teenagers the wrong impression. It is unfair to lead them to believe they will have a (quote) "hangout". As I understand it, a community building will house adequate facilities for the performance of plays, concerts, and other wholesome activities. In general, it will further the culture of Northville, which eventually can do a lot to alleviate Teenager's so-called "problem".

Teenager's letter aroused my sympathy, but not in the way she may imagine. There is no substitute for wise parental guidance.

A Teenager's Mother

Dear Bewildered Teenager:

I'm afraid you are looking in the wrong direction!

Stop and think. Are you really honest in saying that the teenagers would support a project for loads of fun? Well, there isn't a teenager in Northville who couldn't join up with the young folks' group with their church. Then go to the meetings. Be there. Be active. Help plan evenings at the church halls that are vacant on the nights you long to have something to do.

Once a month invite another church's young people in and plan an evening of fun.

The churches are empty on many evenings and their young peoples' meetings have a very few attending.

Speak to your parents. Ask them to be active in church too. This is a challenge to our young people.

Sincerely,
Doris Wick

Green Thumb

by Paul Newton

March, to the gardener, means fertilizing, pruning and spraying. It is a busy time for the fruit grower, whether he has just a tree or two in the back yard or a full-fledged orchard.

Fertilizing should be done now. For mature apple trees, 6 to 8 pounds of sodium nitrate is spread in a three to four foot circle just under the outer perimeter of the tree. The higher rate is used on the larger or weak trees. Twenty to thirty pounds of 5-10-5, (5 parts nitrogen, 10 parts phosphorus, 5 parts potassium) or a similar mixture, can be substituted quite as efficiently. On non-bearing apple trees, about one-half pound of sodium nitrate is used for each year of the tree's age.

Pruning of Trees

Moderate pruning of apple trees over the outside periphery is important every year or two, if good-sized fruits are to be expected. Remove any cross branching and those branches that closely parallel and thus interfere with the main branches.

For peach, plum and cherry trees, a half-pound of sodium nitrate for each year of the tree's age is applied. If a 5-10-5 formula is preferred, it is applied at the rate of one and one-half pounds per year of the tree's age, up to 15 pounds for the bearing tree.

Peach, plum and cherry trees respond best if the soil under them is cultivated and stirred to a depth of three to four inches until about July. The peach tree must be pruned every year, and the plum every three or four years. The cherry seems to perform best with little or no pruning.

Pear trees are fertilized cautiously, to avoid vigorous growth, which makes them susceptible to fire blight. This disease can be detected by the dying and blackening of scattered shoots in early summer. On non-bearing pear trees, about one-eighth to one-quarter pound of sodium nitrate is used for each year of the tree's age; for mature trees, one and one-half to two pounds of sodium nitrate is used. A four to six inch mulch of straw under the branches may provide adequate nutrients for the pear tree. The soil should be loosened to a depth of three to four inches under the tree each spring. The Seckel and Kieffer trees are fairly resistant to blight, so will respond to somewhat more fertilizer than the other varieties.

Fertilizing Strawberries

For the strawberry bed on soil of medium low fertility, about one pound of 5-10-5 for each eight running feet of row (two to three feet wide) is applied during the fruiting year. Fertilizer is spread in early March, when the plants are dry, before much leaf growth has started.

When fertilizer is not used, plants on sandy, less fertile soil, usually have poor growth and small berries.

If the strawberry bed is on fertile, loamy soil and has been fed properly through the first season after planting, no additional nutrients are needed in the fruiting year. They may cause excessive plant growth and soft berries.

Straw barnyard manure applied in winter to a depth of three to five inches is one of the best fertilizers for bush fruits. If manure is applied in March, it should be well rotted. On soils of average fertility, a commercial fertilizer such as 5-10-5 is spread at the rate of two pounds to 100 square feet.

Better Grapes

In moderately fertile soils, grapes should respond well to three-fourths to one pound of sodium nitrate per vine, spread in a six inch ring six inches out from the trunk. Two to three pounds of 5-10-5 spread in a like manner should give an equivalent result. The latter is used in preference to sodium nitrate on a light sandy soil. Grapes also respond well to a strawy manure mulch that is maintained about three to four inches deep in a three-foot circle about six inches away from the base of the trunk.

Dormant spray should be applied the first day the temperature reaches 40 degrees, or above. Lime sulphur or miscible oil was the standard dormant spray for years. Now, new modern all-purpose mixtures are easier to apply. They help to control aphids as well as scales, scab, psylla and leaf curl. Lilacs, euonymus and bitter sweet, and even crab apples, should be covered.

On Friday, March 28, the OES will sponsor a hard-time dance for the public at the VFW Hall.

The Baptist Women's Union will hold their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Peter Nieuwkoop, North Wing Street, on Thursday, March 27, at 2 p.m.

Thayer School has been closed for the past week due to illness of the teacher, Mrs. Carrie Dickinson.

The Tuesday Book Club met with Mrs. Walter L. Couse, West Seven Mile Road, March 18. Mrs. T. N. Kampf reviewed "The President's Lady" by Irving Stone.

Mental Hospital Receiving Patients

The State Mental Health Department said it will start shifting patients to the Northville State Hospital on Seven Mile Road this week.

Patients will be admitted to the hospital at the rate of 25 a week for the next two months. There are 40 patients already at the hospital.

New arrivals will be from the Pontiac and Ypsilanti State Hospitals. These institutions then will have room for additional patients to be transferred from Wayne County, especially from the overcrowded Detroit Receiving Hospital.

A new chemical raw material, vinyl toluene, derived in part from bituminous coal, is being used in the manufacture of synthetic rubber tires.

 ing, we shall find true happiness.
 This is shown in the Lesson-

 God giveth to a man that is good

I'M GUILTY!

It was reported a few weeks ago that a man charged with breaking into a bank declared that he was in perfect health
 when he committed the crime, that he did not suffer from blackouts or dementia praecox and was not in need of psychiatric treatment.
 "I just did it for the money,"
 was the reason he gave. In this day we have some penologists who seek to excuse crime on the basis that it arises from mental ill health instead of a sinful heart. Once in a while we find a person who is willing to admit that he is a sinner. It's a very humbling experience for mankind to come to the place where he admits before God that God's Word is true when it says, "That all have sinned and come short of the Glory of God." That this statement is universally true of everyone is hard for certain people to understand.
 One needs not to commit great crimes to be a criminal—one offense is enough. So James 2:10 says, "Whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all." One of the first steps in repentance which precedes faith is a consciousness of being a sinner. When you see yourself a sinner, then you will be able to see that you need a Saviour.

Mailing of Letters Opens Seal Drive

The mailing of 3000 letters in the Northville area opened the 1952 Easter Seal campaign. Edward F. Angove is the Northville chairman. A quota of $20,000 is set for Wayne County, outside of Detroit.

Of all funds raised, 93.1 percent will be used in Wayne County to finance services for its crippled children. Plans are now under way to organize a recreational day camp near Plymouth, Angove said.

The Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., sponsors the annual Easter Seal Drive, funds from which benefit ten crippled children and adults in the Northville area. The nationwide drive is conducted simultaneously in all 48 states, the District of Columbia, Alaska, Puerto Rico and Hawaii.

Services supported by Easter Seal funds in Wayne County outside of Detroit include discovering the handicapped person and arranging for medical care including diagnostic clinics; transportation; physical and occupational therapy; providing special shoes or braces, and home teaching for children unable to attend school.

State Troops Plan Village Recruiting

Recruiting for the Michigan State Troops, known as the State Guard, will be led by Charles Hiltz, 767 Fairbrook Road, on Friday, March 21 and Friday, March 28, at the Northville Depositors State Bank. Hiltz will be on hand to give out information during the evening banking hours.

While the act authorizing the state troops provides that they may not be called into Federal service as units, it also provides that membership in the troops shall not act to bar any person being called to service as an individual, said Hiltz.

The 31st Internal Security Regiment under the command of Colonel John D. McDaniels, has the responsibility for Wayne County with headquarters at 15000 West Eight Mile Road. The regiment drills every Thursday night from 8 to 10 p.m. at the Detroit Artillery Armory.

While providing security for the state, the guard also gives training to carpenters, plumbers and radar men.

Bloom Announces Soliciting Chairmen

C. Harold Bloom, Northville chairman for the 1952 Red Cross Fund Drive, has announced district chairmen for solicitations in Northville. Chairmen select their own workers and contact villages at home and at business places. The drive ends March 31. Bloom and Co-Chairman Dr. W. Leonard Howard are chairmen of two districts. Other chairmen are Miss R. M. Knapp, Mr. M. P. Mitchell, and Mesdames C. C. Winter, A. C. Parmenter, E. M. Bogart, E. W. Ebert, W. E. McCarthy, H. A. Sedat, A. M. Allen, F. E. Van Atta, H. H. Hartner, J. P. Litsenberger, J. Siok, R. M. Terrill, W. L. Howard, A. G. Orphan, W. Harris and W. L. Couse.

F.T.C. Uncovers Rabbit in Milady's New Fur Coat

From the Federal Trade Commission in Washington came a new edict recently that will not, we believe, be greeted with any loud cheers by the ladies. It is, in effect, that a spade must be called a spade in so far as describing the nature of the fur in a lady's coat. More to the point, a dog must be called a dog instead of a Manchurian wolf when it comes to his fur being made up into a coat. The mighty Baltic lion shrinks down to a mere rabbit while the Hudson seal becomes a muskrat dipped in dye, and the mink sable is a furrier's name for the bassarisk, a small cat-like animal that inhabits parts of the southwest and Mexico.

The Federal Trade Commission has published its guide listing names of 100 hair, fleece, and fur bearing animals. These names must be stamped on all fur coat labels under provisions of the Fur Products Labeling Act, which goes into effect August 9 of this year.

The guide calls a spade a spade—or in this case—a rabbit a rabbit. It lists only the accepted English names for the animals or the names by which the critters are commonly known. The F.T.C. asserts this means that the American housewife will now know what kind of animal she's wearing.

To make sure the fur coat makers get the idea, the F.T.C.'s guide lists not only the animal's English name but also its order, family and genus-species.

For example, a squirrel, according to the government guide, belongs to the order of rodentia, its family name is sciuridae and its genus-species is known among the museum people as sciurus vulgaris. Fur coat manufacturers need not brush up their zoology, however. All they have to do is slap on their labels the term "squirrel."

The commission relented somewhat in the use of the term "lamb." If a furrier uses the hair off the back of a young Karakul sheep, he can label the coat "Persian lamb" or "broadtail lamb." If he shears the skin so that it stands up in a dense bush, or nap, he can call it "mouton lamb." All other fancy names, however, are out.

The F.T.C. doesn't pretend it knows all there is to know about animals and where they come from. The commission was helped out in its compilation by the Interior Department's Wild Fur Animal Investigators Division and the Agriculture Department's Bureau of Animal Industry. Credit for the scientific classification of the animals, the F.T.C. said, goes to Dr. Remington Kellogg, director of the U. S. museum and curator of mammals.

WHAT ARE TODAY'S FACTS ABOUT NEW CAR ENGINES AND POWER STEERING?

LAST YEAR Chrysler introduced its new FirePower V-8 engine, and America's first passenger-car full-time power steering. Both new ideas "took hold" in a big way.

Today, others are announcing "new engines" and "power steering" . . . but with some basic differences worth keeping in mind if you're buying a new car.

First: about "new engines." The fact is, a really new engine design happens only once in a great while. It did happen in the FirePower V-8. Its 180 h.p. was only incidental to its basic new design. Its key idea is a hemispherical combustion chamber, which makes even non-premium gasoline develop more usable power than other designs can get from premium fuel.

Only Chrysler engineering has so far mastered this design. Several cars do have some power increase, in terms of previous designs. The important fact is that FirePower is not a "warmed-over" engine, but brand new in performance, construction, and efficiency.

In power steering, too, there are basic differences.

Chrysler uses hydraulic power, always in effect, to do two things. First, it does 4/5 the steering work as you turn the wheel. Second, we've cut the amount of wheel turn needed by over 1/3.

Parking or cruising, you get more and easier control than ever before. In sand, snow, or ruts, the hydraulic power is always there to keep the front wheels from "steering back" at you. You get the same amount and feel of control all the time . . . full-time ease, and full-time safety.

Actually, the differences, both in engine performance and in steering safety and ease are impossible to put in words . . . but just as impossible to feel the moment you get into a Chrysler and drive it! Why not see your Chrysler dealer and do that, soon?

Keep Them Warm... Keep Them Alive

Every chick you save in the early spring means extra money in your pocket later. On the John Wobser farm in Monroe County electric heat lamps do the "mothering"—and chicks thrive in the warm, healthful heat they provide. In the picture above, Mrs. Wobser and her Edison Farm Service Advisor are inspecting a fast-growing flock that was raised this modern way.

Reddy Kilowatt says:

Wiring is always important. So always ask your Farm Service Advisor about it.

Under electric heat lamps, your chicks (pigs and lambs, too) eat heartily, get plenty of exercise and grow sturdy in short order. Litter stays dry—and the young stock requires little attention.

For additional information on electric heat lamp brooding, call or write your Edison Farm Service Advisor. He'll be glad to help you—without obligation.

School Practice Helps to Prepare Future Teachers

A practice teaching system similar to those used in most accredited teachers' colleges has been functioning in the Northville High School for the past two years. To assist the teachers of the Northville school system as well as to give the high school students experience in their proposed profession, the Ida B. Cooke chapter of the Future Teachers of America was formed.

Though most of the 10 to 12 grade students in the club are practice teaching under members of the grade school faculty, those hoping to work in the upper grades are also given the chance to test their skills.

The club not only assists the teachers, but one person from the club coordinates the schedule for the entire semester's work. Lois Rossow acted as coordinator for the first semester and Dorothy Benton has worked with Mrs. Martha Egge, third grade teacher, this semester.

The group meets twice a month as a club for panel discussions on the importance of personality in life adjustments and to discuss any problems that have come up during their teaching experience. Under the guidance of the faculty committee, composed of Mrs. Egge, Mrs. Pauline Smith and Charles Yahné, the students also talk over the importance of understanding oneself and thus making satisfactory personal and social adjustments.

The faculty committee members have found that practice teaching has provided members of the group with the incentive to better their own classwork and to find a definite place for themselves, said Mrs. Smith.

"The grade school teachers enjoy working with the students, as they are very helpful in assisting with the development of attitudes and skills of the pupils," commented C. T. Piegler, principal of the grade school.

Mary Lou Litsenberger is president of the group, with Walter Newton as vice-president, Mary Lou Waite as secretary and Joanne Rowe as treasurer. Roberta Mallott, Jane Beckel, Marjorie Johnson, Sandra Schoof, Marianne Radliff and Sharon Teskha are members of the club.

Activities League Elects Officers

The Wayne-Oakland Activities League elected new officers at a meeting last week. They will take office July 1.

New president will be Max Miller, principal of Clarenceville High School. Robert Klingman, Clarkston High School principal, will be the new vice-president, and Robert Wall, principal of Brighton High School, will be secretary-treasurer.

Brighton and Keego Harbor were admitted to the league this year, joining Northville, Holly, Milford, Clarkston and Clarenceville.

Moved by Peters, supported by Eaton that these bills be paid.

Atty. James Littell reported that Mr. Fred Bartholomew had agreed to accept $400.00 for the parcel of land owned by him on the south side of Main St. which the Village wishes to acquire to complete its alley and parking lot project, and that Mr. Bartholomew was present with the deed prepared to complete the transaction. Moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Peters, that the Village pay to Mr. Bartholomew the $400.00 as agreed and obtain the deed at this time. Carried.

In accordance with the opinion rendered by Atty. Littell as to whether the monies presently in the Building Fund, so-called, can be earmarked so as to guarantee that they will be used for the acquisition or construction of a community building and for no other purpose, it was moved by Comm. Ely, supported by Comm. Peters, that the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS, the Village presently has on deposit in a fund designated "Building Fund" twenty-seven hundred ninety-five and 93/100 dollars ($159,000.00) in investments consisting of the following:

Certificate of Deposit-Dep. State Bk.-due 11-26-52	$24,000.00
United States Savings Bonds-Series "G" dated 12-1-46 $1,000.00	22,000.00

" " " " 2's 12-12-54/52	60,000.00
" " " " 2 1/4's 9-15-59/56	22,000.00

being the net proceeds received from the Northville Downs Ass'n., together with certain increment thereon, during the past racing meets, and

WHEREAS, it has always been the intent of this Commission to use these monies for the purpose of acquiring and/or constructing a community building within the Village of Northville, and WHEREAS, it is the desire of this Commission to formally create and establish a public improvement fund for acquisition and/or construction of such community building pursuant to charter and general law of the State,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that there be forthwith transferred and placed in this public improvement fund the cash sum of $2,795.93 and the one hundred and fifty-nine thousand dollars ($159,000.00) in investments heretofore described presently in the so-called "Building Fund" and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the net proceeds received annually from the Northville Downs Association, over and above properly allocated and chargeable expenses of the Village thereto, be annually allocated to the aforesaid "Public Improvement Fund" for the acquisition and/or construction of a Community Building until such time as said community building has been acquired or constructed. Motion was carried unanimously.

Nelson Schrader, Jr., president of the Northville Retail Merchants Ass'n., reported that their organization had canvassed those streets in the Village which are not paved to find out what the feeling in the community is regarding the bonding of the Village to pave those streets, and they found it was the consensus that they would be willing to bond through not on a special assessment basis. He stated that the Retail Merchants Ass'n. would be willing to get the necessary number of signatures on petitions to bring this matter to a vote of the people, and he was instructed by the Village Commission to do so.

Comm. Woodworth was instructed to get figures on putting the Village Clock in running condition before the budget is presented. As requested by the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, it was moved by Comm. Eaton, supported by Comm. Woodworth, that the Liquor Control Commission be notified that the Village Commission approves the renewal of existing licenses. Carried.

Moved by Stubenvoll, supported by Peters, that the Resolution as prepared by the Wayne County Treasurer authorizing him to act as representative and agent of the Village of Northville for the purpose of approving the application of the property owners to pay the 1948 and prior years' taxes and accept the necessary monies, same to be forwarded to Lansing by the Wayne County Treasurer, be adopted. Carried.

John Miller, of Green Ridge Nursery, reported that he had completed the work on trees for which money was appropriated and that 37 trees had been dropped at an average cost of $11.75. Mr. Miller stated that he would have to run over the appropriation made in order to complete the work he had started by about $150.00 and was instructed to complete his program.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned.

Supt. Herman Hartner reported that the street light at Main and Hutton is now slated to be installed about July 1st.

Moved by Woodworth, supported by Eaton that these reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried.

Comm. Stubenvoll stated that he felt the editorial appearing in the Northville Record regarding financing parking lots by the issuance of revenue bonds against parking meter receipts was a good idea and should be looked into. The Finance committee was instructed to get information as to what the Village must do to adopt such a program.

Health Comm. Chabot reported that the mobile unit had taken 349 Chest X-rays at the High School and 659 at the Village Hall, a total of 1008, which was a slight increase over the number taken on their previous visit. He also presented his monthly report, which was accepted and placed on file.

Moved by Eaton, supported by Peters, that the Police Dept. be authorized to enforce the State Law regarding the age limit (which is 17) at which juveniles may frequent pool rooms. Carried.

Atty. James Littell presented a written agreement between the Township and the Village regarding the housing of the tank truck owned by the Township, which the Township felt the Village should execute to validate the verbal agreement made by the Township to pay on a rental basis for caretaker relief in return for housing such truck in the Fire Hall. The Commission did not feel they should bind the Village to an agreement for twenty years as stated in the one presented, but it was moved by Eaton supported by Woodworth, that if agreeable to the Township they would sign an agreement for a five-year period, which was carried.

Mr. Littell also reported that Clifford Cranson had agreed to convey the 4 ft. of land which the Village wishes to acquire to complete alley and parking lot project, without monetary consideration, but that he will not consent to the 6 ft. walkway on the east side of the Northville Drug Co. now belonging to the Village being closed at any time, as he has an easement allowing him access to the 6 ft. It was moved by Peters, supported by Stubenvoll, that the agreement presented to be executed between the Village and Clifford Cranson be accepted and executed to complete the transaction. Carried.

No further business appearing, meeting was adjourned.

Modification of Basic College at MSC Now Under Consideration by Faculty

Modification of the basic college, Michigan State College's general education program, is under consideration by the faculty of the college.

A proposed reorganization plan, based on an intensive six-month study, has been recommended by Dr. Clifford E. Erickson, dean of the basic college. The faculty of the college will take first official action within a few weeks. The proposal then will go to the State Board of Agriculture for final approval.

The proposal would reduce the number of basic courses from seven to four. All students would be required to take all four courses in contrast to the present system which requires five of the seven. Total course credits would remain at 45.

If approved, the plan will become effective in fall term, 1952. Dean Erickson said provisions would be made for those students already enrolled under the present system.

The four new basic courses would be communications, science, social science and humanities. Communications will account for nine credit hours; the other courses will be taken for 12 hours each. The total, 45-hour-credits in basic college courses is slightly less than one-fourth of the total requirements for graduation.

This is the first major revision of the Basic College since it was established in 1944. However, in an effort to continually improve the curriculum, minor changes have been made from time to time, Dr. Erickson said.

The new plan actually is a part of an over-all program of course reorganization and improvement for the entire college. This project has been under study for the past year by a committee headed by Dr. William H. Combs, administrative assistant to the president in charge of academic affairs.

Dr. Combs said the proposed basic college revisions seems to fit perfectly into the long range modernization plans for all course offerings of the college.
