

Maybury Sanatorium to Study Tuberculosis "Wonder Drug"

Is the new "wonder drug" INAH (isonicotinic acid hydrazide) superior to drugs now in use for the treatment of tuberculosis, as was reported recently in news stories that received nationwide publicity and brought new hope to thousands of afflicted persons?

Every doctor concerned with treatment of the disease hopes the answer is "yes", but months of intensive study on a broad scale will be necessary before this can be known for certain.

Maybury Sanatorium is one of the 15 larger and more progressive tuberculosis hospitals in the United States that have joined with the United States Public Health Service in a nationwide clinical study to determine if the new drug is as effective as was indicated by the scanty clinical studies upon which the publicity was based.

Dr. Howard on Committee
Dr. W. L. Howard, Maybury medical superintendent, is a member of a 15-man national committee of hospital representatives which will meet at frequent intervals while the study is in progress to evaluate the interim findings in all the cases to be treated with INAH. Dr. Paul Chapman, of Herman Kiefer Hospital, Detroit, which also is cooperating in the study, is another Michigan committee member.

They, together with representatives of the other 13 hospitals involved in the study of INAH, met in Washington last week to work with the Division of Chronic Diseases and Tuberculosis to plan the study and formulate the working policy. They have determined the kinds of cases of pulmonary tuberculosis to be studied, the treatment regimens to be used and the manner of recording the results.

Treatment to Start April 15
Supplies of the new drug are to be made available to the 15 hospitals by April 15 so the treatment can be started then. Maybury Sanatorium will study its effect in 130 carefully screened cases, with each patient assigned to a course of nine months. During this period, detailed observations of the clinical laboratory and x-ray changes will be made and reported to headquarters in Washington.

It will be many months before the results of this study will permit proper evaluation of INAH, according to Dr. Howard. Its progress will be of great interest to the medical profession everywhere, he said.

Questions to be Answered
Dr. Leonard A. Scheele, surgeon general of the Public Health Service, lists the following as critical questions to be answered by the study:

1. Will INAH be as effective as the present treatment with streptomycin and para-aminosalicylic acid?
2. Will x-ray findings show as favorable changes as the clinical findings reported in the recent publicity stories?
3. Will the tubercle bacillus become resistant to the new drug? If so, how quickly?
4. Will the drug be useful for streptomycin-resistant patients?
5. Should this drug be used alone, or in combination with streptomycin to achieve the maximum therapeutic effect?

BB Pellets Break School Windows

Pellets from BB guns have ruined six expensive windows in the Catholic School now under construction at the corner of Thayer Boulevard and Orchard Drive, said Police Chief Joseph Denton Wednesday. The acts of vandalism apparently occurred during last week end. He wanted that police will confiscate any guns if boys are apprehended during breakage, and that parents will be charged with property damages.

Chief Denton also emphasized that bicycle riders must observe the same traffic rules as automobiles. He said they should travel on the right side of streets, stop for stop signs and signal for turns.

"There are always more bicycles on the streets during the spring and summer," he said. "We discourage double-riding by the boys because accidents are more likely to happen, and both boys are usually hurt."

Council to Consider Village UF Drive

A representative of the United Foundation will attend the Northville Coordinating Council meeting Thursday, April 17, at the public library to speak to the group about the advisability of conducting a UF drive in the Village next year.

F. W. Sterner, Coordinating Council president, urges all members to attend the meeting at 7:15 p.m.

Dr. W. L. Howard

imum therapeutic effect?
6 From the public health point of view, will the new drug render patients non-contagious? In this respect, how will it compare with other forms of therapy?

7 Will the new drug have toxic effects?
8 What will happen to patients when the drug is withdrawn?

Committee Seeks Early Answers
In deciding that the 15-man national committee will meet at frequent intervals the aim is to permit reaching conclusions at the earliest possible moment so the drug can be made available to all tuberculosis patients as soon as possible.

Dr. Scheele pointed out that even though INAH is found to live up fully to the claims made for it, it cannot be expected to eliminate tuberculosis by itself. The currently effective x-ray programs to discover new cases must go on and the efficient hospital treatment program must be continued until the last case of tuberculosis is cured, he said.

The cooperative research method to be used with INAH was developed by the Public Health Service to test new drugs and treatments quickly on a wide scale. In 1950, a similar research project studied more than 500 patients in 10 hospitals for seven months to learn the combined effect of streptomycin and PAS (para-aminosalicylic acid) now used widely against tuberculosis.

Lt. Hughes Killed in Action in Korea

Marine Lt. Gordon Hughes has been killed in action in Korea, according to word received last Saturday from the War Department by his parents, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William Hughes, of Milan, Mich. They were notified on Friday that Lt. Hughes was listed as missing in action. The Rev. Hughes was pastor of the Northville First Methodist Church for three years between 1947 and 1950.

After enlisting and receiving an appointment in the Naval Air Reserve in 1949, Lt. Hughes was commissioned at the Pensacola, Fla., Naval Air Station Feb. 28, 1951. He completed Marine jet aircraft training at Cherry Point, N.C., and was transferred to the Marine Corps Reserve as an F-9-F jet pilot. He was sent to Korea shortly after spending the Christmas holidays with his family in Milan last year.

Lt. Hughes was born in Norway, Mich., in 1929, and was graduated from Highland Park High School and Highland Park Junior College. He served aboard the USS Wright, USS Monterey, USS Tarawa and the USS Midway while in service.

He is survived by his parents, a sister, Mrs. Ralph State, of Detroit, and his grandmother, Mrs. William Seals.

Earl Hollis Opens Real Estate Office

Earl J. Hollis, a licensed broker, opened a new real estate office this week at his home address, 16933 Northville Road. The new agency will be called Midway Exchange, Hollis said, and will handle residential, farm and business properties.

Hollis has been a real estate salesman in Northville, Detroit and Rosedale Gardens for eight years and has lived in Northville since birth.

New Registration For Thayer District

Because the newly annexed Thayer School District No. 10, fractional, lies in both Northville and Salem Townships, residents of the district must register with one of the two township clerks if they wish to vote in the annual school election June 9, said Thayer District Moderator Roy M. Terrill, pointing out an error in last week's Record.

Residents of the district west of Napier Road in Salem Township must register with Clerk Mrs. John M. Waldecker, at Salem. Residents of Northville Township east of Napier Road must register with Clerk Fred Lyke, of Northville. Residents of the Oakwood Subdivision in Oakland County must register with Novi Township Clerk Earl Banks at Novi.

Elector previously have been permitted to register with either their township clerk or at the Northville High School.

Boys Greet Spring With Kite Contest

Spring got an unofficial but enthusiastic welcome last Saturday when more than 70 boys sent kites into the air at Ford Field in the annual Kite Flying Contest sponsored by the Northville Recreation Department.

Recreation Director Wilson Funk supervised the contest and Police Chief Joseph Denton and Patrolman Daniel Singer acted as judges in the four events.

The first event, for boys under 12 years of age, was won by Douglas DeJohn, who coaxed his kite highest in the air at the end of the 30-minute time limit. Fred Mitchell, Robert Lyke and William Juday placed second, third and fourth, respectively.

Two father and son teams won the second event, also based on the greatest height of kites at the end of 30 minutes. Fred Mitchell and his father placed first, and Fred Lyke and father were second.

The third event extended the time limit to 45 minutes for boys over 12. Roger Smith was first; Joseph Wooten, second; N. C. Schrader, third, and Michael Willis, fourth.

In the last event, boys under eight were required to get their kites airborne without aid and Daniel Collins was named winner by the judges. William Elwell was second; Fred Lyke, third, and Robert Larson, fourth.

Beall Returns From Job in Mexico

Lloyd M. Beall of South Center St. returned to Northville Sunday night after completing his work with the Mexican Federal Power Commission in the reconstruction of a power plant purchased three years ago from the Ford Valve Plant in Northville. Mr. Beall left in July, 1951 to assume his job as superintendent of construction and operation.

The reconstruction job is now complete and the modern plant on the private 200,000-acre ranch of the president of Mexico near El Canelo, Tamaulipas, Mex., is in operation.

When the Mexican government purchased the power plant from the local Ford factory, it was with the understanding that the Ford Motor Co. would supply a qualified engineer to supervise the reconstruction. Mr. Beall supervised the installation of the $200,000 steam power plant in the local Ford plant in 1936 when it was purchased by Henry Ford. He served as chief engineer for the local plant for 15 years and will return to the plant in that capacity.

Mr. Beall, who is recognized as an authority on Diesel engines, has been with the Ford Motor Co. for 34 years. He served as chief engineer on the Ford Motor Co. boats for 15 years previous to his Northville appointment.

Hobbyist to Lead Discussion Group

Mrs. Clifford Sinden is shown with some of the ceramic objects which she will display at the Small Business Clinic in East Lansing this week end. Mrs. Sinden will lead the discussion on the development and sale of ceramics.

Ceramics Hobby Develops Into Profit for Mrs. Sinden

Mrs. Clifford Sinden, of Taft Road, will lead a discussion group interested in the development and sale of ceramics at the Small Business Clinic of the Michigan Federation of Business and Professional Women to be held this week end at East Lansing. In doing so, she will draw upon her own experience in turning a hobby in ceramics into a profitable business.

The Small Business Clinic will be the second to be held in connection with the continuing education program of Michigan State College.

Mrs. Sinden's hobby started in 1949 with a course in making ceramic pins and figurines given by Doris Grehl in Detroit. Her first sale was made four months after starting the course. She has since sold her work to customers in nearly every state.

Equipment Not Costly
Contrary to popular belief, Mrs. Sinden said, the equipment to set up her business was very inexpensive. Her first kiln for firing her ceramics, which she and her husband assembled from a kit, cost only $21. When it came to assembling the tools for her ceramic work, Mrs. Sinden was no exception to the saying that "women can make something out of nothing". A 5x6-foot breakfast room in the Sinden home has been converted into a workshop. Her "tools" include a rolling pin and a tea stainer. With the latter she forms the stems of the flowers for her pins and earrings. The rolling pin is used to roll out the clay.

Flowers of every variety are found in her garden of jewelry but the pansy jewelry which she originated has been her best seller, said Mrs. Sinden. She fashioned her first pansy from a greeting card picture. These intricate flowers she can now make ready for their first firing in less than five minutes. Last year she made at least 200 flowers.

Makes Own Molds
Her wares include decorated boxes and figurines which are made from molds. Obviously these pieces show less originality than the jewelry pieces, she said. Mrs. Sinden has given each of her pixie figurines made from molds a personality of its own. One little boy watches the activity of the ants on their hill while another group of daisies is engaged in a dice game.

Molds can be made of original designs, said Mrs. Sinden. The object must be coated with a separator and then a two-piece mold made with dental plaster.

Pieces Fire 3 1/2 Hours
The kiln, which is made in three layers of refractory bricks, can be opened for loading on all sides as well as at the top. Nearly $200 worth of merchandise can be fired at one time, said Mrs. Sinden. Most pieces require three and one-half hours for firing, and seven hours to cool. This allows Mrs. Sinden to fire once in the morning and again in the evening. For regular ceramics, the kiln temperature must range from 1328-1804 degrees.

"Marie Sinden Ceramics" have been exhibited by a New York jewelry store and Simmons Jewelry in Plymouth as well as at the 1951 Small Business Clinic, of the Northville Business and Professional Women's Club vocation and avocation show and hobby show.

The boys were selected by the organizations from a list chosen by their classmates at the high school. Scheffer, Burgess and Howarth are sophomores. DeJohn, Rackov and Sullivan are juniors.

Dr. L. W. Snow has offered to give the boys physical examinations without charge, Simmons said.

Local Legion Post Opposes Veteran Bills in Congress

The Lloyd H. Green Post 147, American Legion, has taken a stand in opposition to recommendations on veteran affairs by the Hoover Commission, according to Paul Burnham, commander. It is asking Legionnaires and friends of the Legion to write Senators Homer Ferguson and Blair Moody and Representative George A. Dondero to ask that they vote against bills before Congress to create a veterans' insurance corporation, a new U. S. Department of Health and calling for reorganization of the Veterans' Administration. A letter which can be clipped and used for this purpose is printed on page 8.

Burnham said these bills, if enacted, would:

1. Make the administration of veterans' affairs more costly by hopelessly complicating them;
2. Create duplication, triplication and even quadruplication in government function where none now exists;
3. Vastly multiply the red tape that faces the veteran with a claim;
4. Set government hiring back by removing the last remaining brakes to the system of hiring in civil service;
5. Break up the best government hospital system now centered in the hands of the Veterans' Administration, and vastly reduce the amount and quality of care available to veterans.

The local Legion Post's opposition to legislation it terms "anti-veteran" is keyed to a national Legion drive against the same legislation.

Board Approves Zoning Amendment

The Northville Township Board adopted an amended Northville Township Zoning Ordinance at its meeting Tuesday night.

The ordinance had been approved previously by the County Zoning Commission and the County Coordinating Zoning Committee and a public hearing was held Feb. 28 under sponsorship of the Township Board.

The board also passed an ordinance prohibiting grass fires without permit in the township, excluding the Village of Northville.

The zoning ordinance amendment represents several months' work on the part of the board, including wide study of zoning practices in other communities. Robert H. Schafer, board chairman, describes it as an effort to foresee and provide in advance for problems which will arise as population of the area increases. Certain ambiguous provisions of the ordinance were eliminated, and the ordinance given "teeth," which have heretofore been lacking.

The ordinance was recorded in the Feb. 21 issue of the Record and will be printed again next week.

Legion Post 147 to Honor Allied Vets

Plans for the annual dinner honoring Allied Veterans of Northville on Saturday, April 5, at the Veterans' Memorial Hall are complete. The pot-luck sponsored by the Lloyd H. Green Post 147, American Legion will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Veterans of the British, Canadian, French and Italian armies as well as American veterans of the two world wars will attend. W. N. Storey, British consul general at Detroit, and B. B. Scott, of the Canadian consul's office, will be guests of the post. Music and a short program are planned for the evening.

Each couple is asked to bring a passing dish and their own table service.

Ellison at Chicago School Meeting

High School Principal E. V. Ellison will return Friday from Chicago, where he has participated in meetings as a member of the accrediting committee for the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. The meeting began last Monday.

Plans for Community Building Discussed By Optimist Club

Architectural plans and layout of the proposed Northville Community Building were shown to members of the Optimist Club last Thursday evening by Walter L. Couse, president of Walter L. Couse & Co.

Club members were told by Couse that if the Village desires to construct the building this year, he has been assured by the National Production Authority that necessary materials will be made available for the purpose. He warned, however, that the government is faced with thousands of similar requests for materials and that it is necessary for Northville's application to be placed as quickly as possible if it is to be acted upon in time for construction to get under way before late in 1952.

Advocate Bond Issue
Financing to enable construction to start was discussed at considerable length, with the consensus of opinion favoring a bond issue of approximately $200,000, to be repaid out of the annual revenues of approximately $20,000 from Northville Downs. This

The Northville Record presents this week as a public service, detailed drawings of the layout of the basement and ground floor of the proposed Community Building. Turn to Page 2.

Martin Announces Candidacy For Seat in U. S. Congress

Announcement was made yesterday by Homer Martin of Plymouth that he would be a candidate on the Republican ticket for Congress in this district at the coming fall elections. Creation of a new 17th Congressional district will make it necessary for the election of an entirely new representative in Congress from this area this year. Present Congressman George A. Dondero will no longer serve in the 17th district but will seek reelection in Oakland County which now comprises the 18th district.

Mr. Martin has made his home in the Plymouth area since 1943 coming here after serving many years in labor organizations as first international president of the U.A.W. - C.I.O. and later as president of the U.A.W. - A.F. of L. In 1940 he severed his union connections and became a manufacturer agent continuing in this field of endeavor until 1947 when he organized the V-Seal Corporation of Royal Oak. He served as president of that company until 1950, when he sold his interests and organized his own home improvement company.

A graduate of William Jewell Baptist College of Liberty, Mo. and later The Kansas Baptist Theological Seminary of Kansas City, Kan., he is an ordained Baptist minister and served in that capacity for 12 years.

He resides with his wife and two sons in Plymouth and is active in the affairs of the Farm Bureau Federation, the Kiwanis Club and the Masonic lodge.

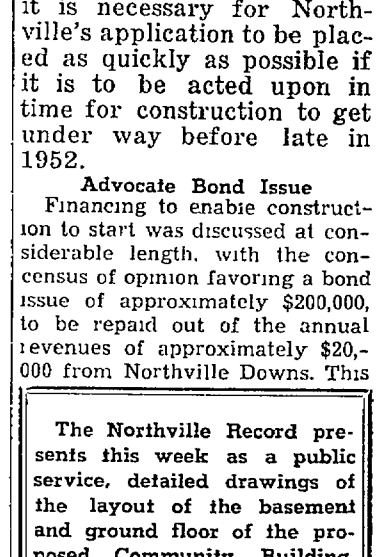

Easter Seal Sale at Quota Midpoint

Chairman Edward F. Angove reported that $827 has been contributed, as of Tuesday, to the Easter Seal Appeal by Northville residents. The Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc., hopes to raise $1,500 in Northville, and a total of $20,000 in Wayne County outside of Detroit. The Northville drive is conducted by the Northville Rotary Club.

The Michigan Society, now in its twentieth year, furnishes treatments, appliances, equipment, surgical and medical care, homebound teaching, speech therapy and other services to crippled children and adults. The annual sale of Easter Seals provides the funds for the work.

"If you know a crippled child who needs help from us," Angove said, "telephone Logan 1-3320 or Wayne 2455 for information."

sum, together with the approximately $160,000 that has been saved by the Village out of such revenues in recent years, would pay for the building. It was pointed out that as long as racing continues in Northville, the Village is assured of income to retire the bond issue without cost to taxpayers.

Also pointed out was the fact that while Northville has been saving $160,000 for construction of a Community Building, the cost of such a building has risen even faster than the Village's savings. This was cited as an argument toward an immediate start of construction, rather than continuing the previous policy of postponing a start until funds had been accumulated to pay for the building entirely with cash.

Couse advanced the additional argument that erection of the Community Building now will enable the Northville High School to postpone construction of an addition for several years. Present plans call for use of the Community Building auditorium, gymnasium and cafeteria, which would make it possible for the High School to convert its present gymnasium and basement into class room space that is badly needed now. As consideration for use of Community Building facilities, the High School would agree to provide heat and other maintenance for the Community Building.

It also was pointed out that adequate space would be available in the Community Building to house the Village offices, including quarters for a new jail in the basement. The present Village Hall at the corner of West Main and Wing Streets, which is not especially suited for the purpose it is serving, could be disposed of for commercial purposes, it was said.

Rolling Down The River

by the PETZ BROS.

Well, here it is April once again and a matron we know, asks us to remind all young ladies that leap year doesn't last forever and that while a career is a pretty good thing, it's almost impossible to run your fingers through its hair.

Which reminds us that at one time this country was ruled by Indians, there was no public debt, no taxes and all work is taken care of by the women. Then along comes a couple of wisecracking white men and have to civilize the joint.

But then again, if they don't come around, you will not be here selling you the finest car that modern science has yet devised. It's the Studebaker for 1952, of course, with its miracle V-8 engine. How these guys at the factory can cram so much power and so much rugged dependability into such a compact package we'll never know, but we're glad they did. It gives your Studebaker unsurpassable get-away, smooth easy acceleration, and so much reserve power, you'll never use it at all. Economical too, and you'll have to drive a sleek new Studebaker to fully appreciate its extra performance.

So this day a fellow with a brand new Studebaker comes in to tell us he thinks the car is swell and will give it that first check-up so he can be on his way. The boys take the car into the shop and he spends a bit of time telling us of his young daughter and her trip to the doctor for a bit of check-up of her own. The doctor looks here and there and then presses the chest of the little girl quite firmly. "No use Doctor," she says, "I press there too and it won't squeak for me either."

Come to think of it, that car of yours won't do much squeaking either if you let the boys in the shop take it over for a while. A complete lubrication, plus new oil, plus a bit of tune-up will do wonders. It works through a long tough winter and really can use a bit of help along about now. We'll be glad to see you too!

So that's that for this week, but someone tells us, that high heels are an invention of a short girl that gets tired of being kissed goodnight on the forehead.

Yours,

BILL and WILL PETZ.

LET'S BUILD THE COMMUNITY BUILDING NOW

It Can Be Done Without Cost to Taxpayers

Northville did a lot of talking about a Community Building several years ago. It even went so far as to retain a firm of architects to draw plans for such a building, to cost at the time about $168,000. This sum could have been obtained readily through a bond issue at a low rate of interest. It could have been repaid entirely from receipts from Northville Downs, without costing local taxpayers a penny. Had it been built when the plans were drawn, it would be paid for at the conclusion of the 1952 racing situation. And the Village would have had the use of its Community Building all these years.

Instead, the Village Commission in office at the time postponed construction until enough money could be saved out of annual receipts from Northville Downs to build for cash. Such receipts have averaged about $20,000 per year net to the Village, and now amount to approximately $160,000, or nearly what the Community Building would have cost when the plans were drawn.

Unfortunately, construction costs have risen faster than the Village's savings. The same building that could have been built for $168,000 will cost nearly $200,000 more at today's prices, or about $40,000 more than we have saved.

Here we have a prime example of the effect of creeping inflation on the Village's saving program. Each of us has experienced its effect on our own finances. The real value of life insurance purchased in our youth has been cut in half. Personal savings accumulated over a period of years have lost their original purchasing power. Interest upon which we had counted to defray our living costs when we no longer were able to work is insufficient for the purpose.

What is the answer?

So far as Northville's Community Building is concerned, we believe it should be built now — this year — as soon as possible. We do not profess to know what the future trend of prices will be, but we are sure that the proposed increase in wages of the nation's steel workers doesn't indicate any lessening of the inflationary pressures that have been pushing prices upward for many years.

Entirely aside from the valid argument that there is need for a community center to house the dozens of activities of Northville civic organizations, provide badly needed school gymnasium and auditorium facilities, and a convenient center for youth and adult recreation, its construction NOW can be justified solely on economic grounds. It is simply a matter of using an assured income from the race track for the redemption of the debt that will be necessary to construct the building. In ten years the building can be paid for without one cent of cost to Northville taxpayers.

We hope the Village Commission will decide to give voters a chance this spring to approve a bond issue to enable construction to proceed. We are confident that when the voters understand the many uses which a Community Building will serve, they will approve the bond issue by a large majority.

Facts About the Northville Civic Auditorium

Floor plans of the proposed Northville Civic Auditorium, especially drawn for the Northville Record from the original design by Kasurin and Kasurin, Ann Arbor architects and engineers, are shown below so every interested person in the community may visualize the wide range of uses to which the building could be put if it were erected this year.

Land adjoining the Northville High School on the east and fronting on West Main St. was purchased by the Village several years ago as a site. The Civic Auditorium would face north on Main St. about 55 feet from the High School, making it readily accessible for school use. Ample parking space is available at the rear of the site for public parking when large gatherings use the building.

Present thinking of those closest to the project is that the Civic Auditorium should be erected by the Village, and maintained by the Northville school system as partial compensation for use of its gymnasium, auditorium and cafeteria. This plan would enable the High School to convert its present gymnasium and basement into class room space at a large saving over the cost of a new building which otherwise will be necessary in the near future.

An additional important advantage of constructing the Civic Auditorium is that it could house the village offices now located at the corner of West Main and Wing Streets. Ample room would be available without detracting from its ability to serve a wide range of community needs.

Exterior dimensions of the Civic Auditorium are 113' 5" by 163' 8". Its cost, as estimated by the Walter L. Couse Company, would be somewhere between $350,000 and $375,000, depending upon final decisions as to design and construction. Against this cost estimate, Northville has a special building fund of approximately $160,000 which it has accumulated over the past several years from monies paid into the village treasury by Northville Downs. The approximately $200,000 additional that would be required to erect the building would be obtainable through a bond issue which could be paid off in about ten years from future receipts from Northville Downs.

Dr. Kalin Elected Association Head

Dr. Albert G. Kalin, 22375 Haggerty Road, was elected president of the Michigan Chiropractic Association at its annual convention and business meeting held at the Statler Hotel, Detroit, Mar. 21-24. The Michigan group is a division of the National Chiropractic Association.

Dr. Kalin has been president of the Wayne County Division of the Michigan Association for two years, and is secretary-treasurer of the Military Association of Chiropractors, an affiliate of the National Chiropractic Association. He has been a Northville resident for almost three years.

Guests at the official banquet were State Representative Martha W. Griffiths and State Senators Clarence A. Reid and Charles S. Blomdy.

Discussion periods clarified the recently-enacted State Welfare Act, which now includes the chiroprody profession in its provisions, Dr. Kalin said.

Origin of County Names Reviewed

Names of many of Michigan's 83 counties can be traced, oddly enough, to one man, a scholar-explorer who, more than a century ago, married the daughter of a powerful Chippewa chieftain and became an authority on Indians.

Henry Rowe Schoolcraft, head of the Northwest Indian Affairs Bureau, learned much about Indian life and folklore from his part-Indian wife, and published several books about Indians. In 1840 he was commissioned to name the then-remaining untitled counties of Michigan, and to these he gave Indian names.

Dr. Sidney Glazer, Michigan historian on the staff of Wayne University, reviewed the derivation of county names throughout the state. He shows that Schoolcraft originally picked names for 28 of Michigan's counties, 27 of these being of Indian origin. Some of the names were dropped, however, when a feud developed between Schoolcraft and Charles O'Malley, then a member of the State Senate.

The first county to receive an official name was Wayne, named in 1796 after the Revolutionary hero, General Anthony Wayne. Dickinson County, the last to be formed in Michigan, was named in 1891 after Don M. Dickinson, Postmaster General of that era.

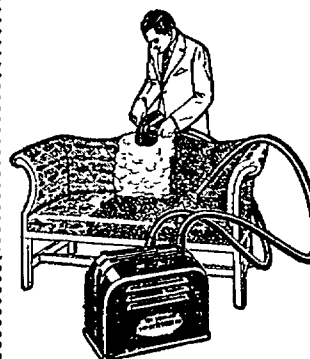

An alarming shortage of college-trained engineers may prove a severe bottleneck to both civilian and defense production by 1955, according to Dean Lorin G. Miller of the Michigan State College school of engineering. U.S. industry, already operating with fewer engineers than it needs, will be 60,000 short by 1955.

Civil Air Patrol Members Fly to Navy Open House

The Plymouth Squadron of the Civil Air Patrol flew to the United States Naval Station at Grose Isle, Mich., last Sunday for an open house held for Michigan CAP units and their cadets.

The open house demonstrated several methods of getting aircraft back on the ground in the face of heavy fog and other adverse weather conditions. One of the demonstrations was of a radar system called Ground Controlled Approach, during which the radarsmen on the ground instruct the pilot, controlling his movements by watching his plane's movement on four radar screens.

The navy also demonstrated message pick-ups employing vertical poles with a taut line strung across its tips, and message drops, which makes use of easily-identifiable containers.

Novi Correspondent at Work

Mrs. L. C. Rix, Novi correspondent for the Northville Record, phones neighbors and friends for news items for her weekly column, "News From Novi".

Correspondent For Northville Record Is Familiar Figure to Novi Villagers

When residents of Novi think of the Northville Record, they're very likely to think in terms of Mrs. L. C. Rix who has been Novi correspondent for this newspaper for more than 12 years, almost as long as she has lived in Novi.

The village or country correspondent has become a traditional figure in the world of small-town newspapers. Mrs. Rix serves both her community and the newspaper because of her willingness to search out interesting news items which the newspaper might miss because of the limits of acquaintance and time. In a true sense, she is both the voice and ears of her community.

Mrs. Rix is familiar to most Novi folks. They have come to expect her telephone calls on Mondays asking, "What news do you have for the paper this week?" They encounter her at club gatherings and civic meetings. They provide her with news items about their visitors and visits, their social meetings and drives, their schools and their children, about all of the things which are not world-moving, but which are interesting to them . . . things they want to see in the newspaper.

Mr. and Mrs. Rix make their home on First Street in Novi and Mr. Rix commutes to Plymouth where he is employed by the Dunn Steel Products Co. A daughter, Mrs. David O'Leary, lives in New Hudson. One son, Edward, lives with his wife on Plymouth, and the other, Victor, is an engineer with the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington, D. C.

When asked what the middle initial in her husband's name stands for, Mrs. Rix said, "We've never known. The initial comes from the name of a Civil War captain who was in the same regiment with Luther's father."

In her spare time, Mrs. Rix is interested in ceramics, and, as a member of the Audubon Society, is a bird watcher.

"I enjoy being Novi correspondent," Mrs. Rix said. "I regard it as a service to the community, and I get to talk to a great many people I might not otherwise meet."

She learned one of the first rules of newspaper work, learning to check facts, early in her career, she said. False news can be passed on by very reputable and honest people simply because they don't know the information is distorted.

The greatest handicap to a correspondent is a strike by telephone workers, Mrs. Rix explained. Although Novi people bring news items to her home or place them in her post office box, the majority of her work is conducted on the phone. "When the phones are out of business," Mrs. Rix said, "so am I."

Christian Science Churches
Much that mortal man regards as true is found to be untrue in the absolute spiritual sense,
when examined in the light which Christian Science throws on the scriptures. This is brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Unreality" which will be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, April 6.
The Golden Text is from Ecce-lesiastes (5:7): "In the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God."
Among the Bible citations is this passage, (Isa. 29:15): "Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the Lord, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who knoweth us?"

Defective Trees Removed by State

Since 1945, the Michigan Bureau of Plant Industry has removed more than 900,000 insect-infested or diseased fruit trees which were a menace to the fruit industry of the state. About 150,- 000 have been removed annually at an average cost of 17c per tree.

The beneficial results have already showed up in the better fruit produced in Michigan's orchards, stated C. A. Boyer, chief of the bureau. Fruits involved in this program are apples, peaches,
pears, plums, cherries and grapes.
According to Mr. Boyer, 200,000
trees will be removed by June 30 of this year. There are still over a million old trees to be eliminated, and the work is being carried on as rapidly as the necessary funds become available.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 1

Girl Scout Troop 1 started Monday's meeting with a hike to the river near the Race Track, where we had a lunch. After returning to our clubrooms we planned a trip to Detroit on the Streamliner. We will go to WWJ and see Cinderella Week End televised, have lunch, and in the afternoon we will see a movie, "The Greatest Show on Earth".

THE SUFFERING SAVIOUR

A mother and her little girl stood viewing a painting depicting the suffering of Christ upon the cross. The little girl said to her mother, "That man must have done something real bad to be hung on a pole that way." "Oh, no!" her mother replied quickly. "He was a good man. The best man that ever lived." "Well, why did they put him to death then?" was the next question. My reader friend, if you will ponder the scriptural answer to that question you will have the secret of the salvation offered by the Lord to sinful humanity. I Cor. 15:3 says that "Christ died for our sins." I Peter 2:24, "Who his own self bore our sins in his own body on the tree." I Peter 3:18, "For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that He might bring us to God." Anyone can readily see in these references that (1) Christ died because of sin. (2) That sin was not His own but ours. (3) That He died as our substitute (4) The purpose — that He might reconcile us to God. Now the Lord will save anyone who will honestly admit their guilt, believe the facts of his substitutionary death and personally receive Jesus Christ as their Saviour.

Walter Newton Wins Second Place in American Legion Oratory Contest

Walter Newton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Newton, of West Seven Mile Road, moved up a notch this year in his assault on American Legion Oratorical Contest standings.

His oration, "America on Trial", won the district contest March 19, at Northville, and placed second in zone competition March 22, at Flint. He was second in the district last year, and still has a year of high school to go.

The district contest, held at Veterans Memorial Hall, was sponsored by the Lloyd H. Green Post 147, of the American Legion Charles R. Carrington, past commander of the post, was district chairman. Other contestants came from Plymouth and Farmington.

Walter's four-point oration called for strengthening the home, participation in government by the ordinary citizen, the removal of prejudice and a turning to God, if America is going to be preserved.

In addition to the orations, contestants gave four to six-minute extemporaneous speeches with six minutes to prepare their material. The speeches were based on articles of the United States Constitution. Walter scored highest in the oratorical part of the contest, but lost points in the extemporaneous section.

Walter has been a member of the debate squad, coached by Miss Florence Panattoni, for three years, and has a part in the junior play, "Cheaper By the Dozen", this spring. He also is a four-year member of the high school band and a player on the reserve basketball squad.

Walter is not the first of the Newton children to win honors. Alice was valedictorian of the senior class last year, and Cleon, an older brother, won an Exchange Club scholarship the year before.

Years Ago In Northville

Items Taken From the Record's File

One Year Ago—

Voters of Northville and Novi District No. 2 F-1 will go to the polls Tuesday to cast their ballot on the question of whether there shall be levied six mills on all property in the school district for a period of five years.

Volunteer workers at the Red Cross luncheon Friday turned in $1123.85 pushing Northville over its quota of $1000.

Northville followed tradition in the biennial spring election and voted predominantly Republican but the Democratic party vote shows considerably stronger than in previous elections. The Socialist Labor Party ticket received one vote and a few scattered votes were cast for the Prohibition, Progressive and Socialist Workers Party.

About one-tenth of the registered voters turned out to cast their ballots at the Novi Township biennial spring election.

Fire of an undetermined origin Saturday destroyed the Northville Dunbrik Company building located on West Seven Mile Road.

Five Years Ago—

The Shackelford Trophy for 1946, national safety award of the Association of General Contractors of America has been awarded to the firm of Couse and Westfall, of which Walter Couse of Northville is senior member.

Sunday afternoon Forrest Doreen and Harper Britton featured the village of Northville at the Ann Arbor Radio Station. They described the outstanding attractions and the history of the village.

Fifteen Years Ago—

With a showing of a quarter million cubic feet of gas daily at the Kehrl wildcat in Salem Township all drilling has stopped preparatory to shooting the well for gas early next week.

Twenty Years Ago—

Slashing $10,000 from the 1933 school budget, the Northville School Board voted Monday for cuts ranging from 18 to 25 percent in the salaries of teachers and other school employees.

Definite progress marked the third depositors' meeting held Saturday afternoon at the First Presbyterian Church House during which the "moratorium" plans successful at Romulus, Saline and Ypsilanti, were submitted and virtually approved by the depositors of the Northville and Lapham State Savings Bank.

Forty Years Ago—

One of the first pieces of work to be started this spring by the Wayne County Road Commissioners will be the Plymouth Road.

Northville Masons Invited to Hi-12

"Doc" Holland, spotter for Ty Tyson at the Michigan football game broadcasts, was the speaker Wednesday night at the regular dinner-meeting of the Plymouth Hi-12 in the Plymouth Mayflower Hotel. Masons in the Western Wayne County area are invited to attend Hi-12 meetings in the hotel where the dinner begins at 6:30 p.m.

During the past month Plymouth Hi-12 has had the opportunity of hearing Glenn H. Cummings, editor of the Northville Record tell the group problems of editing a small town weekly.

Mayor Jesse Ziegler of Livonia explained the problems brought on by that community's transition from a suburban township to the second largest city in the state in area.

George Harman, Chief of Police of Livonia, told the members of the problems of keeping law and order in a small city with 36 miles of territory. The boy officers of the Plymouth DeMolay reported to their sponsors, the Plymouth Hi-12 Club, on their growth and standing among state DeMolay groups, although the Plymouth group is but two years old.

Novi Lodge News

Five members of Novi Rebekah Lodge attended the Oakland County Past Noble Grand Association at Hazel Park, Thursday, March 27.

Novi Rebekah Lodge No. 482 met in regular session last Thursday, March 27. The charter was draped in memory of Sister Etta M. Smith, assembly secretary of Michigan, by the memorial staff. Sister Smith, who passed away on March 3, had been assembly secretary for the past 33 years, following a year as assembly president.

Sister Hope Sheldon of Bay City, has been appointed to fill the vacancy.

The members of the degree team will meet at the hall for practice and a party on Thursday, April 3.

There will be a pot-luck family night supper at the hall at 6:30 on Monday night, April 7.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 4

Girl Scout Troop 4 met Wednesday, March 26 at the Methodist Church House. Troop 3 came up and we sang some songs. After they left, we worked on our project.

Nancy Littell, Gail Matzen Win Awards For High School Work in Science

Nancy Littell has been named as the 1952 winner of the Bausch and Lomb Honorary Science Award medal for achieving the highest scholastic record in science courses at Northville High School. Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Littell, of West Seven Mile Road.

Winners of this award in high schools throughout the United States are eligible to compete for three scholarships, sponsored by the Bausch and Lomb Optical Co., for training at the University of Rochester.

Gail Matzen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Matzen, of Novi Road, will also be given a Science Award medal at the high school honors convocation late this spring, although she is not eligible to compete for the scholarships.

The Bausch and Lomb awards are based on scholastic achievement in high school subjects, qualities of leadership and extra-curricular activities.

Both girls are laboratory assistants in science courses at Northville High School this year, and both have majored in science. Nancy plans to enter Carleton College, Northfield, Minn., in September, and Gail plans to attend Monticello College, Monticello, Ill.

The Honorary Science Award

Nancy Littell

medal has been presented in thousands of high schools throughout the United States since 1932. The three scholarships given each year, along with several other scholarships established in recent years by other agencies, have been the means of encouraging countless young people to consider scientific careers, said E. V. Ellison, high school principal.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

NON-PARTISAN
NEWS LETTER

When the legislative appropriations committee labored and brought forth a $333 million budget for next year — $32 million more than the present income will produce — the lawmakers settled down for old battle with the almighty dollar.

And the dollar might win.
But not if Sen. George N. Higgins has anything to say about it. The diminutive Higgins who is chairman of the senate's powerful taxation committee, has taken the lead in loophole legislation and is standing over a small pile of proposed laws like a young bear protecting her young.

He's putting new bills for saving money through their paces
with his usual brisk and business-like methods and he hopes to save some $80 million. He's the busiest man in the Senate.

"That'll cover the normal increase in governmental costs," he says testily, "the deficit comes next."

Six Bills to Plug Leaks
Currently there are six bills which would plug leaks in the state's financial tank. They would:

1. Put insurance companies on the same tax basis as stock companies (five mills per dollar of assets) to net the state another $400,000.
2. Put national banks under the same tax as state banks —
four mills on shares of stock, bringing in $600,000.
3. Boost corporation franchise fees from 3½ to four mills and broaden the franchise base to include railroads, interurbans,
telephone and telegraph companies to bring state $10 million more.
4. Change the name of the 3 percent sales tax on liquor to a "liquor handling charge" so it can be shifted from local governments to the state's general fund.
This would net Michigan $1 million the first year and $3.5 million each year thereafter.
5. Increase intangible tax on banks and cut rebate to the cities
from $11 million to $8 million, bringing $6.5 million into state coffers. Intangible tax now brings in $13 million.
6. Put a 3 percent tax on used cars and cut off $3 million now diverted to schools, which would bring in another $12 million.

"Before I get through," says Sen. Higgins, "we'll have taken steps to bring down the deficit."

Constitutional Convention
While these relatively small tax bills — which are so very confusing and super-complicated — are knocking around the two houses, the push for a constitutional convention continues.

The legislature is determined to cut the restricting laws which,
year after year, have been added to our books and which have made a patchwork of our constitution.

First came the 15 mill tax limitation which tied down local governmental units so they couldn't raise enough money to meet increasing costs.

Then a constitutional amendment put all gasoline and car license taxes into an earmarked fund for roads.

Another constitutional amendment gave the civil service commission practical autocracy over state employee wages.

Now that the local units were found to be hamstringed, the highly touted and highly lobbied sales tax diversion amendment was passed to turn 78 cents of every sales tax dollar to the local units.

The state is bankrupt.
In lieu of a constitutional convention — or until such a convention can meet and have a new taxing structure approved by the people — the legislature has pledged to cut and chop and pare to the bone. But such action will bring in relatively small amounts as compared to the estimated $104 million deficit expected by next July.

What will be done? It's easier to see what won't be done. Two things are sure. There will NOT be a corporation tax; there will NOT be a personal income tax.
From there on, it's anyone's guess. Sen. Higgins isn't talking, and the house ways and means committee has accepted Rep.
Victor A. Knox's plan of holding to the budget this year and knocking off the deficit over a period of 10 or more years. That is, of course, if the constitutional convention is not approved
next November.

Who was he who said, "Nothing is sure but death and taxes?"

A woman in California made a 2100-mile telephone call to a St. Louis cab company to have a taxi meet her airliner when it landed.

Village's Mechanical Gadgets Sort, Count Coins From Parking Meters

King Midas may have had fun handing coins in his counting house a few centuries ago, but his speed did not compare with that of modern coin-counting machines.

Your parking meter pennies
and nickels, for example, go through a giddy whirl between the time you fish around in your pocket for them and the time
they eventually reach the bank.
And it's mostly a mechanical whirl.

They're rattled into a container, separated into bins by a sorter
something like the rig which sizes fruit, and then counted by a whirling disc with a mechanical,
grabbing finger which drops
them into paper coin rolls.

Mrs. Mary Alexander, versatile village clerk, stands by while the sorter and counter do their work. "Villagers are quite honest," she says. "Receipts from the meters contain an average of only four or five slugs, washers, beer checks and pieces of play-money each week. Some villagers," she says, "still haven't caught on that meters don't take dimes." Last year, she pulled from the receipts a Dutch coin that nobody has been able to identify.

Members of the Police Department make meter collections
each Tuesday morning, feeding the coins into a funnel which channels them through a flexible metal hose into a cylindrical container. The whole rig is mounted on wheels for easy pushing.

At the Village Hall, Mrs. Alexander uses a homemade scoop a little larger than her hand to slide the coins into the sorter
which feeds them mechanically into a channel from which they drop through appropriately sized holes into bins.

On the counter, the coins go
'round and 'round on a disc.
They're pushed to the outside by centrifugal force, grabbed off by a metal finger and slid into coin rolls.

The parking meters now belong to the village. They were installed in December, 1949, by the Ypsilanti branch of the Mc-Gee-Hale Park-O-Meter Company under an agreement that half of each week's receipts would be kept by the village and the other half would be applied against the cost of the meters.

Northville now has 152 of the metal "minute-minders," at a total cost of $9,286, or about $61
each. The village completed paying for them in December, 1951.
They aren't expensive to maintain, says Mrs. Alexander. Repairs have cost only $48.30 to date.

Receipts go up during the racing season. Highest week was $220.64 in June, 1951. The weekly average is about $180.

State Will Plant Trees, Shrubs For Wildlife Cover, Food

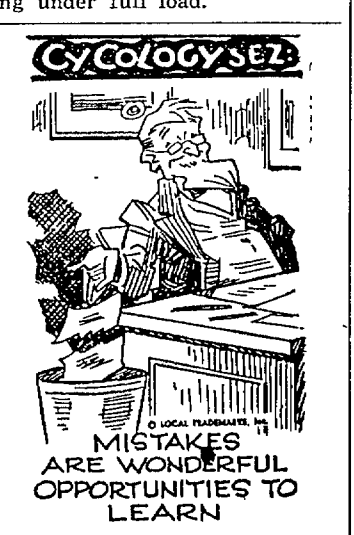

Some 140,000 trees and shrubs
will be planted this spring in 12
southern Michigan state recreation areas to provide future wildlife food and cover, the conservation department announces.

All plantings will be made by supervised prison labor. Inmates put in most of the stock last year.
Locations tabbed for planting
are the Highland, Brighton, Bald Mountain, Island Lake, Holly,
Pinckney, Pontiac Lake, Proud
Lake, Orionville, Metamora,
Rochester-Utica and Waterloo areas.

Stock, supplied by department
nurseries, includes red and white pine, ash, maple and elm seedlings and transplants, as well as multiflora rose, hazel, dogwood,
wild grape and other shrubs.

Of special benefit for pheasants, come additional land will be planted primarily in corn to serve as food patches. Under a sharecrop arrangement, other land will be planted in corn and small grains, with the state's portion left standing for ringneck
and other wildlife use.

The new power plant that will provide electricity for the atomic energy project in Kentucky will burn seven to eight thousand tons of coal a day when it is operating under full load.
